HEROES HONORED

Veterans were honored Wednesday at the Donald E. Green Active Adult Center ahead of Monday's holiday

CHRISTY PERRY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

CULLMAN, Ala. – A touching ceremony was held Wednesday at the Donald E. Green Active Adult Center in honor of Cullman area veterans, followed by a Thanksgiving lunch. The patriotic program reminded those in attendance of the sacrifices made by all veterans while giving the community an opportunity to show its gratitude.

The Cullman City Council, Mayor Woody Jacobs, Sen. Garlan Gudger, R-Cullman and members of the Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism Board were in attendance, and Miss Center Point 2020 Emma Wright performed the national anthem.

Veterans Randy Robbins and Doug Danley presented the first of two flags. The first as the crowd heard Johnny Cash's "Ragged Old Flag" and the second as everyone stood proudly listening to Lee Greenwood's "God Bless the USA."

The flag of each branch of service was presented as veterans of each branch stood. Presenters were Wilford Parrish-Army, George Scott- Navy, David Hays-Coast Guard, James Ronnie Jones-Air Force and Doug Danley- Marines. All veterans were asked to come up after the flag presentations, and Jacobs presented each one a handsome blue cap adorned with "Proud U.S. Veteran" and the flag.

Everyone was treated to a holiday meal prepared by the seniors from the Donald E Green Center and other volunteers.

Director Stephanie Neal said, "People asked to volunteer and most come and participate at the center each day. I am very thankful for them."

She added, "I cried during the flag presentation and to see how proud they are. It's so touching to me."

Veterans from as far back as World War II were present and honored Wednesday morning. In the entrance of the center was a portrait of World War I veteran Hane Milam Windsor from Cullman.

His granddaughter Melissa Windsor Parrish brought his portrait and other items she found recently when cleaning his estate.

Parrish brought the flag, with 48 stars, that draped her grandfather's casket, his helmet and an embroidered handkerchief dated 1919 he brought from Germany for his wife. She also found a portrait of Windsor's brother John who was killed in1922 during World War I.

Said Parrish, "I am just very, very proud of it."

Diabetes is 8th leading cause of death in Alabama

Learn about the disease during November, American Diabetes Month

Brandi Pouncey
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Each November, communities across the country observe National Diabetes Month to bring attention to diabetes and its impact on millions of Americans. Diabetes is a disease in which glucose (sugar) builds up in the bloodstream because the body does not produce or properly use insulin.

Nationally, 30.3 million Americans are estimated to have diabetes and more than 84 million adults have prediabetes. According to the 2018 Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, an estimated 14.5 percent of Alabama adults reported being told they had diabetes (excluding gestational diabetes). Alabama ranks higher than the national median of 11.0 percent. In 2017, diabetes was the 8th leading cause of death in Alabama.

The Diabetes Branch of the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) works in collaboration with many other programs within and outside the department to help people delay or prevent development of diabetes and to reduce complications related to the disease. Diabetes-related complications can be serious, costly and deadly. They include heart disease, stroke, kidney » PAGE 2 damage (chronic kidney disease and kidney failure), blindness and amputations of the legs and feet. Diabetes-related complications are more likely and more severe among people whose diabetes is not well managed and those who have had diabetes over a long period of time.

During November the ADPH will debunk myths about diabetes and educate the public on the changing face of diabetes in the 21st century through its website and through its social media by promoting "Sugar Shock Facts."

The good news is there are programs available in Alabama to help prevent individuals from developing the disease and assist those diagnosed with diabetes to better manage their health. Diabetes prevention and diabetes self-management education (DSME) programs are available throughout the state and can help reduce the burden caused by the disease. These programs are proven effective for those who regularly attend.

The ADPH website has information regarding these programs, along with numerous other resources, at alabamapublichealth.gov/diabetes. To access information about available programs, including a map featuring sites throughout the state, click the "Prevention" link in the left-hand column. For information on DSME sites, select the "Self-Management Education" link. Also, the website offers an online prediabetes risk test to help determine whether a person is at risk of developing the disease.

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration has approved Xofluza (baloxavir marboxil) for the treatment of acute uncomplicated influenza (flu) in patients 12 years of age and older who have been symptomatic for no more than 48 hours. This is the first new antiviral flu treatment with a novel mechanism of action approved by the FDA in nearly 20 years. With thousands of people getting the flu every year and many people becoming seriously ill, having safe and effective treatment alternatives is critical. This novel drug provides an important, additional treatment option. Flu is a contagious respiratory illness caused by influenza viruses. When patients with the flu are treated within 48 hours of becoming sick, antiviral drugs can reduce symptoms and duration of the illness. While there are several FDA-approved antiviral drugs to treat flu, they're not a substitute for yearly vaccination.

According to research presented at the 122nd Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Ophthalmology, people with type 2 diabetes who took a common diabetes medication, metformin, had a significantly lower rate of age-related macular degeneration (AMD). The study suggests that the anti-inflammatory and anti-oxidative effects of metformin can protect against AMD while it controls diabetes.

