CULLMAN, Ala. – A guardrail was installed this past year along U.S. Highway 278 West down the perimeter of the West Elementary School campus, with the aim of protecting the campus and the students, faculty and staff from any traffic mishaps on the busy roadway. Wednesday morning, local officials gathered outside the school to mark the installation and comment on its importance.

Among the officials on hand were Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs, Sen. Garlan Gudger, R-Cullman, West Elementary Principal Dr. Jay Page, Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) North Region Engineer Curtis Vincent and the Cullman City Council.

Jacobs praised all the parties involved with the project, saying, "The installation of this guardrail was the result of cooperation and teamwork between the City of Cullman, the school board and school officials, our state legislators and ALDOT. We are so thankful to everyone involved because this new guardrail will make the West Elementary School campus safer for the students and faculty."

Wallace State Nursing again earns designation as Center of Excellence

Gail Crutchfield
WSCC

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Wallace State Community College Department of Nursing Education has once again been named a Center of Excellence by the National League for Nursing (NLN). The program was the first institution in the state to achieve this honor in 2016 and is the first to repeat it.

"You have done something that no other college in Alabama, no other university in Alabama has done, and this to have done it twice," Wallace State President Dr. Vicki Karolewics recently told graduates and faculty, congratulating them for their efforts.

"With the fierceness of a lion and the desire to bring light to a hurting world, the Department of Nursing Education dares to dream of the possibilities that can happen when one melds passion, resources, and an innovative faculty and staff together to challenge students who are motivated to pursue nursing as their calling," Wallace State Nursing Chair Deborah "Pepper" Hoover quoted from the report they submitted for consideration based on enhanced student learning and professional development.

Wallace State is one of only 17 programs across the nation to receive this designation for the years 2020-2025. They include nursing programs across the country and the academic spectrum of higher education in nursing as well as leading teaching hospitals and clinical sites.

The college will be formally recognized at the 2020 NLN Education Summit Sept. 23-25, which will be held virtually this year. Currently, there are only four community colleges in the nation that have been designated by the National League for Nursing as a Center of Excellence.

"These exceptional institutions have been named 2020 NLN Centers of Excellence," said NLN President Patricia S. Yoder-Wise, RN, EdD, NEA-BC, ANEF, FAONL, FAAN, Professor and Dean Emerita at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center and president of The Wise Group.

"To earn this recognition, a team of scholars and visionary leaders co-create and sustain educational excellence. Those individuals—faculty, deans and administrators—deserve our deepest gratitude. Centers of Excellence faculty and leadership enjoy the opportunity to share their experience, knowledge and wisdom for the benefit of everyone in nursing education."

NLN CEO Beverly Malone, PhD, RN, FAAN, said, "NLN Centers of Excellence help raise the bar for all nursing programs by role modeling visionary leadership and environments of inclusive excellence. These environments help nurture the next generation of a strong and diverse nursing workforce to advance the health of the nation and the global community."

Each year since 2004, the League has invited nursing schools to apply to become a Center of Excellence, based on their ability to demonstrate in concrete, measurable terms sustained excellence in faculty development, nursing education research, or student learning and professional development.

Wallace State Community College has more health science programs than any other community college in the state. The WSCC Nursing program was the first to establish a joint partnership with the University of Alabama at Birmingham for a joint enrollment program leading to a bachelor's degree and has a partnership agreement with the University of Alabama that leads to a master's degree.

Application deadlines for Spring 2021 entry to the traditional Associate Degree Nursing and UAB/WSCC Joint Enrollment options have been extended to Oct. 1. Visit www.wallacestate.edu/nursing for more information.

Visit www.wallacestate.edu for more information about this and other Wallace State programs or call 256-352-8000. Regular and Mini Term II classes began Aug. 17 for the Fall 2020 semester, with Mini Term II beginning Oct. 14. Flex Start terms will begin Aug. 26 and Aug. 31.

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman City Schools (CCS) in 2018 presented a five-year plan to the Alabama State Department of Education that includes:

- Systemwide additions and renovations in 2020 - $300,000
- Systemwide information technology in 2020 - $1 million
- Systemwide additions in 2023 - $500,000
- Systemwide new school in 2023 - $60 million
- Cullman City BOE (office) additions and renovations in 2020 - $1.8 million
- Cullman City BOE renovations in 2020 - $800,000
- Cullman City BOE electrical only in 2021 - $750,000
- (Cullman City BOE renovations in 2024 - $1 million; added in 2019)
- Cullman City Primary School land improvements in 2021 - $2 million
- Cullman High School renovations in 2022 - $1 million
- East Elementary School renovations in 2022 - $750,000
- West Elementary School land improvements in 2020 - $50,000

The most outstanding feature to most observers is a $60 million "new school" construction project proposed for 2023.

In June 2019, CCS drew up a plan for what it termed a Strategic Building Initiative, in which it states that, at a current .51% per year rate of growth, the system will have 3,366 students by 2023, compared to 3,203 (3,184 according to the state report card) in 2018-19.

Of the increasing number of students, the plan said: "Cullman City Primary, East Elementary, and West Elementary have consolidated auxiliary teaching spaces to accommodate growth. However, the current capacity is full and any enrollment growth will result in the need for modular rental units to serve as classrooms."

Class size averages

- Kindergarten - 18.25
- 1 - 18.9
- 2 - 18.9
- 3 - 20.7
- 4 - 22.9
- 5 - 23.6
- 6 - 26.8

A look at existing building debt in the plan showed a principal of $26,389,453 owed on system construction projects (not including interest), with payoff dates ranging from Sept. 2020 to two debts that will not be paid off until July 2042.

Concept plan includes new buildings, expansion of current facility.

Along with the plan documents, CCS also had a set of design concepts drawn up by the Birmingham/Huntsville architecture firm Goodwyn, Mills and Cawood, showing that the "new school" in the five-year plan could be two new school facilities and the major expansion of a third:

- An expanded Cullman City Primary School, with a new gym, cafeteria and kitchen. The addition will add 27,500 square feet to the current facility. Cost was estimated at $7,204,000.

- A new Cullman Intermediate School adjacent to the primary school, at the end of the road leading to the school, on property already owned by CCS. The design concept presents a two-story, 120,000 square foot building that will accommodate up to 1,000 students graces 2-5. Cost was estimated at $28.9 million.

