City of Cullman encourages participation in 2020 Census; door-to-door surveyors already at work

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The 2020 Census is still officially almost seven months away, but such a big undertaking cannot happen instantly. In preparation for the big push next March and April, census workers have already begun going door to door performing "address canvassing."

The U.S. Census Bureau explains: "Known as In-Field Address Canvassing, this is the process of having field staff visit specific geographic areas to identify every place where people live or could live. The staff then compare what they see on the ground to the existing census address list. They verify, correct, or add address and location information."

Cullman Economic Development Agency's (CEDA) Susan Eller on Friday said, "I think we need to let people know they're out there, and to cooperate."

The address canvassers are not performing the actual census but are verifying the existence and occupation of dwellings. As such, they will simply be checking the correct address and verifying the type of dwelling: house, apartment or mobile home. Thanks to the use of current technology including satellite imagery, the Census Bureau has already been able to verify 65% of all addresses before sending out the first canvasser, so most residents will not get a visit. Some will, though, and the City of Cullman wants residents to be ready.

Are they for real?

Census Bureau address canvassers work part-time on a contract basis, so they may have day jobs or be college students with class schedules. This means that they might be knocking on doors at odd times: evenings or weekends.

If someone comes to your door saying they are from the Census Bureau, the Bureau advises: "To help identify address listers, employees will have badges and briefcases indicating their affiliation with the Census Bureau. They will knock on doors and ask a few simple questions to verify the address and any additional living quarters on the property for inclusion in the census.

"Employees will introduce themselves as a Census Bureau employee, show their official government ID » PAGE 8

CULLMAN, Ala. – United Way of Cullman County (UWCC) will host its 2019 Day of Caring Wednesday, Sept. 11. Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs will issue a proclamation Monday, Sept. 9 recognizing the day. Local businesses and organizations will take part by coordinating teams of employees to spend a day giving back to area nonprofit agencies.

"United Way of Cullman County, in collaboration with its community partners and other local nonprofit organizations, will host the annual Day of Caring Sept. 11, 2019.

"The event will provide community members with a meaningful and collective volunteer opportunity," said a media release from the UWCC.

"Day of Caring gives our community the opportunity to demonstrate what it means to Live United and give back," shared UWCC Executive Director Becky Goff.

"During Day of Caring, volunteers are able to accomplish projects for local nonprofits that they may not have the resources or the time to complete."

More than 150 volunteers from local businesses are donating time, volunteers and resources this year to assist with hands-on projects such as cleaning, landscaping, painting, carpentry and providing lunch for program participants.

"As United Way continues to work to bring the community together and make a lasting impact on Cullman, we are excited this year to be able to provide volunteer labor to several local organizations that currently don't receive funding from United Way," Goff said.

"We want to support organizations in our community that we know are doing great work because we all succeed when our community succeeds."

Day of Caring kicks off United Way's annual fundraising campaign, while promoting the value of volunteerism.

This year's event will take place on National Day of Service.

Launched in 2002, the National Day of Service asks people to do at least one good deed on 9/11, in honor of those who died that day.

Numerous community service organizations and charities offer opportunities for people to give back, paying tribute to the lives lost on Sept. 11, 2001, said the release.

Day of Caring will kick off with a breakfast at 7:30 a.m. at the United Way Train Depot (304 First Ave. NE, Cullman). It is sponsored by Reliance Worldwide, LP Building Solutions, Milos, The UPS Store and Publix.

The following businesses will be helping out around the area:

- Cullman Electric at Cullman Caring for Kids

Dominant 2nd half performance lifts Cullman over Decatur

Cullman quarterback Max Dueland (2) collected five rushing touchdowns in the Bearcats' 41-17 win over Decatur Friday night.

CULLMAN, Ala. – After hitting the road for their first two games of the season, the Cullman Bearcats hosted Decatur in their home opener Friday night and opened region play with a 41-17 win over the Red Raiders. Cullman trailed 17-7 at the half but a dominant performance from the Bearcats' offensive line and defense in the second half allowed them to come from behind and not only take the lead but pull away in convincing fashion. Quarterback Max Dueland was the beneficiary of several strong Cullman drives, finishing the night with five touchdowns on the ground.

The Bearcats were held to just 72 yards rushing and 98 yards total in the first half, but the backfield and the offensive front found their rhythm in the second half, racking up 248 yards on the ground in the final two periods. Jayden Sullins led Cullman with 158 yards and a touchdown while Jaylen Hughey added 125 yards himself. The Red Raiders went into the halftime break with 184 yards of offense and the lead but finished the night with 222 total yards and their third loss of the year.

FUNNY THINGS FROM YESTERDAY

Eating dinner at the Chinese restaurant

Robert N. Tidwell, Sr.
Tribune Contributor

On a Saturday night some friends of ours, Rudene and I drove to one of our neighboring cities for dinner at a Chinese restaurant.

I guess I am too much of a country boy to enjoy fancy foreign dishes for I tend to like basic country food, such as pinto beans, potatoes, corn bread and milk.

I do, occasionally, vary my diet and substitute black-eyed peas for the pinto beans, but I'm not country enough to eat turnip greens.

The only Chinese dish I'm used to is rice, but I was introduced to some new food that Saturday night. I had heard of egg rolls, but I thought that was an Easter activity.

After looking over the menu, I finally decided on some items I would try. Snow peas...I thought that they must be hardy peas to grow in the snow, but since I like black-eyed peas, I decided I would try them. Mongolian beef ...well, since I like steak and hamburgers, surely, I can't go wrong with this. I did, however, wonder how they got a cow all the way from Mongolia to Alabama.

