craig@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — On Monday, Dec. 13, the McGriff Family of Cullman agreed to transfer ownership of Terri Pines Golf Course and all its facilities to the City of Cullman.

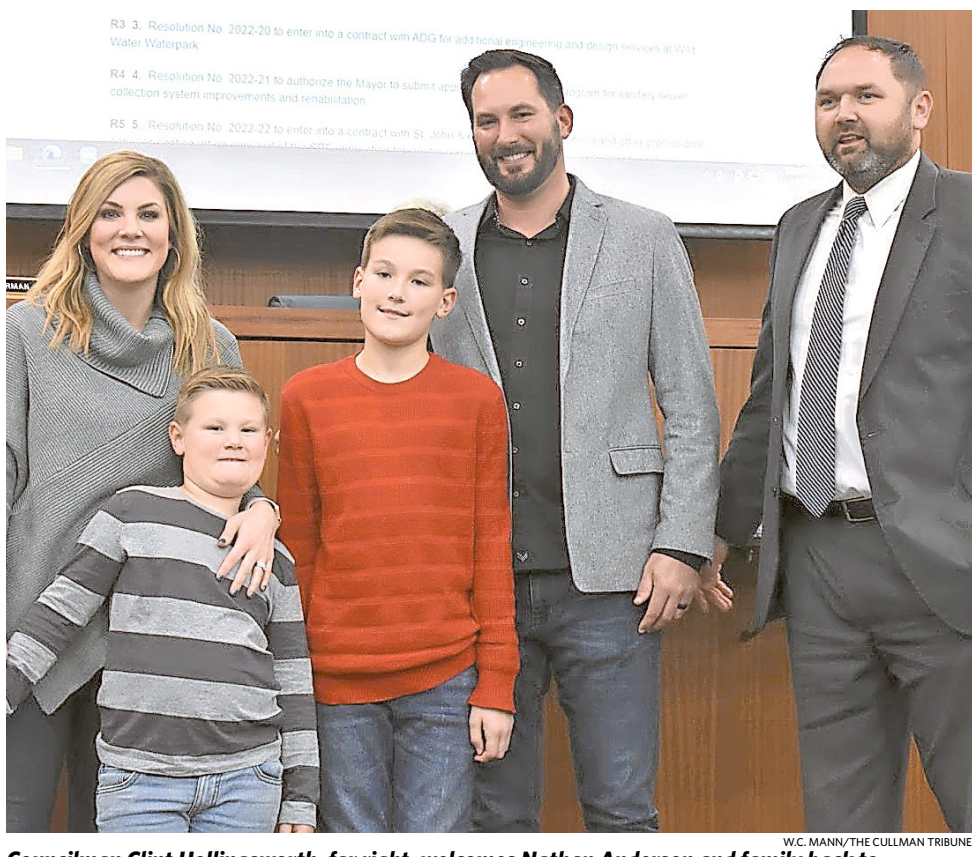

Founded and developed by Bert McGriff over 40 years ago, Terri Pines Golf Course was designed by legendary golf course designer, Tom Jackson. The course is known for offering golfers meticulously maintained, bent grass greens through par-72, 18 holes as well as other golf amenities including a driving range with 25 hitting stations, along with a practice putting green and chipping green. The golf course is perched on the highest point in Cullman County, surrounded by towering pines.

Terri Pines also has tennis facilities with four hard surface lighted courts and a practice wall that shares restrooms with the swimming pool area. The pool area offers an exciting brand of entertainment for water lovers and Terri Pines Grille hosts casual dining options for families and golfers.

"Terri Pines will be an incredible addition to Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism," said Nathan Anderson, incoming CPRST Executive Director. » PAGE 6

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman City Council on Monday evening announced plans for a skateboard park to be built adjacent to Depot Park downtown. California-based Spohn Ranch, Inc. was named as the designer for the park.

On its website, Spohn Ranch boasts "three decades of municipal skatepark projects, spanning 40+ states, 15+ countries and a variety of corporate clients including Red Bull and Vans, Spohn Ranch's skatepark designers and skatepark builders have mastered a broad range of techniques specific to creating the highest-quality wheel-focused terrain possible."

