Formerly missing Cullman man now facing identity theft, forgery charges

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Charles Steven Smith, Jr., who was the subject of a missing person case in April and May of this year (www.cullmantribune.com/2019/05/16/missing-cullman-man-found-alive-in-texas-circumstances-unclear/), on Aug. 30 was arrested by the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) for second-degree forgery and identity theft, both Class C felonies which carry sentences of up to 10 years.

Smith allegedly acquired an Alabama driver's license under the name Joseph George Hoenig on April 17, two days before he left Cullman, supposedly headed to Biloxi, Mississippi April 19. Somewhere in Mississippi on the night of April 19, he disappeared, and his truck was found near New Orleans April 22. On May 16, Smith was located in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Authorities submitted a bail request, stating that Smith was a "flight risk due to a history of leaving the state for suspicious reasons." The suspect was assigned a $20,000 unsecured bond, meaning that he was not required to put up any money, and was released.

Smith has a hearing in Cullman County District Court Oct. 8.

Dreher's Cocktail Bar & Restaurant opens in downtown Cullman

CULLMAN, Ala. – Dreher's Cocktail Bar & Restaurant will celebrate its grand opening Tuesday, Sept. 17. Located next door to A Touch of German at 216 First Ave. SE, Cullman, the new restaurant is owned by Joseph Fisher, Kolby Lawrence and Christine Chamblee.

The restaurant's 1920s decor will take you back to Cullman's early years. The building is named for the Dreher family who owned and operated a furniture store at that location.

The original structure burned in the late 1800s, and Dreher's aims to honor that history.

"Dreher's Old Fashioned is a smoky old fashioned as a nod to that event.

"Our goal is to breathe new life into the Dreher name," said Manager Madi Rocks.

The menu offers a variety of appetizers and entrees, along with a great selection of draft beers and signature cocktails.

Dreher's had a soft opening this week, and so far, business has been good, as well as the feedback.

Executive Chef Cooper Ramsey, who has worked in several successful restaurants in Birmingham, including Highlands Bar & Grill, is heading up the Dreher's kitchen.

Rocks said the restaurant's cocktails contain more liquor than those from other bars and the prices are quite reasonable, sharing, "Another goal was to make this a place for everybody to enjoy a meal and not break the bank."

Dreher's will be open Tuesday-Thursday from 4-11 p.m. and Friday and Saturday from 11 a.m.-11 p.m.

Chamblee said she is ready for the grand opening.

"I am really excited," she said. "The soft opening has gone well, but we have a few kinks to work out. Each night has gotten better and better."

Running game propels Holly Pond to 36-20 win over Hanceville

HOLLY POND, Ala. – Hanceville and Holly Pond faced off in a huge region game on Friday night and The Broncos' running game was the difference in the game. Levi Boatright and Kyler Chaney had big games as they defeated the Bulldogs, 36-20, for their first win of the season and in the region.

The opening possession for Holly Pond yielded a punt, but the ball sailed over Levi Boatright's head, putting Hanceville in excellent field position at the 27-yard line. On just the third play of the series, Zachary Campbell found Brodie Malcom for a 21-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulldogs on the scoreboard first, 6-0, after the failed two-point conversion. Both teams punted on their next possessions but after Hanceville stopped the Broncos on fourth down, they coughed up the ball as a bad pitch led to Holly Pond recovering the ball at the 32-yard line.

Levi Boatright and Kyler Chaney picked up all 32 yards on its next drive, and Boatright finished off the drive with a seven-yard run to give the Broncos an 8-6 lead after they converted the two-point conversion. Hanceville looked to take the lead right back, as a Logan Guthery 43-yard run put them at the 48, but they stalled after that as Bo Joles got stopped short on fourth down.

Boatright found the end zone for the second time in the game as his 43-yard run down the left sideline increased Holly Pond's lead to 16-6 with 6:23 remaining in the first half. Hanceville later recovered a fumble on its next defensive series as Allen Huckaby came up with the ball, and » PAGE 4

Funny Things from Yesterday: The family man

Robert N. Tidwell, Sr.
Tribune
Contributor

Several years ago, I had the honor and pleasure of serving on the city council of our fine city of Cullman. On one of my trips to Washington D.C. with the Cullman delegation to the National League of Cities meeting, I met a man I thought must be a real family man from the way he talked. Somewhere along the line he had developed a keen sense of human nature as well as a little political savvy.

We were having the League meeting in one of the large Washington hotels and this man had set up a grooming shop in the men's room.

On the two counters at the wash basins, he had several bottles of cologne, hair tonic and other grooming items. Also, on both counters, he had six nice clean ash trays for people to drop tips in.

The first thing I heard this man say as I entered the men's room, was, "This is the only place in Washington where everyone knows what he is doing." Having a little understanding of human nature myself, and probably less understanding of politics, I suppose he said it well.

Whenever a person stopped at the wash basin to wash his hands, this man would take out his little whisk broom and brush the shoulders and back of the gentleman's coat. He seemed to work hard at his trade and expected each person to tip him a little. As he worked, he kept up a steady stream of conversation.

During his conversation, the thing that was said which let me know that he was a family man was that his mother-in-law likes to travel.

