Three local teams fell in the opening round of the AHSAA State Football Playoffs last week, but the Fairview Aggies and Cullman Bearcats are still alive. Cullman blanked Mae Jemison 20-0 on the road to advance and collect its first 6A playoff win in school history while the Aggies sprinted past Central Florence 46-20 for their first postseason victory in nine years. Now, both teams will face even tougher tests in round two. The Bearcats are re- » PAGE 4

BOUNTIFUL BAGS!

United Way receives 500 handbags filled with 2,500 personal care items for women in need

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – More than 450 women came out last week from the United Way of Cullman County (UWCC) Women United Designer Bag Bingo event. Those in attendance were asked to donate a gently used purse filled with personal hygiene items for women in need in the community. On Tuesday, UWCC volunteers counted and sorted at least 2,500 personal care items from 500 handbags.

The personal care items included soap, shampoo, lotions, toothbrushes, razors, hair accessories, cosmetics and numerous other items. The donated items from the event will be distributed to shelter clients at Victim Services of Cullman, as well as other United Way partner agencies and local nonprofits that serve women and children.

UWCC Executive Director Becky Goff shared, "What a bounty they provided! These items came tucked inside 500 handbags, many with new tags, that not only were filled with the personal care items, but also note cards of encouragement and hand-written letters signed with scripture and prayers."

She continued, "United Way and our community have been incredibly blessed by the ladies who attended the event and selected each item to donate. The message sent through these donations was clear to the women of our community: 'We love you and we are here for you!' Thank you to all the Women United who stand in the gap for our neighbors in need!"

Goff said the UWCC is already planning to host Designer Bag Bingo again next year.

"It's scheduled for Nov. 10, 2020. Save the date!"

Alabama Freshmen Javian Davis and Jaden Shackelford power Men's Basketball Team to 78-59 win over FAU

Aaron Jordan
UA Athletics

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The Alabama Crimson Tide men's basketball team used an 18-2 run first half run, along with strong play on the boards and stingy defense, to cruise to a 78-59 win over FAU on Monday night in Coleman Coliseum.

Freshman forward Javian Davis, who earned his first career start, finished with a team-leading 19 points and nine rebounds, connecting on 6-of-10 shots from the floor and 7-of-9 free throws to lead the charge. Freshman guard Jaden Shackelford came off the bench to post 17 points on 4-of-7 shooting from deep.

Sophomore Kira Lewis Jr. followed up a career night in his last outing vs. Penn, as he racked up 16 points, eight assists, six rebounds and three steals, while juniors Alex Reese (12 points and eight rebounds) and John Petty Jr. (nine points, eight rebounds and five assists) each nearly recorded double-doubles and helped the Tide own a 45-32 edge on the glass.

Coach Nate Oats Postgame Comments

• "I thought it was a great win. We needed it in a big way. I thought our guys stepped up. I was happy with the effort. We were obviously banged up, Herb (Jones) didn't play and we went with a different starting lineup with some guys that have been healthy and played well in practice. I thought Javian really stepped up and answered the bell. I thought he practiced, over the last week, as good as anybody that shows up in the game. To outrebound a team like that, they had 17 offensive boards at Miami last Friday.

"That's a tough rebounding team. That's a team that went in and beat Illinois last year, went in and beat UCF last year on the road and then played Miami really tough last week. That's a good, quality team and I thought our guys played hard and the effort kind of trumped any mistakes that we made. I thought our effort on the glass and our effort on defense was a lot better. We stepped up and made free throws too. That's always big to help the offense out and step up to the free throw line and make those."

Team Stats

• The Crimson Tide assisted on 21-of-26 made field goals, including five players with multiple assists

• It was the most assists in a game by the Tide since recording 22 against Ball State on Nov. 16, 2019

• Alabama connected on 17-of-22 shots from the charity stripe (77.3 percent), while Florida Atlantic went just 6-of-17 (35.3 percent)

• Four Alabama players reached double figures, while seven recorded four or more rebounds on the night

• The Tide began the game by hitting just 1-of-9 three-pointers but ended the half hitting four of its next five from beyond the arc

• Alabama's 18-2 run came in the final four minutes of the opening half, and came out by scoring the first three points in the second half. In all, the 21-2 run that spanned halftime turned a 25-23 lead into a 46-25 advantage

First Half

• Alabama led 21-11 before a 7-0 FAU run cut the Tide's lead to just 21-18 with 8:19 to go

• With the Crimson Tide leading just 25-23 at the 4:22 mark, Alabama used an 18-2 surge to end the half and take a 43-25 lead into the locker room

• Alabama was a perfect 4-of-4 from the field during the 18-2 run, including 3-of-3 from beyond the arc

