VFW serves up lunch every Tuesday

CULLMAN, Ala. – Every Tuesday morning, you will find the VFW Auxiliary hard at work preparing a delicious lunch not only for veterans who belong to the VFW, but also for homebound veterans and the community. The outreach program is a labor of love for the brave men and women who have served this great nation.

This Tuesday, a group of approximately 20 Cullman area veterans enjoyed creamy baked chicken, baked beans, mashed potatoes and garlic bread.

VFW Auxiliary President Dee Harris said, "We put the menu up on our Facebook page every Monday. Chicken and dressing is probably the most popular."

The meals are served at the Cullman VFW and delivered to those veterans who are homebound as well as their spouses and caregivers. Often, area businesses will order to-go lunches. The Tuesday lunches are the main fundraiser for the Auxiliary.

"We periodically have yard sales, but you can't have a yard sale every week," Harris explained. "Everyone here is a volunteer. Nobody here gets paid. I don't, my husband doesn't. We are not veteran-funded. It is all generosity of the people in this city and county."

The hot homemade meals are only $5, and for groups or businesses who wish to pick up lunch or join the veterans, they are welcome to do so. Harris asks that people simply call or comment on Facebook ahead of time, so the Auxiliary know how many meals are needed.

Thurman Ryan, a World War II veteran, is a regular for Tuesday lunch and said he looks forward to seeing his friends each week.

"It's a great outreach and we welcome other veterans and guests," said Cullman VFW Post 2214 Commander Will Harris. "It's a great opportunity for them to swap stories and enjoy the camaraderie."

The lunches are served every Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. at the VFW, located at 112 Veterans Dr. SW in Cullman.

Roads, flour and wildcat whiskey

Thursday evening Cullman Oktoberfest Candlelight Walking Tour to look at Cullman life in the 1920s

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Folks will have an opportunity for a little education on local history and a fair bit of fun tonight by taking part in the candlelight walking tour, a 10-year-old Cullman Oktoberfest tradition, led by the Cullman County Museum's Julie Burks and former Burgermeister Michael Sullins.

Sullins described the event as an "informal walking tour" looking at the period from 1920-29. Participants will receive a booklet with photos and maps from the 1920s. Costumed actors will represent members of two well-known Cullman families, and they will talk about the families' roles in the community, and in a German biergarten-turned underground liquor store during the era of prohibition. If you come, you will find out how a handful of flour might have helped you get a bottle of "wildcat whiskey" right down on First Avenue!

Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs will kick off the event at the Depot with a presentation about Cullman's longest-serving mayor, Maurice Lindon Robertson, who served from 1910 to 1932. Robertson's concern with the condition of area roads is credited as a major reason why the area has so many paved roads, and he capitalized on Cullman's location at the junction of U.S. Highways 278 and » PAGE 8

PUBLIC NATURAL GAS WEEK
OCTOBER 6-12, 2019

Cullman-Jefferson Counties Gas District Celebrates National Public Natural Gas Week October 6-12, 2019

Cullman-Jefferson Counties Gas District will observe the national Public Natural Gas Week from October 6 to 12. This annual nationwide event is intended to build public awareness about the value of having a community-owned natural gas utility. There are numerous environmental and cost benefits of using clean, reliable and affordable natural gas in addition to the cost benefits of natural gas appliances.

There are approximately 1,000 public natural gas systems serving more than 5 million customers. These public natural gas utilities are not-for-profit retail distribution entities that are owned by and accountable to the citizens they serve. They include municipal gas distribution systems, public utility districts, county districts, and other public agencies that have natural gas distribution facilities.