He then stated, "I am working real hard and saving my money so I will be able to give my mother-in-law a trip to the moon."

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

We spent a day at Chick Fil A

Bill King
Tribune
Contributor

Which came first, the chicken or the chicken sandwich? I know, but it makes about as much sense as that chicken and egg question. I say that not only because I am a creationist, but also because if the egg came first, who sat on it? A friend said he ordered a chicken and an egg from Amazon so he could see which one came first. The chicken came first, and the egg came from the chicken, as did the chicken sandwich. Chick Fil A made the chicken sandwich.

Their slogan says "We didn't invent the chicken, just the chicken sandwich." I'm not sure exactly who first created a chicken sandwich, but I do know that Chick Fil A has definitely made and sold a multitude of them.

Chick Fil A founder, Truett Cathy, created the recipe for his chicken sandwich in 1964. Before there was a Chick Fil A, Cathy owned and operated a restaurant called the Dwarf House, in Hapeville, Georgia. Eighteen years after they opened, a poultry supplier who had produced too many chicken breasts, approached Cathy. He came up with a fast way to cook them and offered his lunch customers a new menu choice: the chicken sandwich. In 1967, he opened the first Chick Fil A store inside Greenbrier Mall, in Atlanta.

I ate my first one in 1975. I was a student at Samford University when I saw a fast food place down the street in Brookwood Mall.

I had no idea that the manager there was Truett Cathy's daughter and a fellow Samford student.

I had never heard of the place, but decided to go out on a limb and give it a try. Forty-four years later, I've eaten enough Chick Fil A sandwiches and chicken biscuits to fill up a chicken house!

About twenty-five years ago, when I served as a pastor in Rainbow City, we invited Mr. Cathy, who was a committed Christian, to speak at our church. After church he took my family and me out to eat. He said, "We will eat anywhere you want, except Chick Fil A." He smiled as he said that because his restaurants are never open on Sundays.

I honestly don't remember where we ate, but I have never forgotten spending that time with Truett Cathy. The car collecting, motorcycle riding, billionaire restaurant-chain owner, was as down to earth and enjoyable as could be.

He treated us like we were old friends or even family. He explained why his stores were not open on Sundays.

He said the decision to close on Sundays was a way of honoring God and allowing his employees an opportunity to rest and to worship as they chose.

Last week, my friends Chyron and Lynda Wood, and I, spent a day at Chick Fil A corporate headquarters. Martha Lawrence was our host. She is also the Wood's daughter. She has spent twenty- five years with the company, including the last seventeen of Mr. Cathy's life as his administrative assistant. She helped create and now oversees the Chick Fil A heritage archives.

We had lunch at The Dwarf House, toured the corporate building and immaculate grounds, and visited the archives building.

We viewed Mr. Cathy's antique car collection, including The Bat Mobile, and toured his office which is as it was on his last day there. An open Bible still sets on his desk.

Scripture verses are in numerous places throughout the premises.

The company that still operates according to Christian principles, including closing on Sundays, now has almost 2400 stores and generated $10.5 billion last year. Obviously, doing things the right way pays. Thank you Mr. Cathy for your shining example.

West Point handles Lawrence County 42-14 in home opener

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – The West Point Warriors were at home for the first time this season Friday night and they welcomed in the Lawrence County Red Devils for a regional showdown.

Whitt Laney got things started off on the right for West Point when he took the opening kickoff and ran it down all the way inside the Red Devils' 10-yard line. Two plays later, quarterback Will Cochran punched one in from 2 yards out to give the Warriors a very early 7-0 advantage. After forcing a Lawrence County punt, West Point went back to work on offense and extended its lead with a 47-yard flea flicker touchdown pass from Cochran to Branson Smith that made it 13-0 in the first quarter.

A Jacob Dye interception ended the next Red Devils possession and just a few plays later, running back Kelton Washington scored from 4 yards out to stretch the early lead to 20-0 midway through the second. Lawrence County was able to put a drive together and score from 6 yards out with under two minutes to play in the quarter to make it a 20-7 game at the half.

The Red Devils' first possession of the second half was also cut short by an interception, this time by Laney, but Cochran gave it back a few plays later when he was picked off in Lawrence County territory. The Warriors held on a fourth and one play late in the third quarter and on their ensuing possession, Cochran found Brody Rusk down around the goal line for an 8-yard touchdown pass that put West Point on top 35-7 early in the fourth quarter.

Cochran ran in his second touchdown of the night midway through the fourth quarter to stretch the lead to 42-7 and the Warriors went on to win it by a final of 42-14. Cochran led all rushers with 109 yards and two touchdowns on the night while Washington finished behind him with 47 yards on 10 carries and a touchdown of his own. Smith led the receiving corps with 71 yards and a touchdown on four catches and Cochran completed nine of his 13 passes for 114 yards and two scores in the win. Lawrence County was held to just 105 yards on the ground and 250 total yards on the night.

The Warriors are now 2-2 with a 1-1 record in the region and they'll be back in action next week when they travel to take on Russellville for another region matchup.

Vinemont drops region matchup with Midfield, 42-30

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Correspondent

VINEMONT, Ala. – The Vinemont Eagles kicked off region play Friday night when they hosted the Midfield Patriots, and despite a strong push in the second half, the Eagles fell at home 42-30.

