Riding for Residents Jeep Parade returns for a third year

Amy Leonard
amy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman area skilled nursing and assisted living residents were treated to the Riding for Residents Jeep Parade on Saturday.

In its third year, the ride started in 2020 to raise the spirits of residents during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic when the residents and much of the nation were on federally mandated lockdown.

Decorated Jeeps with children and pets as passengers drove slowly through the facilities waving and smiling fondly at their senior parade goers.

"I like just to be doing something. This parade and all the people make me feel loved," shared Monarch Place Assisted Living resident Barbara Lynn as she waved to the riders passing by.

Traveling from Monarch Place, the Jeeps crossed U.S. Highway 31 to Hanceville Nursing and Rehab Center before making their way north on the highway to Woodland Village Rehab and Healthcare » PAGE 7

CCSO, CPD reporting program still down

Lauren Estes
lauren@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman County Sheriff's Office and Cullman Police Department utilize a computer program that compiles, stores and shares data for arrest and incident reports. According to the CCSO, that program suffered a hardware malfunction last week and will potentially be repaired today.

"Our IT department has been working diligently to resolve the issue," Sheriff Matt Gentry said. "Technicians will be on-site today. It will hopefully be resolved at that time." CPD Public Relations Officer Adam Clark said they are having to take it back a notch and do reports the old-fashioned way. "We are currently having to do paper reports again," Clark said.

"It's a learning process for some of these younger officers who have always done digital reports. The old incident reports are much different than the reports we do now. We hope to have the problem fixed today."

CULLMAN, Ala. — The 11th annual Bow-Up Against Breast Cancer 3-D Archery Tournament hosted by Heritage Archery Club and the Bowhunters of Alabama is set for May 21 and 22 at Cullman Archery Park. The competition welcomes archers of all skill levels and ages to compete individually or in teams in events such as fixed pins, open class and traditional. Awards will include Top Archer and Top Team. Over 100 archers and bowhunters from Cullman and surrounding areas are expected to attend.

The event raises funds for the Breast Cancer Research Foundation of Alabama, a local nonprofit investing in lifesaving breast cancer research at seven institutes across the state.

"Over the last decade, Bow-Up has raised $213,744 to support research advances that impact not only breast cancer treatment, but prevention and early diagnosis.

"This contribution is truly a testament to the power this community's support," said Beth Bradner Davis, BCRFA executive director.

