CULLMAN, Ala. – With COVID-19 restrictions still in place, and marching bands having to adjust their attendance when traveling, the fate of the always popular Cullman County Band Exhibition was up in the air. No more, however, as the Cullman High School band program released its plan for the 37th annual exhibition Friday. Traditionally held the evening of the Cullman County Fair Parade, this year's exhibition will be held the following weekend on Saturday, Oct. 10 at Oliver Woodard Stadium.

This year the exhibition will be split into two separate events. The first will begin at 5 p.m. with Vinemont, Good Hope, West Point and Fairview bands performing their 2020 halftime shows.

The second will begin at 7:30 p.m. with Cold Springs, Holly Pond, Hanceville and Cullman bands. The Cullman Middle School Band will not perform at this year's exhibition.

Cullman Assistant Director of Bands Doug Teuscher said several scenarios were considered and this was the best option in keeping with COVID-19 protocols.

Said Teuscher, "There just wasn't a way to socially distance 550 band students plus the spectators."

The plan is to clear the stadium and sanitize the stands between the two events. Admission for each event is $5.

That means if someone attends the 5 p.m. event and wants to re-enter the stadium for the 7:30 p.m. event, it will be an additional $5. Students performing will not have to pay.

The Cullman Tribune will livestream all performances.

Mud Creek Marching Festival

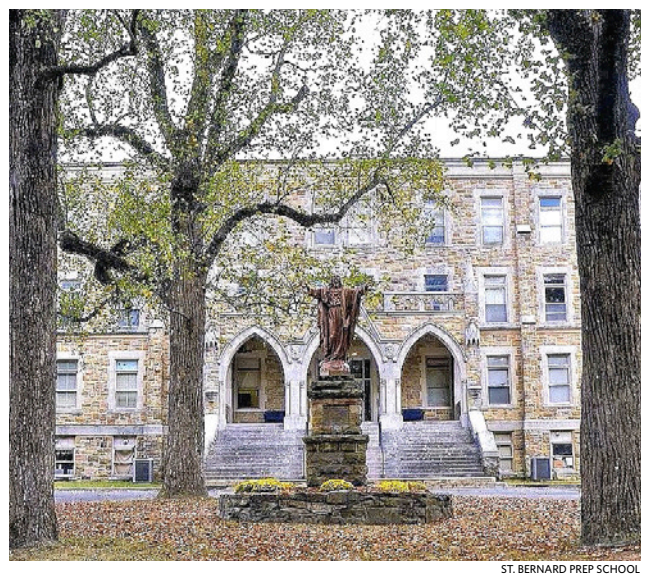

Hanceville's Mud Creek Marching Festival is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 24. In a year where most marching competitions have been canceled, Hanceville Band Booster President Bart Absher said he feels they can safely adapt to the new rules.

Absher said, "We will have a section designated for each band and we are limiting the competition to 20 bands this year." Traditionally, awards for all classifications are

Resurfacing (from Front)

Seth Burkett
Contributor

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – The Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) advises motorists that resurfacing on Interstate 65 in Cullman County will switch from nighttime work to daytime work for the next few weeks due to colder nighttime weather and temperature restrictions for materials in the final pavement layer.

Beginning this week, work hours on the project will be from 9 a.m.-11 p.m. daily, Mondays through Thursdays. Motorists are advised to expect delays due to single-lane closures. Please reduce speed and be prepared to merge.

Good Hope Contracting is currently paving the final layer on the $4,111,380 project to resurface about 11 miles of I-65 from south of Exit 305 (County Road 222) in Good Hope to Hurricane Creek near Vinemont. Weather-permitting, paving is anticipated to be complete in mid-October.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Animal Shelter's Donna Ruttkay shares The Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week: Mr. Finch is a 2-year-old Heeler mix. He's a lively-but-not-hyper, medium-energy pet who's attentive and athletic, skilled on his leash and has good spatial awareness. He thrives on human interaction, encouragement and love.

According to Ruttkay, "His nature requires and invites you to share in whatever activity he's engaged in; he truly loves life.

"His faith will encourage you to walk through life with confidence."

Mr. Finch has the makings of a good therapy, companion or hiking dog.

Discount doggie!

Mr. Finch has already been neutered, so his adoption fee will be greatly reduced! Ruttkay noted, "That is not indicative of his worth; he's a gem!" Contact the shelter for details. Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking on a leash and practicing good behavior. Several of the shelter's canine friends have even been "hired" to work as therapy and special needs service dogs. Please consider adopting, to give a rescued pet a chance at a happy and healthy life.

Contact the Cullman County Animal Shelter at 256-734-5448 or cullmancountyanimalshelter@gmail.com. Visit the shelter at 935 Convent Road NE.

St. Bernard (from Front)

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – For St. Bernard Prep School's fine arts program, the good news is all-time high enrollment in its beginner band. The bad news is a lack of instruments and music for so many up and coming musicians.

In a notice sent by the school, St. Bernard band director Jonathon Farley wrote:

"We are very excited about the future of the band program here at Saint Bernard Prep! This year we have the largest beginner band class the school has ever had. This wonderful news is met with many needs to ensure the success of both current and future students. Looking ahead, it is necessary to build the school's instrument inventory and music library to provide the best experience for our students. Below are two ways you can help.

"One way you can help is by donating any instruments you or anyone you know may have that are no longer being used. The instruments do not have to be in perfect condition as we will have all instruments checked by a repair tech and any repairs will be made to bring all of the instruments new life. These instruments will be used for students who may not have the opportunity to acquire instruments in other ways."

