'Mary Poppins' takes off at Wallace State

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

AT A GLANCE
"Mary Poppins" in the Betty Leeth Haynes Theatre on the Wallace State campus
- Admission is $5 for children, $10 for adults
- Saturday, Oct.27 at 7 p.m.
- Sunday, Oct. 28 sensory-friendly matinee at 2 p.m.

HANCEVILLE – On Thursday evening, the Betty Leeth Haynes Theatre at Wallace State Community College became Cherry Tree Lane in London, as the WSCC Theatre Department opened its four-day production of "Mary Poppins."

Before the show, director Lauren Salerno told The Tribune, "I'm actually really excited to open the show. I'm excited for the kids to get to share the work that they've done and tell the story to the audience. I can't control what goes on backstage, and that's my biggest issue; but otherwise, they're ready for an audience, and I'm excited that they get to have one tonight." The show is tech-heavy, with stage magic including Mary and her chimney sweeping cohort Bert both flying over the stage. Despite all the (literally) moving parts, tech director Noah Carpenter was confident, sharing, "We're ready. On my end, at this point, there are no real words until the curtain opens. Like it's one of those overwhelming, beaming, excitement kind of things where I've gotten to sit here for the last month and a half and watch kids completely become new people, and not just become characters, but take characters and make the characters their own.

"So, to be able to watch them--and especially as like the outside director coming in--and to be able to see our students here who love the art that they perform in and be able to work with directors who love the students that they get to work with has just been a real gift, as somebody who moves from theater to theater on freelance and does it that way."

Shows all weekend
Thursday evening was just the start. WSCC Theatre offered a performance of "Mary Poppins" on Friday night, with another scheduled for Saturday at 7 p.m. and a special performance Sunday at 2 p.m.

Sensory-friendly performance Sunday
At 2 p.m. Sunday, the cast and crew will put on a special performance geared toward an audience with special sensory needs or guests who fall on the autism spectrum. Carpenter explained: "A sensory-friendly show is mainly targeted to audiences who have sensory disorders, or that in one way or another fall onto the spectrum. The show's purpose is to take the theater, which so much of the time is an uninviting place to these audiences, and make some small but impactful changes that will help make the show easier for these patrons while not removing any of the art or magic of the show for them."

W.C. MANN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Mary Poppins (Samantha Drake) watches over the Banks family (L-R): Winifred (Cheyenne Teeling, George (Justin Weygand), Michael (Domenico Brunetti) and Jane (McCoy Cleghorn)

Salerno told The Tribune last week, "We've never done a sensory-friendly production. It's definitely on my radar, because a lot of theater companies are starting to do that sort of thing. I had a mom email me to ask if we were going to do one, because she would like to bring her child, but she had recently been to a performance that wasn't sensory-friendly, and she didn't feel that it was a positive experience for her child. And I thought, 'Why aren't we doing that? We should be doing that.'

"So I talked to my department chair, and we decided that Sunday afternoon would be a good time to offer that, because it's a daytime show. And I can't imagine that we'll ever do a production again where we don't have a sensory-friendly opportunity, because you want everybody to be able to experience theater. You want everybody to be able to experience the arts. And if people are uncomfortable, or if they feel they're being judged in any way, that's not going to happen, and then you feel like you » PAGE 3

Colony tornado shelter installed; plans for Dollar General moving forward

PATRICIA PONDER/COLONY TOWN HALL

Workers got the shelter installed ahead of late week rains that would have slowed progress.

