CRIME

Man charged after woman found murdered in Bethel

Wendy Sack
wendy@cullmantribune.com

BETHEL, Ala. – Cullman County authorities are investigating a murder in the Bethel community after a body was discovered Friday, Sept. 20.

The victim was identified by Cullman County Coroner Jeremy L. Kilpatrick as Angela McCoy, 49, of Bethel. McCoy had only lived in Cullman County for three weeks, according to the Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO). She was previously a resident of Hoover.

Jason Brent McCoy, 44, of Hoover has been arrested and charged with her murder.

Angela McCoy was found at a residence she was renting in the 300 block of County Road 1130. Her body was discovered after investigators and deputies did a welfare check. CCSO investigators worked all day Friday to quickly identify Jason McCoy as the suspect and made the arrest late Friday night.

Authorities do not know yet how long the victim had been deceased before the body was found.

Jason McCoy was located in Alabaster.

He remains in the Cullman County Detention Center on a $50,000 cash bond.

Stella Parton to appear at 2019 Cullman Farm-City Banquet

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman Farm-City Committee has announced that country singer, storyteller and motivational speaker Stella Parton will perform at this year's Farm-City Banquet at the Cullman Civic Center Thursday, Nov. 21.

The Sevierville, Tennessee native, younger sister of Dolly Parton, has a fame all her own as a country singer with 22 albums and 28 charted hit songs.

She has appeared in multiple Broadway touring shows, as well as television shows and movies, and runs a consulting firm coaching actors in hair, makeup, wardrobe and stage performance techniques.

Offstage and out of the studio, Parton is an advocate for victims of domestic violence and has been a national spokesperson for Mothers Against Drunk Driving and the Christian Appalachian Project, a faith-based ministry to the southern and southwest Appalachian region.

According to Farm-City Committee spokesperson Tonja Grace, Parton will be "performing music and telling stories of how she grew up in the mountains and as the daughter of a coal miner."

STELLA PARTON/FACEBOOK
She's not just Dolly's sister: singer/storyteller Stella Parton started her own recording label, has performed in Broadway shows and has been on the country music charts 28 times.

What is Farm-City?

Grace told The Tribune, "This is a question we get often. The Farm-City Committee is a group of dedicated individuals whose primary goal is to have a diverse committee that represents both farm and city, male and female, and from all geographic areas of the county.

"The main goal is to deepen the understanding of the relationship between rural farmers and urban workers. Many activities are involved and getting to volunteer and share those memories with your friends and children, well, it's an honor.

"One of the most popular events for Farm-City is the banquet, always held on the Thursday before Thanksgiving.

"This banquet is the last event for Farm-City Week and has always been filled with good times and fellowship within the community.

"Each year we have enjoyed some great entertainment from some amazing people, and this year's theme for Farm-City is 'Keep Alabama Growing.'

"We are honored to have Stella and looking forward to her entertaining us this year."

This year's Farm-City Banquet will be held at the Cullman Civic Center, among the last scheduled events before the transfer of ownership of the civic center takes place.

The Cullman County Cattlemen and Cattlewomen's Association will be cooking the steaks, and Top of the Town will provide the rest of the meal.

Tickets go on sale the first week in October, with locations to be announced that week as well.

Tickets will be $20 each, and will include a meal, drink and dessert.

Look for more on Farm-City Week in coming editions of The Tribune leading up to the Farm-City Banquet, including a feature interview with Stella Parton.

PET OF THE WEEK

Get a Biggie Bear hug!

CULLMAN COUNTY ANIMAL SHELTER
Biggie Bear

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman County Animal Shelter Volunteer Donna Ruttkay introduces The Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week:

Biggie Bear is an 8-month-old Akita mix. Though he's just barely past the puppy phase, he's already a laid-back, low- to medium-energy pet. He's great on the leash, well-behaved and is quiet in his kennel. He craves human contact and even enjoys a good massage. Ruttkay describes his personality as "gentleman-plus!"

Biggie Bear has the makings of a great companion or therapy dog.

Discount doggie!

Biggie Bear had already been neutered when he arrived at the shelter, so his adoption fee will be greatly reduced. Check with shelter staff for details and exact cost.

Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking on a leash and practicing good behavior. Several of the shelter's dogs have even been "hired" to work as therapy and special needs service dogs.

Please consider adopting, to give a rescued pet a chance at a happy and healthy life. Contact the Cullman County Animal Shelter at 256-734-5448 or cullmancountyanimalshelter@gmail.com. Visit the shelter at 935 Convent Rd. NE.

