VINEMONT, Ala. – The Cullman County Board of Education (CCBOE) and Cullman Area Technology Academy (CATA) on Tuesday unveiled a 2019 Mercedes-Benz c300 sedan donated to the school's Automotive Service Technology department by the German automaker's Tuscaloosa plant. The vehicle, which was used for training at the plant, will provide students with an opportunity for hands-on experience with state-of-the-art technology, and creates a partnership that could lead to career opportunities with the manufacturer for CATA graduates.

CCBOE Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette told The Tribune, "We're very excited about this partnership with Mercedes. Steve Colburn, who's from Mercedes, has worked closely with Wallace (State Community College) and their internship program, and through this partnership, we're hoping that we'll feed right into the Wallace program, but ultimately we're wanting to turn students right out of high school to go get jobs at Mercedes. In conjunction with all our partnerships at Wallace, we're hoping that this will work hand-in-hand together. We're really excited about this."

"The beauty of this whole program is the technology," said CATA Principal Billy Troutman. "This car is state-of-the-art; it's new, and so it's going to allow our kids an opportunity to build some capacity, build some knowledgeable skills in something that they typically don't have a chance to work on. The car is great, because not only do we have a vehicle, we'll in turn supplement that with some current tools, some technology that we need to diagnose, troubleshoot and work on the car, and it's just going to open up a whole new set of possibilities and a whole new world of knowledge that they might not be able to be exposed to otherwise. That's a big deal that we're excited about."

CULLMAN, Ala. – Wednesday morning, Sept. 9, Good Hope Contracting will begin work on a $268,967 contract to repair/patch a 2.5-mile stretch of the four-lane part of U.S. Highway 31 near Hurricane Creek Park in Cullman County, near the Morgan County line.

Motorists are advised to expect single-lane closures between 6 a.m. and 8 p.m. daily and to plan additional travel time in anticipation of delays.

The Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) anticipates all work being completed by mid-October.

CATA Automotive Service Technology instructor Tim Melton added, "We're proud to have the car. It's just going to be good for the kids to have the experience, especially on something this new, because we don't often get to work on something this new and high-tech."

Melton said the first hands-on project on the car would be a detailed look at the basic systems like brakes and suspension, before moving into higher end features like electronics.

"This is an incredible opportunity for our students to prepare for a future in the automotive industry. MBUSI (Mercedes-Benz U.S. International, Inc.) has a wonderful apprenticeship program and this vehicle donation will be used to prepare students for possible careers in the service industry as well as opportunities in manufacturing. We are truly honored to receive this donation and very proud to have a partner like MBUSI that not only influences their community, but communities around the state as well," said Troutman.

Positive Student Impact Automotive students will be able to use this vehicle to hone skills in trouble shooting, maintenance, electronics, engine, transmission, suspension and steering, brakes and many other aspects related to the repair of this vehicle. Students will use state of the art diagnostic tools and equipment to build a skill set that will prepare them for employment in today's competitive marketplace.

Telethon (from Front)

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – Hanceville-based pregnancy services organization First Source for Women (FSW) is getting creative and hosting a live telethon fundraising event Oct. 29, 2020 from 5-9 p.m., and the group is seeking local talent to take part.

According to FSW, "Singers, bands and other artistic talents are encouraged to submit a video audition that is two minutes or less. Individuals and groups that are selected will be asked to attend a rehearsal on Oct. 22 as well as the fundraising event on Oct. 29. Each participant will receive a telethon T-shirt!"

Video auditions can be emailed to firstsourcetelethon@gmail.com until Sept. 23. FSW said, "Show us what ya got!"

What is First Source for Women?

FSW Executive Director Catherine Bethell explained in a previous interview, "First Source for Women is a Christ-centered, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization. We are a pregnancy care resource center offering education, compassion, love and ongoing support to the women we serve. We believe women can overcome any obstacle placed before them when given the correct information and support.

"Although each woman that comes to us has her own unique story, there is a resounding common feeling... fear: the fear of what their parents will say, fear they cannot parent well, fear their plans and goals are gone forever, fear they cannot do this alone. This is our purpose, this is why we are here: to walk with them and show them the face of Christ, to show them that they are never alone."

