Mr. Hicks Mens Wear set to celebrate 26 years

Maggie Darnell
maggie@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Since June 1994, Mr. Hicks Mens Wear has been in business under the helm of owner Phillip Hicks.

"Cullman was home for us. I was raised here in Cullman; my wife was raised in Cullman," said Hicks. "We actually spent some time in Montgomery and our children were both born in Montgomery, but we always intended for Cullman to be their home and so that was a part of looking to buy a business when we came back; it was to be able to raise our children and raise a family here in Cull- » PAGE 4

Pet of the Week: Don't leave Han flying Solo!

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Animal Shelter's Donna Ruttkay shares The Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week:

"He's Han Solo. The owner who had to surrender him called him Hans, but we're keeping you 'Star Wars' fans happy, so come and adopt him! This is the pet you're looking for!"

Han is a 1.5-year-old Lab/flat-coated retriever mix. He's a lively medium- to high-energy companion who's great on his leash, has good spatial awareness and loves to explore outdoor spaces. He also gets along well with other dogs.

Han Solo has the makings of a good companion, therapy or outdoor recreation/hiking dog.

Like his namesake, he's a lovable rogue who will steal your heart!

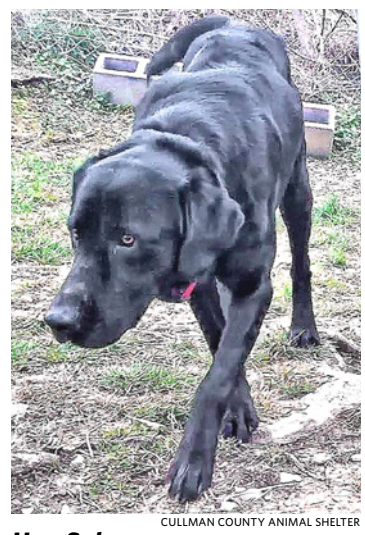

Han's adoption fee is $100 which includes: DHLPP vaccine, Bordetella vaccines, rabies vaccine, wormer, general exam at the vet, neutering, microchip, free 30-day health insurance policy issued by 24PetWatch (with valid email only) and a free bag of food (We've been told that he especially likes things that are Chewie!) from Cullman Pet Depot (you must pay sales tax).

Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking on a leash and practicing good behavior.

Several of the shelter's canine friends have even been "hired" to work as therapy and special needs service dogs.

Please consider adopting, to give a rescued pet a chance at a happy and healthy life.

Contact the Cullman County Animal Shelter at 256-734-5448 or cullmancountyanimalshelter@gmail.com. Visit the shelter at 935 Convent Road NE.

PREP BASKETBALL

West Point sweeps Broncos, Lady Broncos on the road

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HOLLY POND, Ala. – Friday was senior night at Holly Pond High School and there were several cheerleaders and Bronco basketball players to recognize in front of their home crowd but on the court, the night belonged to West Point. The Lady Warriors blew past Holly Pond 73-35 while the Warriors held off a late run from the Broncos win 67-63. The Broncos will travel to New Hope next week for their area tournament while the Lady Broncos stay home to host theirs. The Lady Warriors will return home to host their area tournament next and the Warriors will head to Hamilton.

West Point 73 – Holly Pond 35 (varsity girls)
A layup from Micah Oldacre gave the Lady Warriors an early 6-2 advantage and a bucket by Lexi Shadix made it 12-5 midway through the period. Elizabeth Miller scored to trim the lead to 14-7 with just over two minutes to play in the opening quarter. Holly Pond seized some momentum at the end of the first and a three-pointer from Sarah Finley cut the lead to 14-12 going into the second quarter.

Shadix and Miriam Oldacre both scored to stretch the lead to 20-14 early in the second and the run continued for the Lady Warriors. Molly Pendley scored inside to make it a 29-19 game midway through the quarter and Mendoza and Pendley each buried threes to extend the lead to 35-19. Micah Oldacre buried back to back threes to make it a 41-21 game and after Sheridan Bowers drilled a three at the buzzer, West Point went into the halftime break with a 46-24 lead.

