AMC MARKTPLATZ 10 TO REOPEN AUG. 27

MAGGIE DARNELL/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

The AMC CLASSIC Marktplatz 10 will reopen Aug. 27, 2020.

Wendy Sack

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman's movie theater, the AMC Marktplatz 10, is set to reopen Thursday, Aug. 27, according to the company's website and an email sent out to patrons. The theater has been closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic since spring.

"While theatres were temporarily closed, we developed enhanced cleaning procedures and safety policies to get ready for your return," said an email from the company.

Jason Grimmett, vice president of administration and development for Drinkard Development, which owns the property, said Drinkard had not yet received official word from AMC as of Thursday afternoon.

"While we have not received anything official regarding the exact opening date, we have heard some talks about the pending reopening soon," he said.

"We have seen where several theatres across the country have slowly started to reopen.

"Hopefully this trend will continue as we all try to get back to normal. AMC reopening in Cullman is sure to look a little different than before COVID-19 as AMC will be taking extra safety measures to help prevent the spread."

From AMC:

Our top priority is your health and safety, so we have implemented new AMC Safe & Clean policies and procedures, designed with you in mind.

Masks required for all

Because we care about your health, masks are required for guests and crew throughout the theatre. Your mask must cover your nose and mouth and fit snugly around your face and chin.

Prayer rally for West Point Schools this Saturday

heather@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – This Saturday, Aug. 15 at 10 a.m., students, teachers and employees of West Point Schools are invited to attend a prayer rally to kick off the school year. Due to COVID-19 mandates, the group will be meeting in the parking lot of the West Point Family Medical Practice instead of on school property like the Facebook event page states. Masks are not mandatory, per the organizers, as the event is outside and attendees will be socially distanced.

Organizer Trinity Roggensack from Perfectly Imperfect Ministries said in a statement about the event, "We will sing a few worship songs to ready our hearts and minds for prayer and then pray.

"We want ALL the teachers, students, resource people, lunch ladies, bus drivers, secretaries, nurses, administrators, substitutes, vendors and volunteers to join us so that we can pray over and for them and the upcoming school year.

"We need prayer now more than ever. This school year is going to be like founding a new frontier.

"Greg Locke (lead pastor of Global Vision Bible Church in Tennessee) was going to come and lead the prayer; however, since we have been receiving some push back he is no longer coming.

"So it will just be our community and that's A-OK. The Bible in James tells us that the prayers of the righteous man (are) powerful and effective.

"The ONLY thing that makes us righteous is the blood of Jesus and because of HIS righteousness we can go boldly to HIS throne interceding for our schools."

West Point Family Medical Practice is located at 4131 County Road 1141, Vinemont, AL 35179.

NOTICE: Video Inspection of Cullman City Sewer System
• Aug. 3, 2020, the City of Cullman's contractor, Video Industrial Services, began cleaning and providing video inspection of the sanitary sewer collection system in the southeast area of Cullman. This work should not disrupt sewer service; however, it will involve access to utility easements crossing private property. The contractor's representatives will attempt to notify property owners prior to easement access.
• During cleaning operations, excess air pressure or vacuum will dissipate through service connection plumbing. If plumbing vents are inadequate, customers may notice splashing of water from fixtures. In the event of vacuum pressure, water in fixture traps may be drawn out, resulting in unpleasant odors. To guard against these issues, ensure toilet lids are closed. Run water into each drain to refill fixture traps if odors are noticed.
• See a map of the project area at https://bit.ly/39AWBkP.

My first Auburn touchdown: Courtney Taylor

Greg Ostendorf
AU Athletics

AUBURN, Ala. – As a redshirt freshman in 2003, Courtney Taylor burst onto the scene for Auburn. He finished second on the team in receptions (34) and second in receiving yards (379). He says something like 28 of those 34 receptions went for a first down. However, none of those receptions went for touchdowns.

"To me, as an athlete, I was embarrassed," Taylor said. "You want to score touchdowns. You don't want to just catch balls. A lot of people were telling me how sure-handed I was. I wanted to hear more. I wanted to let them know I was a complete receiver, and I wanted to score touchdowns."

So, Taylor worked tirelessly that offseason to improve his speed. He worked on catching the ball and getting up field, making a quick move to get away. He was determined to get in the end zone.

Fast forward to Week 3 of the 2004 season. No. 14 Auburn was hosting No. 5 LSU, the defending national champions. The home Tigers trailed 9-3 with less than two minutes on the clock, and they were driving. The "sure-handed" Taylor just made a difficult catch in traffic on 4th-and-12 to keep the drive alive.

Now it was 3rd-and-12 from LSU's 17-yard line with 1:23 left. The coaches called on Taylor once again, but this close to the goal line, the play wasn't meant to simply pick up another first down. It was designed for six.

"I just remember practicing that play all week," Taylor said. "I remember during the week it was either going to go to me or Ben Obomanu.

"They gave us a lot of different looks to where I'd catch it and to where Ben would catch it. So honestly when we called that play in the game, I was excited because I knew it was a 50-50 chance. But I was to the point where we repped this, we're prepared. 'Hey, let's go make the play.'"

