2nd annual John E. Hunt Memorial Golf Tournament set for Saturday

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — This year's John E. Hunt Memorial Golf Tournament at Cross Creek Golf Course is fast approaching and there's still time to register for a spot in the field and support a great cause. John Hunt, who passed away in March 2020, served as Cullman's Parks and Recreation Director for over 22 years before retiring from the department in 2014, helping to lay the groundwork for many of the local parks and facilities we still enjoy today. Hunt's family shared some information on this year's event and the causes it will continue to support.

"John Hunt believed education could change a life and brighten a future, and he believed in supporting his home community of Cullman. His legacy continues as the community comes together for the Second Annual John E. Hunt Golf Tournament scheduled for Saturday, August 27.

After John's passing in 2020, the Hunt family committed to honor his legacy for education and supporting the community of Cullman by establishing a scholarship at his alma mater, Auburn University. The scholarship is awarded each year to a Cullman County resident that has been accepted or is continuing an education at Auburn.

The first John E. Hunt Golf Tournament in 2021, enabled the family to successfully endow the scholarship at Auburn University. This was accomplished through community support and local business sponsorship for the tournament, donations made specifically to his scholarship at Auburn, friends and family playing in the golf tournament, and those sponsoring a hole and donating a door prize. The Hunt's family dream of impacting another person's life, while honoring John's character, values and love for Auburn became a reality in the first year of the golf tournament.

Senior Food and Home Necessities Drive underway

AMY LEONARD/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Food and basic household necessities are being collected for area seniors citizens in need.

Amy Leonard
amy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman County Commission on Aging (COA) and SouthernCare Hospice are joining forces to provide food and basic household necessities to area senior citizens in need. The organizations are calling on others in the county to help. The inaugural Senior Food and Home Necessities Drive seeks to bridge the gap caused by the high incidence of hunger among Cullman's elder population.

According to University of Alabama Medicine, Alabama seniors suffer from some of the highest food insecurity rates in the United States. Approximately 17% of the state's elders battle food insecurity, a rate which is 66% higher than the national average.

In response to almost one in five seniors in need, COA and SouthernCare Hospice are reaching out to the community to gather dry goods, including:

- Canned soups
- Canned goods
- Crackers
- Oatmeal
- Dry beans
- Cereals
- Granola bars
- Peanut butter
- Flour
- Snack cakes
- Apple sauce

Household supplies are also needed, including:

- Toilet paper
- Laundry detergent
- Dish detergent
- Paper towels
- Cleaning supplies

The items will be stored at the COA office and distributed to seniors on a fixed or limited income on an as-needed basis. Donations may be taken to the office at 1539 Sportsman Lake Road. Call 256-734-1241 for more information.

Capture (from Front)

amy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — Officers from the Cullman Police Department (CPD) on Monday afternoon, Aug. 22, aided the Walker County Sheriff's Office in the apprehension of Patrick Thomas Edge, 28, who is charged with the Nov. 15 capital murder of 33-year-old Krystal Lynn Franklin of Boldo.

Edge, along with Jacob Aaron Thompson, 30, was indicted June 15.

Franklin, a mother of seven, is not believed to have been the target, as Edge and Thompson fired into a vehicle.

The Walker County Sheriff's Office expressed gratitude for the CPD's assistance in taking Edge into custody.

Edge is being held without bond.

‘Be where your feet are’: Good Hope’s Noah Barnette reflects on his Raider years

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

GOOD HOPE, Ala. — In this interview, I talked to former Good Hope basketball player, Noah Barnette. Barnette made a lot of great memories in his years at Good Hope, both on and off the court.

“My favorite basketball memories were when we won the county and area championship, and all of the practices where I got to have fun with my friends, teammates, and coaches,” Barnette said. “My favorite high school memories were just being able to spend time in class with my friends, just having fun in the classroom and being able to joke around.”

Barnette feels lucky to have played for a pair of great coaches during his time at Good Hope and tried to learn as much from them as he could. “They were amazing. They’re, by far, the greatest coaches that I could have ever asked for. They helped me as a man, and they helped inspire me. They are great Godly men too, which was really great, and were really great to be around. They helped inspire me to go be a teacher,” Barnette said.