2 Vinemont residents apprehended, charged thanks to K-9 Deputy Copper

wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – A man and woman from Vinemont late Friday fled following an attempted traffic stop, but in the end, Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) K-9 Deputy Copper put a stop to the chase.

The incident began on Alabama Highway 157, where, after the attempted traffic stop, Austin Wade Eipp, 25, and Brittany Hope Riggs, 27, led deputies on a pursuit into West Point.

The suspects then fled from the vehicle on foot. That's when CCSO deputies at the scene called in assistance from K-9 Deputy Copper.

The CCSO said the suspects were quickly apprehended.

Once the suspects were in custody, it was discovered each was wanted on multiple warrants.

Also, a large amount of stolen property was allegedly found in the suspects' possession.

Eipp is charged with first-degree theft of property, third-degree burglary, two counts of third-degree theft of property, first-degree criminal possession of a forged instrument, two counts of unlawful breaking and entering of a motor vehicle, third-degree receiving stolen property and attempting to elude.

Riggs is charged with first-degree theft of property, third-degree burglary, third-degree theft of property, two counts of failure to appear for unlawful possession of a controlled substance attempting to elude, speeding, reckless driving and driving on the wrong side of the roadway.

Both suspects remain in the Cullman County Detention Center without bond.

Former AL Senate Majority Leader Zeb Little pleads guilty to 1st-degree theft of property

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman native and former Alabama Senate Majority Leader Zebulon "Zeb" Little, 51, pleaded guilty Friday to two counts of first-degree theft of property.

Little was indicted on three counts of first-degree theft of property back in February 2019 for money taken from a single victim, reported by Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall's office to total more than $25,000.

Last Thursday, he was arrested on a new single charge of first-degree theft by deception involving four more Cullman County victims between May 2015 and September 2016.

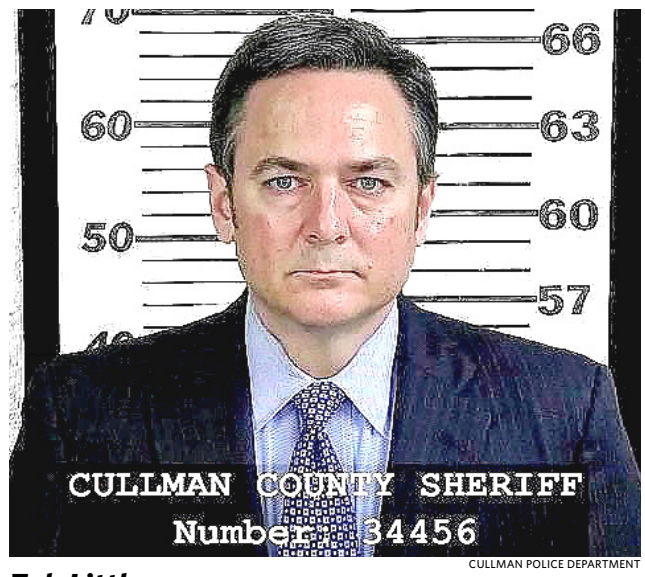

Both theft by deception and theft of property are Class B felonies, and carry sentences of up to 20 years.

Little's cases were moved to Franklin County and placed under Judge Terry Dempsey after Cullman County officials, who are acquainted with Little, recused themselves.

Dempsey has not set a date for Little's sentencing.

Little, of Tuscaloosa, a Democrat and native of Cullman, served in the Alabama Senate representing District 4 from 1998 to 2010.

He was the Senate Majority Leader and Floor Leader of the Senate from 2002 to 2010, when he was defeated by Republican Paul Bussman.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Alabama Sec. of State John H. Merrill on Tuesday will join hundreds of partners from across the country to observe National Voter Registration Day. According to Merrill's office, last year, more than 860,000 people across all 50 states registered to vote on National Voter Registration Day. In Alabama, 7,617 new voters entered the rolls on National Voter Registration Day 2018.

Following the announcement of National Voter Registration Day 2019, Merrill responded, "One of the things we've done in the last four years, eight months and four days that I've been in office is ensure that each and every eligible U.S. citizen that is a resident of Alabama is registered to vote and has a photo ID.

"We have made a concerted effort to boost civic engagement in the state, bringing the total number of registered voters to 3,519,091 as of Friday, Sept. 20, shattering every record in the state for voter registration and voter participation."

