CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism (CPRST) representatives, accompanied by numerous members of Cullman's city government, traveled to Baltimore, Maryland this week to attend the National Recreation and Park Association's 2019 Annual Conference, where CPRST became the first parks and recreation system in the state of Alabama to receive accreditation from the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA). According to CAPRA's website, CPRST is one of only 178 parks and recreation agencies across the country to hold the accreditation.

After CPRST received its accreditation plaque in a ceremony Wednesday evening, CPRST Executive Director Nathan Anderson told The Tribune, "Our agency has been recognized as a leader amongst its peers for many years; however, we are always looking for ways to improve operations, planning, and how we serve our community. After going through this process we feel we have the right plan in place to strategically and systematically improve quality of life for all within our community. We also hope to be a catalyst for a new accreditation movement within our State."

District Judge Rusty Turner, who is chairman of the CPRST Board, reflected, "What does this mean for the city, community and the state?

"I believe it will encourage other departments across the state to take this step to help their communities. Locally, I hope it will ensure we continue to deliver a quality product that will make people want to visit and live in the Cullman community."

"CAPRA accreditation to me means that we are taking extra steps to ensure that we are offering the best programs and facilities and measuring ourselves against the national standards," said CPRST Director of Operations Kyle Clark. "The standards we developed for our policies and procedures gives up a blueprint of how our organization operates. Being involved in establishing these standards has helped educate me on ways to run our department much more efficiently."

To qualify for CAPRA accreditation, CP&R had to meet standards in numerous areas, including, among others: mission, agency goals and objectives, vision, policies and procedures, development of a system master plan and involvement in community strategic planning, relationships to other agencies and to the community, establishing policies for public sharing of information, personnel policies and procedures, code of ethics, promoting equal employment opportunities and workplace diversity, clearly established fiscal policy and management procedures, comprehensive accounting system including independent audits, outreach to diverse populations, codes and ordinances for safety and law enforcement, comprehensive risk management plan and systematic evaluation processes.

According to the agency, "Through a process of peer verification of compliance with these national standards, CAPRA accreditation assures policy makers, department staff, and the general public that an accredited park and recreation agency has the operational capacity to deliver programs, facilities, and services at a high level of quality."

Officials are pleased with the accreditation, but no one seems to see it as any kind of finish line.

Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs said, "This will be the foundation that we will use to build the next level of Cullman's Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism.

"With these standards and practices in place, we can go to new levels that might not have been possible before."

"This is a first step for our department," Turner added. "We will build on this and continue to raise our standards, so we serve the community the way they deserve."

FUNNY THINGS FROM YESTERDAY

Today's article is not a funny, but a sad loss of a dear friend

Robert N. Tidwell, Sr.
Tribune Contributor

Rudene and I met a couple in Frankweiler, Germany, Basil and Ingrid Holmes, and they became very dear friends to us. We met in 1987 when we twinned Cullman and Frankweiler as sister cities. Ingrid was the translator for the Cullman people.

Basil was a retired British military officer and Ingrid is German.

In 1988, a group of about 50 people came to Cullman from Frankweiler. Basil and Ingrid did not realize that the Greyhound bus line was just a transport bus; they thought it was a tourist bus. They had bought tickets for a trip to California and back.

During the trip one of their suitcases got lost on the trip out and the bus line sent it back to Cullman.

When Basil found out that the suitcase had been sent back to Cullman, he called me and asked me to pick it up and hold it for them.

When they arrived back in Cullman, they still had three days before their flight was to leave back to Germany.

We invited them to stay at our house until their plane departed.

They were glad to stay with us. From that day on we were very good friends.

Rudene and I have made many trips to visit with them and we traveled over most of Western Europe, into North Africa and some in the Middle East.

They have visited us, and we traveled in the U.S. and sailed to Alaska and Hawaii.

Basil and Ingrid were dear friends, but on the 10th of this month, he passed away. He had been in poor health for quite some time and had been in and out of the hospital.

He was a dear friend and we are deeply saddened. We loved you and will miss you, Dear Friend.

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

That special season has arrived again

Bill King
Tribune Contributor

My favorite season of the year has finally arrived. In case you think I'm talking about fall, you would absolutely be one-hundred percent right...well, at least partly. Weather wise, autumn certainly is my favorite time of year. The older I get, the fluffier I grow, and the further south I live, the less I like the summer heat. I love the cool crisp mornings of fall, especially since we built our back porch. As I'm writing what you are now reading, I'm sitting out there drinking my second cup.

We don't have a beach, but we have a creek and woods. It is a beautiful early morning, with a slight breeze. It was quite until a gaggle of honking geese flew over, but I enjoy their interruption. This time of year, this is a wonderful place to meditate, pray, read my Bible and newspaper, or take a nap.