The council also approved a change order in the amount of $37,240 for additional structural supports for a LED video wall at Wild Water Waterpark, as well as a contract with Aquatic Development Group Water Park Design for additional engineering and design services at Wild Water Waterpark.

The council announced that former director of Cullman Parks, Recreation and Sports Tourism Nathan Anderson will be returning to take the reins as these major projects get underway. Anderson left CPRST in 2019 to become CEO of 46 Entertainment, the Nashville-based live production company that puts on Rock the » PAGE 6

COVID-19 BY THE NUMBERS

Monday, Dec. 13, COVID-19 update from the Alabama Department of Public Health's COVID-19 Dashboard Hub (https://bit.ly/3iVJwXK)

ADPH COVID-19 dashboard changes

Along with decreases in COVID-19 cases, hospitalizations and deaths, ADPH will be updating its dashboard less frequently. Effective June 7, the Data and Surveillance Dashboard will update Monday, Wednesday and Friday; the Vaccine Distribution Dashboard will update Tuesday and Thursday and no weekend updates will be made. Additional information may be provided in the future as ADPH gathers more data on the pandemic.

*The dashboard has been redesigned to help people better understand the current transmission levels in their communities and the impact of COVID-19 in Alabama. The moving 7-day sum is updated daily instead of weekly--instead of a 3, 7 and 14-day average, the dashboard will provide a 7-day moving sum for cases. The 2020 and 2021 breakdowns of cases and deaths will be provided - not just a total sum over both years.

Case details* (Updated Monday, Wednesday and Friday)
- Positivity in tests in Alabama: 5.3%
- Confirmed cases in Alabama (2020): 387,575
- Confirmed cases in Alabama (2021): 464,999(+1,340 since Friday)
- Total confirmed deaths in Alabama (2020): 7,185
- Total confirmed deaths in Alabama (2021): 9,080 (+22 since Friday)
- Positivity in tests in Cullman Co.: 4.2%
- Total confirmed cases in Cullman Co. (2020): 7,570
- Total confirmed cases in Cullman Co. (2021): 8,738 (+42 since Friday)
- Deaths in Cullman Co. (2020): 128
- Deaths in Cullman Co. (2021): 179 (+0 since Friday)
- Total tested in Cullman Co. in the last 7 days: 1,424
- Total tested positive in Cullman Co. in the last 7 days: 60
- Total tested in Alabama in the last 7 days: 47,880
- Total positive tests in Alabama in the last 7 days: 2,561
- Currently hospitalized in Alabama: 357

Vaccine details (updated Tuesday and Thursday)
- Doses delivered to Alabama: 7,604,455 (No update available)
- Doses delivered to Alabama providers: 4,211,385 (No update available)
- Doses administered: 5,190,890 (No update available)
- Additional doses administered: 448,824 (No update available)
- Number of people receiving one or more doses: 2,663,899 (No update available)
- Number of people who have completed vaccine series: 2,173,286 (No update available)
- Doses delivered to federal programs: 3,393,070 (No update available)

Alabamians in Phases 1a, 1b and 1c (including those 12 and older) are now eligible to receive a vaccine.

Relief (from Front)

Patrick A. James
Alabama Elks Association

CULLMAN, Ala. – The Cullman Elks Lodge is currently accepting donations of items, as well as monetary donations for their disaster relief fund directed toward the tornado victims in Kentucky. R.E. Garrison Trucking has already donated an 18-wheeler and driver to transport the donated items. The lodge is collecting donations Dec. 14-16 with the 18-wheeler departing on Friday for Benton, Kentucky.

Collection times are from 1-7 p.m. at the lodge located on Brantley Ave below the Bill Smith Buick GMC dealership.

Items needed include water, both bottled and in gallons, non-perishable food items, blankets, pillows, pillowcases, baby food, baby formula, diapers, toiletry items such as shampoo, conditioner, soap, deodorant, toothpaste, toothbrushes, feminine hygiene items, adult diapers, first aid items including pain and fever reducers, cleaning supplies such as Clorox, garbage bags, pet food, etc.

