Cullman Christian School gearing up for new location, expansion

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmansense.com

CULLMAN – Cullman Christian School (CCS) is a school on the go, and not always by its own choosing. Originally housed at Eastside Baptist Church, it saw its facilities destroyed along with the church in the 2011 tornado. In the wake of that disaster, Seventh Street Baptist Church graciously opened its doors; and CCS moved across town to a temporary home that it still occupies today.

The staff and faculty of CCS are grateful for the help they have been given, but even as far back as their Eastside days they have looked forward to the day when they can ring the morning bell in their own schoolhouse. That day is getting closer, and folks are beginning to see the future peeking over the horizon.

The school has already acquired 12 acres of land along Golf Course Road near Cross Creek Country Club, and has embarked on P3

Bird flu confirmed in 2 poultry flocks in Pickens and Madison Counties

Daniel Autrey
ADAI

MONTGOMERY – State Veterinarian, Dr. Tony Frazier, on Tuesday confirmed that a flock of chickens at a commercial poultry breeding operation located in Pickens County and a backyard flock located in Madison County have both tested positive for low pathogenic avian influenza (LPAI).

During routine screening, a commercial company collected samples from their Pickens County flock and submitted them to the Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries State Diagnostic Laboratory located in Auburn, Alabama.

These samples, suspected positive for avian influenza, were forwarded to the USDA National Veterinary Services Laboratory (NVSL) in Ames, Iowa.

NVSL confirmed the commercial flock is positive for LPAI. This commercial flock has been placed under quarantine.

While this is different from the highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) virus that has been found recently in the United States, control measures are under way as a precautionary measure.

Cullman PALS preparing for spring cleanup and beautification awards

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmansense.com

CULLMAN – The Cullman County chapter of People Against a Littered State (PALS) met Thursday morning at the Cullman County Economic Development office, with two main agenda items: the 2017 Cullman City/County Cleanup Day, and upcoming community beautification awards.

Cullman City/County Cleanup Day

The 2017 Cleanup Day has been set for Saturday, April 22.

PALS Chapter President Cherrie Haney explained what this event entails, "We would like everybody to clean up at least a mile (of local roads). I would like for everybody to go from their home one mile in one direction and one mile in the other direction. If we have that done, Cullman County would be clean; we wouldn't have to worry about all the litter that there is. If you live in a subdivision or something, find an area there."

Free garbage bags will be available at city halls and town halls around the county, and at the Cullman County Economic Development Office. The County will be setting out dumpsters at the following locations, where people can bring picked-up litter:

West Elementary, East Elementary, Cullman High School, Cold Springs School, Baileyton Town Hall, Colony Community Center, Crane Hill Sulphur Springs, Dodge City fire station, Fairview Community Park, Garden City maintenance area, Good Hope City Hall, behind Hanceville City Hall, Holly Pond Lions Club Park, Jones Chapel School, Vinemont First Baptist Church and West Point Town Hall.

All manner of trash can be dropped off, except tires, paint and chemicals.

2017 Beautification Awards

On June 22, PALS will host an awards luncheon at Camp Meadowbrook, starting at 11:30 a.m., at which it will issue 20 community beautification awards. Ten awards will be given to small businesses, and 10 to large businesses/industries. At that event, PALS will also issue its Clean Campus awards for schools that participate in and promote efforts to keep their facilities clean; first through third place awards will be given in each school category. Tickets will be available for $15, and the event will be catered by Freddie Day.

"We're really excited this year; this is something new for PALS," explained Haney. "This has always been a Chamber event; they've got a new five-year plan, so they're passing off different projects to different organizations. We had asked for this a year or two years ago. It was 'community improvement' awards, but now we're going back to the old beautification awards, because it is beautification. You want to see the nice industries that really do a great job of landscaping their facilities and keeping it clean. We want retail businesses that are able to do that, too. This year, we're only going to do 20, ten in each category; it's going to be very competitive. It will be judged by outside judges; there will not be anybody from Cullman County that's judging these."

When asked what folks need to know about PALS, Haney responded, "My objective is to keep Cullman as clean as it can be, because first impressions are very important. When industry comes in, the first thing they look at is how clean your town is and how good your people are. We've been known for a friendly community, and very welcoming; and what welcomes people more than a clean town?"