I was to the point where we repped this, we're prepared. 'Hey, let's go make a play.'

Auburn went five-wide. Quarterback Jason Campbell stood alone in the backfield. Taylor lined up to his left, sandwiched in between two other wide receivers, and ran a simple quick out and up. It was a double-move route the receivers had worked on all week leading up to the game.

When Taylor cut the route up, he got behind the defense. He was wide open in the end zone.

"It just felt like the game slowed down in a sense," Taylor said. "It literally slowed down. I could see the whole track of the ball. I had time to think to myself. That's how I know that it took longer than it actually looked. I literally had time to think to myself, and all I could think about was 'Hey, let's make this play and beat LSU."

Taylor hauled in the pass from Campbell with ease, but it was no easy catch.

"The easy catches are the hardest catches," he said. "The hard catches, I wouldn't say they're routine, but we make them more than not. It's the easy catches you could possibly get a little bit relaxed, and those are the plays you can drop."

Taylor didn't drop this one. He caught it and immediately went down to one knee. For the first time, he realized the magnitude of the play. Not only had he just made the catch that would knock off the defending national champions, he also just scored his first career touchdown at Auburn – a moment he had been working all offseason for.

Former Auburn wideout Courtney Taylor

It was at that moment, when the referee's hands went up to signal touchdown and Taylor went down to one knee, that he let the roar of the crowd in.

"I tell a lot of guys this – if you play football, you kind of understand what I mean by this – you literally have no clue of what's going on around you," Taylor said. "You do not hear the crowd. It's almost like you're in a box or you're in a zone, and all you see is the defenders who are in front of you.

"So, you're digesting the coverage, you're coming off the ball, you're reading the coverage on the run, and that's pretty much all you see. When you make the play, it's like the roar of the crowd comes out of nowhere. It's so weird and surreal."

Auburn made the extra point, on the second try, and a late interception sealed the thrilling 10-9 victory. For Taylor, it was the first of six touchdowns he scored that year. For the Tigers, it was the third win in a season where they would go on to win the SEC championship and finish a perfect 13-0. Taylor caught a total of nine touchdowns in his career and is second all-time in program history with 153 career receptions, but that catch to beat LSU, his first touchdown catch, still ranks at the top.

"I've been in a lot of big games and had a lot of opportunities to make big plays, but in that game against the defending national champions, it was one of those moments where you will always remember it," he said.

Malcolm Askew senior spotlight: 'Be grateful'

Virgina Cook
AU Athletics

AUBURN, Ala. – Prior to college, Malcolm Askew strived to be a difference maker.

A four-star football prospect from McAdory High School in McCalla, Alabama, Askew also lettered in basketball and baseball. But he was more than just a great athlete with a long list of scholarship offers. He was also a member of the National Honor Society and the Mu Alpha Theta Math Honorary.

"Stay patient, trust God, and have faith" is a quote Askew remembered when making the decision to attend Auburn in January 2017.

"After taking all my visits, Auburn reminded me of my hometown of McCalla," he said.

"It was most comfortable to me and my environment. It wasn't busy but had a family feel."

Askew graduated from Auburn in three years, earning a degree in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis on sports coaching and a minor in leadership. To graduate in three years, it took a lot of hard work and discipline – something he learned from playing football.

"Everything we do in our everyday life, such as working out, getting ready for the season, and off-season workouts, prepared me," Askew said.

"Just the pushing and grinding of everything that we do not only prepares you for graduation and getting through school, but your upcoming life as well.

"All the dedication we have to put into football translates to academics and life in general."

Just like Askew will never forget his favorite moments playing football – Auburn's home victories over Georgia and Alabama during 2017's November to Remember – he too will always remember the moment last December when he walked across the stage at graduation and was awarded a diploma from Auburn University.

With a bachelor's degree already in hand, Askew will be attending graduate school at Auburn this fall where he will work to achieve a master's degree in adult education with a minor in sports management.

Now a senior on the football team, Askew has some advice for the incoming class.

"College went by so fast. Don't rush anything. Continue to love the grind and continue to love Auburn because reality comes at you fast.

"Be grateful for every second you get to wake up and be a student-athlete. Take it one day at a time."

After he graduates with his second degree, Askew wants to help troubled teens who might not have the luxury of growing up in a stable household.

He also wants to work with foundations centered around today's youth.

More than anything, he wants to give back to underprivileged kids and help them fulfill their dreams – just as Askew was able to during his time at Auburn.

Wilson Furr's record-setting 62 Clinches 2020 U.S. Amateur Stroke Play medalist honor

Aaron Jordan
UA Athletics

BANDON, Ore. – Alabama senior Wilson Furr enjoyed a historic day during the second round of the 120th U.S. Amateur championship Tuesday, recording 11 birdies to finish with a 9-under par 62. In doing so, Furr becomes the first Crimson Tide men's golfer to capture U.S. Amateur medalist honors in program history, finishing stroke play with a 36-hole score of 11-under par 132 (70-62).

