Cullman Strawberry Festival continues to grow in popularity

2023 promising to be better than before

Noah Galilee
noah@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — The annual Cullman Strawberry Festival, one of the premier outdoor festivals in north Alabama, is expected to draw one of the largest crowds in the event's history this year. The festival, which has seen tremendous growth over the past five years, from 12,000 in 2017 to nearly 25,000 people in 2022, is set for Saturday, May 6, 2023, at Depot Park.

Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism Special Events Coordinator Kelly Pulliam said the festival has become a major event, and the organizers are planning to cater to the various interests of attendees.

"Considering the significant growth in attendance, we've taken time to consider the various reasons people attend and how we can cater to each of their interests," said Pulliam.

"Last year we hosted visitors from all over the Southeast, with 65% of our attendees being from outside of Cullman County and representing 14 different states."

One of the major changes at this year's festival is that the concert portion of the festival will be a ticketed event.

"We have found there is a strong interest in and appreciation for quality music acts, and we have had a growing number of requests to grow the lineup," said Pulliam.

"This year, we look forward to welcoming our best lineup yet, with Blues Traveler, Parmalee, Filmore and Tim Montana."

The festival will open at 9 a.m. and will host local strawberry farmers, » PAGE 2

Curtain closes on 'Steel Magnolias'

AMY LEONARD/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Cullman Community Theatre's recent production of "Steel Magnolias" welcomed almost 1,000 patrons.

Amy Leonard

CULLMAN, Ala. — The curtain has closed on Cullman Community Theatre's recent production of "Steel Magnolias," which welcomed almost 1,000 patrons. The show was a splash hit and featured some truly remarkable performances from its small cast of actors.

"Steel Magnolias" was a truly remarkable experience. The cast was spectacular and the show was brilliantly performed. Carron Clark played M'Lynn Eatenton, the mother of the bride-to-be Shelby (Savannah Smith) with grace and compassion. Melissa Lawler starred as Truvy, the owner of the beauty shop where all the gossip takes place with her trademark wit and charm. Drendra Walker portrayed Ouiser, the cantankerous old neighbor with finesse and humor. Chellie Letson shone as Annelle, a young beautician just starting out, full of innocence and naivety. Lastly, Laura Harris brought life to Clairee Belcher, an older woman who gives sage advice and provides a lightheartedness to the drama.

The stage was set with a single-room beauty salon in a small town, which felt very cozy and inviting. The lighting was just right, dimly lit without overpowering the actors on stage. The crew for the production provided costumes appropriate for each character and gave an additional layer of authenticity to their performances. From the moment the play began, you could really feel the deep connection between these women who came together every week at Truvy's shop. It was almost like entering another world as we watched their lives unfold over two hours of laughter and tears. It was captivating.

The show was full of heart and laughs, with each character bringing something unique to the performance. Every actor gave it her all and you could really feel the emotion in their performances. The setting, costumes and lighting all contributed to creating a wonderfully inviting atmosphere » PAGE 2

Alabama Severe Weather Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday this weekend

Staff Reports
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — During Alabama's annual Severe Weather Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday, no state sales or use tax is due on certain items you may purchase to deal with severe weather (Act 2012-256, Rule 810-6-3-.66).

Generators costing $1,000 or less also can be purchased free of the state's 4% sales tax during the three-day tax holiday.

A county or municipality, by resolution or ordinance adopted at least 30 days prior to the last full weekend of February, may provide for the exemption of covered items from county or municipal sales or use taxes during the same time period, under the same terms, conditions and definitions as provided for the state sales tax holiday.

Steel Magnolias (from Front)

that left you feeling like you were part of the small town gossip at Truvy's beauty shop. The honest, heartwarming production left the audience with smiles and chatter after the curtain call.

"We had an incredible audience this weekend," shared Cullman Community Theatre Operations Director Noah Carpenter. "They rolled with the punches as we had to postpone our Thursday night opener due to weather concerns. This is a roller coaster of a show, and each audience reacted and participated perfectly. We laughed together, we cried together; it was just everything we want this show to be each year!"

Cullman Community Theatre did an incredible job putting together "Steel Magnolias." From the talented cast of actors to the detailed set design and costumes – everything worked together to create an unforgettable experience.

"Steel Magnolias," written by Robert Harling in 1987, is a powerful comedy-drama that follows six women who live in Chinquapin, Louisiana. Though the play is set in a time of great change for women, it focuses on their relationships with each other as they come together to celebrate joys and tackle sorrows.