Monetary donations can also be donated online at https://secure.kentucky.gov/formservices/Finance/WKYRelief (Team Western Kentucky Tornado Relief Fund) or can be dropped off at the Elks Lodge.

Clothes are not requested at this time. For more information contact Disaster Relief Coordinator Gwen Parker, at 256-347-1545 or gbparkercullman@att.net.

Grant (from Front)

Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Gov. Kay Ivey has awarded grants totaling $4.8 million to help provide services to child victims of abuse, neglect and sexual assault, as well as provide training and resources to local law enforcement and nonprofit agencies.

The grants will help many nonprofit organizations provide services including forensic interviews, mental health services, medical services referrals, advocacy, community education and prevention services.

"Young victims deserve to have the same professional services and help given to them as adult victims," Gov. Ivey said. "I commend these agencies that work daily to help those who have been harmed and work to prevent further abuse."

The Alabama Department of Economic and Community Affairs is administering the grants from funds made available by the U.S. Department of Justice. "ADECA shares Gov. Ivey's dedication to protecting the most vulnerable among us by making sure child victims have the resources they need and that those helping the children are trained to provide the best assistance possible," ADECA Director Kenneth Boswell said.

The following grants were awarded to various local and state agencies who provide direct services to victims and providers:

- Russell County Child Advocacy Center (Russell County): $66,240.
- Pike Regional Child Advocacy Center (Barbour, Bullock, Coffee, Pike): $109,440.

Vinemont rallies to top East Lawrence 54-50 in OT, Eagles collect 1st win of season 56-42

Nick Griffin

VINEMONT, Ala. — The Vinemont Eagles and Lady Eagles hosted East Lawrence for a pair of area matchups Friday night and the Lady Eagles took the first contest in dramatic fashion. After falling behind early and trailing for all of regulation, Vinemont was able to tie things up in the fourth quarter and force overtime. The Lady Eagles took their first lead of the night early in the overtime period and pulled away to defeat East Lawrence 54-50. The Eagles followed them with an impressive win of their own, jumping out to an early lead in the first half and cruising to pick up their first win of the season 56-42.

Vinemont 54 – East Lawrence 50 (OT) (Varsity Girls)

East Lawrence scored the first six points of the game to take an early lead over the Lady Eagles but after a free throw by Raylee Quick got Vinemont on the board, Whitney Quick knocked down a pair of three-pointers to cut the lead to 9-7 late in the opening period. East Lawrence banked one in from three-point range just before the buzzer to stretch its lead to 12-7 going into the second quarter.

Whitney netted a pair of free throws at the start of the second to make it a 12-9 game and Reagan Robinson and Morgan Flanagan each added one from the stripe to make it 16-11 with about four minutes to play in the first half. East Lawrence pulled back ahead 20-11 but another three-pointer and two more free throws from Whitney Quick just before the end of the period trimmed the lead to 20-16 going into the halftime break. Quick recorded 13 of the Lady Eagles' 16 points in the first half.

A few quick baskets by East Lawrence made it a 26-16 game early in the third but Quick's fourth trey of the night cut the lead to 26-19 with five minutes remaining in the quarter.

Caroline Miller scored inside to hold the lead to 28-21 later in the period and Quick drilled back to back three-pointers to make it a 3-point game. Robinson knocked down a jumper to make it 32-29 late in the third but East Lawrence got another shot to fall at the buzzer and took a 34-29 lead into the fourth.

A free throw by Burks and a three-pointer from Raylee Quick cut the lead back to three early in the fourth quarter but East Lawrence managed to move back in front 40-33.

However, a Robinson basket and a pair of free throws from Whitney Quick made it a 44-40 game and Raylee Quick laid one up and in to make it a 2-point game with less than a minute to play. Robinson went to the free throw line with just 31 seconds on the clock and buried both shots to tie things up at 44 and send the game into overtime.

Whitney Quick's seventh made three-pointer of the game gave Vinemont its first lead of the night at 47-44 early in overtime. That's when Raylee Quick took over, scoring five straight for the Lady Eagles to extend their lead to 52-46 with just under two minutes remaining. East Lawrence was able to cut the lead back down to two, but Raylee's final basket of the night put Vinemont back in front by four and secured a 54-50 victory for the Lady Eagles.

