The Tribune stopped by The Folsom Center for Rehabilitation & Healthcare to speak with the ladies on "Diva Hall" this week. We asked them to tell us a favorite Christmas gift or memory from their childhoods.

Barbara Buettner-Cullman
"I got a Pinocchio doll once. I must have been about 7 or 8. That was very exciting! It's probably still in my room somewhere."

Freida Boren- Hanceville
"Always a baby doll. I got one every year. We had a stocking and all that filled with all kinds of goodies and toys. We got fruit and candy."

Christine Wise-Holly Pond
"The first year I got a baby doll. I was probably about 11. We would get little games and candy. We didn't get as much as kids do today."

WEST POINT, Ala. – West Point High School recently saw three of its students return with superior ratings from the school's first trip to the state level Walter Trumbauer Secondary Theatre Festival at Troy University.

The students are:

• Carson Partain - solo male musical dramatic for "Music of the Night" from "Phantom of the Opera," and contemporary dramatic monologue for John Proctor's speech from "The Crucible"

• Caidyn McManus - solo female musical comedic for "100 Easy Ways to Lose a Man" from the musical "Wonderful Town"

• Dathan Campbell - solo male musical dramatic for "For Forever" from the musical "Dear Evan Hansen"

West Point High School Librarian and theater co-director Kimberly Harbison told The Tribune, "This year was the first time for anyone at our school to compete at the Trumbauer district and state festivals.

"Our students had a wonderful time competing in the arts, which is something new to them, and in doing so, they enjoyed seeing the performances of students from other schools in our district and from throughout the state. We look forward to continuing (and increasing) our participation in the Alabama Trumbauer Festival and other events like it over the coming years. Our main goal is to bring awareness of performing arts to our school and community and to provide our students with an additional outlet for performing and sharing their unique talents."

Boom (from Front)

christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – It was a nice Sunday afternoon when the family of Jaxson and Lauren Earwood came out to celebrate with the young couple. The Earwoods, expecting their first child, welcomed 75 family members to The Little White Room venue on Bolte Road in southeast Cullman, all of whom were anxious to find out if the bundle of joy would be a boy or a girl. Little did they all know that the baby's gender would be revealed to all of Cullman.

The "gender reveal" is a fairly recent cultural phenomenon, with expectant parents opting to find creative and entertaining ways to let everyone know if pink or blue is in their future.

"We had a small bucket of Tannerite," said dad-to-be Jaxson Earwood. "Then we put a cardboard box full of powder on top of it. Then we shot it with a shotgun and blew it up."

Added Lauren Earwood, "It's a legal explosive!"

At around 3 p.m. Sunday, calls and messages started coming into The Tribune asking, "What was that noise?!"

Tannerite is an explosive used in commercial blasting, product testing and special effects. The blast was heard, and even felt, by many in southeast Cullman. The Earwoods weren't frightened by the boom, but they soon learned others were quite concerned.

Said Jaxson Earwood, "We were expecting it, but the neighbors weren't."

Cullman Police Chief Kenny Culpepper said at the time that his department had dispatched an officer to try to locate the source of the boom.

Lauren Earwood continued, "I actually saw a police car drive by on one of the streets, but I didn't think anything of it. On our way home, a friend sent me a screen shot of someone who said there was a loud boom and I thought, 'Oh! OK, so I guess the cop was driving by because of that. That makes sense!'"

The "shot heard around Cullman" revealed that Jaxson and Lauren, from the north Walter community, are expecting a baby boy, whom they have named Foster Kole. Baby Foster is due May 21.

They said they haven't ruled out "Boomer" as a nickname.

"We definitely have a good story to tell him," laughed his mom.

When asked about future children gender reveal plans, Jaxson Earwood chuckled, "Probably not Tannerite. We'll probably just let the doctor tell us."

Adoption (from Front)

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Local 11-year-old Denna Chivers' heart is filled with love for animals, especially those at the Cullman County Animal Shelter. On Wednesday, she gave her fellow animal lovers a special Christmas gift.

"I'm paying for 10 adoptions for the dogs and cats at the animal shelter," she smiled.

Adoption fees at the shelter are $90 for dogs and $65 for cats, meaning Chivers spent between $650-$900 for her furry friends.

Chivers has built quite the reputation being a voice for the homeless pets of Cullman County. She holds an annual yard sale to raise funds for the shelter.