Despite the loss, Vinemont Head Coach Stephen Robinson feels like his team found something to build on in the second half.

"We thought we could win the game, but we didn't really believe we could win the till right before halftime," said Robinson, "And that's how we played the second half, we dug ourselves a hole and it was too late. We've got to have a better start."

Midfield received the opening kickoff and quickly went ahead 6-0. Vinemont was unable to convert on fourth down to keep its drive alive and five plays later, the Patriots extended their lead to 14-0 with 4:57 remaining in the first quarter.

A pick six added to the Patriots lead with 3:06 still remaining in the opening quarter, giving them a 20-0 advantage.

With Midfield backed up deep in its own territory, the Patriots busted off a long run on third down to extend the lead to 28-0 midway through the second quarter. Dallin Dinkle answered back with a 6-yard touchdown run of his own, cutting the lead to 28-8 with 2:47 until halftime. Midfield was content with running clock and going to the locker room with a 20-point cushion at the break.

Coming out of the locker room, the Eagles failed to convert on fourth down, but the defense stepped up to force a three-and-out. After a lengthy drive, Dinkle found his way into the end zone with 2:08 remaining in the third quarter, cutting the lead to 28-14 after the failed 2-point conversion.Midfield answered right back, scoring in four plays to give the Patriots a 36-14 advantage heading to the fourth quarter. Dinkle finished the game 141 yards and two touchdowns for Vinemont

The Eagles second drive of the fourth quarter resulted in a 3-yard touchdown by Brodie Curvin, Curvin also converted the try for two, cutting the Patriots' lead to 36-22 with 4:15 remaining in the game.

Vinemont forced a punt, which was downed at the 2-yard line. Disaster struck as miscommunication in the backfield resulted in a fumble recovery and a touchdown for Midfield with 1:37 remaining in the game that extended the Patriot lead to 42-22 but Vinemont wasn't finished in the game.

Curvin, finished the game with 87 yards and two touchdowns and rumbled 40 yards on his way into the end zone for his second touchdown of the night with only seven seconds left in the game, giving you a final of Midfield 42, Vinemont 30.

The Eagles are now 1-2 on the season and 0-1 in the region with another big game coming up next week. Vinemont will travel to Hanceville next Friday for another region matchup against the Bulldogs.

Good Hope handles Tanner 42-27 on the road

Jason Russell
Tribune Correspondent

TANNER, Ala. – The (3-0) Good Hope Raiders traveled to Tanner (0-3) Friday night with a chance to keep their undefeated record while the Rattlers were looking to get their first victory of the season. In the end, it was Good Hope that managed to take control of the game and move to 4-0 with a 42-27 win.

The Raiders won the toss and deferred to the second half. The Raider defense came out strong and held the Rattlers to a punt on their first possession and got the ball.

On the first possession, Good Hope went down and scored, and after a botched extra point snap, scored a 2-point conversion making it 8-0 Raiders.

The defense came back out and forced the Rattlers to turn ball over on downs at the Good Hope 32-yard line. After yet another air attack by the Raiders got them inside the 5, a 3-yard run into the end zone brought the score 15-0 by the start of the second quarter. The Rattlers responded with a quick touchdown to bring the game to 15-7, but the Raiders answered with yet another touchdown through the air, making the score 22-7.

The Rattlers took over the ball and were held to a quick three-and-out and punted the ball down to the Good Hope 7-yard line.

The Raiders drove the ball out to the 49-yard line only to have Tanner Malin throw an interception at the Good Hope 49, which the Rattlers turned into a scoring drive, bringing the score to 22-14 with a little over a minute and a half left in the second quarter. The Raiders got the ball back and with a 56-yard run by Malin and a quick pass to Drew Maddox for a touchdown, made the score 29-14 and ended the first half.

When the Raiders came out slow and turned the ball over on the Rattlers' 5-yard line, the defense showed up, forcing a punt.

The Raiders got the ball back on the Rattlers' 45, taking it down the field through the air for a touchdown giving them a 35-14 lead.

The Rattlers took to the air and threw it right to a Good Hope defender, giving the Raiders the ball back on their own 48-yard line.

With Malin already having more than 200 yards passing they went to the ground game with Colton Bagwell scoring on a 52-yard drive bringing the lead to 42-14 late in the third quarter.

Bringing in some of the younger guys the Rattlers were able to squeeze in a quick score before the quarter ran out.

The fourth quarter was underway with the a slow back and forth getting a lot of different players some much needed experience.

The Rattlers were able to rally a late fourth-quarter score but not enough to get the game back. The Raiders took it, 42-27.

Malin finished up the night with more than 200 yards passing. Good Hope finished with close to 500 yards of total offense.

Head Coach Alan Scott said he was proud of the way this young team stepped up and took leadership.

"Our offense looked really good tonight. Tanner really made some really good choices and reads, and the running backs made exceptional runs and the receivers were doing an outstanding job," Scott said. "Our defense still has some stuff to get ironed out but overall I'm proud of these young men. It was a good win."

The Raiders are headed to (0-4) Oak Grove for a region matchup next week looking to improve to 5-0.

