Cullman Regional Airport's Ben Harrison chosen to chair NATA subcommittee

BEN HARRISON

craig@cullmantribune.com

VINEMONT, Ala. – Cullman Regional Airport General Manager Ben Harrison, named last year to the National Air Transportation Association's (NATA) Airport Business Committee (www.cullmantribune.com/2018/02/15/cullman-regional-airports-harrison-appointed-to-nata-committee/), has recently been chosen to chair that committee's Airport Sponsored Fixed Base Operator (FBO) Subcommittee.

According to the Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) Airport Compliance Manual, "A fixed-base operator (FBO) is a commercial entity providing aeronautical services such as fueling, maintenance, storage, ground and flight instruction, etc. to the public." Most commercial airports lease access to private or corporate FBOs, but for many smaller municipal airports like Cullman's, which is jointly owned by Cullman County and the City of Cullman, the airport administration is its own FBO. The new subcommittee will specifically address the issues faced by such airports.

On Wednesday, Harrison told The Tribune, "Under the (FBO) subcommittee, there are a number of airports in the nation that are run by municipalities, meaning the city or the county has some form of ownership in that airport, whether it's fully functional or partnership-like we are-things like that. There's a need there because, within that government regulation, we have more things that we have to do, that not just an FBO has to do."

The city/county partnership which sponsors Cullman Regional Airport is responsible for all of the regulatory issues faced by FBOs that lease airport access, but additionally has all the responsibilities of the air- » PAGE 6

Saint Bernard Prep School prepares for Thanksgiving Service

Joyce Nix
Saint Bernard

CULLMAN, Ala. – Saint Bernard Prep President Fr. Joel Martin has been busy these past few days collecting names. They're not students' names, but names St. Bernard students give him in preparation for the annual Thanksgiving Prayer Service held at the school. This year the service will take place Wednesday, Nov. 20 in the Abbey Church at 11:15 a.m., with a visiting minister giving the sermon.

It is just one of the many traditions shared at St. Bernard.

Each year before the week-long Thanksgiving Break the school community gathers to give thanks to God. They're joined by the clergy invited by St. Bernard students.

At each student's request, Father Joel personally contacts the ministers of the home churches of the students.

Of course many of the school's students are not Catholic; the school is first of all a college preparatory school, and that attracts students from all religious traditions.

"I'm always surprised," said Fr. Joel, "that many in our local community presume that you must be Catholic to attend St. Bernard Prep School, and that idea persists after we've been here for more than 125 years.

"People of all faiths and none are welcomed here at St. Bernard," commented Fr. Joel. "Our faith in God is the principle building block of who we are, but it excludes no one and welcomes all."

Fr. Joel explained that Catholic schools have the privilege to pray to God and to study about Him and his commandments and the moral life – a thing that has disappeared from public life and schools.

"This is the heart of life," said St. Bernard's president, "and a true education never ignores it."

Yet St. Bernard is best known for its academic excellence. All graduates are accepted to colleges, and scholarships abound for those students: $4.5 million for 29 graduates in May 2019.

Said Fr. Joel, "Obviously we have cause to give thanks, and typically we have quite a number of ministers who come to join us to do that at our Thanksgiving Service."

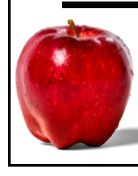

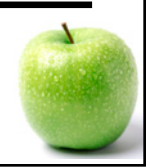

After the service all celebrate by joining in a Thanksgiving Dinner together with those pastors, ministers and priests who are so important in students' lives.

"These men and women are very busy in the communities they serve," explained Fr. Joel, "so we are all very grateful for their taking time out to join us."

Researchers have found that the anti-parasite drug benznidazole may improve the long-term prognoses of patients with chronic Chagas disease, according to a study published in PLOS Neglected Tropical Diseases. Caused by exposure to the protozoa Trypanosoma cruzi, Chagas disease is a leading cause of cardiopathy and death in Latin America. An estimated 5.7 million people in Latin America are infected with Chagas, yet few treatments exist and among known treatment options, specific therapeutic benefits are not well understood. Researchers in Brazil observed 1,813 patients who had tested positive for T. cruzi infection for two years, comparing clinical outcomes of those who had previously received benznidazole treatments with those who had not taken benznidazole. The authors found that Chagas patients treated with benznidazole while still in the early stages of disease had improved clinical and parasitological outcomes after a two-year follow up period. Compared to the untreated group, researchers observed lowered mortality rates, lower parasite counts and a lower risk of Chagas-related heart disease.