Band members are also selling locally made soy candles through Oct. 2, featuring a collection of scents including "Christmas Eve," "Christmas Splendor," "Marshmallow Fireside," "Pumpkin Apple," "Teakwood & Mahogany," "Volcano" and "Winter Candy Apple." Those who would like to purchase a candle can contact Farley or any band member.

And of course, the band director is happy to accept monetary donations, saying, "Any amount is greatly appreciated and will be used for equipment and music."

For more information, to make a monetary or instrument donation or to order candles, contact Jonathon Farley at jfarley@stbernardprep.com.

FAIRVIEW, Ala. – Several local teams were in the field at Randall Shedd Community Park Saturday morning for this year's Fairview Invitational and the St. Bernard Saints went home with a little hardware. St. Bernard finished just one point behind Pleasant Valley to take second place in the small school boys' race. Holly Pond's boys placed ninth in the small schools' division and in the large schools' race, Fairview finished fourth behind Oxford, Springville and Bob Jones while Arab came in at eighth.

On the girls' side of things, the Good Hope Lady Raiders placed sixth in the small schools' race and in the large school's division, the Arab Lady Knights finished took home third place and Fairview finished in eighth place. Individual local results: top five finishers count toward team scores, sixth and seventh place finishers are tie breakers.

Rowlette (from Front)

craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – For the first time since 2001, it appears that Cullman's Oktoberfest celebration will go on without its Colonel. Social media around the community lit up Friday with word that Larry Rowlette, who has portrayed Col. Johann Cullmann since 2000 and has played an official role in the city's festival since 2001, was informed he will not be the master of ceremonies (MC) for this year's event.

Rowlette posted Friday on his Facebook "Col. Johann Cullmann" page: "To set the record straight, I was informed yesterday by Nancy Clemmons Moore, with the message from the Cullman Park and Rec Board, that my services as the Colonel to MC and host Cullman Oktoberfest were not needed. I was informed I could dress up and walk around and maybe be available at the Caboose for photos if anyone wanted one.

"I chose to not reduce my portrayal as 'The Colonel' to such a secondary level. I've poured my heart into being your Col. Cullmann for 20 years and 'your' Colonel doesn't walk around on the edge not to be seen or heard. That's not who 'The Colonel' was when he founded Cullman and that is not who 'The Colonel' is today....therefore,

"As sad as it makes me, I will not be attending Cullman Oktoberfest this year. If the leaders of Cullman Oktoberfest don't need 'The Colonel'; as I have been informed, they have a MC and host for all the events. Then the decision has really been made for me."

On Saturday, Rowlette told The Tribune that Moore- who is president of the City's Oktoberfest Board- informed him Thursday night, "that Park and Rec and the board, she said that they came from a meeting today, and that they had decided that they didn't need me- you know, the Colonel- to emcee any of the ceremonies; they didn't need me to host any of the events. They had somebody else that was going to do that.

"And I said, 'Well, what do you want? What am I supposed to do? What do you need the Colonel to do?' 'Well, you can dress up and you can come, and walk around and talk to people, and if you wanted to go down at the caboose and be available for photo ops, that would be okay.'

"And I asked her, 'Is that all you want the Colonel to do?' I said, 'I've emceed, done all the games, and hosted and have done everything for 20 years. I don't understand.' And she said- well, of course she was apologetic, was talking about it was not her decision; she was just calling to let me know they got somebody else to do all that. I said, 'Well, you know, with all due respect, the Colonel is much more than just walking around on the outside and just being available for photo ops.'

"It's more than that. It's getting people involved and hootin' and hollerin' and making sure that everybody's having a good time, and making sure that the Burgermeister's having a good time, and making sure that the festival continues to run. Can other people do that?

"Well, sure they can; I mean there's lots of people that can host and emcee events. I mean, it's not a thing that only the Colonel can do; that's not it. It's just that's what I've always done, and they don't want me to do that anymore.

"I told them, I said, 'I just cannot in good faith reduce the role of the Colonel to such a minimal level.' I said, 'That's not the Colonel. It's not how the Colonel was put together, it was not the intent, and I can't participate like that. That's not the way it's supposed to be.'

"They didn't tell me, 'You can't be the Colonel.' They told me, 'You can dress up and come and walk around and talk to people.' We just don't want you- essentially- we don't want you in a leadership position, without really saying that, because I asked them, 'What about stein hoisting and pickle eating and opening ceremonies and tapping the keg and all that? I've always done all of that, and led the new Burgermeister through all of that, and kept everything going. And the Miss Oktoberfest: I've done all of that.'"

According to Rowlette, when informed that the City had someone else-not specified to him- to perform all of those duties, he told Moore that he would not attend the festival.

Oktoberfest planners talk about the festival and their decision

On Saturday, The Tribune sat down with Moore, Cullman Parks, Recreation and Sports Tourism (CPRST) Executive Director Zac Wood and CPRST Recreational Development Director Christy Turner to talk about numerous changes to this year's festival. CPRST and the Oktoberfest Board worked together on the event in 2018 and have partnered for the event since last year.

According to Moore, the partnership "went great because, let me tell you, as an Oktoberfest Board, it took a lot of time to put it together. When we partnered with Park and Rec, we had a lot more help that we did not have before, manpower. It was much easier putting it together last year, because they have the manpower, the employees to help do it. Taking it down was much easier last year, because they have the manpower and the help, the resources that we did not have as an Oktoberfest Board or Committee. So, from my part, it made my life much easier."

