We are pleased to offer a new bridge for them to travel as they work toward their bachelor's degree and beyond."

The program will take nine semesters to complete. Students are required to complete four semesters of academic coursework before applying to both Wallace State and UAB in advance of the fifth semester. Classes for the last five semesters would be completed concurrently at the Wallace State-Hanceville campus and online through UAB.

PET OF THE WEEK

Spencer's looking for his forever home

CULLMAN COUNTY ANIMAL SHELTER

Spencer

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman County Animal Shelter volunteer Donna Ruttkay shares The Cullman Tribune's Pet of the Week:

Spencer is a 1-year-old hound mix. He's a laid-back, low- to medium-energy pet who's submissive to his humans, savvy with leash etiquette and just enjoys being with people.He loves playing with doggie toys, and, if you like water, so does he; the kiddie pool is among his favorite stops on the shelter grounds.

Ruttkay called Spencer "just a swell guy" who "never meets a stranger."

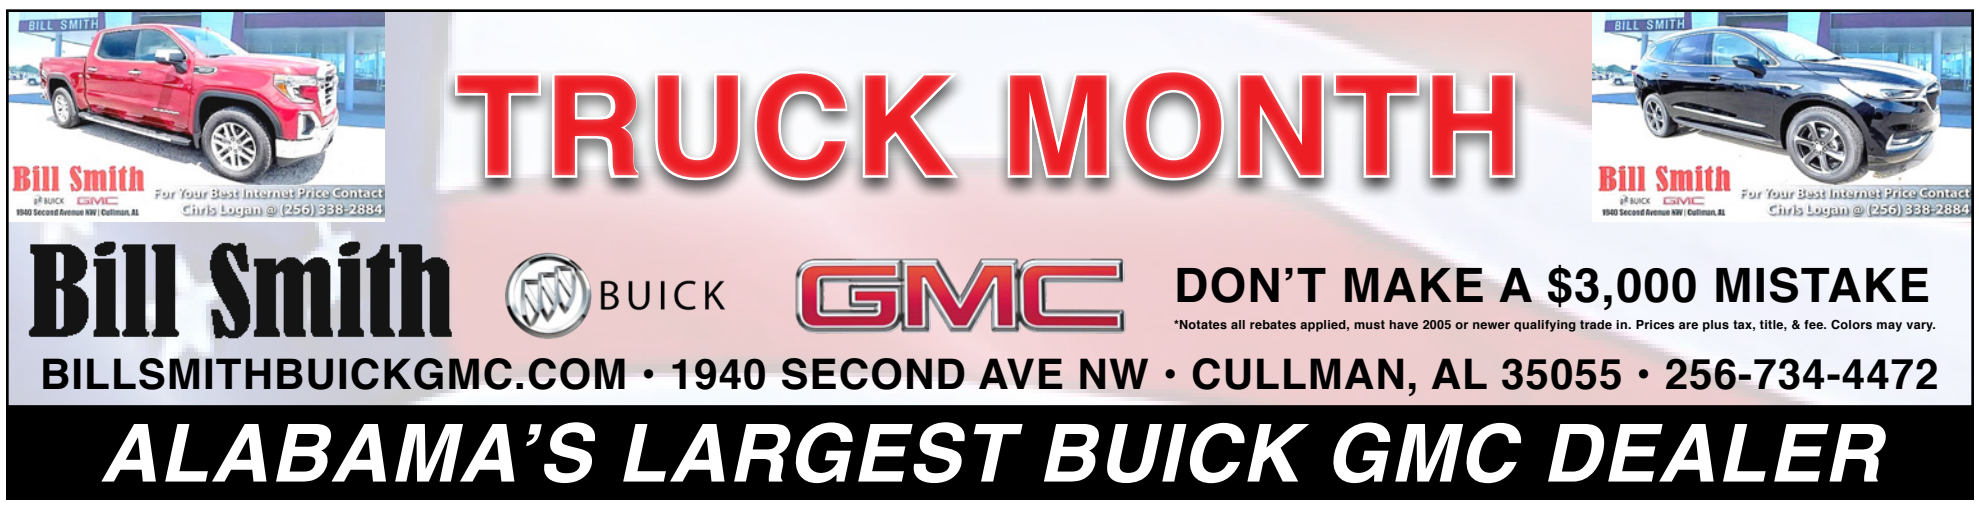

Spencer has the makings of a good companion, emotional support, therapy or reading dog.

