Cullman council grants 10-year tax abatement for unnamed project, moves forward on new civic center development

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – On Monday evening, the Cullman City Council approved a 10-year tax abatement for an existing Cullman industrial manufacturer without naming the company, to support expansion for cryptically labeled "Project MBEQ," representing a capital investment of at least $50 million that will create 125 new area jobs.

Without sharing information about the company or project, Cullman Economic Development Agency Director Dale Greer told The Tribune that the total project investment could approach $100 million. The reason for the secrecy about the company and project, according to Greer, is that the project relies on support from other sources that have not yet finalized their commitments. Cullman's tax abatement will be contingent on all other parties signing on and the project moving forward.

According to the resolution, Cullman will grant a 10-year abatement of "all state and local noneducational ad valorem taxes" and "all construction relat- » PAGE 7

Cullman Primary School SRO receives helping hand

JENNIFER CALLOWAY

Four-year-old Eli Calloway with Cullman Primary School Resource Officer Seth Sullivan

Christy Perry

CULLMAN, Ala. – Every afternoon, Eli Calloway, 4, rides with his mom Jennifer Calloway to pick up his big sister Emily from Cullman City Primary School. Throughout the school year, Eli has looked forward to waving and saying hello to the school's School Resource Officer (SRO) Seth Sullivan, better known as SRO Sully. Recently, SRO Sully asked Eli to give him a little help, and of course, Eli was happy to oblige.

Jennifer Calloway explained, "My daughter is in kindergarten this year, so every afternoon we are in the school pick-up line and he (SRO Sully) just started coming over each day to say hello to Eli." According to Sully, Eli was a bit shy at first and would offer a wave, but eventually, the two were buddies. Calloway and her children say their prayers each morning in the school's drop-off line. Each morning they say a prayer for their teachers, friends and SRO Sully. She said, "Eli prays every morning for Officer Sully to have a good day."

Said Sullivan, "I walk out in the car line, and this little boy was waving at me from the van, and I asked him why he wasn't in school. One day he had a tractor on his shirt and I just made conversation, and one thing led to another and then he started bringing me candy."

Around Halloween, Eli made a point to bring his new friend at least one piece of candy each afternoon.

One day, Sullivan had an idea and asked Eli if he would like to help him. He recalled, "I told him one day that he should help me one day and he said, 'Uhhhhh, OK!'" For about a week or so, Eli enthusiastically arrived to help open the first-grade car line gates and wave cars through.

However, something was missing! The SRO is required to wear a bright yellow safety vest, and he thought it was only right for Eli to have a vest, too. Sullivan said, "Now, he has his vest, and he comes out and helps and he's having a blast!"

Eli's mom smiled, "Eli has told everybody at church. He couldn't wait to show his dad, and he wears his vest all the time." Eli wanted to wear his vest around his house, but in order to make sure he has his vest at school, he now leaves his vest in the car. And as much as he loves the vest, it's seeing and helping SRO Sully that Eli is eager to do every day.

DAILY UPDATE FROM ADPH

CDC Interim Public Health Recommendations for fully vaccinated people

The CDC has issues its first set of recommendations (www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/vaccines/fully-vaccinated-guidance.html) on activities that people who are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 can safely resume. The new guidance includes recommendations for how and when a fully vaccinated individual can visit with other people who are fully vaccinated and with other people who are not vaccinated. This guidance represents a first step toward returning to everyday activities in our communities. CDC will update these recommendations as more people are vaccinated, rates of COVID-19 in the community change, and additional scientific evidence becomes available. CDC resources to help people make informed decisions when they are fully vaccinated are now available here, www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/vaccines/fully-vaccinated.html.

Johnson & Johnson COVID-19 vaccine

Some 37,900 doses of Johnson & Johnson vaccine have been strategically placed throughout the state with providers to leverage our current infrastructure. The remaining providers are being validated to ensure that they have the capacity to store the vaccine, with plans for the remaining 2,200 doses to be sent out today.