Barnette learned so much during his time at Good Hope and the school, along with many of his teachers, will always hold a very special place in his heart.

“I learned how to be a better person and a better friend. I learned that I wanted to be a teacher, thanks to Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Whitlock, the two English teachers. They inspired me to go and be an English teacher,” Barnette said. “What makes this school so special to go to is the togetherness. Everyone is one big family here at Good Hope. No one is an outcast here.”

Barnette will miss competing with the Raiders this season but most of all he’ll miss the spent with his teammates.

“I’ll miss some of my favorite teachers. I’ll miss being able to see my friends every day and I’ll definitely miss basketball. I’ll miss being able to go to practice and games and everything,” he said. “It was amazing. I had two amazing senior leaders with me, and I had fellow senior leaders before. It was amazing being able to teach the younger players about being respectful and learning different plays. It was amazing to be alongside Tanner and Cannan in all of the years that I played. It was so much fun.”

Barnette gave some advice to the students that will be starting high school this year. “It goes by quick. You blink and it’s over, so enjoy every moment every day and be where your feet are.”

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — Fairview hosted a tri-match with county rivals Cold Springs and Hanceville Monday afternoon and the Lady Aggies swept both the Lady Bulldogs and the Lady Eagles. Cold Springs also collected a sweep of Hanceville.

Fairview 25 - Hanceville 15 (First Set)

Fairview got off to a fast start in game one as Sadie Smith got three straight aces to give them a 3-0 lead. The Lady Aggies got a pair of aces from Laci Segrest and a kill from Jaycee Aleman as that helped stretched their lead to 8-2. Hanceville’s Savana McAnnally got a ace of her own as they ended up cutting it to 8-4; the Lady Bulldogs later made it 9-6, but Fairview scored the next three points, including an ace by Reagan Dunkin, to make it 12-6. A kill from Smith and back-to-back aces by Abby McDonald helped the Lady Aggies increase their lead to 15-8.

An ace by MaKenzie Twilley helped the Lady Bulldogs cut the deficit to five at 15-10 and later made it 16-12, but the Lady Aggies quickly pulled away from Hanceville after that. Behind four aces from Ava Calvarese, Fairview pushed their lead to 21-12 and Smith added a kill and two more aces to help the Lady Aggies win game one, 25-15.

Smith finished with five aces and a pair of kills for Fairview. Calvarese added four aces. Segrest and McDonald each collected a pair of aces. Dunkin finished with an ace as well, while Aleman and Kabri Redding each added a kill. For Hanceville, McAnnally, Kylee McGill, Twilley, and Kayley Kahler all collected an ace in the contest.

Fairview 25 - Hanceville 13 (Second Set)

Hanceville got a kill from McAnnally and an ace from Kahler as that helped them jump out to an early 3-0 lead. That lead would be short-lived in a hurry, though, as Fairview went on a huge run. A block point by Somer Harris tied the game up at three, then consecutive aces by Segrest and a kill from Harris gave the Lady Aggies a 6-3 lead. They later stretched it to 9-3. Hanceville cut it to five multiple times, but they couldn’t quite get a run going as a Redding kill and a McDonald ace gave Fairview a 13-6 lead. Hanceville kept battling and gave the Lady Aggies fits at times as they made it 17-10 late in the contest. Harris got a kill and Redding added a point to make it 20-10, then they collected the last three points of the game on a kill by Jacie Blackwood and back-to-back aces from McDonald as they defeated Hanceville, 25-13, in the second game.

Segrest finished with a pair of aces and a point for Fairview. McDonald added a pair of aces and a dig. Harris ended up with two kills and a pair of points. Blackwood added a kill. Redding finished with a kill and a point and Aleman chipped in with an ace of her own. Twilley and McAnnally each finished with a kill and Kahler added an ace.

Cold Springs 25 - Hanceville 20 (First Set)

Early on, both teams traded points and it was tied at four after a Cold Springs point Then, Hanceville rattled off four straight points to take an 8-4 lead, but Cold Springs scored four straight of their own to tie the game up at eight.

