412 PUBLIC HOUSE OWNERS EXPAND WITH SEASONED CATERING CO.

CHRISTY PERRY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Executive Chef Thomas Maddux got the honor of cutting the ribbon at Seasoned Catering Co. Wednesday morning in Cullman.

Christy Perry
christy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The ribbon was officially cut Wednesday at Seasoned Catering Co., a new catering service from the owners of the popular 412 Public House. Located in what was Top of the Town on the top floor of the Cullman Savings Bank building downtown, Seasoned is led by Executive Chef Thomas Maddux.

City leaders and representatives of the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce joined to congratulate 412 Public House co-owners Trey Jordan, Stephen Gannon and Rico Nishimura on the restaurant's growth. The Historic Bakery, another of the group's ventures, is on schedule to open soon next door to 412.

Said Jordan, "We talked about catering a long time ago. We've had tons of ideas starting years ago and then during the whole pandemic and shutdown, we started thinking of new ways and new business ideas. Then Thomas reached out to us and he's been in catering forever so it just kind of helped us revisit an idea we had already talked about. It seemed like a perfect step for us, really."

"We made some calls to a few places and Don, down here at the bank," said Gannon. "The very talented couple that used to be here at Top of the Town, Mike and Judy, they were ready to retire so this was a perfect set of circumstances for us."

Maddux is the former executive chef for St. Bernard.

"I was working in Montgomery managing a little over a $1 million account. I fed over 1,000 students a day from scratch. My heart had just been pulling me towards catering for some time," said Maddux. "It's always been my passion to create and really give a one-of-a-kind experience and really just make somebody's special day come true. That's what has always driven me, and this was just too much of an opportunity to turn down. It really is like an answered prayer."

Seasoned will cater events of all kinds: Christmas parties, weddings, birthdays, corporate events and more. Said Maddux, "We will do in-house catering as well. Pretty much anything you can think of, we can do it."

The event space will be used for gatherings. "We've started a few things for 412 to use the event space," said Jordan. "It's kind of like a supper club we have started. We have a few things we will be doing each month. We have a mixer we are doing the first Friday of each month and maybe brunch or special events at the bar. We are trying to figure it out."

PREP FOOTBALL

Playoff picture beginning to take shape in week 8

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – There are just three more weeks remaining in the regular season and we have several local teams that are either playing to earn home field advantage in the postseason or fighting to get into the postseason at all. Cullman, Fairview, Good Hope and Addison are all in good shape to potentially host a playoff game in a few weeks while West Point, Vinemont and Cold Springs can do a lot for their playoff position with wins this week. Good Hope was originally slated to take on Dora in a region game this week, but the Bulldogs were forced to forfeit due to COVID-19 concerns.

(6-1) Cullman at (5-2) Athens

Columbia was forced to postpone its matchup at Cullman last week to later in the season, so the Bearcats got the chance to rest up and enjoy an off week coming into this week's regional clash at Athens. The 'Cats knocked off Decatur 21-10 on the road in their last game, but they'll have a bigger road test to face Friday night. The Golden Eagles have won three straight over Hueytown, Hartselle and Buckhorn to help build a 4-1 region record.

Athens is sitting just behind Muscle Shoals in the standings after falling to the Trojans 31-29 in week four and a win for Cullman this week would put the Bearcats on top of the region standings at 5-0. This will be one of the better teams the 'Cats have faced this season and they'll have to play well in all phases to leave Athens with a win.

(2-5) West Point v. (3-4) Douglas

After starting the season 0-5, the West Point Warriors have started to turn the momentum of their season around by winning their last two games at Crossville and at Sardis.

With a 2-2 record within the region, the Warriors can still play their way into the postseason with a win over Douglas at home Friday night.

West Point's offense has been putting points on the board all season and the Warriors have been playing tighter on the defensive side of the ball the past few weeks.

Douglas has dropped four straight games after starting the season 3-0 and the Eagles are running into a West Point team with some momentum this week.

(6-1) Fairview at (0-8) Brewer

The Aggies held onto their 10th place position in the latest 5A state poll after blanking Crossville 35-0 last week and clinching a playoff berth in the process. They don't have a region opponent on the schedule this week, but they do have a road trip to Brewer to take on the Patriots.