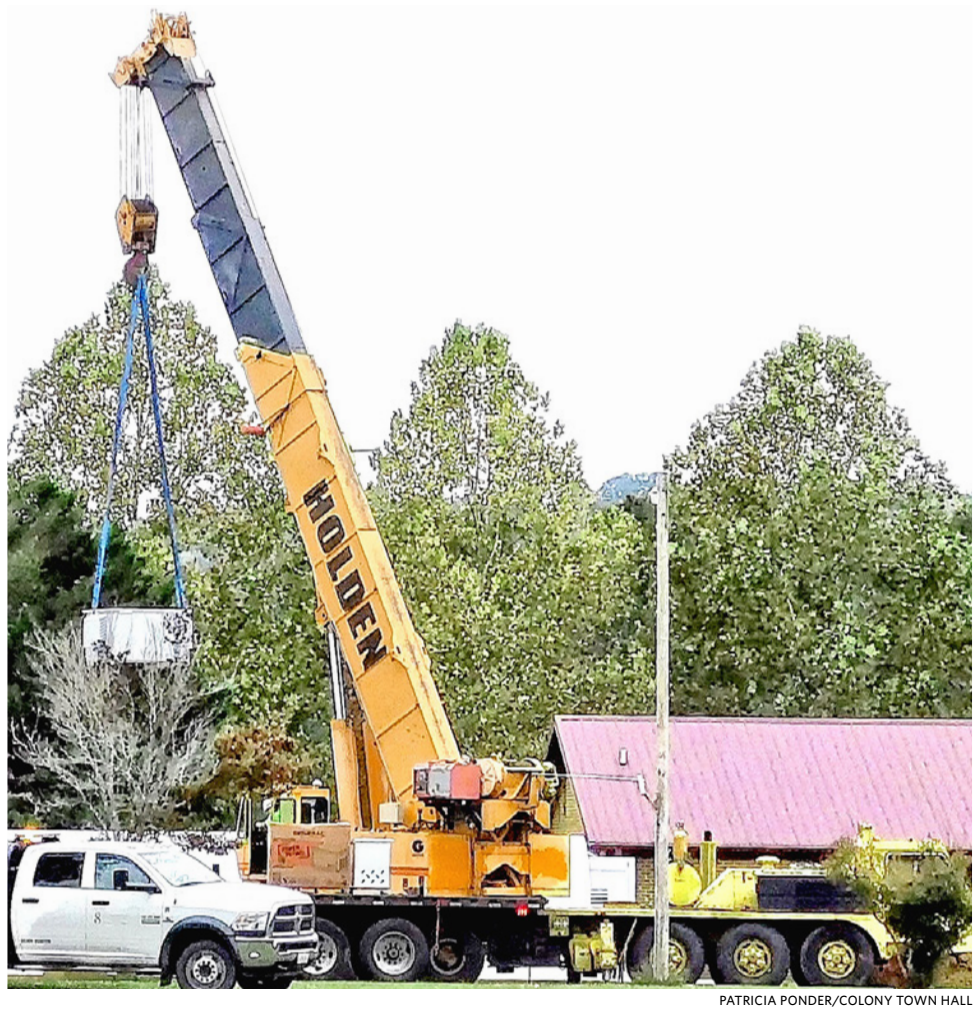

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

COLONY – On Thursday morning, Colony's town government moved a big step closer to fulfilling one of its longtime promises to its community with the installation of a tornado shelter behind Colony Town Hall. Site preparation and pad construction began last week, and a crew from Survive-A-Storm Shelters of Thomasville, Georgia was going to install the shelter this Friday, but the threat of rain brought them over a day early to make sure their part of the project was done on time.

The shelter includes two restrooms and a generator to supply electricity when utilities are down. Mayor Donnis Leeth reported to The Tribune that separate crews still have to come to hook up the generator and septic tank before the shelter officially goes into operation.

Leeth also said talks are continuing with Dollar General about locating a store in the town and that a tentative site on Alabama Highway 91 is being considered. The town also recently opened a Carpenter's Cabinet food pantry in its Educational Complex.

"We're just trying to move forward," said Leeth, "and do stuff we need a little bit at a time. And the storm shelter will save some lives . . . Plus, the food pantry, that's going to help a lot of people, too, in the surrounding area to be able to get food. We don't want to leave no one hungry. And Colony's just trying to do the best we can do for people in the area, just help people out."

Shrimp Basket (from Front)

wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN – The popular Gulf Coast eatery, Shrimp Basket, is opening a location in Cullman. The announcement was made Friday.

According to Susan Eller with the Cullman Economic Development Agency, "Mayor Woody Jacobs and the Cullman City Council are excited to announce Shrimp Basket is coming to Cullman! Scott VonCannon and Jeff Sommer with Retail Strategies notified us this morning the lease has been executed with plans to open in 2019.

They will be located in the former Title Max building at 716 Second Ave. NW (across from Cullman Shopping Center).

Shrimp Basket was born in 1993, when, according the restaurant, "Two local boys in Gulf Shores, Alabama decided to open up a casual family-focused seafood restaurant on the Gulf Coast.

"The idea was to create a restaurant where people would feel welcome to be themselves, families could afford to dine out together and strangers would leave as friends."

Shrimp Basket now has locations in five states in the Southeast: Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Georgia and Louisiana.

The restaurant specializes in fried, steamed and grilled seafood, including shrimp, oyster, crab, crawfish and fish, but also has traditional items like chicken tenders and burgers.

It is known for its po'boys, seafood gumbo and shrimp etouffee.

"Shrimp Basket will be a great addition to our restaurant family," Eller exclaimed.

can't offer them that.

"I'm going to bring my kid to that one, because there's a lot more freedom; like if people need to move, if people need to make noise, it's okay. We've already talked to the cast about it, about just always continuing on with the show, and knowing that there may be other elements that day, and that the best thing to do is just to say 'Yes' and move on through it."

Cullman falls to Ft. Payne, 37-22

noah@cullmantribune.com

FORT PAYNE – Cullman got off to a quick start in the first half, but Ft. Payne was able to set the pace and hand the Bearcats a 37-22 loss, ending the 'Cats season at 3-7 Friday night.

Jayden Sullins took the opening kickoff 32 yards to setup Cullman with good field position. A mixture of ground and pound with Alex Sheppard and Sullins mixed in with an aerial assault from Max Dueland to Cameron Starnes got the 'Cats down the field and in scoring position. That's when Dueland connected with Sullins for an easy touchdown, capping off a nine-play drive and giving Cullman an early 7-0 lead.

Ft. Payne didn't take long to answer, putting together a long drive, but the Wildcats were held to just a field goal, pulling Ft. Payne close with a 7-3 score.

Just a series later, the Wildcats found the end zone and went up 10-7.

Following the touchdown, Dueland's pass on the run was intercepted by Ft. Payne, setting up another Wildcat field goal to extend the lead to 13-7 going into the half.

To start the second half, Cullman elected to go for an onside kick, and it was worth the gamble as the Bearcats recovered.

Ezra Burks took advantage of the opportunity and found the end zone on a 33-yard touchdown to put Cullman ahead 14-13. However, just 42 seconds later Ft. Payne found the end zone again to re-take the lead 20-14.

A fake punt by Ft. Payne led to a first down on a risky fourth-down play to set the Wildcats up inside Cullman territory. Cullman's defense stepped up, forcing Ft. Payne to kick its third field goal of the game. The kick was good to extend the lead the 23-14 with just more than three minutes left in the third quarter.

A late touchdown in the fourth quarter put Ft. Payne up 30-14. The 'Cats would not lie down and fought back as Dueland connected with Noah Bussman to give new life to the Cullman offense. On the next play, Dueland connected with Sullins for another deep pass to give Cullman great field position inside the Wildcat red zone. Just one play later, Sullins took it in to the end zone, practically untouched, to cut the deficit to 30-22.

On the next possession Cullman's Jimnie Chau Le came up big when he knocked the ball away on a short fourth-down attempt with just more than two minutes left in the game to give the 'Cats the ball back trailing 30-22.