In a few minutes the waiter brought our order out. The first item we had was wonton soup.

There must have been a misprint in the menu for I spell it "one."

This was the first soup I'd had that I could see the bottom of the bowl through the soup. I thought it was water, and they had forgotten to put the ingredients in. There were some green leaves floating around in the soup, which I ate, but the white thing that looked like a soggy cracker floating in the soup, I was afraid to try.

The waiter brought me a great big glass of ice water and a little cup with no handle for the Chinese tea. Chinese people must not drink as much tea as I do, or I would have had a much larger cup.

When my Mongolian beef arrived, I was surprised for I had been eating it for years and calling it country fried steak.

There was one big difference, however, and this is when I found out why they brought such a large glass of ice water. I took a bite of a red thing that was in the gravy and it took my breath, parched my lips and blistered my tongue.

I had not run into anything that hot since Dale and I buried our goldfish and used red pepper to decorate its grave. It took the big glass of ice water and five or six cups of Chinese tea to put the fire out.

If I ever eat Mongolian beef again, I'm sure going to avoid any red specks in the gravy.

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

Remembering the summer of 1968

Bill King
Tribune Contributor

The summer of 1969 has been the topic of much discussion this year. I can hardly believe this is the fiftieth anniversary of that year. Two major events took place that summer. Apollo 11 and American astronauts went to the moon, and hippies and young people went to Woodstock. Mama wouldn't let me go to either. It would still be a few years before I got my driver's license and bought my first car. That old worn out Fiat barely made it up Sand Mountain. I seriously doubt it would have made it up to the moon or Woodstock, even if Mama had said I could go!

I actually remember the summer of 68 more than 69. In July of that year I became a teenager. I worked that summer in my dad's business. Can you imagine a twelve year old tending a business...by himself? That's exactly what I did that summer. Dad owned King's Coal and Building Supply, in Rainsville, Alabama. There is a nursery rhyme that says, "Ole King Cole was a merry ole soul." I rewrote the rhyme to say, "Ole King's Coal, where everything was sold."

What began as a coal yard eventually included building supplies and hardware. We sold lumber, mortar, sand, gravel, bricks, and blocks with which you could build a house, as well as heaters and coal with which you could warm your house.

We also sold candy bars, Cokes, and even Vienna sausages and crackers. 1968 was the last summer we sold anything. I hope that wasn't because I ran things that summer, or ate too much of the candy, but that was our last one in business. Since we don't need to add more heat to what we already have during the summers in the south, we didn't sell much coal during those months. I guess not many people were building houses then either, so Dad used his trucks to haul things for other people that summer. Since he was gone most of the day and business was slow at Ole King's Coal, I tended the store. I was cheap labor. Actually, I was free labor... except for what I ate. I sold the snacks I couldn't eat to local farmers taking a break from plowing.

Dad had a new, one-ton, red Chevrolet dump-truck. I claimed it as my own. Hey, any boy who is old enough to run a business is old enough to drive a dump- truck. Our house was at the end of a long dirt driveway, behind our business. It probably wasn't a quarter of a mile, but too far for a working boy to walk!

My Uncle Bill, from Florida, brought his new bride to visit us that summer. I don't guess she had ever seen anyone my age drive a dump-truck. She almost had a heart attack when I pulled up for lunch. Well, "pulled up" might not be the correct choice of words. "Slid in" might have more accurately described my grand arrival. With a definite tone of concern, she asked my mama, "How old is that boy?" Knowing what she really meant, Mama said, "Why he's been driving since he was little!"

That was a different day and a different way. Things were not all good, but certainly not all bad either. Children, especially in the country, grew up a little faster than these days. I'm wondering if maybe we need a little more of what we had back then, and little less of what we have now. Perhaps a little more responsibility, and a little less play, was not all bad. I've got to run. I'm going to go get a Pay Day candy bar and a bottle of Coke.

Bill King can be reached at bkpreach@yahoo.com or 334-745-0588 (office) or 334-728-5514 (cell).

Addison knocks off Winston County at home 36-14

Todd Walker
Tribune Sports Correspondent

ADDISON, Ala. – A packed house watched two longtime rivals, Addison and Winston County, face off at A.G. Hicks Stadium in Addison on Friday night. Addison was facing an undefeated, 2-0, Yellow Jacket team while Addison was coming off a turnover-plagued, close loss at #2 in 3A Piedmont.

Winston County won the toss and deferred, kicking off to Addison. After a quick three and out, Addison's punter Eli Howse punted the ball and the ball came down striking a Winston County player in the back.

Addison recovered at Winston's 40-yard line and on the very next play, Addison quarterback Christian Roberts gave the ball back on a fumble. This would prove to be about the only bad thing that happened to Addison the rest of the game.

After a Winston punt, Addison took the ball from their own 47 and drove down to Winston's 18. Facing a 4th and 1, Addison went for it and Grant Rice scampered 18 yards for the touchdown. The two-point conversion was good and at the 4:32 mark of the first quarter, Addison led 8-0.

Two plays later, a Winston County fumble, which was recovered by Addison at the Winston County 40-yard line.

After a beautiful Roberts to Luke Chambers 32-yard pass put the Dawgs in business at the Winston 8-yard line, Addison cashed in on a Chambers to Rice 8-yard shovel pass. The two-point conversion on a 2-yard run by Caleb Crider put the Dawgs up 16-0 with 2:51 left in the first quarter.

The first play after the kickoff resulted in another Winston County fumble. Addison drove inside Winston's 3-yard line but failed to punch it in on a 4th down try on a solid defensive stand by the Yellow Jackets.

The quarter ended with Addison up 16-0.