Spring break gatherings can drive up COVID-19 cases

COVID-19 continues actively circulating in Alabama, including the more transmissible B.1.1.7 (UK) variant. Spring breakers and their families are reminded that all precautions should be taken during this time if we want to continue the downward trajectory of COVID-19 cases. Spring break trips to locations where crowds of people from throughout the county gather can lead to more infections, especially as the variants threaten. The risk of closer contact with others, especially when combined with increased alcohol use, can lead to asymptomatic spread. Even though COVID-19 cases are decreasing, it is extremely important that everyone continue to follow mitigation standards during spring break and at other seasonal gatherings. Students and their families need to do their part and do the right thing by wearing masks, practicing social distancing, and washing hands frequently. Caution and vigilance are still needed.

Alabama National Guard mobile vaccination teams to deploy to underserved areas

Plans are underway for the Alabama National Guard to hold mobile COVID-19 vaccination clinics in Alabama counties with a high social vulnerability index (SVI) beginning March 23. While details are being developed, the initial concept is that mobile vaccination teams will hold the clinics in two locations four days a week to provide up to 1,000 vaccinations daily. Sites will be in areas where access and transportation needs are especially great and in populations which are difficult to reach. Details will be announced soon, but most will be in the Black Belt region.

Federal pharmacies tab added to COVID-19 Vaccine Dashboard

A federal pharmacy tab has been added to the Vaccine Distribution and Vaccine Clinics Dashboards. The map shows CVS, Sam's Club and Walmart locations throughout the state that are offering COVID-19 vaccination through the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program. Both dashboards can be accessed via the Alabama COVID-19 Dashboard Hub, located at: arcg.is/0brSGj

Primary School. He is also an instructor for the National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO).

He said, "One of the biggest things we teach them is how to build positive relationships and to be a role model.

"Seeing Eli out there and seeing his eagerness, that's what I tried to do- build that relationship even though he's not a student here yet."

He continued, "We go by the triad, of course we are law enforcement, but we also try to be a mentor and an educator."

Eli is the son of Jeremy and Jennifer Calloway and has one more year before entering kindergarten. For now, he is happy going to work every day as a Jr. SRO with his friend and mentor, SRO Sully.

PREP SOFTBALL

Addison downs Lynn 14-2 in 5 innings

Todd Walker
Tribune Correspondent

ADDISON, Ala. – The Addison Lady Bulldogs hosted their Cross-county rivals, the Lynn Lady Bears in a chilly late afternoon softball game. The Lady Bulldogs came away with a run ruled 5 inning victory 14-2.

The Lady Bulldogs had Anna Grace "The Glove" Luker on the mound and the first inning proved to be her toughest test of the night. Luker sandwiched a walk between two outs when Lynn junior Sadie Tittle singled scoring a run. Lynn Senior Brianna Barton followed Tittle's hit with a double, putting runners on second and third with two outs. Luker, with her trademark scowl, hunkered down and struck out the next batter stranding both runners. After one-half inning Lynn led 1-0.

The home half of the first had the Baby Bulldogs striking right back. Five of the first six Lady Bulldogs walked plating two runs. After a Lynn fielding error, Cara Bollinger singled, bringing home the fourth Dawg run of the inning. The first inning, full of action, had Addison leading 4-1. Addison scored two more in the second inning when Senior Madison "Pudding" Aderholt singled home Makayla Wilkins. Sophomore Lexie "Toot" Luker singled home her cousin, Anna Grace Luker bringing home the second run of the inning giving Addison a 6-1 lead after two.

The third inning had Lynn trying their best to get back into the game. "The Glove" gave up a two out double to Ashely Aldridge and Aldridge crossed the plate when the next batter reached on an error. Luker got out of the inning giving up the unearned run which cut the Bulldog lead to 6-2.

The red-hot Baby Bulldog bats answered right back in their half of the third inning. The inning started with a Bollinger walk, followed by a fielder's choice and a Bear error. This put runners on first and second with one out. Dacey Baker singled bringing home Wilkins. Another Bear error plated another Dawg run making the score 8-2. "Toot" Luker lined a single to center bringing home Baker making the score 9-2. Addison left two on base to end the inning but held a commanding 9-2 lead going into the fourth inning. After a 1-2-3 top of the fourth, Addison salted the game away with a five-run bottom of the fourth. A leadoff single by Josie Riddle was followed by a strikeout. Wilkins singled and that was followed by Anna Grace doubling home Riddle to put Addison up 10-2. Dacey Baker singled in Wilkins and Luker putting the Baby Dawgs up 12-2. One out later, "Toot" walked and that was followed by a Saige Carter single bringing home Baker and "Toot". The inning ended with Addison up 14-2.