For more information on PALS or upcoming events, contact Cherrie Haney at 256-531-4222 or chaney@co.cullman.al.us, or Ashley Graves at 256-775-4696 or agraves@co.cullman.al.us.

Cullman council OKs trial run for pedestrian park on 1st Avenue in Warehouse District

W.C Mann
craig@cullmansense.com

CULLMAN – The Cullman City Council met Monday evening, having rescheduled its regular meeting time from last week. Mayor Woody Jacobs and all council members except Garlan Gudger were present. Most of the business was simple and straightforward, with the exception of a request concerning the use of First Avenue Northeast through the Warehouse District.

Johnann and Stuart Moore of Book and Barrel Outfitters, representing the merchants of the Cullman Warehouse District, asked for a special event permit to convert First Avenue Northeast to a pedestrian park from Flavors Bakery to Rumors Deli, every Saturday from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m. through the end of 2017.

The merchants agreed to give priority to scheduled special events like the Strawberry Festival and Oktoberfest, and to use means of closing off the street which will allow rapid access to emergency vehicles.

One big snag with the plan, as voiced by Councilman Clint Hollingsworth, was the refusal of two Warehouse District merchants to sign off on the plan.

The owners of Whoopsy Daisy opposed the plan, as did those of Handbags & Gladrags.

Hollingsworth said, "Personally, I think it's great. It's a pedestrian-friendly environment where people can walk around with kids, and not worry about cars coming.

"I wish the other two store owners would have signed off on it, though; that would have made me feel a little more comfortable about giving it the green light to go ahead."

A compromise measure, first set forth by City Attorney Roy Williams, will create the pedestrian park on Saturdays for a one-month trial, starting Saturday, April 1.

The modified plan was presented as a motion, and passed unanimously. The street will be closed each Saturday in April from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Afterward, the plan will be reviewed. Police Chief Kenny Culpepper and Fire Chief Edward Reinhardt were asked to be prepared to offer their opinions on the plan at that time.

The council also received and approved requests to schedule the following special community events:

- Art in the Park in Old City Park/Heritage Park on April 15 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.
- Strawberry Festival in the special events area (Depot Park, Festhalle) and surrounding streets on May 5, from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m. and on May 6, from 7 a.m. until 10 p.m.
- Suicide Awareness Walk in Depot Park on Sept. 9, from 3-6 p.m., sponsored by Karma in Cullman.

In other council business, the following requests and resolutions were passed unanimously. From the agenda:

REQUESTS

1. Request from Reinhardt to purchase, from HGAC state contract No. 14-3819, turnout gear from Sunbelt Fire in the budgeted amount of $22,256.

2. Request from Sewer Superintendent Chris Freeman to purchase, from the current city bid R-01759, three equipment trailers from Econoline Trailers, Inc. in the budgeted amount of $40,215.

RESOLUTIONS

1. To apply for grant funds from TVA Invest Prep Program to construct an entrance sign with landscaping on the new 80-acre industrial tract on Alabama Highway 69.

2. To extend the hot mix, cold mix and lay hot mix bids until May 23, 2018.

3. To award the bid for a 2015 4WD Chevrolet Suburban to the lowest responsible bidder, Mitch Smith Chevrolet, Inc., in the budgeted amount of $47,000.

4. To award the bid for various types of rock to the lowest responsible bidder, Madison Materials, Inc. for the period of one year.

5. To award the bid for various types of concrete to the lowest responsible bidder, Kirkpatrick Concrete, Inc. for the period of one year.

6. A sixth resolution, "To appropriate funds to Camp Meadowbrook, a 501c3 organization, for educational purposes and to promote tourism in Cullman, Alabama," was tabled by the council until the next meeting, when all members should be present.

The Cullman City Council meets at 7 p.m. on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in the auditorium at City Hall. The public is invited to attend.

School (from Front)

a capital campaign to fund the construction of a facility on the site expected to cost just under $6 million. CCS has retained the services of architect Jock Leonard of Leonard Designs, and plans to bid out the construction contract. If the capital campaign is successful, they will break ground in 2019 and move into the completed facility in time for the 2020-21 school year, following the end of their current agreement with Seventh Street at the end of the 2020 school year.

