Based on evidence-based practices, the initiative "creates comprehensive supports to meet the academic, behavioral and foundational wellness needs of the whole child."

Cullman County Schools Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette said, "We're here today to announce that Cullman County Schools have been selected for a pilot program through the state department of education. United Way Day of Caring deemed success

UNITED WAY OF CULLMAN COUNTY

Amy Leonard
amy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — Despite a smaller group of volunteers than usual, United Way of Cullman County (UWCC) Day of Caring was declared a success in making a positive impact on nonprofit agencies throughout Cullman Monday, Sept. 12.

Historically, Day of Caring is the agency's largest volunteer outreach project of each year. This year, however, a smaller than usual turnout of volunteers was on hand due to reported staffing difficulties with companies who usually opt to participate in the outreach.

Beginning the day of service work with biscuits donated by Jack's Family Restaurants and prayer by East Side Baptist Church Paster Matt Smith, approximately 30 volunteers donated their time and efforts. Employees from Reliance Worldwide Corporation (RWC), REHAU and the Cullman County Extension Office were in the field completing hands-on projects at the North Alabama Agriplex, Victim Services, Hope Horses and Peinhardt Living History Farm.

Volunteers from EvaBank, Regions Bank and the Cullman County Board of Education spent their time with indoor tasks and holding supply drives for Good Samaritan Health Clinic and Cullman Caring for Kids.

Day of Caring has extended for several organizations including Merchants Bank, which will be hosting a cookout at the Cullman County Center for the Developmentally Disabled's (CCCDD) Margaret Jean Jones Center. The Wal-Mart Distribution Center will be sending volunteers to the Agriplex in several weeks.

For more information on how you can make a difference in Cullman with the United Way, visit www.uwaycc.org or call 256-739-2948.

VINEMONT, Ala. — The Vinemont Town Council on Tuesday voted to surplus old appliances in the Community Center and give them to the Cullman County Child Development Center (CCCDC) for its Life Skills Center.

Teachers Stacey Ziegenbein and Summer Walker spoke to the council about the purpose of the center.

"We actually teach older students, all of which have special needs, cognitive disabilities, and we're required to teach them life skills and work skills," Ziegenbein said.

Ziegenbein and Walker have two classroom areas available and will be using one as a mock apartment in which students can learn life skills like cooking and cleaning in a functional setting.

The upcoming community barbecue cook-off event, organized by Richard Neese to support new business The Butcher Co. is scheduled for Oct. 22. Parking will be at the Community Center and Vinemont Christian Church. Attendants can walk along Roberson Street, or golf carts will be available for transport to the event.

A handicap drop-off will be next to Beyond Dental on Patton Drive. Times for the event will be published closer to the event date.

Neese, owner of Tenax Enterprises, said, "We want it to be a cook-off, but we also want it to have a backyard feel, so we're buying 18 picnic tables.

"We want to donate 16 of those to the town, and once we're finished with the festival, then put them around the park so people can sit there with their family."

The council also approved:

• The town budget for the 2022-2023 FY with $678,313.13 in total projected revenue, $673,815.34 in expected expenditures and a $571,711.91 current account balance
• A resolution for a one-time pay supplement for all Town employees in the amount of $1,200. There are five Town employees including the town clerk, public works director and three maintenance workers.
• The Alabama Municipal Insurance Corporation Bill for $20,820.00 divided into three payments in September, October and November. The bill insures all of the buildings owned by the municipality.
• The purchase of new appliances, replacement of the countertops and painting cabinets in the Community Center using $5,000 in ARPA funds
• The purchase of items for an outdoor volleyball court using $4,500 in ARPA funds
• The placement of VFW flags and holders along U.S. Highway 31 for $1,000.
• The proclamation of Suicide Awareness Month for the month of September

The Vinemont Town Council meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 6 p.m., with work sessions at 5.