- A new Cullman Middle School adjacent to the current middle school in the block between Second Avenue Northeast, Eighth Street Northeast and Oak Drive Northeast, to be built in two phases. The second phase will move across Eighth Street and involve demolition of most of the current middle school. After the completion of both phases, the single-story building will occupy 115,000 square feet and accommodate up to 800 students grades 6-8. Cost was estimated at $27.6 million.

The plans include a new road leading into and out of the joint primary/intermediate school site from the south, alleviating some of the current traffic congestion between the high school and primary school. The intermediate and expanded primary schools would allow the consolidation and closure of East and West Elementary Schools.

The estimated cost of all three facilities in the concept plan was $63,704,000.

"Option 2"

The design concept package includes an "Option 2" which would involve only additions and renovations to Cullman City Primary School. The concept would add 45,000 square feet to the facility and feature:

- New second-grade classrooms, relieving some of the current overcrowding at East and West Elementary Schools
- New cafeteria/kitchen
- New gymnasium
- Interior renovations to classrooms and media center

The total project budget was estimated to be $11.4 million.

Cullman City School Board President Joey Orr wrote to The Tribune about the system's five-year plan:

"Each year in accordance with the 1995 Accountability law which requires a long-range capital plan for schools, as well as the requirements by the Alabama State Department of Education, our district completes a 5 Year Capital Plan. This plan is created in a meeting with attendees that are also lined out by the State Department. This team consists of a certified capital planner, the district superintendent, a local board member, community members, and school representatives. This group is tasked with looking at 3 information drivers to create these plans: student enrollment/demographic needs, existing facility/assessment data, and educational programming data. A needs list is then created with the most pressing needs of the district listed. All projects that are $50,000 or higher must be listed in the plan, even though the funding sources may be unknown at the time of the plan. The plan is created on the foreseeable needs of the district in those upcoming 5 years. This plan must be submitted to the state in September of each year for our district to be eligible to receive state capital funds. This 5-year plan is a dream list of things that we feel need to be done in the district. In a perfect world, the funding would be there and we would complete the entire list; however, in reality, it is not possible to get all these items completed. Keep in mind though that they have to be on the official plan and approved if we have any hopes of them being completed and funded."

Orr also addressed developments in facilities in the last few years, as well as hopes for future upgrades:

"New buildings have been a goal and a plan since before I was even elected to the Board. We have made great strides in these past four years to make some of these dreams become a reality. We purchased the Hoehn Drive property next to the Primary School for two purposes. One was to have the ability to make another road into the Primary property. I know that was discussed even when I was teaching at the school 15 years ago. This has been on our district's 5-year plan for quite some time, but it is costly and the land wasn't available then. This road is needed for safety and also for congestion issues on Stadium Drive. The property was also purchased with hopes of one day building an intermediate school to house our 3rd through 5th graders. This building is our most distant plan.

"We have also met with a demographer to hear about the future growth of Cullman City and how this would affect the available space in our existing school buildings. We hired an outside group to complete a building assessment on all of our 6 buildings to see what kind of grading they would give each on safety, education space, and structures. After hearing from those sources as well as speaking with stakeholders, we knew there was a need. We have taken the initial steps to create plans for an addition to the primary school that would allow for 2nd grade to be housed at the Primary School. We love this idea since 2nd grade curriculum most closely links with primary instruction (K-2) than it does with the elementary curriculum. We also have created initial plans and ideas for a new building at the Middle School. This would allow us to move our 6th graders to the Middle School campus to create a 6th grade Academy there and also update that campus and facilities to make it a safer and more educationally sound.

"This past year, the timing and the rates were such that it made perfect sense to pass a bond issue. We did so for the value of $14 million. We have that money secured and can begin a smaller project. It will in no way build an entire building, but it can move us along in our 5-year plan and help us to check off some of those items. At this moment, we have not secured further funding for other projects. There had been discussions of other bonds that Governor Ivey may offer for schools, but it has not been discussed recently due to other more pressing issues."

Funding for educational infrastructure has been a popular topic throughout Cullman's 2020 Municipal Election campaigns. Candidates for the city council and school board have voiced support for facility improvements and even new construction, as well as cooperative efforts between the City and school board, but incumbents and challengers alike have steered away from talk of taxes.

"It makes it a safer campus for us," said Page. "Obviously, we're along a pretty busy highway; we're pretty close to it and some of our buildings are close to it. We had the event where a good-sized pick-up truck came across the highway and hit the school. We had that area as a playground area and break area for our students, so having the guardrail there, we think is going to give us more protection we can use in that area for our students."

Page said talks about installing the guardrail started back in 2018, after the incident with the truck.

"It first started, it was June of 2018," he said. "I began having conversations with (Cullman City Schools Superintendent) Dr. (Susan) Patterson and eventually Mayor Jacobs.

"About August of that year, they requested to ALDOT, to Mr. Vincent, about looking into feasibility of a guardrail, so that process kind of went back and forth into the fall. He talked to me about concerns and he would tell what ALDOT could do and what they'd be able to do and then eventually, Senator Gudger, we contacted his office and they became involved and kind of advocated for us and came out and looked at what our concerns were.

"I'd say all of that was maybe a six- or seven-month process and then we were in line to have the guardrail put up. We've had the guardrail up for about 10 or 11 months, we've had it up for a pretty good while."

Vincent shared, "ALDOT's concerned for the safety of traveling motorists on our roadways.

"We had a concern here for the safety of the children at this school, so we were able to partner with the school to do something that benefited both.

"The City of Cullman stepped up, helped provide the funding to make it a safer roadway, and we're appreciative of that."

He echoed Jacobs and Page, "It's something to provide a level of safety for the school. When you have a school this close to a major highway there's always that concern. Even though there's a fence and other obstacles that might keep a vehicle from going into the area, this guardrail just provides another level of safety and ensures Dr. Page, the parents of students that 'Hey, there's something there to protect my children for the roadway,' so it's good. ALDOT appreciates the cooperation and leadership of both Senator Gudger, Mayor Jacobs and Dr. Page in providing safety on our state routes within the Cullman area and especially around the city schools."

Dodge City place 5 (from Front)

maggie@cullmantribune.com

DODGE CITY, Ala. – As the Aug. 25, 2020 Municipal Election approaches, The Tribune is holding Q&A sessions between candidates.

