Fussell (from Front)

"I was a teacher for 12 years when I first moved back," she said. "I switched and started working for the McHans, doing their office work for their businesses, and then I came over here to manage the florist for them."

Carla taught Kindergarten through sixth grade at St. Paul's.

"I taught P.E., library, history, all that," she said.

She earned her bachelor's degree in Nebraska before obtaining a master's degree in history from the University of Alabama.

"With the master's degree history," she added, "it includes sixth grade, which is what I taught at St. Paul's. I liked that age a lot."

Carla said she taught the McHan children and established a friendship with the family.

"All of my friends left there (St. Paul's) to teach other places. I left there and started working for the McHans. They needed an office manager," she said.

When Carla became the manager of the florist, she began attending classes on floral arrangements.

"We take classes in Atlanta. We go to all kinds of educational opportunities in Nashville-anywhere close by.

"We've been to D.C. and Chicago and we just try to learn new things, new techniques and what's current," she smiled.

Carla said right now the hot things in floral arranging are hoop weddings and Bohemian style, explaining, "Wildflower-looking, more than the nice tight arrangement. People like airy right now and plants. Plants are hot."

When asked about her favorite part of the job, the answer was easy.

"Meeting the people that come in," she laughed. "We have a lot of regulars, people who come in every month. Many of the different people for the different occasions.

"We are there for the happy times and the sad times. My favorite part is funeral work or sympathy work. It's the last tribute they can give to their loved one or that someone else can give to your loved one. We try to get their sentiment and try to put it into an arrangement or some type of design."

Carla said some of the more unique sympathy arrangements have included a fedora, a guitar, an 18-wheeler and a baseball.

From Valentine's Day through early June is the busiest time of the year for Carla and the staff at Cullman Florist.

"With prom season in full swing, she is busy getting everything ready for the many orders. Decoration, spring weddings, Mother's Day and graduations will keep the orders rolling in, and Carla said she loves being a part of it though she doesn't get to see the recipients of the flowers too often.

"I don't do a whole lot of delivering," she smiled, "but the delivery people come back with stories and things."

Carla said she enjoys helping people who come in looking for a gift for their loved ones, smiling, "We have a gentleman who comes in every month to get his wife a white, pink and a red rose. The past, the present and the future. Every month on the 7th, we have that ready for him."

I asked her, "What happens if your wife or mom works at the florist?"

She laughed, "You just have to get with other people at the shop. We have mothers that work here and they will slip their order into someone else here."

Cullman Florist carries gift items other than flowers and plants.

"We have a lot of art poles that are becoming very popular," said Carla. "Also, art pots and FarmHouse Fresh products. We try to carry gift items other places don't have."

To help spread the happiness flowers can bring to more people in the Cullman community, Cullman Florist participates in Make Someone Smile and Petal It Forward events. In July, Carla and the staff delivered plants in bright smiley face mugs to residents at Folsom Center as part of Make Someone Smile.

"Petal It Forward, we give out, we usually pick a location and make 30-40 arrangements. We give somebody two and they have to give one to somebody else. It is fun and we have had some great stories out of that.

"We gave one to a lady and she said that she was about to go see her friend, who is terminal. She was going to give it to her. That was neat. One time we gave it to someone and it was her birthday so that was fun!" she explained.

Carla is the president of the Alabama chapter of Teleflora, which has a program in Mobile.

"We invite other florists to come and learn from a nationally-known person," she said.

"We try to get people from all over the state for that. We are also members of the Tennessee State Florist Association."

Carla and the ladies have been invited to participate in the Rose Festival Parade in Portland, Oregon and the Rose Bowl Parade, but they didn't attend.

Although they consider it an honor to be invited, being away from Cullman and the people they have built relationships with is something they worry about.

"That's why we like to be here and not be gone very often. When people do call, we want to be here to help them," Stephanie Cook, floral designer, said.

Carla's favorite flowers are tulips and hydrangeas.

"I like the newer carnations that are really coming out with new colors and styles," she said. "We've been getting antique carnations and they are just a different kind of look."

At home, she enjoys her day lilies, house plants and ferns.

Carla loves being able to serve and help the Cullman community during all of their special moments.

"The happy times, the sad times, all of them," she said.

