The Holly Pond defense was dominant in the Broncos' 28-6 win over Danville.

Holly Pond rolls past Danville for 28-6 homecoming win

HOLLY POND – Under Friday night lights in Holly Pond, the Broncos (Class 3A, Region5) celebrated Homecoming 2018 in style by stampeding over the Danville Hawks (Class 4A, Region 7) 28-6. The Hawks' defense put up fair resistance, but the Broncos still managed to put the ball in the end zone four times. On the other side of the ball, Danville was simply no match for Holly Pond, as the Broncos routinely put multiple players on the ball in the Hawk backfield for sacks and downs for losses.

Holly Pond stumbled to open the game, going three-and-out with a punt, but Danville returned the favor. When the Broncos got the ball back, they were ready to run, driving from midfield to first-and-goal before quarterback Kyler Chaney took it in himself for the game's first points. The Hawks stalled on the following series to allow Holly Pond to end the quarter with the ball and a 6-0 lead.

A short break to swap ends didn't blunt the Broncos' momentum, and they opened the second quarter with a fast drive that culminated in a Jeremiah Holmes touchdown, followed by a successful 2-point conversion. A short kickoff gave Danville the ball in good field position, but the Hawks' attempt to capitalize ended with a pass interception by Bronco Isaac Ludwig. A sack and two big penalties against Holly Pond over the next few minutes gave the Hawks the opportunity to build some momentum of their own, and even when Danville fumbled to Holly Pond, the Broncos fumbled it right back. Ultimately, though, the Hawks losses due to Bronco penetration proved too much, and the half ended with Holly Pond on top 14-0.

Holly Pond Homecoming court

At halftime, Holly Pond introduced its homecoming court, which included Kirsten Campbell, Cassie Carter, Hailey Crumbley, Tess Duke, Sydney Dunkin, Lili Harris, Maddie Heatherly, Katie Smith, Lexy Smith, Makayley Whitfield and Jacey Wise.

Katie Smith was named the 2018 Homecoming Queen, receiving her crown from 2017 Queen Presley Marks.

When the third quarter opened, it was back to business as usual as the Hawks went three-and-out with a short punt that allowed Holly Pond to start from midfield. The Broncos took advantage of the chance to do a little stampeding, sending the ball to the end zone once again in the hands of Holmes. The teams then swapped punts to end the quarter with the ball in the Hawks' hands and a 20-0 Bronco lead.

Danville had to punt shortly after the start of the fourth, but two costly Holly Pond penalties and a turnover finally gave the Hawks the spark they needed to put a touchdown on the board. Then they appeared to be on a roll when they recovered the following onside kick off. Bronco Holmes showed up once more, though, this time on defense, running back an interception on Danville's first play for a pick-six touchdown. As the clock ran out, it was Holly Pond 28, Danville 6.

The Broncos, now 4-2, will look to stay on the winning side of things when they host Locust Fork in a regional matchup next week.

Inmate found dead at Cullman County Detention Center; no foul play suspected

Wendy Sack
wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN – An inmate at the Cullman County Detention Center was found deceased during the early morning hours of Friday Sept. 28, according to a media release from the Cullman County Sheriff's Office.

Deputies found Sandra Duke Shikle, 52, of Cullman, at approximately 4:15 a.m., the release said. Deputies began to render medical aid immediately, administering CPR and calling for emergency medical personnel.

A spokesperson said the CCSO is following protocol and has requested the State Bureau of Investigation lead the investigation. He said no foul play is suspected. Shikle's body was sent to Huntsville for autopsy, confirmed Cullman County Coroner Jeremy L. Kilpatrick.

Shikle was arrested in 2016, charged with 25 counts of theft from her Dodge City employer.

United Way launches 'Women United' network

Christy Perry
christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN - The United Way of Cullman County's Young Professionals Board invited everyone to a put up their boots and dance the night away at the inaugural Women United event. The celebration took place Thursday night at Loft 212 to raise money for the United Way of Cullman County's partner agencies and to encourage women in the community to get involved.

The country-themed celebration featured live music, dancing, a silent auction and dinner for the more than 150 in attendance.

The United Way's YP Board describes Women United: "United Way is launching Women United, a network of dynamic women leaders who are committed to support the works and programs of United Way of Cullman County. Help improve your community, be part of the process."

Instructors from the Dance Factory were on-hand Thursday evening and led a dance break of several line dances. Guests bid on artwork, vacations, jewelry, gift baskets and other items donated by local businesses. Two country-themed photo areas were set up for guests with fun props to use in pictures.

"Best boots" and other contests were also held, with winners based on crowd response. The Chris Posey Band provided the event's live music.

YP Board Member Stephanie Dye said of the turnout, "We are very happy with the turnout for a first-year event. After the Women's Gala ended a few years ago, we needed something to bring women together. We wanted it to be casual, fun and laid-back."

"We want to create a board for women over the age of 35," said YP Board Chair Jennifer Parker. "Cullman has some really great women, and this board will be made up of a wide array of women that can work on community projects together."

United Way Board Member Josh Speakman added, "I want to thank everyone who came out tonight, despite the weather, to support the new United Women kick-off event. Please contact the United Way office if you are a local woman looking for something in which to get involved.

