Running a mile in their shoes
8-year-old Theresa Ann honors K-9s

ASHLYN GREY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Theresa has been fundraising for a variety of causes since she was 3.

ashlyn@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – At only 8 years old, Theresa Ann runs 1 mile for every fallen military and police officer listed on www.odmp.org/k9. Theresa Ann has been helping first responders with lemonade stands since she was 3 years old, and this bright-eyed girl has been seeking opportunities to do more ever since. On her fourth birthday, she wanted to have a lemonade stand to offer support to K-9s and their units. She ended up raising nearly $900 that day and has since raised $19,000 for numerous causes, such as Toys for Tots, Children's Hospital and injured officers.

In winter, Theresa Ann noticed that not many people were in search of a lemonade stand so she transitioned to fundraising through running. She has now run 5Ks in Las Vegas, Los Angeles and Henderson, Nevada to honor Vegas Strong Victims and fallen officers.

When COVID-19 struck, Theresa Ann's fundraising efforts came to a halt for nearly 14 months.

When she discovered Running 4 Heroes, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping families of fallen first responders, she realized that nobody was running for K-9s. She began running for members of K-9 units and now, donations and grants can be supplied to these organizations. Her first vest is this weekend, June 5, in Texas and she has set a goal to run at least 1 mile in each state.

Friday evening, Theresa Ann ran 1 mile in honor of Cullman Sheriff K-9 Figo as part of her mission to run for all fallen K-9s. In early Feb. 2020, Deputy Adam Clark and his K-9, Figo, were both critically injured in an accident whereafter Figo died from health-related issues.

Fortunately, Deputy Clark was able to return to work in early January of this year.

Running 4 Heroes is always looking for more youth to get involved.

"We want to encourage our youth to come out and support the first responders and military. Eventually, for this organization to keep going and helping first responders and military, we need the youth to keep running. You can also donate to help with the grants and K-9 vests at https://running-4heroes.org/. All the money raised goes to the organization," said Running 4 Heroes associate, Robert Babcock.

View the Alabama COVID-19 Vaccination Allocation Plan at: www.alabamapublichealth.gov/covid19vaccine/assets/adph-covid19-vaccination-allocation-plan.pdf

FEMA community vaccination center updated dates of operation

The drive-thru FEMA Community Vaccination Center located at Watermark Place (4500 Katies Way) in Bessemer will no longer be open on Sundays. The site will continue to provide vaccinations to citizens six days a week and appointments are available but not required. Appointments can be made on the web scheduler located at https://myturn.timetap.com. The website also includes links to documents that will need to be reviewed prior to being vaccinated. These materials are also available on-site. No appointment required, no ID required, and no insurance required.

COVID-19 dashboards no longer updating on weekends / K-12 dashboard suspended

Alabama's COVID-19 Dashboards will no longer update on weekends. The information will continue to be updated Monday through Friday. The K-12 dashboard will be suspended and re-evaluated in the fall once school resumes. Dashboards including vaccine distribution, vaccine clinics, risk indicator and data and surveillance can be accessed via the COVID-19 Dashboard Hub located here: arcg.is/0brSGj

COVID-19 vaccine data for persons 12-15 years of age

Children 12 years and older are now eligible to get vaccinated against COVID-19. Since May 10, 6,460 patients ages 12-15 in Alabama have received vaccinations with the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 Vaccine. Pfizer is currently the only vaccine available to children and adolescents up to age 18.

Myocarditis and vaccine safety monitoring

Myocarditis (inflammation of the heart muscle) can occur in persons, including children and adolescents, from viral infections, including SARS-CoV-2 disease. Myocarditis can specifically occur in a condition known as Multisystem Inflammatory Syndrome in Children (MIS-C). As part of vaccine safety monitoring, a small number of adolescents and young adults have had myocarditis after receiving an mRNA COVID-19 vaccine. At this time, it is unclear whether the vaccine is linked to myocarditis. However, given the emphasis on safety for all vaccines, including COVID-19 vaccine, members of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) COVID-19 Vaccine Safety Technical Work Group wanted information on any potential for myocarditis post vaccine to be communicated to providers. Dr. Yvonne Maldonado, chair of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Committee on Infectious Diseases, stated, "We look forward to seeing more data about these cases so we can better understand if they are related to the vaccine or if they are coincidental. Meanwhile, it's important for pediatricians and other clinicians to report any health concerns that arise after vaccination to the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System so we can systematically track and analyze them, and determine if they signal a real concern." VAERS can be accessed here: https://vaers.hhs.gov/. ADPH continues to recommend COVID-19 vaccine for age-eligible persons. No cases of myocarditis in adolescents and young adults have been reported in Alabama at this time. ADPH places priority on vaccine safety and continues to monitor.

