CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman Area Technology Academy (CATA) is sending six carpentry students to the SkillsUSA National Leadership & Skills Conference in late June after the students secured wins at the state level in Community Service and Career Pathway during the annual state showcase.

Big opportunities like this usually come with big price tags; thankfully, the Cullman County Home Builders Association (CCHBA) stepped up to the plate to graciously donate $1,000 to these students so they can attend the national conference and continue to showcase and expand their carpentry skills learned at CATA.

ADDISON, Ala. — One of the great things about high school sports in Alabama is the people involved in them. I'm not talking about just the players and coaches or even the fans. I'm talking about the thousands of volunteers that make things happen. Without these volunteers, be they parents, relatives or just folks looking to help out, the games could not be played. These are people that volunteer their time, money and effort and who rarely get recognized.

The Winston County Board of Education at the request of Addison High School chose to honor and recognize a very deserving and beloved member of the Addison Family. The main entrance to the Addison High School Football Field, A.G. Hicks Stadium, will be named after Miss Sylvia Morgan, wife of the late John Morgan. Miss Sylvia is a spry 85-year-old volunteer who collects money at the gate for nearly every home Addison Athletic contest, be it football, basketball, baseball, volleyball or track, Miss Sylvia will be there. She is known to both home fans and the many visitors who come to games.

Sylvia has been volunteering at Addison since 1972. That's 51 » PAGE 8

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism (CPRST) Executive Director Nathan Anderson on Wednesday morning proudly announced that Cullman has been approved as a host city for the J-1 Visa Program through a partnership with the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE). CPRST will provide a cultural experience to nearly 24 college students from around the world who will be welcomed to WildWater for a 12-week work internship. The program will also help the park address end-of-season employment gaps experienced in 2022.

It was during the 2022 World Waterpark Association conference – where WildWater received the prestigious Leading Edge Award as one of only six exceptional water parks honored worldwide last year – that the idea of an international internship with college students emerged.

Said Anderson, "We discovered that other parks had achieved tremendous success in filling seasonal gaps in staffing with international college students looking for a cultural work experience through the CIEE organization. This is a common practice in the industry, especially in cases where there is a pressing staffing need within a short time frame."

"Staffing the entire season has always been a formidable task, especially after we expanded," said WildWater Aquatics Director Dianne Evans. "High school students comprise the majority of our workforce, and, understandably, they often resign their positions in late July to return to school, leaving us with a tremendous staffing shortage for the final five weeks of the season."

Cullman Economic Development Agency Director Dale Greer acknowledged that becoming an approved host city for the J-1 Visa Program is a significant accomplishment for Cullman, making it the first city in north and central Alabama to receive the approval. "This could lead to other great partnerships with local industry in the area and possibly benefit Wallace State Community College," he said, "as it will introduce the international student travel program to our local students."

Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs expressed his excitement for the program as well, saying, "This is an opportunity to showcase the warmth and hospitality of this community, affirming Cullman as an exceptional place to work and call home."

"WildWater Park eagerly embraces this initiative, which demonstrates its commitment to delivering exceptional experiences to park visitors while fostering cultural exchange and supporting the local economy," said a release from CPRST.

‘We were all there for each other’: Vinemont’s Chayce Sandlin reflects on Eagles career

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

VINEMONT, Ala. — In this interview, I talked to Vinemont’s multi-sport player, Chayce Sandlin. He talked about some of his favorite sports memories during his time as an Eagle and he was blessed to play alongside some great guys.

“My favorite memories were bonding with my teammates and coaches and pushing each other to be better, overcoming obstacles, and all of the hard workouts and practices.

“Some of my favorite times were when I would catch a touchdown, score a basket, or hit a line drive. I loved and cherished every moment on and off the field/court. I’m glad I could represent my coaches, my team, and my community well. We created a bond that will never be broken,” Sandlin said.

“It was a blessing. We were all there for each other if someone needed something. The team was there to help. I love each and every one of them. They are the reason I pushed myself to work hard. I could always count on them to have my back. I look forward to seeing them grow into great, young men.”

Sandlin learned a lot in his respective sports and from his coaches. He talked about what he learned the most about playing at Vinemont, his favorite high school memories, and what made Vinemont such a special place to go to.