In Dodge City, J.V. Shelton and Kim Searcy, are challenging incumbent Councilman Erwin Chumley, who has served on the council for 24 years in place 5.

The Tribune made multiple attempts to contact Searcy for an interview to share her platform but never received a response.

Why did you choose to run in the 2020 election?

Chumley: "I've served 24 years already and I'd like to keep (serving), see if I can better the town and serve our people."

Shelton: "I helped incorporate the town many years ago. Me and the first mayor (Perry Ray) incorporated Dodge City and I've never got into politics since that, and several people have got up and asked me to run so I decided, 'What the heck, I'll just run,' and see how it works out."

What would you like to do for Dodge City if re-elected/elected?

Chumley: "We built the town hall the first term I served in. I've enjoyed living here over 50 years and I'd like to serve another term."

Shelton: "I'll try to continue the growth we have with its present mayor and get more business in if we possibly can and just help the people that are here in any way we can."

Are there any specific projects you'd like to work on if re-elected/elected?

Chumley: "Better roads."

Shelton: "Just cleaning and bringing improvement to our roads, just helping people out with things like that."

Why do you think the people of Dodge City should vote for you?

Chumley: "I'm friendly with everyone. Everyone gets along, almost like family. We work well together. We built the town a community center, we took a survey and the people wanted a brick building and they wanted a community center so we built a full basement which is the community center and the upstairs is the town hall."