Results from a major clinical trial published in the New England Journal of Medicine may have direct implications for patients who remain at increased cardiovascular risk despite taking statin therapy. Icosapent ethyl reduced the risk of important cardiovascular events by 25 percent, including a 20 percent reduction in death due to cardiovascular causes, a 31 percent reduction in heart attack and a 28 percent reduction in stroke. Icosapent ethyl is a prescription medication approved to reduce triglyceride levels in patients with very high triglycerides. Studies have suggested that icosapent ethyl may have additional attributes such as anti-inflammatory and cell membrane-stabilizing properties that may also contribute to reducing cardiovascular risk.

A release from the NATA reads:
The National Air Transportation Association (NATA) recently formed an Airport Sponsored FBO Subcommittee under the Association's Airport Business Committee. The NATA Executive Team has recommended Ben Harrison (Cullman Regional Airport) to act as the Subcommittee Chairman.

As the FBO industry continues to see an increasing number of airport-operated FBOs, NATA's Airport Sponsored FBO Subcommittee will address the many challenges and opportunities this specific community encounters in today's FBO market. NATA's goal is to help raise the safety bar for airport-operated FBOs.

"Cullman Regional Airport is a great example of an airport that serves the community well and we wanted to tap into Ben's expertise so others can benefit," stated NATA Chief Operating Officer Tim Obitts. "NATA represents over 100 airport-sponsored FBOs, and this Subcommittee will provide a forum for this stakeholder group and a voice for the safety, quality, and security issues these aviation businesses are encountering on a daily basis," noted Obitts.

In his talk with The Tribune, Harrison responded to his appointment, saying, "Number one, I'm honored they would even ask me. That's the biggest thing, because it's an honor to be named to that.

"But it's also an effort where it's an exciting time, because you're going to deal with airports all over the country.

"So, you have the ability to learn from other people and see how they're doing certain operations, to see how it fits within ours. It's all an area for improvement."

What will this mean for Cullman and its airport?
Said Harrison, "Well, I think, number one, it gives us some exposure on a national level, which is helpful. Does that mean we're going to get a lot more traffic? No, but it does mean we get some form of national exposure, so that helps us, but it also gives us a way to learn from other entities and other cities or counties, to see how they're running their business, to see if we can make ourselves more efficient, because we certainly don't have all the answers.

"The only thing that we can do to make things more efficient here is what we're trying to accomplish. You know, that helps all the people here, because the taxpayers are supporting this."

The Airport Business Committee, of which Harrison is a member, according to the NATA "is made up of people who work at aeronautical businesses and are familiar with issues that arise as part of owning and operating that business.

"As such, members on the committee are tasked to promote the interests of the association's airport businesses by addressing regulatory and legislative issues and industry concerns.

"The committee members represent the diversity of operations at airports by working on a variety of issues such as community relations, leasing, minimum standards, environmental, security, miscellaneous business concerns and regulatory compliance issues."

Airport renovation update
The Tribune also got a report from Harrison on the continuing improvement of the airport's paved surfaces.

After last week's construction-related closure, he said, "Everything's back, totally open and operational. Of course, we still have the north taxiway closed as they're rebuilding it.

"I would think we're within maybe two to three weeks of having it finished so we can get it opened back up. That'll put all of our taxiways completely rebuilt, and then we'll get ready to start this runway project."

The airport's runway rehabilitation project, which should allow the airport to accommodate heavier aircraft than its current load capacity, is scheduled for 2020.

WEST POINT, Ala. – On Monday, Nov. 25, Brandin' Iron Steakhouse in West Point will host the fourth annual Saving Forgotten Warriors (SFW) free Thanksgiving dinner for veterans and their families. According to Brandin' Iron General Manager and SFW Board Member Josh Speakman, almost 1,000 meals were served last year, and he hopes to exceed that number this time around.

Volunteers will serve turkey, ham, chicken dressing, sweet potato casserole, green beans, rolls and dessert.

Speakman talked about starting the event.