• Lewis led the Tide with 11 points at the break while Petty added eight

• The Crimson Tide shot 45 percent (13-of-29) from the floor while holding the Owls to 29 percent (10-of-34)

Second Half

• Davis scored seven of the Tide's first nine points to open the second half as Alabama held firm to a 52-32 lead with 16:24 to play in the game

• In all, Davis scored 15 of his 19 points in the final 20 minutes of play

• A 10-3 spurt by the Owls trimmed Alabama's lead to 55-42 at the 10:49 mark

• The Tide answered with an 16-4 run that widened the gap to 71-47 with 4:45 to play

• UA led by as many as 25 points with three minutes left before emptying its bench on its way to the 19-point win

Alabama will return to action when it travels to face Rhode Island in its first road test of the season on Friday night. That contest will tipoff at 6:30 p.m. CT (7:30 p.m. ET) and will be televised on NBC Sports Network.

For all the latest information on the team, follow AlabamaMBB on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook. General athletic news can be found @UA_Athletics on Twitter and Instagram and Alabama Athletics on Facebook.

UAB welcomes UTEP for annual Salute to Service Game

Ted Feeley
UAB Athletics

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Returning to Legion Field for the first time in a month, the UAB football team hosts UTEP on Saturday, Nov. 16. Kick set for 12 p.m. CST on ESPN3.

The Blazers (6-3, 3-2 C-USA) look to extend the nation's fourth longest active home winning streak to 17 straight. UAB only trails Clemson (21), UCF (20) and Ohio State (19) for the nation's longest home winning streak.

UAB will also honor service men and women for its annual Salute to Service game on Saturday. Fans can participate by donating a $10 ticket to the Tickets for Trips initiative which will then be distributed to a military member through VetTix.

THREE THINGS TO KNOW:

• Despite a tough week at Southern Miss, the UAB defense still boasts lofty national ranks. The Blazers are 6th nationally in total defense (263.0), while also ranking 2nd in fumble recoveries (13), 4th in third down defense (.277) and 6th in passing yards allowed (163.0), sacks per game (3.56) and tackles for loss (8.4)

• Austin Watkins Jr. needs 237 more yards to become the third player in program history to have 1,000 receiving yards in a season. Watkins Jr. currently has 763 yards, which is the 10th most in a single season at UAB. The only other players who have gone over 1,000 receiving yards are Derrick Ingram (1,457 yards in 1994, 1,115 yards in 1993) and Roddy White (1,452 yards in 2004).

• The Blazers are still in the hunt for the Conference USA title, but need to win their final three games and receive help for other teams. Louisiana Tech is leading the C-USA West Division at 8-1 overall and 5-0 in league play. The Blazers host the Bulldogs in two weeks at Legion Field.

HEAD COACH BILL CLARK:

Opening Statement:

"This is not a fun way to start your day. We did good, bad and ugly this morning with our players to get this game behind us and put it to rest. The challenge for us is we have to get better. I've got to put us in a position to get better and do the things we can do. Obviously, it is good to get back home.

"It was a touch road trip with games at Tennessee and Southern Miss. UTEP is similar to Rice being better than their record indicates. They have a really good coaching staff and have been in these games. They led Charlotte the entire game and then lose it right at the end. They are not playing bad at all. But it is good to get back home. We have to get better and find the things we can do well and get this thing turned around."

On how to bounce back:

"I think you find the things you can do. Obviously, we've turned the ball over two games in a row. I t starts with that. We have to protect the ball offensively. That's one we have to set ourselves up for success. Turnovers have really hurt us.

"We've played two good football teams two weeks in a row. I knew that was coming, so we have to look at every phase. I think special teams were solid, but we have to do better.

"We had a kickoff that we mishandled that we work on all the time.

"Every little detail is important. Defensively, we played solid again, but we didn't play great. I thought we played well.

"They got put in a bunch of tough situations. Offensively, we have to get back to doing the things we can do and things that Dylan (Hopkins) can do.

"We're going to try to set him up for success as much as we can."

On whether Hopkins was overwhelmed:

"I think so. You can't simulate that environment or that game. You're playing against a really good defense who's probably as exotic as we've seen. I was showing things today when you're sitting and third and eight, nine or 10 – I don't care who you are.

"When they drop eight guys off that are twisting and moving, it's going to be hard. He made some throws he just shouldn't have made, but at the same time, we weren't running the ball. We weren't doing other things, so we've got to do a better job with those things for him. I think just the environment is tough on anybody that's not played."

On first down struggles:

"I've said this, and I'll say it again. We've played two really good defenses, so a little bit of respect to the offense, but you can't put yourself behind the chains.