Kennedy Twilley laid one in to make it 52-26 early in the third but Micah Oldacre responded with another trey on the other end to put the Lady Warriors up 57-26 with five minutes to play in the quarter. A steal and layup by Brooke Brownfield extended the lead to 61-26 midway through the period and Shadix converted an and-one play to make it 64-26. West Point led the way 66-28 at the end of the third quarter and with the clock running in the fourth, pulled away to win it 73-35.

Micah Oldacre led the Lady Warriors with 17 points in the win. Shadix added 13, Pendley posted 11, Miram Oldacre scored eight, Bowers put up seven and Braelee Quinn and Ryleigh Jones each finished with five. Finley led Holly Pond with 10 points in the loss, followed by Miller with six and Kaylee Stallings and Tate Duke with five.

West Point 67 – Holly Pond 63 (varsity boys)
Jordan Allbright buried a three from the right corner to give Holly Pond a 3-0 lead right out of the gate but back to back buckets by Tyler Thompson pushed the Warriors ahead 4-3. Will Cochran scored inside to stretch the lead to 9-3 midway through the first quarter, but the Broncos clawed their way back before the start of the second. Allbright finished an and-one play to cut the lead to six and Parker Sellers drilled a three in the final 30 seconds of the period to make it a 14-12 game going into the second quarter.

A Jayden Perkins basket tied the game at 15 early in the second but West Point was able to put together a 7-0 run and move back in front 22-15 midway through the period. Buckets from Allbright and Kyler Chaney trimmed the lead to 22-19 late in the second quarter and after another Warriors run gave them a 28-20 lead late in the half, Back to back baskets by Chaney and a pair of free throws from Allbright brought Holly Pond within one at the halftime break.

Chaney scored again to keep the Broncos within one early in the third but an and-one play by Cochran and a layup from Sam Wheeler gave West Point a 39-32 lead with five minutes to play in the period. Two more buckets from Thompson made it 47-36 late in the third quarter but after another Chaney basket and a three-pointer from Levi Boatright, Holly Pond trailed by just five going into the final frame.

Shannon Kitchens knocked down a three to cut the lead to two at the start of the fourth quarter and Casey Brown followed him with back to back triples to put the Broncos on top 52-48 early in the period. The Warriors were able to build a 4-point lead midway through the fourth, but a Chaney layup trimmed it to two. Allbright knocked down a technical free throw to tie the game at 61 with less than two minutes remaining on the clock but back to back steals and layups by Cochran gave West Point a 65-61 lead. Tyler White drilled a pair of free throws to make it a 6-point game with 30 seconds to play and the Warriors held on to win it on the road 67-63.

Thompson led West Point with 20 points in the win, followed by Cochran with 18 and Kobe Bowers and White with 10. Chaney led all scores with 31 points in the win. Allbright posted 13 and Brown finished with six.

Auburn caps historic day with 75-66 win over Kentucky

AUBURN, Ala. – AUTLIVE. College Gameday. Kentucky. It was only fitting that No. 17 Auburn capped a historic Saturday on the Plains with a 75-66 win over the 13th-ranked Wildcats in front of a packed house at Auburn Arena.

The Tigers took a 62-60 lead when Danjel Purifoy knocked down a corner 3 with 3:59 left in the second half, and from that point on, it was all Auburn. Isaac Okoro hit a clutch step-back 3. Austin Wiley grabbed an offensive rebound and put it back in. And Samir Doughty iced the game by knocking down four straight free throws in the final minute.

For Auburn, it was the program's second-straight win over Kentucky and the fourth win in the last seven games against the Wildcats dating back to 2016.

Doughty led the Tigers with 23 points. The senior guard was 14 of 15 from the free-throw line and scored 16 of his 23 points in the first half.

For Doughty, the team's leading scorer coming in, it was his 16th game in double figures and sixth with 20 or more points this season.

Okoro, the lone freshman in Auburn's starting lineup, showed the stage wasn't too big for him with 11 of his 14 points in the final seven minutes of regulation.

He knocked down two 3s during that stretch and also made five free throws to help the Tigers pull away.

As a team, Auburn made 33 of its 44 free-throw attempts Saturday.

Auburn also dominated on the glass thanks in large part to Wiley, who recorded his eighth double-double of the season with 12 points and a team-high 10 rebounds.

The final rebounding tally was 42-28 in favor of the Tigers who turned 17 offensive boards into 17 second-chance points. Wiley alone pulled down seven offensive rebounds.