CCS Development Director Leeanna Smith explained, "We have just begun our capital campaign drive this year, and last Friday we had our kick-off dinner at Stone Bridge. We've raised a little over 10 percent of the $5,964,000 needed to build both buildings.

"We'll have two buildings: an academic building, and also a gymnasium complex. We will start with the academic building. Our goal is to build the education building first and start classes as soon as possible. CCS will continue the capital campaign until the gymnasium is complete."

Phase one of the construction project will be the 23,800-square foot academic building, at a projected cost of around $3.6 million, including furnishings and equipment.

The facility will include 16 technologically up-to-date classrooms, a library, computer lab, science lab, dining room and kitchen.

Phase two will see the construction of a 15,960-square foot gymnasium at a projected cost of just less than $2.4 million.

The building will include a multi-use basketball court/recreational space, training space and locker rooms, offices and storage rooms.

The two buildings and surrounding improvements (parking, landscaping, etc.) are expected to cover approximately 3 acres of the 12-acre site, leaving plenty of room for the development of playgrounds and athletic fields, and potential future facility expansion.

At its present site, CCS is currently enrolling students in all grades K-12 for the 2017-18 school year, with part-time enrollment available to area homeschool students who would like to be involved in school athletics. The school is also offering fast track enrollment for high school students who would like to pursue college credit while still in high school.

Flu (from Front)

County, a backyard flock located in Madison County has also been confirmed positive for low pathogenic H7N9 avian influenza (LPAI) by NVSL. Surveillance zones have been put in place surrounding the locations in both Pickens and Madison counties.

This suspected strain of avian influenza does not pose a risk to the food supply and no affected animals entered the food chain.

On Tuesday, March 14, 2017, Frazier issued an official Order Prohibiting Poultry Exhibitions and the Assembling of Poultry to Be Sold.

The order prohibits: all poultry exhibitions, sales at regional and county fairs, festivals, swap meets, live bird markets, flea markets and auctions.

The order also prohibits the concentration, collection, or assembly of poultry of all types, including wild waterfowl from one or more premises for purposes of sale.

This order remains in effect. Shipments of eggs or baby chicks from National Poultry Improvement Plan (NPIP) approved facilities are not affected by this order.

"The health of our poultry is critically important at this time," said Frazier. "With confirmed cases of low pathogenic avian influenza in Alabama in both commercial and backyard flocks, the order reducing the assembly and commingling of poultry is the most effective way to practice strict biosecurity measures in our state."

USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) continues to work closely with the ADAI on a joint incident response.

The U.S. has the strongest avian influenza surveillance program in the world and USDA is working with its partners to actively look for the disease in commercial poultry operations, backyard flocks, livebird markets and in migratory wild waterfowl populations.

"The Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries' staff is working diligently to defend the health of poultry in our state," said Commissioner John McMillan.

"We are committed to protecting the livelihoods of Alabama farmers."

Frazier reminds poultry producers and backyard flock owners to observe their birds closely and to be vigilant about practicing strict biosecurity measures.

These include:

- Isolating poultry from other animals;
- Wearing clothing designated for use only at the poultry house;
- Minimizing access to people and unsanitized equipment;
- Keeping the area around the poultry buildings clean and uninviting to wild birds and animals;
- Sanitizing the facility between flocks;
- Cleaning equipment entering and leaving the farm;
- Having an all-in, all-out policy regarding the placement and removal of the poultry;
- Properly disposing of bedding material and mortalities;
- Avoiding contact with migratory waterfowl.

Frazier reminds all poultry owners and producers to strictly adhere to the biosecurity guidelines mentioned above.

During this time, backyard flock owners should refrain from moving birds offsite or introducing new birds.

The ADAI Poultry Division is available to answer any questions concerning movement of poultry and should be notified at 334-240-6584 and/or USDA at 1-866-536-7593 if birds show unusual signs of disease (flu-like symptoms) or flocks experience unexplained mortalities.

The Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries will maintain updates of suspected cases of avian influenza on our website: www.agi.alabama.gov.