Services offered by FSW include:

- Pregnancy testing
- Limited ultrasounds by trained, licensed nurses
- Confidential options education
- Mentoring by a Life Affirming Specialist who will provide education, guidance and support for the duration of a client's pregnancy
- Positive choices sexual risk avoidance education
- Access to the FSW baby boutique for clothes, diapers, baby supplies and baby beds
- Mentoring for fathers and fathers-to-be by male counselors
- Developing employment skills
- Post-abortion counseling and recovery
- Referrals to other community agencies (food, clothing, shelter, financial assistance, etc.)

All of FSW's services are offered free of charge. An "earn while you learn" program allows clients to take classes in childbirth, parenting skills, relationship skills, nutrition, health and other subjects- and receive for each class "mommy money" they can spend in the boutique for even more things.

The FSW "Storkmobile mobile unit travels to outlying communities to provide onsite pregnancy testing and ultrasounds.

Day (from Front)

Christy Perry
christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – This Wednesday, Sept. 9, Barbara Faye Speegle will celebrate her 85th birthday with her friends and staff at Morningside Assisted Living in Cullman. Speegle's family has had very limited visitation with her since the COVID-19 shutdown orders were issued in March. Sunday, her family arranged for a car parade at Morningside to celebrate "Nana's" special day.

Speegle and her late husband Felton raised their family in the Cold Springs community. They had four children and now have eight grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Most were present to wish her a happy birthday Sunday afternoon.

Her son, Allen Speegle said, "We've had times when we could visit at a distance, but we went a couple of months where we couldn't visit her at all."

Recently, they have been limited to visits by appointment and with plexiglass in between them.

Allen Speegle added, "Mother had a heart attack six years ago. They brought her back nine times in 16 hours. For her to be alive is a miracle. My mom, she is so sweet and easy to get along with."

The family is grateful for the staff at Morningside for the care they give their Nana.

Speegle was all smiles Sunday as her family drove through and sang "Happy Birthday" from their vehicles. They gave her presents and a box of homemade cupcakes.

Speegle has been a resident at Morningside Assisted Loving for almost three years. She enjoys reading and playing bingo and looks forward to spending time with her family.

She said afterward, "I enjoyed every minute of it. This quarantine is for the birds!"

Warrior weapons ready to open region play Friday

Chris Pugh
Tribune Correspondent

WEST POINT, Ala. – While West Point didn't plan on going into region play sitting at 0-2, the record doesn't come close to telling the whole story. The Warriors have proven so far in non-region play that they have all the weapons they need to hang with anyone.

The Warrior offense has been led by senior quarterback Will Cochran, who has demonstrated he's a true dual threat quarterback. While he is certainly looking to get the ball to his many weapons, he has no problem finding yards on the scramble or the designed run play. In this day of football where many quarterbacks are expected to pass and run, Cochran is more than capable of both, which makes him a great prospect for the next level. He's shown he can connect on the deep balls, find the small windows on the short and outside passes and can move around the pocket to help give his receivers time to get to the top of their routes.

While Cochran certainly does his share of playmaking, he has a group of receivers that are making life much easier for the senior signal caller. Jacob Dye, Branson Smith and Kobe Bowers have all proved to be reliable weapons for the Warrior offense. That's what makes this group so dangerous. Opposing defenses are never safe. Usually when finding yourself getting an offense to third and long, a defense feels a sense of security and confidence, but West Point has shown that when it finds itself in that situation, it has the playmakers all around who can dig out of any hole, no matter the size.

Of course, this wouldn't be possible without the guys up front anchoring the line of scrimmage. It's imperative for a quarterback to have time to allow his receivers to get down the field and the Warrior line has given Cochran just that throughout this early season. That's not the only thing they have provided though. Running back Kelton Washington has proven to be a dangerous balance to the Warrior passing attack. Washington has given West Point a "ground and pound" feature that will require opposing defenses to stay honest and keep an adequate amount of defenders in the box. This balanced offense is capable of scoring points at any time, anywhere on the field.

Defensively, West Point has seen two very talented offenses. Both Good Hope and Lawrence County had a quarterback/running back duo that will be among the best they see all year, yet they proved on several possessions that they can get physical and shut an offense down at the line of scrimmage.