“I learned a lot about teamwork, communication, and perseverance,” Sandlin said. “My coaches were amazing. They were tough, but fair, and always pushed us to be our best. I learned a lot about strategy, discipline, and leadership from them. I learned the most about God, teamwork, and perseverance. It was amazing to see how much we could accomplish when we worked together, pushed ourselves, and never gave up.

“My favorite high school memories were spending time with my friends, going to prom, and playing sports. Vinemont was a special place because of the amazing people there. The teachers, coaches, and students were all so supportive and made it feel like a second home.”

Sandlin will remember so much about going to Vinemont and he will definitely miss being an Eagle next year. He gave some advice to the students that will be starting high school in August.

“I will remember the amazing people and the memories we made together. I will miss my friends and the sense of community that we had at Vinemont,” he said. “My advice would to be get involved in extracurricular activities, make new friends, and work hard in your classes. High school goes by quickly, so make the most of it.”

Sandlin was on the archery and math team during his time at Vinemont and talked about that experience. He also took away so much during his time as an Eagle. He talked about one of his role models growing up, and the best advice that he was ever given.

“Being on the math team and archery team was a lot of fun. I learned a lot about problem-solving and critical thinking on the math team, and I learned about focus and precision on the archery team.

“It was a great way to meet new people and challenge myself in different ways,” he said. “During my time at Vinemont, I learned a lot about myself and what I am capable of. I also made some great friends that I will cherish forever.”

He added, “My role model growing up was Michael Jordan. One of the best pieces of advice I ever received was to never give up on my dreams and to always work hard to achieve them.”

‘Cold Springs is like my second home’: Cold Springs’ Chloe Shipp looks back on high school career

Sammy Confer
sammy@cullmantribune.com

BREMEN, Ala. — In this interview, I talked to Cold Springs’ senior Chloe Shipp. She played basketball and volleyball her first two years in high school and cheered during her 10th grade year. She talked about some of her best sports memories and all she learned during that time.

“I really enjoyed going to the Miracle Field and volunteering with my basketball team my freshman year. It was just fun to hang out with the team and get to meet some amazing people. My favorite memory from cheer my sophomore year was when our varsity boys’ basketball team won the county championship. It was so much fun getting to support them the whole way there and getting to be a part of the big win,” Shipp said. “I learned that the people who support you and have your back are the kind of people you want to surround yourself with. It makes life better when you have teammates, or friends, that you can count on to be there without hesitation when you need them to be. It also taught me to be a better person myself, so I can be that friend to someone too.”

Shipp was in a few clubs during her time as an Eagle and talked about that experience.

“I was in the 1936 Club, Yearbook Committee, Clean Campus Committee, FCCLA, FFA, Honor Society, and SGA. I liked being in them all because it kept me involved in my school and community. It was a ton of fun. It was a great way to give back to my school and my community through fundraisers and events. My sponsors taught me a lot about how to have good character inside and outside of school,” Shipp said. “It was great to have such amazing sponsors and members. It was awesome to see how much the other members cared about our school and community. We would all work together to come up with ideas to fundraise and get the student body to stay involved in our school. I made a lot of friends in the clubs I joined, so I am very grateful for the many clubs at Cold Springs.”

Shipp had so many great high school memories and also talked about what made Cold Springs a special place to go to.

“Homecoming week was always my favorite week of the school year. Getting to dress up and decorate the hallways was something I looked forward to each year. I loved being able to watch our varsity girls’ basketball team make it to state this year and I had a really fun time cheering them on with the student section each game. I also enjoyed going to track meets and cheering the athletes on when they won state. I have so many memories from the past four years that I’m so thankful for. Another one of my favorite high school memories was working as a diamond doll this year for the baseball team and getting to have fun working the games with my friends, while supporting our baseball team at the same time.”

She added, “Cold Springs is like my second home. You can just feel when people truly care about you and want you to do your best and that’s how the faculty and students made me feel at Cold Springs. I never felt like I could not go to any of the teachers for help, because they really wanted their students to reach their greatest potential. They taught me how to be respectful, responsible, and prepared me for wherever life takes me next.”

Shipp will deeply miss being at Cold Springs next year and was blessed to go to school with some amazing seniors.