Brewer is still winless this season and has allowed 43 points per game to its foes so Fairview will have a good chance to keep the momentum going into the end of the regular season if it can play sound football against the Pats.

(1-6) Hanceville at (2-5) Ashville

Hanceville has endured a tough two-game stretch at Oneonta and at home against Etowah coming into this week's matchup but now they'll have to prepare for another road trip to face the Ashville Bulldogs. Ashville is coming off a loss at Dora last week and will be anxious to bounce back with a win against the visiting Bulldogs Friday night so they'll need a solid performance on both sides of the ball to return home with a win.

BILL PIPER/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

The West Point Warriors will host Douglas for another crucial region matchup Friday night.

(4-3) Vinemont v. (5-2) Oakman

The Eagles are coming off a huge, 21-7 win over Susan Moore at home last week that has secured their spot in the postseason. However, they have a chance to improve their position even further this week with a win over Oakman. The Wildcats have won four straight since falling to Winfield in week four and have a lot of momentum coming into Friday night's showdown at Vinemont. The Eagles will certainly have their hands full with Oakman this week but if they can continue to show improvement and knock off the Wildcats, they'll have a lot of momentum going into the tail end of the regular season.

(2-6) Holly Pond at (2-5) Susan Moore

The Broncos are coming off a tough road loss to the top team in the region last week, but they'll have to regroup and get ready for another road test Friday night. Holly Pond will travel to take on Susan Moore in another regional showdown this week. Susan Moore fell at Vinemont 21-7 last week and has lost four straight coming into this week's matchup. This season hasn't gone as planned for the Broncos so far but with Friday night's meeting against the Bulldogs and a pair of county rivals to round out the regular season, Holly Pond still has a chance to end the year on a high note.

(4-3) Cold Springs at (5-2) Winston County

After Midfield was forced to shut down the remainder of its season with COVID-19 concerns, the Cold Springs Eagles picked up a region win and a week of rest leading into this week's matchup at Winston County. The Eagles are right in the middle of the Region 5 standings at 2-2 so each remaining game is critical. Winston County is coming off a region victory as well. The Yellow Jackets knocked off Sulligent 30-12 to improve to 3-1 in the region so both teams have real postseason aspirations coming into Friday night's meeting. The Eagles need a win to keep their playoff hopes alive and create some positive momentum to cap off the regular season.

(5-3) Addison at (3-5) Hamilton

The Bulldogs are currently sitting atop the Region 5 standings with a 4-1 record but this week they'll have to prepare for a tough road test against the 4A Hamilton Aggies.

After forfeiting their season opener, the Aggies won three straight to get off to a great start but have dropped their last four games coming into this week's matchup, including a 41-0 loss at Gordo last week. Addison has been rolling the last two weeks, collecting a 50-14 win over Cold Springs and a 42-27 win over Lamar County last week. The Bulldogs are hitting their stride at the perfect time of year and they plan to keep it going with a win at Hamilton Friday night.

(1-6) Meek v. (5-2) Pickens County

Last week's 34-32 win over Lynn was a long time coming for the Meek Tigers. It was their first win since October 2018 and they'll definitely try to seize this momentum and use it to finish the season on the right note. They have a big test coming to town this week. Pickens County will make the long trip to Meek Friday night after dropping a close contest to Berry last week 29-28. The Tornados are 5-0 all-time against the Tigers and won last year's meeting 44-13 so the returning players for Meek will be hungry for some revenge this time around.

How Spencer Brown became UAB's rushing king

Ted Feeley
UAB Athletics

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – It was the summer of 2016 and there were hundreds of high school hopefuls looking to impress the UAB coaches at the annual Bill Clark Summer Camp.

As he normally does, Clark was keeping an eye on all the different groups until an assistant approached him and said, "Coach, you have to come look at this kid."

There stood Spencer Brown, a 6-foot, 235-pound linebacker from nearby Mortimer Jordan, who dabbled in some running back out of necessity as a junior. After running a 4.5 40 over, and over, and over again, it was all the coaches needed to see.

An under-the-radar recruit despite putting up massive numbers as a senior, Brown turned heads in the weight room during his first summer conditioning at UAB. It took the coaching staff about three days into 2017 fall camp to realize Brown needed to be moved off of the scout team after consistently running through the starting defense, and onto the starting offensive unit.