Whitney Quick led all scorers with 28 points in the win. Raylee Quick posted 13 points, 12 of which came in the fourth quarter and overtime and Robinson added seven points for the Lady Eagles.

Vinemont 56 – East Lawrence 42 (Varsity Boys)

The boys' game was a little less stressful for the home crowd than the girls' game before it. A pair of three-point shots by Jaxon Holcomb helped the Eagles build an early, 12-2 lead over East Lawrence. Isaac Moody and Chayce Sandlin each scored to make it a 16-5 game late in the opening period and Kix Johnson buried a deep three at the buzzer to put Vinemont in front 19-8 going into the second quarter.

Holcomb drained another three to stretch the lead to 23-11 early in the second and Moody knocked down a three-pointer of his own to make it a 26-16 game midway through the period.

Moody and Toby Hill each scored inside to keep the Eagles up by 10 and Hill scored another basket in the paint just before time expired in the second quarter to give Vinemont a 32-20 advantage going into the locker room at halftime.

Hill continued to punish East Lawrence inside in the second half and another three-pointer from Holcomb made it a 39-24 game midway through the third quarter. Hill converted an and-one play at the line to put the Eagles on top 42-25 and Sandlin scored another bucket to make it 44-30 with a minute remaining in the period. Hill finished another three-point play at the free throw line in the final seconds of the third and Vinemont went into the final frame leading East Lawrence 47-33.

Moody drilled a three-pointer give the Eagles a 15-point lead early in the fourth quarter and Hill scored another basket down low to keep them in front 52-39 with about four minutes left to play. Miller capped things off with a pair of late baskets to keep the game out of reach for East Lawrence and Vinemont pulled away to collect its first win of the season 56-42.

Hill led the way for the Eagles with 22 points in the win, followed by Holcomb and Moody who each finished with 10. The Vinemont Eagles and Lady Eagles will be back in action Tuesday night when they travel to Phil Campbell to take on the Bobcats.

Lady Warriors edge Fairview 45-44 in 2OT, Aggies pull away to top West Point 55-42

Sammy Confer

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — The West Point Warriors and Lady Warriors traveled to Fairview for a pair of varsity matchups Friday night and both games were heated battles between the county rivals. It took a pair of overtimes, but the Lady Warriors topped the Lady Aggies 45-44 and in the boys' game, Fairview put together a massive fourth quarter to pull away late and defeat West Point 55-42.

West Point 45 – Fairview 44 (2OT) (Varsity Girls)

The first quarter was a defensive one as there were a combined two made baskets in the opening quarter. Morgan Lindsay got Fairview on the scoreboard with a free throw almost two minutes into the game, then later on, Emma Garcia hit a layup to make it 3-0. West Point got on the scoreboard on a Liberty Shadix short jumper almost halfway through the first period. The final points of the quarter came on a pair of Jayla Gorham free throws as the Lady Aggies went into the second period up, 5-2.

The Lady Warriors slowly started to get things going offensively. Ryleigh Jones hit just one-of-three from the free throw line to make it 5-3, then back-to-back layups by Braelee Quinn and Hallie Wheeler gave West Point a 7-5 lead with 6:03 remaining in the first half. Fairview countered with six straight points to give them an 11-7 lead. After a Lindsay trey gave the Lady Aggies a 14-10 lead, Jones hit two-of-three from the free throw line with less than two minutes to go in the first half to make it a two-point game. Quinn then drilled consecutive threes to put West Point up, 18-14, and the Lady Warriors went into the half with the four-point advantage.

The Lady Aggies got the lead right back to start out the second half as a Sadie Smith three and a Lindsay layup gave them a 19-18 lead. Summer Mendoza hit a pair of free throws to give West Point the lead once again at 20-19, but baskets by Lindsay and Smith saw Fairview grab a 25-20 lead. Then late in the third period, Jones got red-hot from the field, scoring her team's final nine points of the quarter, including back-to-back baskets down low, and both teams would go into the final period tied at 29-29.