Purifoy made it four Auburn players in double figures as he finished with 11 points and made 3 of his 6 shots from beyond the arc. The senior has now made three or more 3s in eight games this season, and the Tigers are 8-0 in those games.

Senior point guard J'Von McCormick scored only four points, but he grabbed five rebounds and dished out four assists to just one turnover against the Wildcats.

The win moves Auburn (19-2, 6-2) into a tie for second in the SEC with Kentucky.

The program also kept their perfect record in AUTLIVE games intact.

The initiative started five years ago with Pearl to help raise the awareness of cancer prevention and detection, and since that first game in 2016, the Tigers are now 5-0 in AUTLIVE games.

Next up for Auburn is a road trip to Arkansas on Tuesday. The game is scheduled to tip off at 6 p.m. CT and will be televised on SEC Network.

Alabama comes up short in back-and-forth battle against Arkansas, 82-78

Aaron Jordan
UA Athletics

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Despite a big offensive performance by freshman guard Jaden Shackelford, the Alabama men's basketball team fell short against Arkansas, 82-78, on Saturday night in Coleman Coliseum. The loss snapped the Crimson Tide's eight-game home winning streak and marked the first time the Crimson Tide has lost back-to-back games since late November when it dropped the first two games in the Battle 4 Atlantis.

It was announced shortly before tipoff that Alabama (12-9, 4-4 SEC) would be without two of its key players in team captain in Herbert Jones and graduate senior Beetle Bolden. Jones, who is the team's top defensive player and was averaging 9.9 points and 6.4 rebounds in 19 games this season, fractured his wrist against LSU and is out indefinitely. Bolden, the team's only senior and is averaging 8.4 points and 2.0 rebounds a contest, missed his second consecutive game due to an illness. Combined, Jones and Bolden averaged 18.3 points and 8.4 rebounds per game.

Alabama freshman Jaden Shackelford led the team with 28 points on 11-of-22 shooting from the field, including five three-pointers, to tie his season set his season high in both shots made and attempted. It marked his second consecutive game and his third of the season scoring 20 or more points.

Junior Alex Reese finished with 14 points, notching two treys and a pair of blocks. Sophomore Kira Lewis Jr. added 12 points and three assists, while redshirt freshman Javian Davis added 11 points and a game-high three blocked shots.

Arkansas was led by Mason Jones who finished with 30 points, along with Jimmy Whitt Jr. who tallied 26 points on the night.

Coach Nate Oats Postgame Comments
"Tough loss. I mean, we fought for a while. We just couldn't get it together defensively in the second half. I thought our defense kind of disappeared in the second half. We just weren't good enough to win the game. With having a short rotation, it was tough, but I definitely don't want to use that as an excuse. I thought we were able to avoid foul trouble for a large part of the game. I thought we got some decent play to start and we came out great of the gate. The guys kind of got themselves galvanized and brought together and had a great start. I thought our turnovers in the middle of the first half really killed our flow and it brought them back in it. In the second half, we just couldn't get stops. You can kind of break that game up into four-minute media timeout battles, and the only one we were any good on defense was the under eight and the under four. The other four we were awful in the second half. You lose in basketball when you can't guard the other team and it did not end well for us tonight."

Team Stats
- The Crimson Tide outrebounded the Razorbacks 41-34, including 15-11 on the offensive glass which resulted in a 17-11 edge in second chance points
- Arkansas forced Alabama into 17 turnovers, collecting 11 steals, and had a 27-13 in points off turnovers
- The contest marked Shackelford's second consecutive game scoring 20 or more (had 21 at LSU) and fifth consecutive double-digit scoring game
- Davis entered the game having scored a combined 18 points throughout the UA's seven conference games, but finished with 11 points on a perfect 3-of-3 shooting from the field
- Freshman Jaylen Forbes grabbed a career-high nine rebounds in 17 minutes of action
- Alabama led for 25:12 of the contest compared to just 12:54 for Arkansas
- Tonight's loss is only the second at home (8-2), and the first since the season-opener