Doggie to go!

Folks usually have to wait after adopting for their pups to be neutered, but the shelter had Spencer neutered ahead of time so he would be available for last week's 2nd Fridays downtown celebration.

He was not adopted at that event, but that just means he's ready to go now. You will still have to pay the neutering fee, but you can take him home with you the same day!

Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking » PAGE 5

Andy Burcham named voice of Auburn Tigers

AU Athletics
Contributor

AUBURN, Ala. – Andy Burcham, who has been part of Auburn radio broadcasts for the previous 31 years in various capacities, has been named the lead announcer for Auburn football, men's basketball and baseball, Auburn Sports Properties and Auburn Athletics announced Monday.

Burcham assumes the responsibilities previously held by Rod Bramblett, who passed away along with his wife, Paula, on May 25 in an automobile accident.

Burcham worked alongside Bramblett for the previous 25 years broadcasting Auburn baseball and served as the play-by-play voice for Auburn women's basketball since 1988. No stranger to Auburn football, Burcham has been the pre and postgame locker room host for Tiger football since 1990 and was the play-by-play announcer on Auburn football pay-per-view and tape-delay broadcasts from 1992-2013.

"I'm thrilled to be selected as the Voice of the Auburn Tigers," Burcham said. "While it's a bittersweet time and I wish the circumstances creating this opportunity were different, I am honored to be following in the footsteps of such legends as Rod Bramblett, Jim Fyffe, and others. With this job, you're not just the voice of Auburn football, men's basketball and baseball.

"You're also the voice of Auburn. You represent Auburn every day, and I will never forget that. I have been in this community and broadcasting Auburn games for 31 years. I understand and love Auburn and its tradition. I can't wait to be a part of it moving forward."

A versatile broadcaster, Burcham has done radio and SEC Network+ broadcasts for Auburn soccer since 2001, SEC Network+ broadcasts for Auburn baseball the last five years and locally hosted Auburn Opelika This Morning for 12 years while serving as station manager at WANI. A recipient of 15 Alabama Broadcaster Association awards, Burcham began his career in the Auburn-Opelika area as news and sports director for Fuller Broadcasting and Tiger Communications.

"During the very difficult process of replacing Rod, it was very clear that Andy Burcham was the right man to be the new Voice of the Auburn Tigers," Auburn Sports Properties vice president and general manager Chris Davis said "He is well respected not only in his profession, but by his coworkers, Auburn Athletics coaches and administration, and in the community. He understands the importance of this role. Andy is a consummate professional who puts great preparation, execution and passion into his work. Most importantly, Andy is a man of great character who loves and cares deeply for Auburn and what it represents. We're very excited for Andy and can't wait for the Auburn Family to embrace him in his new role."

Burcham will co-host Tiger Talk with veteran Auburn broadcaster Brad Law and work alongside Law on Auburn baseball broadcasts. Law will also serve as pre and postgame locker room host for Auburn football. Brit Bowen will take over broadcasting duties of Auburn women's basketball and Auburn softball.

"Simply put, Andy is unquestionably the right man for the job," Auburn director of athletics Allen Greene said. "His experience as a broadcaster is extensive and his affinity for Auburn is unrivaled. Having been part of the Auburn Family for over three decades, Andy understands what sets Auburn apart and understands the passion of our loyal fan base. He deeply respects those who have come before him and will assume this role with a great deal of humility. Andy is a true Auburn Man."

Burcham's four-decade run in the profession started at Indiana State as an undergraduate student calling Sycamore football, men's and women's basketball and baseball for student radio station WISU. He also called games at Illinois State and Southern Illinois before coming to Auburn in 1988.

A native of Nashville, Ill., Burcham graduated from Indiana State University in 1983 with a degree in radio, television and film. Burcham is married to Dr. Jan Gunnels Burcham, a 1984 and 1992 Auburn University graduate, who is the Moselle Fletcher Endowed Chair and Associate Dean for the College of Education and Health Profession at Columbus State University.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

CURRENT AUBURN COACHES ...

Karen Hoppa, Auburn Head Soccer Coach

"We are thrilled that Andy is the new Voice of the Auburn Tigers. He has worked soccer since the early 2000's and is the best play-by-play guy I have ever heard in our sport. He is a consummate professional who is passionate about what he does and will be a great representation of the Auburn family."