Turner added, "I enjoyed working with Nancy and everybody from Oktoberfest Committee that came out and worked with us last year. I thought it was a huge success for a first year partnership, I thought it was great, and look forward to it for many more years."

Moore continued, "Anybody who knows me knows I love Oktoberfest. I've been doing this since 2008, to make it better for Cullman. That's my goal, is to make everything better, that we can, for our community, because that's what we're supposed to do. And this (partnership) helped us a thousand percent."

Said Wood, "This year, 2020, has been an extraordinary year, obviously, for everyone. This year's Oktoberfest is no different. We are just thankful that we're actually going to be able to have an Oktoberfest. In the beginning, we weren't real sure, with everything going on with COVID. So we're happy to say and announce that, yeah, we're going to have an Oktoberfest, but it's going to be condensed. It's going to be greatly condensed to two days, about 36 hours of Oktoberfest. But we feel like that the public wants to do that. We want to find a way to do something and have something for the community, and we feel like it's very important. So that's the way it's changed the most, is, I think, the time frame."

Major changes in the event include fewer bands (including the absence of Terry Cavanaugh and the Alpine Express), no school choirs (due to limitations on choir programs at the schools), no inflatables for kids and the cancellation of school tours and Senior Day. Activities will be moved from the Festhalle to Depot Park.

Said Moore, "We are trying to make this Oktoberfest the best we can with what we have to work with, because of our restrictions."

"We could easily just shut it down and not have anything," said Wood, "but that's not the right thing to do . . . It would be easy to say, 'Let's just not have anything this year,' but we don't want to do that. We want to try to have something. People want something to do; they're ready to get out of their house and do something."

What happened to Col. Cullmann?

Wood said, "This year, we wanted to include the Burgermeister, and since it was a condensed Oktoberfest anyway, give the Burgermeister the opportunity to be more involved in the event, from MC'ing the event. Thirty-six hours is all we have, so we thought it would just be better this year to let the Burgermeister have more involvement in those things."

Moore talked about the planning meeting Thursday morning, at which the decision was made to move Rowlette out of the MC role this year:

"We went over the schedule, what we were going to be doing, and we were talking about where Larry was going to be, and his role would be condensed than what it had been in the past.

"So as to who was going to call him, I have known and worked with Larry the longest, have more of a reputation one on one with him. So I was asked could I call him. I talked to Larry on Thursday night, told him that we wanted him to be there during the opening ceremony, stand up there with everyone, and that he would not be the MC. Now, at that time, I did tell him that (Cullman Regional Airport General Manager) Ben Harrison was going to be the MC."

Wood added that Harrison, a former Burgermeister, will also be visiting some area schools during Oktoberfest week with the current Burgermeister Steven Sides.

Moore continued, "It was a hard conversation, because Larry wasn't- it was hard to tell him he wasn't going to be the MC, that Ben was going to be our MC, that we still wanted Larry to walk and mingle with the crowd as Col. Cullmann, and that we would like for him to be over at the caboose taking photos, because so many people like their picture made with Col. Cullmann, but that we were going a different way this year- 2020 has been a different year; our festival has been shortened- and that we were trying something different this year.

"It wasn't to say that it wouldn't be back to normal next year, but this year we have a day and a half and we're trying things a little different.

"Larry told me that he would think about it. He called me back Friday- yesterday afternoon- and told me that he was declining, that that was not the role of the Colonel- to be walk around and being photo ops. I asked him that I wished he would reconsider and be a part of it. I was sorry he felt that way. He let me know his family was mad about the decision that we had made. I asked him again, 'I hope you'll reconsider. I'm sorry you feel this way. You're still able to mingle in the crowds and (have) pictures made,' and I was sorry he felt that way.

"Then my phone started blowing up last night. I received numerous phone calls early this morning, many texts, that he was calling me out on Facebook. I was just the messenger. We want Larry to be a part, just a different role this year."

Moore concluded, "This was not a direct threat against Larry Rowlette; this was not against him. We would still like for him to be there as the face of Col. Cullmann; he just has a different role. It's a different year for Oktoberfest for everybody: our churches, everything. It is different this year because it's condensed, and he doesn't need to take it so personally.

"And one more thing: the mayor did not have anything to do with this decision. He has called the mayor out on this, and this is not the mayor."

"Or the council, or the Park and Rec board," added Wood. "This is Zac Wood as director, this is Christy Turner, our committee, Oktoberfest Committee's decision. That's it."

All three were emphatic that Rowlette's Col. Cullmann has not been banned, that the decision had only to do with giving the Burgermeister every opportunity for involvement in a greatly abbreviated event, and that "Col. Cullmann" will still be welcome at Oktoberfest, even after the controversy.

Said Wood, "We, as a group, still would love for Larry to be there as the Colonel, as Col. John G. Cullmann. He's more than welcome to be there, but his role would be different. It would be walking and working the crowd, but it just wouldn't be being that MC."

Still the Colonel

Rowlette told The Tribune that he intends to continue as Col. Cullmann, just not downtown.

Said Rowlette, "People are going to wonder why I'm not there. I wanted people to know that, number one, it is my decision, but it's my decision because of this. I wanted people to understand that, because I've been part of Cullman for so long, that they need to understand why. They also need to understand that the City of Cullman does not have the power to say, 'You can't be the Colonel anymore.'"

