'I HAVE ENJOYED MY TIME HERE'

Rick Fulmer retires after almost 21 years of service in Cullman Planning and Zoning

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – On Wednesday, the City of Cullman said an official farewell to Rick Fulmer, its Building, Planning and Zoning director of the last 17 years. Friends and coworkers past and present gathered at city hall for a reception food, fellowship, a lot of conversation and the presentation of Fulmer's retirement certificate by Mayor Woody Jacobs.

Afterward, Jacobs said of Fulmer, "Rick's been here since 1999, so he's got a good long history with Cullman. He's been here through some historic things that's happened: the tornado, Cullman passing legalized (alcohol) sales. The thing I've been most proud about him here in the end: the subdivision rules have not been worked on for over 40 years; zoning has not been worked on for a long time, either.

"We made a commitment and we hired a firm to help us work with it. But Rick has been instrumental in helping redo the subdivision and the zoning to where it's simplified, it's easier to read and look things up, trying to make it user-friendly. He stayed with us an extra month just to get that complete.

"Rick, he's just a good guy. You know, he's been involved: he helped make the farmers' market happen, he helped put the timber frame school together that the community was able to participate in that.

"And Rick, in economic development projects, he's worked behind the scenes with Dale Greer and the economic development team- very quietly, but helped with all kinds of things like that."

Former Mayor Donald Green, under whom Fulmer became Planning and Zoning director, said of him, "He was an outstanding worker. He was somebody you could rely on, that if you asked him to do something, it got done. I told him it was one of the best things I did while I was Mayor. He was a good employee, and we were good friends and still are." After the reception, The Tribune sat down with Fulmer for a little Q & A.

Almost 300 tickets have already been sold for this first of its kind event in Cullman.

UWCC Public Relations Manager Michele Dingler said, "We are so excited. We cannot believe the numbers. It has really taken off, so we are very excited."

The few tickets still remaining can be purchased at the UWCC office at 304 First Ave. NE.

Designer Handbag Bingo is Tuesday, Nov. 5 from 5-9 p.m.

Doors will open at 5, with bingo staring at 6 at Loft 212, located at 212 Fourth St. SE in Cullman.

Tickets are $25 and include light appetizers,15 bingo cards (one for each game) and dauber.

"It's a great way to have fun and give back."

During the breaks between bingo games, raffle tickets will be drawn for items donated by area businesses.

Dingler said, "It's going to be a wonderful time, and it's all going to a really great cause."

Dogs (from Front)

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – On Tuesday, Good Hope Primary School (GHP) welcomed Alliance of Therapy Dogs (ATD) trainer Paula Kretzschmar and handler Dena York, along with the school's two newest therapists: Standard Poodle Luke and English Setter Adi (short for "Adrenaline," a lively one!). The dogs and their handlers visited kids in one classroom before being introduced to the entire student body at an afternoon assembly. The visit officially kicked off a partnership between ATD and GHP in a pilot program that could lead to the use of therapy dogs in other area schools.

Before the schoolwide gathering, GHP Principal Tonya Cupp told The Tribune, "We have consulted with the Alliance of Therapy Dogs, and we are excited to bring them in for an assembly to teach our students about safety with dogs and how to approach dogs, and how to pet the dogs correctly.

"We're going to have the volunteers to come in as often as possible, and they're going to meet with some of our students individually, for rewards and just for some therapy. They're going to go into classrooms and read with the whole group of students. So, we're so excited to have them, and we're looking forward to what's going to happen and how it's going to impact our students. We've sent home permission slips, and we are just excited to see the result and the impact it's going to have with our students."

All students who will interact with the dogs must bring a signed permission slip from home first, in accordance with system policy.

Why therapy dogs?