Persons who previously had COVID-19 should not identify as being vaccinated

Persons who have previously had COVID-19 should not identify as being vaccinated if they have not received a COVID-19 vaccination. There is increasing scientific evidence in peer-reviewed scientific literature that shows that some persons with confirmed COVID-19 may develop a very weak immune response, or none at all. Increasing evidence shows that those who do develop a response from being infected are showing decreasing immunity. Repeat infections in persons previously infected are being seen both in Alabama and nationally. Previous COVID-19 infection cannot be equated to vaccination.

Updated Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine storage guidelines

Based on a review of recent data submitted by Pfizer, Inc., the U.S. Food and Drug Administration authorized undiluted, thawed Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine vials to be stored in the refrigerator at 2°C to 8°C (35°F to 46°F) for up to one month. This is a change from previous guidance which stated that thawed, undiluted vaccine vials could be stored in the refrigerator for up to five days. A fact sheet for health care providers administering vaccine with more information is available here: www.fda.gov/media/144413/download?utm_medium=email&utm_source=govdelivery

Water (from Front)

ADEM
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – In an effort to ensure the safety of drinking water in public schools, the Alabama Department of Environmental Management will be collaborating with the Alabama State Department of Education to resume sampling of drinking water in public schools. This partnership will be supported by a grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and will be in addition to an ongoing sampling program for child care centers. This project will also mark a return to sampling drinking water at public schools, after a successful three-year effort from 2017-2019. Childhood exposure to lead has long been a concern of researchers and medical professionals. While public water systems are required to conduct rigorous testing to ensure the water they produce meets all health-based standards and is non-corrosive, there are no state or federal requirements to test for lead.

"This project's continued goal of providing information to the parents and staff and protecting our children from dangerous exposure to lead will be served well by ADEM's partnership with the State Department of Education," said ADEM Director Lance LeFleur.

"Our earlier work with ALSDE was very fruitful, with over 1,000 schools across the state participating. We look forward to working with schools again to further our mission to ensure clean drinking water for Alabama's most vulnerable populations," said LeFleur.

State Superintendent Dr. Eric Mackey said, "Alabama's schools have faced many challenges of late, particularly with the COVID-19 pandemic. Renewing our lead testing program with ADEM will provide everyone with current information on the quality of water provided in our schools, so that we can all focus on providing a safe learning environment."

The program is based on EPA's popular "3Ts for Reducing Lead in Drinking Water" guidance used by schools and child care centers across the country. This program emphasizes training, testing and taking action to reduce lead exposure in drinking water. Participating schools will be provided training and resources needed to self-evaluate and select fixtures for testing.

The samples will be delivered to the State Drinking Water Laboratory for analysis at no cost to the schools. The program calls for schools to share the results with students, parents, and staff and periodic reports will also be available on ADEM's webpage.

HEALTH: Drink water to beat the summer heat

Dustin Duncan
Contributor

AUBURN UNIVERSITY, Ala. – Drinking water may be the best way to beat the hot Alabama temperatures that arrive with summer. With temperatures routinely reaching the high 90s, even the walk from the car to the office is enough to make someone reach for a cold drink.

Sofia Sanchez, an Alabama Cooperative Extension System registered dietician, said the drink that will pack the biggest punch on hot and humid days is good, old-fashioned water. With higher temperatures, the human body loses water more frequently, leading to dehydration.

How much water is enough?

Determining how much water a person needs isn't an exact science. There is the well-known rule of eight cups a day to equal 64 ounces.