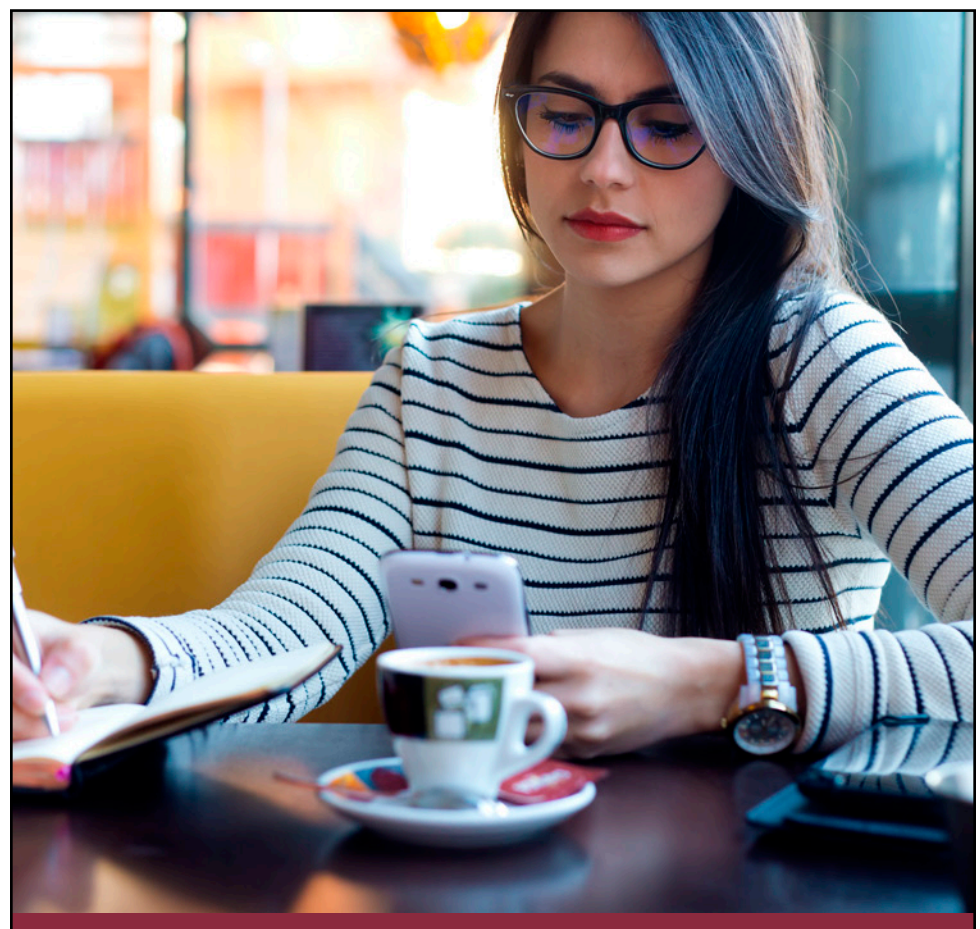

Colonel still tapping the keg

The Colonel will be hosting Goat Island Brewing's "Goatoberfest" celebration Sat., Sept. 26. Rowlette said he was asked to come for the brewery's keg tapping that will take place around 4:30 p.m., adding that he was told, "We'll tap the keg, we'll laugh, we'll cut up, we'll have some games that night. Can you come and host that for us?" The Colonel will be there.

7 p.m. on WBRC
Cosmos: Possible Worlds

Previously aired on cable, this critically acclaimed science series hosted by Neil deGrasse Tyson, inspired by a previous program originated by Carl Sagan, makes its two-hour broadcast premiere with "Ladder to the Stars; Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors." Viewers can expect to take a trip to what producers call a 100,000-year-old laboratory, where they'll begin an adventure spanning billions of years into the evolution of life. Also: an exploration into humanity's potential for change and the story of one of history's greatest monsters and his virtuous transformation.

7 p.m. on WTTO
Dead Pixels

In the season finale, "Hive-Mother," Meg, Nicky, Usman and Russell (Alexa Davies, Will Merrick, Sargon Yelda, David Mumeni) are closing in on the endgame of Kingdom Scrolls, so they decide to make a full-blown weekend of it by cosplaying this final level. As these gamers reach the end of their virtual fantasy journey, however, each of their lives outside the game likewise comes to a crossroads. Charlotte Ritchie also stars.

7 p.m. on LIFE
Supernanny

Professional nanny Jo Frost finds herself dealing with an unusually poignant appointment in the new episode "Sutherland Family," wherein she meets mom Amy Sutherland, who understandably was left profoundly shaken by an accident that nearly killed her daughter. Now Amy steadfastly refuses to accept anyone's help when it comes to raising her four kids with hubby Justin. All of the children are under the age of 4, and both Amy and Justin are stressed out trying to personally manage a separate schedule for each child.

8 p.m. on LIFE
Chicago E.R.

This new one-hour special episode, which also is a pilot for a prospective series, takes viewers inside the white-knuckle professional lives of nurses in a Chicago medical facility. Despite the relentless stress of duties that literally carry life or death consequences in many cases, these tireless and gallant workers manage to keep their spirits undimmed as they transform Roseland, a once-failing hospital, into a beacon of hope for their community.

8 p.m. on TLC
Counting On

Season 11 draws to a close with a finale called "A Quarantine Courtship," which finds the Duggars adjusting to a new normal during the pandemic. Jana and the younger girls make masks for the whole family, then make the rounds to deliver them. Meanwhile, John David tackles responsibility for baking an intricate cake for Abbie's birthday, and the family shows up for a surprise (and socially distanced) celebration. Elsewhere, Jinger and Jeremy take over a family video chat to share some happy news.