"This group is going to truly kick up some dust! I would also like to encourage anyone who is looking for a good cause to get behind to support United Way. United Way provides funding to many local agencies. I am an active member of the Board of Directors, so I can promise you firsthand that I have witnessed the work of United Way. I believe in their mission 100 percent!"

Hanceville passes $4M FY2019 budget, including 5% pay raise for City employees

craig@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE – On Thursday evening, the Hanceville City Council approved its fiscal year 2019 budget in the total amount of $4,054,425, a $344,394.51 increase over last year's $3,710,030.49 budget.

The increase in proposed expenses is driven by a similar increase in projected revenues: Hanceville expects to take in $4,178,267.50 during FY2019, an increase of almost $400,000 over last year.

Of great interest to several city employees in attendance was an approved five percent across the board salary increase.

Additionally, a $25,000 increase in the fire department budget includes a $20 fire call/$5 medical call stipend for all volunteer responders.

The City also continued its membership in AirMedCare, providing medical air transport to Hanceville residents.

The budget also includes donations to the Cullman County Veterans Day program, First Source for Women, Hanceville Senior Center, Mud Creek Festival, The Link of Cullman County, the Hanceville Antique Tractor and Engine Show, WellStone Behavioral Health, and the Wallace State Scholarship Fund.

During Thursday evening's meeting, the council also approved $275 for the Hanceville High School fishing team.

Budget summary from Hanceville City Hall
Note: these lists are not exhaustive.

Aside from the General Fund, which draws from multiple sources, the largest specific sources of projected 2019 city revenue include:

- ALCOHOL TAX REVENUE - $165,000
- FIRE DEPARTMENT REVENUE - $286,818
- MUNICIPAL COURT REVENUE - $438,109
- PARK & RECREATION REVENUE - $102,643.50

Total Income from all sources- $4,178,267.50

The largest projected expenditures include:

- FIRE DEPT EXPENDITURES - $399,909
- GENERAL FUND EXPENDITURES - $777,050
- MUNICIPAL COURT EXPENDITURES - $465,170
- POLICE DEPT EXPENDITURES - $1,076,204
- PUBLIC WORKS DEPT EXPENDITURES - $825,232

Total of all expenditures - $4,054,425 (an additional $275 committed at Thursday's meeting would bring the total to $,054,700)

If the projected numbers hold through FY2019, Hanceville will see a net income of nearly $124,000.

Other council business
The council also approved:

- Sale of a surplussed dump truck to the Town of South Vinemont for $4,000
- Street closures on Stadium Street, Park Street and Bulldog Lane for the upcoming Mud Creek Marching Band Festival on Oct. 13.
- Event permit and street closures for the "Welcome Back Hanceville" festival and concert planned for April 27, 2019. See below.
- Advertising and taking bids for mowing and clearing along the 4.3-mile stretch of Mud Creek through town. Hanceville will take bids for vendors to provide services once per year or twice per year on a three-year contract. Bids must be received by 4:30 p.m. on Oct. 11 and will be opened at the council meeting that evening.
- Appointment of Stephen Gravely as a temporary municipal judge to serve on an as-needed basis in the event that the City's regular municipal judge must be absent.

During the public comment time, resident and business owner Nolan Bradford announced the "Welcome Back Hanceville" festival to be held from 3 to 8 p.m. on April 27, 2019.

The event will feature musical performances by country music star Irlene Mandrell of the Mandrell Sisters, former Confederate Railroad member Cody McCarver and Vicki Lynn Maxwell.

The Hanceville City Council's next scheduled meeting will be at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 11 at the Hanceville City Hall auditorium, with work session at 5:30. The public is invited to attend.

Hanceville mayor speaks out about marijuana arrests

craig@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE – At the Hanceville City Council meeting Thursday evening, after Police Chief Bob Long reported on recent drug arrests in the area, Mayor Kenneth Nail took a moment to respond to several people who had used social media comment threads attached to local news outlets' stories of the recent marijuana-related arrest of Hanceville resident Gerald Lott (see www.cullmantribune.com/articles/2018/09/21/hanceville-police-seize-cash-weapons-27-pounds-marijuana) to argue for the legalization of the drug and to berate the City and its police department for pursuing marijuana dealers in the face of so many other dangerous drugs.

Comments on The Tribune story included:

- "They don't have anything better to spend tax dollars on? Go get some real criminals."
- "Weed? This is a joke. How about get the meth off the streets!!!"
- "Gerald lott is an outstanding person this is absolutely ridiculous!!! Hanceville police department is a joke and is only trying to look big and bad bunch of Barney fiffes!"
- "I have lost even more respect for law enforcement. They need to go after people that rob places, murder people, molest kids, etc."
- "Down with the Hanceville Police Department."

Nail's response was blunt and to the point: As long as marijuana is illegal, the police department will arrest people caught with it and will pursue dealers.

Chief Long reported to the council about the three-month investigation that led to the recent arrest, then stated, "I'm not sure if you guys are really aware of it or if you remember, but over the last two years, HPD's been responsible for seizing approximately 200 pounds of marijuana, three pounds of meth, a couple of pounds of cocaine, and nearly $175,000 in U.S. currency, four or five vehicles, and possibly maybe we can file on one particular house.

"So you've got a small department, but you've got a good department.

"And it started with patrol making routine traffic stops.

