VINEMONT, Ala. — "Nightmare in Vinemont," the popular haunted house attraction organized by the Vinemont-Providence Volunteer Fire Department is returning for its third year. It will run from 7 p.m.- midnight Oct. 14-15, 21-22 and 28-29 at the Cullman County Agricultural Trade Center at 17645 U.S. Highway 31, Cullman, AL 35058.

Tickets are $20 for those 10 and older and $10 for those 9 and younger for a trip through the haunted house, followed by a haunted hayride that will wind around the wooded area around the Cullman County Association of Volunteer Departments' training center.

The attraction was created as a fundraiser for the Vinemont-Providence VFD's Fire Explorer Program for those ages 14-18.

Organizer Heather Doyle said, "It's an opportunity for kids to join the fire department as a young explorer."

Classes are offered for Emergency Services and Preparedness (ESP), Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) and Emergency Medical Technician (EMT).

Kids can come to one of the fire department's stations and fill out an application. Call 256-739-5855 for more details.

The haunted house currently has around 75 volunteers signed up to participate, more than both previous years.

Said Doyle, "We're hoping it'll be bigger and better this year." » PAGE 5

Festival (from Front)

Amy Leonard
amy@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – The Hanceville Civitans Club is bringing back its popular Mud Creek Arts & Crafts Festival this Saturday, Oct. 8, along Commercial Street in downtown Hanceville from 8 a.m.-3 p.m. The arts and craft show is scheduled before the Mud Creek Marching Festival competition this year to allow residents and visitors to attend both festivities with greater ease.

Dozens upon dozens of vendors from all over the state will be lining the street, and shops will have open doors for shoppers looking for treasures or to make new friends. Local city leaders will be mingling and helping with the festival as well.

Trinity Lutheran Church on Commercial Street will be serving a German lunch with bratwurst, German potato salad, sauerkraut or red cabbage, dessert and drink for $10. Children's plates will be available for $5. The menu in the more than 100-year-old church will be offered from 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. or until plates run out. Visitors are invited to dine in the 1885 building and tour the present-day worship sanctuary.

Late Hanceville Councilwoman and Civitan Club leader Joann Walls was the architect behind the first Mud Creek Festival in hopes of bringing well-deserved attention to the charm and offerings of downtown Hanceville to a wider audience. Walls helped organize many of the ensuing celebrations before her passing in 2017 at age 84.

Proceeds from Mud Creek will be donated to the Hanceville schools as in previous years. In 2021, Hanceville's Irish Festival and Mud Creek Festival presented $3,500 to Hanceville High School.

The 31st Annual Mud Creek Marching Festival, a high school marching band competition, will be held Saturday, Oct. 22.

COUNTY VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT

Good Hope tops Holly Pond to claim back to back county titles

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Good Hope swept Holly Pond 2-0 Tuesday night to win this year's Cullman County Volleyball Tournament.

GOOD HOOPE, Ala. – This year's Cullman County Volleyball Tournament wrapped up at Good Hope High School Tuesday night and for the second year in a row, the Lady Raiders are county champions. Good Hope knocked off Holly Pond in its first match of the day and swept the Lady Broncos in the finals to secure the county crown.

Lady Raiders Head Coach Natasha Holder was proud to see her team defend their home court and come away with another county championship, especially with a big group of seniors leading this year's squad.

"It's really sweet to see this group come together and buy in to what we want to do at Good Hope and relive what Good Hope Volleyball is known for," Holder said. "It's really special, especially with five seniors this year to be able to host county on our home court and to come in as the no. 1 seed and just take care of business all the way through was really nice to see. I'm really proud for them to be able to do that."

The Lady Raiders also collected a little extra hardware before the championship trophy was presented. Ivey Maddox was named this year's County Tournament MVP and Bailey Keef received this year's Samantha Perdue award. The Perdue award honors the former Good Hope coach and Cold Springs teacher who lost her battle to cancer in 2013. Perdue was an inspiration to many young athletes as well as a blessing to everyone she met. The award is given to a senior volleyball player for character, hard work and community involvement.

Good Hope 2 – Holly Pond 0 (25-13, 25-18)

The Lady Raiders jumped out to a 4-1 start in the opening set and quickly extended that lead to 10-4 as the set went on. Holly Pond managed to battle back and cut the lead to 13-9 midway through the set, but Good Hope seized the momentum the rest of the way, outscoring Holly Pond 12-5 and pulling away to take the first set over the Lady Broncos 25-14.