With his second-round performance, Furr set the Bandon Trails competitive course record, carding the second-best single round score in a U.S. Amateur and United States Golf Association (USGA) history. Only Billy Horschel's round of 60 at the 2006 U.S. Amateur was better than the round Furr carded Tuesday afternoon. As a result, the Jackson, Miss., native will be the top seed entering round of 64 match play portion Wednesday morning.

"It is a great feeling obviously," Furr said following his record-setting round. "I got off to really good start with birdies on the first two holes. Coach (Jay) Seawell has been adamant on strategizing and has talked to me about trying pace myself, move a little slower and conserve energy. That's honestly all I was thinking out there in between shots. I wasn't focused on my score but was more thinking about not making a mental mistake and making smart decisions."

After carding a 2-under par 70 on the 72, 6,958-yard Bandon Dunes course Monday, Furr caught fire on the par 71, 6,863-yard Bandon Trails course Tuesday. He opened his round with back-to-back birdies and finished the front nine with seven birdies compared to just one bogey, resulting in a front-nine 31. He went on to birdie five of his first seven holes on the back nine before ending his round with a bogey on 17 and a birdie on 18 to result in a matching 31 on the back nine.

"What an outstanding round for Wilson," UA head coach Jay Seawell said. "He is someone who has worked tremendously hard behind the scenes to improve his game. The part I am most proud of is this was all self-driven. He's been kind to bounce ideas off me and (assistant) coach (Jon) Howell, but I love it when a young person puts their mind to something, works their tail off and ends up getting the results. I am so happy for him and proud of what he has accomplished. I just got off the phone with him and I told him to enjoy this one tonight because he just beat a bunch of very good players on a tough course in difficult conditions. I know everything starts new with match play tomorrow, so I told him to get some rest, enjoy it and be sure to get a milkshake tonight because I know I am."

Furr became the first Alabama men's golfer in program history to win the stroke play portion of a U.S. Amateur. The previous best finish by a UA golfer in stroke play at the U.S. Am came in 2006 when Mark Harrell placed second overall behind Horschel. Former great Jerry Pate is the only UA golfer to ever win the U.S. Amateur championship, capturing the match-play title in 1974.

"It hasn't sunk in that I am the U.S. Amateur stroke-play champion," Furr said. "It's amazing and I know it is a great accomplishment, but at the same time it is a strange format and Wednesday is a new day. I am playing against someone straight up, so it doesn't matter what I shot today or who won the stroke play portion. I have to get my mind right and that's where I am focusing. I feel I am playing smart golf right now and I just want to continue that and go as far as I can in match play."

Dodge City (from Front)

maggie@cullmantribune.com

DODGE CITY, Ala. – As the Aug. 25, 2020 Municipal Election approaches, The Tribune is holding Q&A sessions between candidates.

In Dodge City, voters will be choosing their next mayor. Dodge City native Gerald Turner, better known as Cullman Middle School's head football coach, is challenging incumbent Mayor Tawana Canada, who is seeking a third full term.

Why did you choose to run in the 2020 election?

Canada: "There are some things I'm hoping we can see through, for one thing, a red light at (Alabama Highway) 69 and (County Road) 216. We are working with the State and hoping eventually we'll meet the warrants and get that red light; I'd like to see that through. We're growing as a town slowly, but steadily, and I'd like to see that continue to grow, and being mayor is an interesting job. You don't just sit in the office all day every day; I may be at the senior center or at the park, or following one of the workers on the tractor or I may be filling in for (Dodge City Town Clerk) Vicki (Ogletree). It's not just a "sit in the office" job; it's a full-time job. I love Dodge City, that's the main reason."

Turner: "I have lived in the Dodge City community all of my life. I decided to run for mayor this year to do more to help Dodge City come together as a community. I would like to see some positive change and collaboration; we can accomplish so much more in our community if we can work together and form positive relationships. I plan on living in this city with my family for a long time and I want to play an active role in making sure Dodge City is a great place for the community and children here as they grow."

What would you like to do for Dodge City if re-elected/elected?

Canada: "Work on the red light I mentioned is the main thing; we need it desperately. Like I mentioned, we are in the talks. We have got that started, we're asking for traffic studies, we've talked to (Alabama Department of Transportation Director) Mr. (John) Cooper about it. That is one of the main things. It's my most asked question: 'When will we be able to get a red light (on 69 and 216)?' Hwy. 69 is of course a state-governed road, and we'd have to wait until they're willing to work with us."

Turner: "There are several projects that have been mentioned by community members. I want to bring new ideas and projects to the community that will make it a safer and cleaner place to raise and grow a family. I know other officials that I can connect with to help bring more opportunities to the area to help the local community with employment. Our community deserves the best around here, and I want to be instrumental in bringing about positive changes to help everyone."

Are there any specific projects you'd like to work on if re-elected/elected?

Canada: "The red light at Hwy. 69 and County Road 216- I can't stress enough how much it's needed than from what I've already shared."