Initiatives (from Front)

already in Cullman County Schools. But even more than that, our Families (First) initiative that we're really excited about that we're going to be connecting every student and every adult together in a family. This is going to align perfectly with that and just help us get more organized and more structured and to help kids on a faster pace than we would otherwise."

ALSDE College and Career Success Administrator Cristin Dillard shared of the AL-MTSS, "I know here in Cullman County and across the state in other systems that are near and far, we all want to make sure that our children are graduating, college and career ready, workforce ready."

Over 50 school systems across the state applied to be a part of AL-MTSS, and 33 systems were selected to participate in the five-year program. Twelve regionally based coaches were hired by the state department with Carissa Blair being assigned to Cullman County Schools.

Dillard gave insight into Blair's new role within Cullman County.

"Carissa Blair is from the state department of ed coming straight out of a district school system not far from here which is Jefferson County. She was an instructional coach at the district level, so she has that knowledge and skills. What her role is going to be with Cullman County, as part of the selection process, is to guide, facilitate and mentor and be the concierge. It's going to be a one-stop shop for communication."

In summary of the initiative, Dillard said, "Most importantly, it's looking at the needs of the whole child. One of the things I love and want to know more about is your Families First initiative. I think it's an awesome idea so that we have to make sure that kids are engaged and have a safe and supportive learning environment. We can't do it alone. You guys have our commitment to having all of the support that you request. We're not going to push things upon you, but we are going to be there helping in any way, shape or form that we can."

Hanceville sweeps Asbury, Cullman Christian at home

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — The Hanceville Lady Bulldogs hosted Asbury and Cullman Christian on senior night Monday night and the Lady Bulldogs celebrated with a pair of wins. They knocked off the Lady Rams in three sets and ended up sweeping the Lady Lions in the next match 2-0.

Asbury 26 - Hanceville 24 (First Set)
Hanceville got off to a quick start in game one as Kayley Kahler collected a point, then a pair of aces and a kill by Alivia Taylor gave the Lady Bulldogs a 4-1 lead. Asbury tied the game up at five, but Hanceville got an ace from Kylee McGill to help them take a 7-5 lead. Another ace, this time by Makenzie Twilley, pushed the Lady Bulldog lead to 10-7.

Hanceville made it 15-10 on consecutive aces from Kahler. Later on, the Lady Rams cut it to 20-19, but Karys Henderson got a kill to make it 21-19. Points by Kahler and Savanna McAnnally, plus a Charity Barnes ace, had the Lady Bulldogs one point away from taking game one. Asbury would have something to say about that as they scored the final seven points of the game to win, 26-24.

Kahler finished with three points and a pair of aces for Hanceville. White added a pair of aces and a kill. McAnnally ended up with two points and a kill. Barnes added an ace and a point. McGill and Twilley each finished with an ace and Henderson collected a kill.

Hanceville 25 - Asbury 20 (Second Set)
It went back-and-forth early on in game two between both teams. Neither team had a lead bigger than two until Asbury scored three straight points to grab a 10-7 lead. A point by Henderson and a Barnes ace made it 10-9, but the Lady Rams pushed their lead to 13-9. The Lady Bulldogs started a huge run as they scored eight in a row, seven of those points were aces by Kahler, and that gave them a 17-13 lead. Another late rally by Asbury gave them a 19-18 lead, but Hanceville answered once again with a big run of their own. A pair of McAnnally aces and a kill by Twilley gave them the lead right back at 24-19. Later on, McGill finished off game two with a kill as Hanceville collected a 25-20 win in game two to tie it up at one.

Kahler had a huge game as she finished with six aces, a point, and a kill for Hanceville. McGill added three kills and a pair of points.

McAnnally ended up with a pair of aces and a point. Barnes added an ace and a point. White and Twilley each finished with a kill, while Henderson added a point.