Gus Malzahn, Auburn Head Football Coach

"I've had the pleasure of working closely with Andy, visiting with him on the pregame and postgame shows each week during the football season over the last six years. He's a true professional and is the right person for the job. I know Andy will continue the tradition of great Auburn voices who have called Auburn football games."

Bruce Pearl, Auburn Men's Basketball Coach

"Andy Burcham has dedicated three decades on the airwaves for Auburn and is a fixture in our community. I can't think of a better Voice of the Auburn Tigers than Rod Bramblett's best friend and trusted colleague. I'm excited for him to tell the Auburn basketball story for years to come."

Butch Thompson, Auburn Head Baseball Coach

"To me Andy Burcham seems to be the unanimous choice to become the Voice of the Auburn Tigers. He has devoted an entire career - more than three decades - to Auburn Athletics. Andy loves Auburn. He is a true professional, the best interviewer in the business and was Rod Bramblett's dearest friend. It is what Rod would've wanted, and Andy is without a doubt the man for the job."

Terri Williams-Flournoy, Auburn Head Women's Basketball Coach

"Andy is one of the best in the business, both as a broadcaster and as a friend. He will always be a part of our Auburn women's basketball family, just as he has been for the last 31 years. While I am sad to lose Andy from our women's basketball broadcasts, I am so happy for him that he is fulfilling a longtime dream as the Voice of the Auburn Tigers."

FORMER AUBURN COACHES ...

Hal Baird, Auburn Head Baseball Coach, 1985-2000

"I'm absolutely thrilled that Andy Burcham will be the new Voice of the Auburn Tigers. I am certain he will carry on the outstanding tradition and legacy that started during my time with Jim Fyffe and followed on with Rod Bramblett. I've known Andy for 30 years and he's always been a thorough professional and communicated extremely well with coaches, players and the fans. He's felt the wins with the wins and the losses with the losses. I look forward to him calling countless Auburn touchdowns, 3-pointers and home runs."

Joe Ciampi, Auburn Women's Basketball Coach, 1979-2004

"Andy is a tireless worker, always prepared and is outstanding at describing the game. He is deserving to be the Voice of the Auburn Tigers and has dedicated 31 years to Auburn. Andy's voice has been well known nationally for a long time in the game of women's basketball and he will do an outstanding job transferring that into his new role."

BROADCASTERS AND COLLEAGUES ...

Cole Cubelic, SEC Network sideline reporter

"Having done Comcast Sports Southeast and television replay with Andy 15 years ago, I learned quickly about his passion for Auburn and what a great broadcaster, friend and mentor he was and continues to be. Despite the circumstances, there is nobody more qualified and deserving to be the next voice of the Auburn Tigers then Andy Burcham."

Quentin Riggins, Former Auburn linebacker and Auburn radio sideline reporter (1991-2015)

"I am so excited to hear the news that my friend Andy Burcham will be the new Voice of the Auburn Tigers. Andy and I have walked the sidelines together for years and I can tell you the Auburn Family is getting one of the most talented guys in the business. He will bring his best to the stadium every day and he will bring a little bit of Rod with him as well. A tremendous hire!"

Sonny Smith, Auburn Sports Network men's basketball analyst

"Andy Burcham is a real pro. He's provided great commentary for the Auburn Tigers for a number of years. He's certainly deserving of this opportunity and I have no doubt in my mind that he will do a great job. I'm very much looking forward to working with him."

Stan White, Auburn Sports Network football analyst

"When hearing the news that Andy Burcham would be taking over the play-by-play duties for Auburn, the first thought that came to my mind is that Rod Bramblett is somewhere smiling right now because his close friend and colleague is carrying on the tradition as the Voice of the Auburn Tigers. Obviously, it's been a tough three months for the Auburn family as well as our network family with the passing of our dear friends Rod and Paula. Andy will bring the leadership and work ethic that would make Rod proud to carry on those duties. Although Rod and I were partners for 16 years and 208 straight games, I got my first start in the broadcasting booth in 1999 on Comcast Sports Southeast calling games with Andy. I owe much of what I learned about preparation and broadcasting to Andy's guidance. I look forward to sharing the microphone once again with my friend and colleague."

REMEMBER WHEN

Area seniors recall their high school days

Christy Perry
christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Seniors from across the county come to Cullman's Donald E. Green Senior Center to participate in fun activities and enjoy a few laughs with friends. Last Friday afternoon, they swapped stories from when they were different kinds of seniors. They reminisced about the good ol' days of high school and the great times they had.