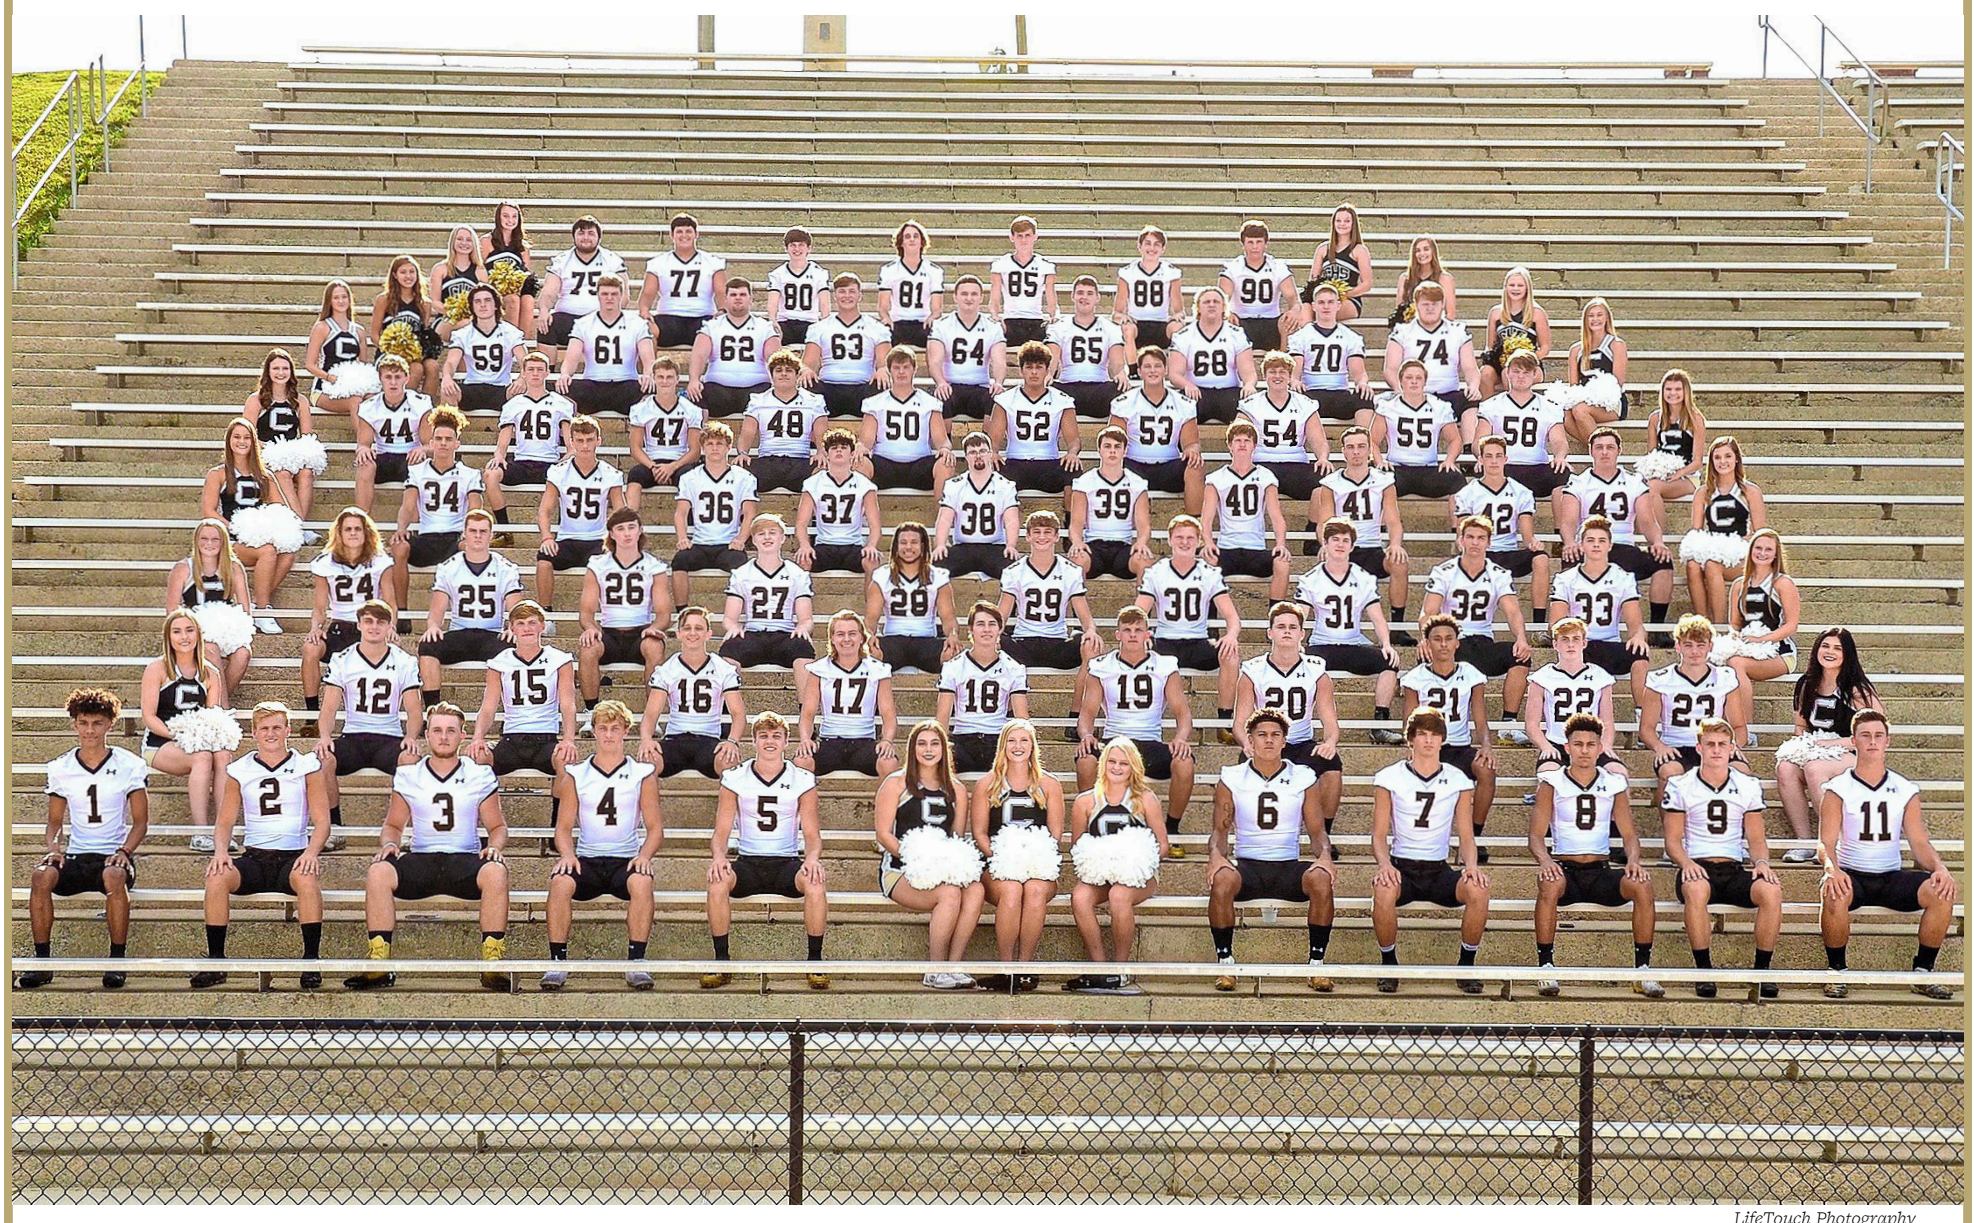

Shelton: "I've been a resident of Dodge City and owned several businesses, the 69 Quick Stop, Dodge City Barbeque, and I was involved with Dodge City's fire department for several years and when I sold the restaurant I retired and that was in 2007. We have a lot of friends in Dodge City, lots and lots of friends."

Cullman Bearcats

LifeTouch Photography

Last season was a successful one for many Bearcat fans. The 'Cats started the year 0-2 after dropping close games to Jasper and Mortimer Jordan but rallied to finish at 5-5 after defeating Hartselle in dramatic fashion and handling Fort Payne in the rain to close out the regular season. Cullman then went on the road for its first 6A playoff contest in school history and blanked Mae Jemison 20-0 to advance to the next round. The Bearcats fell to Oxford at home in the second round to wrap up the season but after building some momentum in 2019, Cullman is ready to keep the ball rolling in 2020.

Head Coach Oscar Glasscock is heading into his season at Cullman and after months of uncertainty that has carried into the preseason, he is happy to report that his players have been quick to adjust to the new guidelines and roll with the punches so far in fall camp.

"I've been doing this a long time and the kids are almost more resilient than adults. If there's any kind of drama it's almost always with adults, not any of the kids and they just want to play football. They're working hard and football is a man's game," Glasscock said. "Its hot out here, people are knocking the crap out of each other and running around in equipment and those things haven't changed since I played. It's still a tough deal and I think these guys take a lot of pride in doing what a lot of people won't do."

It's been an unorthodox few months for local teams preparing to kick off the 2020 season and the Bearcats have had to adjust like everyone else. Glasscock says its been challenging to work without a spring practice or opportunities to compete in the summer but the 'Cats are just trying to focus on the things they can control this fall.

"It's been an adjustment because all these kids haven't been in pads since early November and its been even longer than that for the ninth graders moving up. So, it's been a little different not having spring training and not being able to really compete in the summer so we're having to learn about our team and our guys playing against each other and that's definitely a challenge," Glasscock said. "Everyone is operating under the same restrictions and we've been affected by the COVID crisis just like everyone else in the state. You hear a lot of coaches talk about this and what we're focusing on is what we can control and right now we're planning on getting on a couple of buses and heading to Alabama A&M's stadium to plat Grissom on the 20th. That's what we're working towards."

Glasscock knows that his kids have already benefited from being in the football program regardless of how many games they play this season but what he may not have expected was how much he and his staff benefited from being with their players as well.

"Whether we get to play a game or not is out of our hands, but these guys have come together to work hard, be resilient and deal with adversity. So, they've benefited from being in the program and us coaches have too," Glasscock said. "We've benefited from being around these kids and just seeing how focused they are on the task at hand. That's helped us as a coaching staff with our mental health and our attitudes. We want that sense of normalcy as much as anybody, so we've really taken a lot of inspiration from how the kids have handled it."

Every coach in the country wants to win every game on the schedule but the goals Glasscock has for his team this season are about more than wins and losses. Glasscock wants his players to approach each day of this season with the right attitude and the right perspective.

"I want to make sure that these kids learn life lessons and enjoy ever single moment because it's just like with injuries or other circumstances that can come up. You never know when your last day is going to be playing high school football. Life is like that. God gives us all a burden and we have to learn how to handle that and not let it take away from our joy," Glasscock said. "I just want the kids to enjoy every moment and take pride in the fact that they've worked hard. They're learning the value of teamwork and achieving great things with the help of other people. We may play one game and that's it, we may play 10 or we may play 15 but you've got to enjoy each moment of it and not worry about the things you can't control. Let's just make the most of this day that God has given us and then we'll get another day and embrace it with a lot of joy and get after it. We want to have fun, work hard and make some memories."