The top of the fifth had Lynn get two runners on base, but they were unable to stave off the mercy rule as Addison took the game, 14-2.

Lynn was led by Ashley Aldridge who had a walk and a double. Sadie Tittle had a single. Addison was led by "The Glove" Luker on the mound who went five innings giving up three hits, an earned run, two walks and five strikeouts.

Baby Bulldog hitters were Wilkins who was 1-3 with three runs scored and a walk. "Glove" Luker was 2-3 with a double, walk, four runs scored and an RBI. "Pudding" Aderholt was 1-3, with a walk, an RBI and two runs scored. Dacey Baker was 2-4 with 3 RBIS and two runs scored. "Toot" Luker went 2-2 with two walks, two runs scored and two RBIs. Carter led the team with three hits going 3-3 with a walk and 4 RBIS. Riddle went 1-3 with a run scored. Bollinger went 1-2 with a walk.

Addison Coach Lana Hines stated, "Very proud of our team. They didn't let a few mistakes get them down. We played pretty solid defense and we were able to take advantage of the opportunities that were given to us during the game. We came up with some timely hits and worked the count. Our entire team is swinging the bat pretty well right now. We just need to keep improving and playing good ball."

Addison improves to 6-2 on the season with the win.

Auburn beats Mississippi State in season finale, win No. 600 for Bruce Pearl

Jeff Shearer

AUBURN, Ala. – Allen Flanigan scored 17 of his game-high 22 points in the second half to lead Auburn to a season-ending 78-71 win over Mississippi State Saturday at Auburn Arena, giving Bruce Pearl career victory No. 600.

"It was really good to finish up winning two of our last three, particularly winning these last two games at home against Tennessee and a good Mississippi State team," Pearl said. "Our guys continue to compete. We finished on a high note."

Jaylin Williams scored 12 of his 18 after intermission, making 5 of 7 shots in the second half as the Tigers outscored the Bulldogs 46-37 over the final 20 minutes to defeat MSU for the eighth time in their past nine meetings on the Plains.

After misfiring on 17 first-half 3-pointers while sinking six, the Tigers shot 5-of-10 from behind the line in the second half, including Dylan Cardwell's first 3-pointer with the shot clock expiring.

Playing point guard for the injured Sharife Cooper, Jamal Johnson led Auburn with four 3-pointers, scored 14 points and dished seven assists.

"It was new for me and refreshing, the first couple games," Johnson said.

"I want to stay poised and get everybody a lot of shots, keep the ball moving and execute the offense as fast as possible."

JT Thor added 10 points and led the Tigers with nine rebounds.

Trailing by four, Cardwell grabbed a deflected inbounds pass and swished his first 3-point attempt to beat the clock and pull Auburn within one point at 46-45.

After Johnson's 3-pointer tied the score at 50-50, Flanigan scored Auburn's next seven points on two drives off the glass and a 3-pointer.

"I knew the game was close and I had to step up and start making plays," Flanigan said. "I just took advantage of how guys were closing out and playing me."

Another clock-beating Flanigan 3-pointer put Auburn ahead 67-61, then the sophomore added an exclamation point with a thunderous dunk that gave the Tigers a 72-65 lead with 1:16 to play.

Auburn trailed 34-32 at the half after State (14-13, 8-10) erased the Tigers' 9-point lead, ending the half on a 10-2 run with a 3-point bank shot in the final second.

Thor dazzled in the first half with eight points, six rebounds, three blocked shots and two assists. Thor assisted on 3-pointers by Devan Cambridge and Williams to give Auburn a 27-18 lead.

From the left corner, he faked a 3-pointer and drove for a baseline dunk that put Auburn ahead 32-28 before State's late rally.

Pearl has won 138 games in seven seasons at Auburn, adding to his 145 victories at Tennessee, 86 at Milwaukee and 231 at Southern Indiana.