The Alabama Cooperative Extension System has created a website to assist backyard flock owners with maintaining healthy birds and to provide answers for avian influenza control.

It can be found at www.AlabamaAvianInfluenza.com.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Exondys 51 (eteplirsen) injection, the first drug approved to treat patients with Duchenne muscular dystrophy (DMD). DMD is a rare genetic disorder characterized by progressive muscle deterioration and weakness. It is the most common type of muscular dystrophy. DMD is caused by an absence of dystrophin, a protein that helps keep muscle cells intact. The first symptoms are usually seen between three and five years of age and worsen over time. The disease often occurs in people without a known family history of the condition and primarily affects boys, but in rare cases it can affect girls. DMD occurs in about one out of every 3,600 male infants worldwide. People with DMD progressively lose the ability to perform activities independently and often require use of a wheelchair by their early teens. As the disease progresses, life-threatening heart and respiratory conditions can occur. Patients typically succumb to the disease in their 20s or 30s; however, disease severity and life expectancy vary.

After an extensive review of the latest scientific evidence, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration is requiring class-wide changes to drug labeling, including patient information, to help inform health care providers and patients of the serious risks associated with the combined use of certain opioid medications and a class of central nervous system (CNS) depressant drugs called benzodiazepines. Opioid analgesics are powerful pain-reducing medications that include prescription oxycodone, hydrocodone and morphine, among other drugs, under both brand and generic names. Certain other opioid medications are also approved to treat cough. Opioid analgesic misuse and abuse have increased significantly in the United States over the past two decades and represent major public health concerns due to the risk of coma and fatal respiratory depression associated with opioid analgesic overdose.

Spring sports go on as scheduled in spite of J.B. Pennington fire; Lady Tigers down Lady Aggies 2-1

johnny@cullmansense.com

BLOUNTSVILLE – J.B. Pennington High School and Blountsville Elementary School were closed Tuesday after an early morning fire caused damage to the media room inside the main building of the high school.

Later in the day, the Blount County Board of Education announced the two schools would remain closed for the rest of the week, with cleanup to begin as soon as the fire was completely put out.

The school board showed compassion, allowing extracurricular activities to go on as regularly scheduled.

Under normal circumstances, extracurricular activities are canceled when a school closes for reasons such as weather, illness or in the case of today, a fire.

It served as a motivational tool for students, teachers and the administration.

Soccer was played at Sutton Memorial Stadium with the girls' game featuring Fairview as the opponent, taking on the Pennington Lady Tigers.

The game had a dramatic conclusion as Pennington broke a tie with a goal in the final 6:30 to post a 2-1 victory.

That lifted the spirits of the Lady Tigers, who played hard for the entire contest.

Fairview took a 1-0 lead when Greta Bishop scored on a penalty kick after the Lady Tigers were called for a foul against Fairview midfielder Aysha Semadeni.

Semadeni was injured on the play with Bishop taking her place to shoot the penalty kick, getting it past goalie Jenna Ogel for the early momentum by the Lady Aggies.

It remained 1-0 until J.B. Pennington scored on a free kick with 11:00 to go until halftime.

Chloe Jepson's kick went through the hands of Fairview goalie Addie Eddleman and into the net with the game now locked in a 1-1 battle.

Both teams had a series of scoring chances in the second half.

Fairview had another penalty kick opportunity with Grace Dorning knocking away consecutive shot on goal attempts by Bishop and a rebound shot by Semadeni.

Inside the final 7:00, the Lady Tigers cleared out a Fairview attempt on goal and ended the transition when Yosell Zuniga drove the ball into the net, and that was the game winner.

Pennington never allowed Fairview a chance to get the ball close to the net in crunch time, claiming an exciting win with lightning strikes visible north of the stadium from a great distance and a gusty wind that was blowing trash and other items inside the game's final 5:00.

Eddleman played well on goal for Fairview, knocking away 16 shots and keeping the Lady Tigers scoreless for the first 29:00 of the match and more than 33-and-a-half minutes of the second half.

Ogel played the first half at goal for Pennington with Dorning getting the call to go to the position in the second half. They both deflected four shots from being scored, aside from the one that came in the opening half.