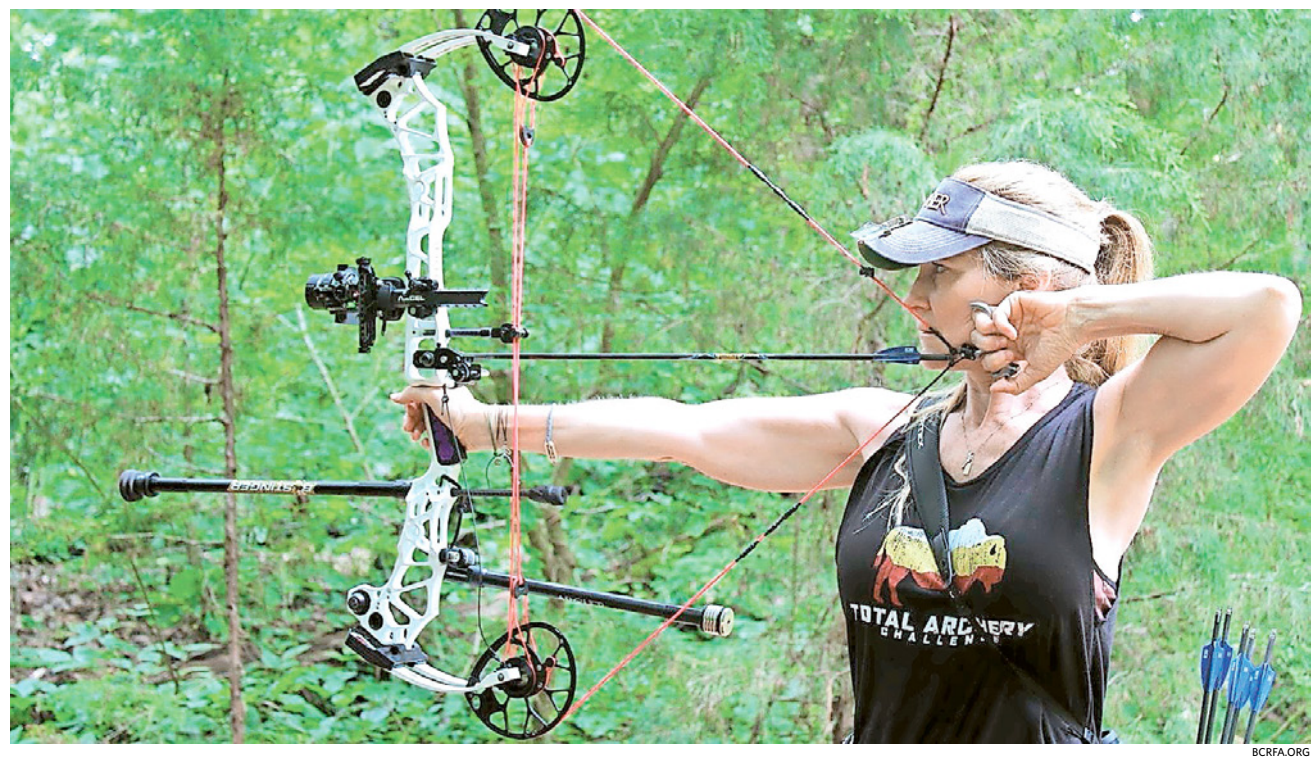

Nichols Outfitters, an outdoor apparel, hunting equipment, firearms and archery retailer, is the presenting sponsor of this year's event.

Mick Springer, lead archery technician for Nichol Outfitters said, "It's our pleasure to sponsor Bow-Up Against Breast Cancer again this year. We're thrilled each year to support and try to help find a cure for breast cancer."

Registration is $25 for adults, $15 for youth and $125 for a team.

Registration and event details are available at https://bcrfa.networkforgood.com/events/40562-bow-up-against-breast-cancer-2022.

Online registration ends Thursday, May 19, but will be available on-site starting at 7 p.m. on both event days.

BCRFA.ORG

"Events like Bow-Up are a critical way to support the BCRFA's mission of funding research and saving lives," said Charmen McAlpine of Heritage Archery Club. "Whether you're an expert or amateur, an adult or kid, Bow-Up is a fun way to make a difference in the lives of the 1 in 8 women and 1 in 1,000 men who will be diagnosed with breast cancer in their lives."

In 2021, the Breast Cancer Research Foundation of Alabama invested $1.225 million in local, lifesaving research bringing the organization's lifetime contribution to over $12 million.

Championship (from Front)

Russell Moore
Wallace State

ALABASTER, Ala. — Wallace State's softball program has secured another Alabama Community College Conference Tournament championship.

The third-ranked Lions blasted three home runs over the opening three innings at Alabaster's Veterans Park on Sunday, and pitcher Leigha Kirby twirled her second shutout against Snead State in consecutive days, propelling Wallace State to its 14th ACCC Tournament championship, second straight and fourth in six seasons.

Wallace State softball, which spent four weeks this season as the No. 1 team in the National Junior College Athletic Association Division I ranks, outscored its tournament opponents 30-1 in four impressive victories, improving to 54-2. The four tournament wins mirrored the dominance the Lions have showcased all season.

"It's not winning this championship that's the challenge. It's staying on top. I'm proud our players haven't worried about our national ranking, record, or what others are saying. The team has continued to push forward, demonstrating a strong desire to get better and better," said Wallace State coach A.J. Daugherty, who has led the program to four tournament championships in six seasons.

"We've got to continue to improve if we want to win a national championship. We don't want this to be the finished product."

Daugherty, who was named the 2022 ACCC Coach of the Year, and the Lions now advance to the NJCAA Division I Softball Championship in Yuma, Arizona, on May 24-28. They'll seek the program's third national title.

Wallace State's starting pitching trio of Kirby, Josie Thompson and Bailee Hall has been among the team's intriguing storylines this season, each entering the tournament with ERAs under 1.05 and being named to the ACCC 1st-team All-Battery.