The second set was a little tighter for the Lady Raiders. They got out to another 4-1 start, but this time Holly Pond was able to trim the lead all the way down to 9-8. However, Good Hope used an 8-1 scoring run move out in front 17-9 and held off a late rally from the Lady Broncos to win the set 25-18 and secure the county championship.

Vinemont got off to a red-hot start in the first set as they took a quick 5-2 lead and would later stretch it to 9-2. The Lady Eagles held a 13-6 lead later in the set, but West Point slowly started to chip away at the deficit as they went on a 7-1 run to cut it to 14-13. Vinemont would push their lead to 17-14, but the Lady Warriors would end up tying things up at 18 and later took a 21-19 lead. West Point would increase their lead to 24-21 and they would go on to win the first set, 25-23.

The second set was close early on as West Point held a slim 7-6 lead, but they went on to push their lead to 11-7. The Lady Warriors increased their lead to 16-10, but back came Vinemont as they scored the next four points to make it a 16-14 contest.

West Point scored five in a row to stretch their lead to 21-14, but Vinemont made things a little interesting in the end as they cut it to 24-19. The Lady Warriors were able to collect the final point of the game and they picked up a 25-19 win over the Lady Eagles as they moved on to the next round.

Fairview 2 - Cold Springs 0 (28-26, 25-17)

The first set saw Fairview jump out to a quick 4-0 lead and would later push it to 9-3. Fairview would later pad their lead even further as they made it 17-9, but Cold Springs came back to make things very interesting as they cut it to 18-15. The Lady Aggies would push their lead to 21-15, but the Lady Eagles were not done by a long shot as they came storming back to take a 23-22 lead. Cold Springs later held a 26-25 lead, but Fairview would get the final three points of the first set to win a wild one, 28-26.

Cold Springs jumped out to a 5-2 lead in the second set, but Fairview would cut it to 7-6 and would later go on a huge run to take a 16-8 lead. The Lady Eagles cut the deficit to just five multiple times, but they wouldn't get any closer after that as the Lady Aggies would pull away at the end to take the second set, 25-17, and they moved on to the next round to take on West Point.

Good Hope 2 - Holly Pond 0 (25-15, 25-19)

Holly Pond grabbed an early 4-2 lead in the first set against Good Hope and it was close halfway through the contest. The Lady Broncos held a slim 8-6 lead, but the Lady Raiders came back to take a 10-8 lead. Good Hope was leading 14-13 and that's when they began to pull away from Holly Pond as six straight points pushed their lead to 20-13. Holly Pond cut it to 20-14, but the Lady Raiders would be too much for them at the end as they ended up taking the first set, 25-15.

Holly Pond took a 4-3 lead early on in the second set and would later make it an 8-3 game. Good Hope, though, answered right back in a big way as they went on a 7-0 run to take a 10-8 lead. There would be several lead changes and ties for a while. Holly Pond held a 15-14 lead, but another big run by the Lady Raiders gave them the lead right back at 21-15. The Lady Broncos cut the deficit to five at 24-19, but Good Hope got the last point of the set as they won the second set, 25-19, to move on to the championship game.

West Point 2 - Fairview 0 (25-23, 25-17)

West Point jumped out to a 6-3 lead in the first set, but Fairview came back to tie it up at six. The Lady Aggies went on a 5-2 run to take an 11-9 lead, but both teams would later find themselves in a 13-all tie. The Lady Warriors broke the tie with three in a row to give them a 16-13 lead, but Fairview tied things up at 16 with three straight points of their own.

West Point later held a 19-17 lead and would push their lead to 23-19, but the Lady Aggies had an answer as they made it a 24-23 game. The Lady Warriors were able to collect the final point as they took the first set, 25-23.

Fairview held onto a 5-3 lead early on in the second set and later pushed it to 7-4 lead. West Point scored seven straight points to take an 11-7 lead and they would later make it a 13-9 game. After the Lady Warriors pushed their lead to 17-11, the Lady Aggies looked to go on a little run of their own as they ended up cutting it to 18-14, and later on, to 21-17. West Point, though, finished the game strong as they scored the final four points of the second set and ended up defeating Fairview, 25-17. They moved on to take on Holly Pond to see who would take on Good Hope in the championship game.