The Wildcat defense woke up to force three consecutive hurried passes, with the last resulting in an interception. Ft. Payne continued to press on the offensive side, putting up another touchdown with less than two minutes left in the game, making it 37-22 Wildcats.

A late-game interception sealed the game for the Wildcats, ending Cullman's season at 3-7. Several seniors with big roles will be gone next fall, but with a lot of young players returning to this roster, the Bearcats will be in good shape to bounce back in 2019.

Meek's season ends 3-7 with 20-16 loss to Lynn

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Correspondent

LYNN – The Lynn Bears hosted the Meek Tigers in a critical region game Friday night and the Bears came out victorious, 20-16, in a back-and-forth, tightly contested game.

Meek was stopped on fourth down on the opening drive of the game, and the Bears wasted no time scoring, finding the end zone through the air to go up 6-0 with 3:55 left in the opening quarter. Meek answered right back on the third play of the drive when Stuart Waldrep found Caleb Aaron streaking up the sideline, and 53 yards later, the Tigers gained an 8-6 lead with 2:48 left in the first quarter.

The ensuing kickoff was picked up at the 1-yard line by the Bears, but they were unable to get it out of the end zone resulting in a safety, stretching the Tiger lead to 10-6.

On the first play of the second quarter, Lynn regained the lead on a 36-yard touchdown pass and went up 12-10 with 11:52 remaining in the half.

Once again Meek struck quickly, this time with a 40-yard touchdown run from Gabe Jones to help Meek regain the lead 16-12 with 10:01 until halftime. The lead only lasted four plays as a 9-yard run gave Lynn the lead once again, 20-16, with 8:26 to go.

After both teams exchanged three-and-outs, Meek got the ball and marched all the way down to first-and-goal from the 7-yard line, but four straight incompletions gave the ball back to the Bears.

Lynn put together its own lengthy drive, but time ran out on the Bears in the first half.

As exciting as the first half was, the second half was completely the opposite. Lynn went three-and-out to start the second half and Meek went on a clock-chewing, 22-play drive that ended with a Tiger interception on fourth down just 2-yards away from scoring.

The Bears were driving to put the game away, but Matthew Clark gave Meek one more chance with a fumble recovery. Meek was eventually was stopped on fourth down. Lynn only needed four plays to run out the clock and secure the 20-16 win.

The road loss ends the Tigers' season at 3-7. With 17 seniors graduating from this team in May, there will be plenty of open spots for some young players to step up and embrace bigger roles next fall.

Hanceville Bulldogs tamed by Locust Fork, 35-8

Cliff Jones
Tribune Correspondent

LOCUST FORK – The Bulldogs traveled to Locust Fork Friday night for their final regional matchup of the season and the Hornets scored early and often to take down Hanceville 35-8.

Locust Fork marched down the field to get off to fast start with a seven-play, 80-yard drive capped off by a quarterback keeper that made it 7-0.

Following a Hanceville fumble, Locust Fork recovered and put together a 10-play, 80-yard drive and moved ahead of the Bulldogs 14-0.

Hanceville answered on its next possession and found the end zone with a 60-yard bomb pass play from quarterback Bo Joles to wide out Logan Guthrie for a Bulldog touchdown.

The 2-point conversion was good as Romael Simmons took it in to cut the deficit to 14-8.

Just moments later, the Hornets connected for another touchdown after a seven-play, 61-yard drive to stretch the lead to 21-8 going into the half.

The defenses strengthened for both teams early in the third, but Locust Fork found a way to add to its lead with a 55-yard drive that made it 28-8 with 2:20 left in the third quarter.

The Hornets found the end zone one final time with just seconds left on the game clock, closing the game with a 35-8 win over Hanceville.

The Bulldogs drop to 1-8 on the season with a rivalry game coming up next week at (8-1) Good Hope to finish up their fall schedule.

Eagles eliminated from postseason contention with 22-8 loss to Sulligent

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

BREMEN – There was a healthy turnout in Cold Springs on a cold, drizzly Friday night to see the Eagles fight for a playoff spot on senior night, but a tough second half led to a 22-8 loss to Sulligent to eliminate Cold Springs from postseason contention.

The Eagles started the night with a nearly flawless opening drive that was capped off with a 3-yard touchdown run from senior running back Calvin McNabb that put them up 8-0 just a few minutes into the game. Unfortunately for Cold Springs, that was the only time the Eagles found the end zone all night.

The Blue Devils answered the early score from the Eagles with a 39-yard touchdown run toward the end of the opening quarter to cut the lead to 8-6.

Both defenses forced punts throughout the second quarter and the Cold Springs lead held going into halftime.

The second half belonged to Sulligent, starting with a devastating 15-play, nine-minute scoring drive to open the third quarter and take a 14-8 lead. Cold Springs' offense did not see the field again until there were less than three minutes remaining in the quarter and that possession ended with a turnover on downs. In fact, all of the Eagles' second-half possessions resulted in turnovers on downs, allowing the Blue Devils to maintain their lead and pull away.

Just a few seconds into the fourth quarter, Sulligent scored on another explosive run, this time from 47-yards out to go up 22-8 and put the game away.

McNabb led the Eagles in rushing, going for 88 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries, while running back Ayden Alexander finished just behind him with 76 yards on 17 carries. Cold Springs outgained the Blue Devils by 50 yards in the first half, but the Eagles were outgained 109-49 in the second half and had trouble getting off the field defensively as well as moving the chains on the offensive side.

Cold Springs moves to 4-5 on the season with the loss and will finish 2018 on the road next week against the rival (2-7) Vinemont Eagles.

Last-minute touchdown leads Good Hope to dramatic 27-22 win at Fayette County

Preston Prewett
Tribune Correspondent

FAYETTE COUNTY – Good Hope traveled to face (7-1) Fayette County Friday night for a battle between two evenly matched teams. This game was for a shot at first place in Class 4A, Region 5 and the fans were not disappointed. The game was back and forth all night and both teams played phenomenal football. This was one of those games that you wish both could win. Good Hope's never-give-up attitude and some last-minute heroics gave the Raiders the 27-22 victory.