Your public natural gas utility is good for the community for many reasons including:

- Local Control: Having a public natural gas system gives a community local control over how gas is provided to homes and businesses. Decisions are made through citizen participation instead of being made in a distant city by people who do not understand local issues and who are primarily focused on profits instead of service.
- Competitive Costs: In order to offer fair and competitive rates, public natural gas systems operate as a not-for-profit entity. Public natural gas systems do not face pressure to pay dividends to stockholders.
- Economic Benefits: As a public natural gas system, we play a valuable role in helping communities broaden its tax base, and in turn improve the local economy and increase jobs. Public natural gas systems ensure that local dollars stay at home.
- Customer Service: As a not-for-profit entity, we focus on service, rather than profits. Public natural gas systems are an integral part of a community. We maintain a close relationship with our customers, and as a result, we are successful in meeting our customers' needs.

Thank you for supporting Cullman-Jefferson Counties Gas District. We look forward to continuing to bring safe, reliable natural gas into your homes and businesses. We also hope you join us in supporting natural gas as a premier energy source for our country. As the cleanest burning fossil fuel, natural gas can help us achieve energy security and build a more competitive economy.

If you would like to learn more about the benefits of natural gas and how your public natural gas system works, please contact us at (256)737-1600 or outside Cullman County call (800)321-6572.

Higher intake of omega-3 fatty acids was associated with better sleep quality and a decrease in depressive symptoms in lupus patients, among other patient-reported outcomes, according to new research findings presented at the ACR/ARHP Annual Meeting. Lupus is a chronic (long-term) inflammatory autoimmune disease in which an unknown trigger causes the body's immune system to attack its own healthy tissues. The most common type of lupus is systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE), a complex, multiple-symptom disease that can cause inflammation, pain and damage to various parts of the body. While anyone can develop lupus, it occurs 9-10 times more often in women than in men and is 2-3 times more common among women of color.

In just four months, high doses of vitamin D reduce arterial stiffness in young, overweight/obese, vitamin-deficient, but otherwise still healthy African-Americans, researchers write in the journal PLOS ONE. Rigid artery walls are an independent predictor of cardiovascular-related disease and death. Vitamin D deficiency appears to be a contributor.

Vitamin C may reduce the harm done to lungs infants born to mothers who smoke during their pregnancy, according to a randomized, controlled trial published online in the American Thoracic Society's American Journal of Respiratory and Critical Care Medicine. At three months of age, the infants whose mothers took 500 mg of vitamin C in addition to their prenatal vitamin had significantly better forced expiratory flows (FEFs). FEFs measure how fast air can be exhaled from the lung and are an important measure of lung function because they can detect airway obstruction.

Students enjoy German history tours during Oktoberfest week

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Museum was busy Monday and Tuesday as the city prepared for the start of Oktoberfest Wednesday. As Cullman begins the celebration of its German heritage, Museum Director Drew Green welcomed area school groups who learned about Cullman's German history while on walking tours throughout the Warehouse District and Depot Park.

Students from Cullman Middle School and Sacred Heart were guided by exceptional story tellers who told students of the arrival of John Cullmann and the early days of the founder and his followers. Ben South, Michael Sullins, Julie Burks and Lesley Bearden Hyde were guides for this year's history walks.

The different groups listened to Wolfgang and Nora Moritz, who provided fun German music during the tours. Despite the heat, the students still managed a celebratory "chicken dance."

The kids learned about the Festhalle, Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Cullman Train Depot and the many businesses, factories, parks, influential families and grand homes that once made up the landscape in early Cullman.

The students were very attentive, with one saying, "I thought I knew about Cullman, but I learned a lot."

Student tours continue all week.

Vinemont (from Front)

VINEMONT, Ala. – The past two weeks have been a lot of fun for the Lady Eagles. Vinemont carried a 10-match winning streak into Tuesday's area showdown with East Lawrence and extended that streak to 11 after just three sets. The Lady Eagles dominated the first set 25-13, edged East Lawrence in the second set 25-22 and pulled away to take the third set 25-17.

Vinemont 3 – East Lawrence 0 (25-13, 25-22, 25-17)

Vinemont jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the opening set, but East Lawrence managed to trim that to 6-5 as the set went on. A 7-1 scoring run gave the Lady Eagles a 13-6 advantage midway through the set and pulled away to win 25-13 and take a 1-0 lead in the match.