"It worked its way up through the drug chain, and we've hit some pretty good drug dealers over the last couple years."

Responding to the comments on the arrest story, Nail added, "Look, I'll be the first to say I'd a lot rather get meth or heroin, or whatever.

"But (in) Alabama, it's illegal to have marijuana, and I do believe it's a gateway drug.

"And this police department is going to continue to seize marijuana, heroin, whatever is an illegal substance. Now, if the voters in this state vote to legalize marijuana, then it'll be a whole different issue."

After commenting further on the effects of drug houses on residential neighborhoods, Nail concluded, "I just want to say, as long as we're here and this police department's here, we're going to continue to do the best job we can.

"And yes, I'd rather get heroin. Yes, I'd rather get the meth.

"But if the marijuana comes, we're not going to look the other way. If you don't like that, I'd just suggest that you move to Denver, Colorado maybe."

Cold Springs loses thriller on the road to Appalachian, 35-34

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

ONEONTA – It was a wet, physical, long showdown between the Appalachian Eagles (Class 1A, Region 5) and the traveling Cold Springs Eagles (Class 2A, Region 5) Friday night, and the Eagles in white came up just short, 35-34. Momentum-shifting plays were coming from both sides for four quarters and in the end, Appalachian managed to pick up its first win of the season with the upset over the Eagles.

Appalachian struck first with a 50-yard touchdown run on its first possession of the night to go up 6-0. Cold Springs forced a punt on Appalachian's next series and the short kick was picked up on the bounce by sophomore Roberto Ayala who ran it all the way down to the 25-yard line.

Sophomore running back Ayden Alexander capitalized on the big return two plays later when he ran one in from 15-yards out to put Cold Springs up 7-6.

The Eagles stretched their lead to 14-6 on their next possession thanks to a 24-yard touchdown sprint from Ayala, and Alexander took another one to the end zone from 47-yards out on Cold Springs' next series to make it 21-6 early in the second quarter.

Alexander finished with 80 yards and two touchdowns on five carries in the first half but was unable to play in the second half due to an ankle injury.

Appalachian drove deep into Cold Springs territory, but with just over two minutes remaining in the half, was picked off at the goal line by senior linebacker Francisco Ayala. A couple plays later, the Cold Springs Eagles fumbled the ball back to Appalachian with just over a minute to go in the half and Appalachian was able to capitalize with a 33-yard touchdown on a trick pass from the running back to cut the lead to 21-14 headed into the break.

A Cold Springs interception midway through the third quarter set Appalachian up with another chance to score and Appalachian did just that with a 34-yard touchdown run down the sideline that tied the game at 21.

Cold Springs answered with a 3-yard touchdown run from Francisco Ayala late in the third quarter to re-take the lead 28-21, but that score didn't hold for long.

Appalachian ran back the ensuing kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown and tied the game back up at 28.

Cold Springs' offense was having some trouble moving the ball late in the game, but the defense was able to pick them up with an interception returned for a touchdown by junior defensive back Jordan Lacey.

The pick-six made it 34-28 Cold Springs after a missed extra point. The Eagles from Appalachian had one more drive in them, and with under three minutes to play, they took a 35-34 lead on a 14-yard touchdown run up the middle.

The Cold Springs offense had one last shot at the end zone with one second left on the clock, but the pass was intercepted in the end zone and the Eagles of Appalachian handed Cold Springs its second loss of the season.

Cold Springs, now 4-2, will have a chance to regroup and rest up this week after a draining game and will be back on the field Oct.12 when the Eagles host Winston County (Class 2A, Region 5).

Running game, defense lift Meek to 20-12 win over Sumiton Christian

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

ARLEY – Meek (Class 1A, Region 6) looked to get back on track at home in a non-regional game against Sumiton Christian (Class 2A, Region 5) Friday and did just that with a 20-12 win.

Meek's first possession started badly as a bad snap during the drive forced the Tigers to punt in a first half that saw seven punts, a turnover on downs, three interceptions and just one touchdown.

That touchdown came from the Eagles with 5:37 remaining in the second period on a 24-yard touchdown pass.

One of the interceptions came in the second quarter when the Tigers were at the 10-yard line and closing in on the end zone.

Despite their offense failing to score in the first half, the defense stepped up and kept Meek in the game.

The offense gained 128 yards in the first half and Stuart Waldrep gained 88 of those yards on the ground.

The second half saw a different Meek team. After forcing the Eagles to punt on their opening possession, the Tigers started their first series in excellent field position at the 36.

Matthew Clark and Waldrep carried the load on the drive before Clark scored on a 2-yard run to tie the game at six with 8:46 remaining in the third quarter after the missed PAT.

Clark picked off a pass on the ensuing possession and found the end zone once again on a 3-yard score that gave Meek a 12-6 lead.

The defenses took over for most of the second half. Zac Baker added another interception for the Tigers and after forcing another Sumiton Christian punt, an offsides penalty put Meek at the 47-yard line.

Then, Waldrep broke a tackle before taking off down the left sideline for a 53-yard touchdown run to increase Meek's lead to 20-6 with 4:42 remaining in the game.

The Eagles, though, weren't done as they returned the ensuing kickoff 73 yards for the score to make it a 20-12 game 15 seconds later.