"The actual amount of water a person needs is determined by age, gender, activity levels and overall health," Sanchez said. According to the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, healthy adult men and women get about 20% of their daily water from food. With those figures in mind, women need about nine cups of water each day, and men need about 12 ½ cups to replenish water lost throughout the day. If a person is more active each day, they will need to drink more water to avoid dehydration. Also, an increased water intake is also necessary for sick individuals. Dehydration can lead to headaches, dizziness, fatigue and extreme thirst, as well as other health-related issues. However, it's best to drink water throughout the day before symptoms begin to show. A quick and easy way to check for sufficient water intake is to examine urine color. Individuals who drink enough water should have pale, yellow-colored urine. If it's dark yellow or amber, it is probably a good idea to increase water intake.

Increasing water intake

While drinking enough water each day is essential to a healthy lifestyle, a few small changes can be made each day to increase water consumption without too much disruption.

When thirsty, drink water. If the typical drink of choice is a soda or sugary drink, try to replace one of those drinks each day with water.

Drink water with meals. Try to make it a habit to replace mealtime beverages with cold water.

Be prepared. Carry a refillable water bottle so water is available at all times. If a water fountain is nearby, this makes it easier to fill it up throughout the day.

Add flavors. Water doesn't have to be the same each time. Use lemon juice or a few cucumber slices to add variety.

Cutting calories

Drinking water instead of sweet tea, soda, fruit juice or other sugary drinks can save hundreds of calories. A 12-ounce can of regular soda contains 140 to 200 calories. If you fill up a large 24-ounce cup, that's the same as pouring up to 400 calories. If you go back for a refill, those calories can pile up in a hurry. Cutting back on sugary drinks cannot only reduce calorie intake, but will also make you feel better physically.

Take a look at other amounts of sugar in the following sugary drinks. (Numbers are based on 20-ounce servings.)

- Fruit punch – 18 teaspoons
- Energy drink – 16 teaspoons
- Sweet tea – 14 teaspoons
- Sport drink – 9 teaspoons
- Water – 0 teaspoons

Orange Cranberry Water

To make your water more interesting, try this recipe for a fruit-infused orange cranberry water.

Ingredients

- 2 oranges, sliced
- Fresh or frozen cranberries, 2 cups
- Ice cubes, 2 cups

Directions

Simply place ingredients into a clear pitcher, fill with water, stir gently and chill for an hour before serving. Cheers! Tip: Try different types of fruit to switch it up. Keep trying combinations until you find something you love.

Heather Mann

Arkansas answers the call, wins first SEC Championship

Arkansas Athletics
arkansasrazorbacks.com

HOOVER, Ala. - No. 1 Arkansas outslugged No. 4 Tennessee, 7-2, in the SEC Tournament championship game on Sunday afternoon at Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in Hoover, Ala., becoming only the third team since the conference expanded in 2012 to win the SEC regular-season championship and tournament championship in the same season.

Jalen Battles, who was named the tournament's MVP, drove in a team-leading three runs in the win, powering the Hogs to their first title in program history.

Battles racked up two singles and hit a solo home run in the triumph.

Kevin Kopps was his dominant self, locking down the final three innings of the ballgame to secure the win. The SEC Pitcher of the Year struck out three to earn his 10th save of the year.

True freshman Jaxon Wiggins started for the Razorbacks, turning in a strong outing on the biggest stage of his young career.

The hard-thrower struck out five in 3 2/3 innings of one-run ball before giving way to the bullpen.

Ryan Costeiu and Lael Lockhart combined for 2 1/3 innings of shut-down relief work in the middle innings, allowing the Hogs to take advantage offensively.

Trailing 1-0 after four, Arkansas scored three in the top of the fifth to turn the game around. Battles' first of three RBI came on a single to right, scoring Cullen Smith from second.

Zack Gregory then brought home Casey Opitz from third with a single of his own one batter later before Matt Goodheart's sacrifice fly to left put the Hogs ahead, 3-1.

Arkansas never looked back, extending its lead to 4-1 in the top of the seventh on Battles' homer. Up 4-2 in the eighth, the Razorbacks once again put up a three-spot to take control of the game for good.

Smith's two-run blast in the blast in the inning was the final dagger.

The native of Tennessee homered to right on the very first pitch he saw to extend Arkansas' advantage to 7-2.