"What are those things that will allow us to do that? That's what we have to be working on this week. Without divulging all of our secrets, that's going to be a huge point of emphasis. We have to be able to run the ball. We have to. That's part of it."

On the magnitude of the upcoming game:

"It's big. It's the next game. For example, our players were asking yesterday to have the good, bad and ugly early this morning. That, to me, tells me a lot about those guys. One, they believe in the process. I wasn't going to do it. We were going to move on. They understand what they have to get done as a team.

"We have to help him. I think for him, he's going to be better. The environment is going to be better. It's his second game. We're going to try to make sure we do as much of the things as he can do and protect him as we can. You can only protect a guy so much. We're going to do everything we can to help him."

On the offensive line having to shuffle:

"Here we go again early on losing (Greg) Fecanin, so there's another shuffle. Without making excuses, you get guys back, but all of a sudden now you've changed rotation. Now here comes Lee (Dufour), then (Andrew) Smith (Jr.) who hasn't worked a lot at guard all week. I do think we have better depth than we've had, so now it's just going to be who performs the best this week."

On playing at home:

"I think any time we're less than four hours away, we're end up on a bus. You're talking about a three-and-a-half-hour bus ride, then the postgame bus ride, which affects you the next week. We can't let that happen this week.

"It's just better. The hotel we stay in that we stay in for all the home games, the home crowd and the fact we've had success here – I think you put all those things together. We want to be a good road team, but there is a little difference in being home. We're glad to be home."

On whether there's a sense of urgency:

"I think so. I think we had it. I think you're seeing somebody who - let's just be honest. It was the Super Bowl. Besides the fact it was a conference game and all that - I can tell guys that, but when you beat somebody three times in a row and win the West against them, that's what a Super Bowl looks like.

"You see it after the game. That's what's tough on a bunch of young guys. That's the urgency you're going to see from a bunch of other teams, and we have to develop that same urgency. Granted, this is not our first rodeo.

"We've played in a bunch of games, so it's unfortunate that our starting quarterback went down, but we have to deal with it and be better for it. Like I said, I think Dylan will be better.

"I think we'll all be better. As we were watching that with the offensive line this morning, they said they have to get better. There's urgency for everybody in this building."

On Veterans Day:

"I'm old school with all that. I always say Mom, apple pie and the flag. All of our guys – I'm glad you mentioned that. We gave out some tickets to the firemen and police last week, so all those people that serve us besides obviously the veterans. What they've done for our country and those that are actively serving, we just appreciate them so much. This is why we're getting to do the things that we do. We're thankful for the people that stand on that line for us every day. Police, firemen and all those first responders – obviously this is Veteran's Day, so thank you to all of our veterans. It's a big deal on Saturday, and we appreciate them."

KRISTOPHER MOLL, LB, JR.

On reviewing last game's film:

"It had a lot in it. It had a lot of good, a lot of bad and a lot of ugly obviously. It really just had a lot of things to learn from and take in. We can't look down on it, but we have to take it in and progress throughout the week."

On what stuck out:

"We had a lot of missed assignments and weren't executing all the way. We just have to figure out how we can execute everything on offense, defense and special teams so we can win."

On playing at home:

"It feels great because we have a great crowd every game. We have a great streak going on right now. A team is coming in a little nervous because of our streak. They know what we do at home, so it feels great to be home. We can't let the home crowd down."

On Noah Wilder's performance this season:

"It feels great to have Noah next to me. I know he's going to go 100 percent every play next to me. I don't have to worry about him or making up for anything. It's great knowing that he's going as hard. He tells me every play he has my back, so it's great playing next to him."

On getting back to the field:

"I told the whole team already that we have to really make up for these last two games. They all say they want to go out there and show what a lot of teams have been missing. We have to make a statement for this game. Everybody is excited for this week of practice."

SYDNEY WELLS, OL, JR.

On playing last weekend in Mississippi:

"It's unexplainable, really. It's a humbling experience just to be able to come back. We passed by my JUCO, Mississippi Gulf Coast. Just seeing all of the memories and knowing that I put in the hard work in JUCO to get where I am, it was a special feeling."

On watching film from the last game:

"I personally had to put the mirror up to my face and see what I can do better to help this team in order to stay positive.

"Being flat serious, we just didn't execute the way we needed to execute.

"We just have to stay positive. I believe in this offense, and I know what we're capable of doing."

On the game's importance to Dylan:

"I personally believe in Dylan. I have seen what Dylan can do. I believe that he's going to have a great game. I know what Dylan has done in practice, so I'm excited for him."

On getting back on the field:

"I'm anxious for it. I know this team is as well. We all saw day one mistakes that should easily be corrected. I know we're going to get it fixed."