There are several other things I love about this season, besides the gorgeous weather.

If you read last week's column, you already know its muscadine time. Drew and I both had a belly-ache last Saturday, but those sweet grapes were worth the hurt!

Do you know that football season has begun? If not, have someone check your pulse and dial 911! This is Alabama. Our first baby's first words are "Roll Tide," or "War Eagle."

I'm afraid I have wasted many good Saturdays sitting in front of the television overdosing on college football...and muscadines. Jean and I do what we call eleven-eleven watching.

We start at eleven in the morning and wrap it up around eleven that evening. We don't attend games much anymore.

The food at our house is cheaper and the lines are much shorter. Finding a parking-place is rarely a problem and it's free. Well, if you come and insist on paying, you may but it's not required. I never have to worry about someone spilling their beer all over me because it is a non-drinking venue.

We always have good seats, and we don't have to walk far to get to them. With DVR, we can see as many instant replays as we want. We can also pause the action, run cut the grass, and pick right back up where we left off. I'm kidding, its fall and football season, nobody cuts grass on Saturdays.

We can pause the action while we run grab a burger and never miss a play. I can also mute the television, turn on the radio and if my timing is really good, I can press pause on the television for a second and be in sync with my team's radio announcers. Well, yes, of course they are biased too, but for your team.

I also love this season of the year because it is baseball stretch time. The long major league season is winding down and the teams are making their final stretch toward the playoffs.

I think they play a little harder in September and October than they do in July. The Braves have won the East and are headed to the playoffs.

One last thing I love about this season is homecomings. No, not football homecomings but church homecomings. Since I work with several churches, I try to attend as many of their homecomings as possible. It has nothing to do with those covered-dish dinners...really, well maybe a little. You know what?

Most of them "have church" every week. They don't always have covered dish dinners, but we don't have to wait until fall to go. Church is always in season. That's better than having football games every week, all year long! There is no admission cost and even the parking is free!

Danville offense too much for Broncos

Doug Bates
Tribune Correspondent

DANVILLE, Ala. – The Holly Pond Broncos traveled to Danville to face the Hawks Friday night and the game started with the Broncos taking the open kick off up to midfield. The Broncos gained one first down before Levi Boatright ran it 34 yards for the for the first score of the night to give Holly Pond an early 6-0 lead.

Danville responded with a touchdown of its own with less than a minute off the clock. Following the first of three Holly Pond punts in the first half, Danville took the lead with a 16-yard pass touchdown. The first quarter ended with Danville leading 13-6.

The second quarter opened with the Broncos knocking on the door at the Danville 2-yard line. Boatright scored his second touchdown of the game and the ensuing 2-point conversion made it 14-13 Holly Pond.

Danville, behind a strong running game, had drives of 62 yards and 45 yards before halftime, missing one extra point and giving the Hawks a 26-14 halftime lead.

Danville received the ball at the start of the third quarter, starting at its own 45. The Hawks crossed midfield to the Holly Pond 47-yard line, and the Danville running game took over. The Hawks found the end zone once again on the ground and the following extra point made it 33-14 Danville.

The following kickoff saw the ball bounce off a Holly Pond player and the Hawks fell on the ball at midfield. Two plays later, Danville scored again, and the missed extra point made it a 39-14 game.

Holly Pond got the ball back and drove down to the Danville 17-yard line where a pass from Kyler Chaney to Landon Perkins resulted in a touchdown that cut the lead to 39-22 midway through the third quarter.

The fourth quarter saw the Broncos getting their ground game going after the Hawks turned the ball over on downs.

Starting at its own 26-yard line, Holly Pond drove down to the Danville 10 where Boatright scored his third touchdown of the night to make it a 39-30 game.

Unfortunately for Broncos fans, the Danville offense was just too much for the Holly Pond defense and the Hawks scored again with 4:29 left in the fourth to go up 45-30. The Broncos managed to find the end zone one more time with 1:49 remaining but it was too little too late, and Danville held on to win it 45-36.

Holly Pond is now 1-5 on the season and will travel to face the Locust Fork Hornets next Friday night.

Bearcats fall at home to Hueytown, 33-16

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Correspondent

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman Bearcats hosted the Hueytown Golden Gophers for homecoming Friday night and the Bearcats came up short in a hard-fought game, 33-16. The Bearcat defense did an admirable job slowing down Alabama Crimson Tide commit Roydell Williams despite coming up short against the Golden Gophers.

Cullman received the opening kickoff and on the first play from scrimmage, a fumble ended the drive as quickly as it began.