Holly Pond 2 - West Point 1 (25-20, 20-25, 15-13)

Holly Pond jumped out to a quick 3-1 lead in the first set. Back-to-back kills by Liberty Shadix tied things up at four and later on, Laklin Shadix collected back-to-back points to give West Point an 8-7 lead. The Lady Warriors made it 13-10 on a kill by Kylee Quinn, but the Lady Broncos went on a big run as a pair of points by Ellie Burks gave them a 17-14 lead. Kamryn Tankersley would later add an ace and Maycie Black collected a point of her own as Holly Pond pushed their lead to 20-14. West Point trimmed their deficit to just three twice late in the first set, the last one would be 23-20. The Lady Broncos got the final two points of the first set as they ended up taking it, 25-20.

The Lady Broncos got off to a fast start in the second set as they quickly broke a 2-2 tie with five straight points, including a pair of Tankersley aces, to give them a 7-2 lead. West Point came back to tie it up at eight on points by Laklin Shadix and Katie Beth Yovino. It would stay close after that for a while, but after Holly Pond grabbed a 12-11 lead, the Lady Warriors scored five straight points as a kill by Liberty Shadix and a point by Kylee Quinn gave them a 16-12 lead. West Point would later push their lead to 21-15, but Holly Pond made things very interesting after that as a point each by Emma Earl, Burks, and Tankersley cut it to 22-20. The Lady Warriors ended up getting the final three points of the second set as they ended up winning, 25-20, to tie it up at one.

An Aliyah Ryan ace gave Holly Pond a 4-1 lead in the third and deciding set. A point by Black kept the Lady Bronco lead at three at 6-3. A Liberty Shadix kill was followed by back-to-back aces from Yovino as that tied it up at seven.

Neither team went on that huge run to pull away at the end as there would be several ties and lead changes for most of the third set. A Black ace gave the Lady Warriors a 12-11 lead, but Holly Pond came back to take a 13-12 lead. West Point tied it up at 13, but the Lady Broncos would be the team to move on to the championship game as they got the final two points of the third set to take home the 15-13 win.

Addison downs Central Florence on senior night

Todd Walker
Tribune correspondent

ADDISON, Ala. – Addison hosted the 4A Central Florence Lady Wildcats on Senior Night at Allen Stephenson Gym in a closely contested volleyball game. The Lady Bulldogs took the match in four sets, 25-14, 24-26, 25-20 and 25-21.

The first set started out fairly equally, as the teams split the first ten points. "Dynamite" Dacey Baker blasted the poor ball into the court floor for a kill and that seemed to jump start the Lady Dawgs. Lydia "Barbie" Ergle got the serve and Addison scored six straight points to take a 12-5 lead. After two quick Central points to cut the lead to 12-7, Addison rolled off ten of the next 13 points to take a comfortable 22-8 lead. The Lady Dawgs were led by two Katie Barrett blocks and an Abby Waldrep kill. Hadley "Shooter" Butler contributed in her own right by serving for four of the points. Central rallied to cut the lead to 23-14 and then Baker finished the Lady Wildcats off with a kill to end the game and give the Lady Dawgs 25-14.

The second set was a perfect example of no one wanting to lose and the ladies on both teams playing at 110%.

The Lady Dawgs jumped out to an 8-0 lead behind "Magic" Molly Gilbreath serving on seven of them. Baker and Barrett had a kill each in the run. Central Florence didn't quit and went on a huge run of their own.

The gals from Florence dominated the next segment of the game taking 14 of the next 18 points to take a 14-12 lead. Addison made numerous unforced errors and seemed to lack concentration. The rest of the game was a back-and-forth affair as the two teams alternated points. Neither team scored more than two points in a row. Addison tied it at 14 then led 16-15 on a Barrett smash.

Central roared back and to take a 19-18 lead. Points were hard to come by as both teams played excellent defense and the volleys lasted forever. With the score tied at 24, Central Florence buckled down and took the final two points for the 26-24 victory and tie the game at one set a piece.

With the Lady Dawgs seeking to retake control of the game. Addison took an 8-3 lead with Barrett and Baker dominating the net. As usual, Central came back and took seven of the next eleven points. to cut the lead to 12-10. The set continued as the Lady Wildcats cut the lead down to 15-14.

The Lady Dawgs, following the serve of Gilbreath, took six out of seven to seemingly take control of the game at 21-15. Once again, the Lady Wildcats used some very well-placed dink and dunk shots to come back and cut the Lady Dawgs lead to 21-19.

The ladies from Central Florence were like a Hollywood villain who just wouldn't die, and they would just keep coming back time and time again. Addison was able to use the defensive digs of Ergle and Bailee Ory to close out the set winning 25-20.