"I've been doing this a long time," said Pearl, a head coach for 26 seasons. "I'm grateful to my players, coaches, staff, managers, the athletic directors who have hired me and retained me, the fans for trusting me to lead their programs. I'm truly grateful, humble, blessed.

"I keep score, and 600 is a big number; 700 would be even better."

Having self-imposed a postseason ban, the Tigers (13-14, 7-11) will miss next week's SEC Tournament. With every player eligible to return next season, Auburn will look to maximize a five-week training period in the spring ahead of a promising 2021-22 season.

"I'm optimistic," Pearl said. "We've got to develop; we've got to grow. I'm very excited the kids we've got coming in. I'm very excited about the guys we've got returning. We've got a lot of stuff to do to become a championship team."

No. 5 Alabama Shines in 2nd half to capture 89-79 come-from-behind win over Georgia

UA Athletics
Contributor

ATHENS, Ga. – The No. 8/5 Alabama men's basketball team scored 59 points in the second half, while shooting 63.3 percent (19-of-30) from the floor and 80 percent (8-of-10) from beyond the arc, to secure an 89-79 come-from-behind victory over Georgia in both team's regular season finale on Saturday inside Stegeman Coliseum.

With the victory, the Crimson Tide finishes the regular season at 21-6 overall, the most wins since 2012-13, and 16-2 in SEC play which matches the 1986-87 squad (16-2) for the most victories in league play in school history.

Guard Jahvon Quinerly led Alabama with 18 points, all coming in the second half, while collecting five rebounds and four assists in the contest.

Joining Quinerly in double figures was guard John Petty Jr., who had 15 points and a team-leading seven boards, along with Jaden Shackelford (14), Joshua Primo (11) and Herbert Jones (10).

Georgia (14-11, 7-11) began the contest on fire and jumped out to a 29-15 lead through the first 11-plus minutes.

However, Alabama ended the first half on a 15-7 run over the final 8:03 and began the second half on a 15-2 run to result in a 45-38 Crimson Tide lead with 15:58 left in the contest.

In all, the 30-9 run spanned halftime and lasted 12:05.

Coach Nate Oats Postgame Comments

"I thought Georgia really came ready to play today. They were a lot more ready than we were. Give coach (Tom) Crean and his staff and players all the credit. I thought our guys didn't play a particularly great first 10 minutes.

"They jumped out on us 29-15. From that point on, I thought we really picked it up.

"We finished the first half on a 15-7 run and started the second half on a 15-2 run, so that 30-9 score turned a14-point deficit into a seven-point lead.

"We can't afford to come out the way we did tonight in Nashville. I thought JQ didn't have a great first half, but I thought he was dynamite in the second half.

"He had 18 points in the second half, and they couldn't keep him out of the lane.

"There is some credit that goes to some guys who maybe don't get as much notoriety as some of our other guys.

"I think this is just a team that pulls for each other.

"For us to finish at 16-2 in the SEC and tie for the most wins in school history shows a lot of what this team is made of.

"We have to get back to playing more like we did in the second half than we did in the first half when we get to Nashville."

Team Stats

- Alabama improved to 16-0 when scoring 80 or more points in a game this season
- After defeating Georgia, 115-82, back on Feb. 13, the Crimson Tide earned a season sweep of the Bulldogs, combining to score 204 total points (102.0 points per game)
- It marked just the second time this season UA has won a game when trailing at halftime (Furman)
- Alabama shot 48.5 percent (33-of-68) from the field and knocked down 10-of-22 (45.5 percent) from three-point range while the Bulldogs shot 46.8 percent (29-of-62) from the floor and 8-of-19 (42.1 percent) from three-point land
- The Tide dominated the boards, outrebounding Georgia 45-32 in the contest
- The Alabama bench gave the Tide a big boost with 33 points compared to 24 points by the Bulldogs' reserves

First Half

- Alabama began by scoring the game's first five points, all coming from Petty, before the Bulldogs responded with nine straight to take a 9-5 lead at the 14:33 mark of the opening stanza
- Georgia continued its overall run of 20-6 to take a 20-11 lead with 10:35 remaining in the first half
- The Tide cut the lead to 20-15, but Georgia went on a 9-0 run to take its biggest lead of the half at 29-15 with 8:03 remaining
- Alabama answered with a 7-0 run, but the Bulldogs responded with a 7-2 spurt to regain its double-digit advantage at 36-24 with 3:03 left to play
- Alabama finished the half with a 6-0 run to trail Georgia 36-30 headed into the locker room at the half
- The Tide outscored the Bulldogs 15-7 over the final 8:03 to take momentum into the locker room