Five plays later, a 10-yard run put the Gophers ahead 7-0 early. After a lengthy drive, Cullman answered with a field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3 with 4:41 remaining in the opening quarter.

On the ensuing possession, Hueytown looked like it was going to add to its lead after a lengthy drive of its own, but the Bearcat defense forced a fumble and got the ball backed up on its own 1-yard line. Three plays later, Cullman took a 9-7 lead thanks to an 89-yard run by Jaylen Hughey on the first play of the second quarter. Cullman elected to pull an onside kick, which was successful, but the Bearcats were unable to convert on fourth down and four plays later, a long run gave the lead to the Gophers, 14-9, with 6:38 remaining in the opening half.

Hueytown took the second half kickoff and pounded the ball on the ground, capping off the drive with a 15-yard run to extend the lead 21-9 early in the third quarter. Another 10-yard run late in the third quarter added to the Gophers lead and made it a 27-9 game but on the first offensive play of Cullman's next possession, Jayden Sullins went 64 yards to the house and cut the lead to 27-16 with 1:25 left to play in the third quarter.

A 3-yard run with 8:46 remaining in the fourth quarter extended the Hueytown lead to 33-16 and the Gophers held on to win it by that final score.

Williams finished the game with 189 total yards and three touchdowns. Cullman's Hughey finished the game with 184 rushing yards and a touchdown and Sullins added 73 rushing yards and a touchdown of his own.

Cullman moves to 3-3 on the year and will be back in region play next week when the Bearcats travel to take on Athens.

"THE 67-COUNTY, ALABAMA GARDEN PARTY"

RUSSELL COUNTY

Ben Johnson South
Tribune Correspondent

The easternmost point in Alabama is in Russell County about 8 miles southeast of Fort Mitchell on the Georgia border. The county was established in December 1832, carved out of former Creek Indian territory.

It is fitting that we are in east Alabama as we celebrate figs on our progressive garden party. Fig trees (Ficus carica), common figs come from the east as an Asian species of flowering plant in the mulberry family. Figs are native to the Middle East but have become a naturalized resident in all 67 counties of Alabama.

Recently, in a Master Gardeners presentation, our Alabama Cooperative Extension System speaker suggested every homeowner in the state needed to have at least one fig tree.

Figs grow wild in sunny, dry locations with deep, fresh soil and in rocky areas. Since we are experiencing climate warming, it is good to have fruit-bearing trees like figs which tolerate seasonal drought.

Figs are ancient, dating to 9000 B.C. in the Jordan Valley north of Jericho. Hispanic missionaries first brought figs to North America.

Some find figs sinfully delicious. In the Genesis story of the Christian Bible, Adam and Eve cover their privates with fig leaves after eating the "forbidden fruit" (possibly a Persian peach) from the "Tree of Knowledge."

Also, Jesus of Nazareth, the savior from the New Testament (Matthew 21: 18-22 and Mark 11: 12-21) encounters a fig tree when he is hungry, and the tree has many leaves, but no figs. Jesus throws a curse on the tree and causes it to wither and die.

Here's a Garden of Eden tale that would be good to share in the shade of a Russell County fig tree:

Adam is in the garden when he finds himself quite lonely. He calls upon God and asks Him, "Lord almighty, may you find me company here?"

God, in his infinite kindness, responds, "Of course, my child, I shall create a being to accompany you.

"The being will be beautiful, intelligent, caring, calm and loving. The being shall satisfy you in every way and you two shall find love and be truly happy with one another forever.

Ecstatic, Adam says, "Thank you, Lord! What will it cost me?"

God replies, "An arm and a leg."

Adam ponders for a minute and replies, "Lord, what can I get for a rib?"

In the Buddhist religion, the Buddha achieves enlightenment while sitting in the shade of the Bodhi tree, a large and old, sacred fig tree (Ficus religiosa).

The Muslim Qur'an also has the prophet Muhammad praising fig trees and offering medical advice: "If I had to mention a fruit that descended from paradise, I would say this (the fig) is it because the paradisiacal fruits do not have pits... eat from these fruits for they prevent hemorrhoids, prevent piles and help gout."

"Each man under his own vine and fig tree," (Micah 4:4) was quoted by George Washington and remained a popular phrase in American political rhetoric to denote the optimistic promise of peace and prosperity.