Later on, the Lady Eagles took an 11-9 lead on a Ciara Calvert ace, but a Kahler ace tied things up at 11. Both teams continued to go back and forth before Cold Springs broke a 13-all tie with four straight points, including two straight aces from Kaley Barger, as that gave them a 17-13 lead.

A Zoe Pitts ace helped the Lady Bulldogs trim the deficit to two at 17-15, but Mary Warden collected a point for the Lady Eagles as that pushed their lead to 21-16. Malaya Taylor later collected a block point to make it 23-17.

The Lady Bulldogs made it a 23-19 game on a McGill kill and a Barnes ace, but Cold Springs was able to get the final two points of the contest as they won game one, 25-20.

For Cold Springs, Barger finished with a pair of aces. Calvert added an ace and a kill, while Taylor and Warden each collected a point. Kahler, Pitts, and Barnes each finished with an ace for Hanceville and McGill ended up with a kill.

Cold Springs 25 - Hanceville 20 (Second Set)

Cold Springs couldn’t have asked for a better start to game two. Behind a trio of aces by Calvert, the Lady Eagles jumped out to a quick 6-0 lead. Anna Stricklin collected back-to-back aces and Taylor followed that up with a kill to make it 12-1 as they looked to end the contest early. Little did they know that Hanceville would embark on a furious rally to get back in the game. The Lady Bulldogs went on a 6-2 run to make it a 14-7 contest. A Calvert kill pushed Cold Springs’ lead to 17-7, but the Lady Bulldogs would trim the deficit to just nine at 19-10 on a Barnes ace.

SAMMY CONFER/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Fairview’s Sadie Smith (2).

Hanceville continued to cut into the Lady Eagle lead as Twilley got a kill and Kahler added an ace to make it 20-13.

After an Alexis Tidwell kill made it 23-16, the Lady Bulldogs made things even more interesting as they scored the next four points, including a point by Kahler, to cut it to 23-20. Cold Springs scored the final two points of the contest as they were able to hold off a very feisty Hanceville squad to win the game, 25-20.

Calvert finished with a trio of aces, a kill, and a point for Cold Springs. Stricklin added a pair of aces and a point. Tidwell ended up with a pair of kills. Taylor added a kill, and a point and Barger collected a dig. For Hanceville, Kahler finished with an ace and a point. Twilley added a kill and Barnes collected an ace.

The Lady Bulldogs will head back home to take on Cleveland Tuesday night at 6 p.m.

Fairview 25 - Cold Springs 9 (First Set)

Taylor started out game one for Cold Springs with a kill, but Fairview quickly answered with four straight points. Three of those points were aces by Segrest as that gave the Lady Aggies a 4-1 lead. Kabri Redding collected a point as the Lady Aggies made it 7-3 and later pushed it to 9-4 on a Segrest kill. The Lady Eagles cut it to 9-5, but Fairview broke the game wide open after that as they got a pair of kills from Sadie Smith, a pair of aces from Calvarese, an ace from Georgia Gorham, and a point from Segrest during their 12-0 run to make it 21-5. The Lady Aggies ended up rolling to a 25-9 win in game one.

Segrest finished with a trio of aces, a kill, and a point for Fairview. Smith added a pair of kills. Calvarese ended up with a pair of aces and Redding added a kill and a point. For Cold Springs, Taylor and Strickling each finished with a kill.