Meek looked to run the remaining 4-plus minutes off the clock, but Clark fumbled the ball and the Eagles recovered with a little over a minute remaining.

The Tiger defense, though, forced a turnover-on-downs and went on to take the game, 20-12.

After getting just 6 yards on six carries in the first half, Clark exploded for 142 second-half yards on 21 touches and a pair of scores to finish with 148 yards on 27 carries on the night.

Waldrep added 111 more on the ground in the second half to finish with 199 yards and a touchdown.

The defense, led by Bradley Vickery, Clark, Baker, Trinton Ory and others, had a big night on that side of the ball, getting key stops in the game.

The Tigers improve to 2-4 overall on the season and will celebrate homecoming week next week when they take on Brilliant in region play.

Bulldogs get payback from Eagles, 38-12

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Correspondent

ADDISON – The Addison Bulldogs (Class 2A, Region 7) got the best of the Vinemont Eagles (Class 3A, Region 5) Friday night, 38-12, in front of their home crowd after losing a tight game, 28-22, to the Eagles last season.

Vinemont received the ball only to go three-and-out. Addison got the ball, went right down the field, and on fourth down Zayne Guthrie scampered for the first touchdown of the game with 6:14 remaining in the first quarter to put the Bulldogs ahead, 8-0.

After a delay of game on the first play to put the Eagles behind the chains they went three-and-out once again, and the Bulldogs didn't waste the opportunity, embarking on a long, time-consuming drive that ended on a 30-yard touchdown pass from Guthrie to Luke Chambers, extending the lead to 16-0 with only 3 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

On the ensuing possession the Eagles drove the ball all the way down to the 10-yard line but were stopped on downs, and it didn't take long for the Bulldogs to march down the field thanks to two long runs by Grant Rice. On fourth-and-goal from the 6, Chambers found Guthrie in the corner of the end zone on a fake field goal, pushing the lead to 24-0 with only 5 seconds left until halftime.

On the first play from scrimmage of the second half, Rice went 54 yards right up the middle for a touchdown, extending Addison's lead to 30-0.

Vinemont continued to play hard as Jack Hill found Dustin Moore on a 23-yard touchdown strike putting the Eagles on the board, 30-6, with 9:39 left in the third quarter.

The Eagles attempted an onside kick, made it, and drove the ball all the way down to the 1-yard line looking to stifle the Bulldogs' momentum, but a fumble put an end to that.

The Eagle defense kicked it up a notch, forcing a Bulldog fumble, and once again Vinemont got close to the end zone, but Addison's Gage Gilliland intercepted the ball, keeping the Eagles at bay.

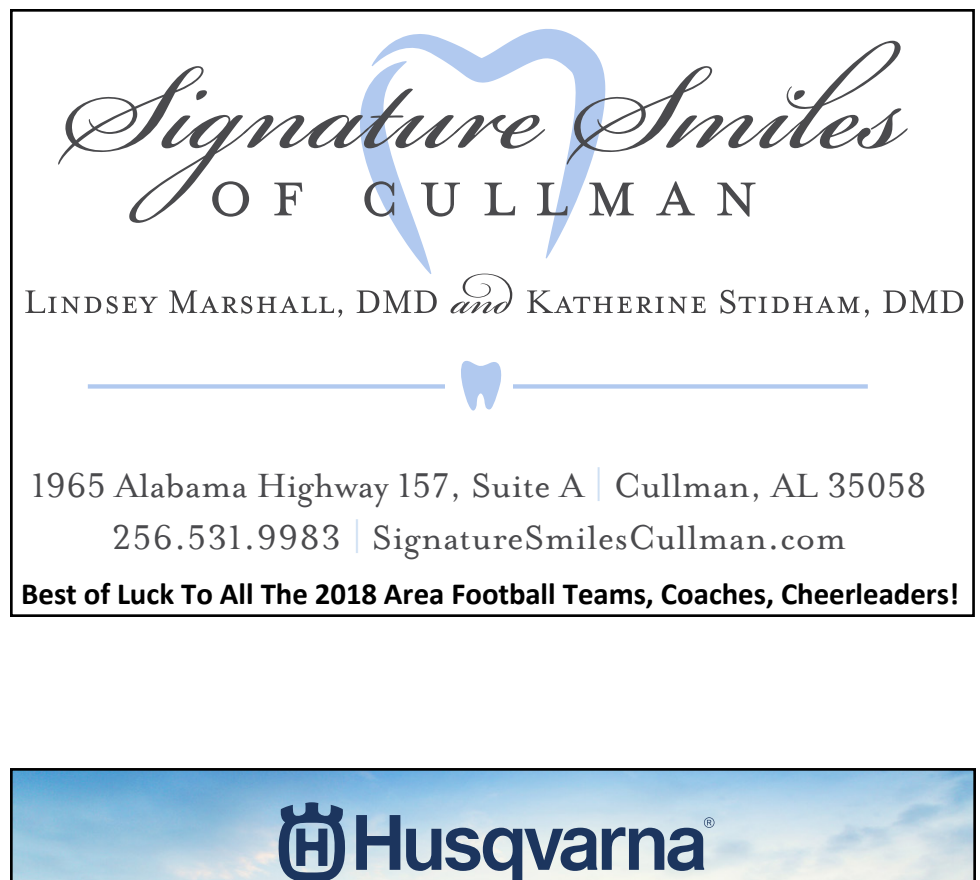

In the fourth, a pick by Chambers set Addison up with excellent field position, and on the ensuing play Guthrie called his own number, going 13 yards to make the score 38-6 with 8:10 remaining in the game.