Addison Bulldogs

Bill Miller Photography

Addison begins the highly unusual 2020 football season like all other teams in Alabama, with no spring practice and a ton of questions coming into the fall. Addison is coming off an 8-3 season, acceptable for most schools, but if you asked the players and Addison Head Coach David Smothers, they would tell you it should have been better. After a disappointing upset loss in the first round of the playoffs to North Sand Mountain, Addison is determined to make this season unforgettable.

"We lost a lot of production from our team last year. We lost two all-state players (WR/S Luke Chambers & DT Jeb Robinson) and a ton of experience," Smothers said. "The biggest difference between this year's team and last year is the depth and experience. What I mean by that is our reserves last year had played a lot of ball. This year we have talent in our reserves, but they haven't gotten a lot of playing time on the varsity level."

Smothers stated that having no spring practice kind of put the Bulldogs behind a little.

"I know all the schools are going through the same thing, but it really hurt us as far as finding out where kids can play," Smothers said. "Is the kid better at guard or tackle? That is what you use the spring for to find out where your young players best fit."

Addison can depend on strong-armed junior QB Christian Roberts to be a steadying influence on the field. Roberts shared time with the now graduated Grant Rice at QB last year.

"Roberts is a nice combination of speed and a solid arm," Smothers said, "Christian is as good a kid as you will find, and I expect big things from him this year. This is his team now and I know he will step up and be a fine leader."

Addison has three returning offensive lineman, junior Ross Steele, junior Mark Williams and senior Bailey Wilson, which should make the transition much easier.

"We have three of our line positions pretty well figured out and we are using practice to try and sort out the other two spots. I feel good about our line."

The Bulldogs are well stocked in the backfield with senior Weston "Big Game" Smith leading the way.

"Weston is a hoss. He runs hard and is tough to bring down." (senior) Nelson Martin, (senior) Cannon Hiller and (junior) Eli Howse have been running hard as well," Smothers said. "Hiller doesn't have a lot of experience, but he is going to be fine back there."

A big hole to be filled at WR is now graduated and UNA signee Luke Chambers. Smothers believes that junior WR Justin Mather has the ability to stretch the field and junior WR Brody Dollar is a good hands possession receiver.

junior Eli Howse will handle the placekicking and punting duties again this year.

"Eli is going to play a little more this year than just kick and punt," Smothers said. "He is a good athlete and I think he will find a spot to contribute."

Coach Smothers thinks that the defense will be solid as always.

"We need to fit some young guys in and some other older players to step up. I mean we lost some multiyear starters and some quality players from last year. I know that senior LB Nelson Martin and senior DE Nelson Hernandez are really going to step up and have great years. Our secondary will have a lot of experience coming back we just need to be more consistent in our coverages. I'm looking for one of them to step up and be the guy to get us in the right positions."

Addison has three 4A teams on the schedule this fall, and Smothers and the Bulldogs are looking forward to the challenge.

"We have a hard time getting schools our size to play us. I look as it being a challenge. We are a 2A team playing Haleyville, Hamilton and Good Hope, two of those teams were very good last year. I don't get upset when we get beat but I hate losing," Smothers said.

"Losing is when you don't compete and don't give it your best. If the other team is better than you and you play your best, well that is all you can ask your kids to do."

"Addison is a great job regardless of classification. I am around some great parents who allow me to coach their kids hard. It all started back with Coach (Aubrey) Hicks and Coach Stephenson. They laid the groundwork about hard work, hard coaching and hardnosed football.

"It just progressed from there," Smothers said. "Success bred success. Coach (Phil) Wilson, Coach (Randy) White and Coach (Steven) Smothers all had the support of the community and all had success. I am just a product of the groundwork that they laid down. I am grateful to all those coaches that came before me."

All in all, the 2020 Addison Bulldogs should be a competitive team, as always, and hopefully a long playoff run will be in the works. Roll Addi Roll!

The Addison Bulldogs will kick off the 2020 season on the road against Haleyville Friday night.

OUTDOORS

Registration now open for Alabama's Adult Mentored Hunting Program

Ala. Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Learning to hunt may seem out of reach for those who didn't grow up with hunting as part of their family tradition. For those individuals, the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources' (ADCNR) Division of Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries (WFF) created an Adult Mentored Hunting Program (AMH) to teach about consumptive outdoor recreation, put wild game on the dinner table and potentially revive or initiate that family tradition.

A variety of interests can spark a non-hunter's desire to hunt. For Connie Chow of Madison, Alabama, it was her experience attending last year's Becoming an Outdoors-Woman (BOW) event that lead to her first hunt through the AMH program.

"While at BOW, I witnessed the excitement of a squirrel hunt," Chow said. "The experience seemed so exciting and rewarding for the hunters that I wanted to take part in a hunt at some point. The self-sufficiency that comes with hunting was very appealing."

Like others who take part in Alabama's AMH program, outdoors recreation was not a regular part of Chow's childhood. She had been fishing and camping a few times, but never hunting.

"The Adult Mentored Hunting program was an excellent introduction to hunting in an encouraging atmosphere," she said. "You not only learn about hunting but also about conservation, nature and wildlife. My family was also able to join me for some of the activities. It was a chance to introduce them to some of the experiences as well."

Chow put the hunting skills she learned at an AMH workshop to good use on the first day of her mentored hunt when she harvested a buck using a crossbow.

"The different components of the program give someone who is completely new to hunting the chance to learn new skills then apply them immediately," she said. "The experience has definitely made me interested in exploring more outdoor activities like fishing, camping and clay target shooting."

Chow will utilize her new hunting skills again this fall during a dove hunt on WFF's Portland Landing Special Opportunity Hunting Area in Dallas County, Alabama.

To be eligible to attend a three-day Adult Mentored Hunt for deer or turkey, participants must be at least 19 years of age, possess a valid driver's license and be new to hunting or have limited hunting experience. Participants must also attend at least one daylong AMH workshop to be eligible for a three-day hunt. After attending a workshop, participants will be notified by email if they have been randomly selected to participate in an AMH hunt.