Mayo Clinic researchers have found that an oral drug, apixaban, used to treat blood clots in patients undergoing cancer therapy, is safe and effective. The drug was associated with fewer major bleeding events and fewer recurrent blood clots, compared to low-molecular-weight heparin. Their findings were presented at the annual meeting of the American Society of Hematology.

Designer Bag Bingo raises $15K for United Way

christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Loft 212 was full of hopeful ladies Tuesday night for the United Way of Cullman County (UWCC) Women United Designer Bag Bingo event, which was sold out. Attendees played a variety of 15 bingo games, with handbags from designers such as Michael Kors, Kate Spade and Coach going home with the lucky winners.

"We are so excited that we have raised approximately $15,000 before expenses!" said UWCC Public Relations Manager Michele Dingler.

UWCC Executive Director Becky Goff said she was blown away by the response to the event, which raised money for the UWCC's partner agencies.

"We are really excited because this is really going to help the campaign out a tremendous amount," she smiled.

"We had three new agencies apply for funding this year and we were looking for another way to raise funds to add them.

"This could be just what we needed. This is so much fun and we are super excited."

Attendees were asked to bring new or gently used handbags filled with personal hygiene products to be donated to Victim Services of Cullman.

They did not disappoint; collection bins were overflowing with beautiful bags stuffed with toiletries.

Guests were served light hors d'oeuvres and drinks, and each was a colorful dauber with her 15 bingo cards. The electronic bingo system kept the games moving along without any confusion.

Goff explained how the UWCC obtained the bingo system.

"We got online and reached out to the designer of the program and told him what we were doing, and he happened to be a volunteer for United Way," she said.

"He said, 'I believe in United Way so much, I'm going to give this to you for free.' We didn't pay a dime for the bingo program, all the wine on the tables was donated and the bags were all sponsored."

Goff said the UWCC will have more events like Designer Bag Bingo in the future.

UWCC volunteers and community leaders all lent hand to the successful event.

The designer handbags, as well as the grand prizes, were all sponsored by local businesses.

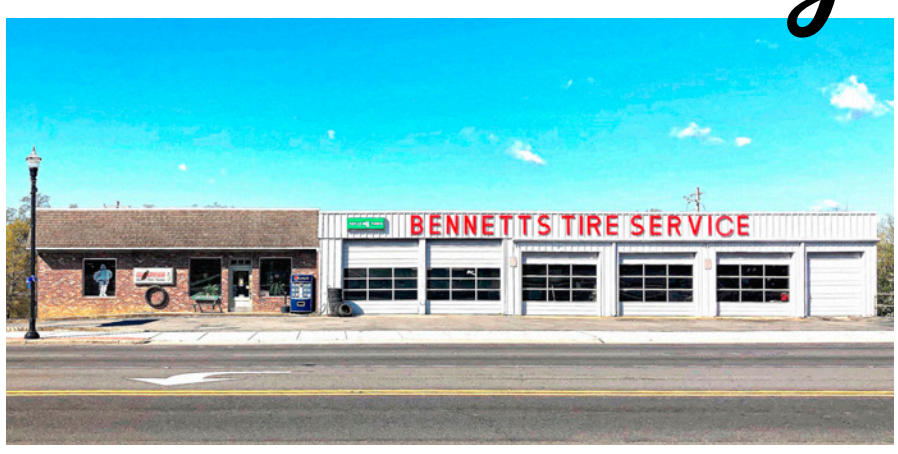

Grand prizes included a CALPAK/Lewis N. Clark luggage set and HP laptop valued at $569.95.

Kira Lewis Jr.'s career night not enough as Alabama falls to Penn, 81-80, in Men's Basketball season opener

Aaron Jordan
UA Athletics

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Sophomore guard Kira Lewis Jr. had a career night, but it was not enough as the Alabama Crimson Tide men's basketball team lost its season-opener as it fell to Penn, 81-80, on Tuesday night inside Coleman Coliseum.

Lewis scored 22 of his career-high 30 points in the second half to help the Tide make-up a nine-point second half deficit and grab a one-point lead with 15 seconds remaining. However, the Quakers' Jordan Dingle connected on a driving layup with seven seconds remaining to give his team the victory.

Lewis also registered a career-best eight rebounds while adding team highs of five assists and 38 minutes of action.

Two UA newcomers tallied double digits for the Tide, as freshman Jaden Shackelford scored 16 and graduate senior Beetle Bolden added 10 points off the bench. Junior John Petty Jr. had nine points, seven rebounds and two steals in the losing effort.

Alabama played all but 9:40 without junior captain Herbert Jones, who injured his elbow and did not return to the game. Jones, who is the team's captain and its top defender, will be reevaluated on Wednesday.

Penn was led by Dingle's 24 points, while AJ Brodeur finished the night with 19 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks.

Coach Nate Oats Postgame Comments

"First, I would like to thank the crowd. I thought that the student section was great, almost 2,000 students. That is what we are trying to build, and I think they helped us make the comeback in the second half. Their energy and their noise were great. Obviously, we would have liked to get the win.