Sherry Boatwright, Shirley Nelson and Anne Meiman are members of the Senior Spirit Dancers and Kickers and they had plenty to say about their high school experiences.

Boatwright was a cheerleader in junior high at Welti before transferring to Holly Pond in 10th grade. The Holly Pond cheerleaders were already chosen, she said, so she hung up her pom-poms, but she did get involved in other organizations.

"When I got to Holly Pond, I was involved in different clubs like the Beta Club and FHA (Future Homemakers of America)," she said.

That might sound tame, but according to Boatwright, not so much.

"The initiation back then, people just think they get hazed and bullied now. I swear, I kept saying, if I had known what they were going to do to me to get into the FHA. I did not enjoy it! A lot of girls thought it was just funny.

"I am crawling through this parking lot on my hands and knees in the rain. It is not funny."

She added, "We spent the night in the Home Ec. Building, like a big spend the night party. It was fun once I got into the FHA as I remember. But I remember that initiation was awful."

Boatwright said Ms. Pope was the home economics teacher, and she had the FHA members to her own house for a sleepover.

Boatwright graduated from Holly Pond in 1968.

"We didn't have any hazing that I recall," Nelson said of her high school days.

Nelson grew up in Birmingham and attended West End High School. She took the street car to school.

"We got out and rode our bikes, we skated and we did whatever we wanted. We would walk to Five Points West which was 5 miles away," she said.

Skating was the activity Nelson and her friends enjoyed the most.

Nelson laughed as she admitted, "If I happened to get mad at home in Fairview (Birmingham), my grandmother lived in West End.

"I'd climb out my window at night and go to my grandmother's, wake up the next morning and daddy would call and Granny would say, 'Yeah, she's here.' You wouldn't do that anymore."

Meiman went to high school in north Mississippi and worked for the school paper, the yearbook and other clubs. She grew up with party lines and recalled a night with her friends playing on the party line.

"I took three years of Latin in high school and we hated our Latin teacher," she said. "We had a spend the night party so we would call her up and say stuff. Like, is your toilet running? Silly stuff.

"We annoyed her all night long like she wasn't going to find out who it was. The next week in school, one of our English teachers asked, 'What did y'all do this weekend?' So, in school we all wrote about being at a spend the night party. We just confessed!"

The Latin teacher called the girls into her office and lectured them about tying up the party lines.

Allen Little, Mickey Bates, Dora Johnson and Betty Horton get together every Tuesday and Friday to play Mexican Train dominoes and would love for other seniors to come join them. They had lots to say about their times in school.

Little graduated from Cullman High School in 1969. He played baseball but started rodeoing when he was just 14.

He said, "I rodeoed for 15 years. I rode bulls and I was 16 making more money than my daddy was."

Little went pro when he was 19 and said there were lots of broken bones. He would rodeo full-time in the summer and on weekends during the school year.

He said, "I stayed in the principal's office! I had Ag and study hall for the last few periods. I would cut those.

"The principal would sit up there watching for me in the gym. The next day he would bring me in the office and ask me about skipping school. He'd wear out my rear with a paddle."

CHRISTY PERRY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Bates would have graduated from Fairview in 1962, but she dropped out to get married. She was married for 55 years. She did go back later to get her diploma from Wallace. She remembered getting in a little trouble in school.

"I chewed chewing gum and got sent to the office," she said. "Slipped to the store to get a bar of candy and got whipped by the principal.

"They did the girls hands back then, and you talk about hurting!"

Bates said she and her siblings would take the bus to school each morning. If they missed the bus, they would have to walk.

"We didn't get to stay home," she said.

It was a 4-mile walk so they made sure to get to the bus.

Johnson graduated from Cullman High School in 1958 and rode the bus each morning from the Smith Lake area.

"I lived way down near Goat Island so we lived too far to be in too many things. I was in FHA and some things like that."

Johnson didn't go to the football games but did go to the baseball games. When she stayed in town with friends, Johnson would hang out at The Globe and the drive-in. Little and his friends enjoyed the same places and admits to being a bit mischievous. He and his buddies knew where to get strawberry wine in Cullman.

A 1950 graduate on Holly Pond High School, Horton said, "We ran after the boys!"

Basketball games were the big events for Holly Pond in 1950. The school did not have a football team in 1950.

"High school was good!" Little said.

