Brandin' Iron in West Point holds fourth annual Thanksgiving meal for local veterans

Heather Mann
heather@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – In 2018, the Brandin' Iron Steakhouse in West Point served free Thanksgiving meals to more than 850 veterans and their families; this year, General Manager Josh Speakman said he hopes that number will be more than 1,000 this year. Now in its fourth year, the Brandin' Iron's annual veterans' Thanksgiving initiative partners with local nonprofit Saving Forgotten Warriors (SFW) and other local businesses and organizations to provide free meals to veterans and their families or caretakers just before Thanksgiving. The event took place Monday.

These meals are served at the restaurant, but are also delivered to homebound veterans as far as Lawrence County with the help of the Cullman County Sheriff's Office.

The entire restaurant was decked out in posters and drawings honoring veterans and service members, which Speakman said were all from local elementary schools.

"You know it's so close to Veterans Day, and all the elementary schools usually do some activities or crafts for it, so we had (Cullman County Schools) Superintendent (Dr. Shane) Barnette send out an email to all the elementary schools asking them to hang on to those projects for us to use," he said. "Everything that you see is from all over the county."

The volunteers and extra help also came from all over the county - the Cold Springs National Honor Society raised money throughout the year, as did the West Point » PAGE 3

VINCENT DESNOËS

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Wallace State Community College (WSCC) Dance program's Allegro Dance Theatre helped usher in the holiday season this past weekend with two sold-out performances of "The Nutcracker- Clara's Dream." The first production of its kind from the WSCC Dance program was directed and choreographed by Brooke Desnoës, with Ricky Burks directing the music.

Everything about this production was magical. The dancing was superb and the costumes were exquisite. The sets and amazing music, performed live, took the audience along as Clara to "the Land of the Sweets" in her dream.

"This is our first production of what we hope will become an annual celebration of community and youthful imagination," WSCC President Dr. Vicki Karolewics said in a letter in the production's playbill. "It is our pleasure to bring families and friends together during the holiday season while providing an opportunity for dancers of all ages to share the stage in one of the most celebrated ballets of the 20th century."

The WSCC Saxophone Quartet, under the direction of Burks, took the adored music from Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker" and flawlessly delivered the foundation of the production. The quartet is made up of Jacob Keisler, Nathan Berryhill, Jason Lipscomb and Sara Lipscomb.

In Clara's dream, she is guided by her uncle, who gave her the Nutcracker, and by the Snow King and Queen to the Land of the Sweets.

They are greeted by angels and The Sugar Plum Fairy as they celebrate with dancing sweets from all over the world. Spanish Hot Chocolate, Russian Candy Canes, Arabian Coffee, Chinese Tea, French Mirlitons, Mother Ginger and the Candy Clowns, and the Dew Drop Fairy and her flowers all participate in the dreamy celebration. When Clara finally awakes with the Nutcracker, it is Christmas morning.

"It was charming. It was beautiful. It was magical," raved audience member Ben Johnson South.

"When it opened up and the set had snow coming down, I felt my tear ducts acting up because it was so beautiful. The live band was awesome!"

Desnoës said of the production and the younger dancers who accompanied the WSCC dancers, "We held auditions and they came from all over. They drove every week for eight Saturdays and almost every night this week for rehearsals."

Desnoës choreographed most of the dances but also used original choreography.

She added, "Normally, it ('The Nutcracker') is something they come in knowing, but since it's the first year we did it, not so much."

The costumes used belong to Desnoës after many years running her dance school in Paris.

She said, "There's a former Bolshoi dancer who has opened her own costume shop and they are all handmade."

Desnoës was blown away with the attendance and support for the first-year production.

"That was the biggest shock," she said. "I am so happy about it and surprised. I was preparing the kids, saying, 'Now there might not be too many people.' Then they came and said, 'We have a delay. They are standing outside. There's a line.' I said 'What? Are you sure?' I was not expecting that."

Allegro Dance Company members include Chloe Carter, Marigrace Dunn, Haley Greatorex, Elizabeth Griffith, Lacey Johnson, Nicholas Smith, Brooke Leigh Sinyard, Breanna Turner and Isaiah Washington.