Turner: "I want to address the current, dangerous intersection at S&S Foods: County Road 216 and State Highway 69. A new study needs to be conducted to possibly get a caution light for the safety of everyone. It is very difficult to pull onto 69 from either direction. We have a lot of elderly people who are afraid to visit our local businesses due to the concerns of pulling onto Hwy. 69 in the area. I would also like to improve the safety in the community by adding additional lighting along the highways and exit ramps. Additional lighting at the exit will attract more people to come and shop in our businesses at night and deter criminals. The current lighting is outdated, and new, efficient and brighter lights will upgrade the town's appearance.

"Finally, I am a good steward of financial obligations and understand that our taxpayers want a mayor that is a good steward of their tax money. I intend to be efficient with taxpayers' money and use it to the best of my ability to find resources that do not place a burden on our community. I will find and apply for numerous federal grants that are available for upgrades, new resources and new activities for our children and families."

Why do you think the people of Dodge City should vote for you?

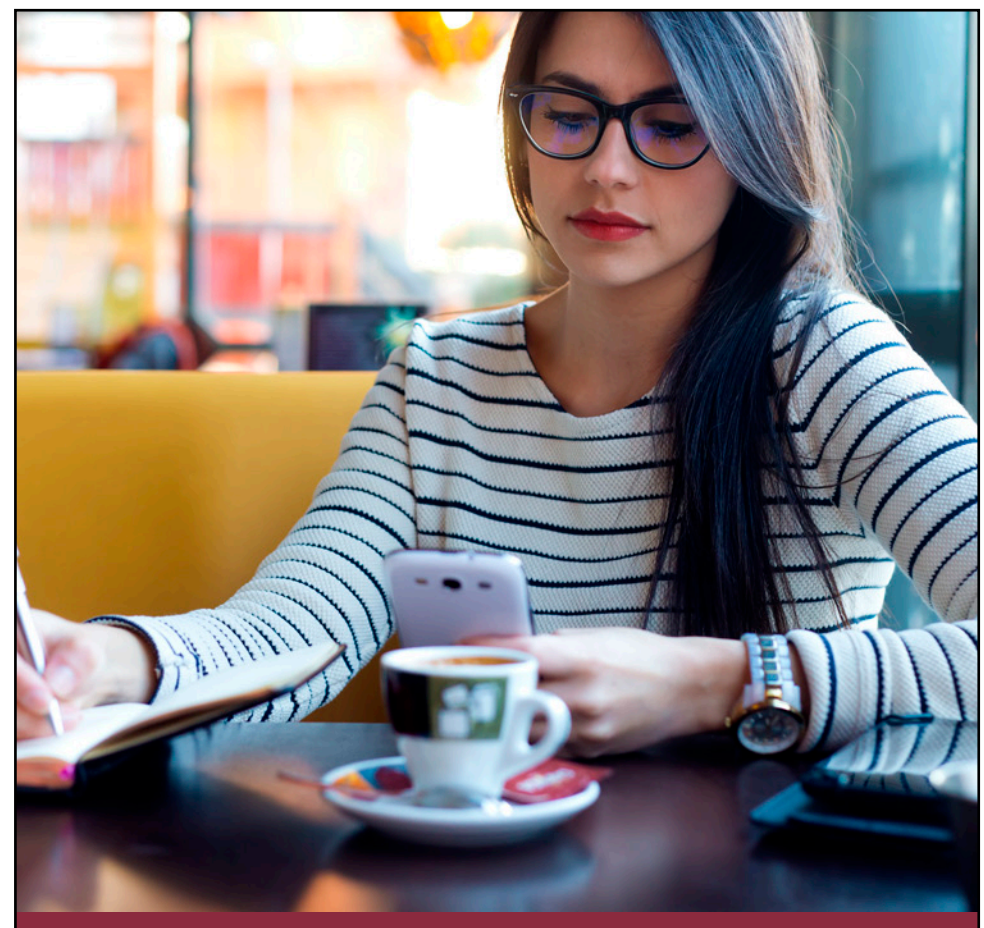

Canada: "I am the candidate that is willing to be here full-time. I'm willing to be here to work with the seniors, the park and our employees."