The Donald E. Green Senior Center is located at 1625 Cleveland Ave. SW, Cullman, AL 35055. It is open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Contact the center at 256-734-4803 or seniorspirit@cullmanrecreation.org.

Vinemont Baptist Church preparing to celebrate 100th anniversary

craig@cullmantribune.com

VINEMONT, Ala. – On Sunday, Aug. 18, 2019, Vinemont Baptist Church will celebrate 100 years of service to its community.

As the congregation prepared, local historian, church member and former Vinemont Principal Dr. Jane Teeter shared the history of the church: "Vinemont Baptist Church was established from a Sunday school that began holding classes in the old Vinemont School building. Rev. Luther Moye was invited to hold a revival at the school building the first week of August 1919.

Wednesday morning of that week of revival a motion was made by G.C. Burks to organize a Missionary Baptist Church at Vinemont. The motion was carried and Vinemont Baptist Church was organized with 17 charter members.

"In the fall of 1919 the Vinemont Baptist Church was accepted into the Cullman County Baptist Association. The old Vinemont School building was purchased by the church for the sum of $425. A new roof was added and arrangements were made for lighting so that worship services could be conducted at night.

"An adequate water supply was secured by digging a new well in 1922. During the 1930s, the church land was used for growing cotton. Many people in the church provided the labor for the production of the cotton crop.

"Before the summer of 1931 was over, there were over 50 new members who joined the church. On March 20, 1949 under the leadership of Rev. Chester O'Neal, a new church building was begun.

"It was decided to dig the basement, pour the cement, and let it stand as such until crops were laid-by. Final occupancy of the new church was accomplished by the end of 1949.

"The next major addition to the church was in 1958 when an educational building was begun under the leadership of Pastor John Herndon. The church has undergone several restorations during the years following."

Following the service, a dinner will be held in the fellowship hall. All former members and friends of the church are invited to attend.

OPINION

Worldview, part 1

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Correspondent

This is the first in a series on the topic of Worldview. Everyone has a worldview. The German word for worldview is weltanschauung. It is a concept fundamental to philosophy and epistemology and refers to a wide world perception. Additionally, it refers to the framework of ideas and beliefs through which an individual interprets the world and interacts with it.

Notice the exhortation of A. W. Tozer, a prolific Christian author who died in 1963: "What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us."

First, everyone thinks about God. His voice in natural creation thunders to all people of all time in all places. This premise is validated by Psalm 19:1-4:

1 The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork.

2 Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.

3 There is no speech, nor are there words, whose voice is not heard.

4 Their voice goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.
(ESV)

Second, everyone has a "god." Songwriter Bob Dylan declared this reality in one of his songs. You either serve the "God of the Ages" revealed in the Bible or you serve a "god" of your own making. The God of the Ages tells you the truth about who He is and who you are. He tells you about the person of Jesus Christ and his life, death and resurrection. When a person repents and believes in the person of Christ and his finished work of redemption, he or she is assured everlasting life. Those who do not trust Christ will spend eternity in Hell when they die. No exceptions (Heb. 9:27).

But you're gonna have to serve somebody, yes
Indeed you're gonna have to serve somebody
Well, it may be the devil or it may be the Lord
But you're gonna have to serve somebody
("Gotta Serve Somebody", Bob Dylan)

Who you serve shapes your worldview. So, what is the average worldview of people in the USA? A recent nationwide survey completed by the Barna Research Group determined that only 4% of Americans have a "biblical" worldview. When George Barna, who has researched cultural trends and the Christian Church since 1984, looked at the "born-again" believers in America, the results were a dismal 9%. Barna's survey also connected an individual's worldview with his or her moral beliefs and actions. Barna said, "Although most people own a Bible and know some of its content, our research found that most Americans have little idea how to integrate core biblical principles to form a unified and meaningful response to the challenges and opportunities of life."

So, what about your personal worldview? Is it shaped by Truth, or, a "god" of your own making?

Everybody gonna serve somebody!

Council (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman City Council put its official stamp of approval on the construction of an industrial access road between County Road 222 and the North Alabama Fabricating Company (NAFCO), including grading, drain, base and paving. The City is working with Cullman County and the Cullman Economic Development Agency on the project, made possible because NAFCO recently received an industrial access road grant for $324,000 through the Alabama Department of Transportation's (ALDOT) Industrial Access Road and Bridge Committee.

