Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism 1st agency to receive national accreditation in Alabama

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism (CP&R) Monday night announced that it has received a prestigious accreditation through the National Recreation and Park Association's Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA). According to CAPRA's website, CP&R is one of only 178 parks and recreation agencies across the country to hold this accreditation, and the first and only accredited system in the state of Alabama.

CP&R said in a statement: The Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) provides quality assurance and quality improvement of accredited park and recreation agencies throughout the United States by providing agencies with a management system of best practices. Agencies that achieve national accreditation exhibit a high mark of excellence in the areas of planning, organizational structure, financial management, risk management, public safety, conservation, human resources, research, and program management all while providing quality parks and facilities that meet the community needs.

To qualify for CAPRA accreditation, CP&R had to meet standards in numerous areas, including, among others:

- mission
- agency goals and objectives
- vision
- policies and procedures
- development of a system master plan and involvement in community strategic planning
- relationships to other agencies and to the community
- establishing policies for public sharing of information
- personnel policies and procedures

Facilities like the Connected Playground at Ingle Park help CP&R, in CAPRA's words, to "address barriers that may limit access."

- code of ethics
- promoting equal employment opportunities and workplace diversity
- clearly established fiscal policy and management procedures
- comprehensive accounting system including independent audits
- outreach to diverse populations
- codes and ordinances for safety and law enforcement
- comprehensive risk management plan
- systematic evaluation processes

Cullman County Water Dept. rates going up 10% Oct. 1

County Commission passes FY2020 budget in the amount of $68,346,281

CHRISTY PERRY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

David Haynes of St. John & Associates speaks to the commission at its work session prior to Tuesday's meeting.

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman County Water Department customers will see a 10% increase in water rates beginning Oct. 1, 2019. The Cullman County Commission passed the rate increase at its meeting Tuesday morning. The commission also passed its FY2020 budget in the amount of $68,346,281.

The meeting room was also full as residents of County Road 319 turned out for a scheduled public hearing regarding vacating of a portion of the road's cul de sac.

In the commission's work session prior to the meeting, David Haynes of St. John & Associates addressed the commissioners and other county administrators on the topic of increased water rates.

Haynes said, based on a study of 2014-2018 data, "Our original recommendation would have been that a 7% increase in rates would have been implemented at the beginning of the fiscal year 2019. That time has come and gone and here we are at the fiscal year 2020. If we were to try to play catch-up for not implementing a rate increase in 2019, we would be implementing a 10% increase in 2020 to account for where we are today."

Haynes also explained that a meter reading discrepancy resulted in the County owing the City of Cullman almost $925,000 that must be paid back.

He said, "The way we have forecast it is that it will be paid back in fiscal year 2020 over the course of the year. In order to maintain

PREP FOOTBALL

Cold Springs, Cullman hosting Friday night; Tigers headed to Sumiton Christian

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

We're halfway through the 2019 high school football season in Alabama and we have a few local teams hitting a bye this week. (3-2) Fairview, (2-3) West Point and (5-0) Good Hope will be off this week but there are still several important matchups coming up for teams across the county. (0-5) Meek will travel to Sumiton Christian after falling in a thriller to Berry at home, (3-2) Cold Springs will be back at home after losing a tight game to Aliceville last week and (3-2) Cullman is riding a three-game win streak into a home contest with Hueytown.

(3-2) Cold Springs (2A Region 5) vs. (4-1) Appalachian (1A Region 5)
The Eagles jumped out to an early lead in their matchup with Aliceville last week but couldn't keep the Yellow Jackets contained for four quarters and dropped their first region game of the season. They'll have to shake off the loss and prepare to host once again this week as the Appalachian Eagles come to town for homecoming.

Appalachian defeated Cold Springs in its own homecoming game a season ago, 35-34, so the hometown Eagles will definitely be excited to see this team again and exact some revenge. Appalachian is averaging over 36 points per game this season but was held to just 21 in its first loss of the season to Woodville last week. Cold Springs has also found some success moving the ball this season but ran into a stout Aliceville defense last week that held the Eagles to just 19.

Now, both offenses are coming off disappointing performances and will be anxious to find the end zone Friday night. It'll come down to which defensive unit can make enough stops throughout the game to create separation and pull away with a win.