In the second quarter, Addison added an 18-yard run from Rice. The two-point conversion was no good and Addison was coasting at 22-0. Addison defense continued to dominate holding Winston County's All-State running back William Owens to minimal yards until he found a hole and ran 52 yards for the first Winston County score. The two-point conversion was good, and the score was cut to 22-8.

Winston forced an Addison punt and it looked like the momentum was with Winston County. That was until you know who, Grant Rice struck again, intercepting an errant Winston pass and returning it 29 yards to Winston's 21-yard line. A few plays later Roberts cashed in from 8yards out and two-point conversion made the score Addison 30 - Winston County 8 at the half.

During the second half it was more of the same, with Roberts leading the Dogs down the field and scoring on a beautiful 30-yard run and at the 4:26 mark of the 3rd quarter, Addison led 36 to 8.

Winston's next drive was their best drive of the game, coming on the legs of Bonds and Owens. Winston County drove 60 yards and scored on a 2-yard run by Bonds. The conversion was no good and the score was Addison 36, Winston County 14.

The fourth quarter ended with both teams letting their younger kids play, and the final tally was 36-14. Addison moves to 2-1 and travels to Red Bay next week.

Bulldogs blank Tigers on the road to move to 2-1

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

BLOUNTSVILLE, Ala. – Hanceville no doubt had revenge on its mind when it traveled to face J.B. Pennington Friday night and came home with a 28-0 region win.

The Tigers handled the Bulldogs 71-8 a season ago, but Hanceville flipped the script this time around.

The Bulldogs took an early 6-0 lead when Bo Joles scored from 2 yards out in the first quarter but neither team was able to get on the scoreboard the rest of the opening half, making it a 6-0 game at the break.

Hanceville capped off a long touchdown drive midway through the third quarter when Zack Campbell tucked one and ran it in from 40 yards out to extend the Bulldogs lead to 14-0.

The defense continued to be stingy for Hanceville, keeping the Tigers out of the end zone for the rest of the quarter.

The Bulldogs began to put the game out of reach early in the fourth quarter when Brodie Malcom scored on a 27-yard touchdown run with just under 11 minutes to play to go up 22-0 and Tai Edwards scored from 3-yards out to make it 28-0 and officially put the game out of reach for J.B. Pennington.

The Bulldogs are definitely happy to collect this region win and will attempt to keep riding this momentum when they travel to Holly Pond to face the Broncos next week.

West Point drops region opener to Hamilton on the road

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HAMILTON, Ala. – West Point is on the road for the third straight week of the early season and fell to the Hamilton Aggies Friday night to start region play 0-1.

The defense was the most glaring issue last week and this week against Hamilton, the Warriors had some problems on both sides of the ball that kept them from picking up a road win.

Hamilton took a 7-0 lead on a 20-yard touchdown run with just under five minutes to play in the opening quarter and a long touchdown run from the Aggies made it 14-0 early in the second.

West Point quarterback Will Cochran scored with his legs late in the second quarter to cut the lead to 14-6 but a 37-yard field goal just before the half gave Hamilton a 17-6 lead at the break.

The Aggies were able to get those points back late in the third quarter on an 8-yard touchdown pass and go up 24-6 but the Warriors weren't quite finished yet.

Cochran connected with Kobe Bowers for a 33-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to make it a 24-12 game but neither team was able to find the end zone again and West Point was sent home with a region loss.

The West Point Warriors will be at home for the first time this season when they host Lawrence County next week.

Vinemont falls at Westbrook Christian 35-0

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Sports Correspondent

GADSDEN, Ala. – Vinemont traveled to Gadsden to face off against the Westbrook Christian Warriors in a non-region matchup. It wasn't Vinemont's night; on its first possession the Eagles offense had the ball bounce out of the back of the end zone resulting in a touchback.

On the fourth play for Westbrook Christian, Dalin Dinkle intercepted the pass, giving the ball back to the Eagle offense.

A failed fourth down conversion put an end to the Eagle drive.

But once again, the defense stepped up to force a punt.

Westbrook Christian would answer, forcing its own three-and-out.

After a lengthy drive, all on the ground, the Warriors found the end zone with 5:40 remaining in the first half to give them a 7-0 advantage.

Another three-and-out led to a Westbrook Christian touchdown with 2:31 remaining in the opening half to extend the lead to 14-0.

After turning the ball over, Vinemont's defense forced a fourth down, but a pass interference penalty extended the drive and Westbrook Christian took advantage scoring with only 53 seconds making it 21-0 at halftime.

Westbrook Christian received the second half kickoff and quickly added to their lead going ahead 28-0 just 1:30 into the second half.

Westbrook Christian added another score with 7:09 remaining in the game, which ended being the final score of the game in a 35-0 shutout.

The Eagles will try to shake this one off and bounce back next week when they host Midfield for a regional matchup.

Fairview defeats D.A.R. 62-41 in road shootout

Gary McGriff
Tribune Sports Correspondent

GRANT, Ala. – The Fairview Aggies traveled up the mountain to Grant to take on the D.A.R. Patriots and a warm September night for football. Both teams got off to a fast start scoring on their first possessions. With 3:09 left in the first quarter, the score was tied 7-7.

The Patriots scored late in the first quarter to make the score going into the second quarter 14-7. Both teams continued their fast start scoring on their first possessions of the second quarter. Fairview missed the extra point making the score 21-13 D.A.R. with 7:09 to go in the half.

Fairview stiffened on D.A.R.'s second possession of the second quarter when Mason Black intercepted Justin Stubblefield's pass at D.A.R.'s 45-yard line. Tyvn Ellis scored from 5 yards out and Fairview successfully went for two to tie the score 21-21 with 5:06 left in the first half.