A paper published at Georgia Southern University (https://files.eric.ed.gov/fulltext/EJ1173578.pdf), based on data from 2001-2017 and released in 2017, stated:

"In our analysis, three categories of therapeutic benefit emerged: a) increased reading and language skills, b) social, emotional, and humane gains, and c) improved gross motor skills. Numerous studies have found that literacy skills can be improved from reading to dogs and that children gain confidence in reading and report an increased love of reading . . . Therapy dogs can also provide stability and comfort to children who are living in poverty or abusive homes. Caring for a classroom animal teaches responsibility, builds confidence, and gives children a sense of pride and accomplishment."

The various other studies reviewed by the authors noted benefits like:

- "Students' attitudes toward school improved."
- "Students found companionship with the dog."
- "Students used the dog to remain in control of their emotions and behaviors in order to prevent them from entering emotional crisis."
- "Students used the dog as a de-escalation tool to calm their minds and bodies when they did enter into emotional crisis."
- "Students' learning was extended by fostering growth in respect, responsibility, and empathy."
- "When the therapy dog is present, 'the whole feeling of the classroom is calmer.'"
- "Animals in counseling sessions and the classroom facilitate an atmosphere of trust, nurturance, and relationship building."

In its conclusion, the study's authors added, "There is strong support for increased confidence, literacy skills and actual reading scores when children read to dogs. Additionally, much evidence supports the emotional and social benefits of children interacting with a dog in the classroom."

ATD certifies dogs and handlers through a combination of testing and observation of dog/handler teams to determine the personality of the dog, relationship of dog and handler and how well the dog performs in actual work in various types of facilities. According to its website, the all-volunteer organization provides free therapy dog services to "including but not limited to airports, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, rehab facilities, mental health institutions, schools, hospitals, cancer centers, hospice facilities, college campuses and can also provide therapy in patients' homes." In addition to its certification, ATD requires dogs be up to date on vaccines and medical exams. Once a dog/handler team meets the organization's standards, it can be insured for issues that might arise during service.

The ATD team working with GHP is the same group of volunteers who recently began providing services to the Cullman County Courthouse (See www.cullmantribune.com/2019/10/16/cullman-courts-going-to-the-dogs-again/).

The team includes:

- Paula Kretzschmar with Luke and Louie
- Dena York with Adi and Rip
- Deb Schmidt with Millie
- Jennifer Cruise with Bailey
- Katie Cruise with Mississippi

Cullman County School Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette attended the assembly and met the team Tuesday at GHP. He told The Tribune, "We're extremely excited about piloting this program at Good Hope Primary, and we're looking forward to the day that we can expand this program and have enough dogs where we can expand it to all of our schools, especially our elementary schools. We've got a lot of needs that many of us don't even understand yet, but having a therapy dog for kids to relate to and so forth, I think will be beneficial to us."

Patients with type-2 diabetes, taking metformin, should have their vitamin B12 levels assessed more regularly to avoid irreversible nerve damage, according to a new study presented at the Society for Endocrinology annual conference in Glasgow. The study findings suggest that earlier detection of vitamin B12 deficiency through routine screening of all metformin-treated, type-2 diabetes patients should reduce their risk of developing irreversible, painful and potentially disabling nerve damage. Nerve damage in the periphery (e.g. face, limbs, organs) is a common complication of diabetes, with symptoms that range from numbness to pain and can lead to debilitating loss of balance and co-ordination. Metformin is the recommended and most effective first-line drug for type-2 diabetes but its use has also been linked to vitamin B12 deficiency, which increases the risk of peripheral nerve damage. Despite the irreversibility of peripheral nerve damage, no official guidelines exist on screening vitamin B12 levels in patients treated with metformin.

Cyclones win Fireplug, Pee-Wee titles; Warriors capture Wee-Wee championship

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – This year's Cullman County Youth Football season officially came to an end Tuesday night with three championship matchups. The Cullman Cyclones took this year's Fireplug title with a 14-0 win over Holly Pond, the West Point Warriors finished as Wee-Wee champions after defeating the Good Hope Raiders 14-8 and the Cyclones clinched this year's Pee-Wee title as well by knocking off the Raiders 52-0 in Tuesday's nightcap.