(0-5) Meek (1A Region 6) at (0-5) Sumiton Christian (2A Region 5)
This week's showdown between Meek and Sumiton Christian will yield the first win of the season for one of these teams. Both the Tigers and Eagles are entering this week winless but determined to turn things around for the second half of the season.

Meek has not had a lot of tight games so far this season but last week's matchup with Berry was one of them. The Wildcats traveled to Arley as the favorite but got all they could handle from the Tigers, pulling ahead 36-30 late in the fourth quarter and escaping with a win.

With the 30-point showing against Berry and 24 points at Hubbertville the week before, Meek tripled its scoring output from the first three games combined. Sumiton Christian's defense has been suspect through the first half of the season, allowing over 40 points per game, so hopefully the Tigers can ride some momentum they've built offensively and collect their first win in Sumiton this week.

(3-2) Cullman (6A Region 7) vs. (4-0) Hueytown (6A Region 4)
After falling on the road in back to back games to open the season 0-2, the Bearcats have won three straight to move to 3-2 at the midway point of the season. Cullman is coming off a 31-7 win over Albertville in which it ran the ball for over 300 yards and kept the Aggies off the scoreboard until late in the game.

The Bearcats have racked up 921 yards on the ground in their last three outings, are scoring 40 points per game in that stretch and allowing just eight points per game, but they'll be lining up against a strong defensive front this week.

The Golden Gophers were a playoff team a season ago and have started things 4-0 in 2019 thanks in large part to star running back and Alabama Football commit Roydell Williams.

Hueytown defeated Cullman 42-7 last year and look like a solid team once again this fall, scoring nearly 38 points per game so far while holding opponents to under 17.

Both teams have some momentum coming into this week, but something will have to give when they face off at Oliver Woodard Stadium Friday night.

PREP VOLLEYBALL

Lady Aggies sweep tri-match with Holly Pond, Cold Springs

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

FAIRVIEW, Ala. – The Cold Springs Lady Eagles and Holly Pond Lady Broncos traveled to Fairview Monday afternoon to highlight Monday's local volleyball action and the home-standing Lady Aggies swept the tri-match. Fairview topped Holly Pond 2-0 to kick things and the Lady Eagles were able to topple the Lady Broncos 2-0 as well. In the final match of Monday's event, the Lady Aggies defeated Cold Springs 2-0 to continue a strong September run.

Fairview 2 – Holly Pond 0 (25-12, 25-20)
Fairview took down Holly Pond in two sets Monday night to get the tri-match started and several Lady Aggies put together impressive performances in the win.

Micah Means collected a team-high 24 assists to go along with three digs and Daisy Manasco posted 13 kills, five digs and five blocks in the win.

Katie Ball finished with eight kills and three digs for the Lady Aggies and Isabella McGukin added four blocks and two digs as well.

Cold Springs 2 – Holly Pond 0 (25-20, 25-18)
The first set was a tight, back-and-forth matchup between Cold Springs and Holly Pond, but the Lady Broncos managed to take a 15-13 lead midway through the set. The Lady Eagles tied things up at 16 before taking a 19-17 lead. Holly Pond was able to cut the lead to 20-19 but Cold Springs managed to pull away and take the opening set 25-20. The Lady Broncos jumped out to a 3-1 start in the second set, but the Lady Eagles bounced back to tie it up at 4 and eventually build a 12-6 lead.

The run continued for Cold Springs as it stretched its lead to 21-9 and despite a late push from Holly Pond, was able to pull away and take the match with a 25-18.

Cold Springs' Emi Harbison finished the match with a team-high 20 assists to go with two kills, a block and a dig and AK Voce led the Lady Eagles with 12 kills and nine digs. Kylon Hamby posted three aces, six kills, three digs and an assist and Emma Chambers collected two digs, two kills, an ace, an assist and a block in the win.

Fairview 2 – Cold Springs 0 (25-14, 25-18)
The Lady Aggies jumped in front 12-6 early in Monday night's final match and quickly stretched that lead to 16-7 midway through the first set. Cold Springs was able to cut the lead to 18-12 at one point but Fairview began to pull away after that and took the opening set 25-14.

The Lady Eagles found themselves down 3-1 at the start of the second set with the Lady Aggies but bounced back to take a 4-3 lead. Fairview was able to move back in front 10-7 and used a small scoring run to build a 15-9 advantage. Cold Springs cut the lead to 18-13 later in the set but the Lady Aggies finished strong once again to take the second set 25-18 and the match 2-0.