Each team traded threes to keep the game tied almost midway through the fourth quarter. The Lady Warriors broke the tie with back-to-back baskets by Quinn and Ella Minck and that gave them a 34-30 lead with 3:44 to go in the game. Quinn stretched the lead to 37-32 with a trey with a little over two minutes to go in the contest, but Fairview's Jayla Gorham hit a pair of huge free throws to make it a three-point game.

After getting possession on a jump ball, the Lady Aggies had a chance to tie the game and send it into overtime. Garcia would oblige as she drilled an enormous shot from deep just before the buzzer sounded to tie the game at 39.

Each team would hit three-of-four from the charity stripe to keep the game tied at 42. Fairview would get a shot to end the game, but Lindsay's shot bounced off the rim and the game would go into double overtime. Quinn drilled a three from the left wing to give West Point a 45-42 lead, but a pair of Smith free throws made it a one-point game with less than two minutes to go in double overtime. After a pair of West Point missed free throws, the Lady Aggies looked to win the game on its final possession. Mendoza had other ideas, though, as she got the steal that would help clinch the Lady Warriors' 45-44 win over the Lady Aggies.

Quinn finished with 16 points, eight rebounds and six steals for West Point (7-3). Jones added 12 points, nine rebounds and three steals. Mendoza ended up with eight points, six rebounds and a pair of steals. Wheeler added five points. Liberty Shadix ended up with two points, six rebounds and six blocks. Minck also finished with two points and six rebounds. For Fairview (9-1), Smith finished with 14 points, five rebounds, three steals and two blocks. Gorham added 11 points, 12 rebounds, and a steal. Lindsay ended up with 10 points and five steals. Garcia ended up with seven points, nine rebounds, and a block, while Reagan Dunkin chipped in with two points.

Fairview 55 – West Point 42 (Varsity Boys)

Both teams had the hot hand shooting-wise to start out the game. West Point's Jay Lamar and Andrew Lynn each hit a three to give them a 6-2 lead, but the Aggies' Cylas Yarbrough hit a free throw to make it a three-point game, then back-to-back baskets down low by Landon Tweedie gave them a 7-6 lead very early in the first period. Another Lynn trey gave West Point the lead right back at 11-9 with 4:34 remaining in the opening quarter. Parker Martin hit a driving layup late in the first period as that gave Fairview a 13-11 lead. The Aggies would hold a 13-12 lead going into the second period.

Each team would trade the lead for a little bit to start out the second quarter. After a Yarbrough trey gave Fairview an 18-16 lead, a layup by Sam Wheeler and another Lynn three saw the Warriors get the lead right back at 21-18. An Ethan Fraiser basket down low made it a one-point game, but Kanen Trussell answered with a basket of his own on the other end and West Point went into the half up by three at 23-20.

Back-to-back baskets by Kolten Perry and Wheeler helped increase the Warrior lead to 27-23 with 5:33 remaining in the third quarter, but Fraise hit back-to-back shots down low and Yarbrough nailed one from long range to give the Aggies a 30-27 lead with a little over four minutes to go in the period.

A Tweedie trey made it a 33-29 contest, but Lynn and Jayden Laney each hit a three to give the Warriors the lead right back at 35-33. An Aiden Dujoud layup made it 37-34, but Fairview trimmed the deficit to one at 37-36 on an Austin Johnson layup. West Point held the one-point lead going into the final period.

Fairview started out the final period red-hot as a Tweedie made basket gave them a 38-37 lead. He, along with Kobe Payne, and Yarbrough hit a combined four free throws, to help stretch the Aggie lead to 42-37. A Payne trey helped increase Fairview's lead to 47-37. Trussell finally got West Point on the scoreboard on a made shot that made it an eight-point game with 3:19 remaining in the contest, but the Aggies would prove to be too much for the Warriors in the end as they ended up winning the game, 55-42.

Tweedie finished with a double-double for Fairview (6-3): 17 points, 12 rebounds, and two steals. Yarbrough added 12 points, four rebounds, and two steals. Payne ended up with 12 points as well, along with four rebounds. Fraiser ended up with eight points and eight rebounds.