9 p.m. on BRAVO
Backyard Envy

High-end designers and landscapers James DeSantis, Garrett Magee and Melissa Brasier and their Manscapers associates take on one of the most logistically challenging jobs of their careers at a remote location on picturesque Fire Island in a Season 2 finale called "Where Do We Grow From Here?"

9:02 p.m. on WABM2
Time100

This new one-hour special marks the broadcast TV debut of Time magazine's annual list of pioneers, artists, leaders, pop culture icons and other public figures. Viewers are promised an inside look at the diverse assortment of personalities comprising the 2020 list, ahead of the familiar Time print edition of this highly anticipated lineup on Friday, Sept. 25. Last year's list included climate activist Greta Thunberg, South Korean boy band BTS, former First Lady Michelle Obama and U.S. Attorney General William Barr.

Jo Frost stars in "Supernanny" on Lifetime.

Nov. 3 General Election sample ballot for Cullman County voters

Office of Alabama Sec. of State John Merrill

Below is a sample of the ballot that Cullman County voters will see in the Nov. 3, 2020 General Election. There will be six statewide amendments on the ballot. Explanations of those amendments are included here.

Statewide Amendment 1
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to amend Article VIII of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Section 177 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, to provide that only a citizen of the United States has the right to vote. (Proposed by Act 2019-330)

The state constitution grants the right to vote to U.S. citizens who meet certain requirements. This amendment does not change those requirements.

If a majority of voters vote "yes" for Amendment 1, the state constitution will grant the right to vote to "only" those U.S. citizens who meet the requirements.

If a majority of voters vote "no" for Amendment 1, the state constitution will continue to grant the right to vote to "every" U.S. citizen who meets the requirements.

Statewide Amendment 2
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to increase the membership of the Judicial Inquiry Commission and further provide for the appointment of the additional members; further provide for the membership of the Court of the Judiciary and further provide for the appointment of the additional members; further provide for the process of disqualifying an active judge; repeal provisions providing for the impeachment of Supreme Court Justices and appellate judges and the removal for cause of the judges of the district and circuit courts, judges of the probate courts, and judges of certain other courts by the Supreme Court; delete the authority of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to appoint an Administrative Director Courts; provide the Supreme Court of Alabama with authority to appoint an Administrative Director of Courts; require the Legislature to establish procedures for the appointment of the Administrative Director of Courts; delete the requirement that a district court hold court in each incorporated municipality with a population of 1,000 or more where there is no municipal court; provide that the procedure for the filling of vacancies in the office of a judge may be changed by local constitutional amendment; delete certain language relating to the position of constable holding more than one state office; delete a provision providing for the temporary maintenance of the prior judicial system; repeal the office of circuit solicitor; and make certain nonsubstantive stylistic changes. (Proposed by Act 2019-187)

If a majority of voters approve Amendment 2, a separate bill passed by the Legislature (Act 2019-497) will become law. This act creates a process to fill vacancies in the position of Administrative Director of Courts.

This amendment proposes six changes to the state's judicial system. In summary, this amendment:
1. Provides that county district courts do not have to hold city court in a city with a population of less than 1,000;
2. Allows the Alabama Supreme Court, rather than the Chief Justice, to appoint the Administrative Director of Courts;
3. Increases from 9 to 11 the total membership of the Judicial Inquiry Commission and determines who appoints each member (the Judicial Inquiry Commission evaluates ethics complaints filed against judges);
4. Allows the Governor, rather than the Lieutenant Governor, to appoint a member of the Court of the Judiciary (the Court of the Judiciary hears complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Commission);
5. Prevents a judge from being automatically disqualified from holding office simply because a complaint was filed with the Judiciary Inquiry Commission; and
6. Provides that a judge can be removed from office only by the Court of the Judiciary.

If a majority of voters vote "yes" on Amendment 2, these provisions become law.

If a majority of voters vote "no" on Amendment 2, there will be no change to current law.

Statewide Amendment 3
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide that a judge, other than a judge of probate, appointed to fill a vacancy would serve an initial term until the first Monday after the second Tuesday in January following the next general election after the judge has completed two years in office. (Proposed by Act 2019-346)

This amendment changes the initial term of a judge that is appointed to fill a vacancy due to death, resignation, retirement, or removal. The current law and this proposed amendment do not apply to probate judges.

Under current law, the initial term of office for a person appointed to fill a vacancy in a judgeship shall last until the first Monday after the second Tuesday in January following the next general election held after the person has completed one year in office or the remainder of the original term of the judge elected to the office which is vacant, whichever is longer. The term of the appointment could vary widely due to the years left in the original term. At the election, the judicial office shall be filled for a full term.

Under this amendment, a judge appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve an initial term lasting until the first Monday after the second Tuesday in January following the next general election held after the person has completed two years in office. At the election, the judicial office shall be filled for a full term.

If the majority of the voters vote "yes" on Amendment 3, the initial appointment to fill a judicial vacancy will last until the first Monday after the second Tuesday in January after two years of service before a general election to fill the judicial office.

If the majority of the voters vote "no" on Amendment 3, then the length of appointment to fill a judicial vacancy will not change.

Statewide Amendment 4
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to authorize the Legislature to recompile the Alabama Constitution and submit it during the 2022 Regular Session, and provide a process for its ratification by the voters of this state. (Proposed by Act 2019-271)

Alabama's constitution can be changed only during a constitutional convention or when a majority of voters approve a constitutional amendment.

If a majority of voters vote "yes" on Amendment 4, the Alabama Legislature, when it meets in 2022, would be allowed to draft a rearranged version of the state constitution. This draft could only (1) remove racist language, (2) remove language that is repeated or no longer applies, (3) combine language related to economic development, and (4) combine language that relates to the same county. No other changes could be made.