The Warrior defense has done a great job forcing teams to third downs. On all three levels there are playmakers. Defensive end Ashton Thraikill comes off the edge and has made several big stops. Linebacker Keaton Chappel is all over the place once the ball is snapped and if he isn't the one getting the tackle you will certainly find him at the ball.

BILL PIPER/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

The West Point Warriors will open region play at home against Boaz Friday night.

In the secondary, Carter Thornton has shown he can make an impact whether it's coming up for a tackle or defending the pass. The key for this group will be getting off the field on thrid down. The Warrior defense has a lot of potential and I expect it to only keep improving throughout the season.

On special teams, Kicker Logan Selby is making his mark on every game as he is perfect for the season on extra points.

In an area where many high school teams lack, West Point will have a tremendous advantage having a clutch kicker. As the Warriors enter region play, look for the impact of the special teams unit for the Warriors.

Coach Farley knows what his team is capable of and has done a great job lifting his guys up through a disappointing start. As he said Friday night, the difference in the outcomes of their games so far has only been about 4-5 plays and he and his staff are laser-focused on cleaning up some of those details that he knows will add up to winning outcomes.

West Point will be looking to get in the win column when it hosts a talented Boaz squad in the region opener Friday night.

Check back for a preview of all this week's games in Thursday's edition of The Cullman Tribune.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR:

• UAB is coming off a season-opening 45-35 victory over Central Arkansas in which the Blazers set a Conference USA record with their 19th-consectuive home victory. This is Miami's first game of the season and its only non-conference game of the year.

• Spencer Brown opened his senior season by tallying his 14th career 100-yard rushing performance. Brown rushed 24 times for 127 yards and a touchdown. He now has 3,249 career rushing yards and is the nation's second active career leading rusher.

• Fellow senior Austin Watkins Jr. had seven catches for 72 yards, and in the process cracked UAB's Top 10 for career receiving yards. Watkins Jr. now has 1,246 career receiving yards in just 19 career games.

• Tyler Johnston III was 17-of-25 for 143 yards, two touchdowns and one interception in the season opener, and improved his record to 11-4 as the starter. Redshirt freshman Bryson Lucero was also impressive in his first substantial action, completing 7-of-9 passes for 83 yards and a touchdown.

• Despite allowing 35 points to the Bears, the UAB defense had a very solid outing which included six tackles for loss, two sacks, six pass breakups, five quarterback hurries and one interception. 21 of UCA's 35 points came off UAB turnovers.

• Sophomore Nikia Eason Jr. registered both sacks for the Blazers. He was one of two players in the nation to have multiple sacks in the first week of the season (Isaiah Kaufusi – BYU).

• Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year candidate Kristopher Moll returns home to Miami this week. Moll had eight tackles, two pass breakups and two quarterback hurries in the season opener.

• The defense allowed just 293 total yards against UCA with 193 coming through the air and 100 on the ground.

• Redshirt freshman placekicker Matt Quinn was named the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Week. Quinn was perfect in his collegiate debut, going 6-of-6 on PAT and 1-of-1 on field goal attempts. Junior punter Kyle Greenwell also had a great outing, compiling a 45.0 yards per punt average on four punts. He had a long of 53 and pinned two inside the 20.

• Miami begins year two under the direction of head coach Manny Diaz after a 6-7 record last year. The Hurricanes have a new offensive coordinator in Rhett Lashlee, who was most recently the offensive coordinator at SMU.

• Not only will this be the first game for Lashlee, but also for starting quarterback and Houston graduate transfer D'Eriq King. In his career at Houston, King threw for over 4,900 career yards and 50 touchdowns, while rushing for over 1,400 yards and 28 touchdowns.

• Miami has not lost a home opener since 2006. The Hurricanes return 11 starters and 39 letterwinners from last year's team.

Following Miami, the Blazers will have an off week before heading to South Alabama for their third-consecutive Thursday night game. UAB and South are scheduled to play on Thursday, Sept. 24 on ESPN at 6:30 p.m. CST.

UAB sets C-USA record with 45-35 victory over Central Arkansas

Ted Feeley
UAB Athletics

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – History was made once again at Legion Field on Thursday night as UAB set the Conference USA record with its 19th consecutive home victory, defeating Central Arkansas 45-35.