Most of us have had some bad dates, but there is no such thing as a bad fig. In Alabama, growing these fig trees was suggested to Master Gardeners by Alabama Cooperative Extension System Coordinator Tony Glover in his popular talk, "30 Good and Outstanding Plants to Grow in Alabama:"

• BROWN TURKEY (aka California Brown Turkey, San Pedro, San Piero; brown or amber color, average to large-sized fruits, few seeds and best when fresh, perfect for the grilled fig salad recipe we're sharing

• CELESTE (aka Blue Celeste, Celeste Violette, Celestial, Malta, Sugar Fig, Violette; strawberry-brown color, small to average-sized, ideal for canning fig preserves; fruits resist splitting and souring

• LSU PURPLE (red-purple color; developed in Louisiana and recommended for the Gulf Coast region; these closed-eye figs resist souring and the tree is vigorous and cold-tolerant

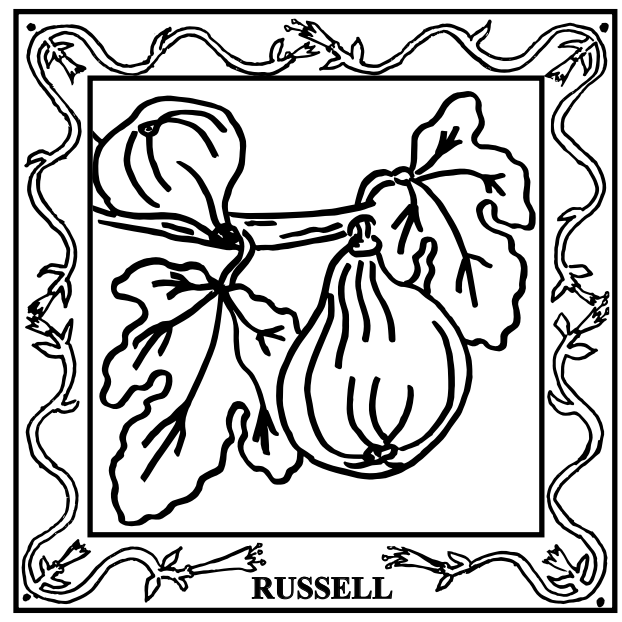

Also, Glover suggested the dwarf plant, LITTLE MISS FIGGY. I want to grow that one both to enjoy the delicious figs and have a reason to say the playful name often.

Here are other positive and pleasurable ways PLANTS + PEOPLE come together in Russell County, Alabama:

• RUSSELL COUNTY FARMERS' MARKET- Garrett-Harrison Stadium Lot at Airport and Summerville Road Intersection, Phenix City, AL 36867; Saturdays, May-November, 8 a.m.-noon (Eastern Time), Thursdays, noon-6 p.m. (Eastern Time) May-November

• FORT MITCHELL FARMSTAND- M&J Produce, 122 McLendon Road, Fort Mitchell, AL 35856; Melvin or Jay Sherman, 706-573-8646; call to check seasonal availability.

• RUSSELL COUNTY FIGS- Thrash's Berry Farm, 51 Thrash Road, Seale, AL 36875; 334-855-4311; June 1-August 1; also, blueberries and muscadines

The Alabama honeysuckle border was inspired by an 18th century, Southern applique quilt.

• HELP THE HOOCH- A fun and meaningful, environmental event on the Chattahoochee River is the largest watershed cleanup this side of the Mississippi River; second Saturday in October

• RUSSELL COUNTY PLANTS SOURCES- Jandarella's Garden Center; John's Lawn and Garden

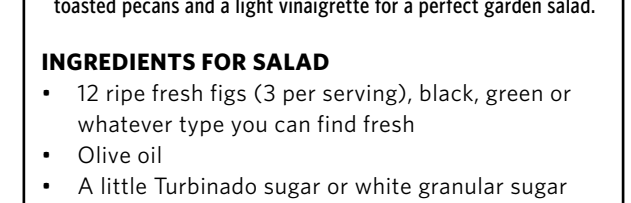

• BEST RUSSELL COUNTY SCENERY- When I asked Jennifer Davidson of the Russell County office of the Alabama Cooperative Extension System where she would take a landscape photographer or painter, she mentioned lots of beauty along the Chattahoochee River. Also, the Fort Mitchell Historic Site, and her very favorite view is the gorgeous waterfall at Bridgewater.

• PLANTING AN IDEA- Find out what the folks in Russell County are doing to help keep Alabama beautiful with their award-winning, "HELP THE HOOCH" cleanup initiative. Then, using their successful effort as a model, launch a similar "green" event in your neck of the woods.

Y'ALL COME to Russell County on your 67-County Alabama Garden Party tour. Let's plan to meet about 9 a.m. any summer day and savor some gently sunkissed figs. Or, we can meet any other season and slather scrumptious Russell County fig preserves on some cathead biscuits.

Many thanks to Jennifer Davidson of the Russell County office of the Alabama Cooperative Extension System and to Laurie Johnson for sharing her healthy and dee-lish recipe for Russell County Grilled Fresh Fig Salad with Pomegranate.