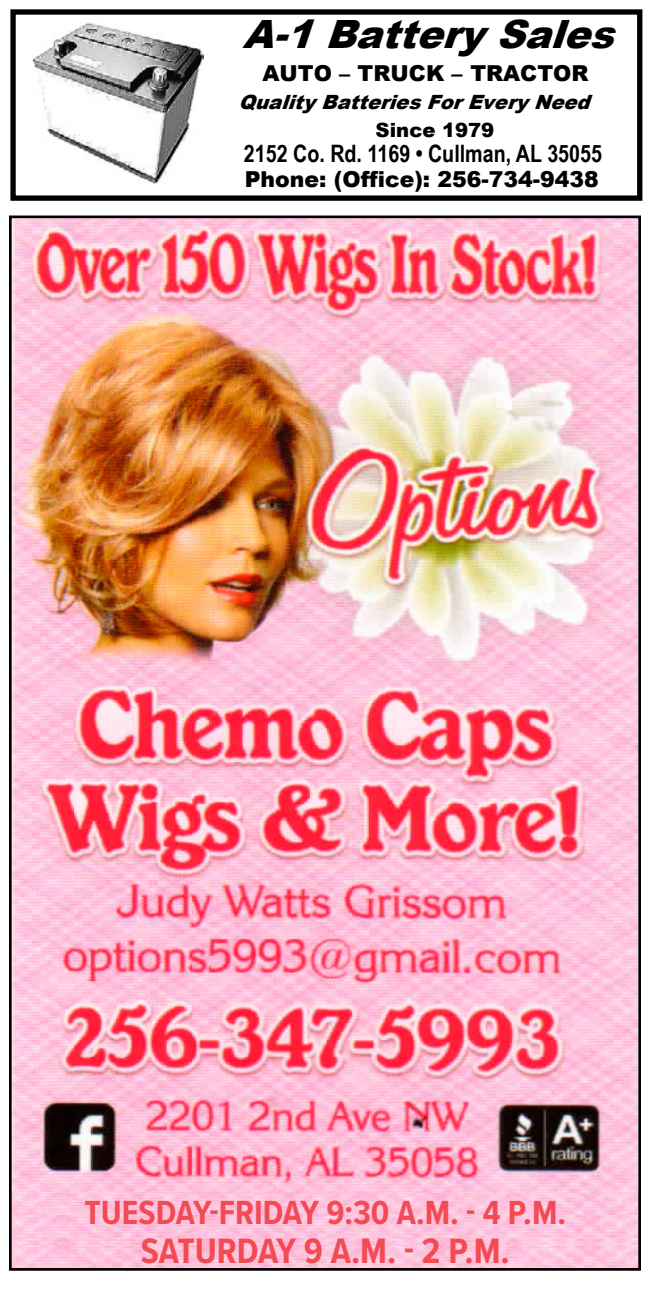

Fairview 25 - Cold Springs 11 (Second Set)

Cold Springs grabbed an early 2-0 lead, but Fairview scored the next four points, including a kill from Redding and an ace from Segrest, to take a 4-2 lead. Later on, the Lady Eagles tied the game up at five on a Tidwell kill and later took a 7-5 lead. Just like in game one, though, the Lady Aggies went on a huge run, with Smith, Rachael Dunkin, Calvarese, and McDonald scoring almost all of the points during their 10-0 run, and they quickly turned a two-point deficit into a 15-7 lead.

The Lady Eagles trimmed the deficit to seven multiple times, but they couldn’t get any closer after that as a 7-0 run by Fairview made it 23-9 and they ended up taking game two, 25-11.

Redding had a huge game as she finished with five kills and three points for Fairview. Calvarese added three aces and a dig. Dunkin ended up with a pair of aces. Segrest added an ace and a kill, while Aleman and Blackwood each chipped in with a point of their own. Calvert and Tidwell each finished with a kill and Taylor added a point for Cold Springs.

Fairview will travel to take on Brewer Tuesday and Cold Springs will take on Sumiton Christian on the road Tuesday as well.

Heritage Landing abandoned mine land economic revitalization project brings development opportunity to Walker Co.

Tara Hutchison
ADOL

WALKER COUNTY, Ala. — The Alabama Department of Labor (ADOL), Governor Kay Ivey and Drummond Company Inc. (DCI) held a groundbreaking ceremony for the construction of the new Heritage Landing development project in rural Walker County. The ceremony was held on the former legacy mine site on Aug. 24, 2022.

This project is a collaborative effort and includes participation by DCI, the City of Dora, the Walker County Development Authority, the U.S. Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement (OSMRE) and ADOL's Abandoned Mine Land (AML) Program.