Johnson added four points, four rebounds, and a block. Martin added two points and four rebounds. For West Point (3-8), Lynn finished with 12 points and a steal. Trussell added 11 points, four rebounds, four steals and a block. Laney ended up with six points. Wheeler added four points and six rebounds. Lamar added three points, while Cade Simmons (four rebounds), Perry and Dujoud each chipped in with two points.

Fairview will travel to New Hope Monday and West Point will go to Priceville to play the Bulldogs Tuesday.

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman Ballet Theatre School presented its first full production of "The Nutcracker," where all performances quickly sold out. There were two different casts that gave performances. Cast A performed on Dec. 3 and 11, while Cast B performed on Dec. 4 and the 10.

Cullman Ballet Theatre Schools Artistic Director Elaine Willingham spoke about the reason she had not done The Nutcracker before, saying, "I've been busy doing 'Swan Lake,' 'Sleeping Beauty,' 'Coppelia,' 'Raymonda,' 'La Sylphide,' 'La Bayadere,' all the other story ballets, and most of these children that I taught all these years were not familiar with.

"Everybody knows the Nutcracker story even if you don't like ballet, but now that I have my own theater, this is our new tradition, and we are the only ones in Cullman that are doing the full story of the Nutcracker." The choreography was designed after the original story and restaged by Elaine Willingham and Anna Lanier.

Cast B performed at the Friday, Dec. 10 show.

The performers were:

CULLMAN, Ala. — A familiar face is returning to the Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism offices. Nathan Anderson is stepping into his former role as CPRST Executive Director, and he and his family are happy to be coming home. Anderson stepped down from his position in 2019 but says he and his family always imagined returning to Cullman at some point. Now he's excited to be coming back to work with a familiar team.

"We always hoped we would return to Cullman one day; it's something we have prayed about. Cullman is our home, and we missed our friends and family," Anderson said.

"I am looking forward to working with such an amazing team of talented individuals whose passion drives them to make Cullman the best place to live."

Anderson moved to Nashville a couple of years ago to take over as CEO of 46 Entertainment and had to deal with an unusual set of challenges when the pandemic shutdown hit in spring 2020.

The past years haven't gone the way anyone in any industry planned but Anderson feels like the unique experience of working with that team in such a trying time will only help him grow as a problem solver in the future.

"I will always be thankful for the opportunity Nathan Baugh and the 46 Team gave me. Being a part of an industry and team that was severely impacted by the shutdown was one of the most sobering moments I've ever had in my professional career," Anderson said.

"The highpoint of the challenging 18 months of the shutdown was working every day with a very creative and tenacious team who strived to keep both companies moving forward, not solely focused on surviving, but thriving through the pandemic shutdown.

"I will always be grateful for that experience and team, and it has taught me so much about resourcefulness and never giving up."

Anderson was part of several local park improvements and advancements during his first tenure with CPRST. He already has some upcoming projects on his mind and he's excited to hit the ground running once again.

"The Park Board, City leadership and CPRST team have done an amazing job keeping the agency moving forward.

"I'm especially excited about the plans to continue the small park renovations, the water park expansion and the new sports complex and Civic Center," Anderson said.

"I look forward to rolling up my sleeves and helping the team make these ventures into successful additions that will benefit our community. There are so many exciting things happening in Cullman! I can't wait to get to work!"

CULLMAN, Ala. — Kids Loving Kids held three giveaways over the weekend at Meek Baptist Church in Arley, Spirit Life Church in Cullman and Worship Life Church in Jasper. The organization received donations from several new donors this year. The group received a grant from Walker Area Community Foundation to buy hygiene products like deodorant, body wash and toothpaste. Founder Pam Dodd said that the Jasper church had about 60 volunteers for the giveaway who directed traffic, passed out food and toys and formed prayer teams. Raising Arrows and Worship Life Church fed hot meals to all families who came to the giveaway.

Dodd said she had about 130 volunteers in all at the three locations, and the number of volunteers freed her up to visit almost every car. When Pam visited the cars, she would introduce herself, tell them merry Christmas and hand out cards with scriptures and her phone number.