"I think our guys played hard for the most part. We have a lot of mistakes to fix but like I told our guys, we are not supposed to be playing out best basketball on November 5.

"We need to be playing our best basketball come February and March during the SEC games.

"We have got a lot to fix, we're going to get back and fix it. Sometimes when you win, the mistakes that were made all game make the guys think they're okay getting away with it. Sometimes you need to take a loss like this. Taking a loss early isn't always the worst thing as long as you are resilient enough to come back. I thought our guys' attitudes were good in the locker room and I think we are going to come back and have a great week of practice and fix a lot of the stuff that needs to be fixed by next Monday."

- Penn answered with a spurt of its own, an 11-6 run that cut the Tide's lead to 17-16 with 13:09 to play
- With the game tied at 22-22, Lewis and Shackelford brought the Coleman Coliseum crowd to its feet with back-to-back threes that gave Alabama a 28-22 lead with 6:53 remaining in the opening half

- With the Tide trailing 70-61 with 6:46 left, Lewis drove in for a layup and Shackelford converted an and-one to bring the Tide within four at 70-66 with 5:20 to go in the game

- A few moments later, a thunderous slam from junior Alex Reese tied the game at 77-77 with just 2:20 remaining
- With the Tide trailing by two, Lewis drilled a three with 20 seconds left in the game to give Alabama its first lead of the second half at 80-79
- However, the Quakers would cash in the game-winning bucket with just seven seconds on the clock as Penn grabbed the 81-80 win
- Lewis was fouled with 2.4 seconds remaining sending him to the free throw line, however, the team's leading free throw shooter from a year missed both attempts and Penn was able to run the clock out to secure the victory

Tigers start season with 83-74 win over Georgia Southern

Greg Ostendorf
AuburnTigers.com

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first game since the Final Four, No. 24 Auburn opened the 2019-20 season with an 83-74 win over Georgia Southern on Tuesday night.

The Tigers rolled out a brand-new starting lineup that featured only player that started in last year's Final Four game, but it didn't seem to matter as four of the five starters scored in double figures, including a game-high 20 points for senior Samir Doughty.

Doughty, who scored Auburn's first points of the season with a lay-up, also added five rebounds, four steals and three assists in 32 minutes.

"Samir made plays," Auburn head coach Bruce Pearl said. "In a lot of ways, he won the ballgame for us. He makes plays, offensively and defensively.

"It's good to have him on the ball. It's good to have him off the ball. I thought he had great composure and gave us great confidence."

Fellow seniors Danjel Purifoy and Austin Wiley were next on the team with 13 points apiece. Purifoy knocked down a team-high three 3-pointers, and Wiley, despite only playing 20 minutes, just missed a double-double with a team-best nine rebounds.

Point guard J'Von McCormick struggled early with pressure and was held scoreless in the first half, but the senior finished with nine points in the second half and made winning plays down the stretch.

Seven of his nine points came in the final six minutes during a 13-4 run that allowed the Tigers to pull away.

Freshman Isaac Okoro, the lone underclassmen in Auburn's starting lineup, scored 12 points on 6 of 9 shooting and also grabbed five rebounds in his Auburn debut.

"He was efficient, flying around," Doughty said. "He was doing the little stuff that we're used to him doing, posting him up. We're going to use him a lot more than y'all think, but I think he played a good all-around game."

For Okoro, the first basket of his career was a putback that looked more incidental than anything. However, a few possessions later, the decorated freshman received his "Welcome to Auburn" moment when he sliced through the middle of the lane and threw down a two-handed dunk.

Jamal Johnson and Devan Cambridge also impressed in their first game with the Tigers. Johnson, a transfer who sat out all of last season, finished with eight points and five rebounds in 12 minutes, and Cambridge knocked down back-to-back 3s in the final minute of the first half.

Thanks to the freshman's spurt, Auburn grabbed a 41-37 lead at the break.

It was a dominant performance inside for an Auburn team that outrebounded Georgia State, 41-27, and had five players pull down five or more rebounds.

Next up for the Tigers (1-0) is a trip to Annapolis, Maryland where they will face Davidson on Friday as a part of the Veterans Classic.

"(Davidson) is absolutely a team and program you don't schedule," Pearl said.

"You stay away from Bob (McKillop). Period. The end. They shoot the three. They're a veteran team. They bring everyone back. It's going to be a great challenge for us."

The game is scheduled to tip at 5 p.m. CT and will be televised on CBS Sports Network.

Letters to Santa

The Cullman Tribune will be publishing Letters to Santa again this year beginning in December and throughout the Christmas holiday. We would love to have all area primary and elementary school students participate.

All letters will be published online and many in print. The deadline for print is Friday, Dec. 20.

Letters should contain the child's name, age, grade and classroom/school, along with his or her message to Santa.

Letters should be mailed (or dropped off) to
The Cullman Tribune
219 2nd Ave. SE
Cullman, AL 35055
or emailed to Robin@CullmanTribune.com.
