HUMAN TRAFFICKING TASK FORCE

Human Trafficking Awareness Month: What is labor trafficking?

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The popular image of human trafficking typically involves the forced abduction of young women to be transported across national lines into lives of coerced prostitution. While this does happen, one very common form of human trafficking does not involve sex at all. The victim, instead, is picking produce on a farm, washing clothes and dishes, or manufacturing goods.

Cullman County Human Trafficking Task Force Chairperson Kathy Wilson told The Tribune, "Labor trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery in which individuals perform labor or services through the use of force, fraud or coercion. Labor trafficking includes debt bondage (requiring a person to work for the trafficker to pay off debts), forced labor and involuntary child labor."

Victims are often made to work excessive hours with little or no pay, under unsafe or unhealthy conditions, subjected to unfair and illegal labor practices.

Involuntary servitude is the biggest and most common form of labor trafficking in the world, according to the U.S. State Department. This can include agricultural work, manufacturing, janitorial services, hotel services, construction and hair and nail salons. Labor trafficking occurs in numer- » PAGE 8

'Has-Beens' claim 1st Sizzlin' Senior beanbag baseball victory

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – The Sizzlin' Seniors of Good Hope met Tuesday for pizza, popsicles, bingo and another spirited game of beanbag baseball. After fueling up on food and drink, the trash-talking Sizzlin' Ladies faced off against the men of the hopeless Has-Beens. The winless Has-Beens knew that to put a stop to what one team member called "HER-assment," winning was the only option.

The Sizzlin' Ladies were up first, and although they failed to score, that did not curtail the sass at all! In fact, the chatter escalated as the Has-Beens came to bat. Three up- three down! It looked like another embarrassing day for the Bad News Has-Beens.

The big hitters were up for the Sizzlin' Ladies in the second inning and they jumped out to an early 2-0 lead, but the Has-Beens showed some signs of life in the bottom of the inning. With the score 2-1, the game took a weird turn. It seemed as though it was a battle of the most stranded. Both teams took turns filling the bases only to choke under pressure. It was a low-scoring affair for sure!

Those heckling ladies finally put together a » PAGE 5

Vinemont proclaims Human Trafficking Awareness Month, talks voting precinct

Christy Perry

VINEMONT, Ala. – The Vinemont Town Council at its meeting Tuesday night joined municipalities across Cullman County in proclaiming January Human Trafficking Awareness Month.

"If we see something that could be questionable," said Mayor Radginal Dodson, "make sure you get in touch with local law enforcement."

The council also passed an ordinance relocating its voting precinct for municipal elections from town hall to the Vinemont Community Center (old Scout House).

It had previously moved the voting precinct to the community center for all other elections.

The Alabama Primary will be March 3, 2020. The next municipal election is set for Aug. 25, 2020.

Facility improvements at the Vinemont Sports Complex are nearing completion just in time for baseball and softball sign-ups.

Registration begins Friday, Jan. 17 and runs through Feb. 21.

Kids ages 3-12 are eligible to sign up. Registration can be completed online at www.townofsouthvinemont.com or at Vinemont Town Hall.

Plans are in the works for a 2020 Census event April 11 at the community center.

The Town will provide food, bouncy houses and other activities.

Volunteers will be on hand to help in the process.

The council approved two bill payments, the first to Larry Cooke for audit services.

Cooke was scheduled to present the audit findings at Tuesday night's meeting but was unable to attend due to illness.

The second was a payment for the Town's municipal workers compensation bill.

The Vinemont Town Council meets the second Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m. at Vinemont Town Hall.

A study published in the Journal of the American Geriatrics Society has found a link between pneumonia in older people and Proton-pump inhibitors (PPIs), a group of medicines commonly used to neutralize stomach acid in people with heartburn or stomach ulcers. Approximately 40 percent of older adults receive PPIs, although according to some experts, up to 85 percent of people who receive PPI prescriptions may not need them. Once thought to be relatively harmless, PPIs have more recently been linked to increased rates for certain health concerns like fractures, cardiovascular disease and some bacterial infections. The association between PPI use and pneumonia was studied because stomach acid is a barrier to infections spreading from the gut in people with stomach reflux.