Second Half

- Alabama continued its run out of the locker room with nine straight points to take a 39-36 lead at the 18:22 mark, its first lead since the 5-0 start
- With UA holding a 53-44 lead at the 13:35 mark, the Bulldogs responded with a 10-4 run to cut the lead to 57-54 with 11:48 remaining
- Clinging to a 59-57 advantage after Georgia's P.J. Horne hit a three-pointer with 11 minutes to play, the Tide used a 12-2 run over the next three minutes to take its largest lead at 71-61 with just over eight minutes to play
- Georgia would not go away and managed to slowly whittle away at the deficit, cutting it to a single possession, 82-79, with 1:13 remaining
- Guard Keon Ellis then drained an open three, part of Alabama's 8-of-10 shooting from deep in the second half, to jumpstart Alabama's 7-0 run to end the game and result in the final score

Next Up

The Crimson Tide earned the regular season championship and the overall No. 1 seed in the 2021 SEC Tournament, which will be played at Bridgestone Arena in Nashville, Tenn.

Alabama will face the winner of No. 8 seed Kentucky and No. 9 seed Mississippi State on Friday at 11 a.m. CT on ESPN

How to listen to a sermon, part 9

Tom Fillinger
Tribune Columnist

Note to readers: Sadly, Pastor Tom Fillinger passed away Wednesday, Feb. 10, 2021. Pastor Fillinger had submitted articles to be printed through March 16, 2021, and The Tribune will continue to print his articles through that date.

Today in our series on How to Listen to a Sermon we address the "so what factor."

What is that, you ask? Let me explain. Most worship gatherings in which a message is delivered are made up of people with various levels of spiritual maturity. There may even be some people who are flat out lost. They have never repented of their sin and believed as scripture requires for redemption. Such people are not familiar with the vocabulary of Christianity.

I recall the first time I heard the phrase "on fire for the LORD!" What in the world does that mean? Another is "get into the word." How does one get into the word? Is that like getting into a suit of clothes? Or perhaps "getting into the house?" You get the picture by looking at these examples.

The "so what factor" puts the proverbial handle on what people heard in the sermon. It may also be framed with the statement, "What am I supposed to do with what I just heard?" It provides a means for the listener to "take away" the essence of the passage just preached. You might say it puts a "handle" on the message. They have a means to grasp what they heard.

Let's go back to the example from last week on the third commandment – Do not take the Lord's name in vain. The "so what" factor may be something like this.

Today we opened the meaning of the third commandment. As Christ followers we are to live with a consciousness that in everything we are, think, and do, we bear His name.

With that understanding of this passage, what needs to change in your life? What modifications do you need to make? What resources will you need to apply to live in obedience to this command?

Let me offer this much needed caution. It is NEVER proper to manipulate people by employing purely emotional appeals.

The TRUTH of the scripture is more than adequate to produce a proper and lasting response.

The proof of a good handle is always found after the sermon. Whenever someone says, "I felt like you were speaking directly to me," I know the message connected with them by providing a handle. Better yet is when someone contacts you during the week to let you know they have used the handle. Whatever it might be, you know that you have shared a good handle.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is powerful. As Christ's messengers, it is our task to share the message in such a way that the hearers will know how to assimilate the words into their lives.

When we accomplish that task, we know we are faithful to our calling and have developed a good handle for our hearers. Effective messages under the enabling grace of the Holy Spirit produce transformation.

When God's word is properly exegeted and declared, the results are lasting. When God produces the response,

He clearly states that He will complete what He has begun.

Philippians 1:6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ.

So, is there a "so what" moment where you worship?

Force (from Front)

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – On Monday evening, the Cullman City Council formally approved a reserve police force for the Cullman Police Department (CPD), noting in the ordinance that, "certain levels of manpower are required in order to provide for the safety of the public and also to the members of the Cullman Police Department," that, "the City of Cullman desires to protect lives and property, as well as the safety of its citizens in a professional manner," and that, "the use of reserve officers allows for voluntary augmentation of sworn law enforcement officers while allowing those reserves to train."