With 4.4 seconds to go in the half and the ball at D.A.R.'s 37-yard line, Parker threw a Hail Mary pass that was tipped then caught by JT White for a touchdown. The extra point tied the ballgame at half 28-28. Fairview got the ball to start the second half and proceeded to establish its running game. An 11-play drive gave the Aggies the lead when Ellis scored from the 2-yard line making the score 35-28 halfway through the third quarter.

D.A.R. completed a seven-play drive when Brady Largen scored on a 30-yard run to make the score 28-21 in favor of D.A.R. with 2:53 to go in the second quarter. Fairview took over at its own 45-yard line with under three minutes to go in the half. After a couple of incompletions by Martin Parker, it appeared the Aggies would go to halftime down a touchdown. An unsportsmanlike penalty against D.A.R. gave new life to Fairview.

A quick three-and-out by D.A.R. gave the Aggies the ball again. Seven plays later, Fairview had the ball fourth-and-2 from D.A.R.'s 2-yard line. On the next play, Parker's pass fell incomplete in the end zone and D.A.R. got the ball on downs at their own 2-yard line.

During the next drive, Tyler Darling had a 69-yard run with a 10-yard penalty against Fairview tacked on putting the Patriots in great field position. On fourth-and-8 from Fairview's 20-yard line, Stubblefield completed a pass to Ben Sutton for a touchdown with the extra point tying the score 35-35 at the end of the third quarter.

After the kickoff, five straight running plays led to a 5-yard touchdown run by Tyler Simmons. The Aggies now led 42-35 early in the second half. A drive by D.A.R. into Fairview territory was stopped when Black recovered Largen's fumble on Fairview's 26-yard line.

A nine-play drive by the Aggies with no passes ended when Simmons scored from the 5-yard line making the score 49-35. White stopped the next Patriot drive with an interception of Stubblefield.

After White's interception return, Fairview had the ball on their own 32-yard line. On the first play, Ellis scored on a 32-yard touchdown run and the score was 56-35 Fairview. Assisted by a Fairview personal foul, D.A.R. scored six plays later on a Stubblefield 2-yard pass making the score 56-41. Fairview recovered the onside kick, and on the first play scored again on 48-yard touchdown run completing the scoring. The final score was 62-41 in a high-scoring event.

Highlighting Fairview's night was their running game. Ellis had more yards rushing (235) in the second half than Fairview had total yards in the first half (232).

Ellis ended the night with 312 yards rushing on 30 carries while scoring six TDs. Simmons finished with 117 yards on 19 carries. As a team Fairview had 505 yards rushing on 58 carries.

Fairview's Coach George Redding said, "The key to our success was our offensive line. We saw some things at the end of the first half that led us to believe we could run the ball successfully. On the defensive side of the ball, we had some key stops."

Fairview is home next week against St. John Paul II Catholic High School.

Raiders collect 27-14 region win at Cordova

Jason Russell
Tribune Sports Correspondent

CORDOVA, Ala. – After starting the season 2-0 with wins over Carbon Hill and Priceville, the Raiders traveled to take on the Cordova Blue Devils Friday night and get region play underway. Good Hope won the toss and deferred to the second half and Cordova opened the game with a stellar return to start out on the Raiders' 45-yard line. The Blue Devils started out strong only to turn ball over on downs at the Good Hope 12-yard line.

Good Hope was covered up on its first run for a loss, but the second play was a 90-yard pass from Tanner Malin to Drew Maddox that went for a touchdown and made it a 7-0 game. When Cordova received the ball for its next possession, the Blue Devils gave it right back after a quick three-and-out. It seemed like no one was getting anywhere but Good Hope took over at its own 19-yard line and drove down the field to score on a 7-yard pass with Malin once again connecting with Maddox and making the score 14-0 Raiders.

Cordova responded with a 58-yard scoring drive that made it 14-7 early in the second quarter but Good Hope answered with a long drive on its next possession, ending in Malin running it in from 12 yards out to bring the score to 21-7 following the extra point.

The Blue Devils took ball down into Raider territory only to turn over the ball on downs and the Good Hope went into the half with a 21-7 lead. The Raiders received the ball to start the third quarter but fumbled on the very first play to give the Blue Devils the ball in Good Hope territory. A defensive stance held Cordova from scoring and gave the offense back the ball back on its own 32-yard line.

After a very lengthy drive, a couple of negative penalties and Malin getting banged up on the 1-foot marker, the Raiders finally found the end zone on a carry from Bagwell to go ahead 27-7. The Blue Devils managed to cut into the lead and make it 27-14 but it wasn't enough to overcome Good Hope and the Raiders held on to win it 27-14.

After the game, Raiders head coach Alan Scott was proud of the way his kids competed but said he looks forward to cleaning some things up as they continue playing. "I am really proud of our effort and intensity tonight. Any time you can go to Cordova and win it's huge," Scott said. "There are several things that we have to clean up moving forward, but we are very grateful to be sitting at 3-0 right now."

Good Hope will be back in action when it travels to Tanner to face the Rattlers next week.

Cold Springs edges Southeastern 34-33 in region opener

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

BREMEN, Ala. – After taking a tough loss at Berry last week, the Cold Springs Eagles returned home Friday night to open up region play against Southeastern. The Eagles and Mustangs went back and forth throughout the game but in the end, it was Cold Springs finishing out in front and leaving the field with a region win.

The Eagles jumped out to an early 7-0 lead in the opening quarter but Southeastern tied the game at 7 by the start of the second. The Mustangs took a 14-7 lead early in the second, but Cold Springs was able to respond and cut the lead to 14-13.

