CULLMAN COUNTY, Ala. – Multiple departments responded to the scene of a fully-involved structure fire in the 9400 block of County Road 813 near the community of Loretto Monday morning.

The fire was reported at approximately 8 a.m.

According to Good Hope Fire Chief David Scott, who was not on the scene, "It's a complete loss. It was a two-story house with a basement. There were no injuries."

Firefighters from Loretto, Good Hope, Trimble, Logan and Bethsadia battled the blaze.

Cullman Newk's Eatery location opens

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman's newest restaurant, Newk's Eatery, officially opened for business Monday. It's open Sunday-Thursday from 10:30 a.m.-9 p.m. and Friday-Saturday from 10:30 a.m.-10 p.m. at 410 Second Ave. NW, known by many locals as "the old Dairy Queen" location on U.S. Highway 31.

The Tribune sat down with franchisee owner Britt Smallwood Monday afternoon to talk about how Newk's came to be in Cullman.

"They contacted me about it," said Smallwood. "I'm also the Zaxby's franchisee here in Cullman and I've talked to Newk's before about possibly doing a Newk's somewhere else, not in Cullman, but then about two years ago, they called me and asked if I would be interested in doing a Newk's in Cullman and I said 'Absolutely!' That's how we got here today."

As to why Smallwood chose the old Dairy Queen property, he said, "We thought with it being right in the middle of the city, it was a really a good opportunity, and that's kind of why we did it here."

Smallwood is excited for the future of the business.

"We're just excited to be here in Cullman! We know a lot of people travel to Birmingham and Huntsville to go to Newk's, and now they don't have to anymore! We're also excited to be the second Newk's ever with a drive-thru and it's something that's going to be unique to Cullman," he smiled.

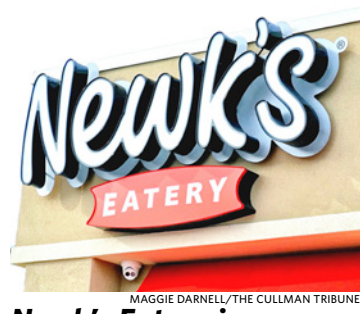

What does Newk's have to offer? What makes it stand out?

Shared Smallwood, "We have sandwiches, salads, soups and pizzas, the combination of all of them gives you some different choices. We also have our catering; it's very in-depth and unique. Something we can do is high-volume catering."

What about a drive-thru?

"We will be the second Newk's ever to have a drive-thru. That'll be different for Newk's. We're not operational on the drive-thru yet, but we're hoping in two to three weeks it'll be a full go on the drive-thru," he said.

"It'll be a challenge because our food is made to order and it takes a bit. It's not going to be like your McDonald's drive-thru, it's going to be slower, people are going to have to be accustomed to that because it is what it is. Now, we are going to strive to be the best!"

MAGGIE DARNELL/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Newk's Cares

Newk's Cares is an initiative that was launched by Lori Newcomb, co-founder of Newk's Cares and wife of Newk's Eatery Co-Founder and CEO Chris Newcomb, in 2014. Lori Newcomb was diagnosed with stage IIIC ovarian cancer in February 2013 and sadly lost her physical battle Feb. 28, 2019.

After Newk's Cares was established, within five years the Newcombs raised $1 million for Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance (OCRA), the largest global organization dedicated to advancing ovarian cancer research while supporting women and their families.

"Newk's is very involved in ovarian cancer awareness," said Smallwood. "They're really pushing it and it's great and cool to be a part of, to be able to help with something like that."

The Newk's family encourages sharing of positive memories and stories of Lori on social media with the hashtag #TealForLori, and it also encourages people to follow @NewksCares on Facebook to stay up-to-date on upcoming initiatives.

Good Hope sweeps varsity, junior varsity titles at inaugural Cullman County Cheer Competition; Fairview wins middle school championship

nick@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – A little history was made at Good Hope High School Saturday morning as middle school, junior varsity and varsity cheer squads from across the county came together for the inaugural Cullman County Cheer Competition. This year's field consisted of middle school teams from Good Hope, Cold Springs and Fairview, a junior varsity unit from Good Hope and varsity squads from Holly Pond, Vinemont, Good Hope, West Point, Cold Springs and Hanceville.

It was a big day for the Raiders as the varsity team took home wins in the traditional and gameday competitions while the junior varsity squad captured crowns in the traditional and gameday divisions as well.

Fairview middle school also went home with some hardware after winning the gameday competition in the middle school division.

Good Hope Cheer Coach Sydney Chappell was proud of how all her teams competed but was more excited to see this event finally come to fruition in Cullman County.