Alabama Association for Justice honors Cullman courthouse personnel

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Alabama Association for Justice on Tuesday morning held an appreciation event for the judges and staff at the Cullman County Courthouse, serving ice cream to courthouse personnel and hosting the presentation of an Alabama Senate resolution by Sen. Garlan Gudger, R-Cullman.

Tuscaloosa attorney Josh Hayes, representing the Alabama Association for Justice, told The Tribune, "We are here today to celebrate the Seventh Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which guarantees the right to trial by jury, a very essential part of the fabric of our government and especially our judicial system. The Alabama Senate passed a resolution honoring Cullman County and its judiciary for the courthouse staff and the judges, the personnel that really make the Seventh Amendment happen.

"Frankly, without the yeoman's work of clerks and behind-the-scenes people that are unsung heroes, the court system just wouldn't work, and so we're just here today passing out ice cream, telling people 'thank you' and being with some of our members from this area."

The resolution reads, in part:

WHEREAS, the courthouse is more than a building; it is a place where people work tirelessly every day to ensure laws will be enforced and justice will be done for all; and

WHEREAS, whether the courthouse is old or new, it is the people who work there who do the difficult and demanding job of assuring that justice is firm and even-handed; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, that we, along with the Alabama Association for justice, through its leadership, salute the Cullman County Judiciary, its staff and employees for their tireless dedication of upholding and preserving the 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Gudger said, "We're proud to be able to obtain and pass this resolution from the Senate of Alabama to honor all the judges, administration and workers in the courthouse and all that they do for the judicial system."

(Updated) Former AL Senate Majority Leader Zeb Little pleads guilty to 1st-degree theft of property

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman native and former Alabama Senate Majority Leader Zebulon "Zeb" Little, 51, pleaded guilty Friday to two counts of first-degree theft of property. According to Alabama Attorney Gen. Steve Marshall, whose office is handling the case, Little admitted to unlawfully taking client funds from his trust account. He pleaded guilty in Franklin County Circuit Court before specially-appointed Judge Terry Dempsey.

Little was indicted on three counts of first-degree theft of property back in February 2019 for money taken from a single victim, reported by Marshall's office to total more than $25,000. The investigation into Little began when a victim complained to the Cullman County Sheriff's Office that money placed into Little's trust account related to her father's estate was stolen. The Attorney General's Criminal Trials Division presented evidence to a Cullman County grand jury on Feb. 11, 2019, resulting in Little's indictment for three counts of theft of property related to that victim.

Last Thursday, he was arrested on a new single charge of first-degree theft by deception by the Cullman Police Department involving four more Cullman County victims between May 2015 and September 2016.

On Sept. 19, Little was charged by the Cullman County Sheriff's Office with another count of theft of property related to client trust funds stolen from additional victims. An investigation revealed that on multiple occasions, Little was settling cases on behalf of clients that were plaintiffs in personal injury cases. He would inform the clients that a settlement had been reached and said that he would pay the medical bills from the settlement amount. Instead of paying the medical bills, he transferred that portion of the settlement money to himself.

At a status hearing on Friday, Little agreed to plead guilty to two felony counts and pay restitution in the amount of $74,043.44.

Both counts are Class B felonies and are controlled by the Alabama presumptive sentencing guidelines. Sentencing will be left to the discretion of the Court and will be held in Cullman County on a date that is not yet set.

"The victims in this case trusted Little to represent them," said Marshall. "These victims needed help during a difficult time and went to Little searching for justice. Instead, they were victimized again by the greed of an individual who used his position of trust to enrich himself. This type of conduct erodes at the trust that the people of Alabama should be able to place in members of the Alabama bar. It will not be tolerated."

CULLMAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

Zeb Little

Marshall praised those involved in bringing this case to a successful conclusion, noting in particular Assistant Attorneys General Katie Langer and Chris Moore. He also thanked the Cullman County Sheriff's Office for its excellent work conducting the investigation.

Little's cases were moved to Franklin County and placed under Judge Dempsey after Cullman County officials, who are acquainted with Little, recused themselves. Dempsey has not set a date for Little's sentencing.