The City of Cullman is not putting any money into the project for construction, but it will be responsible for maintaining the road in the future. Mayor Woody Jacobs and Council President Jenny Folsom believe the access road will make County Road 222 much safer for businesses and residents alike.

Early in Monday night's meeting the council also took the time to recognize a group of local athletes. Cullman Parks, Recreation and Sports Tourism's 12U All-Star Softball Team was recognized after winning this year's USSSA Softball Peaches Division State Championship. Most of the team's members were in attendance and they received a plaque from the council as well as a Resolution of Congratulations from the City.

Property rezoning
The council held hearings for two applications to rezone properties in the city:

• Ordinance No. 2019-23 to rezone property belonging to Terri and Brian Holmes, located at 213 Main Ave. NW, from Residential District to CBD Central Business District. The property, which contains a house, is located in an area with a mix of existing residences and businesses. After a public hearing, the council held a first reading of the ordinance without taking action.

• Ordinance No. 2019-24 to rezone property located at 1644 John H. Cooper Drive SE from M-1 Manufacturing District to B-2 Business District. The building located at the site is already being used as a business location by Backstage Venues, LLC. After a public hearing, the council held a first reading of the ordinance without taking action.

The council approved two requests:
• from Sarah Walker of the American Heart Association to hold a fundraiser in Depot Park on Nov. 16, 2019 from 9-11 a.m. The event will include a 5K run/walk, survivors' walk around Depot Park, kids' games, health screenings and other activities in the park.
• from Wastewater Treatment Plant Superintendent Jeff Adams to purchase a Grizzly OHV Smart Flow Bug Sprayer from Clarke in an amount not to exceed $11,000. The Grizzly is a programmable ultra-low volume unit that can help the plant deal with the ongoing issue of flies at the plant and in surrounding neighborhoods.

Resolutions for the city street department
The council passed the following resolutions for materials and services on behalf of the City of Cullman Street Department:
• Resolution No. 2019 - 72, to award the bid for the furnishing and laying of hot mix to Good Hope Contracting, Inc. McCartney Construction Company of Gadsden, Reed Contracting, Inc. of Huntsville and Wiregrass Construction Company, Inc. of Guntersville were also listed as notified, but Good Hope Contracting was the only one to submit a bid. The amount was not listed.
• Resolution No. 2019 - 73, to award the bid for hot mix and cold mix paving materials to Good Hope Contracting, Inc. The same group of potential suppliers was invited as in the resolution above, but again Good Hope Contracting was listed as the only bidder. The amount was not listed.
• Resolution No. 2019 - 74, to award the bid for the milling of existing pavement to Kelly Construction, Inc. Good Hope Contracting, Inc. of Cullman submitted a higher bid. McCartney Construction Company of Gadsden, Mill It Up, Inc. of Warrior, Reed Contracting, Inc. of Huntsville and Wiregrass Construction Company, Inc. and Guntersville were notified but did not submit bids.
• Resolution No. 2019 -76, to authorize the Mayor to sign the agreements related to the relocation of water and sewer lines for the expansion of Alabama Highway 157.

Property annexations
The council gave a first reading for Ordinance No. 2019-25 but did not take action and moved the item to the next meeting's agenda; however, it did suspend the rules of order to vote on and adopt Ordinance No. 2019-26.
• Ordinance No. 2019-25 to annex property owned by Minuteman Construction, Inc. at and near 438 CR 702 near the Fox Meadow subdivision into the city limits of Cullman as R-2 Residential District. The request received a favorable recommendation from the City of Cullman Planning Commission.
• Ordinance No. 2019-26 to annex two parcels of land owned by Del Bales on Amy Lane at the southern end of the Hill Meadow subdivision on the city's northwest side into the city limits of Cullman as R-1 Residential District. These are lots one and two of a planned addition to the subdivision, and the request received a favorable recommendation from the City of Cullman Planning Commission.

Board appointments approved:
• Frances Cooper – Margaret Jean Jones Center Board
• James Chumley – Margaret Jean Jones Center Board
• Jenny Folsom – CATS 55 Board
• Wesley Moore – CATS 55 Board
• Hugh Harris – CATS 55 Board

Movie: Johnny English Strikes Again

Bumbling ex-spy Johnny English (Rowan Atkinson) is summoned out of retirement when MI-7 confronts a desperate shortage in field agents after a massive cyber attack launched from the south of France exposes the identities of all personnel currently working for the agency, in this 2018 sequel to Atkinson's two earlier Johnny English films. Supermarket Stakeout

Iron Chef Alex Guarnaschelli hosts this engaging new culinary competition series in which four chefs compete in three cooking rounds. Unfolding in pop-up kitchens outside supermarkets, an episode starts as Guarnaschelli gives the chefs $500 each, which they must use to cajole market customers to give up the bags of groceries they just purchased, without even knowing what the bags contain. The chefs may use only items acquired in this manner as they compete in the cooking challenges.