Nothing changed in Alabaster. Thompson and Hall each earned wins on Friday and Saturday respectively, and Kirby relished the chance to close out the tournament, tossing a one-hit, 4-0, shutout against Snead State in Saturday's semifinal game before turning around less than 24 hours later and blanking the Parsons again in an 8-0 triumph.

Kirby, a Pisgah native and sophomore transfer, was named the ACCC Tournament MVP and the ACCC/NJCAA Region 22 Pitcher of the Year.

"It's been awesome to be a part of this team. The chemistry here is unlike anything I've experienced. Our pitching staff feeds off each other. No one wants to let the team down," said Kirby, who transferred to Wallace State from Chipola College. "I'm thrilled we've crossed off one of our goals. We've got more work to do."

Added Daugherty: "Our pitching staff has anchored us all season. Coach (Carson) Owens has done a great job prepping and developing the staff. Our pitching has been there when the offense has experienced ebbs and flows."

Sophomore Gracie Benton sparked the lineup in Sunday's title game, leading off the second inning with a home run. Jaiden Farnetti added a two-run shot later in the frame for a 3-0 lead, and Maddie Carton drilled a two-run blast in the third for a 5-0 cushion.

Rylie Moody delivered the clinching hit with a two-run single, sending home the winning runs in a five-inning shortened tilt.

Benton and Farnetti were each named to the ACCC All-Tournament team for the second straight year. Benton was the ACCC Tournament MVP in 2021.

Jessica Edde, Wallace State's steady presence at catcher, was also an ACCC Tournament selection.

Cartron's homer was her 20th of the season. The Hazel Green native and sophomore is the program's all-time career home run leader.

"Our lineup has been focusing on hitting line drives and ground balls. The homers are bonus if they come," Cartron said. "Winning another conference championship is one of the absolute best feelings you can have. This has been my family for two years. We want more though. If we stay calm and focused at nationals, good things can happen."

Wallace State outfielders Felicity Frame and Harper Niblett have been the team's table setters this season.

Frame was named the ACCC/NJCAA Region 22 Player of the Year after leading the conference in batting average (.509), runs scored (64) and stolen bases (59) prior to the conference tournament. She added 82 hits before the postseason.

After serving as a role player last season, Niblett was second in the ACCC with a .487 average, adding 51 runs scored and 38 stolen bases prior to the weekend. She's a 1st-team All-ACCC selection.

"I was always taught the importance of perseverance growing up. Things aren't always going to go your way. I could have taken the easy path out. Instead, I chose to work hard, and coach Daugherty and coach (Cadi) Oliver believed in me. It means a lot to play a bigger role this season," Niblett said.

"Like coach Daugherty says, pressure is a privilege. Everyone is going to give us their best shot and we continue to respond. That's what it's like at Wallace State. It's much more rewarding knowing you're the best."

Olivia Ball and Lillyanna Cartee added RBI hits for Wallace State throughout the tournament.

Wallace State softball earned the sixth ACCC championship for the college this academic year, joining both cross-country teams, volleyball, women's golf and men's tennis.

Players rounding out the Wallace State roster are Abigail Waters, Abigail Bryars, Sarah Beth Brake, Shelby Hobson, Bailey Tatum, Hannah Duncan, Gracie Ashley, Lauren Dill, Amity Cooper and Alivia Walken.

Savannah Mims and Brylan Rice are the managers.

Opening (from Front)

fest Yoga and Wellness draws the public inside to an atmosphere of softness and peace. Cheerful flowers on the soft lilac are painted on the walls with the blessing of building owner Dr. Jerry Galin of Galin Enterprises.

Kimberly Page-Hannan, with mindful intention, created not only a business, but a space where releasing the burdens and stress from everyday life is the name of the game.

"Every session we approach the mat to practice. We practice feeling comfortable and relaxed. We practice doing the things that make us feel uncomfortable and that can be a little bit difficult.

"We see how the body and the mind reacts to that comfort or that struggle. We find that perhaps we can take that practice from the mat to different parts of our lives outside of the studio."