On the offensive line's growth:

"These guys come to work every single day and put their bodies on the line. They just come to work. They're unselfish and willing to do whatever helps the team. These guys are amazing. That's all I can really say. I'm just grateful for them."

Band (from Front)

christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Months of hard work paid off Tuesday morning when the Cullman High School (CHS) Bearcat Band performed at the Statue of Liberty on a cold, blustery New York day. The kids proudly represented Cullman, playing "The Star Spangled Banner," "This is My Country" and selections from its 2019 field show.

The band began practicing back in July to prepare not only for marching season, supporting the Cullman Bearcat football team, but also for Tuesday's New York City performance.

The band traveled to Huntsville last Friday to support the Bearcats in their round one playoff win against Mae Jemison, leaving shortly after halftime to make it home in time to switch buses and pack for the journey to New York.

It was very chilly at 2 a.m. Saturday morning as students, staff and chaperones worked to load the three charter buses, but the kids were full of excitement.

They hurried to decorate the buses: Bus 1 went with "Beetlejuice," and Bus 2 chose "Wicked." Bus 3 decided on "The Phantom of the Opera."

By 3:15, the buses pulled away for what turned out to be a 21-hour road trip.

The band spent the next two days touring the Big Apple, visiting One World Observatory, The American Museum of Natural History, Times Square and Rockefeller Center. The students also went on walking tours of lower Manhattan, Zuccotti Park, Midtown and Central Park.

Everyone had dinner at Ellen's Stardust Diner and Buca di Beppo. The band took in a Broadway show, "The Phantom of the Opera," at the Majestic Theatre.

Tuesday morning was showtime, and the band made its way to the Statue of Liberty on the ferry.

Junior piccolo player Natalie Gay said of the experience, "It was good, and now I know what it actually looks like. It was kind of windy and snowed a little, but I had a good time."

"Mr. (Christopher) Smith, Mr. (Doug) Teuscher and the Bearcat Band never disappoint!" exclaimed CHS Principal Kim Hall. "This has been an incredible experience for the CHS Band students.

"They always represent our school and community with class and character. These students have made memories that will last a lifetime.

"Playing at the Statue of Liberty is an experience they will never forget. We are thankful for the support of school, our community and Band Boosters."

Matchups (from Front)

turning to Oliver Woodard Stadium to host the Oxford Yellow Jackets and Fairview will hit the road to face off against the Anniston Bulldogs.

Class 6A: (6-5) Cullman vs. (10-1) Oxford

For the first time since 2013, there will be postseason football at Oliver Woodard Stadium. The Oxford Yellow Jackets are making the trip to Cullman and they'll be one of the toughest tests the Bearcats have faced all year. The Yellow Jackets are scoring over 41 points per game, holding teams to just 13 and have outscored their opponents 456-147 throughout the season. Oxford's only loss came against Clay-Chalkville.

The Yellow Jackets will be the fifth ranked opponent that Cullman has faced this year, joining Hueytown, Muscle Shoals, Jasper and Mortimer Jordan.

Head coach Oscar Glasscock has spent some time looking at Oxford this week and there's one thing that really stands out to him on tape.

"Athleticism. They're extremely athletic and there are Oxford alumni in the NFL right now. They always seem to have kids going to SEC schools and on to the NFL so this team is loaded athletically and of course Coach (Keith) Etheredge won numerous state championships at Leeds and now he's there so they're just one of the top 6A programs year in, year out to say the least."

Glasscock and his staff have developed a winning formula for the Bearcats throughout the season and they don't want to change their style regardless of who the opponent is. They want to force other teams to play their style of game and play into their strengths.

"The keys for us winning the game don't change. Each individual player has to focus on doing their job and not be concerned about who the opponent is, what the score is or whether we've had success or failure. You have to focus on each play regardless," Glasscock said. "Obviously in a game like this you have to win the turnover battle, you have to win special teams, we can't give up explosive touchdowns and we have to get first downs, If we can do those four things, we're going to have a chance in the fourth quarter. When we've been successful this year, we've kind of taken control of those four things."

It's been six years since the Bearcats were playing a postseason game at home, so this Friday's atmosphere is sure to be electric. Regardless of the hype and circumstance around the game, Glasscock wants his team to approach this week's matchup like any other and focus on taking care of their individual responsibilities.

"It's an awesome thing to be able to host a playoff game at Oliver Woodard Stadium. That's kind of a goal I think for any program is to host a playoff game. That means you either placed in the top two in your region or you've won a playoff game and that's a goal that we have every year.

"I think our approach this year has just been focusing on the task at hand, blocking out the noise and just focusing on doing our job. We have a saying that we sort of cling to this year and that's 'Stone Cold Business'. That means that we're not going to let ourselves get phased by anything that happens in the game or what the opponent may do or say," Glasscock said.