Pose

As the indomitable Blanca (Mj Rodriguez) is sent reeling by a shattering personal loss, her erstwhile frenemy Elektra (Dominique Jackson) unexpectedly steps up to organize a girls trip to the seashore in a new episode called "Life's a Beach." Billy Porter, Indya Moore, Ryan Swain and Charlayne Woodard also star.

Flipping Exes

Exes Nina Klemm and Michael LeSure find themselves working with a dubious investor, who offers only a tiny budget, a half-finished house and a very strict deadline in the new episode "Hell on Heels." Complicating things further, she's also searching for the perfect home to suit a longtime but very picky client.

Nina Klemm and Michael LeSure are featured in "Flipping Exes" Tuesday on Bravo.

Frances Juliana Butler, 87, passed away Aug. 9, 2019 at her home, surrounded by loved ones. Born in Krefeld, Germany Sept. 25, 1931 to Franz and Juliana Frieg, Frances lived an adventurous and wonderful life with her soul mate and best friend, Johnny Butler. She and Johnny met in 1953 while he was stationed in Germany, and he said when he met her, he knew she was the one. They married July 21, 1954 and soon after moved back to Alabama, Johnny's home. That move was the first of many, and their sense of adventure and brave spirits led them all over the country in search of a better life for them and their family. Johnny said Frances never complained about where they lived, and she always told her children that it didn't matter where they lived, because Johnny was her home. Their final long-distance move was back to Alabama in 1970 where they immersed themselves in their community and in their church – Ebenezer Baptist Church. Known to Johnny and family members as Franzi, to her daughters as Mama, and to her grandchildren as Grandma, she was funny and outspoken. She loved to laugh and she had a servant's spirit. She was a wonderful cook and she was frequently the first person to show up with food when a member of the church passed away. She loved poetry and flowers and traveling with Johnny through the mountains of Colorado or the backroads of Cullman...but most of all she loved her family. She and Johnny were married for 65 years, and there is no telling how many miles they traveled together. Their story is a true love story. Jack Aces Daniel Boatright (OP), left, and Jamie Carpenter, right, enjoy Saturday's show.

CULLMAN, Ala. – There was a record turnout for this weekend's Jack Aces/ Branham Accessories 5th Annual Bike & Car Show. The event raised more than $10,000 for the Cullman Police Department's Shop with a Cop program- more than double the amount raised last year.

This year's show was held at the Festhalle and surrounding areas, allowing for the event to expand. Around 100 motorcycles, cars and trucks registered, with more than $1,000 awarded to the winners.

As the crowd looked at the cars and visited the many vendor booths, Jesse Priest Music entertained with awesome Southern rock favorites.

Jack Aces President Derrick Barton was blown away by the turnout.

"The change in location really helped. We had a lot more room to bring in more vendors, including the food trucks and the giant bouncy house for the kids," said Barton.

"This is going to be a record year and the Cullman Police Department will get to help out even more kids. That's why we do it."

The Wacked Out Weiner and Augusta's Sports Grill brought food trucks and SnoBiz served up much needed shaved ice on the hot and humid afternoon.

The Mane Squeeze stayed busy serving freshly squeezed lemonade and Cabin Fever had cold beer.

Everyone who attended had the opportunity to vote on their favorite bikes, cars and trucks. This year's winners were:

Best of Show Car/Truck

- 1st- R&J Custom '69 Boss 600
- 2nd- Joey Hinkle '68 Chevelle
- 3rd- Rick Levvon '55 Bel Air

Best of Show Motorcycles

- 1st- Scott Wilson '12 Roadglide
- 2nd- Ray Methvin '03 Electraglide
- 3rd- Jesse Brown '11 Roadking

After the prizes and the door prizes, donated by dozens of generous sponsors, were given out, the party got kicked up a notch as 7 South rocked into the late evening.

The Jack Aces posted to Facebook: "We thank you all that braved the heat and came out to our show. We hope you all had a great time and look forward to seeing you all next year."