"This is a dream come true for me. It's something that I've been looking to have for a long time and so just to be able to host it was awesome for us," Chappell said.

"So, we want to thank Dr. (Shane) Barnette for supporting this idea. My girls have worked so hard since March getting ready for competition season, so this kicks us off for the rest of winter."

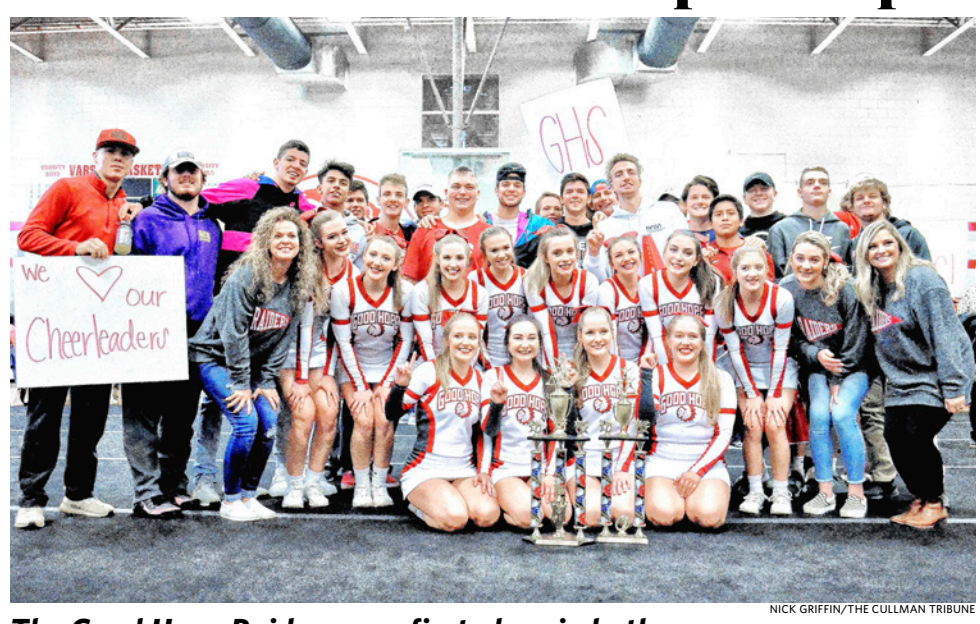

The Raiders were the only varsity team to compete in the traditional division, so Chappell was excited to have the gameday competition as part of the event as well.

That gives every squad across the county a chance to come and participate and Chappell hopes that will just help this event grow each year.

"The awesome thing about the gameday competition is that its what cheerleaders already do every week.

"So, we hope that it'll just boost the competition and how hard cheerleaders work to perfect their performances," Chappell said.

"I really think across the county its just going to boost the sport more than it already has been and we're looking forward to this going on for years and years to come."

Gobble, gobble: 'Turkey Time' at the Agriplex

maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Saturday morning was an exciting introduction to fall for the North Alabama Agriplex's Farm Kids Club. The topic for November was "Turkey Time," and the children got to get up close and personal with Tom the Turkey.

Agriplex Director Rachel Dawsey took groups of children to meet the big bird.

"His name is Tom; he's a gobbler from Josh Speakman. Josh has been good to us and to help us with poultry," said Dawsey. "We're bringing him back. He was a pet Josh got about six months ago; somebody was moving and couldn't keep him. He's very friendly for a turkey, so they were able to pet him.

"He'll go back home today. He has a nice little setup at the barn and a nice friend so he doesn't have to worry about Thanksgiving this year!"

She continued, "It was good because they could see a turkey up close and he was gobbling for them and he was strutting around so they got to see him parade in with his full tailfeathers up, so that was fun!

Agriplex Youth Educator Nicole Taylor had other activities for the children Saturday morning.

"I played 'Pin the Feathers on the Turkey' with the children, shared turkey facts with them and then just helped organize some of the stuff ahead of time," said Taylor. "I love sharing everything with the kids, and the great part about the Agriplex is I learn a lot of obscure things that I probably wouldn't know about daily by all of the programs we offer. I feel the kids, they learn a whole of stuff that they probably wouldn't cover in school, as in-depth."

The Farm Kids Club is a monthly program offered by the North Alabama Agriplex for kids ages 5 and older with adults. Learn more at http://agriplex.org.

Healthy Church, no. 6

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Columnist

Today we continue in our series – The Characteristics of a Healthy Church. Is the church you attend healthy? Read prayerfully and be brutally honest in answering this question.