Even if passed by the Alabama Legislature, this rearranged version would not become law until it was approved by a majority of voters.

If a majority of voters vote "no" on Amendment 4, the Alabama Legislature could not draft a rearranged version of the state constitution.

Statewide Amendment 5
Relating to Franklin County, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide that a person is not liable for using deadly physical force in self-defense or in the defense of another person on the premises of a church under certain conditions. (Proposed by Act 2019-194)

Alabama's "Stand Your Ground" law allows a person to legally use physical force against another person under certain conditions. The law does not require the person to retreat before using physical force.

If a majority of voters in Alabama vote "yes" on Amendment 5, and if, in addition, a majority of voters in Franklin County vote "yes" on Amendment 5, the state constitution would contain a special "Stand Your Ground" law that applies to churches in Franklin County only.

If a majority of voters in Alabama vote "no" on Amendment 5, or, if a majority of voters in Franklin County vote "no" on Amendment 5, the state constitution would not contain a special "Stand Your Ground" law that applies to churches in Franklin County.

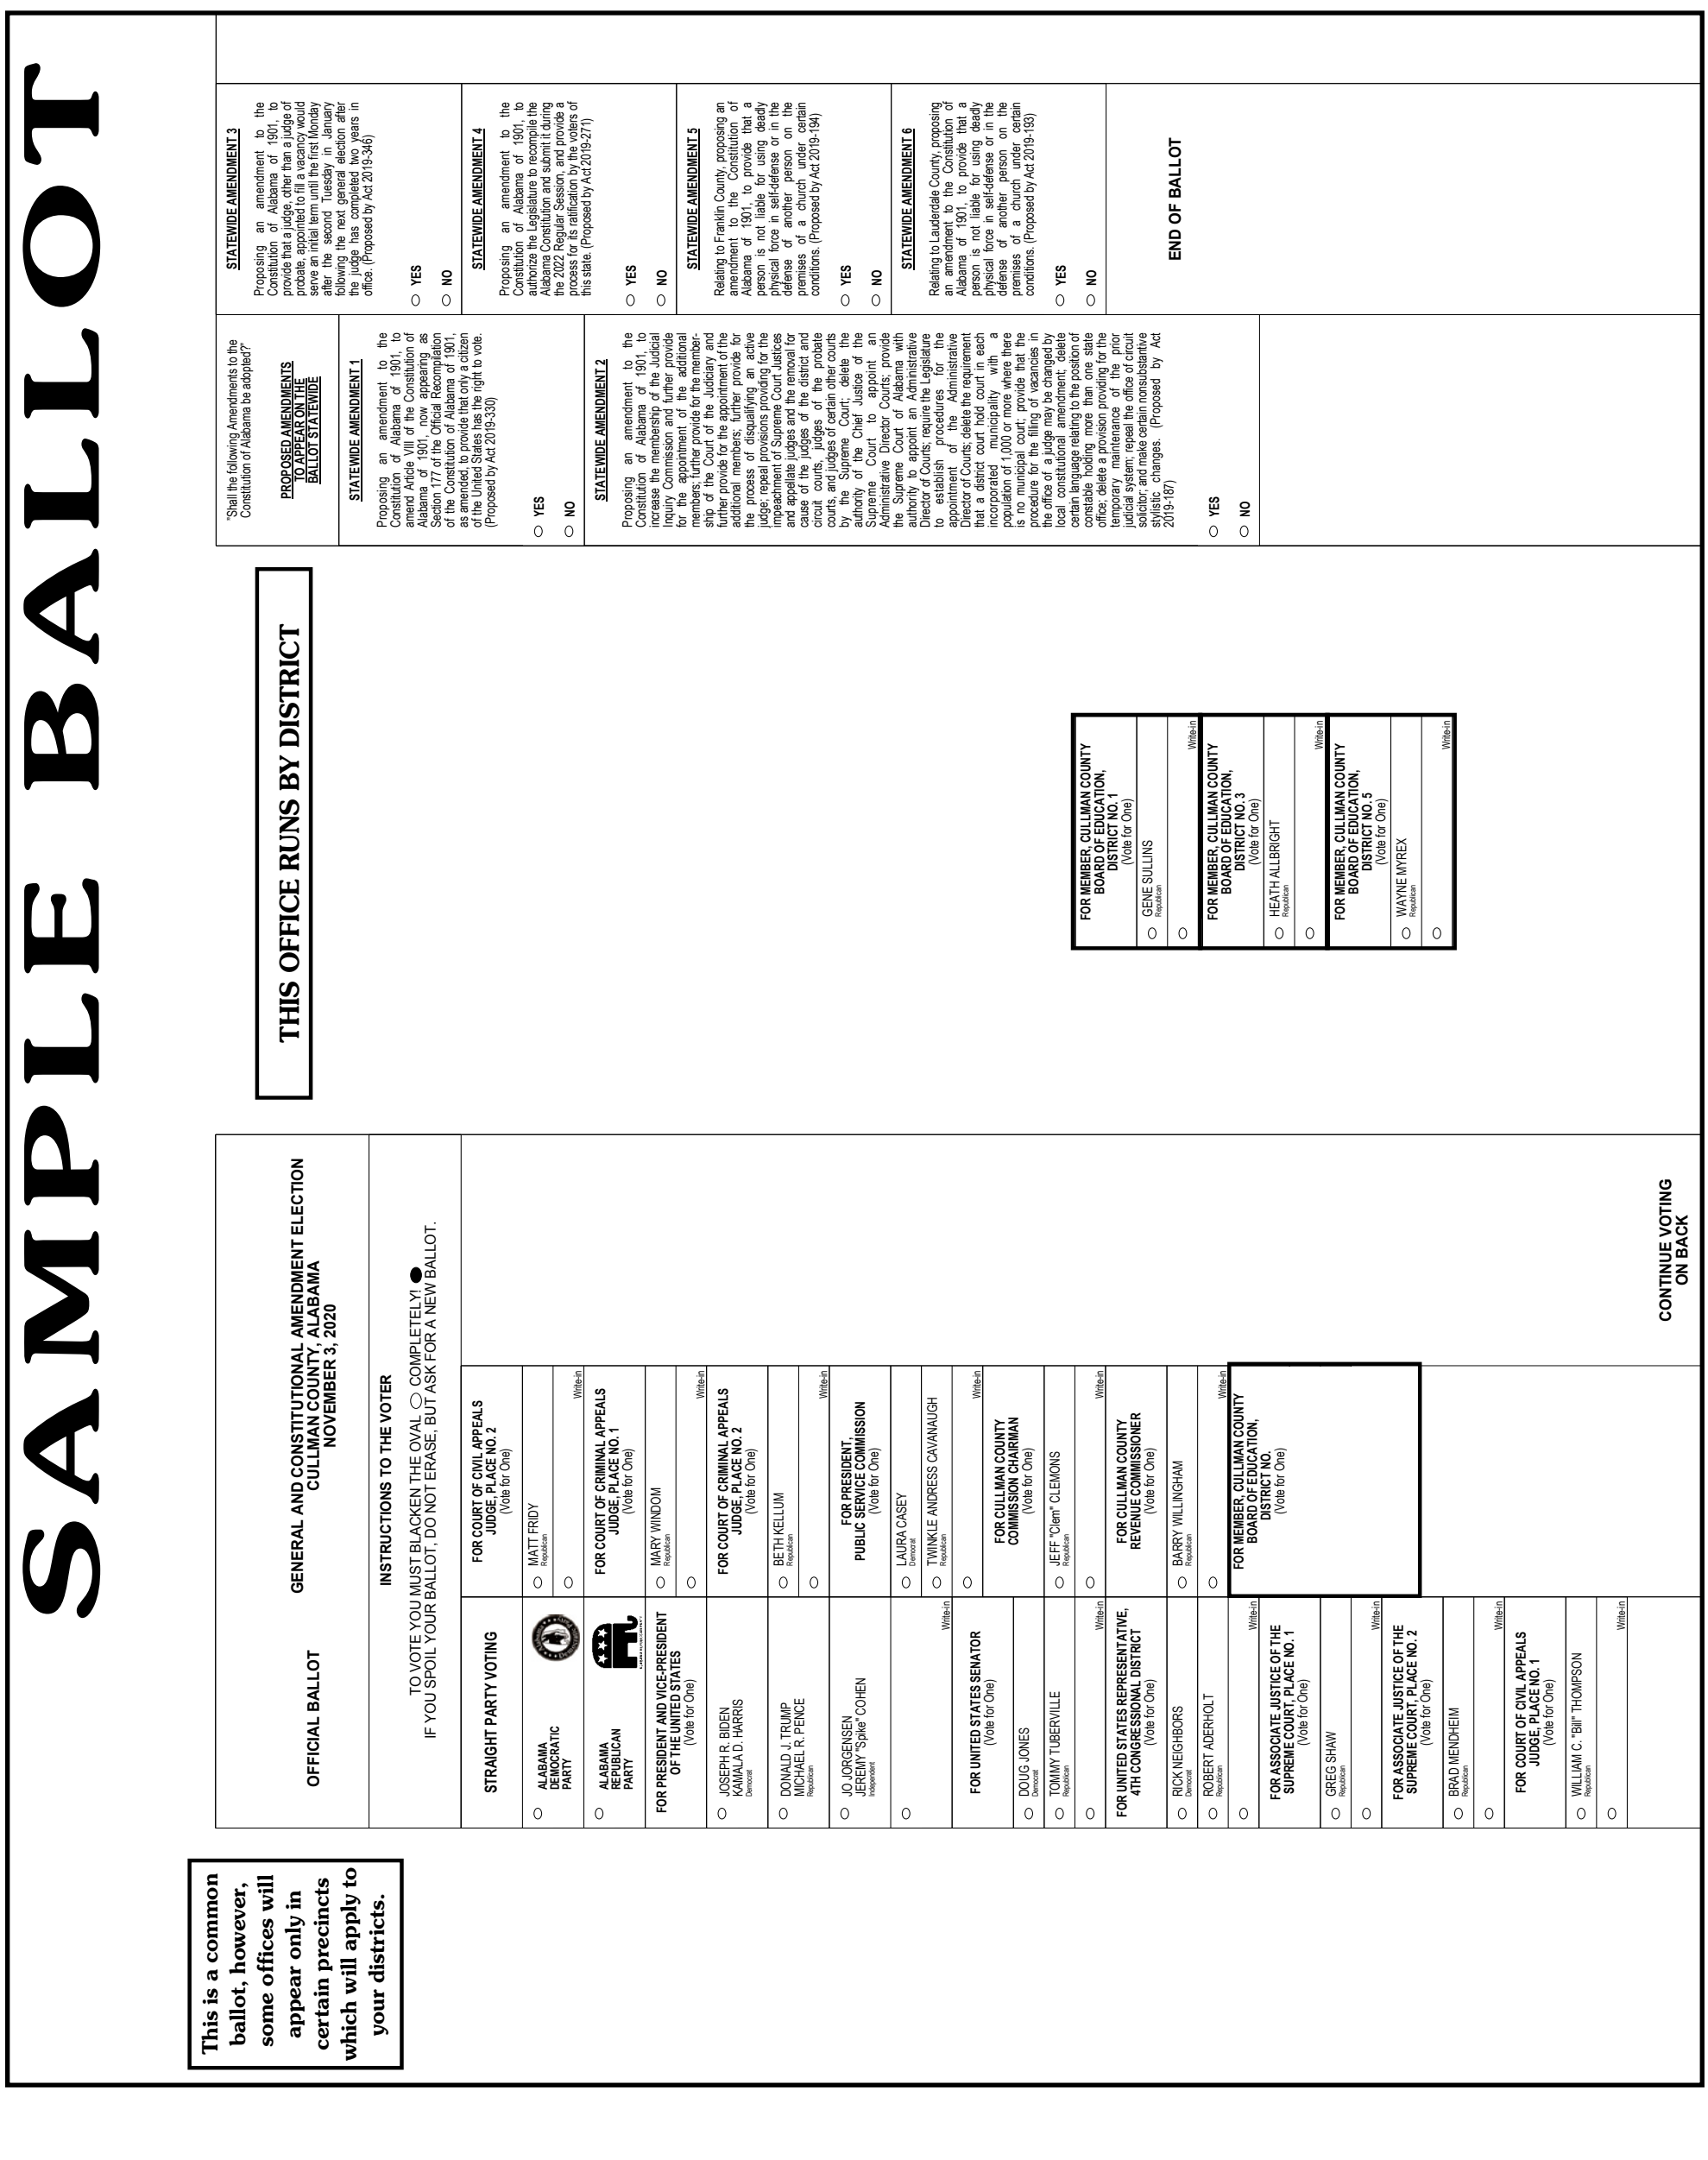

Statewide Amendment 6
Relating to Lauderdale County, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide that a person is not liable for using deadly physical force in self-defense or in the defense of another person on the premises of a church under certain conditions. (Proposed by Act 2019-193)

Alabama's "Stand Your Ground" law allows a person to legally use physical force against another person under certain conditions. The law does not require the person to retreat before using physical force.