Fireplug: Cullman Cyclones 14 – Holly Pond Broncos 0

The Fireplug game got things started Tuesday and the Cyclones jumped out to an early lead. After a scoreless first quarter, Isaac Phillips scored from a yard out to make it an 8-0 game early in the second quarter and Cullman went into the half with an 8-0 advantage. Most of the third quarter was scoreless as well until Cullman's Briar Lackey ran in one from 7 yards out to put the Cyclones on top 14-0 with less than a minute to play in the third.

The Broncos were kept out of the end zone in the fourth quarter and Cullman held on to win Tuesday's first championship game 14-0 over Holly Pond.

Wee-Wee: West Point Warriors 14 – Good Hope Raiders 8

This was the closest of Tuesday night's title matches that very nearly went into overtime but in the end, it was the West Point Warriors that escaped with the win. After a scoreless opening quarter, Carter McAfee put West Point on the board early in the second with a 42-yard touchdown burst that made it an 8-0 game.

The Warriors took an 8-0 lead into the halftime break, but Good Hope didn't go away. Cohen Moore punched one in from a yard out to tie the game midway through the third quarter and the score stayed knotted at 8 with just two minutes remaining.

That's when McAfee went 92 yards for his second score of the night and put West Point on top 14-8 with 1:40 to play. The Raiders got the ball deep into Warriors territory after a big run from Moore but couldn't find the end zone before time expired and West Point held on to win this year's Wee-Wee championship 14-8.

Pee-Wee: Cullman Cyclones 52 – Good Hope Raiders 0

The Cullman Cyclones left no doubt in this one. Asher Drake went 45 yards on the ground to put the Cyclones up 8-0 late in the first quarter and ran in his second score of the night, this time from 41 yards out, to make it 16-0 by the start of the second.

Weston Keel burst through for a 55-yard touchdown to put Cullman up 22-0 midway through the second quarter and the Cyclones took a three-touchdown lead into the halftime break.

Cullman continued to add to its lead in the second half. Landon Pitts connected with Drake on a screen pass early in the third quarter and 41 yards later, the Cyclones had a 30-0 lead. On Cullman's next possession, Keel went 45 yards to the house for his second touchdown of the night to make it 38-0 and Drake found the end zone once more, this time with a 37-yard pick-six, to stretch the lead to 46-0 going into the final frame.

Jacob Mahler scored the final points of the night when he drove the pile across the goal line from 2 yards out midway through the fourth quarter to bring the final score to 52-0 and secure this year's Pee-Wee crown for the Cyclones.

CULLMAN COUNTY YOUTH FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS

3rd place games decided Monday night

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – After the wet weather spoiled the plans to wrap up the Cullman County Youth Football Playoffs on Saturday, six squads hit the field Monday night to settle this year's third-place games. The Good Hope Raiders defeated the Hanceville Bulldogs 16-0 in the Fireplug matchup, Cold Springs topped Fairview 22-6 in the Wee-Wee game and the West Point Warriors held off Fairview 20-14 to win the Pee-Wee division's third-place game.

Fireplug: Good Hope Raiders 16 – Hanceville Bulldogs 0

After a quick and scoreless opening quarter, the Raiders took an 8-0 lead midway through the second quarter when Aiden Fite punched one in from a yard out. Bryce Armstrong added to the Good Hope lead with a 10-yard rushing touchdown that came with just two seconds remaining in the half and made it a 16-0 game at the break. Hanceville was held scoreless in the second half as well and the Raiders went on to win it 16-0 and take third place in the Fireplug division.

Wee-Wee: Cold Springs Eagles 22 – Fairview Aggies 6

Cold Springs took an early 8-0 lead with just under six minutes remaining in the first quarter when Cooper Johnson ran one in from a yard out. Johnson scored his second touchdown of the night late in the second quarter, this time from 5 yards out, and the Eagles took a 14-0 lead into the half.