In 2018, DCI was approved for a $3 million grant by the ADOL AML Revitalization Program toward the reclamation and development of its Heritage Landing development. The Heritage Landing project represents an opportunity to reclaim and transform an approximately 50-acre un-reclaimed legacy mine site in southern Walker County.

Records reviewed from the Alabama Mine Map Repository indicate that this area was extensively mined in the early to mid-20th Century. The property was mined for coal until the 1960s, leaving extensive spoil piles (waste rock and soil overburden removed to access the coal seam) on the property and a dangerous highwall cut adjacent to I-22. The dangerous highwall (a hazardous vertical bluff left where mining of the coal seam ceased) stretches almost 3,000 linear feet and averages 35 feet in height. The highwall cut and spoil piles remain in evidence on the property today posing a danger to the public. As part of the redevelopment of the property, extensive reclamation will be performed on the highwall and remaining spoil piles situated on-site with the ultimate goal of transforming the site into a 50-acre parcel of land ready for future development opportunities.

"I was proud to join the Walker County Development Authority and Drummond Company to break ground on the new Heritage Park. No doubt, this visionary project is the result of teamwork and innovative thinking, both of which are necessary for Alabama to continue achieving success," said Ivey. "As someone who is the proud daughter of rural Alabama, I will continue to champion growth for every corner of our state, and it begins with projects like Heritage Landing. Yet again, Walker County and Alabama are taking a major step forward."

"The work our Abandoned Mine Land Program does is essential in ensuring that old, dangerous mines are properly reclaimed, which eliminates safety hazards and allows the land to be re-developed," said ADOL Sec. Fitzgerald Washington. "In addition to cleaning up this site and making it safer, this project has the potential to create positive economic progress for residents in the area."

The property is contiguous and immediately adjacent to the I-22 corridor connection between Birmingham and Memphis. This prime location, right off Exit 78, is only a 15-minute commute from downtown Birmingham and a 25-minute drive from downtown Jasper. The site is adjacent to the community of Yerkwood.

Phase 1 of the project is anticipated to be completed by the first half of 2024. The 50-acre site will be fully graded. Thanks to Alabama Power Company and other partners, the site will have full utility access, from electric to water, sewage and high-speed broadband internet access. The property is also near a Class 1 rail line, in addition to being a stone's throw from I-22 and easy drives to I-65, I-59/20 and Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport.

The AMLER Grant Program is derived from monies appropriated from the U.S. Treasury with the focus on the reclamation of abandoned mine lands coupled with the economic development of coal impacted communities in the Alabama coalfields. To qualify, these economic development projects must be located on or adjacent to coal mine sites that ceased operations prior to the signing of the Surface Mine Control and Reclamation Act (SMCRA) on Aug. 3, 1977. Counties eligible for projects include Bibb, Blount, Cherokee, Cullman, DeKalb, Etowah, Fayette, Franklin, Jackson, Jefferson, Lamar, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Shelby, St. Clair, Tuscaloosa, Walker and Winston.

AMLER Grant funding, provided by the federal government, is being administered by ADOL AML and all funding must be approved by the U.S. Department of the Interior's OSMRE.

Breach (from Front)

FALKVILLE, Ala. — A Wednesday morning FBI raid near Falkville High School found Bobby Wayne Russell, of Falkville, charged with felonies and misdemeanors for his reported actions during the Jan. 6, 2021, breach of the U.S. Capitol.

The U.S. Department of Justice claims, according to court documents, that Russell, age 48, was positioned along bicycle barricades with other rioters and resisted orders to leave the area. Once the barricade failed after the law enforcement officers deployed a chemical irritant, Russell grabbed an officer's clothing causing them both to fall down several steps to the ground.

Afterward, Russell again refused orders, this time near the Senate Wing doors as officers attempted to clear the area and regain security. Russell opted to push against the riot shields while stating, "I'm not scared of you and I'm not weak."

Russell is charged with two felonies: assaulting, resisting or impeding law enforcement officers and interfering with a law enforcement officer during a civil disorder.

He is also charged with four misdemeanors related to his actions during the civil unrest.

The case is being investigated by both the FBI's Birmingham and Washington Field Offices. Russell will be prosecuted by the Department of Justice National Security Division's Counterterrorism Department and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia.