Body (from Front)

Wendy Sack

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Coroner's Office is requesting the public's assistance locating the next of kin for Johnny Ray Campbell, 56. Campbell's body was found in Good Hope early Friday morning, Nov. 22, 2019. No foul play is suspected in Campbell's death. Cullman County Coroner Jeremy L. Kilpatrick said it is believed Campbell was traveling the United States.

Campbell's body was found early Friday morning in the 500 block of Moehring Road in Good Hope. Authorities said the body was in the roadway.

"We have exhausted all efforts in attempting to locate next of kin for Mr. Campbell," said Kilpatrick. "We are asking for the public's help in locating his next of kin. If you know him of any of his relatives, please contact the Cullman County Coroner's Office at 256-734-2393 or 256-347-5466."

Effort (from Front)

Schools, and West Point Middle School offered the use of its cafeteria during the weekend to help start preparing the food.

When asked how much food the event uses, Speakman said he had no idea other than "a whole lot." He recounted his weekend of preparation, saying, "We had about nine cases of sweet potatoes donated by Haynes Farms. I'm not sure how much that is in pounds, but I was up until 3 Saturday morning baking them for the sweet potato casserole. I forget how may pounds of ham we had, but I was slicing it for nine hours. Seven cases of large green beans, and I don't even know how many turkeys we had."

Speakman, who is also on the board for SFW, said he wanted to do something that would make a big impact on the local veterans after he joined the board, and figured that serving food was the logical choice since he already worked at the restaurant.

SFW Founder Jeremy Hogan said Thanksgiving meals were a great way to celebrate local veterans and everything they've done for the community. "This is by far my favorite event of the year. You look around and see all the schools' decorations, the sheriff's deputies came in to do home deliveries, it's a whole community effort," Hogan explained. "This is something we plan all year round because this is the one major event for SFW. It's our chance to really thank all the veterans. This isn't about charity, it's not just for the veterans who have no food - but we always want to help them, too - but it's for all the veterans in the community and being able to give a little bit back to them."

Christmas (from Front)

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The City of Cullman and Cullman Parks, Recreation and Sport Tourism (CPRST) on Saturday officially kicked off the Christmas season with a day full of activities downtown, enjoying good turnout despite the cold and drizzly weather. During the day, visitors shopped their way through the Warehouse District and visited the new seasonal Christkindlmarkt (Christmas market) (www.cullmantribune.com/2019/11/23/cullman-prepares-for-trial-run-of-christkindlmarkt-outdoor-christmas-market/) in the Festhalle for gifts, food and drinks.

Across from the Festhalle, the parking lot turned into a kids' activity zone and food court. Younger children got their pictures taken with Santa, wrote him letters and made decorations. Kids of all ages made s'mores, sipped hot chocolate, played cornhole and visited a petting zoo. Next door, visitors got to sit down to eat anything from a light snack to a full meal from local food trucks.

Late in the afternoon, CPRST Acting Executive Director Christy Turner told The Tribune, "It's been a great day. (It) started off with the weather and the rain. (It's) cool and brisk now- feels like Christmas! We've had a great crowd; it's been a wonderful turnout. Lots of kids have come out and visited Santa's Workshop and written letters to Santa, we have a food court, glühwein (a spiced German wine served hot) being sold, and our taste of what's to come in 2020 for our market. So, we're excited about that.

"Everybody's kind of anticipating the parade and a Christmas tree lighting production you're not going to want to miss!"

Turner was playing her cards close to the vest, but her excitement about the evening to come was evident and proved to be well-founded.

In the evening, Cullman's annual Christmas Parade came down First Avenue, with Mayor Woody Jacobs and family leading the way for numerous local businesses and organizations to escort Santa to Depot Park.

At the conclusion of the parade, the large crowd reassembled in the park and on Arnold Street for the annual Christmas Tree Lighting.

This year's production featured live music at the foot of the tree and a light show that the misty, slightly foggy weather only made more visible and impressive to those watching. After Hannah Jacobs led the countdown, the illumination of the tree was preceded and accompanied by a firework display in Depot Park, a first for the Christmas in Cullman celebration.