The show was directed by Cullman Community Theatre veteran Rodney Basenburg and ran over three days at the Traditions Bank venue. The production team put together an outstanding set that made it easy for audiences to connect with this Southern classic.

The Traditions Bank venue added to the success of the show.

"There are always lots of nerves and anxiety when you try something in a new place, but this last year our audience's biggest feedback was that they'd love to see us move closer to town, and we set out on the search," Carpenter said. "We heard from friends that Traditions had this space and reached out! We stopped by early in the search for a venue and fell in love with the space first, immediately followed by falling in love with the team that manages the space! Tim and his team have been so good to us both in the form of their support of us and our organization and their hospitality to our cast and team! They turned us on to their caterer, The Freight House in Hartselle, and everyone loved them! The room turned out beautiful and we just couldn't be happier. It's a relationship we look forward to building on in the future!"

Overall, "Steel Magnolias" was a unique experience that kept audiences laughing and engaged throughout. Its heartfelt story will be remembered by many as one of the Cullman Community Theatre's finest productions. We anticipate seeing more great things from this talented group in the future.

artisans selling hand-crafted and local goods, live music from popular bands, great food and beverages, a baking competition, an array of kids' activities and a one-of-a-kind doggy "pawgeant."

The festival will celebrate local musical talent on a stage near the Festhalle in the morning and early afternoon hours.

At 3 p.m., the music will transition to the main stage, where the ticketed concerts will take place.

"We believe this event is one of the premier outdoor festivals in north Alabama, and our local businesses have come to love and expect a major boost in tourism as a result," said Pulliam.

"Regardless of the vantage point, we look forward to elevating the experience for all who attend the festival this year."

Get more info and purchase concert tickets on the festival's website at www.cullmanstrawberryfest.com.

Concert tickets are $75 for VIP or $25 for general admission. Admission to the Cullman Strawberry Festival is free.

"To guarantee the best spot for viewing and listening experience, seated general admission and VIP tickets are available; however, if anyone is interested in the music without purchasing a ticket, free admission will be allowed in a distant space behind GA and VIP," said Pulliam.

Blues Traveler will close out the event, and is slated to perform at 9 p.m.

With a complete day of family fun and festivities planned, the Cullman Strawberry Festival is sure to be a great experience for all who attend.

Holly Pond falls to No. 2 Mars Hill 60-34 in NW Regional Semifinals

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — The Holly Pond Lady Broncos continued their postseason run at the Northwest Regional Tournament at Wallace State Monday morning but unfortunately for the home crowd, the Lady Broncos were unable to keep pace with No. 2 Mars Hill and they were eliminated with a 60-34 loss to the Lady Panthers.

Holly Pond Head Coach Mary Lauren Hartline is proud of the way her team fought against a very strong Mars Hill squad and is encouraged by what the effort they showed today means for the future of the program.

"We had some good moments today. Mars Hill is a very talented team and very big so we definitely struggled with that matchup at almost every position but I was really proud of the girls for the effort that they played with no matter the score," Hartline said. "I definitely think that will keep us on the right track for the next several years."

Mars Hill jumped out to a 9-0 lead over the Lady Broncos early in the first quarter but a three-pointer from Maycie Black got Holly Pond on the board and trimmed the lead to 9-3. Alana Phillips laid one in later in the opening period to make it a 13-5 game but the Lady Panthers closed out the quarter with a 5-0 run to take an 18-5 lead into the second.

Baskets by Maggie Nail and Madison Butts held the lead to 23-9 in the early part of the second quarter. Kamryn Tankersley scored inside to make it a 31-11 game with just under three minutes remaining in the first half and after Black split a pair of free throws, Bai Widner drilled a three in the final minute of the period to trim the Mars Hill lead to 34-15 at the break.

Presli Carr scored inside to make it a 36-17 game at the start of the third and Nail buried a three-pointer to cut the lead to 38-20. Another basket by Nail and a free throw from Tankersley held the lead to 41-23 with two minutes to play in the period and after splitting a pair of free throws, Butts laid one in to make it a 45-26 game. The Lady Panthers got a couple more shots to fall in the final minute of the third and went into the fourth leading Holly Pond 49-26.

Emma Earl knocked down a three to start the final period and trim the lead to 53-29 and Butts scored another basket with just over two minutes remaining to make it a 60-31 game. Maddi Ham scored the final points of the season for the Lady Broncos, draining a three-pointer from the top of the key as time expired to bring the final score to 60-34.

Butts and Nail each finished with seven points for Holly Pond in the loss and Maya Black added four.