Addison comes up just short at Red Bay

Todd Walker
Tribune Correspondent

RED BAY, Ala. – In an important region game, two fine football teams met in Red Bay Friday night to decide who would get a leg up on the region championship. Addison came in with a 2-1 record and Red Bay came in, untested, but undefeated as well.

A full house sat in humid and hot conditions to watch a penalty-marred football game. The game was exciting and both teams had their chances, but neither could pull away from the other.

The first quarter ended scoreless as neither team's offense could accomplish much against the other's defense.

Red Bay struck first in the second quarter as quarterback Jaylen Vinson ran in in from 10 yards out to put Red Bay on the board. The 2-point conversion was good and Red Bay was up 8-0 at the 7:36 mark. The drive came on a short field as Red Bay took over possession, after a short punt, at the Addison 45-yard line. Addison came right back on the legs of quarterback Christian Roberts who scampered for 25 yards down to the Red Bay 5-yard line. Red Bay's defense stiffened and held Addison to a 27-yard Eli Howse field goal at the one-minute mark of the second quarter. The half ended with Red Bay up 8-3.

The second half started with Addison receiving the ball and had a drive that brought back memories of old-time Addison Smash Mouth Football. Addison took the ball at its own 35 and began its best drive of the night. Using Roberts and running backs, Caleb Crider and Weston Smith Addison used 10 plays and drove 65 yards for a touchdown. Coach David Smothers, after eight consecutive running plays, called for a pass and Roberts hit Luke Chambers for 25 yards down to the Red Bay 5-yard line. Chambers made an amazing grab between two Red Bay defenders. Roberts took the ball in for the score two plays later from 4 yards out for the touchdown. After Howse kicked the extra point, Addison took its first lead of the night, 10-8, at 8:05 in the third quarter.

The momentum seemed to be with the Dawgs but to Red Bay's credit, their kids didn't quit and drove 78 yards against the Bulldog defense on 15 plays. Red Bay went for the touchdown on fourth-and-goal from the Addison 1 and running back Logan Scott ran it in for the score. The 2-point conversion was good and at 11:55 in the fourth quarter, Red Bay was back on top 16-10.

Red Bay got the ball back and after a penalty fest of a drive ended up at the Addison 19-yard line. Red Bay went for it again on fourth-and-9. This time, linebacker Crider made an outstanding deflection of a Vinson pass headed to a wide-open Red Bay receiver to stop the drive. Addison took over at its own 19-yard line for what would prove to be the final drive of the night.

Addison had 3:22 on the clock and a long way to go. After two completions and a few nice runs, Addison got down to the Red Bay 6-yard line facing a second down and goal to go. With no timeouts left and only 17 seconds on the clock, Addison's Roberts dropped back to pass but a furious pass rush forced him to scramble to the Red Bay 4. Addison was unable to stop the clock and the last few seconds ran off with the Bulldogs knocking at the door.

Addison took a tough region loss, 16-10, and is now 2-2 on the season (0-1 region). Red Bay is 4-0 (1-0 region).

Addison stays at home this week with Sheffield coming to town.

Tigers fall at Hubbertville, 48-24

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

ELDRIDGE, Ala. – After suffering a tough loss at home against South Lamar a week ago, the Meek Tigers looked to regroup and bounce back this week at Hubbertville, but the home-standing Lions had other plans.

Hubbertville built a 20-point lead by the half and pulled away in the second half to defeat the Tigers 48-24.

The Lions struck first to go up 7-0 with just over eight minutes remaining in the first quarter and stretched that lead to 14-0 with another score by the start of the second.

Hubbertville found the end zone again around the nine-minute mark of the second quarter and scored once more with just over three minutes to play in the half to make it 28-0 Lions. Meek managed to cut into the lead with a score just before the half to make it a 28-8 game with both teams headed to the locker room.

Both teams were scoreless for most of the third, but the Lions found the end zone with just over five minutes in the period to take a 34-8 lead and that score held going into the final frame.

Hubbertville tacked on another score with just under nine minutes to play to make it 41-8 but the Tigers wouldn't go away.

Meek scored to cut the lead to 41-16 less than a minute later and both teams found the end zone one more time in the contest, leading to a 48-24 win for the Lions.

The loss moves Meek to 0-4 on the season and 0-2 in the region with Berry coming to Arley for another regional showdown next week.

Fairview collects 24-19 win over St. John Paul II

Gary McGriff
Tribune Correspondent

FAIRVIEW, Ala. – After Fairview scored 62 points last week against DAR, Aggie fans returned to the home atmosphere of Dafford Smith Stadium wondering if an offensive explosion was on tap again. There weren't quite as many points on display, but the home-standing Aggies did secure a 24-19 region win over the Falcons.

The St. John Paul II Catholic Falcons came to Fairview hoping to get back to winning after losing last week. Fairview hoped to continue winning after last week's score.

The Falcons took the opening kickoff and ended up punting after a six-play drive. Fairview took over in great field position after a 24-yard punt return by Eli Speegle with the ball on its own 42-yard line. Fairview used a 10-play drive to score when Tyler Simmons scored on a 3-yard touchdown run. The PAT kick was no good and with 4:42 to go in the first quarter, Fairview's lead was 6-0.