First Half
- Alabama stormed out of the gate with back-to-back three-pointers from Reese and Shackelford to grab an 8-0 lead and force an Arkansas timeout at just the 18:34 mark of the first half
- The Tide extended the run to 12-0 before Arkansas got on the board to make it 12-2 with 16:34 to play in the first
- After Alabama led 18-9, the Razorbacks used a 9-0 burst to tie the game at 18-18 with 9:46 remaining in the half
- Alabama moved ahead 22-18 at the 8:19 mark, but a 12-6 Arkansas run gave the Razorbacks a 30-24 advantage with 4:22 left in the half
- The Tide used a 15-3 run to take a 39-33 lead, but a triple by the Razorbacks in the final seconds of the half made it a 39-36 Crimson Tide lead at the halftime break
- Shackelford led the Tide in the opening period with 14 points, three rebounds and three assists while Reese and Davis added six points

EVAN PILAT/UA ATHLETICS
Alabama guard Jaylen Forbes (12) drives past a defender during the Tide's 82-78 loss to Arkansas Saturday.

Second Half
- Alabama made its first four field goals of the second half and grew its lead to 51-45 at the 15:52 media stoppage
- A layup at the 10:50 mark of the second half gave the Razorbacks a 59-57 lead
- An offensive rebound and put back by Petty helped Alabama score seven straight points to take a 67-66 lead
- At the final media timeout of the contest, Alabama was clinging to a 69-68 edge with 3:43 remaining
- Alabama held a 69-66 lead with 4:11 remaining, however, the Razorbacks went on an 11-1 run over the next 2:51 to take a 77-70 lead with 1:20 remaining to essentially seal the win

Alabama will have a short turnaround as it returns to action on Tuesday night when the Tide welcomes Tennessee to Coleman Coliseum. Tipoff is slated for 6 p.m. CT and will be televised on ESPNU.

GHHS holding 5K to raise funds for student travel

Christy Perry

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – Coming up this Saturday, Feb. 8 at 9 a.m. is the New Year, New You Polar Run 5K Run/Walk at Good Hope High School. Whether you prefer to walk or run, everyone is encouraged to come out and participate in the event to raise funds for the Good Hope High School International Travel Education Program.

GHHS teachers Tiffany Ellis and Matt McCullough lead the program and are raising money to take 14 students for an educational trip of a lifetime.

Ellis explained, "My first year, March of 2019, I took four students to Paris, Florence and Rome. They loved it and learned so much!

"They came back with stories and pictures and told everyone about it.

"Now, we have 14 students traveling to Italy in March 2021.

"This program is centered on student education and personal growth.

"Because this is an expensive yet invaluable learning experience, we are wanting to give our students every opportunity to raise money for this."

For the March 2021 trip, the students will not visit Paris, allowing more time to focus on visiting and taking in the history and inspiring sites of Rome and Florence.

The cost to register for the 5K is $20.

Water will be available at checkpoints during the route.

Following the 5K, participants are welcome to water and snacks that will be set up in the GHHS gymnasium.

Awards will also be given out in the gym immediately following the race.

To register, visit https://tinyurl.comv2wsfs6.

The registration fee includes a T-shirt for participants.

Hicks (from Front)

Hicks believes Cullman is a special place and good for business.

"There are some things that make Cullman special, and I mean special by Cullman attracts business from areas larger than Cullman County.

"If you're going to watch a movie at a movie theater, you can go to Decatur or all the way down to Irondale or you can come to Cullman. If you want to buy a suit you can go to Decatur, you can go to Birmingham or you can come to Cullman," he said.

"(Customers can) buy or rent formal wear, and we try to provide clothing for all sizes.

"If something doesn't fit right, we can make alterations to perfect the fit," he continued. "We allow rental of suits, which has become a bigger part of business. Our busiest time of the year is prom season.

"It's been enjoyable to have rented a young man his prom and wedding tux and to now see his son come through for prom."

Hicks talked a bit about working with the younger generations of customers.

"In the early years," he said, "I always asked the young men that came in for prom what were their future plans are after graduation.

"In the recent years of asking, I've been encouraged by the number of students going into the trades.

"To have a well-trained workforce is part of a stronger economy, which is part of what makes Cullman a great place to be a business."

Mr. Hicks Mens Wear will celebrate 26 years of business this summer, and Hicks attributes the longevity of his small business to customer service.

"What separates small businesses from big chains is personal service," he smiled.

"It's the service that's resulted in my experience for the past 26 years. Personal service is something you don't get when you click a button and order online. Service is what you get when you come to a local business."