Alabama residents can register to vote or update their registration information by downloading the "Vote for Alabama" app on their smart phone or by visiting the Secretary of State's website at www.alabamainteractive.org/sos/voter_registration/voterRegistrationWelcome.action.

"We are excited to celebrate this special day that encourages increased participation in our electoral process! We will continue to work daily to promote voter registration and participation through our multi-media campaign, advertising, visits to all 67 counties, and various other special events," expressed Merrill.

3rd annual Bernard Blues and BBQ in the books

Joyce Nix
St. Bernard

CULLMAN, Ala. – The third annual Bernard Blues and BBQ was a lip-smacking success as our senior class, along with other volunteers at St. Bernard Prep, served up tasty culinary delights including pulled pork, ribs, chicken, gumbo, strawberry waffles and sandwiches as well as a wide variety of quality arts, crafts and entertainment.

"It was incredibly hot both days, and we are not used to being outside," Festival Director Joyce Nix said. "While the weather is beyond our control, we made the best of the situation. Our heartfelt thanks goes out to the many vendors and sponsors for participating and to all of the festival attendees and volunteers who supported the event!"

The St. Bernard Choir kicked off the event on Saturday followed by the Cotton Pickin' Kids. Microwave Dave entertained the crowd from noon until 2 p.m. and at 3 p.m. Diedra – The Alabama Blues Queen took command of the stage, belting out a variety of crowd-pleasing hits. On Sunday the Southern Pride Band performed followed by the De'Ja Blue Horns who closed out the entertainment lineup that afternoon, serenading the crowd with jazzy tunes.

Delores Clark of Cullman was certainly glad she attended. Not only did she enjoy the event, but she also won the grand prize sweepstakes of $10,000. A complete listing of winners is as follows:

Wallace State Medical Lab Assistant program accepting applications for Spring 2020

Gail Crutchfield
WSCC

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Medical Laboratory Technology program at Wallace State Community College is currently accepting applications for its Medical Laboratory Assistant certificate program, which can be completed in two semesters.

Applications will be accepted through Jan. 3, 2020. Applicants must have a high school diploma or equivalent and space is limited to 12.

They must possess a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale on all previous high school and college work attempted and submit ACCUPLACER scores for reading, writing and math or an ACT composite score.

Those accepted into the program will first complete two classes designed for entry-level students who are ready to begin a career in laboratory technology.

In Spring 2020, students will take MLT 131 (Laboratory Techniques I) and in Summer 2020, the students will take MLT 132 (Laboratory Techniques II) and MLT 286 (MLA Clinical Rotation).

MLAs perform waived laboratory tests that help detect, diagnose and study diseases.

The program will teach students core laboratory skills primarily required for testing in physician's office labs, urgent care facilities and other decentralized testing sites.

Interested MLA students should apply to the program by visiting the Medical Laboratory Technician page at www.wallacestate.edu.

No pre-requisites or minimum ACT score is required. A background check, drug screening and physical are required.

For more information, contact MLT Program Director Chris Cleghorn at 256-352-8347 or chris.cleghorn@wallacestate.edu or MLT Program Secretary Susan Wadkins at 256-352-7878 or susan.wadkins@wallacestate.edu.

Classes for Spring 2020 begin Jan. 6. Priority registration begins Nov. 19, and a special week for Rapid Enrollment will be Dec. 2-6.

7 p.m. on WBRC
The Resident

Did Nic (Emily VanCamp) lose a loved one in the Season 2 finale? Fans will find out what happened in the opening moments of the Season 3 premiere, "From the Ashes," although most of this new episode finds Conrad (Matt Czuchry) and his colleagues chafing under all the newly imposed rules and policies imposed by Red Rock Mountain Medical, the conglomerate that took over Chastain at the end of last season. Bruce Greenwood, Manish Dayal, Jane Leeves and Malcolm-Jamal Warner also return.

8 p.m. on WVTM
This Is Us

Young lovers Jack and Rebecca (Milo Ventimiglia, Mandy More) have a rocky road ahead of them — yes, another one — as Season 4 of this Emmy-winning drama opens. She's frustrated by uncertainty over where her music career is going, while he is struggling to find a place for himself — a solidly blue-collar guy — in the rarefied world of Rebecca's family. Meanwhile, in the present, Randall and Beth (Sterling K. Brown, Susan Watson) also confront challenges in their new Philadelphia neighborhood.

