CULLMAN, Ala. – Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) students from all over Cullman County on Wednesday met at the All Steak Restaurant to compete for the Cullman County Outstanding FCCLA Member Award and in the FCCLA All-County Sweet Potato Cook-off. Participating schools were Cold Springs High School, Cullman Area Technology Academy (CATA), Cullman High School, Good Hope High School, Hanceville High School, Vinemont High School and West Point High School.

Competing in the Cullman County Outstanding FCCLA Member contest were students from Cold Springs, CATA and West Point. Cold Springs' Madeline Mitchell took first place, followed by CATA's Bryce Williams in second and West Point's Callie Thornton and Alexus Wells in third and fourth, respectively. Mitchell will be awarded at the Cullman Farm-City Banquet in November.

The All-County FCCLA Sweet Potato Cook-off was sponsored by the Sweet Potato Association, Rhonda and George Burmeister, Clark Haynes, Kress Farms, Deborah and Edward Warnke, Doris Patterson and Pat Floyd. The categories for the sweet potato cook-off were bread, casseroles, pies and desserts.

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Hanceville City Council on Thursday evening approved a slate of upcoming special events around the community and talked about others, culminating in a call for folks to visit the city's downtown merchants, bring a little money and shop local.

The council approved:

• The Civitan Club's Tinsel Trail and Tree Lighting at Veterans Park at 5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 4 and Cullman County Christmas Parade at noon Saturday, Dec. 5. The council also voted to give $250 to the club, to help sponsor the events.

• Hanceville Elementary School Trunk or Treat on Bulldog Lane and Stadium Drive during the school day Friday, Oct. 30. As the street closure could affect access to areas of the multi-school campus, the council authorized Police Chief Bob Long to work with the school to find and implement the best plan for the event.

• Bike Night on Bangor Avenue from 6-9 p.m. Nov. 10

During the report time, the council discussed this Saturday's Downtown Merchants Block Party that will accompany the Mud Creek Marching Festival at Hanceville High School's sta- » PAGE 8

CULLMAN, Ala. – The fourth annual Bernard Blues and BBQ festival is set for Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 31 and Nov.1, 2020 at St. Bernard Preparatory School in Cullman, with all safety protocols in place.

With the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic forcing St. Bernard to cancel this year's Bloomin' Festival back in the spring, festival director Joyce Nix said the school is ready to host a fun weekend and appreciates all prayers and support for a successful fall festival.

"We are making public safety a top priority," Nix said. "We are following all the safety measures and will allow ample space for vendors to spread out to allow for social distancing. We ask patrons to wear masks and be respectful of one another and the art by asking for assistance from the vendors or by applying hand sanitizer before touching."

More than 100 arts and crafts booths are expected to set up on the beautiful grounds of the Abbey and Prep School. Everything from pottery and ceramics to clothing for the family will be found, in addition to birdhouses, handmade brooms, wood turnings, yard art, cypress furniture, quilts, jewelry, purses, soaps and honey.

Freddie Day Catering will offer its special barbeque pulled pork, ribs and chicken. In addition to barbeque, All Steak and Dyron's Lowcountry are joining the festivities adding their world-famous orange rolls and delicious seafood gumbo to the menu.

Parents and volunteers are looking forward to grilling hamburgers, hot dogs and polish sausages as well as making strawberry waffles and funnel cakes.

All proceeds from the festival benefit St. Bernard Prep School.

On Saturday, children are encouraged to visit the festival in costume at 2 p.m. for a costume contest. Following the contest, children may trick-or-treat the booths until the close of festival at 5 p.m.

Entertainment on Saturday will be provided by Incognito Cartel at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. The Sinners will take the stage at 2 p.m. Saturday. Sunday afternoon from 2-4 p.m. Deja Blue Horns will perform. Following the performance, St. Bernard will draw for winners of more than $12,000 in cash prizes.

Ave Maria Grotto is offering a reduced admission price the entire weekend of only $4. Tickets for the sweepstakes as well as festival T-shirts are available online and at Ave Maria Grotto until the festival. To purchase online, visit https://one.bidpal.net/bernardblues/browse/all.

