CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman County Public Library System has a new director following a meeting of the library board Tuesday evening. Sharon Townson, who has been with the library for 27 years, has retired. The board met in executive session and selected Josie Harrington to assume the role.

Harrington, who started her career with the library in 2018, was named assistant director in January 2020. She acknowledged there is a lot of work ahead, but said she is excited to get started.

"There is a lot of work ahead of us, but I am excited to be our new director," she said. "I love our community!"

Harrington said she is excited to implement her ideas and help the library continue to grow.

Victoria's Hope celebrates grand opening after 5 years

CAYLA GRACE MURPHY/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Surrounded by family, friends, Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors and Cullman Lions Club members, April German cuts a grand opening ribbon at Victoria's Hope, a local charity-supporting thrift store in Cullman. Victoria's Hope is located at 230 U.S. Highway 278 West.

CULLMAN, Ala. — When Victoria's Hope Thrift and Treasures was founded in 2018, founder April German was bound and determined to create a silver lining out of the dark cloud of her mother's passing. What started as a clothing ministry for single mothers - named in honor of her own single mother - grew into a thriving community-wide ministry. Booming business called for a few changes of scenery, with German finally settling on the brick-and-mortar building that Victoria's Hope now calls home along U.S. Highway 278 West.

German shared that through the years and location changes, she always wanted the grand experience of a ribbon cutting; after nearly five years operating as a charity-based thrift store, owners she and husband Craig German have done just that.

The parking lot of Victoria's Hope was packed on Tuesday morning, Aug. 29, 2023.

Staff and volunteers donning shirts branded "Peace. Love. Thrift." were quickly putting on the finishing touches, arranging decorated sugar cookies just so and finishing up mowing to accommodate parking for the dozens still pouring in.

Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce President Joey Orr opened the gathering with a note of appreciation for what founders April and Craig German have done to impact the community.

"Craig and April have this wonderful ministry, I mean, that's really what it is!" exclaimed Orr, gesturing to the large crowd in the small room, saying, "What they're doing for the community is fabulous; I know they've got a lot of partners!"

Holding back tears, April German shared a small testimony about the roots of Victoria's Hope, and how she couldn't have possibly dreamed that it would be where it is now.

"When I first started this, all I wanted to do was help some mothers get some clothes, maybe some purses. I'm a teacher, so I thought 'Oh yeah, I'll do that during the summer,'" German laughed. "Five years later, this is here!"

German maintained that the secret sauce to Victoria's Hope's success isn't just her, or her husband Craig German, who runs the store. It's the community as a whole that rallies behind them.

"I still don't understand how; I really can't comprehend how. But it's » PAGE 7

Grants (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. — Representatives of several nonprofits in Cullman met at The Link of Cullman County's Gathering Place on Wednesday, Aug. 30, 2023. Over cups of coffee and glazed donuts, they chatted about upcoming projects, initiatives and workshops they plan to host - all funded by Alabama's Mountains, Rivers & Valleys RC&D Council, which awarded $51,000 in grants to get these much-needed projects accomplished.

The Council worked in tandem with Cullman area legislators to grant the funds to the Cullman County Soil and Water Conservation District, Cullman County Commission, The Link of Cullman County, West Point FFA, Crane Hill Volunteer Fire Department, The Foundry Ministries and the North Alabama Agriplex Board.