Fairview's Gavin Peterson made it a one possession game when he took the first play of the third quarter 65 yards to the house and cut the lead to 14-6. Cold Springs maintained an 8-point lead going into the fourth quarter but put the game out of reach when Eli Voce scored on a 13-yard run to make it a 22-6 game with 3:31 to play. The Eagles kept the Aggies out of the end zone the rest of the way and held on to take third place with the 22-6 win.

Pee-Wee: West Point Warriors 20 – Fairview Aggies 14

The Warriors jumped out to a big lead early in Monday's closest matchup.

Jaxon Shelton took a handoff 30 yards for a 6-0 lead midway through the opening quarter and a 13-yard touchdown run from JJ Mink stretched the lead to 14-0 by the start of the second.

Fairview's Kolt Redding scored from a yard out to cut the lead to 14-8 with just under three minutes to play in the half, but Shelton took the very next play 65 yards for a touchdown to put the Warriors back on top 20-8 going into the break.

Both teams were scoreless for most of the second half until Zayden Cruce put the Aggies back on the board with a 1-yard touchdown and trimmed the lead to 20-14.

However, on its ensuing possession, West Point moved the chains on fourth down thanks to a big run from Carter Rutherford that allowed the Warriors to run out the clock and secure third place with a 20-14 win.

Addison (from Front)

nick@cullmantribune.com

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Both the Addison Lady Bulldogs and Fairview Lady Aggies were at the Birmingham Crossplex Wednesday for this year's AHSAA State Volleyball Tournament after securing spots in the North Super Regional last week. Fairview defeated DAR and Wilson to advance as the third seed and Addison swept its way to a North Super Regional title to claim the first seed at the state tournament. (50-18) Fairview got things started at 12:30 with a match against the second seed, Providence Christian and (43-14) Addison hit the floor at 2:00 to face the fourth-seeded Ariton Purple Cats.

Providence Christian 3 – Fairview 0 (11-25, 16-25, 18-25) (Quarterfinals)

The Lady Aggies held a 4-3 advantage early in the opening set, but the Lady Eagles were able to tie things up at 5 before moving ahead 8-6. Providence Christian stretched the lead to 12-6 before going up 20-9 and pulling away to take the first set 25-11.

Fairview took an early lead once again in the second set, but the Lady Eagles were able to respond and tie the set at 6. Providence Christian went on an 8-0 scoring run to take a 14-6 lead. The Lady Aggies were able to cut it down to 18-12 at one point but couldn't keep pace with the Lady Eagles and fell in the second set 25-16.

Fairview fell behind early in the third set, trailing Providence Christian 9-2 at one point but rallied to trim the lead to 9-6 before later tying the set at 14.

The Lady Eagles pulled ahead 18-14 after that and despite cutting the lead to 22-18 late in the set, Providence Christian held on to win it 25-18, eliminating the Lady Aggies and advancing to the semifinal round.

The loss brings the 2019 season to an end for Fairview and the Lady Aggies finished with a stellar, 50-19 record.

Addison 3 – Ariton 0 (25-12, 25-12, 25-12) (Quarterfinals)

The state tournament is hardly unfamiliar territory for the Lady Bulldogs of Addison and they looked at home in their quarterfinal matchup against Ariton.

The opening set was tied at 3 early on but Addison quickly jumped out to a 7-4 lead. The Lady Bulldogs stretched the lead to 13-6 before pulling ahead for a 17-8 advantage and held off Ariton to take the first set 25-12.

Addison quickly built a 7-1 lead in the second set that grew to 13-1 before Ariton could trim the lead to 15-5 midway through the set. The Lady Bulldogs moved in front 20-9 before putting the Lady Purple Cats away in the second set 25-12.