"There's a certain standard that we want to play to and a way we want to conduct ourselves and our kids have done a super job of buying into that and not making one game too big. Obviously, it's going to be fun and exciting and something to enjoy and I don't want our guys to miss the moment but at the same time they have to focus on the little things and taking care of their job and playing as hard as they can. Everything else is secondary to that and I expect nothing less from our guys Friday."

The plan is in place for the Bearcats to find success this week and if they can get the ball to bounce their way a few times, they'll have a chance to pull off a major upset in front of a home crowd.

Class 4A: (9-2) Fairview at (7-4) Anniston

It's been a special season for the Fairview Aggies and they plan on extending that season Friday night when they arrive in Anniston to face the Bulldogs. Anniston has won three straight coming into this postseason matchup and has played some of its best football of the year during that stretch, outscoring Ashville, Childersburg and Fayette County by a combined score of 103-6. The Aggies are riding a win streak of their own having won their last six meetings and are putting up over 43 points per game since falling at Priceville in September.

Fairview head coach George Redding has gotten a chance to look at the Bulldogs and he sees a team with speed and size at all the right positions.

"Overall, the team speed is really good and they've definitely got some size up front," Redding said. "They do a good job of getting to the football and on the offensive side, they're a run-first team and they really try to create some mismatches with some unbalanced formations and try to get a numbers advantage on you."

The Aggies have been putting points on the board during this six game winning streak and Redding credits the offensive front for a lot of that production.

"I think it's just been a commitment to who we are and to the plan and that plan has varied from time to time based on what we're seeing and our guys have done a good job executing things whether we need to be an edge type of team or a power, off-tackle type of team, our guys have done a really good job of buying in to that kind of stuff," Redding said. "We've been taking care of the football; we've done a good job with that this year and leaning on those guys up front. I think our offensive line has done a good job in the run game, our running backs have done a great job and we've played good defense."

Last week's win was a huge one for Fairview as it was the first postseason win for the Aggies since 2010 and sometimes that can lead to a let down the following week. Redding was watching his team closely on Monday and likes the mentality they've brought into round two.

"You can tell a lot about your team based on how they come in that following Monday and when they came in this week you're wondering, 'What's their mentality?', 'What's their body language?' and they came in very attentive," Redding said.

"We were excited about getting to work and we reminded them that there's only 16 teams getting to do that today in our classification. It's an honor and we're blessed to be where we're at and we're excited about this opportunity. I felt like our guys came in with a great attitude and ready to go to work."

It'll take a sound performance on both sides of the ball but if the Aggies can continue to play their game and move the ball on the ground, they'll have a chance to get back to work on Monday.

Vinemont Council adopting children for Christmas Love

christy@cullmantribune.com

VINEMONT, Ala. – With the holidays just around the corner, Town of South Vinemont officials wanted to do something to give back to their community. They decided to adopt children from the Vinemont Schools' Christmas Love program.

Mayor Radginal Dodson gave credit to Town Clerk Kayecea Sasser for the suggestion.

"It just makes sense," said Dodson.

"Rather than the council, town employees and park staff doing a gift swap and all that hullabaloo, why not come together and really do something good?"

Sasser hopes everyone who can will consider adopting a child for Christmas.

She pointed out that last year, 67 children at Vinemont Elementary School would have gone without toys and gifts at Christmas had it not been for the generosity of others.

Dodson explained, "The town of South Vinemont might not be that big, but the area with Vinemont addresses is.

"Most of the kids at the school don't live right here in town."

In other business, the council only had one item to take care of on Tuesday night's meeting agenda.

The council voted to adopt a resolution authorizing Dodson to enter into a lease agreement with Vinemont Girl Scout Troop 10288.

Sasser announced that the Town's website is now up.

The new website has links for business license applications, community center rental agreements, parks and recreation registration forms and other information regarding the town and Vinemont Schools.

The website is http://www.townofsouthvinemont.com.

GARDEN CITY, Ala. – The municipal office of the Town of Garden City will be closed at noon Wednesday, Nov. 13, 2019 in honor of former Mayor Harden Davis, who passed away Sunday, Nov. 9, 2019 at the age of 95. The office will reopen Thursday. Davis was mayor of Garden City for 10 years, from 2002-2012.

Current Garden City Mayor Tim Eskew shared, "He was the one that started the Garden City River Park and he was a WWII veteran.

"He was just a good gentleman, good man, a good leader."

Eskew said Harden did a lot for Garden City.

"He kept us in a good place," he said.

"He got the first grant for our water system for expanding the system; it was about a $350,000 grant at one point.

"The main thing was he did his job."