Mr. Hicks Mens Wear is located at 217 Compass Way SW in Cullman and is open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. and Saturdays 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Find out more at www.facebook.com/Mr.HicksMensWear.

Meals (from Front)

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – On Monday, students and faculty of the Wallace State Occupational Therapy (OT) program met with representatives of Alabama Credit Union to present them a donation of $830 for their Secret Meals for Hungry Children student feeding program, bringing OT contributions to the charitable cause to more than $3,300 for the 2019-20 school year.

According to the Secret Meals website, "Alabama Credit Union created the Secret Meals for Hungry Children program in 2008 with one goal in mind - decreasing the number of children in Alabama and Florida facing hunger over the weekend. Through partnerships with local food banks, our commitment has never been stronger.

"With one of the highest poverty rates in the country, 22 percent of both Alabama and Florida's children live below the poverty level. Approximately 2,500 students are receiving Secret Meals food packs across the state of Alabama and into Florida.

"By partnering with local food banks, we are able to ensure hungry children have reliable access to nutritional food on the weekends.

"On average, $140 is the cost to provide a weekend food pack to one child, identified as going hungry, for an entire school year.

"To allow as many children to receive food packs as possible, Alabama Credit Union provides all promotional and operational funding for the Secret Meals program, meaning 100 percent of every penny donated goes toward the purchase of food packs."

With Secret Meals representatives estimating a slightly increased current amount of $160 per student, the OT contribution will send 20 county and city students home each weekend of the school year with packs containing two servings each of milk, juice, cereal, easy-open canned pasta or other entrees and fruit.

The OT students sold calendars and took up donations to generate funds for their gift.

Asked why her class took on the project, class reporter Hailey Phillips said, "Being occupational therapy assistants, we serve those areas of kids that may be in need for early intervention.

"Some of these children that aren't fed or (don't) come from the greatest backgrounds are at risk for that, and we just think that it's really important that these kiddos are getting food so they can come to school well-nourished, and so they can focus in class and make good grades."

OT Instructor Rachel Gooch, who introduced the program to her students, said, "I'm extremely proud of them. Serving the children in this area has been a passion of mine since I graduated from this program, so to pass that on to them makes me tear up a little bit!"

Program Director Laura Smith added, "This is my first year as program director, so to come in and be able to have this kind of an impact on the community is just, it's just awesome!

"I think that's a big thing about Wallace State is that we're huge on having an impact on the community, so it's just really cool to do that."

Easterwood (from Front)

christy@cullmantribune.com

Staying busy is Polly Easterwood's goal. For the people of Holly Pond, Polly and Felton Easterwood are a staple at basketball games and other sporting events. Polly has become well-known for crocheting throughout the games and each year at the area basketball tournaments at Wallace State, where the Easterwoods have their own seats. Polly's supportive nature is far reaching and not limited to basketball.

She was born Polly Calvert in Crane Hill. Her father passed away when she was a young child after his appendix ruptured.

"My daddy," she said, "they said he was a wonderful tenor singer."

Polly started to school in Cullman and when she was a preteen, her mother remarried.

The family moved to Mobile where, Polly said gleefully, "I skipped the ninth grade! I finished school when I was 15, but we had moved back to Hanceville."

She graduated from Hanceville in 1949.

Polly began singing in a quartet in high school and continued to sing with the group after she finished school. One day the quartet was scheduled to perform at Emeus Baptist Church.

"I was sitting in the car with a boy and another boy walked across the yard. This was before the singing started," she recalled. "I asked, 'Who is that?' He said, 'That's Felton Easterwood.' I said, just stupid silly, 'That's the man I am going to marry.'"

She continued, "When I got in the church and it was our time to sing, I looked for him and there he was and he winked at me! Well, that's what did it you know! When it was over, I went back with Doyle to sit in the car and here came Felton back. I stuck my head out and said, 'Bye' and he thought I said, 'Hi!'"

Felton knew Doyle and was able to talk to him and eventually set up a date with Polly.

"We dated for two weeks before he left for Korea," she said. "We wrote for 11 months and dated one month after he came back and then we married. So, we actually went together for six weeks."

The Easterwoods married in 1951 and will celebrate their 69th anniversary this year.