She invited anyone who needed anything to call her personally.

Central States of Jasper donated the shelving in the Kids Loving Kids Curry warehouse. Gateway Foods donated the location as well as pays the electric and water bills for the building.

Golden Flake donated thousands of bags of chips to the events. Alisha Beard, the Executive Director of Kids Loving Kids, is also a hospice nurse at Cullman Regional and she and her husband Zach Beard are also the youth pastors at Spirit Life Church.

Along with Jason and Amy Canter and some teenage volunteers, the Beards packed all boxes of donations.

The organization allows for preregistration for their giveaway events and the boxes are prepared and numbered for specific families.

Pam participated in the giveaway Saturday morning during severe storms.

She said, "I went to hundreds of cars in the rain, and I didn't have an umbrella for a long time, and somebody that had already gone through to pick up Christmas for their children, they came back through the line and brought me an umbrella."

Premier Bank in West Point donated hundreds of toys and sweaters. Al Wayne Grissom of Cullman donated hundreds of hand-knitted toboggans.

Dodd also noted, "The people who gave out to Kids Loving Kids were some of the people that received from Kids Loving Kids the year before."

For anyone who would like to help Kids Loving Kids, Dodd recommends volunteering next year at Spirit Life Church and donating clothes for Kids Loving Kids' upcoming "Clothes Closet" which will be open in Curry.

Dodd said, "If you are cleaning out your kids toy box now, and you have slightly used toys, we need them and just drop them off at Spirit Life Church on Saint Joseph Drive."

Terri Pines (from Front)

"The beautiful setting makes it one of Alabama's best kept golfing secrets and we believe under the City's ownership the property will continue to serve Cullman residents and Alabamians for years to come."

The City of Cullman is growing at an exponential rate, with population growth at 23% in the 2020 census. The additional tennis courts and other amenities provided by the acquisition will support the needs of local schools for tournaments and events as well as encourage positive economic growth within the community.

"There is so much excitement behind inheriting this property gem," said Clint Hollingsworth, Councilmember Place 4, and Chair of the Tourism Committee. "Recreational park land adds value to homes and quality of life for our residents.

"This benevolence is very special, and we are grateful for the generosity of the McGriff family."

Founder Bert McGriff was a part of Cullman's influential "Flying 50," whose responsibility was to promote Cullman as a premier location for industry. Through his time with the "Flying 50," Mr. McGriff identified a need for a site to host these key industrial executives. Out of that vision, he created a large event meeting space that can accommodate several hundred people.

"It was the key meeting location for community leaders to host industrial prospects and convince them that Cullman was the place for them to locate a new manufacturing facility," said Dale Greer, Director of Cullman Economic Development Agency. "Cullman has been one of the most successful counties in Alabama for new and expanding industry, capital investment and job creation for four decades. Terri Pines facilities and the McGriff family helped make that happen."

"It was extremely important to our family that we pass the torch to an entity that we knew could continue to carry on the legacy of Terri Pines," said Barry McGriff. "City of Cullman leadership will be able to continue to fulfill our family's aspirations for this property."

With different options presented to the McGriff family through the years, the opportunity with the City of Cullman is what the entire family wholeheartedly believes is the perfect fit for everyone, members, staff, the community and homeowners.

"Our father loved Terri Pines and dedicated his life to ensuring that the development was a place for family, friends, and neighbors to gather and enjoy a lifelong sport, golf," said McGriff. "There have been countless wedding receptions, banquets, celebrations of all kinds at the facility, and we look forward to seeing those traditions continue. Our family truly believes that transfer of ownership is the best way to preserve this venue."

The future of Terri Pines has always been a topic of family conversations; the City of Cullman's ownership of Terri Pines presents the best match for what the McGriff family was seeking, which was the preservation of the property for generations to come to enjoy.

"In 2021, Terri Pines has been on pace for a record year of success, and I am confident the city will build on that growth," said McGriff. "With the acquisition of Terri Pines, the City of Cullman will take over historically successful operations and acquire a property that was recently assessed at a value of $4.7 million. The course is in excellent shape; membership is at its highest in our 40-year history and we recently acquired new equipment to maintain the facilities."