According to Police Chief Kenny Culpepper, the department has had reserve officers for years with 15 currently serving, but the city government and CPD have never formally defined that force.

Culpepper told The Tribune, "We've had a reserve program ever since I've been here. I don't know when it was created, probably 50 or 60 years ago. This (ordinance) is just to bring us in compliance with the state. We're not going to add any personnel; we've already got 15 reserves or part-time officers, and we have had as long as I've been here.

"But the Alabama Peace Officers Standards and Training Commission requires that you have an ordinance, enacting it and all this kind of stuff that we've never done."

Culpepper added that the passing of the ordinance will not lead to increased costs for the department or city but will help the department send its reserve officers for training.

The ordinance passed Monday evening lays out the regulations under which the reserve force operates. Important points indicate that reserve officers:

- Will be unpaid volunteers

- Will not be allowed to carry firearms without proper training and state certification by the Alabama Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission (APOST)

- Will have limited duty assignments such as patrol, traffic control and crowd control, under the supervision of a certified officer

- Will not have powers of arrest without APOST certification

- Will, upon receiving APOST certification, be able to apply for paid part-time positions in the Cullman Police Department

REGULATIONS

Section 1. Establishment
As provided by § 11-43-210, Code of Alabama, 1975, a police reserve force, hereinafter called "reserve", is hereby established within the police department of the City of Cullman, Alabama. The purpose of this Reserve is to supplement, not replace, the existing and future paid personnel of Cullman Police Department.

Section 2. Qualifications
The reserve shall consist eligible citizens, all of whom are twenty-one (21) years of age or older. Any person desiring appointment to the reserve must submit a written application to the chief of police of the City of Cullman, Alabama, and pass a physical agility test and background check. Applicant shall be of good moral character and reputation, and has never been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving force, violence or moral turpitude.

Section 3. Appointment
Appointments to the Reserve shall be made by the Chief of Police with the approval of the Mayor. Members of the reserve are not permanent employees of the City of Cullman and shall serve at the pleasure of the Chief of Police, and may be removed with or without cause and without hearing by the Chief of Police.

Section 4. Supervision
The reserve shall function under the immediate direction of the designee of the chief of police, who shall provide for its organization and training. The chief of police is hereby authorized and directed to establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the efficient operation of the reserve.

Section 5. Equipment
Each member of the reserve shall be issued an identification card signed by the chief of police and the mayor. Members of the reserve shall carry this identification card with them at all times. When funding allows, each reserve shall be provided with required uniforms and equipment to carry out duties of the reserve police force.

Section 6. Duties
The duties of reserve officers are confined to the following: (1) Patrol operation performed for the purpose of detection, prevention and suppression of crime or enforcement of traffic or highway laws of the state, provided the reserve law enforcement officer acts at all times under the direct control and supervision of a certified law enforcement officer. (2) Traffic direction and control may be performed without direct supervision; provided, however, that supervisory control is exercised by a certified law enforcement officer whose total span of control would be considered within reasonable limits. (3) Reserve officers may render crowd control assistance at public gatherings or municipal functions as directed by the municipality, provided supervisory control will be exercised by a certified law enforcement officer whose total span of control would be considered within reasonable limits. For purposes of this section, the term "certified law enforcement officer" shall mean a sworn police officer who has completed the training requirements of the Alabama Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission as set out in Article 3, Chapter 21, Title 36, Code of Alabama, 1975.

Section 7. Arrest Powers
No member of the reserve shall have any authority to exercise any power of arrest unless he or she has completed the training requirements of the Alabama Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission as set out in Article 3, Chapter 21, Title 36, Code of Alabama, 1975.

Section 8. Training
Members of the reserve will be required to attend departmental training, which may include the field training officer program. The members of the reserve may be offered and required to attend the law enforcement academy at the direction of the police chief. The costs associated with this and other training are to be paid by the City so long as funding is available and approved.

Section 9. Weapons
No member of the reserve shall carry a weapon while on duty unless the reserve officer has completed the training requirements as designated by the chief of police. The reserve officer also must have a valid pistol permit.