The 19 wins in a row broke a tie with former C-USA member Houston who won 18 games from 2007-10, and the nation's fourth longest active home winning streak is still intact.

UAB (1-0) put up 459 yards of total offense and used a well-balanced attack, with 226 yards coming through the air and 233 on the ground. UAB's career leading rusher Spencer Brown had his 14th career 100-yard rushing game, going for 127 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries. Jermaine Brown added 75 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries. Lucious Stanley pitched in with 25 yards and a touchdown.

The Blazers used a two-quarterback system with redshirt junior Tyler Johnston III and redshirt freshman Bryson Lucero. Johnston III finished 17-of-25 for 143 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Lucero was 7-of-9 for 83 yards and threw his first career passing touchdown.

Austin Watkins Jr. led the receivers with seven catches for 72 yards, while Myron Mitchell had four catches for 47 yards and a touchdowns. The Blazers also featured their tight ends as Gerrit Prince set career highs with four catches for 31 yards and two touchdowns, and Hayden Pittman had three catches for 37 yards.

Kristopher Moll led the defense with eight tackles, two pass breakups and two quarterback hurries. Sophomore edge rusher Nikia Eason Jr. had UAB's only two sacks of the night to establish a new career high in that category. UAB forced three turnovers as redshirt seniors Tyree Turner and Jacob Fuqua each recovered a fumble, while sophomore Keondre Swoopes had his first career interception. UAB held UCA to 293 yards of offense.

The Blazers raced out to a 14-0 lead on a 6-yard touchdown reception from Johnston III to Prince, and a 5-yard touchdown run from Brown with 2:46 left in the opening quarter.

However, the Bears (1-1) scored all 21 of their first half points off three UAB turnovers, and the first came on a 4-yard Cameron Myers touchdown run that was set up by an interception from Malik Wilson which he returned 34 yards. UAB led 14-7 after one.

The Blazers then took a 28-7 lead on an 18-yard touchdown reception by Mitchell and a 13-yard reception from Prince, his second of the day, with 5:31 remining in the half.

Central Arkansas seized control at the end of the half though, with two quick touchdowns to make it 28-21 in favor of the Blazers at halftime.

The first of those two touchdowns came with 2:33 left after UAB muffed a punt in the red zone. It took UCA one play as Breylin Smith found Lujuan Winningham on a 15-yard pass in the corner of the end zone, making the score 28-14. UCA then forced a fumble on the next UAB possession which the Bears returned for a touchdown with 1:21 left in the half.

UAB ATHLETICS

UAB running back Spencer Brown ran for 127 yards and a touchdown against Central Arkansas Thursday night.

Despite the seven-point lead, UAB dominated in terms of yardage, outgaining the Bears 290-137.

UAB added a field goal in the third quarter and tacked on two touchdowns in the fourth on rushing scores from Brown Jr. and Stanley to take a 45-21 lead with 8:12 left in the game. UCA would score the final two touchdowns to make the final score 45-35.

The Blazers now head to Miami for primetime matchup with the Hurricanes next Thursday, Sept. 10 on the ACC Network. Kick is set for 8 p.m. EST/7p.m. CST.

September is Suicide Prevention Awareness Month

ADMH
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – All of us can help prevent suicide. Every year, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, other mental health organizations and individuals across the nation raise awareness of suicide prevention during September. While suicide prevention is important to address year-round, Suicide Prevention Awareness Month is a dedicated time to share resources and stories to shed light on this stigmatized topic. #BeThe1To is the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline's message this month and beyond and helps spread the word about actions we can all take to prevent suicide.

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused an increase in anxiety, depression, suicide and substance use. This year's campaign is now more important than ever.

While half of individuals who die by suicide may have a diagnosed mental health condition, research shows that 90% experienced suicidal symptoms.

A recent Centers for Disease Control and Prevention report revealed that 40% of adults said they had struggled with mental health issues or substance use issues during late June.