Update on the building: Multiple fire units, including Cullman, Hanceville and Berlin, were called in to assist in containing the burning media center.

Hanceville had a unit to report at 10 a.m., while Cullman came in around 1 p.m.

A ladder truck from the Hanceville department was used in an attempt to get through the burning building from the roof.

But the roof was not secure for firefighters until a JLG lift was brought in later in the day from Birmingham.

By 5:40 p.m., a firefighter was using a saw to cut through a hole near the fire in the middle of the old building while a lift had two other firefighters working toward the west side of the damaged area, with lifelines secured.

That allowed more smoke to pour out and the fire to eventually burn itself out.

Fred Cochran from the State Fire Marshal's office reported the investigation into what caused the fire will begin on Wednesday.

A call was received before 5:30 a.m. with smoke coming out of the building, located on College Avenue.

Assistant Principal Steven Bryson was immediately contacted and made his way to the school, along with Principal Brian Kirk.

A communication system notified all school buses to cease operations prior to 7 a.m.

A vigil for students was held in the middle of the day at a Methodist church nearby.

While soccer played on campus, baseball and softball went on as well, taking on Susan Moore at the Blountsville Recreation Complex, located west of the high school and across U.S. Highway 231.

No report was given on if and when the missed days for this week will be made up. The school is out next week for spring break.

Quick (from Front)

trendy shops and eateries, it is the warehouse that looks like a warehouse: a big yellow sheet metal box amongst all the quaint old brick buildings. But that's about to change.

According to developer Shane Quick (the mastermind behind Rock the South), "When we get done with this building, it's going to be a beautiful addition to the Warehouse District, not just a yellow building anymore.

"We're going to redo the facade this week; you'll see an incredible difference in the building: it'll actually match the Warehouse District."

When Quick talks about what this development will add to the Warehouse District, he's not just talking about the outside.

Once the bricks go up outside and the furniture and equipment go up inside, the old warehouse will be Mae's Food Hall, a multi-vendor dining venue (Imagine an old mall food court, if it featured only high-quality gourmet restaurants and chefs.) with lots of social space and classic arcade games.

Quick explained, "We're calling it a culinary and social venue: a place to eat, drink and play. Basically, Mae's is a 6,500-square-foot building that'll feature anywhere from six to eight food options, along with shopping.

"The food hall allows entrepreneurs, who are just getting their start or who are wanting to go into a new market, to try their product on a new marketplace at a low-price overhead.

"Chefs from around the South, or even local chefs who want to sell their product: make burgers, make pizza, make ice cream, make doughnuts, from sushi to anything else- whatever it is that they do- Mae's Food Hall will be a great place to try that out on the city.

"We want it to be an incubator for future restaurants in the city. We'd love for them to stay with us for years to come, but if they come here and do so well that it makes more sense for them to go build a restaurant because of their demand, that'll be a proud moment for Mae's."

The food hall's name came from Quick's grandmother, "Linnie Mae is my grandmother," he shared.

"She was a massive influence on my life. Her home was a place where everyone felt comfortable, everyone left with their bellies full. She loved to play board games and different kinds of games.

"If you came over to her house, you might find yourself staying three hours instead of 30 minutes, and that's what we hope this place is."

Mae's Food Hall is planned to be a social spot for a wide range of people with a wide range of tastes.

Said Quick, "We'll have an arcade; we're already sourcing classic arcade games from all over the country.

"We're a bunch of arcade lovers. We're talking about Skee-Ball, Donkey Kong and everything in between. It'll be a place for all ages. It's not an adult venue; it's an all-ages venue. We want young millennials who are looking for a cool place to hang out to feel comfortable here, as well as people with kids.

"It's going to be a very inspiring space when we get done. This is about experiencing fellowship, community, conversation; these are the things we want to see happen here. Even the seating in this venue will be designed in a way for people to sit next to each other, have conversations with each other, meet people that they didn't know."

Quick is excited that a little piece of family tradition is about to become part of the atmosphere of Cullman.

He said, "We love that Mae's is going to be a venue that encourages a social atmosphere. Our goal isn't to get you in here and get you out, it's to get you in here and hang out here. That's what Mae's is going to be.