Afterward, folks stayed around for more pictures with Santa and the Grinch (who had slipped into the celebration but was behaving himself!), selfies in front of the tree and newly-relit Christmas Pyramid (www.cullmantribune.com/2019/10/30/countrys-tallest-weihnachtspyramide-goes-up-and-up-at-cullman-county-museum/), more food and drink, more live music and one more visit to the Christmas Market.

PREP FOOTBALL

A look back at the 2019 season

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The 2019 high school football season has come to an end and it saw a handful of local teams make the postseason. Addison, Cold Springs, Cullman, Fairview and Good Hope earned postseason bids after great seasons while the other teams across the county came up short but will be able to build off of this year going forward.

Addison: 8-3 record - Second place class 2A Region 7 (lost to North Sand Mountain in 1st round, 20-13)
The Addison Bulldogs had another great season in 2019. After falling to Red Bay in their region opener in week four, Addison dominated the rest of the way, winning its final six games of the season, including its final five region games. That run earned then a home playoff game in the first round of the AHSAA State Football Playoffs. Unfortunately, their season came to an end at the hands of North Sand Mountain, 20-13. 11 seniors played their final game for the Bulldogs and Addison will look to continue an amazing trend of great seasons in 2020.

- Points per game: 29.7
- Points allowed per game: 12.2
- Opponents record: 59-61

Cold Springs: 5-6 - Third place class 2A Region 5 (lost at Ranburne in 1st round, 44-0)
2019 was a back-and-forth year for the Cold Springs Eagles. After a 3-1 start to the season, they dropped four of their next five games before finishing the regular season with a 28-8 victory over Vinemont. That win helped Vinemont get the no. 3 seed in the region and secure a spot in the playoffs. The road trip to Ranburne in the opening round ended the Eagles' season as they were shut out 44-0. Nine seniors saw the field for the last time for the Eagles and Cold Springs will be looking to build off this season and make another playoff run in 2020.

- Points per game: 22.4
- Points allowed per game: 25.3
- Opponents Record: 54-63

Cullman: 6-6 – Third place Class 6A Region 7 (lost to Oxford in 2nd round, 35-0)
The Cullman Bearcats had a successful season under first-year head coach Oscar Glasscock. After a three-game winning streak put them at 3-2 early in the season, they dropped their next three games, but got a very important win against Hartselle, 15-10, to help them secure the no. 3 seed for the playoffs and finished the regular season with an impressive, 42-23 win over Ft. Payne. The Bearcats shut out Mae Jemison 20-0 on the road in round one to collect their first 6A playoff win in school history before falling to Oxford at home to finish the season. 12 players played their final game as a Bearcat in last week's matchup against Oxford but with a lot of the roster and some playmakers returning next season, the future looks bright for Cullman.

Fairview: 9-3 – Class 4A Region 7 Champion (lost to Anniston in 2nd round, 35-7)
The 2019 season will be one to remember for the Fairview Aggies. They had one of their best offensive seasons in years and it carried them to a region championship and the second round of the AHSAA State Playoffs. They started the season by falling to West Point 14-8, but after that, they took off, putting up over 40 points in five games, including going over 50 twice. The Aggies went 8-1 over their final nine games and won their first region title in impressive fashion with a 55-14 win over Danville. They hosted the first round of the playoffs and rolled past Central-Florence 46-20 before falling at Anniston in round two, 35-7. Seven players played their final game for Fairview, including Mason Black and Tyvn Ellis, but the Aggies will look to continue what they started in 2020.

Good Hope: 8-3 – Third place Class 4A Region 5 (lost to Oneonta in 1st round, 37-29)
The 2019 season was another amazing year for the Good Hope Raiders and it was even more impressive when you remember they lost over 20 seniors to graduation in 2018. Good Hope started the season 5-0 for the second straight year before falling to Northside and Fayette County to finish the regular season 8-2. The Raiders traveled to Oneonta in round one of the state playoffs and in what was a tale of two halves, a second-half rally fell just short at the end as Good Hope fell to Oneonta 37-29. 11 players played their final game for the Raiders but with several impact players returning next season, Good Hope will be aiming to continue its run of success in 2020.

- Opponents Record: 52-68

Hanceville: 3-7
The 2019 season saw Hanceville improve its win total from last year. The Bulldogs started out the season 2-1 after a 28-0 shutout at J.B. Pennington, but they finished 1-6 over their last seven games, including tough losses to Holly Pond, Vinemont and a tight, shootout loss to Locust Fork. Hanceville will lose just three players to graduation in May and with a ton of talent returning the field next fall, the Bulldogs will look to take that next step and continue improving in 2020.