While this year's proceeds went to the 10 adoptions, last year she was able to purchase a covered pavilion and a picnic table for the shelter's outdoor facilities.

"I've always loved animals since I was very little; I've had them all my life and I just love them," she said. "I want the dogs and the cats to have a forever home for Christmas.

"I had a big yard sale this summer and I raised $3,000. I bought four big swamp coolers and then I had money left over and this is what I wanted to do."

This is not the first time Chivers has paid for adoptions.

"I've done a couple of adoptions before," she said, "but this is the biggest adoption I've done so far."

Chivers is a sixth grader at Cullman Christian School, where she also plays for the Lady Lions basketball team.

"I love to bake and sew and take care of my animals at home," she said.

Chivers has two cows, two chickens, two dogs and a cat.

She said she hopes to become a veterinarian when she grows up and her dream is to work with the famous Dr. Jan Pol, star of the TV show "The Incredible Dr. Pol."

Her mother, Beth Ann Chivers, shared, "She wrote a letter to Dr. Pol and received a hand-written letter from him back! She was very excited to have received that.

"Next summer she wants to go on a trip to 12 different animal shelters because she'll be 12 years old, and she wants to stop in Michigan at Dr. Pol's office. She wants to meet him."

"He's a veterinarian up in Michigan and he works on basically any animal you bring, from like an alligator to like a camel," the younger Chivers exclaimed.

"He'll even work on an elephant! He normally does farm animals, but he does other animals too."

Of her future, she said, "I want to keep doing it (raising money for the shelter) until I get older, because when I'm older I want to be a veterinarian. I want to work with Dr. Pol up in Michigan!"

Santa Claus with Cullman Fire Rescue
• Cullman Fire and Rescue has received word that Santa Claus will be in the city of Cullman Friday, Dec. 20 from 2-9 p.m. (weather permitting) and needs the fire department's help to check his list one more time!!!
• Cullman Fire will be taking Santa throughout the city with the help of the fire trucks. Santa's sleigh is small, quick and nimble, but the fire trucks are much, much bigger, therefore we will be avoiding all dead-end streets without turn arounds and cul-de-sacs and roads with limited accessibility for large vehicles. If you live on one of these streets please come to the end of the street to hopefully get a view of Santa.
• We will be visiting as many neighborhoods as possible and staying on "main roads" in most cases.
• Listen up for the sirens and look for the flashing lights so you know Santa is close! He will be in the front passenger seat, so be sure to be a good boy or girl and wave and smile big!
• PLEASE, ADULTS supervise all children and pets and keep clear of the roadways and approaching fire engines, Santa has a lot of children to see so the fire engine WILL NOT STOP and will be maintaining a steady pace to cover as much ground in our beautiful city as possible.
• CFR wants this to be an enjoyable and safe experience for everyone that we can continue for many years to come!
• Check the Cullman Fire Rescue Facebook page for updates about Santa's location and download the GLYMPSE app to Track Santa's location during his trip!

CULLMAN, Ala. – A Cullman County man died after falling from the roof of a 6-story apartment building while working in Birmingham Tuesday morning. The Jefferson County Coroner's Office (JCCO) Wednesday morning confirmed the death of Taylor Curtis Gray, 23.

Birmingham Police Sgt. Johnny Williams confirmed Gray died following a fall from a rooftop at 7901 First Ave. South. He said the Birmingham Police Department is investigating the fall as an accident.

The incident happened at the East Lake House Apartments. According to The Tribune's Birmingham news partners, WVTM 13, Gray was working with a plumbing company, working with pipes on the roof of the 6-story building, when he got too close to the edge and fell. He landed on a hard awning over the front door between the first and second floors. It happened a few minutes after 10 a.m. Gray was pronounced dead soon after.

A GoFundMe page has been set up for Gray's family. You can find it at www.gofundme.com/f/taylor-grays-family.

Vitamin D deficiency in pregnant women could preprogram babies to grow into obese children and adults, according to a new study, published in the journal Pediatric Obesity. Some 75 percent of U.S. teenagers and adults have too little vitamin D in their systems, according to a 2009 study. Deficiency in this "sunshine vitamin" has been linked to increased risk of heart disease, cancer, multiple sclerosis and Type 1 diabetes. A newborn's vitamin D status mostly depends on mom, so infants are at risk of vitamin D deficiency if their mothers are vitamin D deficient or are close to it.