The Town wanted to honor Davis by closing the municipal office.

"One of his last wishes was that his pallbearers be people from the town," said Eskew. "Most of our workers are pallbearers for tomorrow."

Eskew said of his friend, "I'd known Harden all my life.

"He moved back quite a few years back now, and he was just a good man for the community. Church, city, whatever, Harden was there.

"If you needed anything, he was one who was there to help. We need more people like him today."

Davis' funeral service will take place today at Moss Service Funeral Home beginning at 1 p.m., with Bro. Scott Arnold officiating.

His family will receive friends prior to the service from 11 a.m. until service time. Burial will follow in Garden City Cemetery.

Best Bets

7 p.m. on WABM2
The 53rd Annual CMA Awards

Her longtime co-host Brad Paisley won't be present for this year's edition of the annual ceremony from Nashville's Bridgestone Arena, but returning host Carrie Underwood won't be feeling lonely: Reba McEntire and Dolly Parton will join Underwood as special guest hosts for the festivities, which are billed as "celebrating the legendary women of country music." Maren Morris leads the field of nominees this year with six nods, followed by Brothers Osborne with four. Underwood herself is up for three.

7 p.m. on BRAVO
The Real Housewives of New Jersey

The Giudice family faces another struggle as Joe is released from prison but almost immediately transferred to ICE in the new episode "On Lock Down." Dolores plans what she hopes will be a fun event to take Teresa's mind off her multiple problems, but when the latter invites Danielle, the occasion suddenly is fraught with high drama.

8 p.m. on AMC
The Preppy Murder: Death in Central Park

This five-part true-crime docuseries, airing nightly through Friday and simulcast on SundanceTV, revisits a lurid episode in New York history, the 1986 killing of Jennifer Levin at the hands of Robert Chambers in Central Park. The pair had dated occasionally, and Chambers later told police he accidentally killed Levin during rough sex that she initiated after they ran into each other in a bar. The tabloid media circus that followed blamed Levin for her own death. Chambers eventually was convicted of manslaughter.

8 p.m. on FOOD
Guy's Grocery Games

Host Guy Fieri assembles favorite members of his DDD family at Flavortown Market for some old-fashioned holiday fun in the new "DDD Thanksgiving" episode. First, the chefs are tasked with assembling an ultimate Thanksgiving sandwich without shopping in one aisle that would seem to be crucial. Next, the contenders must make a dish that comes under Guy's designated weight limit. G. Garvin, Eric Greenspan and Jamika Pessoa are the judges.

8 p.m. on HIST
Forged in Fire

Veterans Day gets a belated salute with a "Military Tribute," in which four bladesmiths forge their blades from the biggest salvage yet: a Panzer tank. After all four create their strongest knives from the metal, the two best smiths return to their home forges to recreate the Scottish backsword, a weapon most famously wielded by Captain Mad Jack Churchill during World War II.

8 p.m. on SUNDANCE
The Preppy Murder: Death in Central Park

This five-part true-crime docuseries, airing nightly through Friday and simulcast on SundanceTV, revisits a lurid episode in New York history, the 1986 killing of Jennifer Levin at the hands of Robert Chambers in Central Park. The tabloid media circus that followed blamed Levin for her own death. Chambers eventually was convicted of manslaughter.

9 p.m. on WVTM
Chicago P.D.

After she gets injured while pursuing a suspect, Burgess (Marina Squerciati) reports for a medical exam, where she receives a diagnosis that leaves her shocked in the new episode "No Regrets." Meanwhile, a homicide investigation turns into a missing-persons case, with a markedly sinister twist, and Voight (Jason Beghe) must decide between getting justice and following the letter of the law. (Fans probably can guess how that last one will come out).

Carrie Underwood co-hosts The 53rd Annual CMA Awards on ABC.

"THE 67-COUNTY, ALABAMA GARDEN PARTY"

BULLOCK COUNTY

Ben Johnson South
Tribune Correspondent

Dogs and beautiful gardens don't mix well according to some wags. Well, in Bullock County, Alabama they mix beautifully and they have since at least the 1840s when the nation's oldest garden club was founded up on Chunnenuggee Ridge.

Add this to your thinking: Union Springs in Bullock County is "The Bird Dog Capital of the World." In fact, there is an impressive statue of a bird dog in the middle of town which marks the spot, so to speak.

A life-size bronze statue of an English pointer sculpted by Robert Wehle was unveiled in downtown Union Springs in 1996. This artwork pays tribute to Bullock County's unexcelled upland hunting bird dogs. The dog statue, which sits atop an 8-foot tall granite pillar at the intersection of Prairie Street and Hardaway Avenue, is the most photographed site in this part of the state.