“I am definitely going to miss the people the most. I had so many great teachers that I am so thankful for. I will also miss being around my best friends every day. I made some of my closest friends at Cold Springs that I know I’m going to keep for the rest of my life,” she said. “My senior class has so many wonderful and talented people and I am excited to see where they go in life. They made school so much fun, and I believe every single one of them is going to make something out of themselves. I cannot wait to walk the stage with them and start the next chapters of our lives.”

CHLOE SHIPP

Cold Springs’ Chloe Shipp

Shipp talked about what she will remember the most about being an Eagle, what she taught the younger students, and what advice she would give the students that will be starting high school in August.

“The support and genuine love our school gives to its students would be hard to forget. I am going to stay involved in the college I choose to go to because of how much I loved being involved at Cold Springs.

“I will always remember the kindness and encouragement that just radiates from Cold Springs,” she said. “I hope I taught them how to make the best out of school. Staying involved and trying their best in class really pays off. I hope I was a good role model to them.”

She added, “My advice for the freshmen would be to not worry about ‘fitting in’. There are so many different clubs and sports to join to find friends with the same interest as them. They should just be their self and do their best. It is hard starting high school, but if you stay true to yourself, then you will be just fine.”

Shipp received some scholarships during her time at Cold Springs and she made her decision on which college she will be attending. She talked about how that felt.

“I received four scholarships from different colleges that totaled $30,350. I am accepting an Academic Merit scholarship from UAH worth $4,850 per year. I feel very thankful and honored to be awarded these scholarships. Hard work really pays off and I’m grateful to have had amazing teachers who helped make it possible. It was a blessing to be awarded it.”