Fayette County started the contest off with a run-heavy attack, racking up 44 yards on the ground and putting the Raider defense on its heels.

The 17-play, 79-yard drive ended with a Tiger touchdown and milked 8:53 off the game clock. Fayette failed to convert the extra point and led the game 6-0.

The Raiders started their offensive outing on the legs of Colton Bagwell and the arm of Bailey Quick.

On this drive, Bagwell had four touches for 25 yards with Quick connecting twice for 37 yards. The Raiders capped off the drive with a Preston Bagwell 11-yard run to take a 7-6 lead.

On Fayette's next possession, the Tigers couldn't get anything going and ended up muffing the punt, giving Good Hope great field position at the 49.

The Raiders took advantage and quickly went 51-yards on six plays to extend their lead to 13-6 on a 20-yard Quick touchdown run.

The Tigers would not be denied on their next offensive outing. Fayette took advantage of a Good Hope pass interference call, marching down the field for 52 yards on 10 plays to take the 14-13 lead.

The Raiders followed up with a three-and-out and a punt. The first half drew to a close with the Tigers on top 14-13.

The second half saw both teams come out of the locker room energized and ready to play. Both defensive units stepped up, forcing the offenses to punt on a couple of possessions.

On Good Hope's third possession, the run game started clicking and the five-play, 40-yard drive ended with a Colton Bagwell bull run for the score, putting the Raiders on top 21-14.

The defenses for both teams stepped up again, forcing two more three-and-outs before the Fayette offense went into high gear.

The Tigers combined short passes and short runs to stack up 65 yards on 10 plays to take a 22-21 lead with 2:13 left in the game.

The Raiders had all three timeouts and took over at their own 40-yard line. The Good Hope offensive coach dialed up some quick hitting runs and a 25-yard Quick pass to Preston Bagwell.

With the Raiders knocking on the door at the 11, an intentional grounding call pushed them back to the 30-yard line and took them to fourth down.

With the game on the line, 20 seconds remaining and 30 yards to go, Quick fired the ball down field and found Matt Dixon for the game-winning touchdown.

The Raiders finished out the game in prevent defense and batted the final Tiger throw to the ground to take the 27-22 win on the road.

The Raiders are now done in region play at 5-1 and tied for first place. They'll return home next week to face off against (1-8) Hanceville to wrap up the regular season.

Broncos (from Front)

Hunter Mann
Tribune Correspondent

HOLLY POND – The Broncos hosted the Vinemont Eagles Friday night in a game that was for more than just bragging rights. By holding off the Eagles 38-20, Holly Pond has punched its ticket to the postseason.

Holly Pond got the ball to start the game but couldn't get anything going on offense. On the ensuing possession, Vinemont got the ball and put together a scoring drive that ended with junior wideout Teague Whatley scoring the first touchdown of the game. The rest of the quarter was Holly Pond attempting to break through the Eagles' defense and the first quarter ended with Holly Pond on the 25-yard line.

The second quarter started with senior running back Jeremiah Holmes scoring a touchdown for the Broncos. A 2-point conversion put Holly Pond in the lead 8-6.

The Broncos kept the Eagles out of the end zone and drove the ball in for another score, this time from freshman running back Tyler Simmons.

After another 2-point conversion, Vinemont received the ball, but couldn't go anywhere with it. Holly Pond got the ball back and pushed down the field on another scoring drive that was capped off by another touchdown from Simmons. There wasn't a conversion this time though, and the first half ended with the Broncos on top 22-6.

The third quarter had no scoring or interesting plays until roughly halfway through.

A stalemate in the defenses was broken up by Holly Pond with a quick touchdown pass from quarterback Kyler Chaney to senior tight end Alex Corneglio. The 2-point conversion made it 30-6 Broncos.

The quarter moved on with Vinemont slowly driving forward until an interception made by senior safety Isaac Ludwig occurred in the last moments of the quarter.

The fourth quarter began with a rushing touchdown from Ludwig that put Holly Pond up 38-6. Halfway through fourth quarter, the Eagles started to show strength and broke through the Broncos' line to cut the lead to 38-12. Vinemont was able to score again late in the game to make it 38-20, but it was too little too late for the Eagles.

Holly Pond and Vinemont will both wrap up regular season play with rivalry matchups next week. The Broncos will make the short trip over to face (4-5) Fairview and the Eagles will host (4-5) Cold Springs.

5 Guthrie TDs help lift Addison to 50-8 senior night victory over Hatton

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

ADDISON – Friday was senior night for the Addison Bulldogs and they hosted Hatton for their final home game of the regular season. It was all Addison in this one. The Bulldogs easily took care of business in their final region game of the season, 50-8. They are now in a three-way tie for first place in the region with Red Bay and Colbert County.

The Bulldog defense forced a Hatton punt to start out the game and Addison got excellent field position after a bad punt that was spotted at the 26.

After a holding penalty took away a touchdown by Logan Wilkins on the first play, Zayne Guthrie found the end zone on the next play with a 24-yard run to put the Bulldogs on top early.

That would be the only score of the quarter as Addison went into the second period leading 6-0.

After forcing another Hatton punt, the Bulldogs marched their way down the field. Grant Rice picked up a key first down and Guthrie found Wilkins for a 39-yard pickup, putting them at the Hatton 21-yard line.

Guthrie later found the end zone for the second time in the game on a 17-yard, hard-nosed run that made it 12-0.

Rice picked off a Hatton pass on the next drive and on the ensuing Addison possession, Guthrie found a big hole on the left side and scored on a 98-yard run to increase the lead to 20-0.