Staked with a five-run lead, Kopps did exactly what he has done all season.

He and Opitz, Arkansas' most veteran duo, embraced on the mound after the game-ending fly out to center.

ARKANSAS ATHLETICS

The Arkansas Razorbacks defeated Tennessee 7-2 in Hoover Sunday to claim their first SEC Tournament title in school history.

Troy falls to UTA in pool play finale 11-5

Andy Stubblefield
Troy Athletics

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Troy dropped its final pool play contest of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament against UTA Friday at Riverwalk Stadium in Montgomery, Ala. The Trojans couldn't overcome a hot Maverick start as they fell, 11-5, bringing their season to a close.

Drew Frederic (2-5, 2B) and Dalton Sinquefield (2-4, 1 R) each registered multi-hit games while Logan Cerny homered for the 15th time this season.

UTA (27-29) started fast with six runs on six hits in the opening frame to grab an early lead. Cerny's home run, a solo shot off the bottom of the scoreboard, got the Trojans on the board in the bottom half of the first.

The Mavericks would homer in both the second and fourth innings before capitalizing on a Troy error in the fifth to extend their lead to 9-1.

Rigsby Mosley singled in the fifth to cross Frederic, who doubled and advanced to third on a wild pitch, but UTA got the run right back in the top of the sixth with an RBI-single of its own.

Troy (27-26) crossed three runs in the sixth, highlighted by a Seth Johnson RBI-double and a Nic Nolan infield single, to cut the deficit to 10-5.

A bases-loaded walk in the eighth extended the UTA advantage back to six at 11-5, and the Trojans were unable to answer.