Hanceville 16 - Asbury 14 (Third Set)
A point by McGill and a Kahler ace gave Hanceville a 3-1 lead. Asbury held a 5-3 lead after scoring four straight points, but back-to-back aces from White helped the Lady Bulldogs get the lead right back at 6-5. The third game was very close as neither team could get a run going. Twilley got a point for Hanceville as that tied it up at 10, but the Lady Rams held a 14-13 lead late and looked to get the win in game three.

Hanceville, though, had other answers as a kill by Kahler tied things up at 14. She then collected consecutive aces to help the Lady Bulldogs win game three, 16-14, and win the series, 2-1. Kahler finished with a trio of aces and a pair of kills for Hanceville. White added a pair of aces and a kill. McGill and Twilley each collected a point in the contest.

Hanceville 25 - Cullman Christian 21 (First Set)
Kahler carried over her strong performance against Asbury into Hanceville's game against Cullman Christian as she collected a trio of aces to help give them an early 4-1 lead. The Lady Lions, though, tied the game up at five, but later on, a Kahler kill gave the Lady Bulldogs an 8-6 lead. Later in the game, a Twilley ace pushed Hanceville's lead to 11-7. A Barnes ace kept their lead at four at 13-9.

Another run by Cullman Christian tied things up once again, this time, at 14. White collected a kill and a pair of aces during her mini run to help give the Lady Bulldogs a 17-14 lead.

McGill would do the same thing later on in the contest as she added a point and a pair of aces to increase the Hanceville lead to 22-17. The Lady Lions trimmed the deficit to 23-21, but the Lady Bulldogs got the final two points of the game to win game one, 25-21.

Kahler finished with three aces and a kill for Hanceville. White added a pair of aces, a kill, and a point. McGill ended up with two aces and a point. Twilley and Barnes each collected an ace in the contest as well.

Hanceville 25 - Cullman Christian 9 (Second Set)
It was close early on in game two as a McAnnally ace gave Hanceville a 5-3 lead. Cullman Christian made it a one-point game, but in a blink of an eye, the Lady Bulldogs went on an enormous run to quickly pull away from the Lady Lions. McGill was a woman amongst girls during that huge run, collecting five aces during Hanceville's 10-0 run and that made it 15-4. The Lady Bulldogs made it 17-6 on a White kill and later on, they pushed it to 21-6 on back-to-back aces from Barnes.

The Lady Bulldogs went on cruise control after that as they rolled to a 25-9 win in game two and collected a sweep in the process.

McGill had a huge game two as she finished with five aces, a kill, and a point for Hanceville (4-6). Kahler added a kill, a point, and a dig. Barnes ended up with a pair of aces. White added an ace and a kill and McAnnally collected an ace.

Hanceville will travel to Falkville to take on the Lady Blue Devils and Cold Springs Tuesday.

Frios (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman's Frios Gourmet Pops, owned by Kristy and Jay Keiffer, recently announced the launch of its "Back to Happiness" contest, which will give one lucky classroom the chance to win free popsicles for the whole school year.

Cullman-area students, teachers, school administrators, parents and staff are invited to nominate a local classroom to win a year's supply of free popsicles (one pop per student and teacher in the classroom per month for nine months or 40 pops max per month per nine months). The campaign will end Sept. 19, when Frios selects one nominated classroom based on entries describing why the classroom is deserving of the grand prize.

"At Frios, philanthropy is at the root of everything we do, and we've been lucky enough to forge genuine partnerships with many schools in Cullman already," said Kristy Keiffer. "The Back to Happiness contest will continue that mission with a unique twist, and we're thrilled to give teachers, students and school organizations the chance to start the school year on a sweeter note.

"We know back-to-school season can be a trying time for many and spreading some extra happiness with our pops is the least we can do."

Frios Gourmet Pops offers tasty frozen desserts of all types, including creamy and fruity flavors and pops for those looking for low-sugar, dairy-free, wheat-free, soy-free, nut-free and dye-free options. Frios features more than 80 flavors with as many as 20 to 30 flavors in rotation at any given time.