Noah Jeffreys recovered a fumble on the kickoff and the Bulldogs quickly cashed in on the opportunity as Guthrie found Wilkins over the middle for a 19-yard touchdown pass to make it a 28-0 score at the half.

Addison added three more scores in the second half: a 31-yard touchdown pass from Guthrie to Jorge Smith, a Caleb Crider 4-yard run and a 10-yard run by Colton Tyree.

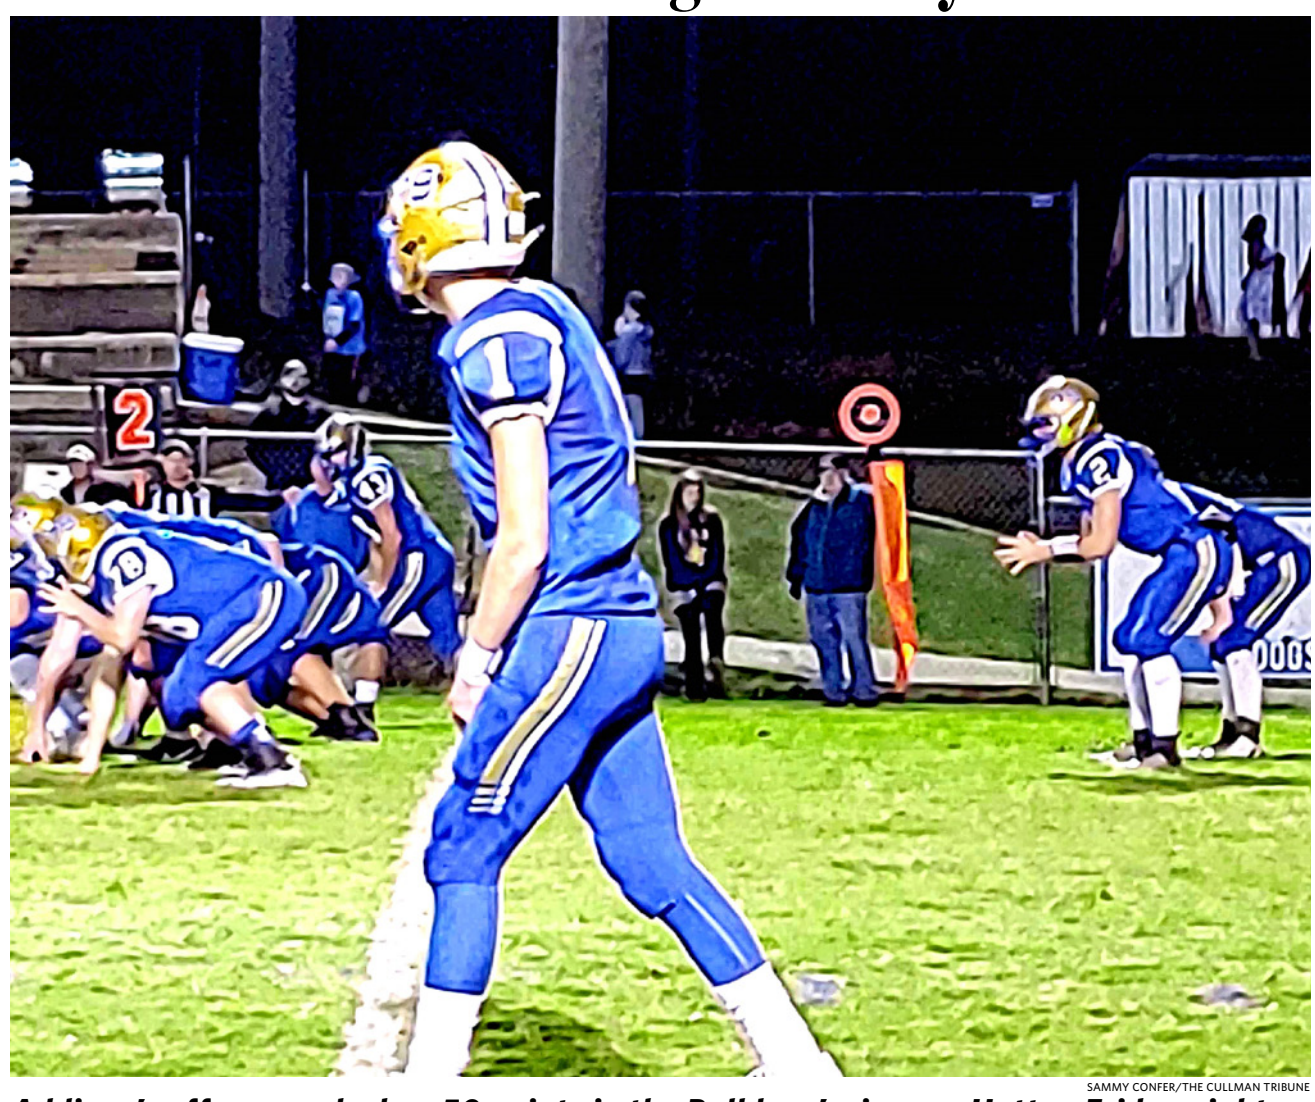

Hatton scored in the fourth quarter on a 30-yard touchdown pass and on a safety to make the final score 50-8.

The Bulldogs finish with a record of 8-2 in the regular season and 5-1 in the region. Four seniors played their last regular season game at Addison: Guthrie, Gage Gilliland, Hayden Ray and Trace Thompson.

Guthrie had a huge night as he finished with 192 rushing yards and three scores.

He also went 10-of-16 for 142 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air. Wilkins added 58 yards on a pair of catches and a touchdown, while Smith ended up with 31 receiving yards and a score. The defense forced four turnovers and allowed just 129 yards of offense. Rice and Smith each had interceptions, while Jeffreys and Timothy Trussell each had fumble recoveries.