The final set didn't disappoint as both teams played great defense and had some timely serves. After the first sixteen points the score was tied at 8.

The Ladies from Addison got serious as they wanted to get on with Senior night and went on a seven out of nine run to lead 15-10. Lauryn "Beemer" Cunningham had a timely kill and Gracie "Bug" Manley did her usual assist on about every Addison point. The Lady Wildcats were determined to spoil the remainder of the evening and cut the lead down to 18-15. Addison slowly pulled away and using Baker, Barrett and Waldrep as the main front line came away with the victory, 25-21.

Addison took the match 3-1.

Addison Head Coach Kaydi Woodard said, "I am so proud of our team to be able to beat a quality team like Central on Senior Night," Woodard said. "We were able to get it done and now it's off to the County Tournament at Lynn."

Addison honored seven seniors on this evening, and they were Abby Waldrep, Gracie Manley, Lydia Ergle, Molly Gilbreath, Olivia Gober, Ashley Harden and Anna Grace Atkins. These ladies have represented Addison High School well and I am sure that they have bright futures in front of them. Good luck to you all.

Senior dedication held at St. Bernard

Joyce Nix
St. Bernard

CULLMAN, Ala. — St. Bernard Seniors, the Class of 2023, were honored on Sept. 29 with a special Senior Dedication Mass recognizing them as leaders of the student body of St. Bernard Prep.

Giving the homily at the celebration, the Abbot explained that all were gathered to celebrate for three main reasons: The Feast Day of the Great Archangels: St. Michael –the chief of all the angels, the army of God; St. Gabriel –the great messenger and patron saint of telecommunication workers, radio broadcasters and postal workers; and St. Raphael – the healer, and patron saint of travelers, the blind, nurses, pharmacists, physicians, and people who are ill. Secondly, the twelve monks who, on Sept. 29th in 1891, founded St. Bernard Abbey and walked in procession on that day from the City of Cullman to the forested, brush-covered stretch of land to build a monastery home; and third, 131 years later the Senior Class Dedication Mass for the Class of 2023.

"Seniors, you set the standards for our school," Abbot Marcus continued. "You are the example. You provide leadership and set the tone for the environment of the school just like the angels, and as did the first monks did when they dedicated their lives to follow God and lead others to Him.

Headmaster Fr. Joel, along with Abbot Marcus and School Chaplain Fr. Linus presented each senior with a cross and encouraged them to wear it "with wholesome pride, as a reminder of the privilege and dignity that are yours because you have been called to share in Christ and receive an education that is centered on Him."

Following the Abbot's homily, the faculty and staff joined the seniors before the altar as a sign of their support of them. They concurred with the request that the seniors should receive the Abbot's blessing to assist them in taking on their role of leadership within the student body. Natalie Garcia, Senior Class President, assured those present that the Seniors willingly accepted the responsibility given them. Other senior class officers assumed principal roles in the celebration: Vice President Charles Gil, Secretary Margaux Richards, Treasurer Xavier Pautler, and Representative to the Student Council Ashley Morris.

Choral Music was presented by St. Bernard Prep School's Choral Music department under the direction of Sr. Thérèse Lopez, LIHM and Dr. Craig Mann.

Knights of the Altar were senior Cole Bissot, Grand Supreme Knight; and senior Knights Jack Janaszak and Ethan Powell, and twelve lower classmen.

Op-Ed: Sen. Tuberville's October 2022 letter to constituents

U.S. Sen. Tommy Tuberville, R-Alabama

Harvest season is here and farmers across the state are looking forward to reaping the rewards of their labor. They will spend many early mornings and late nights in the fields harvesting crops to be enjoyed across the country and the world. We could not survive without their work. That's why protecting their ability to produce is one of my top priorities in the U.S. Senate.

The fact is, food security is national security, and the success of our farmers impacts all of us. Family farms are essential to our nation's food supply—a 2018 report from the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) found that 88% of our food production comes from family farms. These family-run operations account for about 98% of farms in the United States, and 97% in Alabama. We must do what we can to ensure our farmers are able to make a livelihood, provide for their families, and not bogged down with undue restrictions. To that end, I have joined efforts to remove barriers our government is trying to place on our farmers, including pushing for the reduction of trade barriers on peanut exports, and introducing legislation that enables banks to more easily and affordably lend capital to farmers and landowners.

But looming large is also a threat from overseas. According to the USDA, foreign investors now own approximately 37.6 million acres in the United States—an area larger than the state of Iowa.