The Mustangs scored again in the second, going up 20-13 but the Eagles were able to find the end zone and tie the game at 20. Southeastern was able to strike one more time late in the second quarter and take a 27-20 advantage into the halftime break.

Cold Springs scored again midway through the third and a successful two-point conversion gave the Eagles a 28-27 lead.

The Eagles found the end zone one more time in the final frame to go up 34-27 and despite a Southeastern score cutting that lead to 34-33, they couldn't overcome Cold Springs and were sent home with an 0-1 start in region play.

The region win makes Cold Springs 2-1 so far this season and the Eagles will be looking for win number three when they travel to Sumiton Christian next week.

Meek drops region opener to South Lamar

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

ARLEY, Ala. – The Meek Tigers looked to start off region play 1-0 Friday night with their first win of the season at home against South Lamar. Unfortunately, it was all Stallions from the start as the Tigers wound up falling, 62-0.

On Meek's opening possession, Matthew Clark fumbled the ball, and it was recovered by South Lamar, who scored on just the third play of its series on an 8-yard touchdown pass to make it 7-0.

It would be all Stallions in the first half as the Tigers were held to just four first downs and 106 yards on offense in the half, with one of those coming on a penalty.

South Lamar wound up finding the end zone six more times and Meek found itself down 48-0 at the half.

South Lamar found the end zone two more times in the second half, but the Tigers kept on battling throughout the game and they never quit.

In the end, they wound up on the wrong side of a 62-0 defeat at the hands of the Stallions and fall to 0-3 on the season and 0-1 in the region.

Clark and Stuart Waldrep each finished with 63 yards on the ground for the Tigers and James Brown added 23 more on the ground as well.

Tommy Daniel recovered a pair of fumbles on defense. Meek will continue region play next week when it travels to take on Hubbertville.

Broncos fall at Midfield 44-28

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

MIDFIELD, Ala. – Holly Pond hit the road to open region play Friday night and after falling behind big early, the Broncos weren't able to keep pace with Midfield and fell to the Patriots 44-28.

Midfield scored midway through the first to go up 8-0 and extended that lead to 16-0 early in the second quarter. Another Patriots touchdown shortly after that made it a 24-0 game with just over 10 minutes to play in the half.

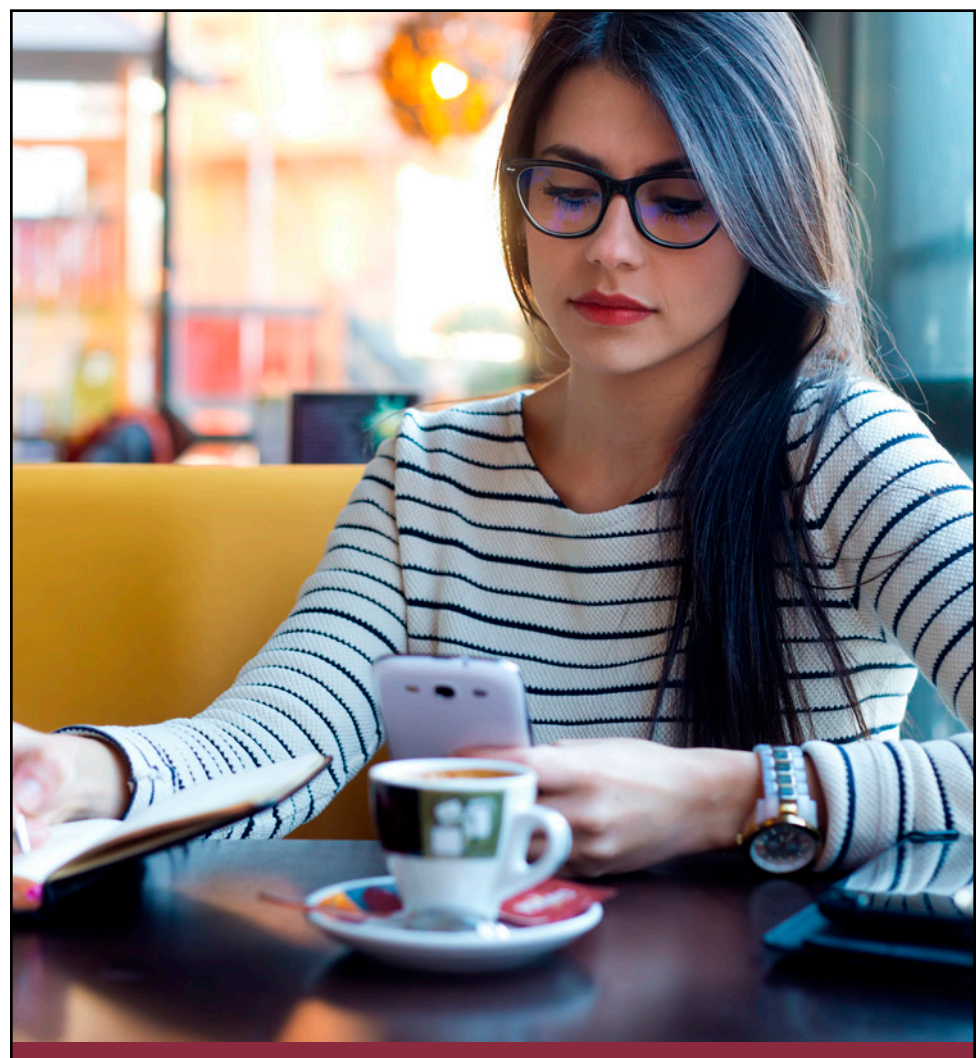

Midfield tacked on another score midway through the second to take a 30-0 lead, but the Broncos punched one in just before halftime to make it a 30-8 game at the break.