Healthy Churches Have Faithful Pastors. To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder, a witness of Christ's sufferings and one who also will share in the glory to be revealed: Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away. 1 Peter 5:1-4

What do the titles elder, overseer and shepherd refer to in this passage?

In verse 1 and 2, we see that Peter uses three different terms for the leaders of the church. He calls them elders in verse 1 (to the elders), but in verse 2, he calls them both shepherds (pastors) and overseers (bishops). In some churches, these are three separate positions (elders, pastors, bishops), but in the Scripture, they are not. They are used interchangeably for the same office, just as Peter uses them in this passage.

We see Paul use these terms interchangeably in Acts 20. Look at Acts 20:28: "Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood." (emphasis mine) He calls them both overseers (bishops) and shepherds (pastors) in the same text. We see that he also calls them elders in Acts 20:17, where he initially calls to meet with them: "From Miletus, Paul sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church." (emphasis mine) These three titles simply reflect different aspects of the office. The title "elder" represents the maturity of these men serving in leadership; they should not be spiritual novices, but mature. The word bishop refers to the role of oversight over the congregation, and finally shepherd, or pastor, is a term that reflects care.

When there is a solo pastor and 'congregational rule,' there is almost always schism and tension. The proper structure is a plurality of Elders and Congregational input and affirmation of the leadership the Elders provide.

Let me offer a challenge to my readers. Where in the New Testament can you find even one instance in which the congregation voted on anything? I will save you some time. There is no such evidence in the NT. The American church has imported the practice of congregational voting from the political realm not the text of the NT. I absolutely affirm congregational affirmation for the ministry initiatives of the church. That is very different than voting.

In the next article I will detail why this practice of voting has produced much dysfunction in the church.

Dowling (from Front)

CRANE HILL, Ala. – The yearly reunion of Dowling Junior High School students was held Saturday in Crane Hill at Dowling Memorial Park, the site of the old school. Former classmates came out to reminisce about their times at their junior high school and catch up with one other.

Dowling Junior High School, home of the Indians, was lost to arson in 1996, but the lunchroom was separate from the main school building and was unharmed. Shortly after the fire, the alumni of Dowling began organizing the yearly reunions that take place every year on the first Saturday of November. The former cafeteria also houses a small museum exhibit of memorabilia from the school.

Dolores Williams Lott and her brother Ruben Williams attend the reunion each year and laugh about the many wonderful memories they share.

"Basketball was king at Dowling," Williams smiled.

This is evident, as the trophies and championship photos of past teams are displayed proudly on the walls.

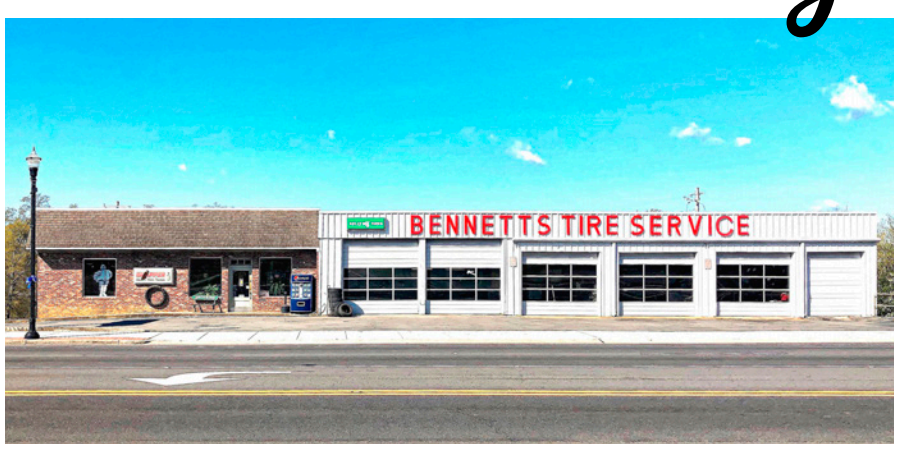

Lott, who finished Dowling in 1946, remembers the teachers as smart, dedicated and understanding of the students' responsibilities at home.

"Most of us grew up on the farm and we had to miss school to gather cotton, but our teachers were kind and tried to help me and the others who lived on the farm," she said. "We made it. They say going through hard times is a (character) builder."

Alumni spanning multiple decades attended this year's reunion, reminiscing over a potluck lunch. They also took a moment to pay respects to those they've lost over the past year.

Perry Eddy, who attended Dowling for several years in the late 1950s before moving to Helicon, shared, "Churches and schools are the heart of a community. It's their identity. Dowling was a huge part of Crane Hill's identity."