After seven plays, the Falcons appeared to be threatening when Parker Martin intercepted Seth Brown's pass and returned it 14 yards to Fairview's 39-yard line. After two plays for negative yardage and an incomplete pass, the Aggies were forced to punt, and the first quarter ended with Fairview leading 6-0.

The Falcons continued their drive, and after a five-play drive highlighted by a 36-yard pass from Brown to Nicholas Stokes, they scored on a 17-yard pass to Sean Zerkle. The PAT was good and early in second period, the Falcons lead was 7-6.

Fairview took over on its own 34-yard line hoping to answer. After a 23-yard run by quarterback Parker Martin, the Aggies completed a four-play drive when Mason Black ran for a 28-yard touchdown score. Fairview went for the 2-point conversion that ended up being no good. The score was now 12-7, the Aggies leading with 9:19 to go in the half.

The Falcons began their next drive with great field position on their own 41-yard line. Deep in Fairview's territory, Martin answered with his second interception of the half on his own goal line to stop the drive.

Fairview's next drive was a mixture of good and bad. A 75-yard run play was negated by a holding penalty. The Aggies were still able to drive deep into Falcons territory, where a 2-yard incompletion in the end zone forced Fairview to attempt a 14-yard field goal. The field goal attempt was no good and Fairview took a 12-7 lead into halftime.

On the opening drive of the second half, the up and down of the first-half ending continued for Fairview.

Another long play was negated by a penalty. The Falcons tried to help with their own penalty, but once again a flag against Fairview stalled the drive. A bright spot was Simmons pinning the Falcons on a punt to their 3-yard line.

The Falcons used passing by Brown until Tyvn Ellis sacked him for a 5-yard loss. With the ball at Fairview's 38-yard line and a fourth-and-11, a short pass by Brown didn't gain a first down and the Aggies took over on downs. On Fairview's next drive, the Aggies looked to be driving for another score when Martin's pass was intercepted on the goal line and returned to the 35-yard line of the Falcons by Zerkle.

On the very next play, Victor Malone fumbled during a run and Ellis recovered the ball and raced 37 yards for the score. With just 17 seconds to go in the third quarter, Fairview now led 18-7.

The Falcons answered quickly, scoring in four plays capped off by a 33-yard touchdown pass from Brown to Zerkle. With 11:20 to go in the game and an unsuccessful 2-point conversion, Fairview's lead was now 18-13.

Fairview took over on its own 20-yard line and on eight straight running plays scored on a 7-yard touchdown run by Simmons.

With 7:45 left in the game Fairview extended their lead to 24-13. On the next drive, the Falcons appeared to suffer their own lapse of execution when they had a 43-yard touchdown pass called back on a penalty. However, Fairview quickly aided them when it was called for two major penalties bringing the Falcons down to the Aggies 10-yard line. Brown and Zerkle hooked up again for an 8-yard touchdown pass. With the PAT no good, Fairview's lead was down to 24-19 with 5:52 left in the game.

It appeared the last team with the ball might win the game. When Martin was sacked, Fairview was forced to punt, and the Falcons had one last shot at winning the game. The Falcons completed three passes for 36 yards and were inside Fairview territory. Fairview's defense again rose to the occasion when Black intercepted Brown's pass to end the threat, making the final score 24-19 Fairview.

The Aggies again relied on their running game. They rushed for 265 yards on 54 carries. Ellis led all rushers with 115 yards on 27 carries.

Brown for the Falcons ended up with 222 yards on 18 of 23 passing.

"The Falcons really got after us. Our execution was off, and you have to attribute to them and their coaching staff," Fairview Head Coach George Redding said. "Both teams could have laid down but both teams fought to the end."

Fairview improves to 3-1 and 2-0 in region play. The Aggies travel to Priceville next week to play the Bulldogs.

Holly Pond (from Front)

they would cash in on that fumble as Malcom scored on a 17-yard run to cut the deficit to 16-12, which ended up being the score at the half.

Holly Pond's running game continued to give Hanceville problems on defense on its opening series of the second half as Boatright and Chaney picked up numerous first downs on the ground, plus Boatright added a 34-yard pass to Micah Faulkner and Chaney finished it off with a five-yard scamper.

They burned over seven minutes on their drive as the lead increased to 22-12 with 3:29 remaining in the third quarter.

On Hanceville's next series, Campbell's pass got picked off by Kadin Suryono and Holly Pond found the end zone once more as Boatright lost the ball while stretching for the end zone, but Faulkner recovered the ball in the end zone as the lead swelled to 30-12.

Hanceville then turned the ball over on downs on its next series, and the Broncos put together another amazing drive that lasted well over eight minutes, and Boatright found the end zone once more on a four-yard run, making the score, 36-12.