The daylong AMH workshops will take place throughout the state this fall. The workshops provide participants with an opportunity to learn hunting basics, firearm safety and handling, where to hunt, and the equipment and gear needed. The workshops will conclude with a small game hunt. The necessary equipment and gear will be made available at no cost to the participants.

ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND NATURAL RESOURCES

The archery skills Connie Chow developed at an Adult Mentored Hunting Program (AMH) workshop helped her harvest her first deer during an AMH hunt. Registration is now open for this fall's AMH workshops.

The first workshop of 2020 will take place at the Autauga Wildlife Management Area near Prattville, Alabama, Oct. 3. This workshop will focus on how to hunt deer with archery equipment.

As a precaution to prevent the spread of COVID-19, workshop participants and WFF staff are required to wear a facial covering and maintain a distance of 6 feet from others when possible. Participants are not required to wear a facial covering while hunting.

There is a $20 registration fee for the AMH workshops. Online registration for the workshops is currently open. To register, visit www.outdooralabama.com/hunting/adult-mentored-hunting-program. The Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources promotes wise stewardship, management and enjoyment of Alabama's natural resources through four divisions: Marine Resources, State Lands, State Parks, and Wildlife and Freshwater Fisheries. BAILEYTON, Ala. – As the Aug. 25, 2020 Municipal Election approaches, The Tribune is holding Q&A sessions between candidates.
In Baileyton, voters will be choosing new council members. In place 5, Greg Griffin is seeking re-election and will face challenger Pat Dyar.

Why did you choose to run in the 2020 race?

Griffin: "I have had the honor of being a councilman in the Town of Baileyton for the last eight years. I have been able to see a lot of changes in that time, but I see more that needs to be done for the betterment of the town."

Dyar: "I chose to run because I want to keep our senior center going. It has been very successful and I want to make sure that it continues to be. I also want to make sure our annual Christmas program for the community and the kids continues."

What would you like to do for Baileyton in the next four years if re-elected/elected?

Griffin: "I would like to see the park expand with more opportunities for the children of our area. I would also like to see more transparency in our council as far as the bills and expenses. I would also like for our seniors to have more opportunity to use the senior center."

Dyar: "I would like to continue the many great programs we already have and look into creating new programs that would benefit the people in our community. I would also like to help in seeing the completion of the town's new town hall; I am very proud of it and I hope the people of Baileyton are, too."

Are there any specific programs you would like to work on if re-elected/elected?

Griffin: "I would like to continue focusing on the park and our senior center as I mentioned before."

Dyar: "I would like to continue growing our park and providing safe and fun activities for kids and families."

Why do you think the people of Baileyton should vote for you?

Griffin: "I would like to think my record would speak for itself. It is an honor to serve the people of Baileyton and I hope to have the opportunity again."

Dyar: "I've been helping the town of Baileyton for many years. Our seniors and the children of Baileyton, in particular, are important to me. I want to continue working to make sure Baileyton grows and continues to be a better place to live for everybody."

BAILEYTON, Ala. – As the Aug. 25, 2020 Municipal Election approaches, The Tribune is holding Q&A sessions between candidates.

In Baileyton, voters will be choosing new council members. In place 4, Myra Martin is seeking re-election and will face challenger Benny Guthrie.

Why did you choose to run in the 2020 race?

Martin: "There are projects that have been started that I would like to see completed. I would like to see more work done at the park. Also, I would like to see the town hall completed and let everybody enjoy the new town hall and the things it's going to do to help the community. There are things in general that the people in Baileyton need and want that we could follow through on the things that are going on."

Guthrie: "I have a desire to serve my community. I live in the town of Baileyton and would love to be part of its continued success and growth. I chose to run for the seat not to run against anyone, but to run in order to serve my community."

What would you like to do for Baileyton in the next four years if re-elected/elected?

Martin: "We have some projects going on now. We're wanting to pave the driveway for the new town hall and we are wanting to have some shrubbery put out. We would like to see some roads paved. Also, I would like to see the completion of the broadband that has started. We were fortunate that (Rep.) Randall Shedd and (Sen.) Garlan Gudger were able to help get the funds for the Baileyton and Joppa communities. We weren't expecting the funds that fast and I would really like to see that through."

Guthrie: "If elected to serve the town of Baileyton, I want ALL community members to know I am there to support them. In four years, I see our town flourishing. I see our town as a place that people will want to visit and live. I see it steadily growing with new businesses and opportunities for others to want to get involved. We have an outstanding fire department with EMS services, local churches for different denominations of faith, town hall second to none, community leaders and members who truly want what is best for the community, senior center to help them be a positive impact on the community and enjoy their community, local businesses and restaurants serving our community for years to come. I see Baileyton as a thriving community that comes together for all ages."

Are there any specific projects you would like to work on if re-elected/elected?

Martin: "Right now, we are just completing what we've got started. Whatever comes up, I am sure I will be involved in it. We'd like to get our senior center started back. It's been closed down since the virus hit and I would like to help get that started going again and get our attendance back up there for our older generation. We haven't been on trips or anything and I would like to see our seniors get to enjoy our bus and all the conveniences of the senior center.

"I would also like to see a memorial put up at the park for all our veterans. We are also going to put, on the inside of the town hall, plaques honoring all the past mayors and council members. I'd like to see that completed."

Guthrie: "While we have the senior center already established and going well, I would love to see it continue to grow and provide opportunities for them to serve as mentors for our younger generation. I would like to continue to celebrate our seniors on a regular basis. Also, I would like to incorporate some activities that would include things for ages 15-60.

"We currently have nothing for those ages to enjoy or do in our community. It could be a weekly game night at the senior center or covering the tennis and basketball courts and adding additional lighting for night activities that could give them a place to go in all types of weather. We could even sponsor a monthly 'concert in the park' type event. I look to be open minded to ideas that our community would see beneficial to enrich our families in our town."

Why do you think the people of Baileyton should vote for you?

Martin: "I believe I am the most qualified and I have been involved in all these projects. I feel like I can do the best for the community to see that they are completed. When I was a postmaster, I was the president of the National Association of Postmasters for Alabama for a year. The term only lasts a year. I learned a lot about how to treat people. The leadership skills learned as a postmaster have really helped me and prepared me for this position."

Guthrie: "As a member of this community for the past 53 years, I have enjoyed serving everyone. I believe in honesty, integrity, hard work and fairness. I will stand up for what is right and do all I can to support our community anyway possible. I love my community and I have a heart to serve."