Originally from Houston, Texas, Page-Hannan, along with her husband Alex, hailing from the New Hampshire area, have made their way to Cullman via Cleveland, Ohio. Upon completing his fellowship at The Cleveland Clinic, Alex accepted a position at Cullman Primary Care as their rheumatologist.

Holding classes throughout the weekdays, Manifest offers Vinyasa, Ashtanga and Meditation sessions. On the first and third Saturdays of each month, a free family class is held at 11 a.m. Available for all levels of practice including those with mobility struggles, the classes are held in person or via Zoom.

With a background in neuropsychology, Page-Hannan also offers Trauma-Sensitive Yoga and Dialectical Behavior Therapy guidance.

"I think everybody's yoga practice offers something different. Different teachers bring a different focus.

"For me, coming from a neuropsychology background, I care a lot about helping the body heal from past trauma," shared Page-Hannan.

She continued, "Yoga is unity, the unity of the body with the breath, with the spirit.

"If, when you're doing yoga, you focus solely on the physical fitness aspect of it, you're missing two-thirds of it. You're missing what it's about. It's about learning how to calm the body using the breath, the thing that helps us sustain life. This is how we heal."

Manifest Yoga and Wellness is located at 1900 Second Ave. SW in Cullman and can be reached at 256-595-7355.

STATE TRACK MEET

Vinemont's Lemons posts new state records in 1600 and 3200; locals shine in Cullman, Gulf Shores

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. – This weekend was packed full of local action at both the 4A-7A State Track Meet in Gulf Shores and at the 1A-3A State Track Meet in Cullman. One local standout even made history. Vinemont's Ethan Lemons dominated both the 3A 1600 and 3200-Meter Runs to earn a pair of gold medals and set a pair of new state records in the process. Lemons posted a time of 4:15.80 in the 1600, outpacing the next finisher by nearly 20 seconds and recorded a 9:22.62 in the 3200, winning by over 30 seconds. His third gold medal of the weekend came in the 800-Meter where he finished with a time of 2:00.25.

Lemons wasn't the only local athlete to bring home gold. In Gulf Shores, Cullman's Patrick Adcock placed first in the 6A Discus Throw with a mark of 146-00 and Good Hope' Cadence Watson earned gold in the 4A High Jump at 4-10.00.

At Oliver Woodard Stadium in Cullman, Cold Springs' Ethan Edgeworth blew past the field in the 2A 1600-Meter with a time of 4:31.32 and fellow Eagle Hunter Calvert claimed gold in the Pole Vault after posting a 12-00.00. St. Bernard's Claudia Fallin celebrated her birthday with a first-place finish in the 2A Discus Throw at 106-08 and Nic Fallin collected another gold medal for the Saints with a mark of 41-08.25 in the 2A Triple Jump.

"I woke up this morning and said, it's a good day to throw Discus. It's my birthday!" Fallin said after receiving her gold medal, "It's something I've been working toward for a long time. It's a real blessing."

Saints Coach William Calvert was excited to see Claudia go out on such a high note and was proud of the way his young squad performed over the weekend.

"We have a young team and we're very grateful to have qualified 10, five boys and five girls, to be at the state meet and fortunately they did a fantastic job over the weekend.

"All of them had personal records for the most part and many of them scored," Calvert said.

"Of course, we had a couple state champions, a brother and sister combination, Claudia in the Discus on her birthday and her brother, Nic, in the Triple Jump so it was a great day for that combination there.

"Abbi McBride was another medalist in the 300-Meter Hurdles so all in all it was a great meet for our young team, other than our one senior Claudia. It was a great way to send her out and it was great encouragement for the rest of the team."

As a team, the Cold Springs Eagles (64.5) finished second in the 2A Boys division, just seven points behind Lafayette.

83rd Annual Cullman Strawberry Festival sees record number of attendees

Sara Gladney
sara@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman Strawberry Festival on Saturday, May 7 was packed with people looking to buy farm fresh strawberries and enjoy the many festivities. Farmers began selling produce at 7 a.m. and most were sold out by the middle of the day, going through multiple truckloads of strawberries. Kelly Pullium of Cullman Parks, Recreation and Sports Tourism said over 3,000 gallons of strawberries were sold, the most ever on record. The strawberries were entirely sold out by 3 p.m.