A new study published in the Journal of the National Cancer Institute finds that higher circulating vitamin D concentrations are significantly associated with lower colorectal cancer risk. This study strengthens the evidence, previously considered inconclusive, for a protective relationship. Optimal vitamin D concentrations for colorectal cancer prevention may be higher than the current National Academy of Medicine recommendations, which are based only on bone health.

Long-term use of antidepressants is associated with a sustained increase in risk of weight gain over at least five years, finds a study published in The BMJ. The findings show that patients prescribed any of the 12 most commonly used antidepressants were more likely to experience weight gain than those not taking the drugs. The risk was greatest during the second and third years of treatment.

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – After the Lady Bearcats edged Hartselle in a double overtime thriller on the road last week and the Bearcats lost a tough one to the Tigers late, Cullman returned home Tuesday to host an areas showdown against Decatur. The Lady Bearcats got things started by blowing past Decatur 61-24 and the Bearcats maintained control from wire to wire in their 69-50 win over the Red Raiders. Cullman will be on the road Thursday night to take on Arab.

Cullman 61 – Decatur 24 (varsity girls)

The Lady Bearcats got off to a quick, 4-0 start in the opening period and a bucket from Reagan Quattlebaum made it a 6-2 game at the six-minute mark of the first. Five straight points from Jaden Winfrey stretched the early lead to 12-2 midway through the quarter and a three-pointer from Quattlebaum made it 16-4 with just over two minutes to play in the period.

AK Eastman knocked down a pair of free throws with 30 seconds remaining in the first quarter to give Cullman a 21-4 advantage going into the second.

Eastman stayed hot in the second quarter, scoring the first seven points of the period for the Lady Bearcats to give them a 30-9 lead with under five minutes to play in the opening half.

Winfrey netted a couple free throws late in the second to make it a 36-12 game and Cullman went into the locker room with a daunting, 39-17 lead at the break.

An Alexandria Barker basket stretched the lead to 41-17 at the start of the third quarter and buckets from Quattlebaum and Eastman made it a 49-17 game at the five-minute mark.

Ava McSwain scored off a steal late in the third to add to the Cullman lead and another triple from Quattlebaum gave the Lady Bearcats a 57-22 lead going into the final frame.

A three from Eastman made it 60-22 early in the fourth and with the clock running, Cullman pulled away to win it easily, 61-24.

Eastman led the Lady Bearcats with 19 points in the win.

Winfrey and Quattlebaum each posted 12, Barker finished with six and Hannah Hoffman and Sidney Smith both added three.

Cullman 69 – Decatur 50 (varsity boys)

Noah Bussman's first three-pointer of the night gave Cullman an early, 5-2 lead over Decatur and a spinning layup from Jayden Sullins made it 9-2 later in the opening quarter.

A bucket from Max Gambrill made it an 11-4 game midway through the first and the Bearcats maintained a 15-9 advantage with two minutes to play in the period.

A Bussman three gave Cullman an 18-11 lead with a minute to play in the quarter and the 'Cats went into the second holding onto a 7-point lead.

Max Gambrill drilled a three of his own to stretch the lead to 23-13 early in the second quarter and Bussman added another one from behind the line to make it 28-15 Bearcats with five minutes remaining in the half.

Jace Goolsby layed one in to give Cullman a 34-19 advantage with two minutes to play in the second and the 'Cats went into the locker room at halftime with a 36-24 lead over the Red Raiders.

Tucker Gambrill started the second half with a three-pointer to extend the Cullman lead to 39-26 and midway through the third quarter.

Another Sullins basket followed by Bussman's fourth triple of the game made it a 48-34 game.

Bussman then added his fifth three-pointer of the night to add to the Cullman lead and a Sullins layup in the final seconds of the period gave the 'Cats a 53-38 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Bussman drilled back to back three-point shots to open the fourth quarter for Cullman, bringing his total on the night to seven and stretching the lead to 59-41.