Little, of Tuscaloosa, a Democrat and native of Cullman, served in the Alabama Senate representing District 4 from 1998 to 2010. He was the Senate Majority Leader and Floor Leader of the Senate from 2002 to 2010, when he was defeated by Republican Paul Bussman.

Good Hope passes FY2020 budget, sees park expansion plans

christy@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – The Good Hope City Council on Monday night passed its FY2020 budget. Good Hope's general fund is $1.5 million with total projected revenues of $2.1 million. The budget includes several capital improvements and road projects such as the replacement of Doss Bridge and repaving of Gold Mine Drive and East Moehring Drive.

Mayor Jerry Bartlett said, "In six years, we've gone from just under $1 million to $2 million. I'm proud that's happening and it shows we are growing."

The City will have an estimated cash reserve of $718,000.

This year's budget has a 3% across the board pay raise for city employees as well as the cost of full family insurance coverage for its full-time employees. A total of $378,000 in capital improvements is budgeted for the upcoming year, including a new roof at the maintenance shop, improvements to the senior center and several upgrades to the City's park and sports complex.

The city council also faced the difficult task of declaring a vacancy on the council due to the passing of John Harris. Harris held Place 1 and with tears in their eyes, each member struggled as they voted yes to vacate his position. Councilwoman Susan Eller was then approved by the council to become Chairman Pro Tempore.

The council saw the first concept drawing of the new Municipal Park expansion created by St. John & Associates.

The drawing included a possible splash pad, a pedestrian trail system and cross-country trails, a Scout complex, pavilions, playground and nine-hole disc golf. The concept drawing addressed two creek crossings within the park as well as additional parking.

While the drawing is a conceptual rendering and nothing is definitive yet, the council appeared impressed with the ideas and layout presented.

The next Good Hope City Council Meeting will be Oct. 7 at 5:30 p.m.

Cullman County Commission Chairman Kenneth Walker cited for violations in deer breeding operation

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

BAILEYTON, Ala. – Cullman County Commission Chairman Kenneth Walker was cited* Saturday for failing to report the deaths of two deer in his licensed game breeding operation near Baileyton and of failing to submit the remains for testing.

According to the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (ADCNR) enforcement division, deer breeders are required to report the deaths of animals in their stocks within 24 hours and submit the remains for testing due to the appearance in the Southeast of Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD), a fatal central nervous system disorder affecting deer and elk. Alabama currently has no known cases of CWD, but ADCNR is keeping a close eye on movement of the disease.

Under Alabama Administrative Code 220-2-138, Section 5, "All persons, firms or corporations licensed under Section 9-11-30 to engage in the business of raising game birds, game animals, or fur bearing animals shall: . . . Within 24 hours of discovery, notify designated Division personnel of any deaths via the database or phone and allow disease testing of animals, 12 months of age or older, that have died."

According to ADCNR, Walker had previously received warnings before being cited. He has been assigned to appear before Judge Kim Chaney in Cullman County District Court Nov. 12. On the Alabama Supreme Court extended fine schedule, "Unlawful activity by licensed game-breeder," the section heading under which the failure to report falls, the citation carries a fine of $250 per offense.

Documentation in Alacourt refers to the incident as an arrest, although ADCNR arrests follow the traditional citation protocols rather than criminal arrests.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The sparkling lights of the midway will soon return when the 65th Cullman County Fair opens Thursday, Oct. 3, bringing with it thrilling rides, exciting entertainment, fun games, homemade arts and crafts, agricultural exhibits and all those yummy funnel cakes and candy apples that make the Cullman County Fair one of the best in Alabama. The 2019 Cullman County Fair Parade will take place this Saturday, Sept. 28 at 2 p.m. The parade will follow U.S. Highway 31 from First Baptist Church to McGriff Tire.

Running through Saturday, Oct. 12, the fair is put on by the Cullman Lions Club. This year's opening ceremony will be Thursday, Oct. 3 at 5 p.m.

The Cullman Lions Club has invited Kissel Entertainment to provide rides and games for the second year.

Lion Jerry Bonner said at the close of last year's fair, "They are heads and shoulders above the previous vendors we have used. Their personnel were disciplined, knowledgeable, polite and worked well with people at the fair."