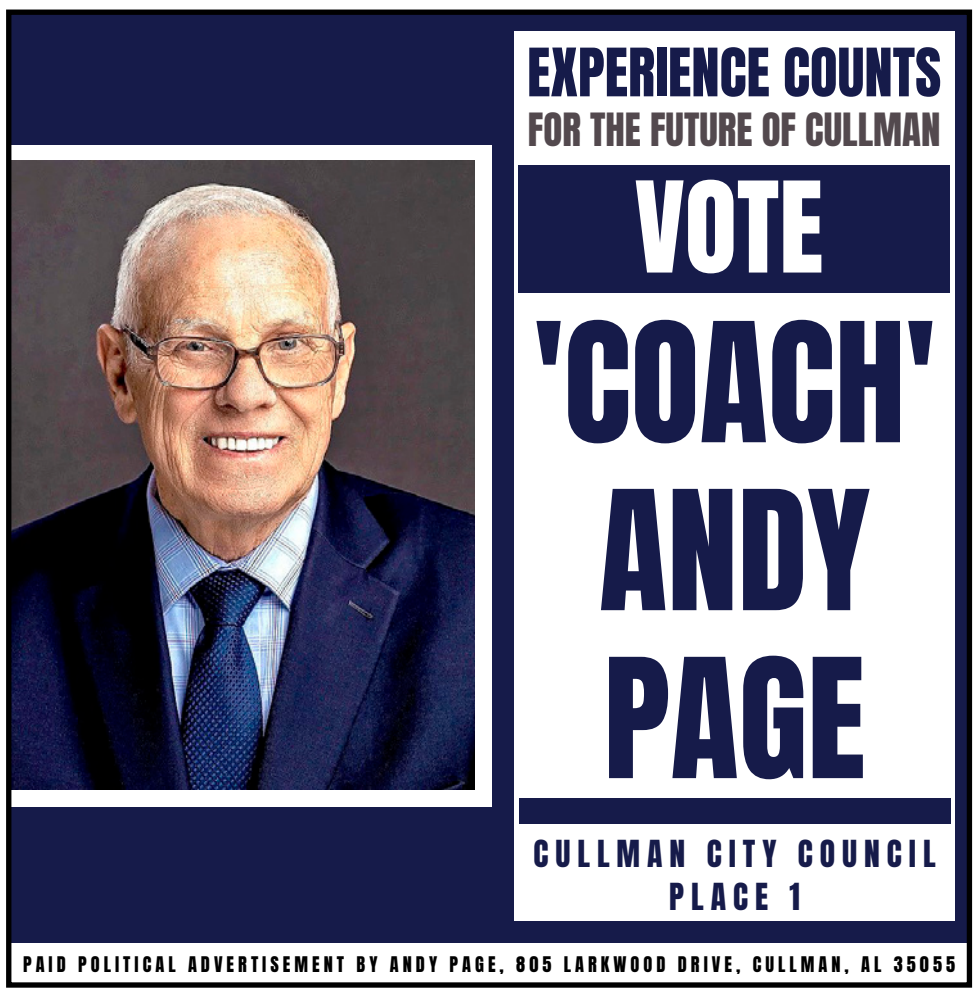

Turner: "I am a graduate of Good Hope High School and Athens State College. I have lived in Dodge City all of my life. I have been a successful businessman throughout my life, working hard to provide for my family. I have worked in education for 15 years as a teacher and coach. I understand working as a team and collaborating with people. I am married to Dr. Janet Turner, assistant principal at Holly Pond High School, and have three sons, Kyle, Colton and Houston, and four grandchildren. My parents, Earl and Eunice, loved this community, and I want to make it the best so others will want to live here and love it, too. I intend to be available for the community and lead the community in positive growth and development that will help our community members and the children in this area. I want our community to thrive so that individuals can live here, grow here and raise their families in a safe place here. I respectfully ask for everyone's vote on Aug. 25."

Alien Sharks: First Contact

This new documentary follows researchers who are determined to make first contact with some of the bizarre "alien sharks" that lurk way, way beneath the ocean's surface. On the shark "wishlist" these experts are looking for are the frilled shark, the sleeper shark, and the cookie cutter shark.

Movie: The Thomas Crown Affair

Style is everything in the original 1968 version of this sophisticated crime story, casting Steve McQueen as an urbane Boston millionaire who masterminds bank robberies for kicks. Faye Dunaway (who also was in the 1999 remake) plays the insurance investigator determined to get the goods on him — but she doesn't count on surrendering her emotions in the process. Director Norman Jewison's cast also includes Paul Burke, Jack Weston and Yaphet Kotto. The film airs tonight as part of TCM's day-long "Summer Under the Stars" salute to McQueen.

Being Reuben

A new episode called "You Are What You Eat" finds mom Vicky reduced to taking some desperate measures to get her strong-willed children to change their deplorable eating habits. Meanwhile, as Reuben's career begins to take off in a thrilling way, he falls into the predictable trap of slacking off on his schoolwork to devote time to creating content for his avid fans. Another new episode follows.

Lair of the Great White

A team of experts launch an expedition to the waters of Western Australia in a bid to study the Great White sharks of the region and try to understand why these creatures seem to be exponentially more aggressive than others of their species. Getting the answers they seek means the team must brave hostile weather, as well as venture into deep, treacherous underwater caves.