Vitamin D deficiency in expectant mothers during pregnancy has a negative effect on the social development and motor skills of pre-school age children, a new study in the British Journal of Nutrition reports.

A new study suggests that antibiotics are being overused in up to 60 percent of patients undergoing common urological procedures. The study shows that the high rates of overuse were mostly due to extended use of antibiotics following the procedure. The findings were published in JAMA Network Open. It is common for patients undergoing a urological or any other surgical procedure to be given antibiotics as a precaution to prevent a surgery-related infection. But overuse of antibiotics can promote antibiotic resistance, which CDC has defined as a major health concern. Moreover, unnecessary use of antibiotics exposes patients to potential harm, such as an increased risk of infection by C. difficile bacteria. Based on evidence that a longer course of antibiotics does not add any benefit to patient outcomes and may in fact increase risks to patient health, the American Urological Association recommends that antibiotics should be given for no more than 24 hours following most urological procedures.

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

FAIRVIEW, Ala. – After stormy weather interrupted local hoops action Monday night, Tuesday night featured several local matchups including a meeting between the Fairview Aggies and the West Point Warriors. The Lady Warriors and Lady Aggies went back and forth for most of the night but West Point managed to pull away in the fourth quarter to win it 64-56 and the Warriors fell behind the Aggies 10-0 in the opening quarter but rallied to defeat Fairview 69-58. West Point will return home to host Hartselle on Thursday and Fairview will hit the road to take on Fultondale Friday.

West Point 64 – Fairview 56 (varsity girls)

The opening quarter between these teams was as tight as it gets. West Point and Fairview were both knotted at 17 at the start of the second quarter but the Lady Warriors were able to move in front 37-32 by halftime. The first half featured nine lead changes between both squads.

Micah and Miriam Oldacre each knocked down a three at the start of the third quarter to put West Point on top 43-32 but a three-pointer from Fairview's Payton Golden trimmed the lead to 46-38 midway through the period. Micah Oldacre and Brooke Brownfield answered with a pair of threes on the other end to make it a 53-42 game late in the third but a Maddie Yeager basket with 30 seconds in the quarter cut the Lady Warriors' lead to 53-46 at the start of the fourth.

A three-pointer from Ryleigh Jones stretched the West Point lead to 58-46 early in the fourth quarter but the Lady Aggies answered with a scoring run to chip away at the lead. A Morgan Lindsay basket made it 58-52 game with about four minutes to play and a pair of free throws from Daisy Manasco held the score to 60-54 late in the fourth. Lexi Shadix knocked down a pair of free throws with just 30 seconds to play to make it 62-54 and despite a quick score from Katie Ball on the other end, Fairview ran out of time and the Lady Warriors held on to win it 64-56.

Miriam Oldacre led West Point with 21 points in the win, followed by Shadix and Jones who each finished with 13 and Micah Oldacre with 10. Yeager led the Lady Aggies with 14 points, followed by Golden and Manasco with 11 and Molly McKelvy added nine in the loss.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Will Cochran (0) led the Warriors with 25 points in their 69-58 win at Fairview Tuesday night.

West Point 69 – Fairview 58 (varsity boys)

The Aggies jumped out to a big lead quickly in this one. An Austin Jackson three gave Fairview a 10-0 start in the first quarter and a pair of three-pointers from Preston Ryan, one coming at the buzzer, put the Aggies in front 20-7 at the end of the opening period.

However, West Point was able to rally and respond in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 20-12 early in the second with a Will Cochran basket. Cochran scored again with around four minutes to play in the half to trim the lead to 27-21 and the scoring run continued for the Warriors. Eventually, Mason Walls drilled a three-pointer late in the second quarter to give West Point its first lead of the game at 28-27 but Jackson was able to convert an and-one play at the free throw line with just over a minute to play in the second to tie the game at 30 going into the halftime break.

Kobe Bowers drilled a three to put the Warriors ahead 33-32 early in the third but an 8-2 scoring run by Fairview, capped off by a steal and layup from Dow Nichols, put the Aggies back in front 40-35 midway through the quarter. Tyler White knocked down a three for West Point on the other end to cut the lead to 44-40 late in the third quarter but a triple by Owen Yarbrough with less than a minute to play in the period put Fairview on top 47-44 going into the fourth.