If a majority of voters in Alabama vote "yes" on Amendment 6, and if, in addition, a majority of voters in Lauderdale County vote "yes" on Amendment 6, the state constitution would contain a special "Stand Your Ground" law that applies to churches in Lauderdale County only.

If a majority of voters in Alabama vote "no" on Amendment 6, or, if a majority of voters in Lauderdale County vote "no" on Amendment 6, the state constitution would not contain a special "Stand Your Ground" law that applies to churches in Lauderdale County.

OPINION

Leadership, part 10

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Columnist

Today we continue our series on the characteristics of good leadership in the church.

VI. Frequently Evaluated
Ministry venues should be evaluated a minimum of once per quarter if not monthly. Most churches do so annually, if then. Why wait 11 months to address dysfunction?

Acts 14:24-28 Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. [25]And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia, [26]and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled. [27]And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. [28]And they remained no little time with the disciples.

VII. Genuinely Humble
Pastors are in large measure Type A people. We can quickly become arrogant and obnoxious. Humility is a powerful dimension of effective leadership.

1 Peter 5:1-5 So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: [2]shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you; not for shameful gain, but eagerly; [3]not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. [4]And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. [5]Likewise, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

VIII. Earnestly Intense
Leadership is as much about creating an image of wise and prudent direction. It is creating a challenging pathway that people understand and embrace as God's direction for them. They sense that what that Leader is calling them to do is in fact God's provision for them through their Leader.