East Lawrence fell behind 7-2 early in the second set but rallied to cut the Vinemont lead to 11-8. The Lady Eagles responded and built a 16-8 advantage before East Lawrence came back to make it a 21-19 game late in the second set. Vinemont managed to close the set strong, winning it 25-22 and taking a 2-0 lead in the match.

In the final set of the match, East Lawrence and Vinemont were knotted at 6 early but the Lady Eagles were able to pull ahead 8-6.

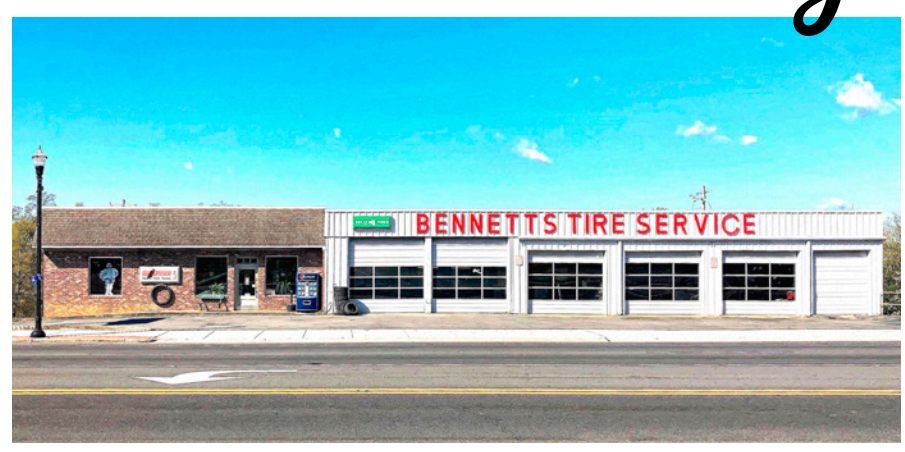

Vinemont held a 14-10 lead midway through the set and held onto an 18-14 advantage as the match progressed.

The Lady Eagles were up 22-14 at one point and fended off an East Lawrence run to win it 25-17 and collect a big area win.

Gracie Kennedy finished the match with eight digs and an ace, Jordan Chambless posted 10 assists, four aces and three digs, Abby Young added three kills and a dig, Mikayla Golden finished with five kills, a dig and two aces, Olivia Johnson had five kills and five digs, Lexi Holmes added three kills, Hailee Moore recorded six digs and Sadie Stanley posted seven digs a kill and an ace in the win.

The win over East Lawrence moves Vinemont to 24-8 on the year with the Falkville Tournament coming up Saturday.

Ivey visits Winston County to recognize its Alabama Bicentennial Schools

Maggie Darnell

DOUBLE SPRINGS, Ala. – Alabama Gov. Kay Ivey on Wednesday visited Double Springs to recognize Winston County's Bicentennial Schools: Haleyville City Schools, Winston County High School and Meek High School. Ivey announced the 200 Alabama Bicentennial Schools in August 2018, with each school receiving a $2,000 grant to support a year-long project designed to strengthen connections between campuses and their communities.

"Good morning everyone, what an exciting day it is to be in Winston County to celebrate Alabama's Bicentennial," Ivey exclaimed. "It's an honor to be with you today with such a distinguished group of individuals. On Dec. 14, Alabama will be celebrating our 200th birthday. You know, as I tour the state, I realize that it is a privilege I have to serve as governor and one of the best parts of serving as governor is getting to meet the people of Alabama, people just like you are all over our great state."

Continued Ivey, "A year ago, I challenged the students to come up with some projects to prove their community and experience and discover the satisfaction that comes from working with fellow Alabamians to make our state an even better place to live. I want to thank Meek High School, Double Springs Elementary, Winston County High School, Addison schools, Lynn schools and Haleyville High School for taking this challenge to heart. Your projects truly embodied what this bicentennial year is all about."