MLB Baseball

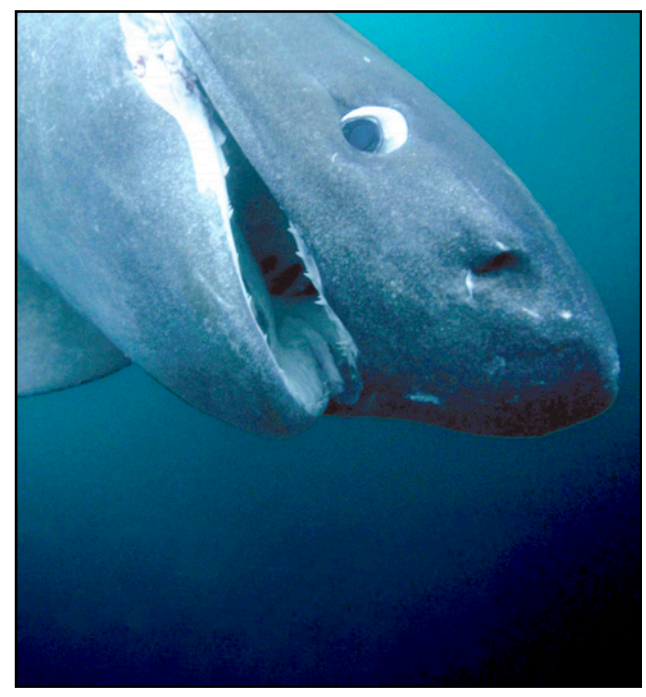

The Los Angeles Dodgers get to show off their shiny — and pricey — new addition tonight in Anaheim, Calif., when they pay a visit to their area rivals the Los Angeles Angels in the opener of a three-game series. The Dodgers made the blockbuster trade of the offseason when they acquired former AL MVP Mookie Betts from the Boston Red Sox in a five-player deal, then signed the All-Star right fielder to a record 12-year, $365 million contract. It's another expensive move by one of MLB's flagship franchises that the team hopes will finally bring it a world championship.

Tiger Shark King

After a deep-sea camera captures chilling footage of a fierce, 14-foot-long tiger shark being subjected to a brutal attack by a large unseen beast, shark expert Dr. Austin Gallagher sets off on a search for the mystery creature to determine whether it's a cannibalistic tiger shark, an unknown species of mega-shark or something else equally formidable.

Two adventure seekers who definitely got more than they bargained for recount their horrifying shark attack experiences in this new 60-minute special. In other segments, a spearfishing expedition off the coast of Australia turns into a traumatic nightmare involving a ferocious bull shark, while a Great White shark attacks a paddle boarder in the waters around Ascension Island.

"Alien Sharks: First Contact" airs on Discovery Channel.

AMC (from Front)

Neck gaiters, open-chin bandanas and masks with vents or exhalation valves are not acceptable at this time, based on World Health Organization guidelines. If needed, masks are available to purchase for just $1.

Food & drink in the auditorium
In the auditorium, masks are still required, but may be removed while enjoying food and drinks. Protect yourself and others by wearing a mask before, during and after your movie.

Social distancing standards
Please remember to maintain distance before, during and after the movie. Follow the directional signs and the reminders posted throughout the theatre for guidance.

Hand sanitizer & disinfecting wipes available
Take advantage of the sanitizer and wipe stations throughout the theatre, especially at concessions.

Simplified menu selections
For shorter lines and quicker service, we have temporarily simplified our selections. Classic movie treats like AMC Perfectly Popcorn™, Coca-Cola® Freestyle, hot dogs, candy, MovieNachos, AMC KidsPacks® and more are available now, and we'll expand the menu as soon as possible.

Condiments & more available by request
When you check out at concessions, don't forget to ask your cashier for everything you need! To reduce touch points, napkins, lids, straws and condiments like ketchup, mustard, relish, buttery popcorn topping and salt are now available by request.

Refills temporarily unavailable
To minimize contact, AMC Perfectly Popcorn™ and Coca-Cola® Freestyle drink refills are unavailable at this time.

Cashless transactions
Where tickets are sold, credit, debit or AMC gift cards are preferred to reduce contact, but cash is accepted, and may be used if needed to purchase a gift card for movie treats.

Cash is not accepted at concessions or MacGuffins® Bar in order to avoid shared contact between cash and food handling. At select theatres where tickets and concessions are sold at one location, we will accept cash if no other form of payment is possible.

Reduced auditorium capacities
All AMC, AMC DINE-IN™ and AMC CLASSIC® auditoriums are at 30% capacity or less, based on municipality guidelines. In auditoriums with traditional seating, every other row is blocked off for your safety. In auditoriums with wide AMC Signature Recliners, there is already enough space between rows to allow for social distancing. In all auditoriums, please leave an empty seat between yourself and other guests.

Once you're in the auditorium, if you are uncomfortable in your reserved seat, feel free to move to another socially distant seat after the movie starts, or see an associate for assistance or a refund.

Frequent hand washing
Wash your hands often and avoid touching your face. Managers and crew members are required to routinely wash their hands for at least 20 seconds.

Daily associate health screenings
Managers and crew members have their temperatures read before starting their shifts. Anyone who has a fever or symptoms is required to self-quarantine until symptom free for at least 72 hours.

Upgraded MERV 13 air filters
For superior air quality, we've upgraded our HVAC systems with MERV 13 filters wherever possible.

HEPA vacuum filters
Every night, we vacuum carpeted areas using vacuums with HEPA filters, which are proven to trap 99.97% of airborne particles.

Electrostatic disinfectant sprayers
Auditoriums are disinfected before each show with new electrostatic disinfectant sprayers. This cutting-edge equipment maximizes surface coverage by using negatively charged ions so that the disinfectant particles wrap around and cling to positively charged surfaces.