An admission donation of $5 per person is requested at the gates. Children 5 and younger will be admitted for free. For more information, visit www.stbernardprep.com/bernard-blues-bbq or call 256-739-6682.

Vinemont handles Holly Pond 38-12

Ryan Guthery
Tribune Correspondent

HOLLY POND, Ala. – It was homecoming night for Holly Pond and the Broncos hosted the Vinemont Eagles who played the role of spoiler and left with a 38-12 win. The Broncos received the ball to start the game but that was short-lived when the ball was intercepted on their third play. The Broncos were able to keep the Eagles out of the end zone, but Nacho Salgado was able to put the Eagles up 3-0 with a 27-yard field goal with 5:55 remaining in the opening quarter.

Holly Pond wasted no time answering with a touchdown to push ahead 6-3 when with 3:31 remaining in the opening quarter Andrew Bell punched it in from 20 yards out. Vinemont regained the lead on the first play of the second quarter when Brodie Curvin muscled his way into the end zone from 6-yards out to make it 10-6. Three plays later the Eagles defense forced a turnover to give their offense great field position and two plays after that, Colby Miller scampered in from 8-yards out to put the Eagles up 17-6 with 10:09 remaining until halftime.

Vinemont added another touchdown late in the second quarter thanks to a 6-yard run from Miller to put the Eagles up 24-6 at halftime. The Eagles got another touchdown midway through the third quarter when Brody Speer slashed his way into the end zone from 16 yards out to extend the Eagles' lead to 31-6. With 5:49 remaining in the game Isaac Moody punched it in from 2 yards away to put the Eagles up 38-6. The Broncos were able to find the end zone late in the game when Austin Marsh found Jayden Perkins for a 6-yard touchdown to give you a final score of Vinemont 38, Holly Pond 12.

Vinemont improves to 6-3 on the year with the win and the Eagles will wrap up the regular season at Cold Springs next Thursday. Holly Pond falls to 2-8 with the loss and will be closing out its regular season on the road against Fairview next Friday night.

Vinemont's Colby Miller (1) intercepts a pass during the Eagles' 38-12 win at Holly Pond Thursday night.

Good Hope (from Front)

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – For the first time in school history, the Good Hope Raiders are victorious over the Oneonta Redskins and they did it in convincing fashion. The Raiders racked up more than 500 yards on the ground and had three separate rushers with more than 100 yards in the 34-7 win at James W. Shabel Stadium Thursday night.

Both teams traded punts on their opening possessions and after a great Oneonta roll, Good Hope took over possession on its own 1-yard line late in the opening quarter. The Raiders ran the ball out to get some breathing room but were forced to punt once more early in the second quarter. That's when Good Hope began to generate some momentum. The ensuing Oneonta drive was cut short when Lawton Farr leaped up and intercepted a pass at the Good Hope 14-yard line. One play later, quarterback Tanner Malin kept one up the middle and burst past the secondary for an 86-yard touchdown run that made it 7-0 Raiders with just under 10 minutes to play in the second.

Good Hope's defense forced a quick three-and-out, giving the ball back to the Raider offense and this time it was the tailback that burned the Redskins on the ground. Colton Bagwell shook off multiple tacklers to rip off a 40-yard gain and get the ball down inside the 5-yard line and on the next snap, Bagwell finished off the scoring drive from 4 yards out to make it a 13-0 game with just under six minutes to play in the half.

Another short possession and punt from Oneonta gave Good Hope the ball back on its own 20. It looked like the Raiders would be forced to punt it away facing a third down and long, but Ethan Anderson took a handoff 63 yards down the Redskins' sideline to move the chains and keep the drive alive. Good Hope capitalized on the big run a few plays later when Malin punched in his second touchdown of the night from 4 yards out and the Raiders went into the locker room leading Oneonta 21-0 at the half.

The Redskins received the opening kickoff of the second half but once again, Good Hope's defense forced Oneonta to punt. The ground game remained hot for the Raiders as Bagwell barreled through defenders for a 46-yard gain that set up first and goal and Malin's third rushing touchdown of the night, this time from a yard out, extended the Good Hope lead to 28-0 with a little over six minutes to play in the third.