Ivey gave the schools in attendance copies of the special Alabama Bicentennial book "Alabama: My Home Sweet Home," and students received Bicentennial coins. In return, several Winston County officials gave Ivey mementos of her time in the county. Double Springs Mayor Elmo Robinson gave Ivey a key to the town of Double Springs, while Rep. Tim Wadsworth, R-Arley also gave her a key to the town of Arley. Representing the Winston County Arts Council, Chairman J.D. Snoddy and his wife, Theresa gave Ivey flowers in a vase that was made in the pottery shop at Meek High School.

MAGGIE DARNELL/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Gov. Kay Ivey recognized Winston County's Alabama Bicentennial's Schools Wednesday morning.

To conclude the program, the crowd sang "Happy Birthday" to Alabama, with a group of students from Winston County Schools performing.

4th-ranked Raiders preparing to face 8th-ranked Northside; Addison, Hanceville, Fairview, West Point hosting regional matchups

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

With the playoff chase in full swing, several local squads are preparing to host regional matchups and all of them hold postseason implications. This week's slate also features a pair of ranked teams clashing in Good Hope as the fourth-ranked Raiders prepare to host no. 8 Northside Friday night. Elsewhere in the area, Hanceville will face one of the top teams in its region when Midfield comes to town, Fairview will be looking for some revenge against a North Jackson team that routed them a season ago, West Point will host the top ranked Jasper Vikings Friday night and the Addison Bulldogs will play Colbert County in a game that could decide that region when it's all said and done.

(4-2) Addison (2A Region 7) vs. (5-1) Colbert County (2A Region 7)
A heartbreaking loss at Red Bay earlier in the season currently has Addison sitting at 1-1 in region 7 but the Bulldogs could make up a lot of ground this week with a win over Colbert County. The Indians hold a 3-0 record and sits atop the region standings. The Bulldogs are coming off back to back wins over Sheffield and Vinemont but fell to Colbert County in last year's meeting 35-8.

Addison's defense has been stout every week up to this point. The most they've allowed was 28 points at Piedmont in week two in a game where the Bulldogs turned it over seven times. Addison is allowing its opponents to score just under 12 points per game, but Colbert County is coming to town with a high-powered offense. The Indians are putting up over 37 points per game while allowing just 11 points per game defensively so the Bulldogs will have their hands full Friday night.

(2-3) West Point (5A Region 7) vs. (5-0) Jasper (5A Region 7)
After taking a tough region loss at Russellville two weeks ago, the Warriors got the next week off to prepare for this week's opponent, Jasper. The Vikings are undefeated and currently ranked no. 1 in 5A. Jasper defeated the second ranked team in 5A last week when they edged Central Clay County 35-34 in double overtime.

With a 1-2 record in region 7, the Warriors need to make up some ground in the region as soon as possible and nothing would help that cause more than a win over the Vikings. However, it'll take one of West Point's strongest performances of the season. Jasper is outscoring its opponents 222-53 this year and holding them just over to 10 points per game.

The Warriors have had some struggles on the defensive end this season but have also been explosive in the passing game. With the Vikings recovering from a long, close, dramatic game, a great effort on defense and some big plays on the offensive side could give West Point a fighting chance at home this week.

(3-2) Fairview (4A Region 7) vs. (1-4) North Jackson (4A Region 7)
The Aggies no doubt remember last year's trip to North Jackson. The Chiefs routed Fairview 78-12 on their way to an undefeated regular season, but North Jackson has taken a step back this fall and will have to travel to face the Aggies again this week.

Fairview dropped a tough game on the road at Priceville two weeks ago but with a week of rest under their belt, the Aggies will be ready to see North Jackson at Dafford Smith Stadium Friday night.

Fairview's offense is currently scoring just over 31 points per game and will have another chance to move the ball this week against a North Jackson team that allows just under 34 points per game.