The largest foreign investors currently are Canada, the Netherlands, Italy, Germany, and the United Kingdom. But America's agricultural opportunities have attracted the attention of an adversarial foreign competitor—China.

Members of the Chinese Communist Party's land ownership in the U.S. surged during the last decade, from 13,720 acres in 2010 to 352,140 in 2020. This foreign stake in our agriculture production can provide the Chinese Communist Party with leverage over our supply chains and access to sensitive information critical to our national security. Nearly two million acres of agricultural land in Alabama is foreign-owned—the third-highest amount in the United States. While all of this is not owned by China, it still presents a huge opportunity for foreign adversaries who wish to do us harm. We do not want Alabama to be the open door for bad actors looking for a gateway into our domestic production. That's why I Senator Cotton and I introduced the Securing America's Land from Foreign Interference Act to prohibit members of the Chinese Communist Party from buying land in the United States. This bill would also set minimum penalties for foreign purchases that do not comply with federal reporting requirements. Additionally, I introduced the Foreign Adversary Risk Management (FARM) Act to give the U.S. agriculture industry a seat at the table on the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), which is tasked with vetting all foreign investments and acquisitions of American companies.

Our agriculture industry currently does not have input in the committee's review process, even though they are directly impacted. By adding the Secretary of Agriculture to the committee, we can protect our agriculture industry from foreign control through transactions, mergers, acquisitions, or agreements. Our farmers and ranchers work hard for us, and we must work to make sure their work isn't undone by excessive government regulations or bad foreign actors. As a member of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, I will continue to advocate for Alabama producers so that they can feed our families for generations to come.

CULLMAN, Ala. — A husband and wife from Hayden, Alabama, known for their kindness and friendship, were killed Friday night, Sept. 30, in a motorcycle crash in Guntersville.

Terrell and Candace Glass, both 31, were members of the Saints Motorcycle Club (MC) in Birmingham.

Cullman Saints MC President Alex "Touché" Jones said he knew the couple for about a year, and they had been with the Birmingham MC for six months.

"They would ride together on their (Harley-Davidson) Street Glide on our rides," Jones said.

"Friday night, they had went to Guntersville to have dinner with one of our brothers. This is a tragedy. They were great people.

"They were completely selfless; they would give you the shirt off their back and be there to meet whatever need you had."

Jones said the Cullman and Birmingham MCs do a lot of riding together.

"We rode a good bit," he said. "They did the Miracle League ride that we host, and we attended several charity rides together. They've always had a bike. They loved it."

Terrell and Candace Glass leave behind a 5-year-old daughter, Kristi Jane, and a 10-year-old son, Austin, as well as a large group of family and friends who love them.

"You could never be in a bad mood when you were around them.

"You always knew when Terrell was in the room—he was a jokester," Jones said.

"Candace was quiet but supportive and always laughed at Terrell's jokes. You were happy when they were around. They were great parents and good people."

According to the Marshall County Coroner's Office, the crash happened at approximately 10:50 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 30, 2022, at the Stockton Causeway on U.S. Highway 431 in Guntersville.

A GoFundMe account has been set up for funeral expenses and a trust fund for the children. Access it at www.gofundme.com/f/funeral-cost-for-terrell-and-candace-glass.

A county commissioner appeared shocked at a meeting this summer when the county ordinance stipulating guidelines for the public comments portion of commission meetings was cited, despite his eight years in office participating in the meetings.

Cullman City Council meetings have been contentious at times this year, too, with hotly debated measures being heard, including the rezoning near Carroll Acres on the city's southeast side and the upcoming Cullman Comes Out event.

These examples saw meetings where the public comments portions of the agendas were packed full of impassioned citizens voicing concerns about developers clearing acres of trees, challenging a high-density complex being built in the middle of a residential area, discussing heavy traffic, expressing displeasure with county officials, homosexuality and more. Some spoke calmly within their time limits.

Others roared while disregarding the established parameters. Some county residents spoke at Cullman City Council meetings stating they would vote out members of the council despite the city council not being on their ballots.

These incidents provided the opportunity to explore the Cullman County Commission's Rules of Procedure, which were voted on in 2005 and are available upon records request at the Cullman County Courthouse, and the City of Cullman's ordinances, which are available online.

What exactly are the rules for these portions of meetings in which residents are afforded the opportunity to have their voices heard?

The county commission's rules state that a public comment from a citizen during a commission meeting "shall be limited to 3-minutes per speaker and no more than two speakers may be heard on the same subject."