The Patriots got that score back midway through the third when they found the end zone to go up 38-8 but Holly Pond answered with a score of its own to make it 38-14 at the start of the final frame. Another Broncos touchdown came with just over five minutes to play that cut it to 38-20 but the Patriots responded and moved back in front 44-20. Holly Pond found the end zone one more time to make it 44-28 but it was too little too late, and the Broncos were sent home with a loss.

Holly Pond will look to bounce back and get back on the winning side of things when it hosts Hanceville next week.

in the opening quarter on a 27-yard touchdown run to go up 7-0 and stretch the lead to 10-0 late in the first.

A 16-yard touchdown pass early in the second quarter gave the Red Raiders a 17-0 lead, but the Bearcats took over from that point and scored the first of 41 unanswered points when Dueland punched one in from a yard out midway through the second quarter.

That score made it a 17-7 game at the break.

The momentum began building for the Bearcats as soon as the second half got underway.

Another 1-yard touchdown from Dueland capped off a Cullman drive that included 57 rushing yards from Hughey and cut the lead to 17-14 early in the third quarter.

The ensuing kickoff landed in front of a Decatur returner and the Bearcats were able to fall on the ball and take over possession once again.

After driving down a short field, it was Dueland that punched it in for his third score of the night, giving Cullman its first lead of the night at 21-17 midway through the third.

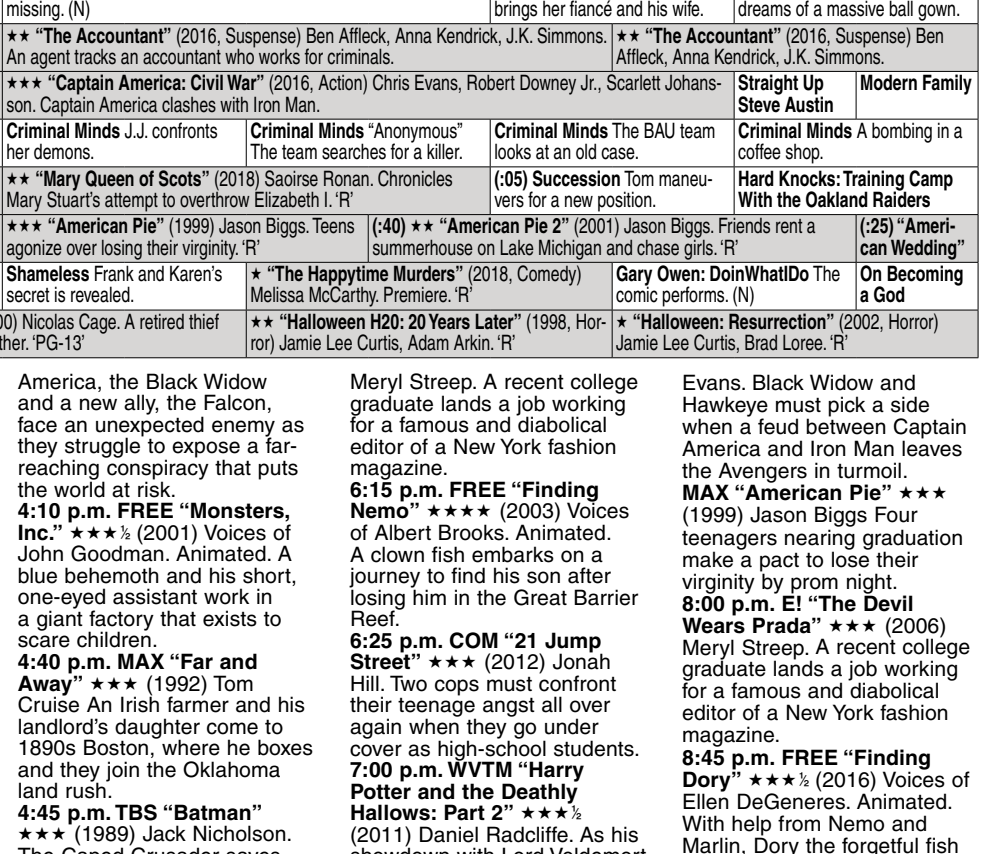

The Bearcats continued to smother the Red Raiders defensively and get the ball into the hands of their offense.

Dueland finished another scoring drive for Cullman late in the third quarter when he juked past a Decatur defender to score from 4-yards out and give the 'Cats a 28-17 lead before the start of the fourth quarter.

Duleand's fifth and final rushing touchdown of the evening came with just under eight minutes to play in the fourth from a yard out that put Cullman up 35-17.

After the Bearcats defense forced a turnover on downs, Sullins put the game away with a touchdown from 7-yards out that made it a 41-17 game and put things out of reach for the Red Raiders.

Cullman's scoring and rushing output surpassed what the Bearcats posted in their first two games combined and they'll look to keep riding this wave of momentum when they travel to take on Columbia next Thursday.

Poet's Corner

Prayer For Today

By: Evelyn Haynes Ellis
1930-2012

Oh, Father, my many sins forgive,
Give me strength to only live
Take all desire for self from me
Only "thy" image in life to see
Still my tongue, my thoughts, my ways
Just let me live for "thee" today.

THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE • ALABAMA'S OLDEST CONTINUOUSLY PUBLISHED WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

"THE 67-COUNTY, ALABAMA GARDEN PARTY"

CHAMBERS COUNTY

Ben Johnson South
Tribune Correspondent

Chambers County is a place so relaxing and calm it would make Rip Van Winkle look frenzied by comparison. This would be a great place for a de-stressing spa weekend. Without fancy potions or facelifts, just by soaking up the sensible pace in this part of Alabama one could return to surging city life with your envious friends raving, "You look so rested."