However, even in their losses the Chiefs have been able to get on the scoreboard this season so it will take a complete effort on both sides of the ball from the Aggies this week if they want to avenge last year's loss in Stevenson and move to 3-1 in the region.

(3-3) Hanceville (3A Region 5) vs. (3-1) Midfield (3A Region 5)
The Bulldogs are riding high after crushing Curry on the road 50-22 but will have to refocus this week as they prepare to host Midfield for a regional contest. With a 1-2 record in region 5, Hanceville still has a lot to play for at this point and a win over the Patriots would create some serious momentum as the regular season winds down.

The Bulldogs are both scoring and allowing right around 25 points per game, a big improvement from 2018 but they'll have to be even better this week against Midfield.

The Patriots are putting up over 35 points per game this season and currently holds a 2-0 record in region 5. Hanceville lost last year's meeting on the road 70-12 so this Friday will be another great opportunity for the Bulldogs to get some revenge and make waves in the region.

(5-0) Good Hope (4A Region 5) vs. (5-1) Northside (4A Region 5)
Perhaps the biggest clash of the week will be at James W. Shabel Stadium in Good Hope as the fourth-ranked Raiders prepare to host eighth-ranked Northside. Good Hope had last week off to rest up for Friday's matchup and the Rams are coming off a 50-24 win at West Blocton. Northside won last year's meeting 42-27, handing the Raiders their only loss of the regular season.

Good Hope is scoring over 34 points per game and holding opponents to just 20 points per game through its first five games but will face its biggest challenge of the season so far this week. Northside is putting up nearly 40 points per game offensively so the Raiders will have to play well on both sides of the ball to keep pace with the Rams Friday night and take control of the region.

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman Middle School's band received a special donation Wednesday morning and it was the latest of several donations made over the years by a pair of local supporters. Since 2014, Ray and Benton Buchmann have been supporters of the Cullman Middle School band and donated new instruments. CMS Band Director Linda Bean said in a statement regarding the Buchmanns and the donation,

"Even after some students try out for the band and show musical talent, the middle school doesn't have instruments since it is up to the parents to buy or lease them for the students. With the cooperation of Michael Wagner or MRW Artisan Instruments of Panama City Beach, Florida, who is a factory distributer of Selmer-Basson band instruments, the Buchmanns have helped a number of students' dream come true."

The Buchmanns have supported the band for longer than assistant director Doug Teuscher has been helping and he was happy to get the chance to meet them Wednesday morning and thank them personally for their contributions.

"Every school year they try to provide something, and it helps a lot. Last year I think was a clarinet and they've provided a saxophone in the past; a clarinet and I think a trombone as well," Teuscher said. "I've only been here a few years so that's just from my memory. I actually haven't been able to meet them until now because they usually do it in the summer."

This year, the CMS band received a factory new Basson trumpet and Assistant Band Director Doug Teuscher is excited to be able to add some more equipment to the band's collection.

"It really helps us to build a base of instruments in our band room that the school can own, and it helps us provide for students that have hardships and can't afford something immediately," Teuscher said. "We can get them learning and even if their instrument is damaged for whatever reason, we can let them use one of these horns and they won't miss any rehearsal. So, to have stuff like this available really helps a lot."

Tour (from Front)

31 and Alabama Highway 69, which were also paved during his term, to connect the community to numerous other Alabama cities.

The history presented during the tour will be based on family histories and 1920s newspaper articles drawn mainly from The Cullman Tribune with additional material from The Tribune's big era rival, The Cullman Democrat.

According to Sullins, the tour will take place completely within the city's entertainment district, so "adult beverages" will be welcome.

The tour is generally family-friendly, but he advised that this particular tour may get into the "PG-13" range, with discussions about prostitution and Cullman's underground alcohol industry during the Prohibition era.

And if you come, look for another Oktoberfest tradition: Sullins' mother Joyce Hardeman has walked at the head of every evening walking tour with her German mother's kerosene lantern.