The agricultural event featured music from the Cullman Community Band and Cullman Middle and High School Jazz bands in the morning. The baking competition in which contestants made their best strawberry desserts took place at noon and the Second Annual Doggy Paw-geant took place in the afternoon. The Georgia Thunderbolts, Chayce Beckham and Gin Blossoms performed music in the evening. Pullium said that the night crowd was even bigger than usual because of the artist line-up. "We experienced record crowds, with more out-of-town guests than we can recall for any of our other downtown festivals we have promoted to date. Our estimated attendance throughout the day exceeded 15,000," he shared.

Also being sampled for the first time was CPRST's German Liege waffle. The Liege waffle hails from the town of Liege in Belgium with an over 200-year-old history. It is made with pearl sugar and yeast dough rather than a regular batter. Pullium stated, "These waffles are enjoyed throughout Europe every day but are an immensely popular treat at festivals and events like Oktoberfest and Christmas markets in Germany. We wanted to give people a sneak peek at our Strawberry Festival. Folks can be looking for the Liege waffles at our Oktoberfest and Christmas market this year as we continue to celebrate our German heritage."

Wallace State hosts inaugural Cullman County Drone Race Friday

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — Cullman County Schools seventh grades took part in the first Cullman County Drone Race at Wallace State on Friday in an obstacle course designed by the University of Alabama at Huntsville's Systems Management and Production Center.

The young students honed their piloting skills through the courses with their hands on their controllers and eyes to the future.

With prizes provided by SMAP and a partnership with TSE Brakes, the event was abuzz with activity, energy and drones zooming about the auditorium.

Mike Gay, Engineering and Technology instructor at Cullman Area Technical Academy, discussed the origins of the drone race.

"Dr. Shane Barnette made a very strong commitment a few years ago to increase our activity in STEM.

"That led us to get the drone curriculum and all the drones that the kids are flying today.

"The way the curriculum is set up, they learn the basics of the drones and how they fly in a computer science class.

"They use computer science fundamentals with the drones.

"They have some obstacles that they practice with at their schools. They determined their best two teams, and those two teams are representing their schools today."

Gay has worked on the competition rules and obstacles since January and provided the area school teams with the information in mid-April.

"Dr. Gary Maddox, our SMAP director, likes to do outreach where we go out into the schools and show them what all we do.

"When Mike Gay contacted us and told us what he was doing we were very excited about it. Our team took on the project," shared SMAP's Ishella Fogle.

Secondary Curriculum Coordinator Ms. Lindsey said, "Dr. Barnette has a big focus on STEM education and bringing the best opportunities to our students to prepare them for jobs that haven't even been created yet.

"We wanted to focus on middle school. This is the first year that our middle schools have offered computer science to our students. He came across the program LocoRobo Drones. We purchased 25 drones for each middle school and the curriculum.

"The curriculum focuses on careers that use drones as well as how to pilot and maneuver a drone most efficiently.

"The best culmination of that curriculum is the district wide drone competition."

Winners in the inaugural competition included:

- First place – Good Hope Middle School team one members Noah May and Jaxon Daniel
- Second place – Vinemont Middle School team two members Alex Castillo and Larson Heaton
- Third place – Harmony School team two members Braxton Monk and Cooper Harris
- Flawless Pilot and Ace Pilot – Cold Springs team one members Carson Rice and Jaxson Swann
- Fastest time – Harmony School team two at 30.9 seconds

COVID-19 BY THE NUMBERS

Monday, May 9, COVID-19 update from the Alabama Department of Public Health's COVID-19 Dashboard Hub (https://bit.ly/3iVJwXK)

ADPH COVID-19 dashboard changes

*The dashboard has been redesigned to help people better understand the current transmission levels in their communities and the impact of COVID-19 in Alabama. The moving 7-day sum is updated daily instead of weekly--instead of a 3, 7 and 14-day average, the dashboard will provide a 7-day moving sum for cases. The 2020 and 2021 breakdowns of cases and deaths will be provided - not just a total sum over both years.