Corona (from Front)

er," she said, "I can comment regarding our policy at Cullman Regional facilities only, which includes Emergency Department, Cullman Regional Urgent Care Center (on our campus) (and) Cullman Regional Medical Group clinics.

"Our facilities utilize the CDC guidelines for testing which can be found here: https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/hcp/index.html.

"According to these guidelines, we do an initial screening to identify if they have the following:

- Fever, cough, respiratory illness – all patients who present with this are asked to place a mask on to protect all other patients and staff.
- Travel history over the past 14 days outside of the United States to one of the known infected COVID-19 areas – China, Italy, Iran, Japan or South Korea
- Have they come in contact with someone who traveled outside of the United States to one of the known infected areas and then became sick. These patients are moved to private areas for further evaluation.
- Or have the patients had prolonged contact with someone who had a confirmed positive test for COVID-19."

Dossey said the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) makes the decision about whether a patient meets criteria for testing.

"If the patient meets initial criteria, we collect information and submit a 'Person Under Investigation (PUI)' form to the Alabama Department of Public Health who then tells us whether or not the patient meets criteria for testing," she said.

"Testing is currently only available through the State.

"There are a couple of independent lab facilities that announced they would begin testing soon.

"Therefore, independent physicians and hospitals are somewhat limited as to what they can do if ADPH doesn't approve a patient for testing."

Care (from Front)

tablish relationships so that maybe, if they would like to participate in classes we offer, they could come to this facility and do it here."

She continued, "This is to develop a relationship with the residents. We offer resume help, parenting classes, budgeting classes. This is the first time we've done it here.

"We've had resource fairs in the past, and we've participated in other resource fairs. The next one for that will be at Temple Baptist Church on March 28 and we're going to participate in theirs."

Hall said The Link felt bringing the Good Samaritan Health Clinic on board for Tuesday night's event was a great opportunity.

"We're grateful being able to partner with The Link of Cullman County," said Good Samaritan Health Clinic Executive Director Jolanda Hutson.

"We always welcome any opportunity to partner with other agencies in order better meet the needs of people in our community. We're happy to be here today to provide glucose, blood pressure and BMI (Body Mass Index) checks. It really helps us increase awareness of what we do in the community and also identify people who may be at risk and not be aware.

"If they don't have health insurance, we try to encourage them to come by the clinic, and if they do, we encourage if they don't have a doctor to go to Cullman Regional and get a doctor. We're just grateful to be part of this wonderful event."

For those who missed Tuesday evening's fair, Hall said there will be future resource fairs in the area.

She also shared, "We're going to leave plenty of information here in the Housing Authority's Community Center and they can call us and talk to any of us so we can connect them to our services."

Video (from Front)

W.C. Mann

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – Cullman County Human Trafficking Task Force Chairperson Kathy Wilson has announced the release of a public service announcement video produced in partnership with Wallace State Community College. Wallace State webmaster and media specialist Jesse Cobb oversaw the production. Barbara Fowler of Hidden Gem Films, who recently produced her own nationally-awarded trafficking awareness short feature (www.cullmantribune.com/2020/01/23/alabama-human-trafficking-film-hidden-gem-awarded-across-u-s/), advised Wilson on the project.

In the brief video, just over two minutes in length, narrator Miss Wallace State Isabella Allred asks the question "Did you know?" and points out:

- Trafficking cuts across social, racial and economic lines.
- Perpetrators of trafficking come from all walks of life, including even family members of victims.
- Victims typically enter "the life," as it is called, between 12 and 14 years of age.
- Online social media platforms are being used both to recruit and to advertise victims.

Wilson addresses viewers in the video, along with Cullman County District Attorney Wilson Blaylock and retired District Judge Kim Chaney, whose segment was filmed prior to his recent retirement. The DA's Office is a partner agency with the task force, and Chaney, who managed the county's Juvenile Court, was a founding member of the task force.

Blaylock, along with Jerry and Mary Ann Caudle, contributed funds to help cover production costs.

Wilson told The Tribune, "My hope is to get this video into every middle and high school in the city and county. Our children are the most vulnerable population and they need to be educated. This PSA is brief but educational, and it will give them the tools they need to protect themselves and others. Education and awareness are the keys to ending the heinous crime!"

In a message to The Tribune, Wallace State President Dr. Vicki Karolewics said, "We are glad to partner with our local task force to raise awareness about this important issue. Education and action are the keys to saving lives."