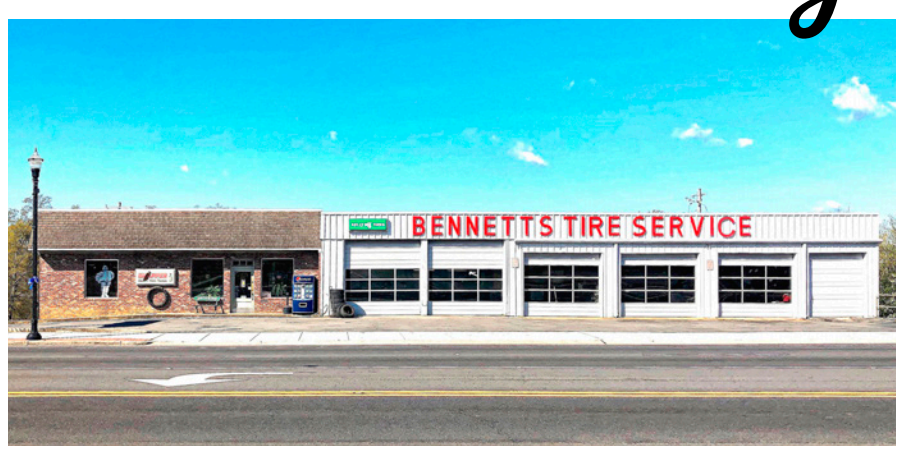

The Bulldogs added a late score when Joles found the end zone from four yards out, but it was too little, too late, as Holly Pond picked up their first win of the season and in the region, 36-20.

Boatright had himself an amazing night, carrying the ball 34 yards for 215 yards and three scores, while Chaney added 99 more on the ground on 20 carries, and a touchdown. The Broncos rushed for 325 yards on the night.

For Hanceville, Campbell finished 9/23 for 98 yards, a touchdown, and an interception. Malcom hauled in five receptions for 65 yards and added a score on the ground.

Holly Pond (1-3, 1-1) will stay at home next week as they'll take on Fultondale in another huge region game, while Hanceville (2-2, 1-1) will look to recover next week in another huge region game as they'll host Vinemont.

"THE 67-COUNTY, ALABAMA GARDEN PARTY"

COOSA COUNTY

Ben Johnson South
Tribune Correspondent

"Silver Threads and Golden Needles" should be on your Alabama road trip soundtrack when you come to Coosa County. From the time the county was established in December 1832, thread, fabrics and sewn goods have made this part of the state, "The Textile Capital."

The word "Coosa" derives from a town of the Creek tribe which originally inhabited the land and from the Coosa River which forms one of the borders of the county. Even before statehood, during Colonial and Territorial times, textiles were the leading trade item between the Native Alabamians and the British and Scottish explorers. The Creeks eagerly exchanged deerskins and furs, which were all the vogue in western European markets, for lightweight British wools, cotton calicos, Irish linens, threads and needles.

Any Anglophiles reading this may feel a bit of pride that British textiles and goods were preferred by Alabama's native tribes over similar items produced by the French and Spanish because of the superior workmanship and durability. (Source: Alabama Heritage Magazine, Fall, 2018)

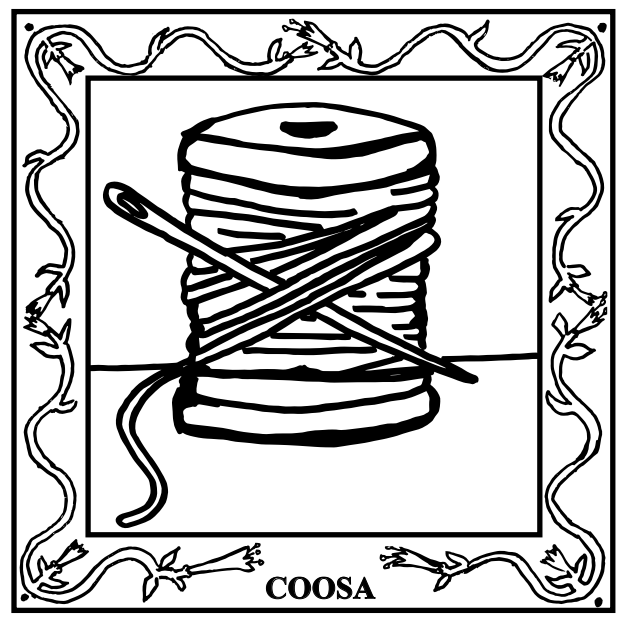

An advertisement in an Alabama newspaper from 1820 trumpets these textiles for trade: "Superfine cloths, blankets, flannels, plain and furniture calicos, Irish linen, Irish sheeting and diapers, domestick ginghams and checks, bed ticking, napkins, black silk Florentine, scarfs, shawls, vesting, white lace, silk and tabby velvets, bandanas, handkerchiefs, ribbons, Madras, muslins, lambswool, buckskin and dogskin gloves, umbrellas and parasols...and more." Oh my, we Alabamians were desperate for some finery in those roughhewn, frontier times.

By the end of the 20th century, Coosa County led the state in textile production.