Case details* (Updated Monday, Wednesday and Friday) No Updates Available

- Positivity in tests in Alabama: 5.1%

ADMH: May 8-14 is National Prevention Week

ADMH
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — According to the 2020 National Survey on Drug Use and Health, an estimated 59.3 million Americans ages 12 and older used illicit drugs in the last recorded year. In Alabama, for ages 18 and older, an estimated 351,000 people have alcohol use disorders, while 234,000 Alabamians suffer from serious mental illness.

National Prevention Week is celebrated May 8-14, 2022 to increase public awareness and engagements surrounding mental health and/or substance use disorders. The Alabama Department of Mental Health, Office of Prevention is proud to partner with the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration to offer learning opportunities during this week.

National Prevention Week is the perfect time to invest in prevention. Community leaders and prevention specialists are standing up to prevent misuse of illegal drugs, opioids, marijuana, tobacco, alcohol and prevent suicide and mental illness. National Prevention Week provides a chance for schools, communities and prevention professionals to re-focus on their efforts.

Throughout National Prevention Week, ADMH's Office of Prevention is offering virtual opportunities to participate.

The daily themes will focus on substance use and mental health disorders. In addition, important fact sheets and webinars will be shared with staff and the public.

The 2022 daily themes are:
Monday, May 9: Strengthening Community Resilience: Substance Misuse and Overdose Prevention

- 18th Annual SAMHSA Prevention Day Presentation at 10 a.m.
- Topic: National Survey on Drug Use and Health Data in Alabama
- Presenters: Brandon Folks and Erin Burleson

Tuesday, May 10: Preventing Substance Use and Promoting Mental Health in Youth

Wednesday, May 11: Preventing Suicide: Everyone Plays a Role

- Suicide Awareness & Prevention Presentation
- Virtual QPR Training-Cheryl Dodson, ASPARC at 12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.
- https://mhalabama.zoom.us/j/81765528875
- Meeting ID: 817 6552 8875

Thursday, May 12: The Talent Pipeline: Enhancing the Prevention Workforce

- Word Search: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1Mlg9rbRNpM0zdykM9BNybunzO60pCC3N/edit.

Friday, May 13: Prevention is Everywhere: Highlighting Efforts Across Settings and Communities

- Walk Around the Capitol / Drunken Goggles Simulation Activity
- Noon - 2 p.m. at the Alabama State Capitol (South Lawn)

Through National Prevention Week, people become more aware and able to recognize the signs of mental health and substance use disorders. Equally important, community members from all walks of life learn how they can help build community, strengthen resilience and create hope to keep those around them—and themselves—healthy and safe.

and Woodland Haus Assisted Living. From there it was on to Folsom Center Rehab and Healthcare and lastly Cullman Health and Rehab Center.

Over 100 Jeep riders and passengers were treated to a cookout at Cullman Church of Christ after the parade concluded.

Michelle Thomas, a provider at Monarch Place spoke of what the parade meant to her residents.

"It gets them out and about. The parade makes them feel like they're still a part of the community. They like seeing the children in the parade."

The parade was sponsored by USA Healthcare and Cullman County Wranglers.

Month (from Front)

Melissa Tallant
City of Cullman

CULLMAN, Ala. — Senior adults play vital, positive roles in our communities – as family members, friends, mentors, volunteers, civic leaders, members of the workforce and more. Just as every person is unique, so too is how they age and how they choose to do it – and there is no "right" way. That's why the theme for Older Americans Month 2022 is Age My Way.

Mayor Woody Jacobs and The Senior Companion Program with Community Action Partnership of North Alabama celebrate Older Americans month in May by recognizing seniors.

This year's theme focuses on how older adults can age in their communities, living independently for as long as possible and participating in ways they choose.

"The Senior Companion Program's primary focus is to assist older Americans, as well as others who may need us, to help them continue living independently as long as possible. The program volunteers are also seniors over the age of 55 who choose to give back to their communities by volunteering their time to help others as they age," said Melissa Tallant, Senior Companion program director.

Ensuring that older adults remain involved and included in our communities for as long as possible benefits everyone. Please join Mayor Woody Jacobs and Community Action Partnership of North Alabama in strengthening our community: Become involved with the Senior Companion Program by volunteering and getting paid, participate in community activities.... Do it your way!