Addison will be get a week off before hitting the field again for the first round of the state playoffs on Nov. 9.

Warriors drop 7th straight game on the road against Hayden, 20-7

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HAYDEN – The Warriors weren't quite able to get their offense moving on the road Friday night as they dropped their final region game of the season to Hayden 20-7.

On a cold, wet night in Hayden, West Point's offense had trouble getting started and wasn't able to find the end zone until midway through the third quarter.

The Wildcats took the opening drive down the field for a score to take an early 6-0 lead.

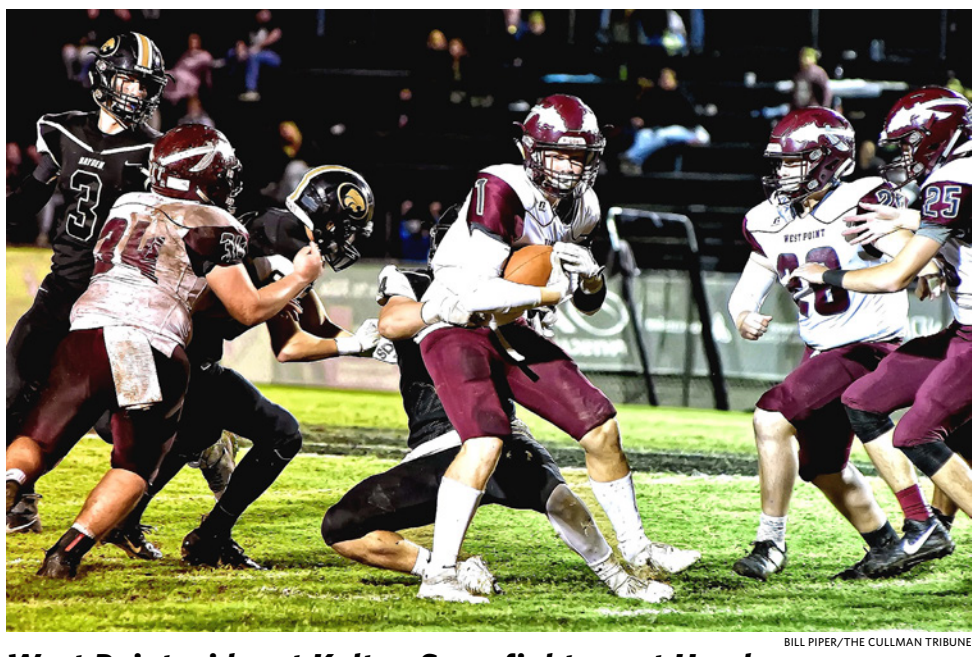

Midway through the opening quarter, Hayden added to its lead with a 55-yard touchdown run to make it 12-0.

The Warrior defense held after giving up the two early touchdowns and held the score at 12-0 heading into the halftime break.

West Point quarterback Rylan Jones found his wideout Whit Laney 22-yards down field for a touchdown midway through the third quarter to cut the lead to 12-7, but it was the only time the Warriors were able to get on the scoreboard.

An interception late in the third quarter, a turnover on downs early in the fourth quarter and a fumble on the goal line in the final two minutes kept West Point from chipping away at the Wildcats' lead, and the Warriors finished up region play with a 20-7 loss on the road.

The Warriors have now lost seven straight but can end the season on a high-note next week when they host (1-8) Cordova.

Ten Things from a Tribune

Tastemaker

Ben Johnson South
Tribune Contributor

In this creative new weekly series, local author, artist and all-around entertaining and eccentric (not to mention classy!) Southern gentleman Ben Johnson South introduces Cullman Tribune readers to the creative thinkers and doers in the Cullman community.

"10 Things from a Tribune Tastemaker"
This week, meet Concetta Lovoy Kreps, textile guru

"One who sleeps under a handmade quilt is comforted by love." That warm and warming sentiment is shared by TASTEMAKER, Concetta Lovoy Kreps, a fashion-savvy Cullmanite who has many remnants of fond memories of The Calico Shop and The Sewing Gallery, two Cullman textile treasure troves of by-gone days. Concetta recalls her excitement as a 6-year-old finding a bolt of "fake mink, I was certain was real" and her mother creating a splendid ensemble of mink-ish stole, muff and hat which Concetta wore with a red suit to midnight mass at Sacred Heart Church at Christmastime.

Concetta mentions both her grandmothers, accomplished seamstresses, as major influences on her lifelong love of textiles.

She said, "When I travel, I love to visit great fabric shops, and many times I've bought a yard or yards of something even though I didn't have a sewing project in mind."

She added, "If I buy it, the project will come."

Concetta Lovoy Kreps is recognized as a superb quilter and generous-spirited baker.

Here are her "TEN TEXTILE THINGS FROM A TRIBUNE TASTEMAKER," and fittingly, her favorite recipe for Red Velvet Cake with White Satin Icing:

1. ORGANIC, NATURAL COTTON—fabric she wishes men and women added to their wardrobes

2. STRIPED SILKS FROM INDIA—sumptuous and affordable

3. HAND-DYED FABRICS and BATIKS—captivating her now

4. LEATHER—favorite upholstery for vehicles

5. COTTON BATH TOWELS—traditional, but always best

6. ROMAN SILKS AND SATINS—This Italophile loves these lavish luxuries for fashion and home décor when in Rome.

7. ALL-STEAK ORANGE ROLLS—favorite Cullman indulgence, "fresh from the oven in a cloth-covered basket"

8. MOST-COVETED KLEIBACKER DESIGN—a black silk, Café Society dress accented with a bow (see Cullman designer's vintage illustration)

9. CAROLINA HERRARA, KAFFE FASSETT, PHILIP JACOBS—favorite textile designers

10. MATERIAL—weird word people use instead of "fabric or textile"

Another passion for this Tribune TASTEMAKER is foreign-language, Western (cowboy and Indian) comic books. Think cowboy denim, chambray, leather and Native American beads, feathers, woven blankets and leather.