Best Bets

7 p.m. on TNT
NBA Basketball

A battle of two of the top teams in the East goes down tonight at Fiserv Arena, where Giannis Antetokounmpo and the Milwaukee Bucks defend home court from Jayson Tatum and the Boston Celtics. The Bucks — the top seed in the East at this writing — have split their two games with the No. 3 Celts this season, with each team winning at home.

8 p.m. on WBRC
Deputy

Charlie and Joseph (Danielle Moné Truitt, Shane Paul McGhie) arrest a man who was en route to a major drug deal, inadvertently bringing a bigger fight than they expected back to the station, in the new episode "10-8 Paperwork." Elsewhere, Teresa and Cade (guest star Natalia Cigliuti, Brian Van Holt) continue struggling with a complication in adopting their foster kids, while Bill (Stephen Dorff) has an epiphany about his sheriff's position. Michael J. Harney and Jamie Ray Newman also guest star.

8 p.m. on WTTO
Legacies

Hoping to help them process their recent traumas, Emma (guest star Karen David) urges the students to participate in a group simulation that transports them into a film-noir virtual reality in a new episode called "There's a Place Where the Lost Things Go." Hope, Josie, Lizzie, MG and Rafael (Danielle Rose Russell, Kaylee Bryant, Jenny Boyd, Quincy Fouse, Peyton Alex Smith) quickly learn the game will end in catastrophe unless they confront their lingering conflicts head-on. Matthew Davis also stars.

8 p.m. on TRVL
Ghost Adventures

If you're looking for a place to kick back with pals over some relaxing brewskis, you probably would avoid any place called "Union Brewery of Death" ... but that's where Zak Bagans and his crew go exploring in Virginia City, Nev., during the course of this episode. This historic brewery was the site of a devastating fire, then was a funeral home for a short spell. That dubious history has left a psychic stain on the site, accompanied by a dark energy all its own.

8:01 p.m. on WIAT
Mom

Chuck Lorre's dark but heartfelt adult sitcom about a dysfunctional mother and daughter (Allison Janney, Anna Faris) fighting to stay sober probably looked like a long shot when it premiered on CBS in 2013, but the show has survived and even thrived, thanks in no small part to its superb ensemble cast. The close bond among their characters is a major element of tonight's new episode — the sitcom's 150th — as Marjorie (Mimi Kennedy) baby-sits her granddaughter for the first time. Jaime Pressly also stars.

9 p.m. on WE
Waka & Tammy

This new, unscripted series follows iconic hip-hop sweethearts Waka Flocka Flame and his tempestuous wife, Tammy Rivera, as they try to master the new relationship tools they received during their appearances on a recent season of sister series "Marriage Boot Camp: Hip Hop Edition." It's been a year since their dream wedding in Atlanta, and they're striving together to cope with mundane marital challenges such as the stress of a home renovation, the demands of Tammy's own budding career, and parenting their teenage daughter Charlie.

10:05 p.m. on HIST
Swamp People: Serpent Invasion

The Florida Everglades currently is ground zero for an ecological apocalypse, as an invasion of an alien species — huge Burmese pythons — systematically is wiping out entire species of native fauna from the lush wetlands preserve. These big snakes are voracious, aggressive and fast-breeding, and have no natural predator equipped to stop them — except humans. This compelling new docuseries follows some of Louisiana's best hunters as they respond to Florida's call for help, teaming up with professional snake hunter Bill Booth.

Allison Janney stars in "Mom" on CBS.

West Point takes area opener over Hamilton 4-0

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – After sweeping a doubleheader with Priceville over the weekend, the Warriors returned home Tuesday night to host their area-opener against the Hamilton Aggies. Aubry Cleghorn got the start for West Point and tossed six scoreless innings to help lead the Warriors past Hamilton 4-0 and improve to 5-7 on the season.

After two scoreless innings and a double play that ended the top of the third, West Point struck in the bottom of the third.

Chase Sibley led off the inning with a single and a sacrifice bunt by Carter Thornton gave the Warriors a runner in scoring position.

A few pitches later, a sacrifice fly from Whitt Laney scored Will Brown to give West Point a 1-0 lead.

Will Cochran then reached first base on an error and Brody Rusk singled up the middle to score Levi Farley and make it a 2-0 game.