"That's what Mae's house was when she was alive, and that's what Mae's Food Hall is going to be, right here in Cullman."

Construction is underway, and Quick hopes to see Mae's open for business this summer.

Cullman sweeps Fort Payne in Tuesday doubleheader

Josh McBrayer
josh@cullmansense.com

CULLMAN – For the second and third time in two days, the Cullman Bearcats took care of business against the Fort Payne Wildcats. Coming off a 7-0 win less than 24 hours prior, the Cats hung nine on Fort Payne in dominating fashion.

The first run of the night was an inconspicuous sacrifice fly off the bat of Carter Bowen to score David Thomas, but the Cats had much more in store for the Wildcats.

In the bottom of the third is where the Cullman broke the game open. Thomas reached base on a single to left and was followed on the bags by Owen Lovell who nonchalantly took a pitch off his thigh. With Jacob Heatherly at the dish, Thomas and Lovell executed a double steal to get into scoring position and give Heatherly a chance to bring them home, and boy did he ever. Barely into the at-bat, Heatherly got a pitch he liked and he did not miss it, depositing it over the left field fence for a three-run home run to put the Cats on top 4-0. Heatherly picked up his fourth RBI of the game in the very next inning when he rocketed a run-scoring single into left to add to the Cullman lead.

Up five and showing no signs of slowing down, the Bearcats added three more to their lead in the bottom of the fifth thanks to a Caleb Lipsey RBI double and a Hayden Henderson RBI single. Lipsey also came home to score on a passed ball. The final run came in the bottom of the sixth when Will Morrison picked up an RBI on a ground out. Cullman retired Fort Payne in the top of the fifth to claim the 9-0 victory in the first game of the doubleheader.

GAME TWO

Cullman 8, Fort Payne 1

Although there was a 20-minute break between the afternoon game and the nightcap, there was no break in the momentum for the Cats.

Jordan Bain picked up the one and only Fort Payne RBI of the night when he singled home JC Groat in the top of the second. The rest of the game belonged to the Bearcats.

Cullman took the lead in the bottom of the fourth thanks to an error and a run-scoring single, but they broke the game wide open in the bottom of the sixth when they scored six times on four hits to take the night cap, 8-1.

Range (from Front)

CULLMAN – Cullman Shooting Sports is bringing what it says is the nation's longest, above ground, public indoor gun range to Alabama in 2017. It will be the longest indoor gun range in the Southeast. The range, which is already under construction, will be located at the intersection of Alabama Highways 157 and 69.

The range will feature eight climate-controlled, indoor 110-yard lanes, which Cullman Shooting Sports claims will be the longest currently in the United States.

The facility will also feature nine climate-controlled, indoor 25-meter lanes for rifle or pistol use, two virtual firearm training simulators, a modern and fully-stocked retail area and multiple conference rooms available for private or commercial use.

Cullman Shooting Sports Facility Manager Doug Long says the plans are to open later this year. According to a media release, "The 39,000-square foot facility will allow firearm enthusiasts to shoot and train in a safe, clean and controlled environment.

"The range will be equipped with programmable target carriers that will allow varied and exciting shooting scenarios.

"In addition to the range, Cullman Shooting Sports also provides access for two shooting simulators. The simulators will allow new shooters to become comfortable with a firearm before entering the range, and experienced shooters will be able to put themselves into various virtual situations for advanced training."

Training classes will be available at the range for beginners and experts alike.

The classes will be taught by highly-qualified, certified instructors in a safe, secure and controlled environment.

Long says Cullman Shooting Sports aims to be one of the premiere shooting facilities in the United States.

Utilizing the best and latest technology available, the range will feature a fully customized Action Target retriever and bullet trap system.

According to the release, Cullman Shooting Sports will be environmentally-friendly, recycling the lead and brass from the bullets shot at the facility.

Lead and unspent powder will be filtered from the air by a cutting-edge air handling system in the range.

This will protect the environment both inside and outside of the range, which ensures that time spent at the range is safe and comfortable.

Cullman Shooting Sports is a wholly owned subsidiary of Arming Freedom Corporation.