Cullman City Schools releases fan guidelines for fall athletics

wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – Cullman City Schools on Wednesday released "Fall Athletics Fan Guidelines." The guidelines say participants, spectators and employees must stay 6 feet apart and face coverings have to be worn when entering, exiting or moving about Oliver Woodard Stadium or any other facility and any other time the 6-foot distance cannot be maintained between members of different households. Athletic facilities will top out at 50% capacity and visiting bands will not be allowed on the football field at any time. Spectators can enter an outdoor facility 45 minutes prior to the event and an indoor facility 30 minutes prior to the event.

Cullman High School is strongly encouraging visitors to pre-purchase tickets online at www.GoFan.com, as there will only be one cash gate at Oliver Woodard Stadium. Cullman Middle School will not be selling tickets online.

Also, spectators at small outdoor events are encouraged to bring their own chairs to distance themselves from other family groups if permissible by the host school.

Below is the full text of the "Cullman High School Athletic Competition and Spectator Guide: COVID-19 Precautions."
Please refer to precautionary steps listed below regarding COVID-19 at athletic events. Per the Alabama Department of Public Health, Alabama High School Athletic Association, and Alabama State Department of Education, Alabama High Schools must adhere to the guidelines referenced in the ADPH Back to School Toolkit, Alabama High School Athletic Association Best Practices Return to Play and Governor's Order dated July 29, 2020.

Our goal is to establish procedures to provide our student-athletes the opportunity to play.

The more we can do to mitigate the spread of the COVID-19 virus, the more opportunities our student-athletes will have to participate in their sport and/or activity.

"The AHSAA Best Practices was created to mitigate-not eliminate- the risk of COVID-19. As a result, our schools are strongly encouraged to establish and follow policies for limiting event attendance in order to comply with the Current Order and requiring fans to wear masks at all times including, but not limited to, when entering/exiting the gates, sitting in the stands, visiting the concession stand and restroom, etc."

1. All participants, spectators, and employees must adhere to six-foot physical distancing when possible.

2. Tickets will be sold based on 50% of our stadium's capacity. It is strongly recommended to pre-purchase tickets via GoFan to avoid a potential long line at the cash gate. Individuals who do not pre-purchase digital tickets must stand in line to purchase cash-only tickets at the South Gate on Oak Drive, exact change must be provided.

3. Face coverings (over the nose and mouth) shall be required as a condition of all guest ingress, egress, and movement throughout the stadium, as well as any time guests are unable to maintain the recommended physical distance from others who are not in their same household.

4. School administrators and band directors will work together collectively to determine appropriate measures for visiting bands. Visiting bands will not be permitted on the field at any time. Bands and cheerleaders must not intermingle among schools. Each band and cheer team must bring their own water for their organization.

5. Spectators will be allowed into the indoor athletic facility no less than 30 minutes prior to competition play.

6. Spectators will be allowed into the outdoors athletic facility no less than 45 minutes prior to competition play.

7. Spectators at small outdoor events are encouraged to bring their own chairs to distance themselves from other family groups if permissible by the host school.

8. Events will be broadcast on the B earcat News Network.

1. AHSAA guidelines and rules of play will be followed in all competitions.

2. Home and away coaches, band directors and cheer sponsors are responsible for checking the temperature of coaches, players, and participants prior to each competition. The host team will be responsible for checking symptoms, temperatures of gate workers and officials prior to the event.

3. Coaches must conduct daily symptom assessment for themselves and their players. Anyone experiencing symptoms must stay home.

4. All participants, spectators, and employees must adhere to six-foot physical distancing when possible. Players, coaches, officials, and spectators shall wear a mask or other facial covering that covers his or her nostrils and mouth at all times when within 6 feet of a person from another household or any time physical distancing cannot be maintained by students, coaches, spectators, etc. (This includes sidelines, benches, etc. for all contest participants.) The only exception is when a player or official is directly participating in the athletic activity. (Based on the July 29, 2020 Current Order of the State Health Officer).

5. There will be no team "shared" water coolers or drink stations. Students must have their own individual water container.

6. Tickets will be sold up to 50% of the facility's seating capacity. Some schools will be utilizing digital ticketing. That is at each school's discretion. Cullman Middle will not be utilizing digital ticketing. Spectators will pay at the door. Cullman High School will be using online ticketing sales. Any school has the right to not have spectators attend the game.

7. Students cannot carpool to any events. Athletes may, and are encouraged to ride in only their parent or guardian's vehicle to athletic competitions. Buses will be used for away events if needed with social distancing guidelines followed as best as possible.

8. Spectators will be allowed into the indoor athletic facility no less than 30 minutes prior to competition play.

9. Spectators will be allowed into the outdoors athletic facility no less than 45 minutes prior to competition play.

10. Face coverings (over the nose and mouth) shall be required as a condition of all guests, and for movement throughout the stadium or gym.

11. Upon completion of the competition, fans and all non essential personnel will be required to exit the facility immediately or as safely as possible considering the size of the crowds.

Below is the full text of the "Athletic and Extracurricular COVID-19 Public Service Announcement."
The following information must be distributed to guests and visitors prior to events. This announcement should also be posted at entrances and read aloud over PA systems before and periodically during events.

"Per ADPH orders and Governor Ivey's order on July 29, 2020: https://alabamapublichealth.gov/legal/assets/order-adph-cov-gatherings-072920.pdf, the following guidelines must be followed by guests of Cullman High School - including large outdoor gatherings:

1. Wash hands frequently - guests at events are encouraged to bring your personal hand sanitizer. The school will provide hand-washing soap in the restrooms.

2. Stay 6-feet apart from other family groups

3. Wear a mask when you are in crowded places or are unable to maintain a 6-foot distance.

4. To help ensure the safety of our staff and visitors, all guests must pick up their own trash and dispose of the trash receptacles before leaving the event.

All visitors and spectators should screen and monitor yourselves and your family members for any signs of illness including fever or chills; cough; shortness of breath or difficulty breathing; fatigue; muscle or body aches; headache; new loss of taste or smell; sore throat; congestion or runny nose; nausea or vomiting; and diarrhea, and stay home if you have any symptoms of illness.

If you have been in close contact with a positive COVID case you should not be present at athletic events.