Not many in Chambers County need to be reminded to "Stop and smell the roses" or the magnolia blossoms or the soothing herb gardens. You won't find uptight urbanites jacked up on Starbucks java, instead you'll find folks lingering over lunch and sipping one more cool glass of iced tea while catching up with their families and neighbors.

There are thriving businesses in Chambers County and lots of recreational fun things to do, but mindless "busyness" just isn't a part of the vibe. People here feel sorry for any frantic, overwrought busy bee, bless your heart.

"Slow furniture" was a collection of maybe 20 pieces I designed several years ago. Chambers County would be a good place to build those ideas into reality. Most people don't think of furniture moving at all, but "slow furniture" was created to encourage "conscious slowing and relaxing."

Much "slow furniture" could be constructed with local pine and hardwoods. Soft goods like pillows and hammocks could be made from locally-grown cotton. During the late 19th and the 20th centuries, Chambers County was the center of Alabama's textile industry and cotton still grows here.

"Slow Food" is an international movement which began in Europe but now has thousands of devoted chefs and food enthusiasts in the U.S., including Alabama's nationally renowned chef, Frank Stitt. "Slow Food" is a rebellion against rushing through the drive-thru lane of "fast food," grabbing a sack of unhealthy grub and eating like scurrying rodents in a rat race.

The standard American dining table is 29 inches high. The standard, European dining table is 27 inches high. Puritans who settled the northeastern U.S. were taught to sit up straight, eat and get back to work. Those blessed to live in the American South where the mild climate and fertile soil allowed for growing more food with less work continued to enjoy a longer midday meal until the mid-20th century. These sagacious Southerners also often took a nap before getting back on task.

If the table you and yours eat from is 29 inches high, you might consider sawing off the legs a couple of inches. This will make you lean in and listen to your fellow diners. It will help you linger longer. Then, add a lazy Susan or lazy Lenny so someone doesn't have to keep jumping up for condiments. Stop and smell the Chambers County bounty. Savor the garden-grown soups and the orchard-grown fruit pies. Try our recipe for Slow-Cooked Rabbit, Veggies and Gravy with Southern Tomato Grits.

Lollygagging and laziness are not priorities in Chambers County. The goal is achieving balance and having energy when speed is desired. There are famously fast-thinking and fast-acting people with roots in this southeastern part of Alabama. Fast-fisted Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber," a world champion heavyweight boxer, was from Lafayette near the foot of Buckalew Mountain.

And quickdraw gunman Pat Garrett, from Cusseta, stealthily tracked down the rascally outlaw, Billy the Kid, and took him out. Trigger Alert: "Took him out" means shot the thieving jerk deader than a doornail.

Wise Chambers County folks fish and picnic on the shores of the slow-moving Chattahoochee and Tallapoosa Rivers and tell funny stories about the ridiculous city slickers who are too wound up to enjoy the good life the universe has provided in this tranquil serenity of Alabama.

Here are other positive and pleasurable ways PLANTS + PEOPLE come together in Chambers County:

• HISTORIC LANGDALE MILL FARMERS' MARKET- 6000 20th Ave. (Farmers Pavilion), Valley, AL 36854, Fridays 3-6 p.m. (Eastern Time) opens in May

• LAFAYETTE FARMERS MARKET- The Chambers County Agriculture Park (Rodeo Arena), 1084 Alabama Highway 77, Lafayette, AL 36862, Mondays 3-6 p.m. (Central Time) May 7-end of September

• CHAMBERS COUNTY FARMSTANDS- Fred Kendrick (Lafayette), Kim Slay (Lafayette), Mason Farmers Market (Lanett); U-PICK at Jack-O-Lantern Lane (Lafayette)

• LAFAYETTE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH- (Downtown Lafayette) Structure built from native timber erected in 1836 by early Alabama settlers from Virginia, Tennessee and the Carolinas

• WEST POINT LAKE- 500 miles of wooded shoreline fed by the Chattahoochee River; excellent hiking, fishing and outdoor enjoyment

• PLANTING AN IDEA- If we can recruit woodworkers and pillow makers, let's make some easy chairs, 27-inch "Linger Longe"' dining tables, napstands, prayer chairs and other "Alabama Slow Furniture" prototypes in Chambers County. I'm glad to share all my drawings and specs. While we're waiting for that idea to percolate, how about returning to our textile roots and making top-quality hammocks from a waiting-to-be-launched Alabama Hammock Company at a former fabric mill? Chambers County can lead Americans to Easy Street and some folks down in "The Valley" will be in high cotton.

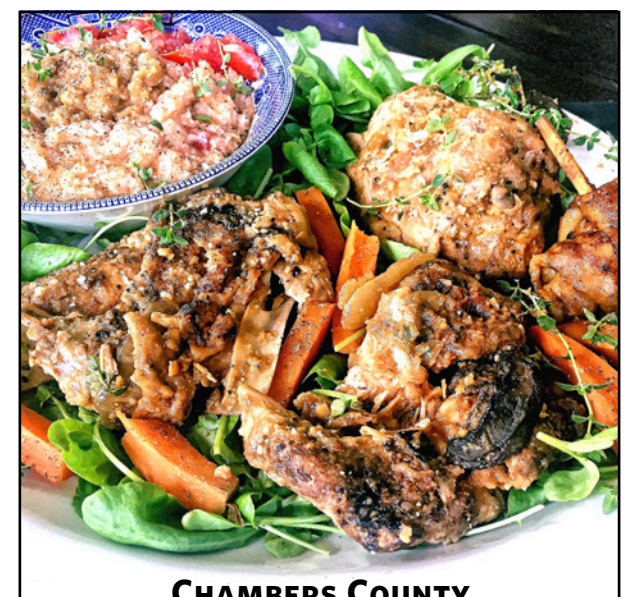

Y'ALL COME to Chambers County on your 67-County Alabama Garden Party tour, relax and unwind.