The Cullman Tribune is celebrating the Alabama Bicentennial (1819-2019) with statewide field reporting by Alabama Master Gardener/Botanical Artist Ben Johnson South. This year-long feature, "The 67-County Alabama Garden Party," will spotlight different counties each week. Each county will get its own "quilt block," along with a historical profile, and we'll share a recipe specific to the area. At the end of the year, all 67 counties will be put in a book to commemorate the Bicentennial.

RUSSELL COUNTY
GRILLED FRESH FIG SALAD WITH POMEGRANATE

(4 servings)

I was fortunate to grow up in older homes, complete with established yards and gardens, planted by people we didn't know, and that were long gone. One such yard was blessed with five large fig trees that must have been planted generations before. As a typical 6-year-old, I wouldn't be caught dead EATING a fig, but LOVED harvesting them. In fig season, my daily job was to get them off the ground before they rotted. On weekends, I climbed the trees to pick ripe ones. When I couldn't reach them, I heard from my Dad below, "Girl, shake the branch." Our next house had its own pomegranate tree, so at 10 years old I was introduced to yet another "exotic fruit." Now, we can harvest pomegranates and figs at the grocery, but that was certainly not the case in the 1960s at our small-town Piggly Wiggly. Mature yards and gardens are important. Their plants and trees invoke connections between the people that planted them and those that follow and continue to harvest and enjoy. This salad blends the rustic sweetness of fresh figs with the tart crunch of pomegranate plus a punch of blue cheese, the salty crunch of toasted pecans and a light vinaigrette for a perfect garden salad.

INGREDIENTS FOR SALAD

- 12 ripe fresh figs (3 per serving), black, green or whatever type you can find fresh
- Olive oil
- A little Turbinado sugar or white granular sugar (optional if you don't want added sugar)
- About 5 oz. mixed fresh baby greens like spinach, arugula or other baby lettuces
- 4 tbsp. pomegranate kernels
- 4 oz. blue or gorgonzola cheese, crumbled
- 1/2 cup toasted, lightly-salted Alabama pecans (See Lowndes County recipe.)
- Whole grain baguette slices (Grill with a brush of oil before figs to check grill pan temperature.)

INGREDIENTS FOR VINAIGRETTE

Can be made in advance – double or triple and kept on hand

- 3 tbsp. olive oil
- 2 tbsp. balsamic vinegar
- 2 tbsp. local honey
- Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

INGREDIENTS

1. Make vinaigrette – mix ingredients by strongly whisking or in a blender.
2. Grill figs – Cut off fig stems and slice in half (or thirds if they are very large). Brush cut surface of figs with olive oil and dip cut side onto a small plate of the sugar (optional). Brush a grill pan with oil and heat to medium. Grill, cut side down, for 1-2 minutes until browned (time depends on size of the figs and whether you used sugar).
3. Assemble and enjoy the salads – Lightly toss the baby greens with the vinaigrette (optional) and place a handful onto each plate. Arrange the grilled figs over the greens and sprinkle with pomegranate kernels, toasted pecans and blue cheese crumbles. Lightly drizzle with vinaigrette and serve with grilled, whole grain bread.

Chase (from Front)

wendy@cullmantribune.com

Editor's note: This is an update to the story "Pair leads CPD on high-speed chase through downtown Cullman, down I-65," published Sept. 27, 2019.

CULLMAN, Ala. – A Bessemer woman was arrested and a man remains on the run following a lengthy high-speed chase through Cullman and down Interstate 65 South Thursday night. It all started over an alleged shoplifting incident.

Tiffany Barry, 40, was charged with attempting to elude, according to Cullman Police Department (CPD) Lt. David Nassetta, who said Barry will most likely face charges of theft of property related to the shoplifting incident.

The Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) is still searching the Arkadelphia area for the man, identified by the CCSO as Dustin Dan Patterson.

In a statement, the CCSO said, "He is not believed to be dangerous... but we still urge citizens if they see him to call 911 or the CCSO at 256-735-2425."

Patterson has multiple drug-related warrants and will also face charges from the CPD related to the chase.

CPD Chief Kenny Culpepper Thursday night said, "At around 6:30 p.m. officers responded to a report of shoplifting at Wal-Mart (on Olive Street in south Cullman). Officers attempted to stop them, but they fled." Culpepper said the pair led officers on a chase up U.S. Highway 31 through Cullman, all the way to Alabama Highway 157, where they turned toward the interstate.

"They did make contact with another vehicle during the chase," said Culpepper, "but no one was injured."

The vehicle exited onto I-65 South, and the CPD officers pursued it approximately 19 miles to Exit 291, where the pair exited toward Arkadelphia.