Blaze damages Louisiana-Pacific in Hanceville

wendy@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – Multiple departments responded to a fire at the Louisiana-Pacific Corporation plant just south of Hanceville Saturday afternoon. Hanceville Mayor Kenneth Nail and Hanceville Fire Chief Roger Green both confirmed all employees were accounted for. Green said there were no injuries.

Firefighters from Hanceville, Johnson's Crossing and Garden City were first called to the scene. Cullman EMS was on-hand as well.

The fire was reported around 2:30 p.m.

"It was in the press area where they had the jam up or some kind of failure during the process that they do," said Green. "Something jammed up and caused the fire. Initial reports that there was an explosion with three people missing were false.

"There were no injuries and everyone was accounted for."

The fire was extinguished early Saturday evening.

Green said he thinks the plant might be shut down for a couple of weeks.

"The whole facility will probably be shut down for a couple of weeks," he said.

"There's pretty extensive damage to the heat press area."

Louisiana-Pacific does have a small fire department, but Green said the blaze was too big for its resources.

"They've got a small brigade there," he said. "They couldn't contain it. It was more than they could handle with their small brigade."

The commission also returned to its consideration of plans for the Meadowbrook subdivision in southeast Cullman, approving a plan to subdivide the plot of land with a bond on the streets and drainage, which have not yet been completed. In early September, the commission denied the developer's subdivision request amid questions about the plan itself and complaints from residents of the Fox Meadow and Carroll Acres subdivisions who live on lots adjoining the planned development.

The commission also approved site plans for:

- Gardner Truck & Equipment – Alabama Highway 157
- CARTS bus wash – Beech Avenue Southeast
- Schultz car lot – Third Street Southeast (Alabama Highway 278) and Leibacher Lane Southeast
- Traditions Bank operations center – Third Avenue Northwest and First Street Northwest

The commission also voted to recommend annexations on County Road 473 near the Deer Trace subdivision and on the northeast side of the Eva Road/County Road 1402 intersection. Both sites are to be developed as subdivisions.

Conditions take toll, but Cullman County Veterans Day Celebration still draws crowd

W.C. MANN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

"Chainsaw" and "Superman" from the In Country Vietnam Veterans Motorcycle Club came out to celebrate Veterans Day at Sportsman Lake Saturday with other veterans' groups and supporters from across the community.

CULLMAN, Ala. – Veterans and their supporters from across the region gathered Saturday morning in Veterans' Park at Sportsman Lake for the 2019 Cullman County Veterans Day Celebration, sponsored by the Cullman Elks Lodge. The event included free breakfast and lunch for veterans and their spouses, a ride-in by the Sons of Liberty motorcycle club, morning concerts by USO-style duo Letters from Home and the Cullman Community Band, an afternoon concert by Madison Rising, vehicle and equipment displays representing eras from the American Revolution through the Vietnam War and multiple veterans' and community organizations.

Late Saturday morning, Cullman Elk and event Mistress of Ceremonies Gwen Parker told The Tribune, "I'm very excited to be a part of it. It's a great program. It's a great tribute to our veterans. The USO-type show is fabulous. There's a lot of veterans here. We feed them at lunch, and we have another concert this afternoon with Madison Rising, that is a great rock band that plays nothing but patriotic music. It's just a really great program, and I'm proud to be a part of it."

The numbers were down compared to last year, with event coordinators having to contend with both the unavailability of the Cullman Regional Airport, due to construction, and this week's temperature nosedive. Several groups that would usually set up shop at the airport came over to Veterans' Park, though, and temperatures rose steadily through the morning thanks to bright sunshine in a clear sky. As lunchtime approached, a good-sized crowd had turned out.

Col. Ken Brown observed, "It's a nice crowd, but not a big crowd, right now. All the CARTS buses are working good to take the people from the parking lot to the venues. And we've got plenty of good food out here for lunch, and veterans and their spouses are going to get a free lunch at 11:30, and we've got a lot of entertainment. We've got a beautiful, sunny day- a little bit cool, but it's going to warm up."

Asked what he hoped civilians will take away from their visit to the event, Brown responded, "I hope people come out here and bring something to this, rather than take something away.

"I hope they come out here and love their veterans up, because these guys and gals have done a lot for our country, and this is the one day a year that we get to come out where they're all gathered in one place to pat them on the back and say. 'Thank you.' So, it's not what the civilians can take away from it; it's what they can bring to the veterans."

Veterans Day is Monday, Nov. 11. Look for more community activities between now and then to honor those of our community who have served their country.