"We just wanted to do something for the veterans to show how much we appreciate them.

"You know, they obviously sacrificed; they and their families sacrificed so much for us," he said.

"When I joined the board of SFW, the Saving Forgotten Warriors board, we just did a board meeting and kind of brainstormed over what we could do to really make a big impact, kind of a big statement.

"Of course, I run the restaurant, the Brandin' Iron, so it kind of blossomed from there."

Community support for the yearly event has been huge, according to Speakman.

"We have huge support," he said. "The community has been excellent in stepping up and helping us out and helping us with it.

"And we've got volunteers, more than enough volunteers, and just people to help us out with it."

Meals to go, or even delivered to homebound veterans

Veterans are encouraged to come enjoy the fellowship of fellow vets and an appreciative public at the restaurant, but those who need or prefer to dine at home can get their meals at Brandin' Iron's pickup window.

Also, any veteran in the county who cannot come to the restaurant can call ahead for delivery.

On the day of the dinner, volunteers from the Cullman County Sheriff's Office will deliver the meals.

More than 100 local veterans and family members enjoyed their meals at home last year.

For home delivery, call Brandin' Iron at 256-739-1112 by Saturday, Nov. 23.

Sponsors needed

Brandin' Iron and SFW are still seeking sponsors to help with the cost of the event, from major contributors to customers willing to pay an extra $10 to sponsor a veteran's meal. To get involved, call the number above.

Coordinating stacks of food and lines of staff is no simple task, but it is a labor of love for the restaurateur.

Said Speakman, "It's a pretty big task, but I enjoy it . . . You know, I'm involved in several agencies and organizations, and this is one of my favorite ones of the whole year, if not the favorite."

Homes (from Front)

the fourth is close to Smith Lake.

Tour stop no. 1: The Schlosser-Dunlap Home, 811 Fifth Ave. SW, Cullman, AL 35055
(Description provided by Share Club of Cullman.)

The home of Nell Dunlap, her grandson, Trystan and their beloved dog Oscar was built in 1907 by William A. Schlosser, the great-grandfather of Nell's late husband, Bill. Bill moved into the house in 1969 after his grandmother, Mrs. Nettie Rose Schlosser Dunlap, passed away. He and Nell were married in 1985.

When asked about her favorite room, Mrs. Dunlap answered, "The whole house!"

You will quickly agree. Most of the floors and walls are original; the ceilings vary from room to room and are unique and distinct. The wall unit in the wine tasting room was originally the headboard of Bill's bed when he was a child. Much of the displayed artwork has been done by the family throughout the years.

The fireplace by the pool was original to the home and used for heating, and more importantly, to cook fish. The coffee table in the living room was originally a library table which was modified by Mr. Schlosser.

Outside, Japanese maple trees line the path to the flower gardens and a shaded gazebo perfect for relaxing. An impressive pool is surrounded by several entertaining areas. Oscar has his own outside playground! The home and gardens stand as a testament of fulfillment and define a labor of love.

Mrs. Dunlap's endless and amazing collection of Christmas treasures and decorations have its own special place in her home. She believes caring people supporting special causes makes quite a difference in everyone's lives - the giver and the recipient - and wishes you a very Merry Christmas.

Tour stop no. 2: The home of Brandon Loyd, 711 Fifth Ave. SW, Cullman, AL 35055

Originally built in 1937, the home of Brandon Loyd was completely remodeled by the previous owner prior to the purchase by Mr. Loyd. The movie room, a garage, the pool, pool house and outside kitchen are recent additions to the home.

The entry leads into the living room with coffered ceiling and office. Next is the dining room adjacent to the oversized chef's kitchen featuring top of the line appliances. The laundry room, which is accessed through the kitchen, also connects to the master closet, bedroom and bath which features a relaxing soaker tub. Three additional bedrooms, including a Jack and Jill with pocket doors allows conversion from a single massive bedroom to two separate ones. Additionally, the home has three fireplaces and several outside areas for entertaining. Both the office and family room feature vaulted wooden ceilings. The ceilings vary in height from 9 to 15 feet. The floors are travertine, wood and a combination of wood and bluestone.

Mr. Loyd would like to personally thank everyone who visits his home during this Christmas season.