- Points per game: 23.2
- Points allowed per game: 30.3
- Opponents Record: 46-60

Holly Pond: 2-8
Holly Pond looked to continue their trend of playoff appearances in 2019 but finished with a 2-8 record. A silver lining for Broncos fans is that both of those wins came against county rivals in Hanceville and Vinemont, the latter of which was Coach Mike Bates' final game as the head coach at Holly Pond. The Broncos will lose just five players to graduation and whoever is named the new head coach will have some young, experienced talent coming back and looking to rebound in 2020.

- Points per game: 21
- Points allowed per game: 34.6
- Opponents Record: 50-56

Meek: 0-10
The 2019 season was one that Meek would like to forget. The Tigers finished the season winless despite hanging tough in a few competitive games but couldn't make enough plays at the right rimes to get those much-needed wins. Eight seniors will be graduating for Meek and they'll look for some new players to step up in big roles for coach David Norwood and his staff in 2020.

- Points per game: 12.9
- Points allowed per game: 38.1
- Opponents Record: 55-53

Vinemont: 3-7
The 2019 season looked to be the year that Vinemont took that next big step and make the postseason with a lot of players coming back from last year's squad. The Eagles started the year 2-2 after a 26-12 win over Hanceville and after a tough loss at Fultondale in week six, a thrilling 42-35 win over Locust Fork kept them in the playoff race. However, tough losses to J.B. Pennington and Holly Pond knocked them out of playoff contention and they wound up finishing the year 3-7. The Eagles will lose 12 seniors to graduation and will have some key spots to fill if they want to get into the playoffs in 2020.

- Points per game: 21.3
- Points allowed per game: 29.3
- Opponents Record: 56-53

West Point: 4-6
West Point looked to rebound in 2019 after failing to make the postseason the previous year. The Warriors started out the season 2-2 after a 42-14 thrashing of Lawrence County. After two straight region losses, a win over Dora kept their playoff hopes alive, but they were eliminated from the playoff chase despite a thrilling, 21-20 overtime victory over Hayden. West Point finished the season 4-6 and will graduate 14 players from this year's team but the Warriors will have a lot of playmakers returning and looking to get back into the postseason in 2020.

Fairview sweeps East Lawrence at home

FAIRVIEW, Ala. – After picking up a pair of wins last night at Vinemont, the Fairview Aggies went back home to take on East Lawrence and both varsity squads won their respective games. The Lady Aggies rolled past the Lady Eagles, 50-22, while the Aggies dominated from start to finish in a 79-41 rout of the Eagles.

Fairview 50 - East Lawrence 22 (varsity girls)
A three from both Morgan Lindsay and Katie Ball helped Fairview jump out to an 8-3 lead and four points from Jaycee Aleman, later followed by a trey by Molly McKelvy, made it 15-5 after one. East Lawrence quickly made it a six-point game to start out the second period, but the Lady Aggies quickly broke out of a cold streak in a big way when a Daisy Manasco three helped jump-start a 10-0 run that pushed the lead back to double-figures and Fairview wound up taking a 25-13 lead into the locker room.

The Lady Aggies broke the game wide open to start out the second half as they scored the first 13 points of the third period to stretch their lead to 38-13 and took a 40-15 lead into the final period. Their defense was swarming East Lawrence from start to finish, getting numerous turnovers, and that was another key reason why Fairview wound up taking the game 50-22.

McKelvy finished with 12 points for Fairview (3-0). Maci Yeager added 10 points and Emma Garcia ended up with nine. Ball, Lindsay and Manasco each added five and Aleman chipped in with four. The Lady Aggies will participate in the Encore Classic at Hartselle on Saturday.

Fairview 79 - East Lawrence 41 (varsity boys)
Fairview got a quick layup from Dow Nichols less than 10 seconds into the game and that helped the Aggies get off to a quick, 9-1 lead. After East Lawrence later cut it to 11-7, the Aggies went on a 9-0 run, led by J.T. White, and it ended with a layup by Jack Brown to take a 20-9 lead into the second period.