Oneonta got its only points of the night on its next drive, connecting on a 50-yard touchdown pass that trimmed the lead to 28-7 and both teams exchanged punts on their following possessions to give Good Hope the ball at its own 20 with less than a minute remaining in the third. That's when Malin all but finished off the Redskins with an 80-yard touchdown sprint up the middle that gave the Raiders a 34-7 lead going into the final frame.

Good Hope stuffed Oneonta's best drive of the night early in the fourth quarter when a goal line stand from the 4-yard line turned the ball over on downs with just over eight minutes to play. The Raiders handed the ball off, moved the chains, killed the clock and iced an impressive, 34-7 win over the Redskins to improve to finish the regular season 9-1 and secure a home game in the first round the state playoffs.

Good Hope finished the game with a whopping 505 rushing yards, 381 of which came on the legs on Bagwell and Malin. Anderson finished the game with 103 yards on just four carries, Bagwell led the team with 191 yards and a touchdown on the ground and Malin added 190 more with four touchdowns. The Raiders ripped off five runs of 40-plus yards in the win.

Good Hope will have next week off to rest up and prepare to host the opening round of the 4A state playoffs.

Fairview, West Point punch tickets to state tournament

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. – Vinemont, Fairview and West Point were all in the field at the North Regional Tournament Thursday and the Lady Warriors earned themselves an opportunity to play in next week's state tournament. West Point defeated Madison Academy 3-1 in the opening round of the North Regional Thursday, securing a spot in the 5A state tournament in Birmingham. Unfortunately for Eagles fans, Vinemont's season came to a close Thursday morning after the Lady Eagles fell to Fyffe in the opening round. Fairview on the other hand, had the most exciting opening round of arguably anyone in the tournament. The Lady Aggies fell behind early in a tiebreaker set with Lawrence County only to storm all the way back and win it to clinch a spot in the 5A state tournament next week.

Fairview 3 – Lawrence County 2 (21-25, 25-22, 20-25, 25-12, 15-10)

Fairview and Lawrence County battled it out in the opening round and the Lady Red Devils struck first to take a 1-0 lead in the match. The Lady Aggies got in front 10-7 at one point but Lawrence County rallied to tie things up at 15 and then 19 before pulling away to win it 25-21.

Fairview was able to bounce back in the second set. Both teams were tied at 14 midway through the set until the Lady Aggies put together a scoring run to go ahead 17-14.

Lawrence County trimmed the lead to 23-20 at one point but it was too little, too late and Fairview held on to win the second set 25-22.

The third set was even closer than the first two. The score was tied most of the way with neither able to create more than a 1 or 2-point lead until the Lady Red Devils managed to slide in front 22-19 late in the set. Fairview wasn't able to respond this time and Lawrence County went on to take the second set 25-20

The fourth set was all Fairview right out of the gate. The Lady Aggies jumped out to an 8-3 lead early and began to put Lawrence County away. Fairview built a 13-3 lead that grew to 20-6 at one point and despite a late run from the Lady Red Devils, the Lady Aggies were victorious in the fourth set 25-12, forcing a pressure-packed tiebreaker set.

The fifth and final set was one Aggie fans will remember for a long time. Fairview fell behind 7-0 to Lawrence County but the Lady Aggies maintained their composure and began chipping away.

Before long, Fairview had tied things up at 8 but the Lady Aggies weren't finished. The huge wave of momentum continued and after falling behind 7-0, Fairview outscored the Lady Red Devils 15-3 the rest of the way to come from behind and secure a spot in next week's state tournament.

West Point 3 – Madison Academy 1 (25-17, 25-17, 18-25, 25-12)

West Point got off to a slow start in its opening set against Madison Academy, but the Lady Warriors found their footing about midway through the set and began to create separation from the Lady Mustangs.

After being tied at 6 early, West Point used a 6-0 run to pull ahead 12-6.

The Lady Warriors stretched the lead to 19-11 later in the set and held off a late run from Madison Academy to take the first set 25-17.