Tour stop no. 3: The home of Jason and Julee Butts, 7130 County Road 437, Cullman, AL 35057

Jason and Julee Butts welcome you to their home filled with whimsical Christmas fantasy. Multiple Christmas trees are located throughout their home. Your experience will almost be indescribable.

This 9,000-plus square-foot home sits on 43 rolling acres. It comes complete with a full wrap-around porch, six bedrooms, six bathrooms, two half bathrooms, a gourmet kitchen, soaring beams, two fireplaces, a spa room, an incredible media room and so much more. The timber frames, constructed by Ryan Walker of Walker Timber Frames, were made using no screws or nails. He only used pegs. They are a wonderful example of craftsmanship.

Behind the home, and available for parties or weddings, is an area boasting a pool, pool house and tiki bar.

This home is a definite "do not miss!"

The Butts family wishes everyone a wonderful Christmas season and New Year!

Tour stop no. 4: The home of Mike and Gay Voss, 304 Eighth St. SE, Cullman, AL 35055

This 100-year-old Arts and Crafts masterpiece located in the historic district of Cullman encompasses everything you would expect and more.

The hardwood floors, the quarter-sawn wood of Arts and Crafts style interior columns and bookcases, beveled glass doors and a dining room with unique wooden-framed ceiling are among the original highlights of the house that was built in 1919.

The small sleeping porch has found new life as a home office. This century, the Vosses added three new bedrooms and two bathrooms, as well as updated plumbing and electrical service to satisfy the modern demands of their family.

A new veranda on the back of the house ties in with the original bungalow-style porch on the front, to provide plenty of outdoor space to enjoy the landscaping.

Through careful attention to detail, the Vosses have created a home that pays homage to the original style and construction. They hope you have a Merry Christmas and enjoy touring their home.

Cullman's Eastman, Thompson sign with Montevallo, UAH

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Two highly accomplished Bearcat athletes took another big step toward their collegiate careers on Wednesday. Teammates, friends, family and coaches gathered in Cullman High School's Tillman Hall to see basketball and cross-country standouts AK Eastman and Will Thompson sign their national letters of intent to continue their athletic careers at the University of Montevallo and the University of Alabama at Huntsville respectively.

Both Eastman and Thompson have left massive legacies behind in their Bearcat careers. Eastman has racked up 1,316 points in her 114 games played so far in her career, made 430 field goals including 157 three-pointers, knocked down 299 free throws including a state record 43 consecutive shots from the line last season, collected 284 rebounds, 302 assists and 282 steals in her career but all those numbers will continue to rise throughout her senior season.

Thompson wrapped up his cross-country days with the Bearcats at last week's state championships in Moulton and went home with a third-place individual finish. Will has collected several honors in his high school career, including two finishes on the All-State Cross Country team, two 6A Section 5 championships, two track and field 6A Section 5 MVPs, placed second overall at this year's AHSAA All-Star Cross Country Meet, finished as the second fastest senior in the state of Alabama, finished All-State track and field in the 1600 and 3200-meter runs and has finished on three 6A Cross Country State Runner-Up teams.

Thompson also holds multiple new records including the 6A Section 5 5K record, the Cullman High School 5K record, four cross country course records, 6A Section 5 track and field 3200-meter record and has a personal best of 9:48 in the 3200-meter and 4:34 in the 1600-meter.

Will's cross-country and track coach Trent Dean has seen him develop as an athlete over the last few years and believes that Will's path to becoming a college-level runner is something future and current Bearcat runners should learn from.

"Will is actually a great lesson for everybody because if you looked at him in seventh, eighth or ninth grade, nothing would tell you that he's going to be the greatest of all time at Cullman High School. 10th grade was a very disappointing year for him actually. He didn't get much better but from that point he kind of made a decision that, 'I'm serious about this. I know my goal is to run in college.'. So, he made some changes and his work ethic really increased. Of course, you have to believe in yourself and he did. He knew he could do it and he always had some degree of confidence but after that 10th grade year there was a difference in cross country and then in track season, there were some days that we were in the weight room at 6:00 and I'm like, 'Alright Will, I've got to go home man.'," Dean joked. "His work ethic just really increased and he started to see the fruits of it. His teammates have seen that and he's set such a great example because sometimes people have a lot of success and people say they're just really talented. Of course, that's an element at play here but it was his work ethic and determination that has really brought him to this level so we're just so proud of him."