"Most notably the COVID-19 pandemic has imposed significant psychological and social effects on everyone. This month we are emphasizing the importance of suicide prevention and the stigma surrounding emotional and mental challenges," said Alabama Department of Mental Health Commissioner (ADMH) Lynn Beshear. "Because of the pandemic, our providers have increased alternative means of access such as telehealth and continue to be a beacon of light to individuals in need and help family members understand the signs and symptoms of suicidal iterations."

Every year thousands of individuals die by suicide, leaving behind friends and family members to navigate the tragedy of loss. In many cases, friends and families affected by a suicide loss (often called "suicide loss survivors") are left in the dark. Too often the feelings of shame and stigma prevent them from talking openly.

ADMH Prevention Services Director, Beverly Johnson said, "As we are faced with COVID-19 and certain levels of uncertainty, emotional distress and anxiety can occur and we want to provide support and the necessary referral resources to those who need it."

She continued, "We observe the month of September to raise public awareness of suicide prevention. The annual observance yields much needed attention to such a priority area of focus for individuals and communities that we utilize those platforms throughout the year to promote emotional well-being and resource availability."

ADMH encourages everyone to learn more about how they can directly help someone in need. QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) and Mental Health First Aid are two education first steps. QPR is a gatekeeper training to enable any adult to identify someone who may be suicidal, initiate a conversation, persuade the person to get help, and assist her or him in finding and accessing appropriate help. For more information on this training, please contact Katie Beaugez at 205-677-6116, or visit www.ASPARC.org

Mental Health First Aid offers the education to anyone interested in skills and information to help a person developing a mental health problem or experiencing a crisis until professional treatment is obtained or the crisis resolves. For more information on this training, please contact ADMH staff member Lauren Blanding at 334-353-8866 or email lauren.blanding@mh.alabama.gov.