RED VELVET CAKE

with CULLMAN STRAWBERRIES & BLUEBERRIES

This cake is an Alabama tradition made with CULLMAN-GROWN fresh strawberries and blueberries. It can be made and chilled a day before serving.

CAKE

2 ¼ cups sifted cake flour (sift, then measured)
2 tbsp. unsweetened cocoa powder
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. baking soda
½ tsp. salt
1 cup buttermilk
1 tbsp. red food coloring
1 tsp. distilled white vinegar
1 tsp. lemon juice
1 tsp. vanilla extract
1 ½ cups sugar
½ cup (1 stick) unsalted butter, room temperature
2 large eggs

SATIN FROSTING with berries

2 8-ounce packages cream cheese, room temperature
½ cup (1 stick) unsalted butter, room temperature
1 tbsp. vanilla extract
2 ½ cups powdered sugar
2 tsp. lemon juice
3 ½ pint baskets fresh, Cullman strawberries
3 ½ pint baskets fresh, Cullman blueberries

FOR CAKE: Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Butter and flour two 9-inch-diameter cake pans with 1 ½-inch-high-sides. Sift sifted flour, cocoa powder, baking powder, baking soda and salt into medium bowl. Whisk buttermilk, food coloring, vinegar, lemon juice and vanilla in small bowl to blend. Using electric mixer, beat sugar and butter in large bowl until well blended. Add eggs one at a time, beating until well blended after each addition. Beat in dry ingredients in four additions alternately with buttermilk mixture in three additions. Divide batter between prepared pans. Bake cakes until tester inserted into center comes out clean, about 27 minutes. Cool in pans on racks 10 minutes. Turn cakes out onto racks; cool completely.

FOR SATIN FROSTING: Beat cream cheese and butter in large bowl until smooth. Beat in vanilla. Add powdered sugar and beat until smooth. Place 1 cake layer, flat side up, on platter. Spread 1 cup frosting over top of cake. Arrange one basket strawberries and ½ basket blueberries atop frosting, pressing lightly to adhere. Top with second cake layer, flat side down. Spread remaining frosting over top and sides of cake. Arrange remaining berries decoratively over top of cake. (Can be made one day ahead. Cover and refrigerate. Let stand at room temperature one hour before serving.)

Concetta thanks Bon Appetit Magazine for this recipe she adapted.

Funny Things from Yesterday: Bring me some gas

Robert N. Tidwell, Sr.
Tribune Contributor

When Robin, our daughter, was a teenager in high school, she dated a nice young man named Danny Skipper. Danny was a high school student but always had a job in the afternoon. He owned his own car, a little VW Beetle. A car that was supposed to get good gas mileage. Danny never ran out of gas on their date, as some boys do; but, somehow when he left our house to go home he always ran out of gas.

Our telephone would ring, and I would answer it. Danny would ask to speak to Robin. Robin would answer, and Danny would say, "Bring me some gas." The next thing I knew, Robin would be leaving in our car with my lawnmower gas to go somewhere to meet Danny.

I figure over the years that Robin and Danny dated, I probably furnished more gas than Danny bought to come to see Robin - and besides that - I furnished him with road service delivering the gas. Not being able to beat a deal like that, Danny asked Robin to marry him.

We have been well pleased with Danny as a son-in-law, and Robin and Danny have more than repaid us by giving us the sweetest little granddaughter and finest little grandson any grandparents could ask for.

Danny and Robin have come a long way since their high school days, but just a few days ago my lawnmower was on the blink and Danny brought his mower over to mow our lawn. Before he finished his mower quit and wouldn't you know it? He asked me to bring him some gas.

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

I was scared to death of him – until I met him

Bill King
Tribune Contributor

The early years of his life were hard ones. He grew up dirt poor, like so many others of his generation. He was born in 1928. The Great Depression lurked around the corner. He said of those days, "My family really couldn't tell much difference during the depression because we were already depressed." He grew up in the farming community of Concord, on top of Sand Mountain, in northeast Alabama.

His main mode of transportation was two wheels, powered by his two legs. He was a long distance cycler, often riding his bicycle for dozens of miles at a time and off both sides of Sand Mountain.

Sometimes he waited at the foot of the mountain for big trucks to come by, so he could latch on to the back with one hand and let them pull him up to the top. Once he gained so much speed coasting down the Scottsboro side of the mountain that he couldn't stop.

He managed to make the turn at the foot of the mountain, crossed the B.B. Comer Bridge across the Tennessee River and finally rolled to a stop. He breathed a sigh of relief to still be in one piece. He continued to ride bicycles well into his sixties.

After he graduated from Sylvania High School, he served his county. He spent four years in the United States Air Force, serving stateside during the Korean War. After he returned, he met the love of his life. In 1953, he and Betty Smith said "I do" to one another. They spent the next sixty-two years together, until she died in 2014. After living and working in Chattanooga for several years, he moved his family back to his beloved Sand Mountain. By then their family included three girls and a boy. He faithfully worked at Earthgrains Bakery in Fort Payne for over twenty years, but his passion was the corn, cotton, and peanuts that he grew on his forty-acre farm.

He smiled as he plowed his fields, as well as his neighbor's gardens, with his red and gray Massey Ferguson. Once, in the middle of a cotton patch, dragging a cotton sack behind her, Jean asked her daddy why he didn't buy a cotton-picker. He answered, "Why should I? I already have four of them!"

I was scared to death of him – until I met him. A couple of years after we met, he became my father-in-law. His oldest daughter, Jean, was sixteen when we began dating one another. I was a much older than her. I was seventeen! Her dad worked second shift when I first began visiting their home, so he was not there when I came. We dated for a while before

I ever met her dad. All I knew about him was what Jean told me and I think she exaggerated – a little. I thought he must be a seven-foot tall beast. When I finally met him, I realized I was several inches taller than him. I wasn't scared to death of him anymore – just scared of him!