She smiled, "If anybody's going to kill him, it's going to be me! No, seriously, he's been good."

Felton and Polly went to Jacksonville State and he was offered a job at DAR coaching basketball. The problem was that DAR didn't have a music program. That is what Polly went to school to learn to teach.

"That's all I ever did was music," she said. "The superintendent from Cullman knew us and knew Holly Pond wanted those two things, those two teachers. This little po-dunk town? Why, they didn't even have paved streets and certainly didn't have a red light. I told Felton, 'I'm not staying here! I'm not about to live here!'"

Felton convinced Polly to give Holly Pond a chance for one year and she agreed. So, in 1954 the Easterwoods began at Holly Pond. He coached basketball and she taught music.

When Felton asked about a second year, Polly said, "Well, I've been thinking about starting a little elementary chorus. Let's wait another year."

That's how it all began. Polly taught for 35 years at Holly Pond and for 33 years she had a radio program on WFMH Wednesday mornings.

"The county put it out in every school system," she remembered. "Every school listened to it over the intercom. I sang with them and I pretended I was in the room with them. I talked and they talked back and of course I couldn't hear them."

While Polly was teaching, she also served as church pianist and organist at Holly Pond First Baptist Church. She served as the choir director and still plays the piano at church today.

She added, "I had junior high school and high school chorus. We did high school productions, but elementary, I loved it! I just loved it."

Polly isn't sure if her way of teaching would be acceptable today.

She describes herself as a "hugger" and said, "I have heard there is a rule that you can't even touch a student now."

She said students at school and in her Sunday school class enjoyed her class and wanted to stay in her class rather than moving up.

"I like empathy," she said. "I like to get down on the level of the child. I never put a child down. In all my 35 years of teaching, I only paddled one child."

Many things have changed over the years.

She recalled, "One year, Felton needed a teacher for eighth-grade boys. EIGHTH-GRADE BOYS! For ENGLISH! We didn't even have air conditioning and one day, someone called me outside the room. I only had about 10 students. When I came back in, there wasn't a kid in that room. In the back of the room, they had these long sliding door closets. Well, I knew where they were. They were in that closet. I went back and sat down at my desk. About five minutes before the bell was going to ring and I started seeing the door sliding open. I said, 'Wait a minute, y'all are having so much fun. Just close the door and wait until the bell rings.' Lord, they did and when they came out, they were wet from stem to stern from sweating."

She continued, "You know, I would be put under the jail now for doing that. One was a commissioner at one time. He was one of them. Every time I see them, they will laugh, 'Do you remember locking me in that closet?' You can't do things like that. But it was in fun and they enjoyed it."

Polly began going to Holly Pond basketball games when Felton was the coach.

She explained, "He retired from coaching then decided he would be principal and he was the principal of Holly Pond School for 15 years."

After the Easterwoods retired from Holly Pond in 1988, Felton decided to run for Cullman County Schools superintendent. He was elected.

The Easterwoods had three sons: Tim, Tam and Tom. Polly described her sons as the farmer, the musician and the athlete. When Felton was in his fourth year as superintendent, Tam was diagnosed with a brain tumor and passed away exactly one month later.

In part two, Polly will share about losing Tam, as well as his amazing legacy. She will also discuss family, faith, retirement and, of course, basketball.

6:15 p.m. on SHOW
Movie: Walk Hard: The Dewey Cox Story

Often a supporting player, the talented John C. Reilly ("Chicago") is front and center in this amusing celebrity biography satire, co-written and co-produced by Judd Apatow ("Knocked Up"). His character is an unlikely music legend who indulges in every vice and cliché ever associated with that lifestyle. Jenna Fischer ("The Office"), "Saturday Night Live" alumnus Tim Meadows and some actual music icons (notably, the Temptations) are featured.

7 p.m. on WBRC
Gordon Ramsay's 24 Hours to Hell and Back

"Seafarer's Family Restaurant" is the struggling Manassas, Va., seafood eatery that gets the focus of Chef Ramsay and his crew in this new episode. At first glance, the business's prime location would seem to enhance dinner traffic, but instead, the family running the place is being torn apart by the strain of supporting three households on declining revenue. The Ramsay team gives the restaurant a striking makeover, a fresh new menu and renewed hope for the future.