The transfer of ownership will take effect this month with no anticipated changes to staff or membership fees.

The City of Cullman's new ownership of Terri Pines will not affect Cross Creek Golf Course staffing or operations.

Shirley Ann Quick, 85, of Cullman
Funeral service for Shirley Ann Quick, 85, of Cullman will be at 11 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 18, at Cullman Funeral Home Chapel with interment in Good Hope Cemetery, and Bro. Frankie Gossett officiating. Visitation will be Friday evening at the funeral home from 5:30-8 p.m. Cullman Funeral Home is honored to serve the Quick family. Mrs. Quick passed away Saturday, Dec. 11, at her residence. She was born Jan. 29, 1936, to William Leonard and Myrtice White Gossett. Shirley Quick, mom-grandmother. To know her was to love her. Shirley lived her life with a passion for love and acceptance of all people. We are so grateful to have had her as such an incredible example of kindness, honesty and strength. We, her children, grew up with the most incredible role model who taught us to always be yourself and to love one another. We will miss her smile, her laugh and her bubbly personality. She loved all of you and her memory will live on in all of us. If we could see inside heaven today, we would see mom (Shirley), Dad (Junior) and Mike (brother) singing with the Victoryaires the songs we heard them sing so many times. "I Will Meet You In The Morning" and Just Inside the Eastern Gate." This is not goodbye, but until we meet again. She was preceded in death by her husband: Junior Quick; son: Mike Quick; father: Leonard Gossett; mother: Myrtice Wallace; sister: Wilma Powell; brothers: Robert and Richard Gossett and a host of brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law. Survivors include her daughters: Becky (Billy George) Cornelius and Nancy Pemberton; sons: Roy (Teresa) Quick and Greg Quick; 11 grandkids; 22 great-grandkids; 10 great-great-grandkids and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Market (from Front)

ashlyn@cullmantribune.com

WEST POINT, Ala. – The Warrior Way Market made its way to the West Point High School Gymnasium Saturday, Dec. 11. Organized by the mother/daughter team of Whitney Williams and Brandie Thrasher.

Williams explained, "So all of our vendors were charged a fee and that fee is going toward a West Point scholarship, so that scholarship is available to all of our West Point seniors this year.

"It is called the Warrior Way Scholarship, and everyone can go to the https://warriorwaymarket.com/ and view all of the information."

The vendor fees varied, said Williams, as indoor spaces were $50 and hallway spaces were $30.

"We do this monthly, and this was the first we have done inside.

"We are going to take a break in January and in February, we are going to start back up and we are usually behind the church at West Point Baptist Church," said Williams.

When asked how the Warrior Way Market came to be, Williams shared, "My mom and I decided we wanted to do something different in the West Point area to kind of bring all the businesses together and so, we decided to do a market.

"She is also a vendor. She does vendor stuff, as well.

"We just wanted to bring everyone together to do a market and then we decided to do the scholarship to bring in more money for the seniors.

"We are at about $3,000 for it already."

Williams found herself quite at home within the crowded and bustling atmosphere of the Market, saying, "I told myself in high school that I wanted to be an event planner and so I kind of just do this on the side.

"I love the planning portion of it and bringing everyone together."

Santa Claus was scheduled to make his appearance at the marketplace from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m., alongside local performer Jesse Priest from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

With their own Scentsy booth, vendors Jennifer Moore and Sandra Kanney agreed that they had enjoyed working with Ms. Williams in participating in this event.

"We made sure to have sales around our booth today too.

"The difference between our products and other wax products are that we are paraffin grade, and we don't emanate any chemicals in the air.

"We are also family-oriented, so all of our products are kid-safe and animal-safe."

Vendor Morgan Cooper attended with her business 'Gemini Copper', which specializes in handmade jewelry and crystals, and shared on her experience: "This is my first year and I've enjoyed it so far. Even with the rain, I think it's been great."

The Warrior Way Market ran from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. and plans to return in February 2022. For more information on scholarships or becoming a vendor, visit https://www.warriorwaymarket.com.