Section 10. Compensation
No member of the reserve shall receive compensation for the time they work. Reserves who have completed the training requirements of the Alabama Peace Officers' Standards and Training Commission and have received certification as a law enforcement officer may apply for hire as a part-time officer given position and fund availability.

Section 11. Repealer
All ordinances or parts thereof which are in conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Section 12. Effective Date
This ordinance shall become effective upon its adoption, approval and publication as provided by law.

Good Hope Council (from Front)

Christy Perry
christy@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. – The Good Hope City Council moved one step closer to being able to announce one of several new projects currently being planned. The council heard the second reading of a lease agreement for the old Cotton Gin restaurant property located at 123 Lindsey Road.

The lease agreement is with Stash House Properties, LLC, which is currently in the process of applying for a state alcohol license. Mayor Jerry Bartlett said the official announcement will come, "as soon as he knows he can be licensed."

City Planner Corey Harbison said, "I think the mayor and council's goal is to get them in and get them established where they can purchase the property from the City.

"We don't want to be long-term property owners. That's the plan."

The Saints Motorcycle Club asked the council for a one-day special event permit for June 12 for their fifth annual Miracle League Ride. The ride will raise money for those with special needs who participate in the Cullman Miracle League.

It will begin at the Elks Lodge and end at the Saints MC property on Doc Clemmons Road.

Last year, the ride generated more than $11,400 for the Miracle League.

The Good Hope Sizzlin' Seniors will finally be able to resume meeting on March 23 at 9 a.m. The group will meet outside for activities, including bean bag baseball. The City will be cooking up hot dogs and hamburgers for lunch.

Practice has begun for this year's Good Hope Parks and Recreation ball season. In all, 177 kids registered to play this year. Opening Day is scheduled for April 10 with times TBA.

The Good Hope City Council meets the second and fourth Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m.

Development of new civic center moves closer

The council approved two resolutions related to the development of the city's new civic center/athletic complex at the old Marvin's location on Main Avenue between Heritage Park and the Cullman Wellness and Aquatic Center:

• To enter into a contract with St. John & Associates, LLC for professional civil engineering services related to the complex

• To enter into a contract with Cohen, Carnaggio & Reynolds, Inc. for professional design and architectural engineering services related to the complex

The council also voted to purchase a piece of property near the Cullman Wellness and Aquatic Center (CWAC) for stormwater detention that will allow increased drainage to both the civic center and the Aquatic Center.

Mayor Woody Jacobs told The Tribune that the project is still in its preliminary stages and that no timetable for construction has been set.

Jurisdiction boundary ordinance repealed

The council voted to repeal Ordinance No. 1158, enacted in 1994, concerning limits of various city services within the city's police jurisdiction which, according to Alabama Code Title 11, extends 3 miles beyond the city's boundaries.

According to the 1994 ordinance, decisions by the State of Alabama and the federal government caused the City to find "it undesirable, disadvantageous and not in the best interest of the citizens of Cullman, Alabama, for the City to continue to provide services and to collect taxes and revenues from that area known as the police jurisdiction of the City of Cullman," concluding that, "All services currently provided by the City of Cullman shall be provided exclusively for residents and businesses within the corporate limits of the City," and "No services shall be provided by the City of Cullman to residents or businesses located within the police jurisdiction of the City (outside city limits)."

According to City Clerk Wes Moore, the State does not allow municipalities to reduce their jurisdictions, so the new ordinance and repeal of the old brings Cullman into compliance with state regulations.

The new ordinance affirms Cullman's, "right to provide services to and collect fees and taxes within the three-mile police jurisdiction of the City of Cullman, Alabama."

Ordinance formalizes police reserves

The council voted to formally constitute and define the Cullman Police Department's (CPD) reserve officer force. According to the ordinance, because "certain levels of manpower are required in order to provide for the safety of the public and also to the members of the Cullman Police Department," the establishment of a reserve made up of volunteers helps the department better carry out its duties.

Chief Kenny Culpepper told The Tribune that the CPD has had reserve officers for many years, but has never formally addressed its reserve force in a city ordinance. State regulations now require such an ordinance.