7 p.m. on FX
Movie: Ferdinand

John Cena provides the voice of the title character, a flower-loving pacifist bull who resists his enforced destiny in the bullfight arena, in this 2017 feature-length computer-animated adaptation of the same children's book that inspired the Oscar-winning 1938 animated short "Ferdinand the Bull" by Walt Disney. Kate McKinnon, Bobby Cannavale, Gina Rodriguez, Daveed Diggs and Gabriel Iglesias also lend their voices to the film, which earned an Oscar nod as best animated feature (but lost to "Coco").

7 p.m. on MTV
Siesta Key

In the new episode "Why Are You With Somebody Who Doesn't Deserve You?," Juliette and Alex finally meet up for the first time in months. Alex introduces his new girl to the group. Officially, Kelsey is dating Jared, but she also feels free enough to admit to herself that she's distracted by her boss, Jake. Later Juliette tries to make amends with Chloe and Amanda.

8 p.m. on WIAT
CBS News: State of the Union 2020

Most of the broadcast and all the major cable news networks present coverage of President Donald Trump's annual address to a joint session of Congress, in which he'll offer his assessment of what's currently working in the United States and what he thinks needs improvement. He may well also spend some time making the case for his own re-election in November. The Democratic Party's response immediately follows on most of these channels.

8:01 p.m. on MTV
Teen Mom: Young and Pregnant

Kayla remains ambivalent at best about her mother's latest move, while Ashley's mom does what she can to mend fences with Bar's mom in the new episode "Not Gonna Be Like That Again." Things might be getting serious between Rachel and her new boyfriend. Elsewhere, Teazha and Kiaya decide to see a couples counselor.

"Gordon Ramsay's 24 Hours to Hell and Back" airs on Fox.

OPINION

The Sovereignty of God, no. 5

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Columnist

At this juncture my hope is that you have come to realize that what you previously held on the Doctrine of God's Sovereignty was not fully in accordance with sound doctrine. Remember that sound doctrine is healthy doctrine. Healthy doctrine produces healthy churches.

Today we continue in our study of the Sovereignty of God

The Sovereignty of God deepens our appreciation and understanding of God's character. The doctrine of God's sovereignty, as it is unfolded in the Scriptures, affords an exalted view of the Divine perfections. It maintains His creatorial rights. It insists that "to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in Him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by Him." (1 Corinthians 8:6) It declares that His rights are those of the "potter" who forms and fashions the "clay" into vessels of whatever type and for whatever use He may please. Its testimony is, "You have created all things, and for Your pleasure they are and were created." (Revelation 4:11) It argues that none has any right to "reply" against God, and that the only befitting attitude for the creature to take is one of reverent submission before Him.