Fairview quickly broke the game open, scoring the first 13 points of the second quarter, seven of which came from Nicholas, and pushing the lead to 33-9. East Lawrence started to chip away at Fairview's lead a little bit, but the Aggies ended up taking a 40-22 lead into the locker room at the half.

Any chance of an Eagle run was quickly gone early in the second half as Austin Turner and Nichols scored the first eight points of the third to increase the lead to 48-26 and they wound up taking a 61-32 lead into the final period. Fairview never let East Lawrence into the contest or within single digits the rest of the game and pulled away to win the game by a comfortable margin, 79-41.

Nichols led the way for Fairview (3-0) with 17 points. White added 14 points and six rebounds. Turner ended up with 12 points, eight rebounds and a pair of steals, Preston Ryan added nine points, five rebounds and four steals and Austin Jackson chipped in with nine points and a steal. The Aggies will be a part of the 63rd Annual Holly Pond Thanksgiving Tournament starting on Monday.

CULLMAN, Ala. – After splitting a pair of matchups at Gardendale Thursday night, Cullman returned home Friday to host the Bulldogs and Lady Bulldogs of Hanceville. The Lady Bearcats fell behind early against Hanceville but rallied to defeat the Lady Bulldogs 61-50 and in the boys' game, the Bearcats pulled away to topple the Bulldogs 67-50. Both the Lady Bearcats and Lady Bulldogs will be competing at this year's Encore Classic in Hartselle Saturday, the Bearcats will take on Belgreen at Wallace State's Tom Drake Coliseum Tuesday morning and the Bulldogs will be hosting this year's Hanceville Thanksgiving Tournament starting Tuesday.

Cullman 61 – Hanceville 50 (varsity girls)
The Lady Bulldogs jumped out to an 8-5 lead over Cullman early in the first quarter and managed to stay in front for almost the entire opening half.

Hanceville led the way 14-10 at the end of the first quarter and Kelly Pickett sliced her way through multiple defenders and keep the Lady Bulldogs in front 16-14 early in the second.

Jaden Winfrey knocked down a three to tie the game at 17 but Savannah McAnnally answered with a three on the other end to put Hanceville back on top 20-17.

A triple from Pickett late in the second quarter gave the Lady Bulldogs a 24-21 lead and they carried a 26-24 advantage into the locker room at halftime.

The Lady Bearcats came out swinging in the third tying the game at 28 before a going on a 9-2 run and taking a 37-30 lead midway through the quarter.

A pair of free throws and a three-pointer by AK Eastman put Cullman on top 42-33 going into the final frame and by then the lead was too much for Hanceville to overcome and the Lady Bulldogs pulled away to win it 61-50.

Eastman led Cullman with 19 points in the win followed by Regan Quattlebaum with 15, Alexandria Barker with 14 and Winfrey with six.

Pickett led all scorers with 26 points in the loss and Cassidy Campbell added 13 for the Lady Bulldogs.

Cullman 67 – Hanceville 50 (varsity boys)
The Bearcats led the way 6-3 early on in this one and stretched that lead to 15-3 by the midway point of the first quarter. A three from Cayden Graham gave Cullman a 24-9 lead going into the second quarter, but the Bulldogs were able to chip away before the half.

A Tyson Bellmon three made it a 32-20 game midway through the second and he kept it going with another deep three-point basket that trimmed the lead to 34-27 later in the quarter. Bellmon drilled his third triple of the quarter with just 12 seconds in the half to cut the lead down to 36-30 at the break.

The Bearcats kept the Bulldogs at arm's length for most of the second half, taking a 50-34 lead midway through the third and carrying a 53-42 advantage into the final frame.

Cullman maintained a 10-point lead midway through the fourth before pulling away to take the game 67-50.

Tucker Gambrill lead the Bearcats with 24 points in the win, followed by Max Gambrill with 11, Kaleb Heatherly with 10 and Jase Goolsby with seven.

Bellmon led the Bulldogs with 14 points, followed by Raiden Morgan and Zach Campbell who each posted eight points and Brodie Malcom and Izayah Glenon who both added six.

