CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman High School Theatre on Saturday swept the District 3 competition of the Alabama Conference of Theatre's Walter Trumbauer High School Theatre Festival with its production of "Over the River and Through the Woods," qualifying the team to compete for state honors at Troy University in December.

"We are so proud," said Cullman High School Theatre Director Wayne Cook. "Our theater department graduated a ton of seasoned actors last year and we are very young, but the students have risen to the task and we are very proud of them."

Cullman High Music Director Sarah Jane Skinner added, "They have worked so hard on this show, and we are both just so proud of their progress. The main cast is very small, but they all bring such energy and joy that completely fills the stage. I think everyone should come out and see it at the public performances, because it is a hilarious, touching story. These kids truly bring it to life, and I can guarantee that every person in the audience will see some aspect of a loved one reflected in these characters. I could not be more proud of these talented, hard working, wonderful kids!"

The troupe will present the one-act show on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 11 and 12, at Cullman High School.

COVID-19 BY THE NUMBERS

Monday, Nov. 8, COVID-19 update from the Alabama Department of Public Health's COVID-19 Dashboard Hub (https://bit.ly/3iVJwXK)

ADPH COVID-19 dashboard changes

Along with decreases in COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations and deaths, ADPH will be updating its dashboard less frequently. Effective June 7, the Data and Surveillance Dashboard will update Monday, Wednesday and Friday; the Vaccine Distribution Dashboard will update Tuesday and Thursday and no weekend updates will be made. Additional information may be provided in the future as ADPH gathers more data on the pandemic.

*The dashboard has been redesigned to help people better understand the current transmission levels in their communities and the impact of COVID-19 in Alabama. The moving 7-day sum is updated daily instead of weekly--instead of a 3, 7 and 14-day average, the dashboard will provide a 7-day moving sum for cases. The 2020 and 2021 breakdowns of cases and deaths will be provided - not just a total sum over both years.

Case details* (Updated Monday, Wednesday and Friday)

- Positivity in tests in Alabama: 4.3%
- Confirmed cases in Alabama (2020): 387,953
- Confirmed cases in Alabama (2021): 448,302 (+1,106 since Friday)

Vaccine details (updated Tuesday and Thursday)

- Doses delivered to Alabama: 6,897,125 (No Updates Available)
- Doses delivered to Alabama providers: 3,928,565 (No Updates Available)
- Doses administered: 4,507,718 (No Updates Available)
- Number of people receiving one or more doses: 2,541,178 (No Updates Available)
- Number of people who have completed vaccine series: 2,095,828 (No Updates Available)
- Doses delivered to federal programs: 2,968,560 (No Updates Available)

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs has awarded the Cullman County Commission nearly $525,000 in grant funds to help with renovations and equipment at Stoney Lonesome OHV Park.

The two ADECA Regional Trails Program grants, which were prepared by the North Central Alabama Regional Council of Governments Regional Planning Agency, awards the Cullman County Commission $524,937 in funds for an $840,299 total project.

The Cullman County Commission will provide $315,362 in local match funds.

The first RTP grant will replace two bridges to allow vehicle access across the creek, rehabilitate eroded or deteriorated trails and install reflective signage and solar lighting along the trail to allow night usage while improving overall trail safety at the OHV park.

The second of the two RTP grants addresses trail construction and maintenance equipment needs to assist in purchasing an excavator and a four-wheel drive backhoe for use at the OHV park.

Salute (from Front)

Bob Manney
Cullman Lions Club president

CULLMAN, Ala. — Nov. 11, 2021, will be the centennial of the dedication of the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. The Centennial Committee has proposed many projects to honor the Unknown American soldiers who fought and died during World War One and in subsequent wars. One of the first projects presented is the National Salute.

The National Salute is a means to show our deep respect for the Unknown Soldiers buried in the east plaza of the Memorial Amphitheater at Arlington National Cemetery. On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, we ask Americans across the United States to pause and recognize those who have sacrificed and those who will sacrifice in the future in defense of America's freedom and democracy.

In response, then, we are calling on all local Cullman churches to honor these heroes with a "21 Count Honors Salute" (bell ringing with a five second interval between counts), beginning at 11 a.m. on Nov. 11. This "calling to attention" of the freedom-loving people of the world is for the purpose of rendering the highest honors to those Americans who have paid the ultimate price for freedom.

In addition, the entire Cullman community is invited to pay respects to the honored dead. Religious organizations, patriotic organizations, scouting organizations, schools, libraries, industries, businesses, unions, communications media, social media and individuals across the county are invited to participate in these highest honors.

The idea is for the American people to pause, show their gratitude and render their highest honors to the heroes' unsung valor.

Rock The South (from Front)

Rock The South

CULLMAN, Ala. — The "Biggest Party in the South" is back on Aug. 5 and 6, 2022 – with an incredible lineup of musicians that fans can look forward to hearing live in Cullman, Alabama.