- COOSA COUNTY BLUEBERRIES- Jack's Blueberry Hill (Equality); Oakachoy Blueberry Farm (Equality) which also grows assorted vegetables, plants and hanging baskets; Roger's Berry Farm (Goodwater)
- HATCHETT CREEK- This beautiful, wooded area is where I would bring a landscape painter or photographer to capture a panoramic perspective. The creek originates near the town of Goodwater and runs for 40 miles; it is secluded and heavily forested offering stunning scenery for those hiking and canoeing. Rare Cahaba lilies grow in the shallows and on creek banks and are breathtakingly beautiful in bloom.
- FIVE STAR PLANTATION- Established as a hunting preserve in 1919, this destination attracting guests from every state in this country and internationally is for those who love outdoors and wildlife and thrill to see turkey, deer and quail in a natural habitat. The preserve is nestled among 5,000 acres of east-central Alabama's broom sage fields, mixed hardwoods and longleaf pine forests.
- THE OLD ROCK JAIL- (Rockford) Completed in 1842 and now a museum, it is the oldest extant stone jail in Alabama; the building is 20x40-feet with a stone chimney on one end. Enjoy special displays on textile history and Coosa County cotton farming.
- PLANTING AN IDEA- In the early days of Alabama statehood threads and fabrics were colored by using plant dyes. A community garden for plant dyes which could thrive in Coosa County might include: carrots, beets, grapes, strawberries, blueberries, spinach and kale. An exotic plant to grow both for seasoning and dying is Crocus sativus, commonly known as "saffron crocus." Saffron, which derives from the stigma of this plant, is one of the world's most expensive spices and has been for centuries.

Y'all come to Coosa County on your 67-County Alabama Garden Party tour! Many thanks to Laurie Johnson for her original recipe with spiced with saffron threads.

ALABAMA PAELLA WITH CHICKEN, SEAFOOD, SAUSAGE AND GARDEN VEGETABLES

~ 6 SERVINGS

SAFFRON THREADS, the bright yellow, aromatic spice threads from the Crocus sativus, MUST be used in paella, a delicious fusion of rice, meat, seafood and vegetables. Paella is considered the national dish of Spain, but we Southerners recognize the centuries-old, multicultural allure of blending these ordinary ingredients, which also star in our beloved Southern jambalaya, Chinese fried rice, Indian biryani and many others. In each recipe, regional spices and cultural cooking traditions transform common ingredients into unique taste sensations. In paella (translates to "pan") familiar Alabama ingredients, sewn with the threads of saffron, yield a completely satisfying, one-pan family meal.

INGREDIENTS IN ROUGH ORDER OF USE

- 1.5 lb. chicken pieces with skin on (Use legs and/or thighs because they stay moister.)
- 1 tbsp. each smoked paprika and dried oregano and 1/2 tbsp. each salt and black pepper (plus more later)
- 1/2 lb. large sea scallops (Press out excess moisture.)
- Olive oil
- 1 onion and about 1/2 each green, orange and red bell peppers, all coarsely diced
- 3 smashed garlic cloves, a handful of fresh minced parsley and thyme (Save some for garnish.)
- 2 Roma tomatoes coarsely diced or 1 regular sized can diced tomatoes, drained
- 2 cups long-grained rice (Traditional paella uses short-grained, but it can get gummy.)
- 2 "pinches" saffron threads - soaked to bloom in 1/4 cups warm water for about 10 minutes
- 4 cups chicken broth
- About 4 dried bay leaves
- 1/2 lb. medium to large Gulf Coast shrimp - veined and peeled
- About 1/2 package frozen green peas
- 1 fresh lemon for serving

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Coat chicken with smoked paprika, oregano, salt and black pepper and refrigerate for an hour. (or up to overnight) while prepping the other ingredients.
2. Using a deep, heavy bottomed skillet with a lid, sauté sausage until browned and remove to a sheet pan to keep in a slightly warm oven. (heated to 200F and turned off).
3. In same pan, cook chicken until done and browned, add oil if needed, remove to warming pan.
4. If the scallops are large, give them a very quick sear in the pan and remove to warming pan.
5. Add 2 swirls of oil and sauté onion and bell peppers until soft. Add garlic, parsley and thyme and cook until fragrant. Stir in tomatoes and more salt, pepper, paprika and oregano to taste.
6. Add the rice and saffron water and stir fry until all the grains are well coated and hot.
7. Stir in the chicken broth and the bay leaves (remove later). Reduce the heat and simmer uncovered and undisturbed for 15-20 minutes until the liquid is mostly absorbed by the rice.
8. Gently fold in the seafood and peas and cook undisturbed for about 5 minutes. Place the cooked chicken and sausage on top, gently pressing into the rice mixture. Cover the pan and heat on low for another 5-10 minutes to finish. Ideally, the rice forms a light crustiness on the bottom yet remains fluffy and flavorful.
9. Serve family-style, from the pan with a light squeeze of lemon juice and parsley to garnish.

Bearcats smother Columbia 48-0 on the road

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – Cullman made the trip to Milton Frank Stadium Thursday night for a regional showdown against Columbia and the Bearcats left with a 48-0 win over the Eagles and their second region win of the season. After coming back to defeat Decatur at home a week ago, Cullman had to turn around on a short week for another road test against a struggling Columbia squad and the difference in the two teams was clear from the first snap.

The Eagles were held to just 40 yards of total offense and were plagued by fumbled snaps and penalties throughout the game. On the other sideline, the Bearcats collected 221 yards on the ground, 175 in the first half, and the two quarterbacks combined to complete six of seven passes for 72 yards and two touchdowns.

Max Dueland started the game and finished two for two with 37 yards and a touchdown pass to Isaiah Jones. J.T. Blackwood played the rest of the night and completed four of his five passes for 24 yards and a touchdown pass to Brayden Scroggins.