Reserve officers are unpaid and may not carry firearms or exercise powers of arrest without proper training and state certification. With that certification, they will be able to apply for paid part-time positions.

Other resolutions

The council approved resolutions to:

• Accept Brownstone Way Southwest into the Cullman City Street System. Brownstone Way is the thoroughfare through Phase One of KVB Properties' The Grove at Fisher Farms, located on Industrial Park Road near AGCOR Steel along the border between Cullman and Good Hope. According to Davidson Homes, all 65 current home sites at the development have already been sold.

• Enter into a contract with Emergency Reporting for Rover Responder Services for Cullman Fire Rescue. According to the company, "When an incident occurs, Rover instantly relays the call out to your responders' mobile devices, shaving seconds off their reply. With one touch on the Rover app, responders send their availability while Rover automatically retrieves their credentials, location, and travel time. Once responders have confirmed their acceptance, Rover provides everyone who has secure access to the Rover portal (via station dashboard, laptop, in-vehicle tablets or cell phone) with the precise location of each responder and a countdown to their arrival."

• Move the dates of certain council meetings for 2021.

Special event approved

The council approved a special event request from Rita Dean for a Warehouse District Street Sale on the First Avenue Northeast on March 19 and 20, 2021 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Cullman City Council meets at 7 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of each month in the Cullman City Hall auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

App (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman City Council on Monday approved the purchase of a new system that will give emergency responders high-tech assistance getting where they need to go. The Rover system by Emergency Reporting is designed to get emergency calls out to responders quickly and efficiently and give them detailed directions to call locations. Cullman Fire Rescue already uses certain software from the company, to which the Rover system will link.

According to Emergency Reporting, "When an incident occurs, Rover instantly relays the call out to your responders' mobile devices, shaving seconds off their reply. With one touch on the Rover app, responders send their availability while Rover automatically retrieves their credentials, location, and travel time.

"Once responders have confirmed their acceptance, Rover provides everyone who has secure access to the Rover portal (via station dashboard, laptop, in-vehicle tablets or cell phone) with the precise location of each responder and a countdown to their arrival."

The system features (from the manufacturer's website):

• Turn-by-turn navigation
• Unlimited users and devices
• Works with any mobile device, tablet and desktop
• Pinpoints each responder and apparatus with GPS geolocation and real-time tracking
• Access to pre-plans, water assets and map objects
• CAD integration and live updates available

The system is advertised as "highly configurable," meaning that the smart device app can be customized to the Cullman Fire Department's needs, placing onto online maps building labels, hydrants, Knox Box locations, fire department connection points, utility shut-offs, fill sites and more.

Links to even such things as weather reports can be placed in the app.

Cullman Fire Chief Brian Bradberry told The Tribune, "We'll be happy to get that. And the good thing about it, too: it's unlimited uses, so just paying the one fee and all our trucks will have it. Very helpful for our responders and firefighters."

Emmett (from Front)

W.C. Mann
craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman County Animal Shelter's Donna Ruttkay shares the Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week:

Emmett is an Anatolian Shepherd mix of unknown age.

He's a laid-back low-to-medium energy gentle giant who's respectful of personal space and skillful on his leash.

He does enjoy some outdoor time and will need a little room to play.

Emmett has the makings of a good therapy, companion, hiking or reading dog.

Emmett's adoption fee is $100 which includes DHLPP vaccine, Bordetella vaccines, Rabies vaccine, wormer, general exam at the Vet, neutering, microchip, free 30-day health insurance policy issued by 24 Pet Watch (with valid email only) and a free bag of food from Cullman Pet Depot (you must pay sales tax).

Animal shelter staff and volunteers work with their dogs to make sure they are accustomed to being around people, walking on a leash and practicing good behavior.

Several of the shelter's canine friends have even been "hired" to work as therapy and special needs service dogs.

Please consider adopting, to give a rescued pet a chance at a happy and healthy life.

Contact the Cullman County Animal Shelter at 256-734-5448 or visit them at 935 Convent Rd. NE. Reach them by email at cullmancountyanimalshelter@gmail.com.

Good news!

Ruttkay reported that recent POTW MacIntosh has been adopted. Thanks to the whole community for a POTW adoption rate of 99% last year!