Thompson is looking forward to his collegiate career and the chance to run with some of the best athletes in his sport but admits that he will miss his coaches and teammates here at Cullman. Will also credits his high school coaches and teammates for pushing him to achieve his goals of running at the next level.

"Probably the thing I'm most excited about competing in college is the array of elite athletes that I get to compete against and having a new team and a great coach that I'm looking forward to," Thompson said. "I will miss my teammates and my coach here because we've kind of grown as a family over the years and I think that's what I'll miss the most for sure. My coaches and teammates were pushing me to be my best every day and my coaches really set me up for the success that it takes to compete at the college level."

Like Thompson, Eastman is excited to see what future has in store but knows that she'll miss the teammates and coaches that she's grown close to over the years. She also credits those teammates and coaches for helping her reach this point and take advantage of this opportunity.

"I guess what I'll miss most is competing against the kids that I've played with since I was in sixth grade. You just have that chemistry that's hard to break but it'll be fun to get to know new people, form new bonds and just look forward to the future," Eastman said. "I think Coach (Josh) Hembree for sure pushed me. If I'm not playing my best, he still lets me know and just him being hard on me and having great players around me has definitely helped."

Cullman Girls Head Basketball Coach Josh Hembree has seen many times that Eastman has a big impact on the game when she's on the court but has seen her do the same thing with those around her off the court. On top of her character, Hembree credits her passion for the game and her work ethic for helping her reach this level as a player.

Cullman's AK Eastman (left) and Will Thompson (right) signed their national letters of intent to the University of Montevallo and the University of Alabama at Huntsville respectively during Wednesday's signing ceremony at Cullman High School.

"AK is a special kid. She's a special kid on the court and I think everyone sees that when she plays. She understands the game really well but more so than that, she's a special kid off the court. She's an incredible student, a great friend, a great teammate and she just lives her life the right way," Hembree said. "I think she is kind to people and I'm just really excited for this opportunity for her to go play at a really good program and be able to contribute. She's worked really hard and not only done everything I've ever asked her to do, she's always looking for more what she can do to get better. I think that's a testament to someone who loves the game, who's passionate about it and who wants to be the best they can be."

Hembree believes that Eastman's mark on the basketball program can't be overstated and wants to see others pick up where she leaves off.

"I think all these girls coming up and even some of the girls we have on varsity right now are seeing that this is the bar. This is what we're going to measure ourselves by and this is the standard and she continues raising that every day with her level of play and her work ethic," Hembree said. "You see her in the weight room and she's the strongest kid we've got and its little things like that that can make a huge difference."

WEST POINT, Ala. – The West Point Warriors hosted the Holly Pond Broncos to start out the 2019-20 season Tuesday night and both the girls' and boys' teams came out victorious. The Lady Warriors dominated the Lady Broncos from start to finish in their 78-41 win and the Warriors withstood an incredible shooting performance from Holly Pond's Kyler Chaney to defeat the Broncos 79-69.

West Point 78 - Holly Pond 41 (varsity girls)
West Point's girls started their season out strong as a great first half helped lead them to a dominating victory at home over Holly Pond.

Holly Pond scored the first points of the season on its opening possession, but it would be all West Point after that as the Lady Warriors scored 22 straight points to take a 27-6 lead into the second period and they increased the lead to 45-16 at the half.

The score was 66-31 after three quarters and the final period ran under a hot clock as some more younger players got to play in the quarter. The Lady Warriors rolled to a 78-41 victory over the Lady Broncos.

Six different West Point players scored in double figures for the game and Brooke Brownfield led the way with 15 points.

Ryleigh Jones added 12 points, Lexi Shadix, Micah Oldacre, and Molly Pendley each finished with 11 points and Miriam Oldacre ended up with 10 points. For Holly Pond, Tate Duke finished with 15 points.

West Point 79 - Holly Pond 69 (varsity boys)
The first period saw West Point's Tyler White nail three shots from three-point range and despite 10 first-quarter points from Holly Pond's Kyler Chaney, the Warriors held a 19-12 lead after one.

Both teams lit it up from the field in the second period as Chaney added 11 more points and Jordan Allbright nailed three shots from beyond the arc himself to help keep Holly Pond in the game.