The CCSO joined in the pursuit on I-65.

"At some point, they (the suspects) blew a tire and were running on a rim," said Culpepper. "They were forced to stop. The female was apprehended and the male ran off into the woods."

A CCSO K-9 deputy was brought in to assist in the search for the male suspect. As of press time Friday night, he had not been located.

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – The student body of Good Hope Middle School (GHMS) on Friday got a little break from the regular schedule to gather outside and watch Bailey Tetro, an eighth grader who has become a prodigy with the Rubik's cube, take on two old-schoolers: GHMS Assistant Principal Scott Brown and Good Hope High School Head Football Alan Scott, both of whom were cube masters in their own school days.

Tetro, who was introduced to the Rubik's cube by her grandparents (Feeling old yet, cube fans?) and spent time studying online cube videos, split rounds with Brown and defeated Scott soundly using randomly mixed cubes, before the assistant principal got one more shot.

It wasn't even close; Tetro walked away with the victory and a new all-time personal best of 1:03.

GHMS Librarian Stephanie Hood got the cube craze going at the school two weeks ago by borrowing 400 cubes from an online lending program and directing students to use the cubes to create mosaic pictures. (See www.cullmantribune.com/2019/09/21/good-hope-7th-graders-create-rubiks-cube-mosaic-portrait-of-abraham-lincoln/)

When, during a discussion on her cube projects, Hood heard Brown say he had been good with the cube in his youth, she got the idea for a head-to-head matchup.

Hood told The Tribune the hands-on experience of the cubes helps certain students shine when they may not be at their best in typical school instructional formats.

Said Hood, "I do believe that it's that engineering frame of mind, and the hands-on, and being able to picture where that next color needs to go, and how you need to turn this to get it where it needs to be. It's just amazing to me.

Asked what impact the project has had on her students, Hood replied, "Well, they ask to do it again. It piques their interest, and I think it helps the creative part, to me.

"A lot of times, they see other kids doing it and they want to know how.

"It impacts them in that way, that 'This is actually something I'm going to have to try harder with, so I want to do it.' It makes them want to. It opens that creative part of the brain, though; problem solving: that's what it is."

Principal Lesley Hembree expressed pride in what Hood is accomplishing, telling The Tribune, "She'll take on any task, and she's a leader in our school.

"She coordinates events, she's always positive. She's one of the most positive people that I work with; she cares about people's feelings, she does what's best for the students.

"She is not self-centered. She does what's best for the teachers. She looks out for everybody; she's selfless."

Tigers fall at Sumiton Christian 28-6

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

SUMITON, Ala. – After falling in a nail-biter against Berry that went down to the final seconds, Meek hit the road to take on the Eagles of Sumiton Christian in a non-region showdown.

The Tigers took a 6-0 lead early, but the Eagles tore off 28 unanswered points to defeat Meek and pick up their first win of the season.

An early touchdown made it a 6-0 game with the Tigers in front, but Sumiton Christian managed to tie things up by the start of the second quarter.

The Eagles scored again midway through the second to pull ahead 14-6 and that score held as both teams went into the locker room at the half.

Sumiton Christian tacked on another score in the third quarter to make it 20-6 by the start of the final frame and begin pulling away.

The Eagles found the end zone one more time in the fourth quarter to go ahead 28-6 and kept the Tigers off the board the rest of the way to win it.

Meek falls to 0-6 on the year with the loss but will have to shake this one off and bounce back next week when they head to Brilliant to resume region play.

Addison (from Front)

Todd Walker
Tribune Correspondent

VINEMONT, Ala. – A packed house filled Eagle Stadium to watch the 2A Addison Bulldogs (3-2) face the hometown 3A Vinemont Eagles (2-2). This was the 30th meeting between the two teams in a series that Addison has controlled recently.

Vinemont received the opening kickoff and on its first play from scrimmage, quarterback Jack Hill was hit and fumbled the ball which was recovered at the Vinemont 26-yard line by the Dawgs.

Vinemont's defense stood up and a few plays later, Bryce Perkins intercepted Addison quarterback Christian Roberts' pass at the goal line. Perkins returned it to the Vinemont 42-yard line.

After an exchange of possessions, neither team being able to move the ball consistently against either defense, Addison took over at its own 43-yard line. Addison running back Caleb Crider, built like Jerome Bettis, took over and gained 22 yards on three straight carries, bullying over Eagle defenders.

Roberts finished off the drive with a nice 25-yard run around left end. The 2-point conversion was good and at the 1:37 mark of the first quarter Addison led 8-0.