Another fast start for Addison put Ariton down 7-2 early and the Lady Bulldogs piled on to make it 16-7 as the set progressed. Addison moved ahead 20-8 at one point before pulling away to take the third set 25-12 and sweeping Ariton to advance to the semifinals.

Addison 3 – Cedar Bluff 0 (25-10, 25-18, 25-21) (Semifinals)

Addison got back on the floor late Wednesday afternoon after knocking off Ariton in the quarterfinal round and swept through the semifinals against Cedar Bluff.

The Lady Bulldogs got off to a fast start in the first set, taking an early 9-3 lead that they extended to 13-3. Addison built a 22-7 advantage as the set progressed before pulling away to win it 25-10 and taking a 1-0 lead in the match.

It was the Lady Tigers that got off to a fast start in the second set, getting ahead of Addison 4-1 but the Lady Bulldogs were able to quickly trim that lead to 6-5 before pulling ahead to take a 12-9 lead. Addison held a 17-13 lead midway through the set before ending things with an 8-5 scoring run to take the second set.

Cedar Bluff gave the Lady Bulldogs a little trouble in the third set. Despite jumping out to a 7-0 lead that became an 18-10 lead late in the set, the Lady Tigers fought their way back into the match and cut the lead all the way down to 23-21 at one point.

Unfortunately for Tigers fans, Addison was too much to overcome and the Lady Bulldogs held on to win it 25-21 and complete the sweep to advance to the state finals.

The Lady Bulldogs will be gunning for their seventh straight state title when they arrive at Bill Harris Arena tomorrow at 3 p.m. to take on the winner of Sand Rock and G.W. Long.

Volunteers and attendees pose for a group photo at Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism's Therapeutic Recreation Program Halloween party Tuesday evening.

CULLMAN, Ala. – A fantastic night was had at Stone Bridge Farms Tuesday at Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism's Therapeutic Recreation Program Halloween party. Pilot Club of Cullman volunteers served a taco dinner as the attendees decorated pumpkins, played on inflatables and enjoyed other fun activities. Volunteers from area schools also participated.

The hottest spot was the dance floor. When Michael Jackson's "Thriller" began to play, attendees busted out their best dance moves. Parents, kids and volunteers all got into the spirit of Halloween at this fun party.

Everyone took home candy, pumpkins, other goodies and most importantly, great memories.

Pilot Club of Cullman's Peggy Harris shared, "The Therapeutic Program is through park and rec, but the Pilot Club, one of our focuses is on working with special needs. So, whenever Therapeutic Recreation through park and rec puts on something, we show up to help. As a club, we donate to the program to help fund their activities as well as volunteer."

A frighteningly good time: CPD Trunk or Treat draws huge crowd

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

W.C. MANN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Cullman Police Department Chief Kenny Culpepper discusses matters of tactical importance with Assistant Chief Fred Flintstone (aka Craig Montgomery) along Candy Row Tuesday evening.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman Police Department (CPD), with the help of sponsor Merchants Bank, turned its parking lot and front lawn into a creepy (in a fun way!) theme park Tuesday evening for its annual Trunk or Treat party, seeing what might have been the biggest crowd ever. Candy hunters of all ages entered through a brand new scary clown head gateway built by Damon Monk and painted by Lanette Easterwood, then hit the sugar trail around the parking lot before going for a little play time in the yard, all to a soundtrack provided by DJ Jammin' Jeff. Cullman Fire Rescue and the Creeper Bus came for a visit, and CPD Aviation's Jet Ranger helicopter made for great photo ops on the lawn.

After the gates opened at 5 p.m., officers reported to The Tribune that the department had gone overboard with candy purchases to supplement generous donations. Investigator and resident mad scientist Sgt. Adam Clark told The Tribune, "Each year it grows and grows and grows. We have to buy more and more candy; now, we get to buy the pallets!"

An hour later, though, officers were making emergency runs to local convenience and department stores to keep up with the demand of a line of visitors which, at times, threatened to reach from police headquarters to Depot Park.