Four straight points from Nic Glass gave the Bearcats a 19-point lead with just over a minute to play and Decatur couldn't continue to chip away.

The 'Cats held on to collect the area win over the Red Raiders 69-50.

Bussman led Cullman with 23 points in the win, 21 of which came on seven made three-pointers. Sullins and Max Gambrill each finished with 13 for the Bearcats, Tucker Gambrill added five and Kaleb Heatherly posted four.

Tim Hudson named Auburn baseball pitching coach

George Nunnelley
AU Athletics

AUBURN, Ala. – Former Auburn great and 17-year MLB veteran Tim Hudson has been named the volunteer assistant and pitching coach for the Auburn baseball program, head coach Butch Thompson announced Tuesday.

"Tim has already impacted Auburn baseball, Auburn University and our community enough to last a lifetime," Thompson said. "But amazing people always seem to have more to give, and that couldn't be more true for Tim and Kim Hudson.

"I've never been more excited for our current pitchers and future recruits to be able to learn from one of the best competitors of all time," Thompson added. "I believe Tim's experience makes Auburn the premier pitching development experience in amateur baseball. Adding Tim to the mix with Chris Joyner, Anthony Sandersen and Blake Logan will form an elite group of teachers."

As a whole, Auburn's coaching staff has not only made nine trips to the College World Series, but also has a combined 62 years of experience in professional baseball, including 32 years at the major league level.

In two years on The Plains, Hudson turned in the best two-way season in program history and helped lead the team to the College World Series. During the 1997 season, the Columbus, Georgia, native posted a 15-2 record with a 2.97 ERA and 165 strikeouts while also hitting .396 with 18 home runs and 95 RBI. Hudson led the NCAA in wins while his strikeout total was the highest in the SEC. He went on to be named the 1997 Rotary Smith Award winner, First Team All-America and the SEC Player of the Year.

"I appreciate Coach Thompson for giving me the opportunity to join the great coaching staff at Auburn baseball," Hudson said. "I'm thrilled to have the chance to work with these young men and help them build on a successful and memorable 2019 season.

"There's no doubt that we have a great pitching staff, and I'll do my best to get to know each of those pitchers to help them be as successful as they can be, both on and off the field," Hudson added. "I'm excited about getting started, and I'm grateful for this chance to rejoin the Auburn baseball family. I can't wait to put that Auburn uniform on again."

Following his Auburn career, Hudson was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the sixth round of the 1997 MLB Draft and went on to spend 17 years in the big leagues with Oakland (1999-2004), Atlanta (2005-13) and San Francisco (2014-15). He posted a 222-133 career record with a 3.49 ERA, was a four-time MLB All-Star and won a World Series.

Hudson also finished fifth in the Rookie of the Year race in 1999, placed in the top six of Cy Young voting on four occasions and was named the 2010 Comeback Player of the Year with Atlanta.

Hudson, who was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2018, ranked ninth in wins, 17th in innings pitched and 30th in wins above replacement among qualified major league pitchers during his time with the club. His .611 win percentage is the third-best mark in Braves history, and he ranks fifth in the organization in wins (113), ERA (3.56), strikeouts (997) and innings pitched (1,573.0). At the time of his Braves Hall of Fame induction, the right-hander was one of only 21 pitchers in MLB history to win at least 200 games, post 2,000 strikeouts and have a .600-or-higher career winning percentage.

Hudson also went on to be inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the 50th anniversary class in 2018.

Mentoring program for fatherless boys coming to Cullman

Brian Burchett
Contributor

CULLMAN, Ala. – Truth in Nature, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, will begin running outdoor mentorship and ministry programs for fatherless boys in Cullman and the surrounding communities in February. Truth in Nature's newest chapter will hold its first program Saturday, Feb. 22. During this program boys and mentors will come together to enjoy a day of hiking and nature exploration. Boys will learn all about the outdoors and spend time getting to know the mentors, while being exposed to the Christian faith.