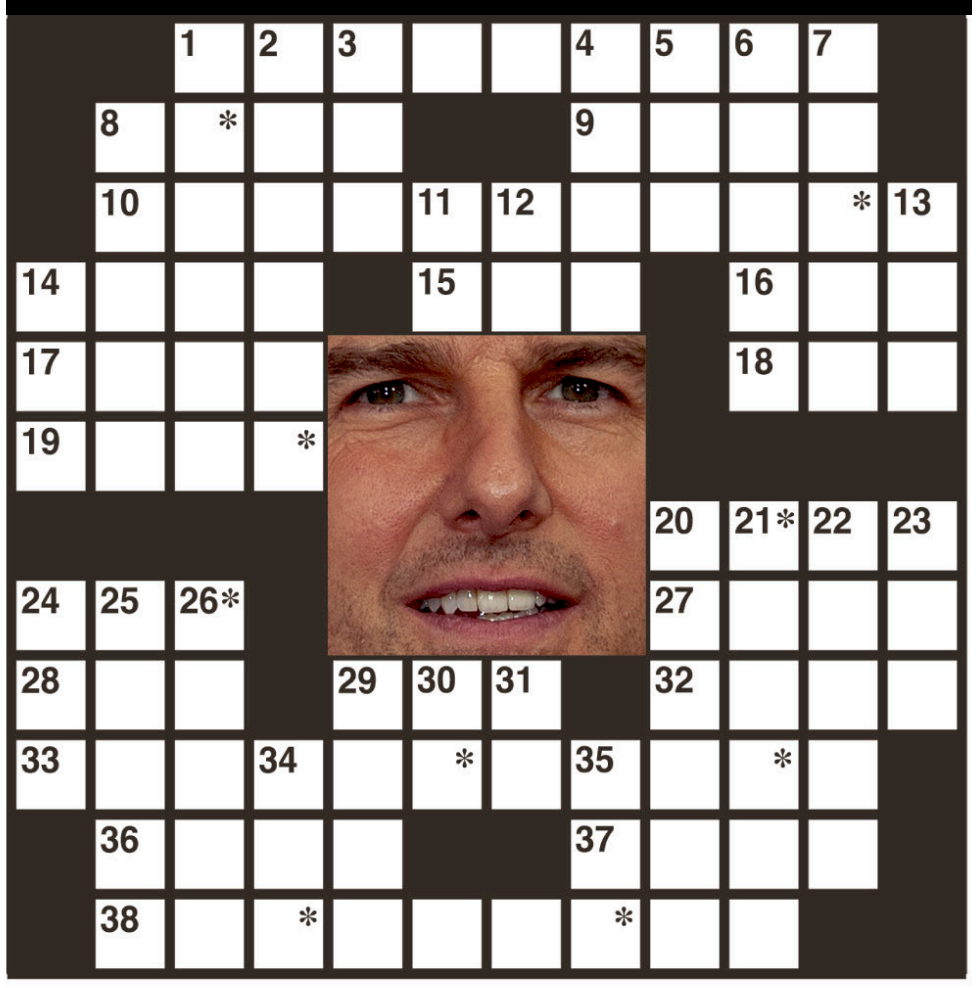

Thus the apprehension of the absolute supremacy of God is of great practical importance, for unless we have a proper regard to His high sovereignty, He will never be honored in our thoughts of Him; nor will He have His proper place in our hearts and lives.

The doctrine of God's sovereignty exhibits the inscrutableness of His wisdom. It shows that while God is immaculate in His holiness—He has permitted evil to enter His fair creation; that while He is the Possessor of all power—He has allowed the Devil to wage war against Him for six thousand years at least; that while He is the perfect embodiment of love—He spared not His own son; that while He is the God of all grace—multitudes will be tormented forever and ever in the Lake of Fire. These are high mysteries! Scripture does not deny them—but acknowledges their existence, "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways beyond tracing out!" (Romans 11:33)

The doctrine of God's sovereignty makes known the irreversibleness of His will. "Known unto God are all His works from the beginning of the world." (Acts 15:18) From the beginning God purposed to glorify Himself "in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end." (Ephesians 3:21) He created the world and formed man. His all-wise plan was not defeated when man fell.

WSCC Alumni Association offering ACT prep courses

Gail Crutchfield
WSCC

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Wallace State Community College Alumni Association is hosting ACT prep courses for area students preparing to take the entrance exam.

The prep courses being offered by the Alumni Association are split into two sessions, allowing students the opportunity to choose between one or both sessions as needed.

Both will be held in Bailey Center Room 511 and each workshop is $35.

The ACT Math and Science workshop will be held Monday, Feb. 24 from 4:30-8 p.m.

The English and Reading workshop will be held Tuesday, Feb. 25 from 4:30-7:30 p.m.

Each session led by qualified instructors will include test taking tips and review and practice sessions.

For the math and science portion, participants are encouraged to bring pencils, scratch paper and a calculator.

To register for the Math and Science workshop, visit www.wsccalumni.org/ms22420.

To register for the English and Reading portion visit www.wsccalumni.org/er22520.

For more information about the ACT prep courses, contact Alumni Coordinator LaDonna Allen at 256-352-8071 or ladonna.allen@wallacestate.edu.

Wallace State will administer the Residual ACT on Feb. 7 and April 17 at 8:30 a.m. in the Computer Science Auditorium.

The National ACT test is scheduled for April 4 and June 13 at Cullman High School and June 13 and July 18 at Wallace State, according to the ACT.org website.

While the ACT is not required for general admission to the college, it can be used to determine in which English and math classes a student will first be enrolled at the college.

It is also used in competitive applications for most Health Science programs and in many scholarship applications.

For information about the Residual ACT test administered by Wallace State, call Lion Central at 256-352-8238 or email admissions@wallacestate.edu.

Visit www.act.org for information about the National ACT test.