8 p.m. on WBRC
Empire

Lucious Lyon (Terrence Howard) is on the run from federal officers as the sixth and final season of this musical drama opens with "What Is Love." In his absence, Cookie (Taraji P. Henson) concentrates on building her brand outside the Empire umbrella with projects that include a community center and a daytime talk show. Meanwhile, as Hakeem (Bryshere "Yazz" Gray) has his cap set on starring in the first "Empire" movie, corporate heir apparent Andre (Trai Byers) deals with multiple parties hoping to move in on the company.

8 p.m. on WABM2
mixed-ish

This second spinoff to "black-ish" (after "grown-ish") is a new prequel, which chronicles the early years of Rainbow"Bow" Johnson (Arica Himmel) growing up in a mixed-race household in the 1980s after moving from a counterculture commune to a middle-class suburb. Mark-Paul Gosselaar and Tika Sumpter co-star as Paul and Alicia, Bow's parents. Gary Cole, Christina Anthony, Mykal-Michelle Harris and Ethan Childress also are featured. Tracee Ellis Ross, who plays Bow on "black-ish," narrates the series.

9 p.m. on WIAT
NCIS: New Orleans

Pride (Scott Bakula) has no choice but to cut short a rare and sorely needed vacation after Hannah (Necar Zadegan) winds up suspended for violating correct protocol while participating in a joint investigation with the FBI as this hit crime procedural launches Season 6 with a premiere called "Judgement Call." Adam David Thompson, David DeSantos and Hal Ozsan guest star; Lucas Black, Vanessa Ferlito and CCH Pounder also star.

9 p.m. on WABM2
Emergence

Frequent partners Tara Butters and Michele Fazekas ("Agent Carter") created this new thriller starring Allison Tolman ("Fargo") as Jo Evans, a recently divorced police chief and mother to a teenage daughter, Bree (Ashley Aufderheide). While investigating a plane crash, Jo finds a young survivor named Piper (Alexa Skye Swinton), who has no memory of what happened or even who she is. After Jo takes the girl into her home, she discovers Piper is at the heart of an expanding mystery. Clancy Brown, Donald Faison and Owain Yeoman co-star.

Arica Himmel stars in "mixed-ish" on ABC.

TRIBUNE COLUMN

Worldview, part 6

Tom Fillinger
Contributor

We continue our focus on Worldview. Peter Jones (truthXchange.com) states with profound clarity, there are two worldviews. One, those who deny the existence of God and Special Revelation. Two, those who acknowledge God, the Bible and Absolute Truth. I am indebted to Herman Bavinck ("Christian Worldview") for his research and writing on this vital topic and I want to acknowledge that contribution here.

Today we consider Bavinck's treatment of Worldview focused on "Thinking and Being." There is a direct correlation between what we think and who we are. A. W. Tozer states that what a person thinks about God is vitally important.

"What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us. God never hurries. There are no deadlines against which he must work. Only to know this is to quiet our spirits and relax our nerves."

Every person thinks and in that thinking process they frame a worldview. Bavinck addresses this reality as follows.

The fact is certain that of ourselves and without coercion, we presume a world that exists outside us, that we seek to make it our mental property by way of perception and thinking, and that acting thus, we also suppose that we should obtain a certain and trustworthy knowledge of it. But on what grounds does this faith in a reality that is independent from our consciousness rest, and what guarantee is there that our consciousness-enriched through observation and thinking-corresponds to the world of being?

For as long as the human being has occupied himself with this problem, he almost always ends up or one side or another, either sacrificing knowledge to being or being to knowledge. Empiricism trusts only sensible perceptions and believes that the processing of elementary perceptions into representations and concepts, into judgments and decisions, removes us further and further from reality and gives us only ideas that, though clean and subjectively indispensable, are merely "nominal" and so are subjective representations, nothing but "the breath of a voice" bearing no sounds, only merely a "concept of the mind." Such thinking excludes any place for Special Revelation, a reality outside of ourselves.

However, Truth is the indispensable good for our cognition and thus the goal of all science. If there is no Truth, gone with that, too, are all knowledge and science. The Christian religion thus shows its wisdom primarily in this, that it knows and preserves truth as an objective reality which exists independent of our consciousness and is displayed by God for his works of nature and grace. Accordingly, each person proceeds spontaneously based on the conviction that the objective world exists outside him and that is as he has come to know it in clear perception.

This now is the fact that underpins all sensation and representation. He who denies it undermines all Truth and science. The logical upshot is, then, to claim that there is no world of being and no realm of Truth.