Lydon Scroggins
Lydon was born at Bessemer General Hospital and lived in Bessemer Gardens and Hueytown with his parents, Doc (Dolphus Lydon) Scroggins and Ellen Maunette Garrett Scroggins. They moved to Cullman and lived in a little yellow house behind where St Paul's is now. He walked to school at East Elementary, where he met some of his lifelong friends. Rachel's aunt, Mildred Sanders, was his teacher in 3rd grade and sometimes she let him walk to feed her beagles at her house on 7th Avenue during school. Before long, Doc and Ellen bought a house in Carroll Acres when it was one of the only houses in the neighborhood, and Lydon spent most of his life in that house, buying it from Doc and raising his family there. Lydon's family was very close to his grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins. He spent time in the summers with his grandparents in south Alabama and his cousin Terry, nicknamed Blimp, was his best friend during those summers. Lydon's mother's sister, Aunt Jean, lived with them in Cullman for a while. His mother's home movies include family get-togethers at lakes and at the beach, fishing and boating. Doc bought a boat and Lydon waterskied all over Smith Lake. Like his parents, Lydon had a great sense of humor and made people laugh. He loved to eat, loved steaks, barbeque, hotdogs, cheeseburgers, and seafood. His first love was Johnny's Barbeque, starting in Johnny's old location. He got his love of good meat from his daddy, Doc, who was a career Ziegler Meats salesman and manager, and his love of all kinds of great foods and desserts came from his mother, who was a wonderful cook. Many of her recipes are in an old Hospital Auxiliary cookbook. Lydon also got his love of wearing jewelry from his mother. Watches, rings, necklaces, and bracelets were some of the items he wore and collected, but his love of collecting did not end there. He collected t-shirts, caps, hats, knives, guns, sunglasses, coats, jackets, vests, and music CDs and DVDs. He rode motorcycles – Hondas, not Harleys – and he rode the Tail of the Dragon in the Smokies. His last motorcycle was a Honda 1800 VTX. He married high school sweetheart Vikki Jordan in December 1973 after he graduated from Cullman High School (CHS) in May. He then attended Wallace State Community College and Calhoun Community College. Lydon and Vikki's daughter, Amy Lachelle Scroggins, was born on October 21, 1976. After their marriage ended, Lydon married Rhonda Sue Morrison, and they were blessed with Cassie Noel Scroggins on August 26, 1983, and with Nikki Lee Scroggins on September 24, 1986. His daughters remember him as the cool dad, especially around their friends. He always called their friends "girlfriend" regardless of how long they had been coming around. And it didn't hurt that they could join him jamming to the latest music, turned up loud. He enjoyed a broad range of music styles, and one might find him listening to Dave Matthews, Casting Crowns, Talking Heads, Bruce Hornsby, Sofi Tukker, Tedeschi Trucks, Alison Krause, Winston Ramble, Ozark Mountain Daredevils, Black-eyed Peas, and the list goes on. Lydon loved sports and excelled at most. He played on championship football, baseball, and adult softball teams. He lettered and was a baseball All-Star in high school. He played badminton while in college, and enjoyed playing ping pong and pool during lunch breaks at work, back when management still believed that esprit de corps was important. He was very competitive and loved to win at everything he played – even cornhole and horseshoes. One of the men who played men's league softball against him had this to say: "I remember that he was one of the most competitive people I have ever known. Most people that are that competitive are really self-centered and arrogant. That was not the case with Lydon. Don't get me wrong, he loved winning and didn't take losing very well. That was the case with all the guys that played; whether it be his team or the other teams. He did not let it show. Win, lose, or draw, he was the same person! I really enjoyed my friendship with him!" Lydon played football for the Cullman Junior High Pioneers and for CHS, where he played on B team and on Varsity. One of his B teammates remembers that Doc paid Lydon for every touchdown he made. When Lydon played quarterback, they had to beg him to let them score, instead of running it in himself. He played about every position at one time or another, but eventually settled in as "the one what runs with the football," as Jerry Clower used to say. His senior varsity season ended with 11 victories and 2 losses, and Lydon was the offensive player of the week in their 21-13 win over Hartselle. (Dean Sticher was the defensive player of the week in that game. David Schaffer and Van Willoughby made All-State that season.) Lydon told stories of playing against great athletes Condredge Holloway and Ozzie Newsome. "I've been beaten by the best!" Lydon played for many baseball and softball teams. He played for the Cullman Red Sox independent team semi-pro league, mostly against teams all over the county. He played on his dad Doc's team in Dixie baseball league. They could play in that league until their 19th birthdays. One of his teammates said Lydon started playing post-high school ball when he was married to Vikki and was working at Warehouse Grocery as Assistant Manager. Then, Lydon started The Bullets men's softball team. They needed a coach and talked his daddy, Doc, into coaching them. Then Curl Concrete sponsored them. Later, Cumming's Sporting Goods sponsored their team, which included Rick Campbell, Randy