It's a good thing they did. Brown became the face of the program after rushing for 1,329 yards and 10 touchdowns in UAB's inaugural season after the shutdown. He was UAB's first-ever FWAA Freshman All-America honoree and an easy choice for Conference USA Freshman of the Year.

His sophomore season featured Brown setting the school record for rushing touchdowns (16), total touchdowns (17) and single season points (102).

Brown guided the Blazers to an 11-3 overall record and the program's first Conference USA Championship and bowl game victory.

He was the C-USA Championship Game MVP and finished his sophomore year with 1,227 rushing yards to cap off back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns to begin his career.

His junior year was not what he expected. An injury-plagued season resulted in Brown missing five games, but he still managed to compile 566 rushing yards and five touchdowns. Despite the reduced production, Brown became UAB's career rushing leader just four games into the season and was also the first player in school history to rush for over 3,000 career yards.

Yet it wasn't good enough for Brown – and that is when the transformation happened.

That season motivated Brown to make changes off the field, specifically to his diet as playing at 235 pounds was self-admittedly not sustainable. Brown lost 20 pounds in the off season in hopes of becoming more dynamic and explosive.

That brings us to present day as UAB prepares for WKU this Saturday. Brown is having the best season of his career, averaging 112.5 rushing yards per game. He has 450 yards and five touchdowns already this season and has rushed for over 100 yards in three of four games.

Brown became UAB's career leader in rushing touchdowns when he reached paydirt for the 36th time at South Alabama. That became his third career rushing record, along with career yards (currently 3,572) and career 100-yard rushing games (currently 16). He is also rapidly approaching the total touchdown record as he needs three more to complete the clean sweep of records broken at UAB.

UAB ATHLETICS

UAB running back Spencer Brown has posted a school-record 36 rushing touchdowns

Not only will Brown go down as one of the best to ever wear the Green and Gold, but he is cementing himself as one of the greatest in league history. With 144 yards last time out against UTSA, Brown moved into 14th place in Conference USA history for career rushing yards. He is also one rushing touchdown shy of cracking the Top 15 in league history in that category as well.

Brown has led UAB to 31 wins since 2017 – the most of any team in Conference USA during that time span. He has already left a legacy as an all-time Blazer great, but there is much more to play for down the stretch of his final season as a Blazer.

And to Brown, winning another championship is all that matters, because to him, the records never did.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – Alabama Football Coach Nick Saban and Athletic Director Greg Byrne have tested positive for COVID-19, the University of Alabama announced late Wednesday afternoon.

Alabama Football Team Physician Dr. Jimmy Robinson and Associate Athletics Director, Sports Medicine Jeff Allen said in a statement: "Early this afternoon, we received notification that Coach Saban and Greg Byrne tested positive for COVID-19. Both immediately left the facility and went to their homes to self-isolate after receiving that information. At this point in time, the positive tests are limited to those two individuals. All individuals who are considered high risk contacts have been notified and will follow quarantine guidelines. We will follow the SEC's Return to Activity and Medical Guidance Task Force Protocol for testing asymptomatic positives."

According to Saban, "I found out earlier this afternoon that I had tested positive for COVID-19. I immediately left work and isolated at home. At this time, I do not have any symptoms relative to COVID, and I have taken another PCR test to confirm my diagnosis. I informed our team of my positive test at 2 p.m. today on a Zoom call and let them know offensive coordinator Steve Sarkisian will oversee preparations at the complex while I work from home."

Byrne said, "Today, I received notice that my COVID-19 test from this morning came back positive. Upon hearing the news, I immediately entered self-isolation and will remain at home and follow all guidelines. We've been diligent about mask wearing and social distancing from the start and want to continue to encourage you all to take the necessary precautions to help stop the spread of this virus for yourself and those around you."

Census (from Front)

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – The Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) – in alignment with Alabama Counts! – announced Wednesday that the U.S. Census Bureau has now appointed the final deadline for the 2020 Census as today, Thursday, Oct. 15.

This new date was set after a previous Oct. 31 deadline was announced by the Bureau last week.

More than 99.9% of households in Alabama have been accounted for in the 2020 Census, as have many other U.S. states.