New to this year's fair will be the Farmer Olympics, daily lion and tiger shows and a motorcycle show. The spelling bee will return to the Coca-Cola stage, as well as the Tiny and Petite Fair Princess Pageants, the Little, Junior and Teen Fair Princess Pageants and the Miss Cullman County Fair Queen Pageant.

"We try to change it up every year, so this year we will have the lion and tiger show coming," said Bonner. "Last year we had the pumpkin painting and carving contest and we are doing that again this year."

He added, "We have what they are calling the Farmer Olympics and they will be doing that on the evening of the last Friday. The motorcycle show will be held on the final Saturday. We will have the dog show at the arena again, too."

Last year, the Lions Club upgraded the fairgrounds by paving areas to improve wheelchair accessibility. This year, a new security system has been installed. Cameras are in place to better observe and keep people safe while they are enjoying the fair.

Another change this year is the name of the fair passes. Previously called Mega-Passes, the newly-named All-in-One Passes are $22 and include admission and unlimited rides. The passes can be purchased at the fair office and at all Peoples Bank locations. All-in-One Pass sales end at noon Oct. 3.

For those without an All-in-One Pass, admission is $7 and ride tickets are sold separately. For children 9 and younger, admission is free. See more about this year's rides and ticket prices at www.cullmanfair.org/tickets-rides.

CP&R Executive Director Nathan Anderson said, "We started this incredible but challenging journey four years ago.

"Going through the accreditation has elevated our organization in so many ways.

"To be named the first in the state is a great accomplishment for our team and community. We are now amongst an elite few in the country.

"This process has made us more mindful in handling the entrusted resources of our community.

The Masked Singer

The clues are tougher in Season 2 of this breakout game show, but math prodigies may find it helpful to know that, collectively, this season's undercover celebrities have racked up 69 Emmy nominations, 42 Grammy Award nods, credits in 22 Broadway shows, three books on the New York Times best-seller list, plus two mentions on Time magazine's list of most influential people. In tonight's two-hour premiere, the first eight incognito stars perform for panelists Ken Jeong, Jenny McCarthy, Nicole Scherzinger and Robin Thicke. Nick Cannon hosts.

8 p.m. on WVTM
Chicago Fire

Fans of this ensemble drama may want to brace themselves for the Season 8 premiere, which showrunner Derek Haas cautions is "as brutal as we've done" and is only a prologue to some lingering fallout. Back together, Stella and Severide (Miranda Mayo, Taylor Kinney) offer strong support to each other during this trying period, and Casey (Jesse Spencer) is too distracted to obsess over Brett's (Kara Killmer) unexpected engagement to Chaplain Kyle Sheffield (Teddy Sears).

Suits

As this sleek legal dramedy closes out its ninth and final season with a finale called "One Last Con," it does so with legal shark Harvey Specter (Gabriel Macht) and longtime associate Mike Ross (Patrick J. Adams) working in tandem to take down an adversary. It's been the potent chemistry — or perhaps "bro-ology" — between Macht and Adams that kept fans tuning in for much of the run. Fellow original cast members Rick Hoffman and Sarah Rafferty also star.

8 p.m. on HBO
Movie: Buzz

Pulitzer Prize-winning writer Buzz Bissinger has a reputation for being able to get his interview subjects to relax and open up to him for his books and magazine articles. This 2018 documentary from Bissinger's longtime friend Andrew Shea, however, throws the focus on Bissinger, who reveals much about himself while collaborating with Caitlyn Jenner on her book "The Secrets of My Life." That was during a turbulent year in his personal life, and Bissinger exposes some buried desires that tested his marriage and family.

Stumptown

Actress Cobie Smulders gets to show surprising new range in this new series adaptation of graphic novels by Greg Rucka, which revolves around Dex Parios (Smulders), a sharp-witted former Marine now making ends meet as a private eye in Portland, Ore. It's gritty work, but Dex doesn't mind getting her hands dirty as she takes care of a younger brother (Cole Sibus), struggles to pay off a gambling debt and juggles a love life that's ... complicated. Jake Johnson, Tantoo Cardinal and Camryn Manheim co-star.

9 p.m. on COM
South Park

It all started with a couple of animated video shorts using cutouts, but the raucous, profane and brutally satirical adult comedy that evolved from that has gone on to win five Primetime Emmys and the prestigious Peabody Award, along with multiple other accolades.