A face-to-face encounter with the police is something some people would rather avoid. CPD's Trunk or Treat offers the department's officers an opportunity to interact with the community in a low-stress and happy way.

"This is one of our outreaches to the community," said Chief Kenny Culpepper. "You know, we do 'Coffee with a Cop' and we do 'Shop with a Cop.' Now we do Trunk or Treat, and this is one of our favorites. Everybody really gets into it and has a really good time decorating and getting ready for it. It's just been great."

Fulmer (from Front)

What will you remember as the biggest accomplishment of your time as director?
"Getting through the 2011 tornadoes, because that was a nightmare for the whole city. Most destruction, probably, we've ever seen- here's been a number of storms, but I think the most destruction we ever saw here. And that's one where the whole city and county pulled together as a team.

"There's still some recovery going on related to that, believe it or not. It's just that, you know, we lost landmarks, we lost trees- luckily no people. In the entire time I've been here, that's the worst thing I ever saw happen to Cullman, and the best thing I ever saw, because of the way everybody pulled together. It was a team: fire, police, street.

"Everybody was trying to recover, working, helping folks, volunteers showing up from everywhere. It was a good time. We couldn't have recovered the way we did without all the help we got from around the state."

In the aftermath of the storm, the Planning and Zoning Department worked to determine what structures could be repaired or rebuilt and which could not, and worked with other government agencies to determine the best courses of action for affected properties.

What will be your fondest memory of your time at Planning and Zoning?
"Festhalle, without a doubt; being involved with Festhalle and seeing it come to fruition, being involved in the design and building of it, and seeing it used now for all the events, the farmers. I think that was one of the best things I was involved in, and have never been shy about saying that.

"It was criticized a lot. The mayor and the council really stood up in building that, and they were criticized a lot. It was called 'the hay barn' and everything else. It was said that it was built strictly for Oktoberfest, and I think we've proved that wrong. Seeing all the events occurring there- a lot of weddings have occurred- that's probably the project that I've enjoyed being involved with the most."

When we asked Fulmer, as we often do with government officials, what building he would like to see bear a plaque with his name on it, there was no hesitation on the answer that was already obvious.

"Festhalle," said Fulmer with a smile. "It's already there as part of the design team! If you google timber frame structures and all that, you'll find that in Cullman, Alabama. Nationwide, they're going to talk about Festhalle. That's good for Cullman."

Any memories you'd just as soon leave behind?
"You know, there's really not, other than the destruction from the tornadoes is the worst thing. I grew up here, so I miss things that are gone. That's probably the worst part.

"But we've done so many good things. We were involved when alcohol came, and that was a real hot topic with a lot of people, but I think we accomplished what we were after, in that you can drive through Cullman right now and not know that it's wet, but if you want to go to a restaurant and sit down and have a glass of wine or a drink, it's available. I don't see that it has been a huge detriment to us.

"We've been able to do the special district downtown to have people to walk up and down the street with a drink which, you know, I've always said I copied from Huntsville. I took that idea to the council and they did that on an experimental basis for 90 days.

"What really brought that about is when we did Oktoberfest with alcohol, we had to put all that orange fence around it. I don't know if you were here then, but it had to be fenced and they put orange construction fence around it, and I thought it was the absolute ugliest thing we could ever have done, and started looking for an option, and that's when the downtown special events district came about. That one is another one that has worked well. We don't have drunks laying in the streets, and we're still here, and the sun still comes up on Sunday morning."

What would you like for the people who have known and worked with you to tell the next generation of Cullmanites about you?
"That we were good about trying to work with developers and with the residents. We've always been known as a developer-friendly town, if it was a good development.

"There have been developments who have looked at Cullman, that we didn't think were a good idea. We didn't tell them not to come here, but we may not have been as helpful as we could, because we wanted developments to be good for Cullman. And I think we did that.