Routine cleaning & disinfecting
Throughout the day, common areas and high touch points are routinely cleaned and sanitized. In auditoriums, hard surfaces, including doors, handrails, recliner buttons, and tray tables will be disinfected before each showtime.

Self-check your health
If you have symptoms such as fever or cough, or have come in contact with someone with symptoms, please take care and come back to see a movie with us when you are well.

Baileyton (from Front)

christy@cullmantribune.com

BAILEYTON, Ala. – As the Aug. 25, 2020 Municipal Election approaches, The Tribune is holding Q&A sessions between candidates.

In Baileyton, voters will be choosing their next mayor. Windell Calloway, who has served on the town council in place 2 for 12 years, is challenging Mayor Johnny Dyar, who is seeking a third term.

What made you want to run for a third term as mayor / mayor?
Dyar: "I am proud of our three storm shelters. I am proud of Pat Gilbert, our town clerk. I am proud of Bobby, our maintenance man. I am proud of Zack McGee which is our chief over our fire department and our firefighters. I'm proud of them. I am proud of our senior center and I support it 100%. I am proud of the backpacks by Rhonda Van Zandt where these kids that go home from Parkside need food for the weekends. I support that 100%.

"I support Parkside School. We give each teacher $300 and I think that should continue. I am also for supporting the fire department 100%. Whatever they need and if we can afford it, I'm going to keep supporting them 100%. A town without a fire department and a town without a school ain't a town.

"I also want to thank Walker Brothers for supporting our town and helping us. Without them we could never do some of the things we've done. I am proud of our new town hall. It's second to nobody in Cullman County. I want to congratulate Eddie Clark and William Crisco for doing a great job on our display of all the little places we used to have 50-100 years ago. All that's displayed as you walk into the door at the new town hall. Also, I am proud of all the equipment we have been able to get over the last few years. We are in the process of getting the driveway paved in front of the new town hall as well as beautification with landscaping and shrubbery.

Also, I want to thank our community for pitching in on things like the PALS (People Against a Littered State) trash pick-up days.

"I just want to thank the people of Baileyton for giving me the opportunity to work for the past 12 years (four on the council and eight as mayor).

"I also want to thank my wife, Pat. Without her, I could not do what I have done because she has helped me 110%. I want to thank her for helping in the concession stand, the senior center and so much more. I am just tickled by all the support we have had. I hope the next four years turn out as great as the last eight. I also want to thank the council. They've been good and I am not going to criticize any of them. We don't owe a dime to anybody and I am proud of that. I just want to thank the council, the one that's with me now and the one that's going to come in. I think we've all worked together."

Calloway: "I grew up in this town and lived here all my life. I really love the town and the people in it. I have been on the council for 12 years. I just want to do some things to help the town grow. I really think there are a lot of things people have good ideas on and I would like to implement some of those ideas to help the town grow and progress."

What makes Baileyton a great place to live?
Dyar: "We have a good sheriff's department and I want to compliment Matt Gentry and his law enforcement. They are right here every day. We have a substation out here. They work out of the substation and they are excellent. I have never called them and them not come out here as soon as possible.

"We have a good, safe community and we've got people that call one another if they see something. It's like a neighborhood watch. They are real concerned. If we know of anyone doing or selling drugs, we just aren't going to allow it.

"We don't have the hustle and bustle of the big towns like Huntsville or Birmingham and all these big towns. We are just a little small town and I think the people in Baileyton are happy. I don't see them moving to Huntsville. If they aren't happy, I ask that they come to our meetings and talk about it."

Calloway: "We have a small community with a great location. We aren't very far from Huntsville, Birmingham, Decatur, Cullman and Arab. The people of the community are really friendly and it's a great place where they usually help each other. We have a great school, which is usually a great attraction for young couples. They are looking for a place to raise their children and for them to go to school . We have a great school here and in Fairview that it feeds into. That's a big plus."

What is your biggest concern for the town?
Dyar: "People working together and having harmony. I just think if there are people that aren't happy that they come to our meetings. Let's talk about it and work it out.

Calloway: "Getting the internet in for us right now. That's going to help our schools and our students. Hopefully we will get that shortly because we got the grant, $1.3 million, that Rep. (Randall) Shedd and Sen. (Garlan) Gudger helped to get everything going.

"The (Cullman Electric Cooperative) Co-op is coming through with it, too. All of those things are important because if you have a strong school system, you can grow as a town. If you look at most little towns and communities that have lost their schools, they kind of dry up and dwindle away. We are very fortunate to have a strong school system, but we want to keep it strong so we can continue to grow. People look at school systems when they move into a community."

What are some things you hope to accomplish in the next four years?
Dyar: "We are going to get Fire Station (Road) paved. I want to thank Rep. Randall Shedd and Sen. Garlan Gudger for the work they have done for our town. We have bought 10 more acres of land in Industrial Park and we are trying our best to get new business. We worked for years after we lost our clinic to get Dr. (Josiah) Daily. Dr. Daily he has been a huge asset for our town. That has been one of our biggest and greatest things that has happened to this town."