Holly Pond's Madison Butts (0) posted seven points in the Lady Broncos' 60-34 loss to No. 2 Mars Hill Monday morning.

No. 1 Good Hope drops 63-60 nailbiter to No. 2 Deshler in Northwest Regional Semifinals

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — The top two teams in Class 4A clashed in a physical Northwest Regional Semifinals matchup Monday afternoon and it was another classic battle between Deshler and the Lady Raiders of Good Hope. The Lady Raiders trailed by as many as 18 in the fourth quarter but rallied to cut the deficit to three late in the final period. Unfortunately, the late push fell just short of tying the game and Deshler held on to defeat Good Hope 63-60.

Lady Raiders Head Coach Justin Aby wasn't surprised to see his team climb back in the fourth quarter and praised the competitiveness his squad has shown all season.

"Our girls battled, and we just came up short. I don't know how many points we were down at one time and we battled back to cut it to three so I was proud of their effort and proud of the way they battled back. It's just a tough way to go out," Aby said. "These girls battle, they fight. They've done that all year. Our schedule this year was tougher than it's ever been, and we played some of the top teams in the state so there's no question that they came to fight."

Rudi Derrick laid one in to tie the game at 2 early in the opening period and Heather Tetro followed her with a three-pointer to put Good Hope in front 5-2. Bailey Tetro drove to the rim and scored to give the Lady Raiders a7-5 lead midway through the first and Ivey Maddox sank a pair of free throws to make it 9-5.

Heather Tetro's second three of the game stretched the lead to 12-7 late in the first quarter but a 6-1 run by Deshler tied the score at 13 going into the second.

The Lady Tigers knocked down a three-pointer to take a 16-13 lead at the start of the second quarter but a basket by Maddox and a free throw from Derrick tied things back up at 16. Maddox drained a three to give the Lady Raiders a 19-18 lead with five minutes to play in the opening half and after another Deshler three-pointer on the other end, Bailey Tetro found Derrick under the basket for a layup to tie the game at 21. The Lady Tigers responded with a 5-0 run to take a 26-21 lead but Charly Johnson scored laid one in just before the end of the period to cut the lead to 26-23 at the halftime break.

Deshler extended its lead to 29-24 early in the third quarter but Bailey Tetro split a pair of free throws and Heather Tetro knocked down another three-pointer to make it a 29-27 game. However, a 10-2 run by the Lady Tigers extended the lead to 39-29 with just over five minutes to play in the third. Bailey Tetro buried a three from the left corner to make it a 39-32 game midway through the period and after Johnson collected another basket inside the paint, Heather Tetro's fourth three-pointer of the night trimmed the lead to 46-37. Maddox dropped in a running floater to make it a 52-39 game in the final minute of the third, but the Lady Raiders went into the fourth trailing Deshler 55-39.

Baskets by Maddox and Johnson cut the lead to 57-43 early in the fourth quarter and after netting a pair of free throws, Heather Tetro drained another three to make it a 61-48 game. Maddox hit four straight from the free throw line to trim the lead to 61-52 with five minutes on the clock and she followed them with a three-pointer from the top of the key to make it 61-55. Bailey Tetro drove in and scored to make it a 4-point game with just under three minutes to play and Johnson drew a charge on the other end to keep the momentum going the Lady Raiders. A Deshler free throw put the Lady Tigers up 62-57 but Maddox answered with a basket on the other end to make it a 3-point game with 50 seconds remaining. Good Hope got a look at a game-tying three with 20 seconds on the clock but it bounced just off the front of the rim and Deshler went back to the free throw line. The Lady Tigers split the foul shots to go up four and Derrick drew a foul to go to the line on the other end but with less than a second still on the clock, the Lady Raiders ran out of time and dropped a heartbreaker to Deshler 63-60.

Maddox led Good Hope with 21 points in the loss, followed by Heather Tetro with 19. Bailey Tetro posted eight points and Derrick and Johnson each added six.

The Lady Raiders finish the season with an impressive record 31-3 and with just two seniors (Rudi Derrick and Bailey Keef) set to graduate in May, they'll have a lot of familiar faces returning to the hardwood next season.