The first National Shooting Dog Championship was held at Sedgefields Lakes Plantation, a 14,000-acre quail hunting preserve, Feb. 22, 1950. Several other places in Bullock County also host field trials from October-March each year. The larger-than-life "Field Trial" mural painted by renowned muralist, Wes Hardin, at 140 North Prairie Street, Union Springs, captures the beauty and excitement of these events and the natural beauty of this part of Alabama.

Alabama doesn't have an official state dog breed, though 13 states do. Maryland was the first by designating the Chesapeake Bay Retriever as its state dog in 1964. The Boston Terrier is, of course, the Massachusetts choice. And, the Alaskan Malamute is the pick of the litter for, well, not Hawaii. My all-time favorite dog to so-call master was a Boykin Spaniel named Beaux. Boykins are working dogs, bred to retrieve a duck without tipping a canoe and the hunter, too. But, dang it, Boykin Spaniels are already claimed as the state dog of South Carolina.

So, what is Alabama to honor as its favorite domesticated animal? Using the word "domesticated" totally leaves cats out of this consideration. Doggone it, it has to be a hound and a working dog. Alabama doesn't want a dog like Kansas chose, the Cairn Terrier fluffball which resembles the Hollywood creation, "Toto." Pulleeze.

South Dakota doesn't have a state dog breed, but it does list the coyote, a doggie cousin, as its state "wildlife animal." Alabama recognizes Hank Williams, Jr. for that.

Let's gather at a garden party over on Chunnenuggee Ridge here in Bullock County and nominate a great bird dog for Alabama's canine crown. While we're mulling this idea, we can noodle how one might design a garden to be more Fido-friendly.

DOG-SCAPING TIPS FOR GARDENS WITH DOGS:

• PLANT LARGER, MORE MATURE PLANTS- in the area where your dog is allowed. This is not the place for little annuals like begonias and pansies that can be uprooted easily. Choose shrubs with deeper roots.

• USE A FENCE- Even a lower fence can give your dog an idea of what is off limits and what is play area.

• BUILD A KENNEL- or allow part of your outside deck to have your dog near you, which they want to be, and you want them with you in the garden but not on top of your plants.

• CREATE PATHWAYS- that your dog can learn is where they are to run and walk. Use brick or gravel or concrete, but avoid mulching with cocoa beans which can poison a dog.

• INVENTORY YOUR PLANTS FOR SAFE OR POISONOUS- which is an easy, internet search. Many smartphones have a photo app that will help you identify the plant.

• PLANT BARRIER SHRUBS WITH THORNS- like hollies and rose bushes which are like "do not enter" signs for rambunctious dogs and children.

• AVOID DIGGER BREEDS- like terriers and Airedales.

• PLANT IN CONTAINERS- and let your lawn and other planted areas go to the dogs. This is not every gardener's choice, but it could be an attractive alternative.

• WALK AND PLAY WITH YOUR DOG- at least 30 minutes a day. Bored dogs dig and amuse themselves in ways most gardeners don't appreciate.

The Alabama honeysuckle border was inspired by an 18th century, Southern applique quilt.

• BUILD A DOGHOUSE- even for dogs who are allowed inside your home. Dogs like a retreat space, and especially if a sudden storm comes and you are not home, they need shelter.

• VERY FRAGRANT PLANTS DETER DOGS- so consider aromatic vegetation like rosemary and sage in front of places you want to be off-limits for them. Dogs often don't like the smell of coffee grounds, which many soils in Alabama could benefit from as fertilizer. The plant, Coleus canina, is considered especially dog-repelling.

• TRAIN A GARDEN PUPPY EARLY- which reminds us that even a 6-week-old dog can begin to learn where and where not to go in your garden. Older dogs are harder to garden-train. That said, basic dog obedience training is useful for gardening with dogs of any age.

After all these dogs-caping dos and don'ts, remember to do what dog and garden lovers in Bullock County, Alabama have been doing for at least 180 years- enjoy both.

Here are other ways positive and pleasurable ways PLANTS + PEOPLE + PUPS come together in Bullock County:

• BULLOCK COUNTY FARMERS' MARKET- 209 Baskin St., Union Springs, AL 36089; Wednesdays and Fridays, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., June-November

• BULLOCK COUNTY FARMSTANDS- Albert Perry, 5075 County Road 47, Midway, AL 36053; Locklar Produce, 1834 County Road 22, Union Springs, AL 36089

• BULLOCK COUNTY PLANT ADVICE/EDUCATION- Alabama Cooperative Extension System office at 21578 Highway 82 E, Union Springs, AL 36089, 334-738-2580

• I GOT HEAVEN RIGHT HERE ON EARTH/MY GIRL/I WISH IT WOULD RAIN- all hit records for Eddie Kendricks, lead singer and co-founder of The Temptations, who could have been singing about his hometown, Union Springs.