"I think we've changed the ordinances and made them friendly for the folks in general, and that's been our goal. I think they will continue to do that. I have every confidence in them that they will continue what we started."

Fulmer took time to commend his Deputy Director Brian Lendreth at Planning and Zoning for his dedicated service, and also wanted to mention: "The whole crew, we're more like a family. We're a small department, and we've had a lot of illnesses and other things happen, and we're very close.

"And nobody in that department works for me; they work with me. There's a difference. I've always felt that way, and that's the reason we have the success that we've had."

Thus ends the chapter, but not the book. What's next?
"No specific plans. You know, I'm involved with Traditions Bank, and I'm on the board there. I'm on the board at Camp Meadowbrook, and on the advisory board for Soil and Water Conservation- teach some classes with them. I'm going to continue. I've got a lot to keep me busy!"

Fulmer concluded, "I have enjoyed my time here, the good and the bad- been able to work with a good group of folks, and we've seen a lot of progress that I'm proud of.

"I just hope it continues that way, because we're a growing community, we're a close-knit community, and I think we'll see development continue. That sounds like a political speech, but that's actually the way I feel."

Murder (from Front)

wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Sara Franco Tapia, 32, of Baileyton was booked into the Cullman County Detention Center Monday, 16 days after she allegedly murdered her two young sons, 3-year-old Alvaro Garcia and 9-year-old Taylor Garcia, Oct. 12, 2019. Tapia's charges have been upgraded from murder to capital murder, according to court records.

Tapia is facing two counts of capital murder and one count of capital murder of two or more persons.

Capital offenses in Alabama carry a punishment of either the death penalty or life in prison without the possibility of parole.

She is being held without bond.

Tapia had been in an area hospital recovering from self-inflicted wounds since the day of the murders.

The two young boys were found murdered at the family's home along the 4000 block of County Road 1718 near Baileyton Saturday afternoon, Oct. 12.

A visibly distraught Cullman County Sheriff Matt Gentry addressed the media early that evening.

"You never can prepare yourself in the 20 years I've been in law enforcement for children...for something bad to happen to children. There's a lot of evil in this world, and that's just what we saw today, was evil," said Gentry.

The Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) said in a statement that dispatch received a 911 call at approximately 2:30 p.m. that day.

"We found two small children that were deceased," Gentry said. "Deputies immediately secured the perimeter. We started an active search. We deployed our K-9s here at the property. Within a couple of hundred yards of the residence, we located the suspect, which is the mother of the children. We arrested the mother and she's been flown to a hospital."

Tapia remained in the hospital until Monday, Oct. 28, when she was released and taken to the Cullman County Detention Center.

Cullman County CASA spreads Halloween fun, awareness

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – A frighteningly good time was had at the inaugural Cullman County CASA Trunk or Treat Tuesday evening.

Cullman County CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Program Manager Candace Lingo shared, "This is our first trunk or treat.

"We have some community resources out here; we have DHR, Victim Services and our umbrella organization is Cullman Caring for Kids so they're out here also and we're just helping spread awareness of child abuse and different resources in the community for our children.

"And hopefully we're giving the kids a safe place to have a little bit of fun tonight."

CASA volunteers "are trained volunteers who are appointed by the juvenile court to recommend the best interest of a child/teen who has been abused and neglected.

"Our volunteers act as the voice to children and teens who otherwise would have none."

For organizers of Tuesday night's event, fun was on the agenda, along with education.

"Mainly awareness," said Lingo, when asked what inspired the trunk or treat.

"Obviously we're a child advocate so we're very kid-friendly, but we just wanted to spread awareness of what we are, what we do, how we do it and just have a fun night!"

Lingo felt positive about the evening, saying, "I think it's going very well considering it's our first year! We've had a very steady turnout ever since we started at 4:30.We're always looking for volunteers, whether it's someone to donate, whether it's somebody to volunteer in our organization or to set up some type of fundraiser or event for us to help raise awareness for what we do."