As such, field data collection and other census-related operations, such as self-response, are ending nationwide earlier than expected.

"Alabama Counts! is pleased that our overall response has risen steadily over the course of the 2020 Census, and we thank all Alabamians who self-participated – as well as Census workers who followed up with households that had not yet responded," ADECA Director and Alabama Counts! chairman Kenneth Boswell said.

All Alabamians who have not participated have through Thursday to complete the 2020 Census, and response techniques vary.

Internet self-response – made available at https://2020census.gov – will remain open until 5:59 a.m. EST (4:59 a.m. CST) Oct. 16.

Phone responses will be available during regular hours Oct. 15, and paper responses must be postmarked by Oct. 15 to be counted.

Follow-up Census takers will continue to make door-to-door visits for nonresponse households until the end of the day tomorrow.

"This is the last call for all Alabamians to step up and be counted," added Boswell.

"We are asking our state to take six minutes of their time today and tomorrow to participate, as we want to ensure – without any doubt – that we have the most complete count statewide possible."

Stuie (from Front)

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Animal Shelter's Donna Ruttkay shares The Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week:

Stuie is a 1-year-old Shar-Pei mix.

He's an active-but-not-hyper, medium-energy pet with soulful eyes who's skilled on his leash and has good spatial awareness.

He likes to explore outdoors, but always comes back to hang around close to his people.

He's not a picky eater, and he does appear to be house-trained.

Stuie has the makings of a good therapy or companion dog; Ruttkay said, "His personality goes deep and is rewarding!"

Stuie's adoption fee is $100 which includes DHLPP vaccine, Bordetella vaccines, rabies vaccine, wormer, general exam at the vet, neutering, microchip, free 30-day health insurance policy issued by 24PetWatch (with valid email only) and a free bag of food from Cullman Pet Depot (you must pay sales tax).

Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking on a leash and practicing good behavior.

Several of the shelter's canine friends have even been "hired" to work as therapy and special needs service dogs.

Please consider adopting, to give a rescued pet a chance at a happy and healthy life.

Contact the Cullman County Animal Shelter at 256-734-5448 or cullmancountyanimalshelter@gmail.com. Visit the shelter at 935 Convent Road NE.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Commission on Wednesday morning approved the use of the Cullman County Agricultural Trade Center for the last two weekends in October for a special event, the "Nightmare in Vinemont." The outdoor event, consisting of a haunted house and hayrides, will be hosted by the Vinemont-Providence Volunteer Fire Department, with proceeds going to the department's Explorer Program for 14-18-year-old firefighters going through training.

Admission is $15. The event will take place Oct. 23-25 and Oct. 30-31 from 8 p.m.-midnight at the Cullman County Agricultural Trade Center, 17645 U.S. Highway 31, Cullman, AL 35058.

Members of the Cullman Area Rural Transportation System (CARTS) team were recognized at Wednesday's meeting for their achievements at the 2020 Alabama RTAP Statewide Bus & Paratransit ROADEO.

Teresa Givens took home first place in the Minivan Division.

Second place in the Small Bus Division went to Jody Glover and Cindy Burgett earned a nomination for the Driver Spirit Award.

Chief Mike Hill from the Bethel Gum Pond Volunteer Fire Department in Eva visited the commission to present a plaque to the Cullman County Water Department to show appreciation for its assistance and support of the Morgan County Fire Service.

Hill explained, "Six years ago we worked with a partnership with the Cullman County commissioners and the water department and started a water project. That was in September of 2014. We finished that water project in March of 2018."

According to Hill, his area has seen an additional 10 miles of water lines and approximately 40 more hydrants.

"What it did for the homeowners' insurance and for the fire protection coverage in Morgan County, it's saving the homeowners about $92,000 a year," he said.

The partnership also allowed for new hydrants around Bethel Gum Pond's new training facility. Many Cullman County fire departments have utilized the new training center.

Commissioner Garry Marchman added, "When you can do something like this and join forces with other counties to do something, it's a big deal. People who aren't in this business might not realize it, but it's a big deal."

In other business, the commission:

- Passed a resolution to vacate a 50-foot right-of-way between lots 3 and 4 on Lake David Drive NW in Cullman