Cake

Why settle for eye candy when this eclectic new half-hour series is ready to serve you a tasty treat for the mind? Each episode delivers an assortment of "bite-sized" narratives, some of it live action, other parts animated. Created by storytellers both new and established, the pieces, which vary in length, also shift in tone from provocative to raw to ethereal to laugh-inducing. The series opens with a premiere called "Cache Flow," a series of pieces around the theme of identity vs. technology.

Cobie Smulders stars in "Stumptown" on ABC.

Baileyton's Rusty Yancy earns R.W. Donaldson Endowed Scholarship

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – The Alabama Farmers Federation invested in the future of the state's No. 1 industry by awarding 80 Auburn University (AU) students from 55 counties with $123,500 in scholarships.

Students, who are pursuing degrees in agriculture, forestry or related programs, were recognized during a scholarship reception Sept. 23 at Ham Wilson Livestock Arena.

"It's a pleasure of our organization to give back to you," said Federation President Jimmy Parnell, an AU agricultural economics graduate, as he addressed the recipients.

"Auburn was an integral part of forming the Alabama Federation in 1921, and we're committed to investing in Auburn students.

"We're working to provide for the next generation of leaders, who will make a huge difference for Alabama and agriculture."

The Alabama Farmers Agriculture Foundation contributed $1,250 for each county Federation providing $500.

Fifty-five students received the $1,750 scholarships. Some counties fully fund additional scholarships.

They are Baldwin, Chilton, Covington, Dale, Henry, Houston, Jefferson, Lee and Madison counties.

The R.W. Donaldson Endowed Scholarship, named after a longtime Cullman County Farmers Federation member and cattleman, was also awarded to Rusty Yancy.

Cherokee County Farmers Federation President John Bert East told students he appreciated their interest in agriculture, a $70 billion industry in Alabama.

"It makes us proud that we can help you financially and see you mature and be successful," said East, a cattle and row crop farmer from Centre.

"This is an investment in Alfa's future and your future."

The commission agreed to vote on a 10% increase and added that to Tuesday morning's agenda.

Haynes also spoke during the commission meeting, explaining, "The proposed rate increase of 10% is in response to a wholesale rate increase from the City of Cullman of 11.2% in the last fiscal year. We also have a forecasted rate increase from the City of Cullman of over 8% in the coming fiscal year.

"This 10% increase is relatively modest by comparison, and that is the basis of our recommendation."

The commission voted to pass the 10% increase.

Commissioner Garry Marchman said in reference to the water contract the County entered into with the City of Cullman in 2010, "We've got to be able to budget with our water. Right now, they can say what they want to, and we're stuck with it. We gotta change, folks. We gotta change it. Whether it's a revision of that contract or whatever it is, someone has signed our death warrant with that."

The commission also approved the County's FY 2020 budget.

The $68.35 million budget includes a $20.03 million general fund budget, $13.91 million for the water department, $12.17 million for sanitation and $10.58 million for the road department. The general fund budgeted revenue is projected at $22.84 million.

The largest portion of the general fund, $12.02 million, will go to the Cullman County Sheriff's Office and Detention Center.

County employees will also see a 70-cent raise per step.

According to County Administrator Gary Teichmiller, "Raising each step by 70 cents, for 90% of the employees, this will be higher than a one step. What it does is brings our starting pay more in line with private and other municipalities and counties."

Teichmiller said the budget also includes about $1.5 million to replace the whole HVAC system in the courthouse and repairs to the elevators for $300,000.

A public hearing was held concerning vacating a .05-acre portion of County Road 319.

The petitioners, Alan Merz, Bill Whisenhunt and Ellesha Whisenhunt, were represented by attorney Champ Crocker.

Crocker addressed the commissioners, "We stand on our petition which states that this is not going to have an adverse effect on anyone else.

"Currently their house, their retaining wall, is encroaching on the road and that is a problem for them. It affects the marketability of their house and this is the best solution."

Other residents of County Road 319 disagreed. Several spoke in opposition including Dr. Mark Farmer who raised concerns about taking away a portion of the cul de sac and large trucks being unable to navigate the road.

He said, "If you take away the third of the turnaround, we have no place for these trucks to turn around and it does pose a major problem. This petition only serves this family and not the community, and that's our objection."

The commission made no decision on County Road 319 at Tuesday's meeting.