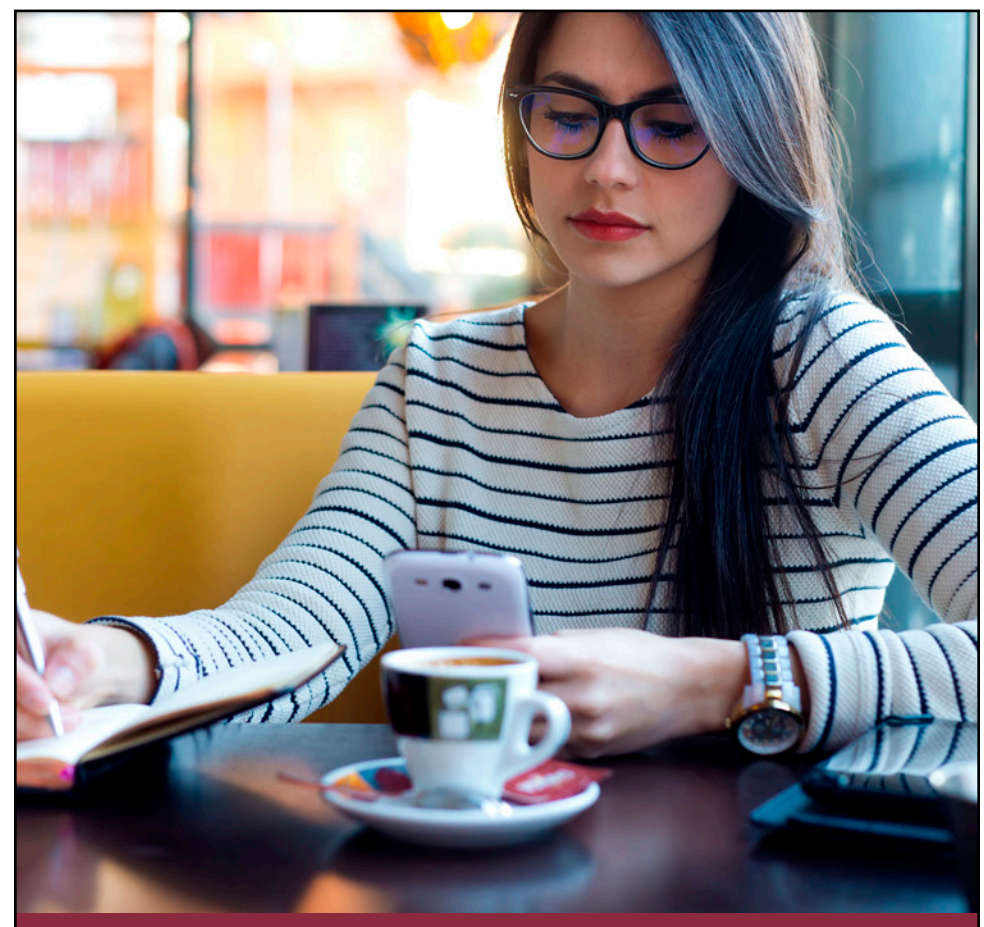

Veterans are 1.5 times more likely to die by suicide than Americans who never served in the military. For female veterans, the risk factor is 2.2 times more likely. Suicide prevention information is important to share with veterans, as crises can be heightened by their experiences during military service. If you're a veteran or service member and in crisis, please call the Veterans Crisis Line for help.

Suicide is preventable. Learn how to help and obtain resources at https://afsp.org/take-action/. Please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline for 24/7, free and confidential support for people in distress, prevention and crisis resources for you or your loved ones, and best practices for professionals.

The new feature-length documentary "Human Nature" examines scientific developments in gene therapy, culminating in the ability to make precise edits to DNA, even that of human beings. The discovery of something called CRISPR-Cas9 editing has shown early promise for holding a cure for several debilitating or even deadly genetic diseases, but it also has the capability of modifying healthy genes. The implications of the latter raise ethical questions as to whether scientists should be altering human DNA at all.

Ivey urges participation in 2020 Census

The 2020 Census comes to a close nationwide Wednesday, Sept. 30

Cullman Tribune Staff

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – With the last day for 2020 Census participation set for Sept. 30, Gov. Kay Ivey is urging all Alabamians who have not completed their forms to do so as quickly as possible.

Alabama's current self-response rate is 62.1%- 0.4% short of the self-response rate recorded in 2010, or 62.5%, according to information provided by the Census Bureau. When added with responses generated to date by Census field workers, a total of 78.5% of Alabama households have responded. Ivey – alongside leadership from AlabamaCounts! – is targeting an 80% or higher total response rate by Sept. 30.

"I've said it since our March kick-off, and I will say it again: Alabama stands to lose too much if we do not reach our goal of maximum participation," said Ivey. "This isn't just money for our state — it's money for our small communities, for our educational systems, for our roads and for our children. There is simply too much community funding at stake here to disregard this final call."

Ivey's office — alongside the Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) and Alabama Counts! — has worked since March to ensure participation numbers statewide meet the mark. Recently, these efforts included the Sept. 2 launch of the Alabama Census Bowl, in which low-responding counties have the chance to win $65,000 for their schools through Census participation.

"It takes a matter of six minutes to play your part in determining the future of our state by completing the census," said Ivey. "These integral six minutes will determine what our communities will look like, what our children's education will be, and even what our healthcare can provide throughout the next decade." Alabamians can fill out the 10-question Census online at my2020Census.gov, by phone at 1-844-330-2020 or by traditional paper form. Socially distanced door-to-door Census takers are also targeting households statewide that have been identified as current non-participants. Any information given in the 2020 Census is protected by strict federal law.

"Folks, it's now or never, and this is the time to act and to ensure Alabama has the future we hope to plan for," added Ivey. "These last few weeks of Census 2020 are vital to our future as our federal representation, our economic development opportunities and our communities — and their citizens — will be impacted negatively unless we have a proper count."

Murder (from Front)

wendy@cullmantribune.com

NEW CANAAN, Ala. – A third person is now charged with murder in the shooting death of 24-year-old Levi Benjamin Lawrence, of Cullman. Tyler Dwight Dooley, 26, of Arab and Jacob Andrew Drane, 21, of New Canaan were charged with murder in connection to the case. Now, Samantha Star Robertson, 20, of Blountsville is also charged with murder.

Lawrence and 36-year-old Dalton Matthew Bannister, of Blountsville were killed and a woman, now identified as Robertson, hospitalized following an altercation and shooting in the New Canaan community in northeast Cullman County in the very early morning hours of Saturday, Aug. 15 near a residence along County Road 1854. According to Cullman County Sheriff Matt Gentry, Lawrence died while defending himself from Bannister.