However, it's not that simple, as the commission reserves the right to extend the time limit or to allow more than two citizens to speak on the same topic with proper protocol.

The commission chairman may allow for comments lasting longer than three minutes. More than two speakers are allowed on the same subject with a commission vote. The rules state: "The remarks of each speaker shall be limited to no more than three minutes, unless the Chair extends the time, and no more than two speakers may be heard on each subject unless authorized by affirmative vote of all members of the commission who are present."

The comments made are not to be personal in nature toward the commission nor any commission employee. Additionally, common courtesy is highly recommended. "The comment shall conform to the requirements of decorum and order that apply to the members of the commission and the Chair shall take whatever steps are necessary (including the removal of any citizen or other elected official) to preserve such decorum and order."

The City of Cullman's standards are much the same as the County's rules on public comments. The Cullman City Council's ordinance reads: "Citizens and other elected officials who wish to be heard by the council shall be afforded such opportunity during the portion of the meeting so designated."

The City requires the same appropriate "decorum and order," and if the public commenter or council member gets "out of hand," the council president has the authority to have either removed so as to restore peace.

Comments are not allowed to be personal in nature about the council members and no debate nor action by the council is permitted during the public comment portion of the meeting.

As for scheduled public hearings by the City, the ordinance states: "The city council may conduct any public hearings during this portion of the council meeting. Any notice required by law prior to the conduct of the public hearing shall be given by the city council."

Speakers are each asked to stay within the three-minute time limit and the council or president has the option to vote to either extend or reduce the time limit according to the number of speakers.

The same code of conduct, per se, is expected regarding "decorum and order," and the same provisions are available to the council and president so as to maintain order.

Additionally, community leaders are not required to allow speakers who live outside of their jurisdictions a turn at the podium, just as citizens cannot vote outside of their jurisdictions.

Both City and County officials say they welcome the public's input and recognize their responsibility to the community.

CULLMAN, Ala. — The 39th annual Cullman County Band Exhibition took place Saturday at Cullman High School's Oliver Woodard Stadium. The stands were filled with those excited to see the halftime shows the nine area bands spent the last few months perfecting. Like most years, the bands participated after having marched in the Cullman County Fair Parade earlier in the afternoon.

The band lineup included:

- Cullman Middle School
- Holly Pond High School
- Cold Springs High School
- Vinemont High School
- Good Hope High School
- Hanceville High School
- Fairview High School
- West Point School
- Cullman High School

Each band performed its unique show with elements curated by directors and members, with parents, other family and friends given the opportunity to appreciate their hard work. The high school bands have fielded their halftime shows at football games, but the Cullman County Band Exhibition allows band students and directors countywide to see and celebrate the shows of their peers.

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman County Bosom Buddies Foundation (CCBBF) held its third annual Little Pink Dress Benefit Tuesday night at Loft 212, with proceeds marked for the day-to-day living expenses such as utility bills, transportation costs, food cards and other approved needs, for Cullman County residents in cancer treatment.

"All of our money stays in Cullman County. We help Cullman County patients. We don't care if they go to Birmingham or if they go out of state, we will help them as much as we can.

"If they live on the outskirts of Cullman County and come into Cullman for treatment, we help them also," said CCBBF Vice President Judy Grissom.

Funds were raised through ticket sales, a silent auction and tips to "celebrity" waiters, including city and county leaders and law enforcement officers, happy to lend a hand for a great cause.

Entertainment for the event was provided by the Active Adult Center Senior Kickers, performing a dance routine, and the Wallace State Community College Jazz Band, providing music for the evening. Food was prepared by Chat & Chew.

The CCBBF, originally a support group, was founded in 1994 by Mary Dyer and a group of women who had undergone cancer treatment. In 2013, the CCBBF became a financial assistance program for residents in cancer treatment.

Grissom said, "Around 2011 it started transitioning. People were asking more for assistance with bills than they really cared about the support group."

In Cullman, she said, "We are the only foundation that does patient assistance for cancer patients. Our goal is to make sure that they get into a cancer treatment program and stay in it.

"So many times, when income is affected, they drop out of treatment because they can't afford to give up their job. We make sure that they finish their treatment program."

Patients meet with CCBBF partner, Nurse Navigator Jessica Nicholson of Cullman Regional, to determine the amount of assistance needed. The foundation pays the bills directly; no cash is given. This assistance is for approved patients regardless of the type of cancer they have or the location of their treatment center. The foundation has helped 52 people this year, paying 351 bills for patients.