Thanks to an excellent return plus penalty yardage, Vinemont was set up only 30 yards from the end zone, and a couple plays later a 1-yard touchdown run by Dallin Dinkle put more points on the board for the Eagles, 38-12, with 6:54 remaining in the game.

Once the Bulldogs received the kick, they ran out the clock out thanks to 11 straight running plays, securing Addison's 38-12 victory.

Addison improves to 5-1 and will take on Colbert County next Friday on the road.

Vinemont falls to 2-3 and will welcome Fultondale at home.

Curry knocks off Hanceville, 27-16

Cliff Jones
Tribune Correspondent

HANCEVILLE – The Hanceville Bulldogs (Class 3A, Region 5) welcomed the Curry Yellow Jackets (4A, Region 5) Friday night, and on the first series Curry came out firing, nailing a 70-yard touchdown pass to start the game. Hanceville fought hard, but Curry was too much, dropping the Bulldogs, 27-16, and 1-5 on the season.

On a four-play, 50-yard drive Hanceville punched it in on a pass from Bo Joles to Antonio Bautista. The 2-point conversion was caught by Fred Ellis to put the Bulldogs up 8-6 over Curry with 1:07 in the first quarter.

Curry picked up its drive in the second quarter with the ball at the Yellow Jacket 40-yard line and worked its way down the field for the last scoring drive of the half.

It came on a 6-yard touchdown pass to Michael Kuriger. The 2-point conversion was good to put Curry ahead 14-8 with 6:13 left in the half, setting the fans up for a fun second half of football. Following a long seven-play, 60-yard drive, Joles makes a 25-yard pass to Ellis for a Hanceville touchdown. The 2-point conversion made good by RJ Evans put the Bulldogs up 16-14 over Curry with a little more than eight minutes to go in the third.

Almost a full quarter later, after a defensive stand from Hanceville, Curry's Colton Burton was able to break through for a 60-yard touchdown run. The 2-point conversion was no good, putting Curry up 20-14 with 5:51 left in the game.

On the next possession, a Hanceville fumble at the Bulldogs' 10-yard line was recovered by Curry for a touchdown, putting the Yellowjackets up 27-16, sealing the game.

Hanceville will travel to Midfield on Oct. 5.

Golden Gophers blow by Cullman, 42-7

Noah Galilee

HUEYTOWN – It was ground-and-pound along with a strong defensive stance from Hueytown that led to the Golden Gophers' 42-7 win over Cullman (Class 6A, Region 7) Friday night, dropping the 'Cats to 3-3 on the season.

The Golden Gophers scored early and often in the first half, including the first play of the second quarter on a long run to put Hueytown comfortably in the lead, 21-0.

Cullman came out in the second half and would not quit; Jayden Sullins, Ezra Burks and Max Dueland kept churning to keep the Bearcats moving toward positive yardage. Dueland took it into his own hands when he busted out for a first down.

Following a huge catch from Matt Brock on a long third down, the Bearcats kept the momentum moving toward Hueytown territory. On the next play Dueland found Sullins for a huge first-down pass completion to the Golden Gophers' 38-yard line.

Hueytown quickly ratcheted up the pressure once Cullman entered the Golden Gophers' side of the field, forcing a third-and-12. Dueland was able to connect with Dylon Wallace to bring up a fourth-and-5. A trick play from the Bearcats resulted in a fumble, and Hueytown recovered.

Cullman stood strong, holding Hueytown to a quick series before the Bearcat offense took the field at the 19-yard line. Hueytown forced a quick three-and-out and began its drive inside Cullman territory. The Golden Gophers needed just a handful of plays to tack on an additional touchdown, putting Hueytown up 35-0 with just under three minutes left in the third.

Cullman began its next drive from the 39-yard line, but the defensive front of Hueytown continued to prove its dominance in the middle of the field. Hueytown took less than a minute to put up another touchdown, putting the Golden Gophers up 42-0 to draw the third quarter to a close.

Sullins and Dueland did not give up, connecting on a pass to put the Bearcats on the board with just under 8 minutes remaining in the game to bring the score to 42-7, which would be the final for the contest.

Cullman drops to 3-3 on the season and will take on Athens at home at Oliver-Woodard Stadium next Friday.

"10 THINGS FROM A TRIBUNE TASTEMAKER"
This week, meet Jock Leonard, architect/ Leonard Design

So, I'm having lunch at the new Rumors Deli with Cullman "starchitect," Jock Leonard, and in the first five minutes after he explores the industrial-chic space and praises the aesthetics and café owner, Annette Harris' historic preservation, Jock mentions his enthusiasm for repurposing railroad cars as residential and commercial architecture, and he raves about a giant, "Big Fish," outdoor sculpture by one of his contemporary heroes, Frank Gehry. TASTEMAKER Jock Leonard, proud, third-generation Cullmanite, is one of the most faceted and fascinating creative minds in Alabama.