White scored five straight points to help stretch a 38-32 lead to 43-32, but Parker Sellers nailed a three from the right corner to make it a 43-35 game at the half.

An Allbright layup made it 44-37 early in the third quarter, but a Will Cochran three helped kick-start a 7-0 run as they pushed their lead to 51-37. Holly Pond couldn't quite get out of the double-digit hole as the Warriors went into the final period up 58-46.

Back-to-back baskets by Samuel Wheeler helped stretch the lead to 65-49, but Chaney, who was held scoreless for the entire third period, went off, scoring eight in a row to make it a 65-57 game.

However, that was as close as Holly Pond would get for the rest of the game as Kobe Bowers hit back-to-back treys late to help hold off another late rally by the Broncos.

The Warriors start off the season 1-0 after their 79-69 victory over the Broncos.

Bowers finished with 19 points for West Point, Wheeler added 18 and White finished with 17. Bowers nailed five treys in the game while White added four. Aubry Cleghorn ended up with 11 points, while Will Cochran finished with nine.

For Holly Pond, Chaney finished with a game-high 42 points, with half of those points coming in the final period, and Allbright added 11 points.

West Point will stay at home on Thursday night against Vinemont, while Holly Pond will travel to Randolph on Friday night.

CULLMAN, Ala. – Tuesday night was the home opener for this year's Cullman basketball teams and they were hosting the Arab Arabian Knights. The Lady Bearcats got things started with a 64-28 win over Arab to move to 2-0 on the season but the Bearcats dropped the second matchup of the night 67-54 to drop to 1-1.

Cullman 64 – Arab 28 (varsity girls)
Cullman got off to a 5-0 start almost immediately and stretched that lead to 9-0 midway through the opening quarter. Arab scored its first points of the game with 2:45 remaining in the first quarter to cut the lead to 11-1 but the Lady Bearcats ended the quarter with a 20-3 advantage.

Jaden Winfrey and AK Eastman were a problem for the Lady Knights backcourt as the duo generated several steals and easy buckets in the first half for Cullman.

Arab managed to make it a 27-8 game at the three-minute mark of the second quarter but the Lady Bearcats ended the first half on a big scoring run to stretch the lead to 39-16 at the break.

Cullman started the third quarter on a 10-4 scoring run to make it a 49-20 game and continued to pour it on. After hitting another scoring run, the Lady Bearcats went into the final frame with a 57-24 lead. The hot clock kicked in at the start of the fourth quarter and Cullman pulled away to collect its second win of the season 64-28.

Winfrey led the Lady Bearcats with 18 points, followed by Alexandria Barker who finished with 12 and Eastman with 10. Hannah Hoffman added seven points, Ella Collum posted five and Kinslee Borden, Sidney Smith and Regan Quattlebaum each finished with four points in the win.

Arab 67 – Cullman 54 (varsity boys)
After a scoreless couple of minutes to start the game, Tucker Gambrill knocked down a three to give the 'Cats an early lead and they quickly stretched it to 7-0 before taking a 10-3 lead midway through the opening quarter.

Unfortunately for the home crowd, Cullman couldn't maintain that level on the offensive end for very long.

The Bearcats led things 11-7 at the end of the first quarter but Arab pulled ahead for its first lead of the night early in the second.

The Knights led the way 14-13 at the 5:00 mark of the second quarter but went on a 10-0 scoring run to build a 24-13 advantage late in the period.

Another Gamrbill three trimmed the lead to 26-22 with 1:00 to play in the quarter but Arab was able to take a 30-23 lead into the halftime break.

The third quarter was one the Bearcats would like to forget. The Knights held Cullman to just 10 points in the third to pull ahead 45-33 by the start of the fourth and kept the 'Cats in check the rest of the way. The Bearcats weren't able to get within 15 points of Arab until the final two minutes but by then it was too little, too late and the Knights held on to win it 67-54.

Gambrill led the way for Cullman with 23 points and Jase Goolsby was the only other scorer to finish in double digits with 12. Caleb Heatherly added eight points, Cayden Graham posted five and Tucker Apel finished with four in the loss.

Both the Bearcats and Lady Bearcats will be back in action Thursday when they travel to Madison Academy.