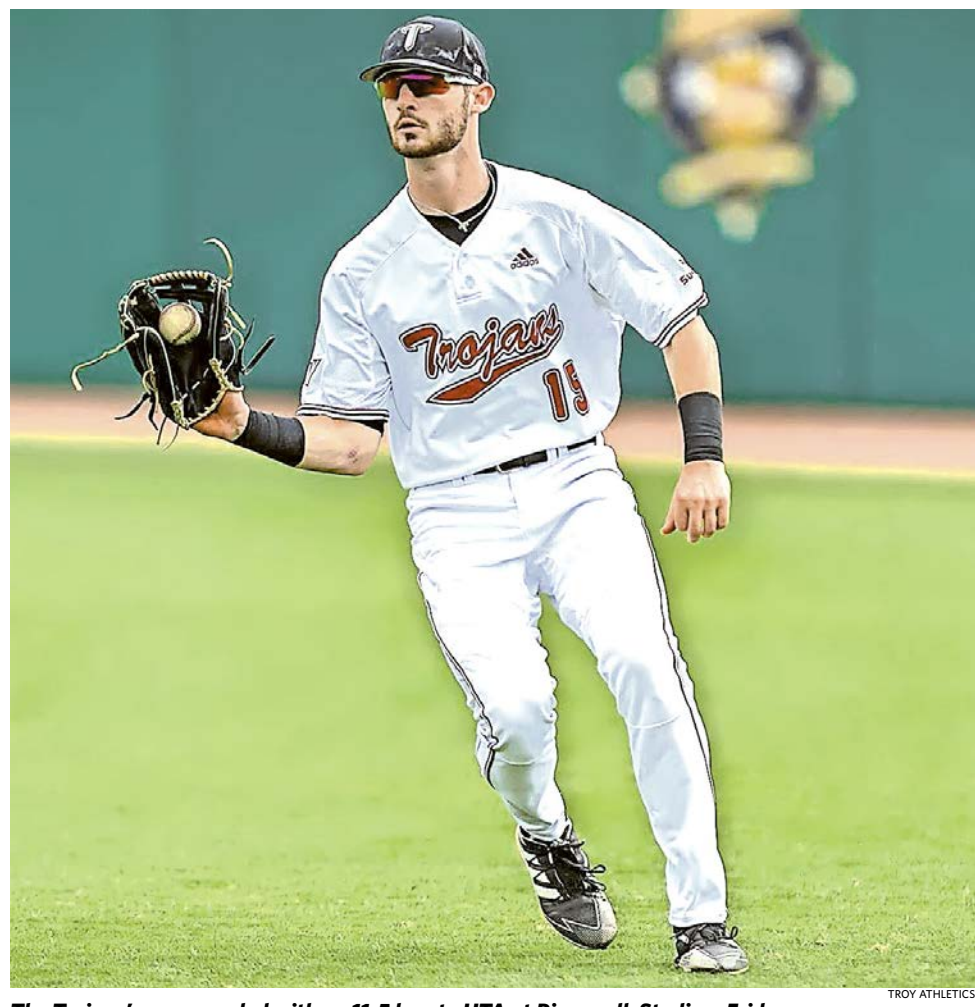

Garrett Gainous (9-5) suffered the loss after a tough first inning while Jarod Seals (1-0) was the pitcher of record for UTA. In total, Troy used eight arms on the mound compared to the Mavericks' nine.

Quotable – Head Coach Mark Smartt

"I hate that the season is over, it's always a tough way to end. We didn't play well today; it was a tough game. I'm proud of the way we finished to get to this tournament and that we played our best baseball down the stretch. Unfortunately, we didn't play our best here in Montgomery. Most importantly, I'm really proud of what [our players] have endured the last 15 months to get to this finish line. It's unprecedented the things they've had to do and go through since March of 2020."

Notable

- Logan Cerny recorded his 15th home run of the season, the second-most by any player in the Sun Belt.
- Drew Frederic registered the 58th double of his career, the most of any Trojan in program history. Of his 296 career hits, 95 of them went for extra bases.
- Lance Johnson made his 118th appearance on the mound as a Trojan, the second-most among active Division I players.
- Seth Johnson doubled for the second time this season to log his second RBI of the year.
- Dalton Sinquefield recorded his second multi-hit game of the tournament and the 40th of his career.

TROY ATHLETICS

The Trojans' season ended with an 11-5 loss to UTA at Riverwalk Stadium Friday.

UAB and JSU to open 2021 at Montgomery Kickoff on ESPN

Ted Feeley
UAB Athletics

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – UAB will bat leadoff on Week 1 of the college football season when the Blazers and Jacksonville State open the 2021 season in the Montgomery Kickoff at the Cramton Bowl on Wednesday, Sept. 1. The game will air on ESPN at 6:30 p.m. CST.

UAB is coming off its second Conference USA title in the last three years and returns 17 starters entering 2021. The Blazers have won a C-USA record three-straight West divisional titles and should once again be a front-runner to win Conference USA this season.

Jacksonville State won its ninth OVC title in school history and reached the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs in April.

JSU played four games in the fall and nine games in the spring, finishing with an overall record of 10-3.

This is the sixth meeting between the two in-state schools with UAB leading the series 3-2. The Blazers have won each of the last three games, with the most recent contest coming in 2005.

"It is great for our players to have the opportunity to open the season in primetime on ESPN," head coach Bill Clark said.

"I know Coach Grass will have his team ready and this will be an exciting game for all fans of college football, especially those in the state of Alabama."

For the first time in his career, Clark will be coaching against his alma mater. He also coached JSU to an 11-4 record in 2013 with Grass as the offensive coordinator.

UAB Football season tickets for the inaugural season at Protective Stadium are on sale starting as low as $75. 2021 season ticket holders currently have priority access to purchase tickets to the Montgomery Kickoff versus Jacksonville State starting at just $20. Call the UAB Ticket Office at (205) 975-UAB1 to purchase. Single game tickets will go on sale to the public in August.

Senior Center (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. – The sound of laughter and chatter returned to Cullman County senior centers Tuesday morning after they were closed in March 2020. The joy was more than apparent at the Cullman Senior Center as over 40 seniors participated in the scheduled activities.

Cullman County Commission Chairman Jeff Clemons came out to welcome back and visit with the center's members--many of whom had not seen friends or been out of their homes since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic.

"Thank God we're back!" he exclaimed. The seniors replied with a hardy "AMEN!!" and thunderous cheers and applause.

He continued, "We've got a lot of great things in store for 2021 for our seniors across Cullman County. I want you to know that I love every one of you and I will always be here and support you every way I can. Thank you so much for coming. Let's move forward now and this is truly a blessing!"

As the seniors enjoyed a spirited penny-auction, Clemons' happiness was on full display.