Founded in 2009 in Dallas, Georgia, Truth in Nature has grown to reach, inspire, support and engage young men from fatherless homes in 14 different locations across six states.

With the newest chapter now ready to begin operations in Cullman, Brian Burchett, a resident of Cullman, will be leading the efforts as program director.

"We are excited about the opportunity to engage fatherless boys in the community with local mentors to make a difference in their life," said Burchett.

The Truth in Nature programs are free of charge for these young men after registration paperwork has been completed.

Programs are open to boys who are middle and high school aged and being raised in a fatherless / single-parent home.

Interested participants and their single parents, as well as men wanting to learn more about mentoring can contact Burchett at brian.burchett@truthinnature.org.

Burrow Museum to present free screening of 'Community First, a Home for the Homeless' Feb. 4

Gail Crutchfield
WSCC

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Evelyn Burrow Museum at Wallace State Community College will present a free screening of "Community First, a Home for the Homeless," Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 6 p.m. in the Burrow Center Recital Hall.

One of a series of films from the Southern Circuit Tour of Independent Films, "Community First, a Home for the Homeless," is a documentary about a unique residential development in Austin, Texas, that is transforming the lives of homeless people through the power of community. As explained by founder Alan Graham, "It is specifically designed to lift the chronically homeless off the streets of the Austin area offering them a place to call home, helping them to heal from the ravages of life on the streets allowing them to rediscover a purpose in their lives."

Community First! Village is not a homeless shelter. Everybody pays rent; there are no exceptions. Residents are given the opportunity to earn a dignified income working at the Village in a variety of areas such as the Genesis Gardens, the Community Cinema (a beautiful amphitheater built by Alamo Drafthouse), the Community Inn, or in the maintenance department. With open access to an "art house" and blacksmith shop, residents get the opportunity to produce handmade goods that are sold in the Community Market.

"Community First, A Home for the Homeless" explores the heartbreaking events that cause homelessness, and the heartwarming stories of being welcomed into a nurturing environment where dignity and self-worth are restored.

Filmmaker Layton Blaylock will be on hand to introduce the film and answer questions after the screening.

The film is one of three final films in a six-film series that began in Fall 2019. The last two films in the series will be "Mossville: When Great Trees Fall" on March 10 and "Who Will Write Our History," on April 21. All the films are free and open to the public.

For more information, visit www.burrowmuseum.org or call 256-352-8457.

Victory (from Front)

string of hits that put them up 4-1 late in the game! Then, Jerry "Wild Thang" Bartlett came to the line and his hit not only scored a run, but it also helped the Has-Beens discover their beanbag mojo.

Bartlett performed his famous "Wild Thang Wiggle" as he made his way to third after his clutch triple. The men staged a comeback that made Good Hope Sizzlin' Senior history. Well, they tied it up at least.

This game was headed to extra innings! The ladies filled the bases and looked poised to take the lead, but with a strike out for out 3, the Has-Beens had a chance. With one runner on, Gary "Popeye" White focused on the target. He tossed the beanbag and bullseye! HOMERUN!

White and the Has-Beens celebrated his walk-off homer and first victory. As for the Sizzlin' Ladies, at least for now, the chatter has ceased!

Check out the Good Hope Sizzlin' Seniors and join in on the fun every second and fourth Tuesday starting at 9 a.m. in the basement of Good Hope City Hall.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Republican Party will host its annual dinner and silent auction Thursday, Jan. 23 at 6 p.m. Tickets for the event, which will be held at Loft 212 in downtown Cullman, are $50 each or $400 for a table. Ticket sales end this Friday, Jan. 17. Tickets can be purchased from Cullman County Republican Women Chairwoman Jacqueline Schendel by calling 256-708-3549. The dinner will be catered by Designs by Grace, and guests will hear from area leaders as well as U.S. Senate candidates.

The dinner and auction raise money for the Cullman County Republican Party's general fund, according to Chairman Steve Cummings. It's also a time for the candidates to speak to their constituents.