Pig Bowl

Proceeds from the event will be split evenly between the two agencies' own charitable programs, meaning that all money raised will stay in the Cullman area. The CPD will put its proceeds into "Shop with a Cop," an annual Christmas season program that allows police officers to take children from disadvantaged families shopping for Christmas gifts of clothing and toys. The CCSO will put its proceeds towards the annual Special Needs Track and Field Day at Cullman High School's Oliver Woodard Stadium, hosting around 150 athletes for a series of fun events planned and overseen by the physical education staff of the Cullman County Child Development Center, and geared toward competitors with physical or developmental challenges. The CCSO defeated The CPD 35-12.

Good Hope talks Community Thanksgiving Meal, Christmas

christy@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – The 11th annual Good Hope Community Thanksgiving Meal will take place this Wednesday at Good Hope High School. City employees, along with volunteers from the school and community organizations, will help serve the free meal beginning at 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Mayor Jerry Bartlett and the Good Hope City Council discussed the event at Monday night's council meeting.

They want to make sure those who are sick or homebound have their meals delivered. Others can either stay and eat in the cafeteria with family, friends and neighbors or get meals to go.

The City encourages everyone to invite family, friends or someone in need. There is a five-plate maximum per car for take-outs. The meal is made possible by donations and volunteers. Call Good Hope City Hall at 256-739-3757 for sick or homebound deliveries or for more information.

Councilman Greg Brown hopes those community members older than 55 will take part in the Good Hope Sizzlin' Seniors activities.

This Tuesday, Nov. 26, the group will celebrate with a "Friendsgiving" meal at city hall.

There will also be fun games and a penny auction. The meal will be served at 11 a.m.

The next Sizzlin' Seniors day trip has been planned and will take place Feb. 13 with a fun Valentine's Day trip to YESTERDAYS Event Center in Athens for lunch and the "Silvery Moon" Big Band Valentine's Show. Other details are still being worked out.

The Good Hope Christmas Parade is set for Saturday, Dec. 14 at 2 p.m. The Christmas in the Park festivities will take place immediately following the parade. Christmas in the Park will have many great activities for the family.

Free hot dogs, chili, chips and drinks will be served. Kids can visit with Santa, make fun crafts, enjoy a train and hayrides and SNOW! All activities are free, including photos with Santa.

The council also took advantage of a light agenda Monday and asked the City's road and maintenance department employees to come by and introduce themselves.

Bartlett praised the crew, saying, "I am really proud of the staff that we have. These guys right here work hard and they are where they are supposed to be when they are supposed to be."

Just in time for the holidays, the workers received their one-time pay adjustment for 2019.

The next Good Hope City Council meeting will be Monday, Dec. 9 at 6:30 p.m.

OPINION

Healthy Church, no. 9

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Columnist

Today we continue in our series – The Characteristics of a Healthy Church. Is the church you attend healthy? Listen up and be brutally honest in answering this question.

What are the vices our pastors (and members of the congregation) must be warned of and the virtues to be pursued?

Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, serving as overseers—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not greedy for money, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away. 1 Peter 5:2-4

Early in my undergraduate studies one of my professors stated to our class – "Gentlemen, one of the easiest traps in the ministry is to be lazy!"

In my ministry as a Consultant I unfortunately find this to be true.

Men are not intentionally lazy, but they settle into routines that are profoundly unproductive.

Every pastor I serve tells me how busy they are. While that may be true, a crucial question is what constitutes your busyness? Pastors must focus on those ministry endeavors that result in the ongoing transformation of God's saints and reaching the lost with the Gospel message.

1. Faithful pastors must beware of laziness.
"Not because you must, but because you are willing."

Peter speaks to them as a fellow elder (v. 1) who knows the difficulties of the office. One of the difficulties of the office is laziness. We know what laziness is, right?

Laziness is when we know what we should be doing but we don't want to, so we keep putting it off. Leadership in any organization can often be a place to hide and be lazy.

There are others serving under them doing the work.

This is a tendency among pastors as well. There are many who hide behind the office of an elder. There are those called to be elders who are inactive.

Peter says a healthy congregation has elders who are willing, meaning they want to serve. They are not lazy or serving out of compulsion.

Statistics say that over 50 percent of pastors would find another job or profession if they could.

When a pastor no longer feels a compulsion to serve, then they are on dangerous ground. They must serve because they are willing.