Here are "10 things from this TASTEMAKER:"

1. FAVORITE, ALABAMA BUILDING IN 19TH CENTURY? 20TH? 21ST? –St. Andrews Church (Prairieville), Wallace House by Paul Rudolph (Athens), Antioch Baptist Church by Auburn's Rural Studio (Perry County)

FUNNY THINGS FROM YESTERDAY

A vacation at Gulf Shores

Robert N. Tidwell, Sr.
Tribune Contributor

I wrote this story in July 1985 and I want to print it again in loving memory of two wonderful people, Dr. Ben Johnson and his wife, Dr. Ruby Johnson.

A few weeks ago, our friendly editor, Dr. Ben Johnson, his wife, Dr. Ruby Johnson, some of his children, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law and grandchildren went to Gulf Shores for a little rest and relaxation. They stayed at Lani Kai in the exotic Gulf Shores.

Lani Kai is set up in three levels.

The ground level is parking, the second level is the 100 series of apartments, and the third level is the 200 series of apartments.

Dr. Ben, Dr. Ruby, and family were staying on the third level, which is the 200 series of apartments.

The family was at the pool in the center of the complex when their grandson, Joseph, said he needed to go to the bathroom.

He is old enough and big enough to do this job by himself, and he knew where the apartment was that they were staying in.

The stairs are on the opposite side of the building from the swimming pool, but you can see the steps until they reach the first level of apartments.

So, all watched Joseph until he reached the top of the first flight of steps.

After a few minutes, enough time that all thought Joseph should be back, he had not shown up.

Someone went to the apartment to look for him, but he wasn't there, and they could not locate him.

The family got concerned and asked Mrs. Lola Kline, the resident manager, to call the police.

Dr. Ben put his analytical mind in gear and said, "I wonder if Joseph could have gone up only one flight of stairs and stopped at the 100 series of apartments instead of going up to third level to the 200 series."

He went to the apartment located just below the one they were staying in, turned the knob and the door opened.

He didn't find anyone until he reached the bathroom and there sat Joseph on someone else's commode.

They called the police back and told them that the boy had been found.

Later that afternoon, Dr. Ruby and Joseph were sitting on the deck which each apartment has. Joseph was drawing or printing and dropped his pencil.

The pencil rolled through a crack and fell on the deck below.

Dr. Ruby told him that he could go to the apartment below and ask for his pencil, but Joseph said in his slow childish drawl, "I don't want to go down there for they may still be looking for the little boy that did not flush their commode.

Benedictine monk at St. Bernard publishes first book

Joyce Nix
St. Bernard

CULLMAN – Mornings at St. Bernard Abbey are filled with early morning prayers, breakfast and monastic chores. For one Benedictine monk his chores are off to the kitchen to get started with the daily batch of fresh baked monk bread. However, in the midst of all the mixing, kneading and baking, he has conjured up a thrilling fantasy story in his newly released e-book "The Flame of Telbyrin."

"The Flame of Telbyrin" is filled with adventure, mystery, heroism, suspense, romance, and most of all faith. Benedictine monk, Br. Benedict Dyar, OSB has penned his heart and imagination into a story to be enjoyed by teens and adults in his first published novel.

"It's been a two-year process of writing, editing and re-writing," Br. Benedict said.

"The writing of the book was enjoyable as the scenes just seemed to play out in my mind."

However, Brother is quick to point out publishing has been a series of edits upon edits and has occupied the last year of his time.

In his book the eternal flame of Telbyrin has existed since the foundation of the world.

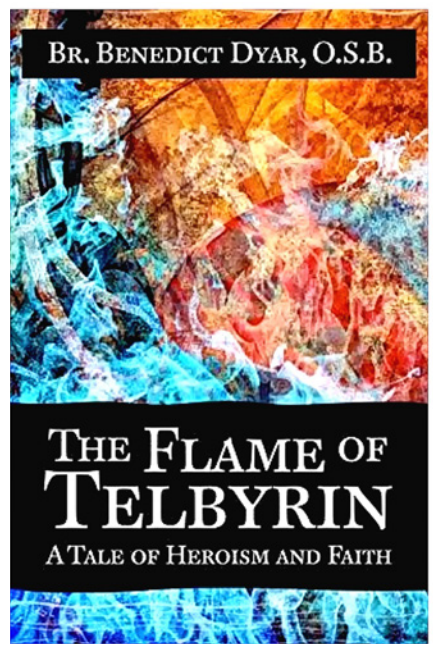

All the peoples of Telbyrin venerate it as the sign of all creation's prayers that rise to the Creator. All except the dreaded Meldron, a race hidden deep within the Mountains of Black with a supposed secret knowledge of dread power.

Readers will enter into the world of two young married Elves who live peacefully on a cattle farm; one a humble farm girl and another a warrior of great renown.

On the way to their annual pilgrimage to the Flame in the Holy City of Al-Nartha, they discover that the Flame is going out.

Suddenly these two Elves get caught up in an adventure of why the Flame is going out and in the process learn who or what may be behind it.

The book is now available on e-books at www.Amazon.com. Printed copies will be available soon.

From The Files Of 1938

Mrs. John Traughber, age 45, of Cullman, Route Six, died on June 3rd. Mrs. Traughber, with her husband, were managers of the South Park Tourist Camp.