• PLANTING AN IDEA- Being home to the oldest, still active garden club in the U.S. and also the best bird-dogging in the nation, Bullock County would be a natural place for people who love both gardens and dogs to convene and share stories. Garden & Gun magazine would be a superb sponsor for a festival bringing PLANTS + PEOPLE + PUPS together.

Y'ALL COME to Bullock County on your 67-County, Alabama Garden Party tour! You'll be doggone glad you did!

THANK YOU to Laurie Johnson, one of Alabama's finest hostesses and cooks, for the fun-tastic and tasty array of recipes for "These Dogs WILL Hunt" Ultimate Hot Dogs. Laurie has created lots of creative and delicious culinary treats for our Bicentennial garden party, but this one just may win the field trial for FUN.

The Cullman Tribune is celebrating the Alabama Bicentennial (1819-2019) with statewide field reporting by Alabama Master Gardener/Botanical Artist Ben Johnson South. This year-long feature, "The 67-County Alabama Garden Party," will spotlight different counties each week. Each county will get its own "quilt block," along with a historical profile, and we'll share a recipe specific to the area. At the end of the year, all 67 counties will be put in a book to commemorate the Bicentennial.

Bullock County

"THESE DOGS WILL HUNT" ULTIMATE HOT DOGS

The old, colloquial saying, "that dog won't hunt," describes an idea or plan that just won't work. In "pointed" contrast, the hunting dogs in Bullock County's nationally renowned field trials will definitely hunt! These three hot dogs feature toppings and combinations that are very different from your typical hot dogs. All three recipes offer homemade topping ideas plus store-bought options to help expedite a unique hot dog buffet. These dogs will hunt; they definitely will work!! For all three, grill the dogs (outdoor grill or indoor grill pan), toast the buns with a little butter and assemble with the ultimate toppings! Tip: It just takes a little of each topping to flavor uniquely; too much can make them hard to eat (have a knife and fork handy). Experiment with other toppings for your unique buffet and let your guests combine ingredients for their ultimate hot dogs!

"GET ON POINT" BIRD DOG

Bacon mayo with a chicken or turkey dog, topped with homemade pimento cheese spread, crispy bacon bits and fresh jalapeno slices

• Start "Getting on Point" by frying 1-2 slices of bacon per dog until crispy. Drain and crumble when cooled. Reserve 2 tbsp. of the bacon grease, keep warm and mix with 4 tbsp. mayonnaise. Make or purchase "homemade quality" pimento cheese spread (can be found at a deli or other places with homemade fare). For each dog, spread a butter-based, toasted bun with the bacon mayo, top with the grilled chicken or turkey dog. Dollop a little of the pimento cheese spread and sprinkle with bacon bits and fresh jalapeno slices (remove seeds and white membrane unless you want them hotter). Drizzle with a little bacon mayo.

THE "GARDEN CLUB" DOG

Garden herb/lime mustard, a veggie-based dog, topped with fresh tomato salsa, chopped avocado, farm goat cheese, minced herbs and a fresh lime garnish

• Assemble the "Garden Club" by spreading a whole wheat bun with garden herb mustard mixed with a little fresh lime juice. Garden herb mustard can be purchased (Tiger Tail, but this is not an ad!) or made by mincing fresh herbs such as parsley, thyme, dill, etc. into your favorite mustard. Top with a grilled veggie dog and then a spoonful of garden-fresh tomato salsa, purchased in the deli section of your grocery store (or make your own with chopped tomatoes, red, white and green onions, bell peppers, cilantro with a little olive oil, salt, pepper and lime juice). Top with chopped avocado (tossed in a little lime juice to keep from darkening) and some crumbled fresh goat cheese. Garnish with minced herbs and a drizzle of garden herb/lime mustard.

THE "THUNDER BOLT" CHAMPION QUE DOG

BBQ cheese sauce with a beef or pork dog, topped with baked beans, coleslaw and crispy red onion rings

• Mix your favorite BBQ sauce in a 2:1 ratio with very soft cream cheese- thin with a little mayo if needed. Warm some baked beans and chill some coleslaw (both can either be homemade or purchased from your grocery store deli or favorite BBQ place). Slice some very thin rings or crescents of red onion. Dust the onions with flour, salt and pepper and pan fry in hot olive oil (or leftover bacon grease) until crispy. Assemble the "Thunder Bolt" by spreading the BBQ cream cheese into a toasted white bread bun and top with a grilled beef or pork dog, a spoonful of the baked beans, some slaw, the crispy onions and drizzle with BBQ cream cheese sauce.