Calloway: "I would like to replace some of our equipment. We are going to have to do those kinds of things. I think there is some road repair that needs to be done with culverts and other things.

"We have already done some of that. I think we are going to need to improve our park. I think that is something that brings a lot of people into our area, if we can get back to where it's open again. I think the park is the real key to a lot of things. The more things you can have in the park for families and groups to come and be a part of adds to it. It adds to the atmosphere of people wanting to be there. Hopefully, we can add some things to our park-maybe adding another field or like in Fairview, they have frisbee golf. A lot of people like that. That's one idea, but several people running have some other ideas that we can talk about and we would have to see if we can afford it. Frisbee golf would be a cheap thing."

Would you support alcohol sales in the town of Baileyton?
Dyar: "No, I would not. Absolutely not."

Calloway: "Not really, but that is something we would let the people of the town to decide. Let them come by and vote, but I don't see it being a big tax thing for us and I don't think it would help our town that much."

What ideas do you have to provide family-friendly activities?
Dyar: "Some have asked me about resurfacing the town's tennis court and that is something I would consider. A splash pad is another feature people have been asking about and I would consider. I want to improve our park, without a doubt."

Calloway: "What we talked about: the park."

What is the first thing you would do if elected/ re-elected?
Dyar: "Go to work."

Calloway: "There are three things really. The first, get with the people bringing in the internet and see if there's anything we can do to help as a town.

"The second, fix our weather siren. It's been down for nearly a year and a lot of our seniors are upset because they don't know if inclement weather is coming.

"The third, I would start the newsletter again so we get more people knowing what's going on in the town. Maybe get more people involved, change things and find out what they would like to have done."

Administrative assignments announced for St. Bernard Prep

Joyce Nix
St. Bernard

CULLMAN, Ala. – St. Bernard Preparatory School recently completed its final preparations for the 2020-21 academic year. In order to respond to the changes brought about because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Offices of President and Headmaster will be combined, with Fr. Joel Martin serving in that capacity. In addition, Fr. Linus Klucsarits will now serve as the director of admissions.

"Fr. Joel is no stranger to the Headmaster's Office," said Abbot Marcus Voss, chairman of the St. Bernard School Board. "He has had many years of experience in that office prior to his appointment as the school's president. Under his leadership as president/headmaster, I look forward to seeing the school community vigorously respond to the challenges of providing a high-quality education during this time of the pandemic."

Voss continued, "Fr. Linus will make good use of his administrative experience of the past two years as he now becomes the director of admissions. He will oversee the promotion of St. Bernard Preparatory School not only in the local area, but also in other communities in north Alabama and beyond. Because we are a residence school, he will also expand our outreach to other parts of the United States and plans to recruit internationally as well."

More than 125 students are expected to begin in-person classes Monday, Aug. 17. The school has spent the past few months building and implementing a robust COVID-19 school action plan which prioritizes the safety and wellness of all students and staff. Over the summer, the dorms have been completely refurbished with new sinks, fresh paint and the restoration of the old hardwood floors. The campus quad has new turf, while the Abbey Church has a new main entrance with new sidewalks and an ADA-compliant ramp.

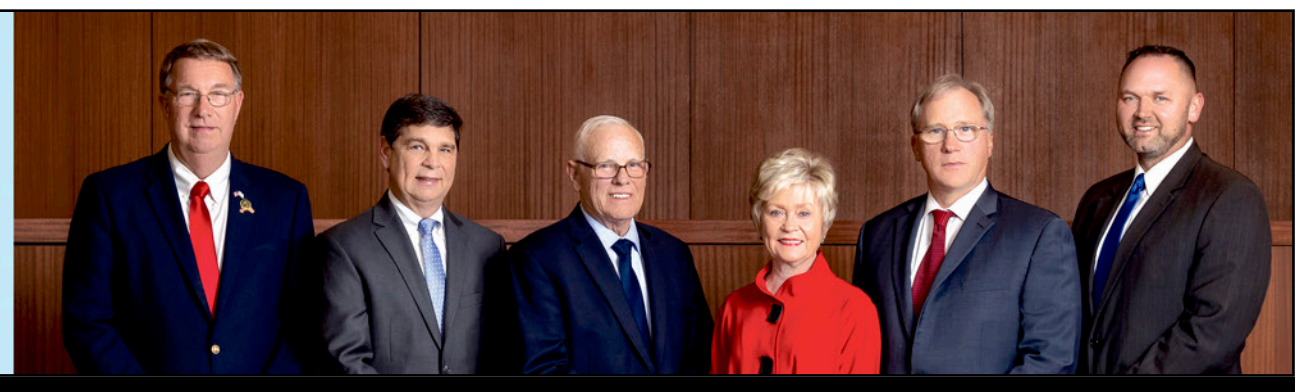

Since 1891, St. Bernard has offered a well-rounded program in a quiet, safe environment. St. Bernard is a college preparatory program for students in grades 7-12. For more information, visit www.stbernardprep.com or call the Admissions Office at 256-739-6682.