"The event is just an open mic for the candidates, not a debate, with no questions from a moderator," said Cummings. "Due to time restraints and logistics, we ask no questions from the audience."

The group expects at least three candidates to attend, and hopes for more.

"U.S. Senate candidates Bradley Byrne, Stanley Adair and Arnold Mooney have confirmed," said Cummings.

"Tommy Tuberville had a schedule conflict and won't be able to make it, but he's sending a special video message that we'll play at the event. (We're) still waiting to get solid confirmation from both (former) Senator Jeff Sessions and (former) Judge Roy Moore."

Awards will also be given out at the event.

"We will also be awarding our yearly awards for Outstanding Elected Official, Outstanding man/woman/youth Volunteers and our Republican Legacy Award winner," said Cummings. "I'll be the emcee, along with Jacqueline Schendel."

Auction items will include "Make America Great Again" hats autographed by President Donald Trump and a Trump-inspired acoustic guitar.

'This is the future of growing'

Agriplex's Living Landscapes features hydroponic gardening

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The North Alabama Agriplex talked hydroponic gardening this week, welcoming Cullman County Master Gardener Michael Weems to its Living Landscapes program. In his "Hydroponics- the How and Why" class, Weems taught attendees the basics of constructing and maintaining a hydroponic growing system for vegetables and herbs.

Weems, said Agriplex Director Rachel Dawsey, constructed the Agriplex's own hydroponics garden.

Weems said a basic hydroponics build for home gardeners can be achieved for around $100.

"This is the future of growing," he said.

"Hydroponics is the process of growing plants in sand, gravel or liquid with added nutrients without soil."

Weems said he prefers natural fertilizers and nutrients, sharing, "I really want to be as close with nature as I can be."

In particular, he spoke of the Kratky method of hydroponics, in which gardeners can grow vegetables and herbs in pots suspended above reservoirs of water and nutrients.

Weems said advantages of hydroponic gardening include:

- No weeding, mulching or tilling are required.
- Doing away with soil does away 50% of pest problems.
- It uses a mineral nutrient solution with water being the solvent.
- The nutrient uptake process is more efficient.
- Easy control of the proper PH and nutrients needed for plant growth
- It uses 20% less water and less space.
- You can grow year-round (if growing indoors).
- The technique is easy to understand, easy to learn and does require prior knowledge.
- Concrete results are achieved quickly.

Living Landscapes is a monthly educational program for adults offering information on sustainability in your backyard. Register at www.agriplex.org. Programs are $5 per person.

Those interested can call 256-297-1044 for more information. The next Living Landscapes program will be "Seed Swap and Best Southern Varieties" Feb. 4 from 6-8 p.m.

The Agriplex is located at 1714 Talley Ho St., Cullman.

Expansion (from Front)

Lindsey P. Dossey
Cullman Regional

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Health Care Authority of Cullman County/ Cullman Regional Board of Directors announced Wednesday the Alabama State Health Planning & Development Agency has approved the Certificate of Need (CON) for the $30 million expansion project announced by Cullman Regional in June 2019. The expansion will increase the capacity of the Critical Care Unit (CCU) by 50%, increase the capacity of the Emergency Department by 50% and reduce the usage of semi-private rooms throughout the facility.

"We appreciate the Alabama Certificate of Need Board for their unwavering support of this project," Board Chair Beth Anderson said. "Cullman Regional continues to see a growing number of patients through the Emergency Department.

"Last year, the ER provided care for nearly 50,000 patients in a facility built to care for up to 40,000 annually. Many of these patients are sicker and require a higher-level of care which is provided best in our Critical Care Unit. Therefore, we need a solution that allows more critically-ill patients access to critical care beds more quickly."

The expansion plans include:

- Increase the number of CCU beds from 12 to 18
- Expand the current emergency room facility from 21 exam rooms and three behavioral health treatment rooms to 30 exam rooms and eight behavioral health treatment rooms
- Create an Outpatient Behavioral Health Program
- Hospital-wide infrastructure upgrades to accommodate the additional capacity

"In order for us to more effectively and efficiently provide care for all patients coming to us for treatment, these upgrades to our current facility are necessary," Cullman Regional CEO James Clements said.