This is a common vice among those in the pulpit but also among the congregation. Often, it is very hard to get people to serve in children's ministry, youth ministry, ushers or to lead a small group.

Most churches have about 20 percent of the members doing all the work and 80 percent doing nothing.

Each member must not be lazy. God has made them part of the body. This is one of the reasons many churches promote small groups.

This allows each member to be serving one another in a small community, doing their part in the church.

THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE
NOVEMBER 26, 2019

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman City Council on Monday evening set a public hearing for Monday, Jan. 13, 2020 at 7 p.m. for an ordinance to establish an arts and entertainment district on Cullman's west side.

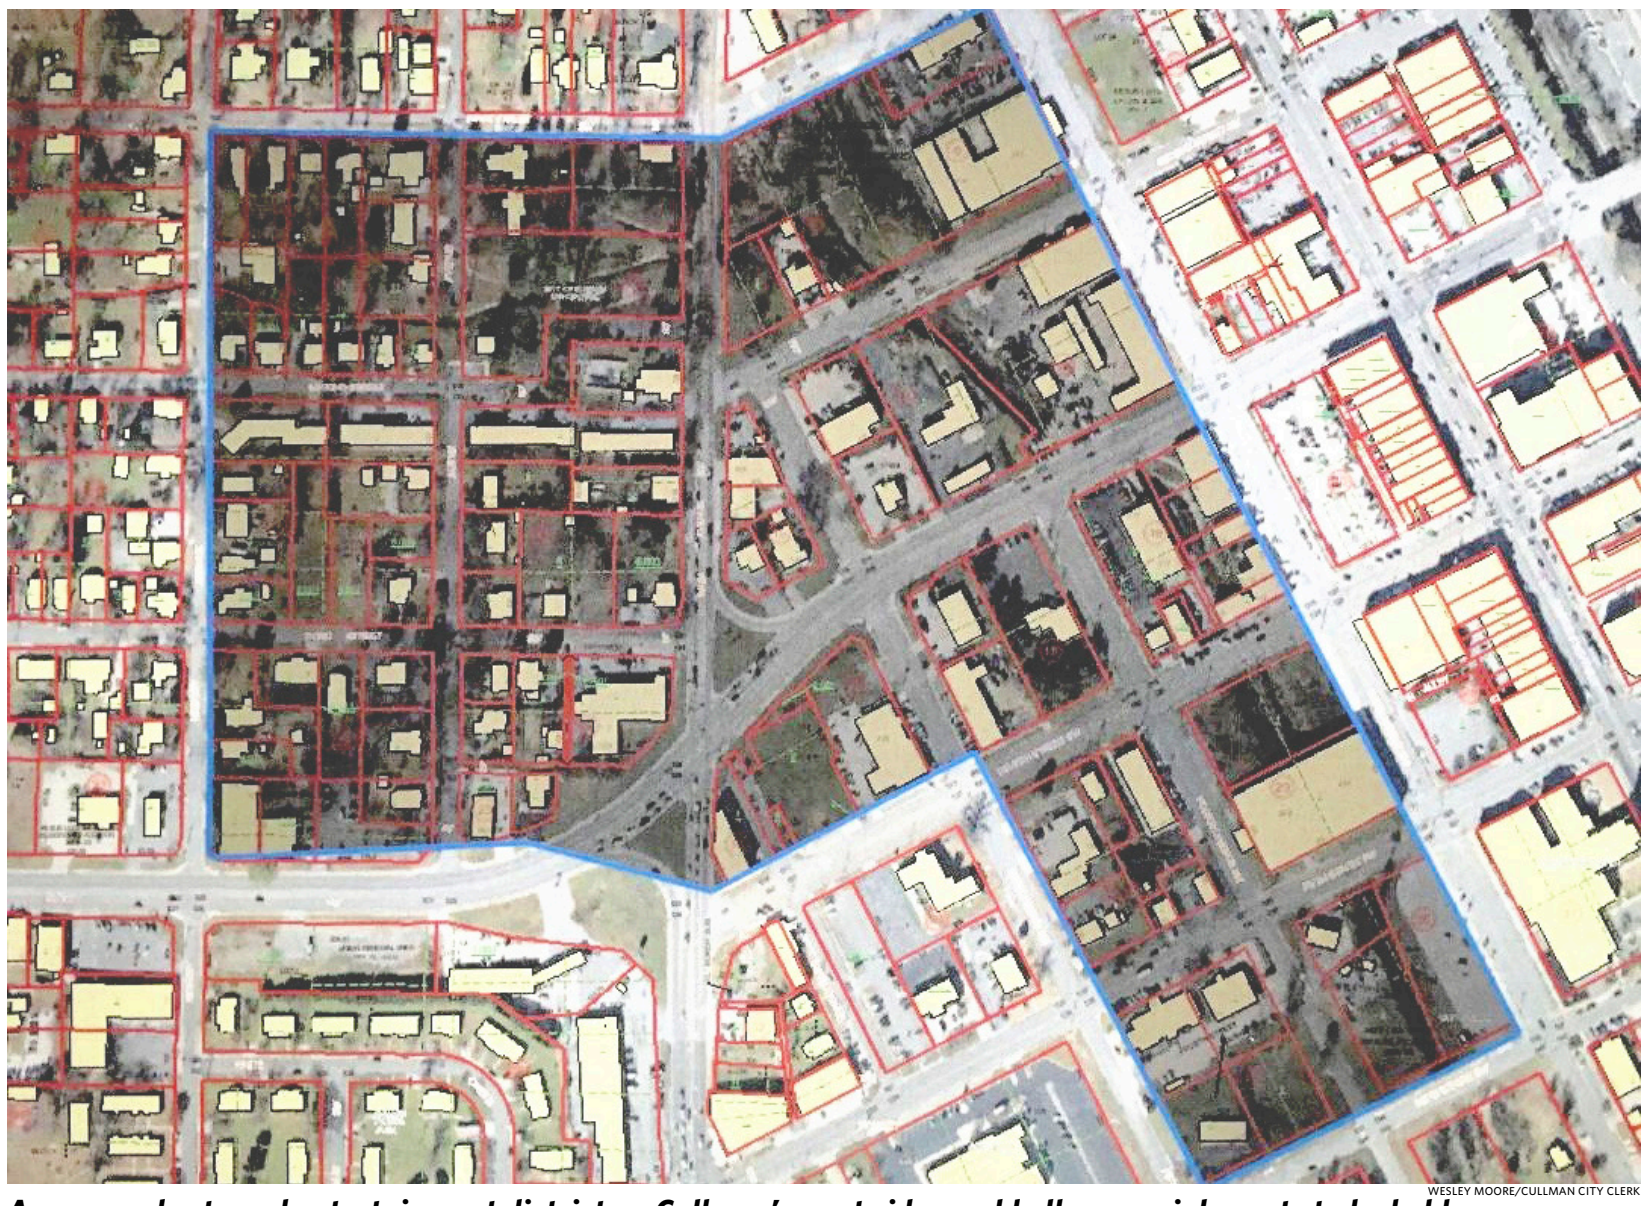

The boundaries for the new district would be (from the ordinance): "the northeast corner of the intersection of Fifth Avenue SW and Sixth Street SW; then turn north onto Fifth Avenue SW until Fourth Street SW; then turn west onto Fourth Street SW until Hickory Avenue SW; then turn north onto Hickory Avenue SW until First Street SW; then turn east onto First Street SW until 3rd Avenue SW; then turn south onto Third Avenue SW until Sixth Street SW; and then turn west onto Sixth Street SW until the point of beginning."

This would include areas from Art Park down to U.S. Highway 278, over the blocks between First Baptist Church and the Cullman Civic Center.

The district would reach Third Avenue Southwest, immediately west of U.S. Highway 31, but not to the highway itself.

According to Cullman City Clerk Wesley Moore, the creation of the arts and entertainment district would be primarily to facilitate the planning and holding of special events and would have the same alcohol regulations as the current entertainment district on the city's east side.

The public is invited to attend, ask questions and give input on the proposed plan Monday, Jan. 13.

WESLEY MOORE/CULLMAN CITY CLERK

A proposed arts and entertainment district on Cullman's west side would allow special events to be held in the area without affecting any regulations on alcohol sales, according to the Cullman City Council.