The fourth quarter featured plenty of fouls and free throws and the Warriors were able to win in both categories. West Point made 16 of its 20 free throw attempts in the final frame and that ended up being the difference in the game, allowing the Warriors to pull away and win it 69-58.

Cochran led West Point with 25 points in the win, followed by White with 10, Walls and Logan Selby with eight Jonathan Fell with seven. Nichols led the way for the Aggies with 12 points in the loss, followed by Austin Turner with 12, Jackson with eight, Yarbrough with seven and Ryan with six.

VINEMONT, Ala. – Vinemont looked to recover at home against West End in Tuesday night hoops action after getting swept by J.B. Pennington last Thursday. They did just that as the Lady Eagles defeated the Lady Patriots 57-36 while the Eagles rolled to a 64-46 win over the Patriots.

Vinemont 57 - West End 36 (varsity girls)

The Vinemont Lady Eagles (3-11) quickly recovered from their loss last Thursday as they rolled past West End, 57-36, to move to 3-11 overall on the season. Sadie Stanley racked up 31 points for the Lady Eagles in the win. Bailey Preiss added nine points and Madysen Hacker chipped in with eight for Vinemont.

Vinemont 64 - West End 46 (varsity boys)

Vinemont had five players score in the first period but found itself tied at 11 after the opening period. A milestone happened during the second period when a Katch Johnson three gave him 1,000 points for his career at Vinemont.

The Eagles took the lead to start the period and started to stretch their lead as a Collin Teichmiller three made it a 19-11 score. West End later cut into the deficit as they made it a 21-16 game, but Vinemont took over after that as they went on a 11-2 run to end the first half, six of those points by Tanner Brown, and Johnson and Curtis Kennedy each added a three, and they took a 32-18 lead into the locker room.

Another Johnson trey increased the Eagle lead to 35-18 to start out the third period, but West End made it a 37-25 game after a 7-2 run, and to 40-30 after five in a row.

Colby Miller stopped the run with a three and Kennedy scored three in a row to push the lead to 46-30, but the Patriots scored the final seven points of the quarter to cut the Vinemont to 46-37 going into the final period.

West End made it a 48-40 game with 6:49 remaining in the game, but the Eagles didn't let them get any closer than eight the rest of the way as they answered any runs by the Patriots with some of their own and wound up taking the game 64-46.

Johnson led Vinemont (5-10) with 16 points. Brown added 11 points, Colby Miller ended up with 10 points, Kennedy added eight, Teichmiller finished with seven, Jordan Hall and Clay Rogers each added five and Lucas Miller chipped in with two.

In trial 4, Jack Wilson convicted of assault

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – A Cullman County jury returned a guilty verdict against Jack Harold Wilson, 74, of Bremen Wednesday during his fourth trial appearance in the shooting of his neighbor. Originally charged with attempted murder and previously acquitted of that charge, Wilson was convicted of first-degree assault.

Wilson was arrested in May 2015 on charges stemming from a shooting at his home on Cold Springs Road (County Road 109) in Bremen. Wilson shot neighbor John Bentley during a dispute over a property line, claiming self-defense and saying that Bentley had attempted to run over him with the tractor he was driving at the time of the altercation.

Wilson's first trial ended in a mistrial when he reported a medical issue, and he was subsequently hospitalized. He was acquitted of attempted murder in the second trial, but deliberations ended in a hung jury on the assault charge. The third trial on the assault charge ended in mistrial after an early prosecution witness inadvertently made reference to the previous trial, which was not permitted.

Details of this week's trial were not immediately available. According to court records, Wilson is in jail pending sentencing.

CULLMAN, Ala. – A Cullman County jury on Wednesday found Jason Allen McCurry, 41, of Russellville not guilty on all charges in a 2016 sex abuse case involving a child younger than 12.

McCurry was indicted in October 2016 on charges of sexual abuse of a child under 12, first-degree sodomy and enticing a child for immoral purposes, all felonies, for incidents authorities alleged occurred prior to the alleged victim's 12th birthday in 2015.

Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) investigators arrested McCurry after an investigation that began when McCurry's alleged victim came forward and reported the incident to the CCSO.

He was indicted by a grand jury a short time later.

No further details of the trial were immediately available.

"I got a little doll. A porcelain doll. I was 14 and I loved that doll. I still have her. I didn't name her, but I was real proud of her. She had on a little pink dress and a bonnet. I received a lot of things when I was younger, but that really is something that stands out."