West Point was dominant in the second set. The Lady Warriors built a 3-0 lead right out of the gate and continued to pile on until they were up 15-5.

West Point maintained a 21-11 advantage late in the set and cruised the rest of the way to collect a 25-17 win and a 2-0 lead in the match.

The Lady Mustangs bounced back in the third set. Madison Academy took a 6-2 lead early in the set and led the way 15-12 near the midway point.

The Lady Warriors wouldn't let the Lady Mustangs pull away, but they couldn't overcome the early lead either and dropped the third set 25-18.

West Point didn't mess around with a state tournament appearance on the line in the fourth set. The Lady Warriors got on top 9-3 over Madison Academy early and kept the Lady Mustangs at arm's length throughout the set.

West Point moved ahead 16-8 and pulled away to defeat Madison Academy 25-12, punching its ticket to next week's state tournament in Birmingham.

Fyffe 3 – Vinemont 0 (25-11, 25-19, 25-13)

The Lady Eagles had their hands full with Fyffe in the opening round Thursday morning. The Lady Red Devils took an early 8-3 lead and stretched it to 13-6 midway through the set. Fyffe continued to pull ahead 17-8 and Vinemont couldn't catch up with the lady Red Devils, dropping the first set 25-11.

The Lady Eagles jumped out to an early lead in the second set, but it wouldn't last as Fyffe began to climb back and eventually took a 15-13 lead midway through the set.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Fairview rallied from down 7-0 in the tiebreaker set with Lawrence County to win 15-10 and advance to the state tournament.

The Lady Red Devils maintained an 18-14 advantage and moved in front 20-15 before pulling away to take the second set 25-19, putting Vinemont behind 2-0.

Fyffe put things away in the third set, quickly building a 10-2 lead that grew to 15-2. The Lady Eagles bounced back and chipped away at the lead to make it 18-10 but the early lead was too much to overcome and Vinemont fell 25-13, completing the sweep and eliminating the Lady Eagles from postseason contention.

Gold Rush

The coronavirus pandemic shut down most of the world in March 2020, but it also provided the opportunity of a lifetime to gold miners, driving up the value of gold to record highs even as a miner's biggest expense — fuel, to drive his equipment — plummeted in price. In the all-new season that opens tonight with a three-hour special, veteran miners Parker Schnabel, Tony Beets and Rick Ness take huge gambles to make up for lost time, while greenhorn miners hope to make their own mark.

7 p.m. on LMN
Movie: Trapped by My Father's Killer

Five years after her testimony sent Louis (Craig Olejnik) to prison for the murder of her father and his fiancée, Diana (Lindy Booth, "The Librarians") is horrified when she returns home to discover Louis has escaped from prison to confront her. Holding her captive, Louis tries to convince Diana he is not guilty of those two murders. Eventually, Diana begins to doubt her recollections of what she really saw on the night of the killings in this 2020 thriller.

7:15 p.m. on MAX
Movie: The Quarry

Adapted from a novel by Damon Galgut, this 2020 mystery thriller from director and co-screenwriter Scott Teems stars Shea Whigham (HBO's "Perry Mason") as an enigmatic new minister who arrives in a desolate Texas town to take over services at a rundown church. Over time, his congregation begins to grow, but so do the suspicions of the hard-bitten police chief (Michael Shannon) and several other locals. Catalina Sandino, Bobby Soto, Bruno Bichir and Alvaro Martinez also star.

8 p.m. on WTTO
World's Funniest Animals

Host Elizabeth Stanton, along with her panelists and guests, observe a fresh batch of clips featuring animals caught in unusual and amusing acts in tonight's new episode. A deer who crashes into a diner is among the highlights, along with a window-washing cat and one of the boldest baby birds anyone has ever seen.

9 p.m. on MAX
Warrior

As the police prepare to exact retribution, Chao (Hoon Lee) comes to Bill (Kieran Bew) with a mutually beneficial proposal in the new episode "If You Don't See Blood, You Didn't Come to Play." Meanwhile, a sympathetic Sophie (Celine Buckens) offers Leary (Dean Jagger) a new plan. Elsewhere, Ah Sahm (Andrew Koji) and Penny (Joanna Vanderham) share a meaningful moment as he confides to her his plans for the future. Langley Kirkwood, Tom Weston-Jones and Christian McKay also star.