Russell is one of almost 900 U.S. citizens who have been charged so far for their actions relating to the U.S. Capitol breach on Jan. 6, 2021.

The breach is still under investigation, and anyone with tips is urged to call 1-800-CALL-FBI (800-225-5324) or visit www.tips.fbi.gov.

CASA (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman County Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs) work to provide the best outcomes for children in the court system. Advocates are appointed by the juvenile court to recommend the best interest of a child/teen who has been abused and neglected.

Whether this means helping make a connection with adoptive parents or safely reuniting the child with parents or relatives, the ultimate goal of CASA volunteers is to help ensure that each of the children served can live in a safe, permanent home.

CASA volunteers review records, research information and talk to everyone involved in each case, including social workers, attorneys, judges, parents, teachers, family members and the children themselves.

A new round of CASA volunteer training starts Friday, Sept. 9 at 10 a.m. at the CASA office (402 Arnold St. NE, Ste. W-1, in Cullman). For five weeks, training will be held once a week for four hours. Applicants need no prior experience. After being sworn in by a judge, CASAs are required to complete 12 hours of continued education each year.

Cullman County CASA Case Manager Candace Lingo said advocates make a significant difference in the lives of parents and children.

"We help in making a case finish faster and making sure that the children are receiving the services that they need," she said.

"We also help identify additional resources for the parents that might not be required by DHR so that the parents can finish their case plan goals quicker. We also build a relationship with the child and make them feel heard in court."

So far this year, CASA has served 58 children in the area, which Lingo says is fewer than normal. Last year, the organization worked with 90 children. CASA currently has an average of 17 advocates.

"There is a huge need for CASAs in Cullman," said Lingo. "The more CASA volunteers we have, the more children we are able to help."

To apply, email Lingo at cullmancountycasa@msn.com or go to https://al-cullman.evintosolutions.com/VolunteerApplication. Learn more about the program at www.cullmancaringforkids.com/casa.html.

Benefit concert

Cullman Caring for Kids will host a concert featuring rock band Shallow Side, originally from Cullman, on Saturday, Sept. 17, from 6-9 p.m. at the Cullman County Fairgrounds to benefit the CASA program. Tickets are $10. Pay at the gate or order online at www.eventbrite.com/e/cullman-caring-for-kids-presents-shallow-side-tickets-403657058127.

Lingo said, "Cullman Caring for Kids Director Steven Sutter and I really want to catch Cullman's interest and remind them that we are here.

"We want people to know that they can support us and donate to us or come to us for help, and that we want to be active in the community at the same time. The Cullman Lions Club helped us to get the venue at the fairgrounds, and we are super thankful for them."

She continued, "The proceeds for the concert will be going to the CASA program. This will help us with training materials, office materials and any other support that the volunteers may need. The volunteers travel all over Alabama, depending on where their assigned children may be living, and they do not receive any kind of reimbursement for their time or mileage."

To support the CASA program, donate at www.cullmancaringforkids.com.

Closure (from Front)

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — The Alabama Department of Transportation advises motorists that Interstate 65 southbound in southern Morgan County will be closed from 6 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 30, until about 4 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 31.

The southbound roadway will be closed from Exit 325 (Thompson Road) near Hartselle to Exit 318 (U.S. 31) at Lacon.

Weather permitting, ALDOT crews will repair concrete on the bridge over the railroad north of Lacon and make pavement repairs south of Thompson Road.

The official, signed detour is Alabama 67 north from exit 334 in Priceville to Decatur, then southbound on U.S. 31 to I-65 at Lacon. Exit 334 is the last exit for commercial vehicles. The last exit for passenger vehicles is Thompson Road. The on-ramps to I-65 southbound from Thompson Road and County Road 55 (Exit 322) in Falkville will be closed.

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — The Fairview Lions Club is hosting its annual Labor Day celebration Monday, Sept. 5, at Randall Shedd Community Park. Festivities will kick off at 8 a.m. and run through 3 p.m. with the parade beginning at 11. Lineup will be at 10 at Clinton Barbee Field.