"Particularly the need for more effective treatment options for our behavioral health patients. We are eager to find a solution that provides long-term, sustainable care to behavioral health patients in our community."

Cullman Regional's Emergency Department provided medical care to more than 1,000 behavioral health patients in 2018. Caring for behavioral health patients is a national, state and local issue that is not unique to Cullman County. Cullman Regional's goal with the Outpatient Behavioral Health Program is to provide care for patients in our community that consistently face barriers to receiving behavioral health care.

As the project progresses, the hospital will continue to share updates about what this specifically looks like for our community.

The overall facility will receive an infrastructure upgrade in order to accommodate the additional capacity. The infrastructure upgrade will include the expansion of the onsite power plant by approximately 1,100 square feet, replacement of the cooling towers, addition of two new chillers, addition of new elevator controls and modification of the remaining two service elevators to allow them to access all levels of the hospital.

"The administrative team began reducing the use of semi-private rooms in the fourth quarter of 2018 and has only utilized them during high-census periods, when more patients are being admitted.

"By reallocating those beds and expanding our ICU, we will be able to care for more critically-ill patients."

The benefits of the expansion include:

- Reduction in semi-private room usage house wide
- Expansion of emergency room capacity from 40,000 to 60,000 annually
- Better access to the highest level of care for the sickest patients
- Better access to outpatient behavioral health treatment for our community
- Upgrade existing infrastructure to make it more sustainable for the future

The board facilities committee anticipates construction will begin in the third quarter of 2020. Phase 1 of construction will include the expansion of the Emergency Department; Phase 2 will include infrastructure improvements and Phase 3 will be the addition of the critical care beds which will be a ground floor to fourth floor expansion of the west units of the current facility.

Trafficking (from Front)

ous industries in the U.S. and globally. In the U.S., the most common types of labor trafficking include people forced to work in homes as domestic servants, farmers coerced through violence as they harvest crops, or factory workers held in inhumane conditions.

Traffickers lure their victims by manipulating and exploiting their vulnerabilities, often beginning with offers of benefit or a better life, but leading to coercion through several means:

- use of force
- threats of violence to victims or their families
- confinement or restriction of movement
- withholding of most or all of the worker's pay
- seizing and holding legal documents
- threatening to reveal immigration status

Recent Alabama case

In April 2019, Alabama Attorney General Steve Marshall shut down four massage parlors in Huntsville owned by a mother and daughter who are Chinese nationals.

In addition to the sex trafficking charges that are often associated with commercial massage parlors (as opposed to therapeutic massage facilities operated by trained and licensed providers), the owners could face additional legal troubles. According to a press release, Marshall's legal complaint included a statement that "In the Defendants' organization, the 'employees' work incredibly long hours during which at least some of them are expected to engage in sex acts with the businesses' customers.

"When the victims are not 'working,' they seem to have little freedom of movement, they are transported in groups to and from the Defendants' businesses and are kept in houses owned by the Defendants where they are left to eat and sleep in terrible conditions."

Under this description, the owners face allegations of both sex trafficking and labor trafficking.

Fair trade

Labor trafficking victims make a high number of goods and food products consumed in the U.S.

Wilson said, "We should educate ourselves on these type products and support those companies who are Fair Trade companies. Fair Trade promotes the buying and selling of products that makes certain that the people who produce them receive a fair wage."

Some of the most used everyday products may be produced by child labor in other countries.

Examples are coffee, sugar, cell phones, gold, chocolate, clothing, toys, makeup, leather and many other goods.

The U.S. Department of Labor has identified 148 goods from 76 countries made by forced and child labor.

"Know before you buy," said Wilson.

The International Labor Organization estimates that there are 20.1 million people trapped in forced labor around the world. Since 2007, the National Human Trafficking Hotline, operated by Polaris Project, has received reports of more than 7,800 labor trafficking cases inside the U.S.