Organizers of Pepsi Rock The South Driven by Mitch Smith Chevrolet will have Morgan Wallen and ALABAMA as the 2022 headliners, along with other well-known musicians: HARDY, Jamey Johnson, Koe Wetzel, Jimmie Allen, Colt Ford, Matt Stell and Dee Jay Silver. More artists will be announced in the coming weeks.

Morgan Wallen staked his claim as Country Music's next superstar with over 4 billion streams, multi-Platinum certifications and four consecutive chart-toppers. Wallen's album Dangerous: The Double Album, debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 Albums chart and was the biggest streaming week for a country album in history.

It includes another record-breaking achievement in one of TIME's Top 10 Songs of 2020, "7 Summers" – which debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot Country Songs chart – as well as 3X PLATINUM Diplo collaboration "Heartless" and recent PLATINUM chart-topper "More Than My Hometown."

"Morgan Wallen is one of the most highly-acclaimed rising stars in country music, and we are excited to welcome him to Rock The South to join our best lineup to date," said Shane Quick- partner-Pepsi Rock the South.

"He has been our most requested artist in the 11-year history of the festival, and we are excited to give our fans what they have been asking for."

Building on the best year yet for the festival, the Pepsi Rock The South team is also investing over $1 million in improvements to the facility.

"Alabama weather in the summer can be unpredictable, and the Pepsi Rock The South team is making enhancements to the entire venue," said Quick.

"These changes include more parking options, additional restrooms and RV upgrades."

Pepsi Rock The South was founded in 2012 to celebrate the spirit of people helping people and continues to support charities that help people every day in local Alabama communities.

"Cullman is our home, and we want to enhance the beautiful space that has hosted Rock The South for the past 10 years," said Quick.

"As the festival has grown in size during the past decade, we have been able to explore and expand on ideas for needed enhancements."

As fans experience improvements to Rock The South, they will also enjoy the music from arguably one of the best known bands in country music history – ALABAMA, who is thrilled to be back playing in their home state.

The band's claim to fame includes 21 straight No. 1 hits, a record that will probably never be equaled in any genre.

Their rock edge broadened country music's audience and led to 73 million albums, and admission to the Country Music Hall of Fame and the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

Attendees will also enjoy the music of singer/songwriter HARDY.

Nominated for three 2021 ACM Awards, one of CRS' 2021 New Faces of Country Music, a CMA Triple Play award recipient and a Vevo DSCVR artist, HARDY was also named 2020 AIMP Songwriter of the Year.

He has helped write eight No. 1 singles for artists such as Blake Shelton, Chris Lane, Jameson Rodgers, Florida Georgia Line, Morgan Wallen and his own first-ever No. 1, Platinum "ONE BEER."

To round out the lineup, Jamey Johnson, Koe Wetzel, Jimmie Allen, Colt Ford, Matt Stell and Dee Jay Silver will also take the stage.

Jamey Johnson co-wrote several chart-topping hits, including George Strait's "Give It Away" and Trace Adkins' "Ladies Love Country Boys," while also exercising his own musical chops with hit songs such as "The Dollar."

Rock The South 2022 will also feature Koe Wetzel, a Texas-born singer, songwriter, guitarist and producer who kicks out hard rock hooks with a twang bred in rough and tumble dives.

Since 2015, Wetzel has sold over 200,000 units independently and cranked out 100 million streams.

Multi-platinum recording artist and songwriter Jimmie Allen made history as the first Black artist to launch a career with two consecutive No. 1 hits off his 2018 debut album Mercury Lane– the first being his debut single "Best Shot," which claimed the No. 1 spot on Country radio for three weeks and second being "Make Me Want To."

Colt Ford consistently blazes his own trail. By doing so, the Georgia singer, songwriter, rapper, musician and performer has sold over 3 million albums, attracting millions of followers on social media, and hitting 1 billion-plus streams.

Additionally, he co-wrote Jason Aldean's No. 1 hit "Dirt Road Anthem" and Brantley Gilbert's No. 1 hit "Country Must Be Country Wide" as a behind-the-scenes force in the studio.

It was a love song that catapulted Matt Stell to country music success in 2019 via his massive hit "Prayed for You," a life-changer of a song that spent two weeks at the No. 1 spot.

The first DJ ever signed to a major Nashville Record Label, RCA Nashville, Dee Jay Silver has been a top touring DJ, remixer and producer for the past 15 years, having played in premier venues in virtually every major market in the U.S., Mexico and Canada.

Tickets will go on sale Nov. 9 at 10 a.m. at http://www.rockthesouth.com. General admission tickets start at $89, and VIP tickets start at $299.

This year's VIP attendees will enjoy an upgraded experience from past years, including a parking pass, cooled tents to escape the August heat, private restrooms and private access to concessions.

Each ticket tier has limited quantities available, so purchasing tickets early will offer attendees the best price.

Additional Rock The South artists will be announced in the months leading up to the event.