The parade, which has been held for more than 25 years, will be accompanied by the annual Car, Truck and Motorcycle Show, which began about six years ago when current Lions Club President William Criscoe came on board.

Lions Club member Kita Chambers said, "He (Criscoe) was involved in car shows and we got him to help us get started.

"Our car show seems like it grows from year to year, so he's been a very good influence for us."

Registration for the car show starts at 8. The fee is $15, and awards will be given out at 1.

Other activities will include ring toss, bouncy houses, dunking booth and train rides for kids.

Vendors are welcome to preregister but are also encouraged to simply show up to the event. The vendor booth fee is $10.

Said Chambers, "It's a first come, first served set up. Somebody will be there early in the morning that can tell them where to set up."

The Lions Club asks for no "ready-to-eat" food vendors as most of its proceeds come from concession sales.

The funds raised at the event will go toward the Fairview Lions Club project fund.

Vendors can preregister by calling Criscoe at 256-385-5596 or Felicia Bailey at 256-735-8722.

The Cullman Police Department will bring its helicopter for kids to explore, and LifeSouth Blood Mobile will be on-site for any who wish to donate.

Chambers said the event is one of three planned by the Lions Club throughout the year that draw the biggest crowds.

"We have one at Labor Day and then we have one the first Saturday in April that we call Spring Fling and then we have Turkey Shoot in November on Thanksgiving Day," she said. "That's our three biggest events we have."

The parade lineup, in order, will be fire trucks, Grand Marshal Jim Boyd, Miss Fairala, the Fairview Aggie Band, Fairview Aggie majorettes, Fairview Youth Football and Cheerleaders, churches, miscellaneous floats or vehicles and horses.

Brooks' Place (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. — Brooks' Place Child Advocacy Center on Monday held its annual charity golf tournament at Terri Pines. One-hundred golfers in 25 four-man scramble teams competed to help raise funds for the nonprofit.

The golf tournament is the primary fundraiser for the center's daily needs such as cleaning products, art supplies, paper products, shampoo, diapers, snacks, etc., which are not covered by grant funding.

Brooks' Place receives grant money from the Alabama Department of Economic Affairs (ADECA). In 2021, its funding was cut 8-10%; this year it was cut by 12%, according to Executive Director Gail Swafford, who said, "The ADECA grant is our main funding, so when they cut, that just means our overall budget is cut by that much."

As yet unable to provide an exact total raised at this year's tournament, Swafford said she thinks the amount should exceed the $19,000 raised last year.

She commended organizer and Brooks' Place Forensic Interviewer Specialist Blakely Hopper.

"Blakely Hopper coordinates the tournament every year and has done so for the past 10 years. She does an incredible job!" exclaimed Swafford. "This tournament would not be a success without Blakely, our dedicated staff and Brooks' Place board members."

Golfers had a chance to win YETI coolers, a gas grill and a flat-screen TV, among other prizes. The hole-in-one prize was a $15,000 building credit from COR Building Products.

The cost to play was $150 per person or $600 per team and $150 to be a hole sponsor. Sponsors included Cullman Savings Bank, Apel Steel, Pepsi, COR Building Products, Tri-County Mobile X-Ray, Wal-Mart Distribution Center, Freddie Day Catering and Cullman Electric Cooperative.

The golf tournament and other fundraising events are essential to Brooks' Place's mission: "A community working together to nurture hope and healing in the lives of children and families impacted by child sexual abuse."

Brooks' Place is a "calm, homelike environment for all child victims and their non-offending family members." It is unique as the only nonprofit agency in Cullman that provides services to child victims of abuse from the initial outcry of abuse to the legal disposition of the case or until the child and family no longer need services. All of the agency's services are provided at no cost to the family.

Students at Sacred Heart School make 'Coke floats'

BARBARA RAGSDALE

First graders at Sacred Heart School are pictured putting some newly learned knowledge to good use! While studying about "solids, liquids and gases" last week, they learned the 'ol timey art of making "Coke floats," a soda fountain treat from the past! Everyone agreed it was the "tastiest" lesson learned thus far this year!