MARTHA NEEDHAM/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

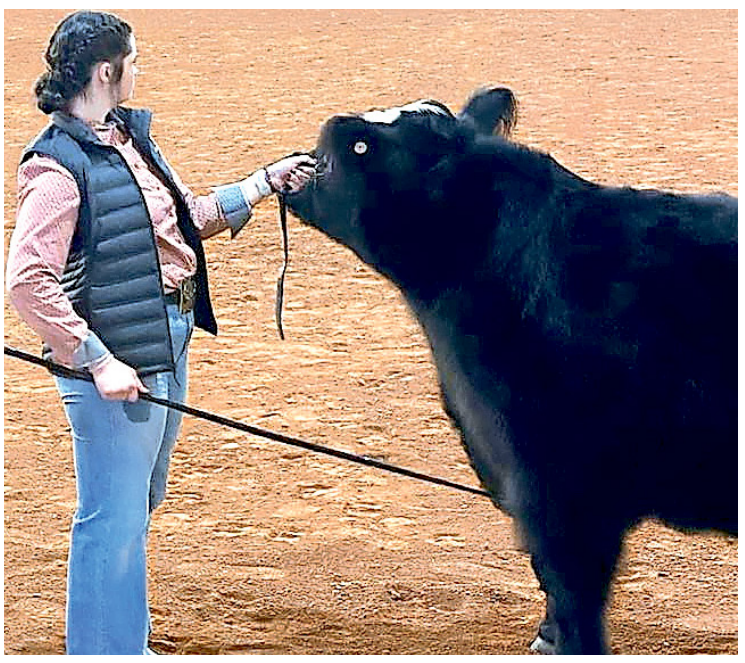

Good Hope's Rudi Derrick (20) posted six points in the Lady Raiders' 63-60 loss to Deshler Monday night.

CCBOE breaks ground on West Point cafeteria expansion

Staff Reports
Contributor

WEST POINT, Ala. — Officials with Cullman County Schools broke ground Monday on a much-needed renovation and expansion to the cafeteria that serves West Point Elementary School and West Point High School. The project, once completed, will provide additional seating and a more modern environment to serve school lunches. Cullman County School Board (CCBOE) officials said the capacity of the current lunchroom, built more than 50 years ago, has been well exceeded.

"This is a project that was up for consideration back when our school system had trustees more than 40 years ago, and has been needed for a very long time," said Cullman County Schools Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette.

CULLMAN COUNTY SCHOOLS

Cullman County Schools officials broke ground on the West Point Elementary School and West Point High School cafeteria Monday, Feb. 20.

"I know it will be an inconvenience for our lunchroom workers, school staff and students during construction, but it is going to be so worth it when everything is complete."

Lunchroom staff will continue to prepare meals in the kitchen for as long as possible, but at some point during construction, meals will have to be prepared offsite.

The expected completion date is Oct. 1, 2023, with a majority of the work to be completed during the summer months when school is out.

CULLMAN, Ala. — There was something to please everyone at the Cullman EMS sixth annual 911 Chili Supper & Cook-Off on Saturday, Feb. 18 at the Cullman VFW. The event featured a variety of delicious chili recipes prepared by some of the county's finest first responders and somewhere between 175-200 people attended.

The aromas of spicy chilies filled the air as participants competed for awards in both the best chili and hottest chili categories. The competition was fierce and judges had their hands full deciding which dishes were worthy of taking home top honors.

The best overall chili winner was Jared Johnson (and his daughter) from the Logan Volunteer Fire Department, with second place going to Cullman County Sheriff's Office Lt. Daniel Cummings. The award for hottest chili went to Tim Martin with Cullman Fire Rescue. In addition to competitions for best chili, there were door prizes for attendees. The event was family-friendly, and children of all ages enjoyed watching the competition and meeting some of the local emergency services personnel who work hard to serve the community.

The real winners were the military veterans served by VFW Post 2214 who were recognized during the event. Proceeds raised during the chili cook-off will go toward providing PTSD treatment. Many veterans attended the event and joined in tasting the spicy entries.

"All of today's proceeds are going to benefit veterans for PTSD treatment," shared Cullman EMS Director James Curtis. "I want to encourage everyone that's out there that, if they know a veteran that's struggling with substance abuse, alcohol abuse, suicidal thoughts, to reach out and get some help. That's the only way we're going to be able to reach these people and save them. The veterans look out for us and we need to look out for them."

Curtis continued, "This is also an opportunity for EMS and first responders to meet folks in the community and give back to the community. We want to say thank you to Cook Ministries, Standing in the Gap Ministries and Restoration Counseling Services for being here and being advocates for mental health. We're so thankful for all of the people who came out today and it's a successful event once again."

In all, 133 tickets were sold to attendees who voted on the chili entries. Door prize and facility use sponsors included the Cullman VFW, West Point Band Boosters, Rock the South, Air Evac Lifeteam, McGriff Tires, Initial Impressions and American Emergency Products.