Cleghorn then helped himself out with a double off the fence in left field that scored two more runs and made it a 4-0 game going into the fourth.

Another double play from the Warriors ended the top of the fourth and Hamilton was kept off the board for the rest of the night.

Eli Folds relieved Cleghorn in the seventh and put out the first three batters he faced to secure a 4-0 area win for West Point.

Warriors Head Coach Drew Bryson was proud of the way his starter performed on the mound.

He believes this year's team is built to win low-scoring games and they did just that tonight.

"Aubry goes out and does what Aubry does. He fills the zone up, gets ahead early, pounds the strike zone, attacks hitters and he's got great stuff.

"That's what we pride ourselves on, pitching and defense," Bryson said.

"We're one of those teams that's going to find a way to score three or four and we're going to attack people on the mound and play great defense behind our pitchers."

Bryson was impressed with everyone that pitched in Tuesday's matchup, including Folds and the Aggies' starter that kept West Point off the board in five of its six innings at the plate.

"(Aubry) did a great job and then obviously Eli (Folds) did great coming in as a young guy and that's three games in a row that he's been lights out.

"We've kind of slotted him into that closer role and we're letting him get comfortable with that and he's loved it," Bryson said.

"Credit to their guy too, that's two years in a row I've seen (Elijah) Jackson and he can pitch.

"He's not going to blow you away with the fastball, but he can pitch, and our guys got in there and battled until finally we got some big hits in that third inning when we needed them."

West Point will travel to Hamilton with a chance to take the area series Thursday night.

OTHER TUESDAY SCORES

Jasper 9 – West Point 8 (varsity softball)

After building a 6-0 lead in the first two innings and leading the game 8-2 going into the sixth, Jasper put seven unanswered runs on the board to come from behind and topple the Lady Warriors in their first matchup of the night with the Lady Vikings.

Carlie Wilkins (two hits) drove in three runs for West Point and Gracie Thompson (two RBIs) led the Lady Warriors with three hits. Bethany Minck (one hit) and Lexi Shadix (one hit) each collected an RBI in the loss as well.

West Point 5 – Jasper 4 (varsity softball)

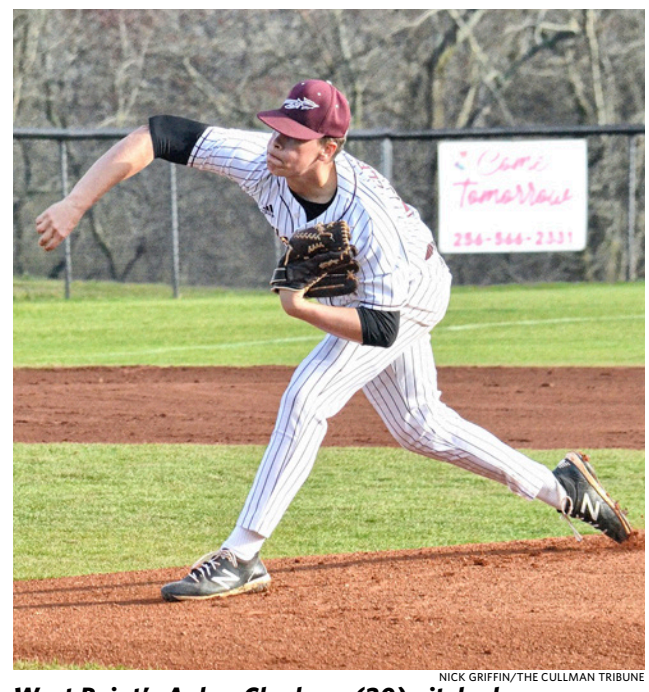

The Lady Warriors bounced back in their second matchup with Jasper.

Both teams were scoreless after two innings, but West Point pulled ahead 3-0 in the bottom of third.

The Lady Vikings responded with four runs in the top half of the fourth to take a 1-run lead, but the Lady Warriors took the lead for good in the bottom half of the inning.

An RBI single from Lexi Shadix tied the game and Carlie Wilkins doubled into center field to give West Point a 5-4 lead that they held on to for the rest of the night.

Wilkins (two hits) drove in a pair of runs on the win and Shadix (one hit) collected an RBI as well.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

West Point's Aubry Cleghorn (30) pitched six shutout innings in the Warriors' 4-0 win over Hamilton Tuesday night.