Many thanks to Laurie Johnson for her original recipe for Slow-Cooked Rabbit, Veggies and Gravy with Southern Tomato Grits. (Note: I shared this delicious meal with friends Vincent and Brooke Desnoes, who recently moved to Alabama from Paris, France. Vincent, who is a French "foodie," told me that hunting rabbit on Sundays and cooking rabbit for Sunday dinner are a tradition in his native country. Vincent described this slow-cooked rabbit and grits, "Un Grand, ce delicieux lapin! Merci au Chef.")

The Cullman Tribune is celebrating the Alabama Bicentennial (1819-2019) with statewide field reporting by Alabama Master Gardener/Botanical Artist Ben Johnson South. This year-long feature, "The 67-County Alabama Garden Party," will spotlight different counties each week. Each county will get its own "quilt block," along with a historical profile, and we'll share a recipe specific to the area. At the end of the year, all 67 counties will be put in a book to commemorate the Bicentennial.

The Alabama honeysuckle border was inspired by an 18th century, Southern applique quilt.

SLOW-COOKED RABBIT, VEGGIES AND GRAVY WITH SOUTHERN TOMATO GRITS

Enjoying a "hammock nap" on a spring afternoon or a "sofa nap" with a quilt and a fireplace on a cold, dreary day are comforts for which we all yearn. Cooking slowly is a perfect way to prepare a meal, but still take that nap, read that book or just unplug and savor some downtime.

This recipe, ironically, uses slow cooking to prepare rabbit, a very fast animal. Rabbit is muscular and lean, so it should be cooked "slow and low" to be moist and tender. Today, we can take advantage of a free range, farm rabbit, a great butcher (a shout out to Patrick at Snapper Grabber) ready veggies, and an electric slow cooker, luxuries that our forefathers and mothers didn't have. This rustic flavor hearkens to a time when an early morning hunt was a necessity, not a bonus, and the bounty of the garden and slow-cooked game was cherished.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 approximately 3-lb. cleaned rabbit, cut in pieces. Roll the tenderloin flaps with bacon.
- All-purpose flour – about 3 tbsp. for dusting rabbit pieces and another 3 tbsp. for gravy
- Salt and black pepper
- 8 bacon slices – cut in halves - two halves for the tenderloin flaps
- 2 large sweet onions – peeled and quartered
- Solid vegetable oil (like Crisco) or any other cooking oil of your choice
- 2 tbsp. minced garlic
- Liquid - about 3 cups beef or chicken broth, 1/2 - 1 can dark beer and 2 tbsp. tomato paste
- Herbs - 5 dried bay leaves and a handful of fresh herbs - thyme sprigs and sage leaves
- Veggies (your choice) - 8 ounces of sliced mushrooms and a cup of 2-inch carrot pieces
- Southern tomato grits (Make your favorite cheese grits and then add a spoon of tomato paste and chopped fresh tomato.)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Shake rabbit pieces in a large zippered bag with flour, salt and pepper.
2. In a cast iron skillet, brown the bacon. Drain on paper towels and reserve, keeping the rendered bacon fat in the skillet.
3. Sear the onion in the bacon grease and transfer half to a slow cooker that has been sprayed with cooking spray. Save the others for the next layer.
4. Quickly sear rabbit pieces in bacon grease, adding oil if needed. Do this in 2 or 3 batches and save the bacon wrapped flaps and garlic for last. Move rabbit pieces to slow cooker and cover with remaining onions, bay leaves, thyme sprigs and sage leaves.
5. Deglaze the hot skillet with the broth and beer and stir in the tomato paste as it sizzles.
6. Pour skillet liquid into the slow cooker. Supplement with additional broth or beer, if needed, to get the liquid to about the middle of the top layer of vegetables.
7. Slow cook on high for 2 hours. Add the mushrooms and carrots and switch cooker to low for another 4 hours. Switch to warm mode.
8. Scoop out about a cup and a half of liquid from the cooker. Combine in a hot skillet with about 3 tbsp. of flour and stir to thicken into gravy. Season with salt and pepper.
9. Serve rabbit and veggies over fresh Alabama greens and a side of southern tomato grits with bacon and herb garnishes. Enjoy your modern, SLOW version of this FAST game.

Census participation important
For each person who participates in the 2020 Census, the State of Alabama will receive almost $1,600 that will go into services like education, mental health and other needed programs.

On the other hand, during her recent visit, Gov. Kay Ivey warned that low census numbers in Alabama could cost the state crucial funding, as well as seats in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Eller and Cullman City Clerk Wesley Moore shared that the Cullman area saw lower than national average participation rates in the 2010 census. To reverse the trend and increase numbers, the City is putting a few ideas to work.

Said Eller, "We're going to be doing some community events. We'll be putting computers in various spots throughout the community so that people will have easy access to those computers. We're looking at doing a mobile unit that we can put at events, or we maybe can put in parking lots of businesses."

Moore added, "We're going to try to make it accessible and easy for people."

Census workers needed
For anyone looking for temporary work or extra income, the Census Bureau is still seeking workers. According to the Bureau, Cullman County census workers will be paid $13.50 per hour plus reimbursement for related mileage and expenses.