Vinemont answered the challenge and mounted its best drive of the game so far. Vinemont's drive started at its own 35-yard line and it started with a really nice pass of 21 yards from Hill to diminutive wide out Teague Whatley down to Addison's 44-yard line.

Then the Eagle coaching staff turned the ball over to their all-everything back Dallin Dinkle and told him, "Carry us home."

Dinkle responded to the challenge and rumbled for 44 yards on six straight carries. Nice blocking by the Eagle line and some nifty Dinkle footwork allowed Dinkle to take it home from 5 yards out. The Eagle 2-point conversion was no good and Addison led 8-6 with 10:39 to play in the second quarter.

The rest of the first half consisted of the Bulldogs and Eagles defenders punishing the opposing offenses, not allowing either team to get into any type of rhythm and the half ended with Addison maintaining a hard-fought 8-6 lead.

The second half started with Vinemont attempting to catch the Bulldogs napping with an onside kick, but the Bulldogs recovered at their own 47.

Facing a third down and 3 from the Vinemont 34-yard line, Addison's Grant Rice lost the ball and it was recovered by Vinemont's you know who, Mr. Dinkle.

After forcing a Vinemont punt, which Addison's Rice returned 29 yards to the Vinemont 36-yard line, the Dawgs struck quickly. It took Addison four plays to cover that distance with running back Sage Smothers finishing the drive with a 6-yard touchdown run.

Eli Howse kicked the extra point and Addison led 15-6 at the 7:32 mark of the third quarter.

Vinemont attempted to answer but on a third-and-10 play, Hill was intercepted by Xavier Barley.

Addison couldn't do anything with the ball and was forced to punt. Vinemont was then forced to punt from deep inside its own territory and Addison took over again at the Vinemont 40-yard line, looking to put a dagger in the Eagles' heart.

Addison then faced a fourth-and-1 from the Eagle 31-yard line and the Vinemont defense came up huge. Rice attempted to get the yard up the middle, but the entire Eagle defense stood up and held Rice to no gain.

Vinemont had trouble moving the ball all night against the Dawgs defense and was forced to punt after another three-and-out.

Addison finished off the scoring with Crider breaking at least five tackles during his 35-yard touchdown run. The 2-point conversion was no good and at 8:02 of the fourth quarter, Addison led 21-6.

The Eagles then turned the ball over to Mr. Hill's solid arm and he responded by driving the Eagles down to the Bulldog 9-yard line.

Hill completed several nice passes to Dinkle, Gabe Frederick and Whatley but on a fourth-and-goal from the 9-yard line, Hill was intercepted by Cannon Hiller in the end zone and Addison took over and ran the clock out after that.

This ended the game with Addison earning a hard fought 21-6 win over a very game Vinemont Eagle football team.

Both teams played excellent defense and really made the opposing offenses fight for every yard.

The unofficial team stats for the game are as follows: Addison rushed the ball 48 times for 289 yards and completed three passes for 36 yards. Addison's total was 62 plays for 325 total yards. Addison had five penalties and two turnovers.

Vinemont rushed the ball 31 times for 102 yards and completed eight passes for 101 yards. Vinemont's total was 46 plays for 203 total yards. Vinemont had six penalties and three turnovers.

All in all, the fans were treated to an old-fashioned ballgame with two teams playing solid defense and the offenses were rush-oriented.

Addison 4-2 (1-1 region) hosts Colbert County 5-1 (3-0 region) next Friday while Vinemont 2-3 (1-1 region) travels to a very tough Fultondale 3-1 (3-0 region) team. Both games are region showdowns.

Poet's Corner

Stopping Time

By: Ann Coberley
Texas

In the warmth of September
it seems that summer might linger,

luxurious days
giving way to cool evenings,

the frost still distant,
only a whisper towards midnight.

I revel in the season,
knowing well
I can't avoid the winter,

any more than leaves
whose edges curl and stiffen, gold and russet as they fall.

But if I could I'd hide here, just out of sight from winter,

stopping time
at the back of September.

Eagles fall short in come from behind effort against Appalachian

Nick Griffin

BREMEN, Ala. – Friday night was homecoming for the Cold Springs but despite a relentless effort in the second half, the Eagles couldn't overcome an early Appalachian lead and fell 37-28 at home.

Turnovers and penalties plagued Cold Springs in the first half. The Eagles turned the ball over on downs to end their first possession and after forcing a punt from Appalachian, the Eagles muffed the punt to give it right back. Appalachian took advantage of the turnover, running one in from 7 yards out a few plays later to take an early 7-0 lead.

Cold Springs's offense moved the ball effectively throughout the night and had the ball deep in Appalachian territory before an interception ended another Eagles drive early.