9:30 p.m. on WBIQ
American Masters

The new episode "Michael Tilson Thomas: Where Now Is" profiles the celebrated conductor who burst onto the classical music scene in 1969 when he stepped in for Boston Symphony conductor William Steinberg, who had fallen ill in mid-concert. From there, he embarked on a distinguished and occasionally idiosyncratic career that has earned him 11 Grammy Awards. This documentary follows Tilson Thomas from his childhood in California to the world stage. In addition to the conductor, interviewees include composer Steve Reich, architect Frank Gehry and Joshua Robison, Tilson Thomas' husband.

10 p.m. on HBO
How to With John Wilson

Documentary filmmaker and self-described "anxious New Yorker" John Wilson embarks on an amusing odyssey of self-discovery and cultural observation in this new six-episode "docu-comedy" in which he dispenses everyday advice on relatable topics, while obsessively filming the behavior of his fellow New Yorkers. The episodes take some wildly unexpected turns that remain grounded in Wilson's refreshing candor. First up: "How to Make Small Talk."

"How to With John Wilson" airs on HBO.

Wallace State Medical Assistant program celebrating Medical Assistant Recognition Week

Gail Crutchfield
WSCC

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – Students and faculty with the Medical Assistant program at Wallace State Community College are celebrating Medical Assistants Recognition Week (MARWeek), as designated by the American Association of Medical Assistants® (AAMA) and in collaboration with the National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable (NCCRT). Medical assistants across the country are recognized during this special week and honored on Medical Assistants Recognition Day, Wednesday, Oct. 21.

On Wednesday class officers and instructor Lorie Strane met with Hanceville Mayor Kenneth Nail to witness the signing of a proclamation claiming Oct. 19-23 as Medical Assistants Recognition Week in the City of Hanceville.

Because medical assistants play a vital role in preventive screening, the AAMA is standing together with NCCRT this year to empower medical assistants to fight colorectal cancer.

This year's theme "Support Screening, Save Lives" reflects how medical assistants are in an influential position to reduce barriers to screening through practice improvements and committed action.

Medical assisting is an allied health profession whose practitioners function as members of the health care delivery team and perform administrative and clinical procedures.

With their unique versatility, medical assistants are proving to be the allied health professional of choice for this decade and beyond.

Medical assisting is one of the nation's careers growing much faster than average for all occupations, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Wallace State's CAAHEP accredited Medical Assistant program offers both certificate and degree options for students wishing to enter the field. The certificate can be completed in three semesters and the associate degree in four.

Neither require prerequisite classes to be completed in advance of applying to the program. New students are accepted each fall, with applications accepted from March 1 to June 1.

For more information about Wallace State's program, visit www.wallacestate.edu or call 256-352-8000.

The American Association of Medical Assistants is the only organization devoted exclusively to serving the professional interests and educational needs of all medical assistants.

The association provides numerous services that help medical assistants put their careers on a successful and rewarding track and keep them there.

CPD, CCSO hosting Drug Take Back Day events this Saturday

Wendy Sack
wendy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman Police Department and Cullman County Sheriff's Office are both participating in this year's National Prescription Drug Take Back Day this Saturday, Oct. 24.

The Cullman Police Department will be at the south Wal-Mart from 10 a.m.-2 p.m.

The Cullman County Sheriff's Office will be at the CCSO Training Building,1920 Beech Ave. SE Cullman, AL, from 7 a.m.-noon.

Cullman County residents can bring their unused or expired medication to either location, and officers or deputies will dispose of the medication for them safely.

The aim is to provide a safe, convenient and responsible means of disposing of prescription drugs, while also educating the general public about the potential for abuse.

According to the United States Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), "National Prescription Drug Take Back Day addresses a crucial public safety and public health issue. According to the 2018 National Survey on Drug Use and Health, 9.9 million Americans misused controlled prescription drugs. The study shows that a majority of abused prescription drugs were obtained from family and friends, often from the home medicine cabinet. The DEA's Take Back Day events provide an opportunity for Americans to prevent drug addiction and overdose deaths."