Over the next forty-five years, I grew to love him. I knew him for exactly one-half of his ninety years. Last Saturday we said goodbye, as we moved him to his final resting place.

I thank God that I had the privilege of being his son-in-law. Since I didn't have a living father during the years I knew him, he seemed like one to me. Thank you, Thomas C. Willis, for walking your daughter down the aisle and giving me her hand in marriage. We shall indeed miss you here.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

By: Robert Frost 1923

Submitted by: Randy C. Hale

"Once we see how fleeting and precious certain moments are, we should appreciate them more."

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is gold,

Her hardest hue to hold.

Her early leaf's a flower;

But only so an hour.

Then leaf subsides to leaf.

So Eden sank to grief,

So dawn goes down to day.

Nothing gold can stay.

4 Ellis TDs help lift Aggies past Danville, 34-6

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

DANVILLE – On a cold and dreary Thursday night, the Fairview Aggies traveled to Danville's Smith-Owens Stadium to take on the Hawks. In a non-stop rain, Coach George Redding's Aggies were looking to position themselves for a .500 season by defeating Coach Shannon McGregory's Hawks, and they did, bringing home the 34-6 victory.

The Aggies converted an onside opening kickoff by recovering the ball at the Danville 49-yard line.

Quarterback Dayne Black opened the drive with a 28-yard run and four plays later, Tyvn Ellis capped off the opening drive with a 1-yard touchdown run.

Alex Medina converted the PAT to give Fairview the 7-0 lead at the 10:18 mark of the first quarter.

Danville took over on its own 21 following the Fairview kickoff looking to even the score.

Aided by a 44-yard run from Cameron Moore and a horse collar tackle penalty against Fairview, Danville capped off an 11-play drive when quarterback Brycen Templeton scored on a 5-yard run.

After the failed PAT, Danville cut Fairview's lead to 7-6 at the 4:27 mark of the first.

The Aggies returned the ensuing kickoff up to their own 45-yard line. On the first play of the drive, Ellis scored on a 55-yard run.

Missing the PAT, the Aggies quickly extended their lead to 13-6.

On Danville's next possession, the Hawks attempted to convert a fourth down from their own 34-yard line.

Fairview stopped Danville short and took over with 1:52 left in the opening quarter.

After exchanging punts, Fairview attempted their own fourth-down conversion in Danville's territory but came up short and turned the ball over to the Hawks.

On the third play, Templeton was sacked, fumbling the ball to the Aggies, who recovered the ball on the Hawk's 24-yard line.

On the second play, Ellis completed the first-half hat trick by scoring another touchdown on a 10-yard run. After failing to convert the PAT, the score with 4:38 left in the half was 19-6 Fairview.

Danville recovered Fairview's second onside kick attempt on its 45-yard line and on the second play of the drive, Tsyne Coker ran deep into Fairview territory on a 48-yard play.

Two plays later, Danville's drive was ended when Moore fumbled, and Fairview recovered on its own 2-yard line.

On the very next play, Black broke off a 98-yard run, scoring with 2:26 left in the first half to make the score 27-6 after a successful 2-point conversion.

The weather continued to influence both teams, the Hawks and Aggies both fumbling on their subsequent possessions. Neither team could capitalize on the turnovers and the half ended with Fairview leading 27-6.

The second half didn't start much different as both teams threw interceptions. Fairview's interception came on its only pass attempt of the game.

Danville drove deep into Fairview territory where the Aggies intercepted Templeton's pass in the end zone.

Starting on its own 20-yard line, Fairview capped off the scoring on a seven-play drive that ended when Ellis scored his fourth touchdown of the game on a 6-yard run.

With 1:23 left in the third quarter Fairview extended its lead to 34-6.

The fourth quarter was a mixture of both teams almost losing fumbles and Danville failing again on a fourth-down attempt.

The contest ended with the same score: 34-6, Fairview.

Black led all rushers with 155 yards, followed closely by Ellis gaining 146 yards to go with his four touchdowns.

Fairview's only pass attempt was intercepted. However, the Aggies finished the game gaining 346 yards on the ground.

Fairview's defense held Danville to only one pass completion for 5 yards to go with only 160 yards rushing.

Danville completed its season without a victory. Fairview improved to 4-5 for the season and will host neighbor (5-3) Holly Pond next week attempting to get that .500 record.

HANCEVILLE – On Friday morning, students from around this part of the state gathered at Wallace State Community College for the North Alabama BEST (Boosting Engineering, Science and Technology) Robotics Tournament. Teams from Good Hope Middle School and Good Hope High School, Cullman Middle School and Fairview High School represented the Cullman area, and Good Hope Middle took second place overall, advancing to the state BEST tournament in December. First place went to Spain Park High School from Hoover.

As one of the goals is to expose students to the broad field of science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) careers, the competition judges teams on far more than just the performance of their robots. Criteria include: teamwork, application of the engineering design process, school/community involvement, positive attitude/enthusiasm, diversity of participation, sportsmanship, creativity and ethics.

Teams and individual students can receive awards for point counts on the competition floor, most robust machine, most elegant machine, web page design, CAD design, oral presentations, educational displays, project notebooks, and even things like best T-shirt and most photogenic machine.

All four area teams brought home awards:

- Good Hope Middle School - Second Place 2018 BEST Award, BEST Spirit and Sportsmanship Award, BEST Mascot
- Cullman Middle School - Third Place 2018 BEST Game
- Fairview High School - Wallace State's 2018 BEST Robotics Team of Distinction, BEST Pep Band
- Good Hope High School - "Blood, Sweat, and Duct Tape" Award