A 55-yard touchdown pass and 2-point conversion on the ensuing possession made it a 15-0 game midway through the second quarter but once they got the ball back, the Eagles began driving again.

Unfortunately for the home crowd, a fumble at the 15-yard line resulted in the third Cold Springs turnover of the half and allowed Appalachian to take a 15-0 advantage into the halftime break.

Appalachian extended its lead on the opening possession of the third quarter with a 24-yard touchdown run that put the Eagles down 23-0 early in the second half.

Things started to click for Cold Springs after that. Appalachian recovered an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff but just a few plays later, Roberto Ayala intercepted a pass to get the ball back to the Eagles offense and spark the Cold Springs sideline.

Ayden Alexander took it from there, breaking free for a 33-yard touchdown run that trimmed the lead to 23-6 midway through the third.

The Eagles recovered an onside kick of their own on the ensuing kickoff and on his very next carry, Alexander went 26 yards for another score and cut the Appalachian lead to 23-14. Cold Springs converted yet another onside kick after the touchdown to regain possession and drove the ball down to the goal line where Ayala punched one in from 5 yards out to make it a 23-20 with less than four minutes to play in the third quarter.

Appalachian took possession and used the remainder of the third quarter to drive down and get on the scoreboard once again, this time with an 11-yard touchdown with just one second remaining in the third to make it 30-20 headed into the final frame.

A turnover on downs gave the ball back to Appalachian early in the fourth but the Eagles forced a punt of their own to get the ball back.

Cold Springs hit a pair of big pass plays on its next possession, including a 27-yard touchdown pass from Brodi Williams to Jordan Lacey and the ensuing 2-point conversion cut the lead to 30-28 midway through the fourth quarter. Appalachian fumbled on its ensuing possession and gave the Eagles an opportunity to take a late lead but an interception on a double pass in Appalachian territory ended the drive for Cold Springs and on the very next play, a 79-yard touchdown run put the game away for Appalachian.

Alexander finished with 235 yards and two touchdowns on 34 carries in the loss and also caught three passes for 23 yards. The Eagles finished the game with four turnovers in the red zone.

Cold Springs moves to 3-3 on the year and will have next week off before getting back into region play at Winston County Oct. 11.

Hanceville rolls past Curry 50-22 on the road

JASPER, Ala. – After two straight losses, the Hanceville Bulldogs looked to avoid three in a row Friday night as they traveled to Jasper to take on Curry. It was all Hanceville as the Bulldogs quickly rebounded to easily defeat Curry, 50-22.

The opening possession for the Bulldogs ended badly as Zack Campbell threw an interception on just the third play of the series and the Yellow Jackets quickly got on the scoreboard with a 43-yard touchdown run that made it 8-0 with 9:09 left to play in the opening period.

Campbell quickly shook off the early interception and found the end zone on the very first play of the next series for Hanceville as he found a hole and wasn't going to be denied on his 54-yard touchdown run that tied the game up at 8 just 15 seconds later.

The Bulldogs then quickly took over after that as Garrett Riggs picked off an errant Curry pass and their running game dominated the next series as Campbell found the end zone once again, this time on a 14-yard run, to give Hanceville a 16-8 lead.

After forcing a Yellow Jackets punt, Campbell found Brodie Malcom for a 57-yard score as Malcom made an unbelievable catch over a defender and took it to the house to increase the lead to 22-8.

Hanceville added yet another score on its next series as Bo Joles found Malcom for a 30-yard touchdown pass to make it 30-8.

Then a big completion from Campbell to Logan Guthery for 18 yards later led to Campbell finding Trevor Shadden for a 24-yard score and the Bulldogs went into the locker room with a commanding 38-8 advantage.

Hanceville's defense continued to lock down on Curry's offense, forcing a fumble on its opening possession of the second half.

Kendrick Johnson fell on the loose ball and the running game was key in helping the Bulldogs find the end zone once more as Guthery scored on a five-yard run to make it 44-8.

The Bulldogs added their final score of the night on a 28-yard pass play from Joles to Malcom.

Curry added two late scores in the final period as the Bulldogs put in some younger players, but the deficit proved to be too much for the Yellow Jackets as the Bulldogs snapped their two-game losing streak in dominating fashion, taking the game 50-22.

Campbell finished 6-for-8 from 120 yards and a pair of scores, plus 62 yards on the ground and two touchdowns. Joles went 3-for-4 for 53 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Malcom finished with four receptions for 129 yards and three touchdowns. The Bulldogs only punted twice and their defense forced three turnovers as they kept Curry's offense out of sync for most of the game.

Hanceville moves to 3-3 with the win and will be back in region play next week when it hosts Midfield.