Both quarterbacks found the end zone with their legs as well. Jaylen Hughey led all rushers with 75 yards on just two carries, one of which was a 61-yard touchdown run and Jamar Kay finished just behind him with 56 yards and a touchdown on nine carries.

Running back Jayden Sullins found the end zone once as well and posted 14 yards on four carries.

Noah Key was one of the go-to ball carriers in the second half for Cullman, finishing the night with 24 yards on seven carries.

Bearcats Head Coach Oscar Glasscock thought it took some time for them to settle into the game but was happy to see some intensity from his guys as the game went on. Glasscock's message to his team tonight was to work on improving themselves each week regardless of who is on the other side of the field.

"It took us a while to get going but once we did, I thought we played with some enthusiasm and we try to tell our kids to play to a standard. We're not worried about who we play," Glasscock said. "It's not about them it's about us and there's a certain standard and certain way we're going to conduct ourselves and the opponent doesn't matter. I feel like we got that message as the game wore on and especially in the second half, I thought our older guys were cheering on the young guys and we were able to get everybody in, so I was happy about that."

Glasscock was pleased overall with how his team performed while working through some injuries and expressed his sentiments for the Eagles and some of the problems they are dealing with this season as well.

"Well we're a pretty beat up football team right now," Glasscock said. "We had five starters out and we've lost a couple of them to season-ending injuries so there were a lot of moving parts, a lot of guys kind of filling new positions and overall I thought it was a decent job.

"I felt like we kind of played a little bit to the level of the competition we're playing. Columbia is in a tough spot right now; their head coach resigned on Tuesday, had an interim coach tonight and I believe their middle school coach is taking over Monday, so my heart goes out to them because they're really struggling right now."

Columbia received the opening kickoff and after moving the chains a couple of times, were forced to punt it away. A mishandled snap led to a Bearcats recovery and on the first play of the ensuing possession, Dueland found Jones for a 26-yard touchdown that made it 7-0 early. A turnover on downs ended the next Columbia possession and after working their way down to the 1-yard line, Dueland punched it in to stretch the 'Cats lead to 14-0.

The Eagles fumbled on the following kickoff return and Cullman took possession once again at the Columbia 26-yard line. Just a few snaps later, Sullins found the end zone from 15 yards out to make it a 21-0 game at the end of the first quarter. Bearcats safety Dustin Speake intercepted a pass on the Cullman sideline on the next possession and one play later, Hughey took it 61 yards to extend the lead to 28-0 early in the second quarter. A fumble led to another Bearcats possession later in the quarter and to cap off a time-consuming drive, Blackwood found Scroggins for a 12-yard touchdown and a 35-0 advantage going into the halftime break.

The teams agreed to run a hot clock for the final two quarters, but Cullman was still able to find the end zone a couple more times and get everyone on the sideline into the game. Speake's second interception of the game set the Bearcats up with the ball on the Eagles' 20-yard line and that possession was capped off by a 1-yard touchdown dive by Blackwood, but the missed extra point made it 41-0. Jamar Kay ran one in from 5 yards out to bring the score to 48-0 midway through the fourth and Blackwood finished the game in victory formation on the next Cullman possession.

The Bearcats are now 2-2 on the season, 2-0 in the region, and returning home to take on Albertville in Oliver Woodard Stadium next week.

Cold Springs blasts Sumiton Christian on the road 50-12

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

SUMITON, Ala. – After edging Southeastern 34-33 a week ago to collect a big region win, the Cold Springs Eagles hit the road Friday night to face another region foe. This week, it was the Eagles of Sumiton Christian and Cold Springs had no trouble showing who the stronger Eagles team was as they cruised to a 50-12 road win.

Cold Springs jumped out to an 8-0 lead early in the opening quarter, but Sumiton Christian managed to keep it an eight-point game by the start of the second. Cold Springs began to create some separation in the second quarter despite Sumiton Christian finding the end zone.

It was 16-6 Cold Springs midway through the period before the Eagles exploded going into the half. Cold Springs tacked on two more scores to take a commanding 29-6 lead into the halftime break.

Fans were treated to more of the same in the second half. Cold Springs stretched its lead to 36-6 early in the second half and built a daunting, 43-6 lead by the start of the fourth quarter. Each team found the end zone one more time in the game and Cold Springs pulled away to win it 50-12 and pick up another region win.

The Eagles are now 3-1 on the year and 2-0 in the region with another critical showdown against Alicevville coming up at home next week.

Poet’s Corner

In Retrospect

By: Martha Lingerfelt
Prattville, Alabama

Lord, give me a shot of immunity
So words won’t break my serenity
Oh cover my ears, so I can’t hear
All the fierceness that brings hot tears.

People so easily use their eager mouths
Devouring others with thoughts they’ve housed
In hearts filled with abundant junk
Unlocked haphazardly like some old trunk.

Too bad, there’s not some injection
That would bring the heart’s inspection
Or some sort of tablet or pill
Which could easily help with our self will.

It’s just not that easy to change our ways
It takes months and years, not days
Out of our mouths come the issues of life
Blessing and curses, peace and strife.

We must learn to measure before we speak
Thinking of those who are frail and weak
What kind of damage might we do
Even if our words really are true?