Romans 12:8 the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

John Kotter notes in his beneficial assessment of why change initiatives fail- lack of urgency. Leaders settle into a routine that becomes a rut. There is little or no sense of intensity.

Roger Dale Maze, 74, of Cullman
Roger Dale Maze, 74, of Cullman, Alabama passed away Sunday, Sept. 20, 2020. He was born in Arab, Alabama, Aug. 8, 1946 to William and Ivella Lawler Maze. Mr. Maze was a truck driver by trade. He loved the outdoors and spent most of his time building and working with his hands. It wasn't unusual to find that Roger had built an entire barn in an afternoon. He enjoyed raising chickens and rabbits, and always had a few he was proud to show off. Mr. Maze loved to fish as well. Roger was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. His family was important to him, and he will be missed by those he loved so dearly. Roger is preceded in death by his parents William and Ivella Lawler Maze; brother Julian Maze; and sisters Frawlene Guffey and Nell Maze. He is survived by his wife of over 33 years, Rhonda Lou Maze; son Shannon Dale Maze; daughters Tammy Phelps and her husband Kai, Christy Black and Guy Bonner, Tracy Raynor and her husband Ryan, and Tonya Taylor; grandchildren Natalie, Nathan, Dexten, Blane, Maycie, Brayden, Andrew, Ivalee, Jesse, Evelyn, Addy, and David; great-grandchildren Tynslee and Lily; and his sister Reba Jacobs and her husband T.J. Funeral services for Mr. Maze are at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 23, 2020 in the Holly Pond Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will follow in Brooklyn Cemetery. Grandsons Dexten, Blane, and Jesse will serve as pallbearers along with Josh Nunnelley, Billy Nunnelley, and Darryl Cook. Friends may visit with the family two hours prior to services, from noon until services begin at 2 p.m. Holly Pond Funeral Home is honored to serve the Maze family.