The funeral services were conducted from Moss-Scheuing Funeral Home Chapel, on June 4th and interment was in Protestant Cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Mr. John Traughber; one sister, Mrs. R.M. Taylor, of Russellville, Kentucky and one brother, John B. Lynch, of Russellville, Kentucky. Moss-Scheuing was in charge.

The five-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.O. Estes died at the home of her parents in the Brooklyn community, on June 1st and was buried on June 2nd, at the Brooklyn Cemetery.

Marriage Licenses

• June 1st – Mancel Laseter, 17, to Aupline Watson, 18.

• June 2nd – Emmett A. Pritchett, 22, to Johnie Mae Dillard, 18.

• June 3rd – Henderson Lay, 24, to Lucille O'Rear, 25.

• June 4th – Arthur Morgan, 24, to Ora Belle Rogers, 14; James Louie Kent, 24, to Ella Lee Bolzle, 24 and Clarence W. Johnson, 22, to Montez Manning, 18.

Two armed bandits entered the filling station operated by Glyn Anderson, about ten miles north of Cullman, on the Bee-Line Highway, early Sunday morning and escaped with $19.00 in cash and three cartons of cigarettes, taken from Odean Anderson, night manager of the stand and about $20.00, from a tourist customer.

The men were armed with a 16-gauge shotgun and one man appeared to be intoxicated. The men were dressed in overalls and after the robbery, left walking through the woods from the station.

The hold-up took place just at daybreak, on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Eugene Grayot, wife of Cullman's former assistant postmaster, succumbed at 9:30 a.m., on June 3rd in South Highland's Infirmary, Birmingham. She had been taken there Thursday for treatment. Mrs. Grayot suffered with high blood pressure for the past eight years and was in very poor health for three months prior to her passing.

Before her marriage to E.A. Grayot, in Houston, Texas, on July 18th, 1900, the deceased was Miss Doro Forstmann.

She was born in Cullman County, on April 4th, 1881. She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. M.J. Mitchell, of Knoxville, Tennessee and Mrs. James Lummus, of Clinton, Tennessee; one granddaughter, Miss Dorothy Jo Mitchell, of Knoxville, Tennessee; one brother, Henry Forstmann, of Birmingham and one sister, Mrs. C.W. Dorrough, of Cullman.

Reverend K.N. Mathews, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Reverend S.O. Kimbrough, conducted the services from the residence on Sunday, at 2:30 p.m.

Charles Self, Joe Ray, J.S. Gibson, L.J. Wagner, R.M. Brown and Herbert Wallace served as pallbearers.

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

Same boy - different dogs

Bill King
Tribune Contributor

I was almost ten years old when it happened. Had my cousin not pulled him off of me, he might have killed me. At best, I could have been scarred for life. He probably outweighed me by twenty to twenty-five pounds. He was one solid hunk of muscle. I was one scrawny kid. Dad had warned me that he was mean, and that I should leave him alone. As kids sometimes do, I did not listen. He was a grown, but still young, thoroughbred Doberman Pincher. I had never seen a dog like him. He was a beautiful animal. Dad had bought him to use as a guard-dog in his business.

His name was Punk. The name was fitting, because he had a reputation for being bad. At that point in my young life, I had never met a dog I couldn't pet. I still haven't met many, but Punk was one of them.

Before I realized what had happened, he had me on the ground and he was on top of me.

He had bitten me in my right thigh, on the right side of my abdomen, and had torn off a good portion of my right ear.

My cousin, who was about a dozen years older than me, came to my rescue. To this day, I still shudder to think what might have happened to me, had he not been there. I might not be here.

After that experience, you might think I would have washed my hands of all dogs. Absolutely not!

Some of the best friends I've ever had were dogs. No, I'm not trying to be ugly, I mean that literally. Except during my college and seminary years, I have had at least one dog all my life.

I've had three golden retrievers, two long-haired pointers, one Chihuahua, two miniature dachshunds, one mean Doberman, numerous hybrids, and one yellow lab mix.

Their names were Sport, Poncho, Tramp I and II, Punk, Pudgy, Pokey, Sassy, Nutmeg, Cinnamon, and Sage. Our current fur babies are a yellow lab mix named Ginger (Sixty-Five), and overweight mini dachshund named Cocoa (Fifteen). I have loved them all – except one. Someone said we should, "Never underestimate the warmth of a cold nose."

I was the youngest of four children. My siblings were all much older than me; so I grew up alone. Other than some friends, my most faithful playmates were my dogs. The main one was a Heinz 57 (57 varieties in one dog) named Pudgy. I called him Big Pud. He was a thoroughbred mutt, but I loved that dog.

Big Pud was an all-star linebacker, a western marshal, an army soldier, a tree climber, or whatever else a boy wants in his dog.

Okay, he was not much of a tree climber, but that didn't prevent him from trying. When he realized he couldn't, and

I already had, he sat at the truck of the tree and barked until I came back down.

After my experience with Punk, you might think I would want nothing else to do with any other dog. What a shame that would have been.

I can't honestly tell you that Punk and I ever became buddies, but I am so glad I didn't write off all dogs because of one bad one.

Most of us have been hurt, or bitten, so to speak, by someone, perhaps even several, but we can't give up on people because of bad experiences.