Daniels, Glenn Haynes, Jimmy Cruce, Robin Cork, Terry Hunt, Vic Hice, Danny Tekulve, Larry "Leroy" James, Fred Steip, Chuck Steip, Jim Eddleman, and there may have been more. They won a number of championships. Lydon's St. Andrews church league team is also well-remembered by those who played with and against him. Coach Marlin Raney played for First Methodist and said he hated to see Lydon hit home runs off him! Someone said his St. Andrews team won 6 championships in church league softball. Cassie also remembers Lydon and Rhonda playing softball on a coed team sponsored by Pepsi. Lydon umpired ballgames for extra money, and, when grandchildren got old enough, he attended his grandchildrens' games. Lydon went with his mother and dad to Seventh Steet Baptist Church when he was young. As an adult, he and his wife, Rhonda, went to St. Andrew's Methodist for 20 years. Lydon played for and recruited for their church men's softball team, in addition to serving as an usher. The highlight of his spiritual life was his participation in Alabama Emmaus Walk Number 98 at Camp Sumatanga, where he sat at the table of Peter. Rhonda passed away in July of 2006, and Rachel's husband had passed away the previous summer. In January of 2014, Lydon and Rachel got married. He and Rachel had joined First United Methodist, where he also served as an usher. When Grace Chapel was organized and first met at the American Red Cross building, practically a stone's throw from their house, Lydon was at the first service, which was held on Easter Sunday. He continued to take his father, Doc, to church there as long as Doc was able to walk, and they sat on the front row. Dogs were always a part of Lydon's life. His daddy raised and trained birddogs, and one of their legendary house pets when he was growing up was a chihuahua named Miss Cookie, who once ate a whole chicken and slept for two days. As an adult, his best dog was a Labrador retriever, Annie, named after Annie Lennox. Later, Amy brought Lydon and Rhonda a tiny puppy to babysit and never took it back. That little Yorkie was General, the beginning of the Scroggins Yorkie tradition. Then they got Sissy to be General's girlfriend. Sissy lived to be 17 years old and was immortalized by Lydon's ongoing series of Facebook posts, "Yorkies Are Wise." General passed away in October 2010 and Sissy followed in 2017. Rachel and Lydon then got Tiny dog Yorkie in 2018. She was Lydon's buddy in his final years. Lydon worked for the same company for almost 44 years, starting out sweeping floors and running errands for Mr. Schiller at Speedring. Lydon's mother was in garden club with Mrs. Schiller and mentioned that he needed a job. He trained as a machinist, eventually was promoted to Tools Production Supervisor, and stayed with the company as they became AXSYS Technologies, which was bought by General Dynamics. He procured everything from toilet paper to beryllium for the company. He was proficient at searching out and ordering items, and that habit carried over into his personal life, where he loved ordering from Amazon Prime and getting UPS deliveries. He came by it honest: Rachel's parents lived across the street from his parents, and they laughed about Doc and Ellen calling it "UP (you pee) ups." He had a couple of monikers: the gadget man, because he loved new gadgets and toys and liked to be the first to get what was new to the market. At work, he was known as "the weather man" and was called James Spann because he monitored the weather in order to shut down electronically sensitive equipment when there was danger of lightning or power failure. He kept family members apprised of forecasted bad weather. Since his company had contracts with the Defense Department and with the military services, he was an avid supporter of the military. He especially loved space and aviation, so he loved air shows and museums. He saw the Blue Angels many times, loved helicopters, and he and Rhonda took General with them on a helicopter ride in Gatlinburg once. Rachel, Lydon, and Tiny dog went to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, in June 2019 for nephew Mason Rowe's graduation from Basic Training. Lydon loved touring the base and museum, visiting Geronimo's grave, and even being awakened early in the morning by artillery fire! When he and Rachel went to Seattle, WA, in 2017, Lydon was very impressed with the Boeing plant and they also toured the Museum of Flight there. He saw travel as adventure and had been to California several times, to Chicago, and to Michigan for work; to various places to play ball; and for vacations, to Mexico Beach, Gatlinburg, Michigan (and drove across to Canada, just so he could say he had been there!), Key West by way of St. Augustine, Seattle and Walla Walla, Washington, D.C., Kentucky, Atlanta, Nashville, and Memphis for a Dave Matthews concert, to name a few places. He and Rachel planned to travel more, but the brain tumors and COVID prevented it. Lydon retired at the end of March 2019, and it was less than a year when his symptoms began, which were ultimately diagnosed as glioblastoma brain tumors. Even so, Rachel took him to Kentucky several more times and to Gatlinburg twice. He continued to enjoy dining out, and, even into November of 2022, he was able to go out with an informal Friends Friday Supper Club. Lydon passed away peacefully at home with his family on Wednesday evening, May 24, 2023. His visitation will be at Moss Funeral Home on Saturday, June 3, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m., with memorial service following at 2 p.m. Moss Service Funeral Home directing.