All three suspects are facing two counts of murder each.

Cullman County Coroner Jeremy L. Kilpatrick said Lawrence and Bannister were pronounced dead at the scene.

"Mr. Lawrence was the victim in this case," said Gentry. "Mr. Bannister, that is deceased, is the offender."

Gentry said that in the course of the investigation, his office learned there was another individual at the scene, identified as Dooley.

Cullman County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) investigators worked with the Arab Police Department and Marshall County Sheriff's office to execute a search warrant in Arab, where Dooley was found.

Also charged in connection to the crime was Ricky Dale Martin, 48, of New Canaan.

"As we were investigating, putting the pieces of the puzzle together, this is what we determined," said Gentry.

"Mr. Lawrence had received a message from one of the offenders that we've arrested about hanging out at this residence (in New Canaan). So, Mr. Lawrence is there talking to his friend, Mr. Drane, at the residence belonging to another offender that we've arrested; his name is Ricky Martin.

"Mr. Martin is known to associate with people that are not the best. At this point, later on in the night, Mr. Dooley, Bannister and the female arrived at the residence...Mr. Lawrence realized that these people are not who you want to be around. Mr. Lawrence told them that he was going to leave.

"As Mr. Lawrence attempted to leave, Bannister and Dooley had predetermined that they were going to rob Lawrence of his possessions. These individuals are known throughout those communities to do those of kind of things."

Gentry continued, "As Mr. Lawrence attempts to leave, he's confronted by an armed suspect, Bannister, at which time Mr. Lawrence was also armed and an altercation occurs and there is rounds that are exchanged.

"After the gunfight, the Dooley flees the scene, leaving Bannister and the female on the ground."

The sheriff emphasized that Lawrence was the victim and said Bannister and Dooley being free before the crime occurred was a result of a failure of the system.

"Bannister and Dooley are a failure to the system," he said. "You look at their criminal histories. They should be in prison. They had a reputation to go out and do bad things, but they met somebody that said, 'You know what? You're going to do bad things, but I'm not going to allow you to do bad things to me or anyone else. Mr. Lawrence was defending himself. He defended himself, and as a result, he shot someone that did bad things who is now deceased, but in turn he lost his life.

"One of the things I look at is if Bannister and Dooley had both left, what other bad things would they have done to other people in the community?"

Said Gentry, "Anytime there's a loss of life, it breaks your heart for the family. We have met with Mr. Lawrence's family and been in constant contact, and for them, our heart and prayers are going out."

Gentry praised the work of the CCSO deputies and investigators and law enforcement from Marshall County, as well as the Cullman Police Department, which also assisted in Arab when Dooley was taken into custody.

Dooley is being held on a $50,000 cash bond.

Drane was originally charged with second-degree criminal trespassing and possession of drug paraphernalia. He is now being held without bond.

Robertson is being held on a $100,000 cash bond.

Martin, charged with possession of drug paraphernalia, has made bond.

Dooley, Drane and Robertson are being held in the Cullman County Detention Center.

Holly Pond's Lexie Smith wins state racking horse championship

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Over the Labor Day holiday weekend, Holly Pond High School student Lexie Smith was named State Youth Racking Champion at the Alabama Open Horseman Association State Show in Montgomery, with her horse The Master Switch. Racking horses, bred from Tennessee walking horses, are known for their smooth and distinctive walking or trotting gait, on which they are judged in competition.

To win a state racking title in Alabama is no mean feat, given that the state is headquarters to the Racking Horse Breeders' Association of America, and home to the country's largest population of racking horses, as well as the breed's two largest competitions.

Smith has won twice, this year and last, competing in six additional shows each time just to get an invitation to the state event.

According to mother April Smith, "This is actually her third year of going to state, and it's the second year of her actually winning the big class for the big kids. We're very proud of her.

She worked hard in order to qualify. It's a big responsibility, because not only does she have to work her horse and make sure he's sound and ready to go to the show, she has to compete with other children to do the same thing."

Lexie Smith is a student at Holly Pond High School, where she also pitches for the junior varsity softball team and has a no-hitter to her credit.

She will return to the equestrian arena later this month, attending the Racking Horse World Celebration in Priceville, the world's largest racking competition.