Attendance at school events will confirm whether the spectators and visitors have answered "no" to all questions. Answering "yes" to any of the questions means the spectators and guests should stay off-site and not attend school events."

2020 AIG Women's Open

The storied links of Royal Troon Golf Club near Glasgow, Scotland, is the scene as the LPGA's best tee it up in the AIG Women's Open. Hinako Shibuno will defend her title on the 7,175 yard, par-71 configuration best known for its "postage stamp" eighth hole, a 123-yard par-3 with a tiny 293-square yard green. A year ago, she birdied the final hole to card a final round 4-under par 68 to win her first Tour event.

PGA Tour Golf

TPC Boston in Norton, Mass., is the scene beginning today as the top PGA Tour players get ready to do battle in the Northern Trust. Patrick Reed ended a 16-month drought here last year on the 7,216 yard, par 73 course, shooting a two-under 69 in the final round to register a one-stroke victory over Abraham Ancer. He'll return to defend his title against a field that at this writing had not been announced.

Mysteries Decoded

Jennifer Marshall, a U.S. Navy veteran turned private investigator, previously has had occasion to examine alleged evidence of the elusive creature known as "Bigfoot," but as this newsmagazine opens Season 7, she teams up with cryptozoologist Andrew Sanford to scrutinize brand-new Bigfoot footage that has surfaced, this time from an official source. The episode also updates previous interviews with eyewitnesses and experts in this field of study.

Only three survivalists remain in contention for the million-dollar jackpot as this season's competition comes to an end in the finale "Over the Edge." With victory so close, the trio square off against one another as they summon the necessary strength to fight below-zero temperatures, gnawing hunger, injury and their own relentless inner demons to make it to Day 100.

Movie: The Senator Was Indiscreet

George S. Kaufman primarily is remembered as a playwright whose Pulitzer Prize-winning collaborations with Moss Hart still delight audiences today. In 1947, however, Kaufman stepped behind Hollywood cameras to direct his only film. The comedy stars William Powell, cast against type as a not-terribly-bright politician who decides to run for president. Ella Raines co-stars as a reporter who wants to get a peek at the senator's juicy private diary. The film airs as part of a "Summer Under the Stars" salute to Powell.

8 p.m. on FOOD
Restaurant: Impossible

In the unusually emotional new episode "Branching Out in Missouri," host Robert Irvine returns to family-owned Drake's Place in Ferguson, Mo., where business has suffered due to both the ongoing coronavirus pandemic and lingering community unrest since the racially charged riots of 2014, following the police shooting of Black resident Michael Brown. Among his other improvements, Robert tries to help the owners expand their business to bring in more revenue and help the eatery catch its second wind.

9:01 p.m. on A&E
Court Cam

Among the highlights in the new courtroom footage introduced by host Dan Abrams, the overwrought brother of a murder victim tries to get direct revenge during trial proceedings, and a defendant turns into a one-man army as he takes on a team of courtroom officers. In another segment. a defendant causes alarm when he takes aim at a judge with a decidedly unusual potential weapon.

Jennifer Marshall hosts "Mysteries Decoded" on The CW.

MR. GUIDO'S TOMATO SAUCE

(from Friends of the Public Libraries of Cullman County Secretary Renée Welsh)

Prep Time: 30 minutes
Cook Time: between 1-2 hours
Servings: 12
Difficulty: Easy

Ingredients:

- 2 cans of whole tomatoes- 28 oz. sized cans
- 2 small cans tomato paste
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 4 cloves garlic chopped
- 8 oz. portabella mushrooms chopped
- fresh or dried basil 3-5 tbsp.
- 1 tsp. black pepper
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 pinch baking soda (baking soda is a base, reducing the acidity of the tomato)
- 4 tbsp. olive oil
- 1/3 cup grated Parmesan or Romano Cheese
- 28 oz. water
- 1 tsp. red pepper flakes (optional)
- 1 pound hamburger meat (browned) (optional)

Directions:

1. Heat the olive oil in a 5+ qt. pot over medium heat, and add the onion and salt.
2. Sauté for 10 minutes or so, stirring often and being careful not to burn it.
3. Add the chopped or pressed garlic and chopped mushrooms.
4. Heat for another 5 minutes, making sure not to burn the garlic, then add all the whole tomatoes, black pepper and basil. Stirring often, bring to a low boil.
5. Immediately reduce heat to low and stir in the tomato paste and 28 oz. of water (use the empty tomato can). Simmer for 1-2 hours stirring every 30 minutes. After the first 30 minutes, stir in the baking soda and pepper flakes and browned meat.
6. For the first half of the simmer time, do so with the pot uncovered, then cover.
7. After the 1-2 hours, add the cheese, stir in and continue simmer for 5 minutes.

Note: We add grated cheese to the sauce recipe for basic flavor. When typically served over pasta, you can add more cheese to the pasta and sauce mixture.

MARINATED CHEESE

Refrigerate: 8 hours before servings

- 1/2 cup olive oil
- 3 tbsp. minced green onions
- 3/4 tsp. dried basil
- 1/2 tsp. fresh ground black pepper

- 3 tbsp. chopped fresh parsley (not dried)
- 1/2 cup white vinegar
- 1 tsp. sugar
- 1/2 tsp. salt

- 1 5/12 x 2 x 1 block (8 oz.) sharp cheddar cheese
- 1 block of cream cheese (8 oz.) well chilled (not low-fat)

Directions:

1. Combine first 10 ingredients in a jar, cover and shake until well blended - set aside.
2. Cut block of cheddar cheese in half - lengthwise.
3. Cut cross-wise into 1/4 thick slices and set aside.
4. Do the same with the cream cheese.
5. Arrange slices alternately in a shallow dish and pour marinated mixture over slices.
6. Cover and refrigerate for 8 hours.
7. Transfer cheese slices onto a serving platter and pour marinade over all.
8. Serve with assorted snack crackers.

Note from Welsh: We have lived in over a dozen cities throughout the U.S. and outside this great nation. It was important to us to have a strong school system for our daughter, and a welcoming Catholic church which for us translated to a welcoming choir. Choir members love to get together to celebrate birthdays and holidays - just for any ole reason. This cheese and cracker dish has been served throughout the East Coast - many homes and Parish centers. And because of the greens and reds in the marinade - makes a spectacular Christmas presentation!