He said, "I am so thankful we can hopefully get back to normal.

"We've got to be working on our Christmas party. We are trying to find a big location for it in December. You have to prepare for these events now. You can't wait until the last minute."

Cullman Senior Center director Kristie McCarn was thrilled for the seniors to see the renovations that took place in their absence.

New paint, wallpaper, kitchen cabinets and new countertops are just a few of the upgrades the seniors were happy to see, though they paled in comparison to seeing each other.

McCarn spoke about the importance of the senior centers opening Tuesday. She said, "We are just super excited they are able to come back and enjoy being together. It's like family and they haven't got to see each other in so long." Are you happy to be back? "YES!! Yes, yes, yes!! TV gets old, four walls get old, looking out the road to see who is going by gets old. Missing our friends and some that have gone. I couldn't believe some of them were gone," Glenda Cummings shared. The Cullman center lost at least 12 members since the shutdown began.

This Friday, June 4, the center will have a fun welcome back party with Sheriff Matt Gentry and the Cullman County Sheriff's Office providing grilled hamburgers and hot dogs.

The calendar for the month of June is filled with awesome activities including live music, games, singing, devotion and food.

Friday (from Front)

all the way down to the Busy Bee Cafe.

CPRST Director Zac Wood said, "Everybody's excited about it. I think the public's excited and ready to come out. I think they showed that on Strawberry Festival, the way everybody showed up and showed out; also for Dinner on First, as many people were there . . . people are ready to get out and do something."

Event coordinator Keith Varden, who recently joined the COC staff, told The Tribune, "We're excited this year. We're excited to get events happening again this year.

"I'm not too familiar with the past; I know that a lot of great work has been done for 2nd Fridays. People love it, and so we're wanting to carry on that tradition.

"The City, the Mayor, Cullman Parks and Rec, the Downtown Merchants Association, the Warehouse District Association--so everybody working together this year to make this thing happen.

"And Peggy Smith has been huge--she is the president of the Chamber--and so, we've been kind of putting this thing together, and feel like we're going to have a great event that we believe everybody's been waiting for.

"And honestly, it's just exciting for me to come on board and be able to work with everybody together, and so I'm excited about that."

Downtown and Warehouse District merchants will stay open into the evening, inviting shoppers to come in and browse while at the festival.

Events of this month's celebration include the ever popular classic and custom car cruise-in, sponsored by Agcor Steel and relocated this year from 1st Avenue to the parking lot across from the Festhalle with overflow on Arnold Street, along with:

• Kids' zones and family zones near the Festhalle, near Busy Bee and at the intersection of 1st Avenue Southeast and 2nd Street Southeast, featuring inflatables and games.

• Carnival rides and mechanical bull

• R.E. Garrison Trucking show lot

• Food Truck Alley and Vendor Village on 1st Avenue between 1st Street Southeast and 2nd Street Southeast

• Beer Garden

• Farmers Market

According to Varden, the number of children's activities and rides have been increased over previous years.

Pets on parade!

June's celebration will feature a pet parade at 6 p.m. near Busy Bee, emceed by the Tribune's own Senior Reporter W.C. Mann. All pets are welcome.

The $10 entry fee will support the Cullman County Animal Shelter. Registration forms are available at Happy Tails Groom & Board and Fairview Florist. Call 256-338-0223 for more information.

Live music

The event will also feature live music on four stages along the route with:

• Reid Haughton Music - Haleyville-born rising country singer/songwriter currently based in Auburn, whose songs are available on Apple Music and Spotify

• Chase Williamson Music - Albertville-born country singer/songwriter

• Blammo - Huntsville-based five-man rock band currently working on its first full-length album in Muscle Shoals

• Jason Brian Willingham and Katie McGee - Cullman-based duo who are members of the popular local band The Overtones

Varden said, "We're trying to make sure that, from each end, there's something for everybody."

COC President Peggy Smith told The Tribune, "With the help of our partners, we are excited to have 2nd Fridays returning on June 11.

"We look forward to seeing everyone after a long year. Please join us for this wonderful tradition, and we can't wait to see you."

Cullman will hold 2nd Friday celebrations in June, July and September. No event will be held in August due to Rock the South.