We can't even seek revenge. Austin O'Malley once said, "Revenge is like biting a dog, because the dog bit you." Amen, and amen.

Poet's Corner

Bite Worse Than Growl

By: Carl 'Wayne' Jent
Bowling Green, Kentucky

Thinking about my mom, she was so sweet tender smile, soft spoken, pleasure to meet attended church, prayed and love to sing no matter the event, knew what to bring.

Mom was amazing, still love and miss her one of a kind, never will be another if someone made her mad, she'd transform she'd change from calm to the storm.

Mom was a lion, going for the kill seen men run or freeze standing still as she would circle, she'd have her say when it was over, things went her way.

She was wonderful, with love she gave never had to tell me, knew how to behave
I was her lion cub, living in her den didn't worry about anything, back then.

Citizens Bank hosts tailgate party

CHRISTY PERRY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Cullman's Citizens Bank on Second Avenue hosted a tailgate party for the community on Friday.

CULLMAN – Citizens Bank and Trust held a tailgate party Friday afternoon for the customers and the community. The bank grilled out hotdogs and hamburgers and gave away T-shirts, cups and other goodies. Customers and guests entered for drawings to win a mini-Yeti cooler or stadium seats.

Kasey Culbert, the bank's marketing officer, said, "Each Citizen location in north Alabama has a customer appreciation event at least once a year. We have been open in Cullman for one year and nine days, so ours coincides with our one-year anniversary.

"A tailgate party is a fun way to get people in the bank. People have so many online options that we don't see as many of our customers as we did in the past. We want to know our customers and our community."

Among those enjoying the tailgate party were Gary Serrett and Eric Robertson from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Serrett, area director for the FCA, shared, "The folks at Citizens Bank are good citizens. They do many things to help us, so we wanted to stop by and show our appreciation."

Citizens Bank and Trust is located at 223 Second Ave SE. The Cullman branch opened on Sept. 19, 2017. For more information on services, Culbert encourages customers to come in or find Citizens online on its website, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram or YouTube.

Award(from Front)

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN – Cullman Middle School (CMS) has earned the Blue Ribbon Lighthouse Award from Blue Ribbon Schools of Excellence, Inc. (BRSE).

CMS Principal Lane Hill told The Tribune, "Last year, toward the end of the school year, we invited the BRSE people to come into our school.

"The reason that I wanted to have somebody to come in, I wanted somebody to come in and take an objective look at what we were doing in our school, and maybe provide us some opportunity or some suggestions for improvement in things that we need maybe to adjust.

"And so I knew that it would be an opportunity for us to have either affirmation--that the things that we were doing were correct and we were doing things the right way--or it would be that we would need to adjust some of the things we were doing.

"Mostly what we got was affirmation that we're headed in the right direction and doing things the right way."

CMS announced that it had received the Lighthouse Award Tuesday. According to the BRSE's website, "The BRSE Blueprint for Excellence is designed to be a positive school improvement process that covers nine major categories of critical performance elements found in excellent schools." Those nine categories are: Student Focus and Support; School Organization and Culture; Challenging Standards and Curriculum; Active Teaching and Learning; Technology Integration; Professional Community; Leadership and Educational Vitality; School, Family, and Community Partnerships; and Indicators of Success

According to the BRSE: "The Blue Ribbon Lighthouse School Award is a recognition program for schools of excellence and is not designed as a typical application process. Schools are identified and selected for this award based on achievement of excellent performance in all nine major categories of the Blueprint for Excellence assessment. Schools achieving excellence in less than nine categories could be eligible for the 'Points of Light' Award or recognition as an Aspiring School. Schools will be notified of their status soon after completion of the assessment process and honored in an awards ceremony at the annual Blue Ribbon Schools Blueprint for Excellence Conference in December. These awards are given at the sole discretion of the BRSE.

"An assessment does not imply or guarantee award eligibility. In fact, a school often implements improvement strategies to move from Aspiring School, to Points of Light School, Blue Ribbon Beacon School and then to Blue Ribbon Lighthouse School."

In order to receive a Lighthouse Award, a school must exceed the established standard in all nine of the listed categories, a process which usually takes place over the course of multiple school years.

For a school to have already exceeded the standards when it first enters the BRSE program is uncommon.

Said Hill, "We were able to exceed standards on all nine and get Lighthouse, which says a lot about our faculty, our staff, our students, our parents at the school, just the whole school community. And so we're very proud; I'm very proud of our teachers for what they do. I'm telling you, I believe we've got the best faculty anywhere. I'd put them up against anybody in the country, the things that we've got going on in our school.

"This is a great group of caring teachers who set high standards for our kids. And, like I said, getting this award the first time is just a testament to that. I'm proud of them. I'm honored to serve as their principal."

Hill wanted to be sure his students were recognized as well, saying, "They don't cause many problems or anything like that, and for the most part they do exactly what we expect them to do. And that's a testament to them and the parents that they have."

CMS joins East Elementary School, Fairview Middle School and Parkside School as the Cullman area's Lighthouse Schools.

Cullman-area Blue Ribbon Schools of Excellence Beacon Schools include Good Hope Primary School and West Point Intermediate School.

Cullman-area Blue Ribbon Schools of Excellence Points of Light Schools include Good Hope Middle School and Vinemont Middle School.