The DEA website says that during the October 2019 National Take Back Day, a total of 4,896 law enforcement agencies participated at 6,174 collection sites. In all, 882,919 pounds (441.5 tons) of prescription drugs were collected, bringing the total amount of prescription drugs collected by the DEA since the fall of 2010 to nearly 12.7 million pounds.

"There are several very important reasons to dispose of unwanted prescription drugs," said Cullman County Sheriff Matt Gentry, "but the main reason is these medicines remain in the home and are highly susceptible to being misused, stolen and abused."

National Prescription Drug Take Back Day is part of Red Ribbon Week, celebrated annually Oct. 23-31, is the nation's oldest and largest drug prevention awareness program.

Learn more about National Prescription Drug Take Back Day at https://takebackday.dea.gov/.

STATE

Ivey, ADECA set to allocate protective equipment to many Alabama law enforcement agencies

Cullman Tribune Staff
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – As many as 450 local law enforcement agencies across Alabama could soon receive additional aid to help prevent and reduce the spread of COVID-19 among officers, inmates, employees and others.

The Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs (ADECA) plans to provide many of the state's police departments, sheriff's offices and other law enforcement agencies with protection kits.

The kits will include protective masks and gloves, hand sanitizer, disinfectants, decontaminant foggers and pressure washers.

The kits are approximately $3 million of an allocation provided by the U.S. Department of Justice to Alabama under the Coronavirus Emergency Supplemental Funding program.

"By virtue of their everyday exposure with the public, our police, deputies and all other law enforcement personnel face one more risk in performing their duties," Gov. Kay Ivey said.

"This equipment will provide law enforcement officers with added protection and will be particularly meaningful in smaller departments which are already straining budgets to maintain their safety."

Equipment distribution, which is expected in late October and early November, will be done at ADECA's Surplus Property warehouse in Montgomery over about a four-day period.

Qualified law enforcement agencies are being notified of the pickup schedule through affiliated state associations.

Larger police and sheriff's departments in the state will receive funding allocations directly from the U.S. Justice Department.

"ADECA'S Law Enforcement and Traffic Safety Division and Surplus Property Division have worked together to make this process as simple and efficient as possible," ADECA Director Kenneth Boswell said.

"We hope that the departments and agencies will find these protective kits useful in keeping officers and deputies safe while serving the public."

ADECA also plans within the next several weeks to supply Coronavirus Emergency Supplemental Funding to larger state law enforcement and corrections agencies.

ADECA administers a wide range of programs that support law enforcement, crime victims, economic development, water resource management, energy conservation and recreation.

dium, and hopefully, draw some of its out-of-town attendees downtown. Long also mentioned the dance that will take place Saturday evening.

Attention was given to the Cullman Area Christmas Open House coming up Nov. 13-15. Hanceville merchants are planning to take part, and some will be giving away gift certificates and other prizes.

Mayor Kenneth Nail encouraged people to come visit downtown Hanceville and do a little shopping during the upcoming events, noting that some of the area's merchants have been struggling since the COVID shutdown and need the business.

After the meeting, Nail told The Tribune, "I believe a lot of folks who haven't really shopped in downtown Hanceville in a while will be pleasantly surprised, because there (are) some very unique shops in downtown Hanceville.

"And because of the COVID, and a lot of folks (are) just staying in and that sort of thing, these shop owners are really going out to try to promote this deal Saturday: the block party.

"I think you've got some folks there that has put a lot of money into their business and downtown, and they haven't seen a whole lot of yield back yet. Everybody tells me, 'We love what's going on with downtown; we love it.' Well, if you love it, you better spend some money down there, because if you don't, some of these shops are not going to be here.

"For me, that's what the big promotion is. We've got to, we have got to think about spending some money. Don't always think about just going to the big retailer; you know, the small town store, heck, they need some support, too.

"So that's what it's all about: trying to get folks to come in and just take a fresh look at what's here. We've got some pretty unique items for sale down here that you just won't find anywhere."