Nassetta, Gentry report mostly tame Memorial Day weekend

tsmckoy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — Memorial Day weekend was mostly tame, according to both Cullman County Sheriff Matt Gentry and Cullman Police Chief David Nassetta.

According to Nassetta, the police had a mostly quiet weekend, with the exception of the ATM theft at the Merchants Bank main branch. (www.cullmantribune.com/2023/05/29/atm-theft-causes-damage-thieves-leave-empty-handed)

"We had a little bit of a boating accident on Lake George; it wasn't anything major," Nassetta stated. He said a gentleman fell out of a boat but was not badly injured. "Overall, it was a good weekend," Gentry said. "There were a couple of minor boating issues on the lake that we assisted the ALEA Marine Patrol with. Our main objective was to maintain a strong presence out on the lake and in the community and around the parks and the roads leading to and from the parks, which we did. We had a very strong presence out in the community."

GOOD HOPE, Ala. — Daystar Church has announced the return of "At the Movies," a series of teachings led by Senior Pastor Jerry Lawson that explores the themes and meanings of some of Hollywood's biggest hits and how they correspond to Biblical teachings. The series will take place every Sunday in June at Daystar's Cullman campus.

The month-long event is free to the public, with typical theater-style refreshments like popcorn and soft drinks provided.

Pastor Ory Hampton said, "Our annual 'At the Movies' series is modeled after the teaching approach of Jesus, using modern stories to communicate biblical truths in a practical way.

"We would love for everyone in the community, especially those looking for a place to get connected, to come join us on Sundays this June at either 8:30 a.m., 10 a.m. or 11:30 a.m.!"

Daystar's Cullman campus is located at 200 Daystar Dr., Cullman, AL 35057. Learn more at www.daystarchurch.tv/atm.

try is a mutually important one.

"The working relationship between CCHBA and CATA carpentry is remarkable; they have always supported our carpentry program. Their sponsorship will help take the stress of travel expenses off these kids so they can focus on doing their best."

"We wish them all the luck at the national level in June. We are happy to sponsor them.

"It has been a privilege to watch these young men mature and improve in what they are doing," said CCHBA President Willy Hendrix.

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman Veterans Hall of Fame (CVHOF), a mission spearheaded by Fairview native Col. Donald Fallin, aims to recognize and pay tribute to our community's veterans who honorably served our country, displayed great character and continued a lifetime of service to our country, state and community.

Fallin said the inspiration for CVHOF hit him while he was visiting the Cullman County Sports Hall of Fame.

The mission's tangible and permanent goal is to display within Cullman County Courthouse halls the stories of an exemplary few – those who represent the goals, passion, stories and memories of our military and its brave service members.

Nominations are currently open for the 2023 class, which will be comprised of five veterans selected for their honorable service and impact on the community. Nominees must have been born, raised in or a resident of Cullman County for at least 10 years.

Other considerations include receipt of awards and commendations, successive tours of duty, membership or leadership in veterans organizations, as well as community service endeavors.

Fallin said the judging committee is made of representatives from many veteran-focused groups, including disabled and combat veterans, which will hopefully lead to selections ofwell-rounded nominees who are judged from all facets.

"A key point is that this committee is represented by the VFW, American Legion and the DAV (Disabled American Veterans). So it's pretty stacked," he mentioned.

Know a veteran you believe should be recognized? Stop by Cullman VFW Post 2214 to pick up a paper copy of the application.

The deadline to receive nominations is Friday, Aug. 25, 2023. The induction ceremony dinner for the 2023 class will be on Friday, Oct. 27, 2023.

one years which by anyone's standard is a very long time. Miss Sylvia has also worked with five Addison principals, starting with Mr. D.A. Sharpton and continuing with current principal Micah Smothers.

"Hazel Denson called me at home and asked me to come help them at the football game that night because someone had called out. I didn't have nothing else planned so I did it," Morgan said. "I just fell in love with the kids, and I love to talk so I just kept coming back." That might be an understatement to say she likes to talk. Miss Sylvia has probably never met a stranger in her life.

Miss Sylvia graduated from Meek High School, an Addison rival, and moved to Addison in 1965 when her and her late husband, John, started John's Furniture in Addison. By the way she still works a full-time job, running the store, which is still in business.

"Between working full time at the store and helping out at the school, it keeps me young," Sylvia said. "I don't plan on retiring anytime soon."

Miss Sylvia has extra incentive to keep coming to the school since all three of her daughters and a grandson work there. Nancy Parris and Sherry Smothers are teachers while Sheila Everett is the high school administrative assistant. Sylvia's Grandson John Everett teaches and is the head coach of the Bulldog Baseball team.

"I love getting to see my daughters and grandson all the time. I am proud of all of them," Morgan said. "I have five grandkids and one great grandchild as well, so my life is very full."

Sylvia was surprised and thrilled when she heard the news and feels honored to be associated with Addison High School.

"It was such a great surprise and a huge honor." Sylvia said. "I am not the only one that volunteers I guess I just hung around longer than most. I love being linked to Addison High School and will stay as long as they will have me."

Well, as someone who has known Miss Sylvia personally since the mid 70's, I can tell you without a shadow of a doubt that no person is more deserving of this honor or is as beloved by the Addison School community as Miss Sylvia. I am proud for you and honored to call you a friend.