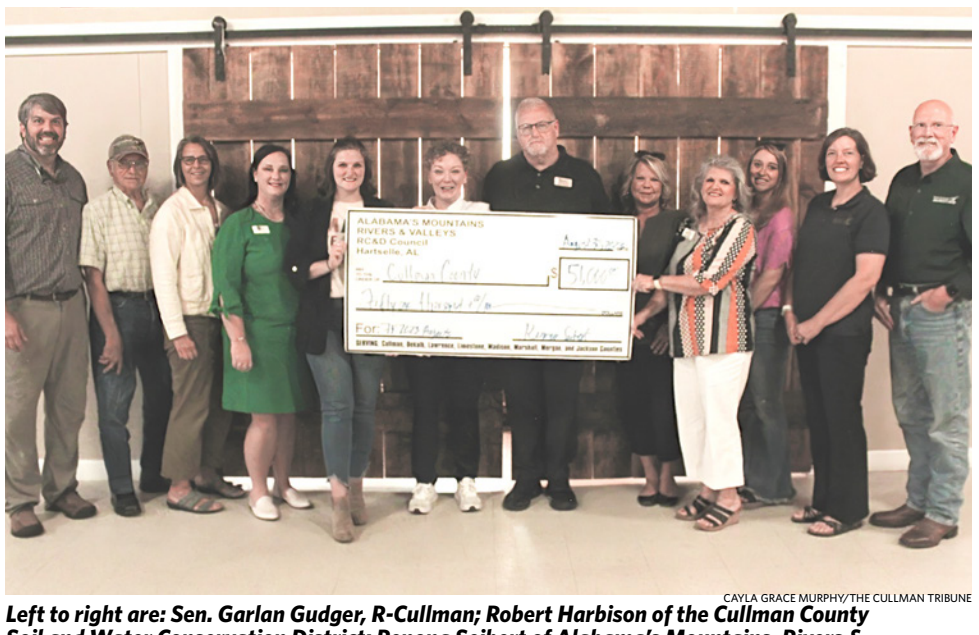

Attending legislator Sen. Garlan Gudger, R-Cullman, noted the importance of applying for grants, singing high praises of the work that grants like these fund, chiming in, "Believe it or not, there are certain counties in this state that the money is there, but people aren't asking for it."

Gudger continued, "What I love about this county, is that when we get more money we're going to use it, and put it to good use. Everybody here today, and more out there, are helping this community be the best it can possibly be."

Gudger spoke plainly about Cullman's nonprofit impact on the state at large, saying, "Throughout the state, people are watching us: how we handle people, how we treat people and the programs we have to make a difference for the people walking through those doors every day," he said, pointing to the doors of The Link's Gathering Place.

The Council is a 501(c)(3) organization that supports educational and community development projects in North Central Alabama. The Council serves Cullman, Morgan, Madison, Limestone, Marshall, Jackson and DeKalb counties.

For more information on grants it provides, visit https://amrvrcd.org/grants/.

'Trust the process': Holly Pond's Molly Neal recaps junior season

Sammy Confer

HOLLY POND, Ala. — The Holly Pond Lady Bronco are coming off another solid season on the diamond as they finished runners-up in the area tournament and qualified for Regionals. One of this year's seniors, Molly Neal recapped that season and talked about what she learned playing alongside some great teammates.

"I feel like we played really well last season. I think that overall, there were some games that we lost that we could've played better overall, but there were also some games that we lost that we gave our all. I'm proud of what we accomplished throughout our season. I learned that even when you give it your all, there's always more that you can give, whether it's effort or encouragement. My teammate, Madyson Rickman (MJ), taught me that you can't be afraid to step up when a teammate is struggling. This past year, I learned what it takes to be a leader. It's not just letting your team know where the play is or how many outs there are; it's when someone is down on themselves. You are there to pick them up or you stay after practice to help them with whatever they are struggling with."

She added, "My former teammate MJ and I formed a strong friendship over the past few years and to play alongside my best friend her last year was something I'll never forget. We always pushed each other to go harder or further than the last throw or swing and to keep our heads up throughout the tough losses.

"Bai Widner was always the first person to pick you up after an error or a bad at-bat and was definitely everyone's biggest fan. She picked me up many times after a bad at-bat and was the first person to high-five me after a good play. She is a good player and an even better teammate. Maggie Nail is a player that I've watched, over the years, grow into an incredible ball player. As a freshman, she helped lead our team to some of the biggest wins over the season. She brings a lot of competition in not only games, but in practice as well. I love the competitiveness and heart that she brings onto the field. Seeing her accomplishments over the year only makes me proud to be her teammate and I can't wait to see her go to the next level one day."

Neal has learned a ton from some amazing coaches during her softball career.

"I've played for a handful of coaches and my first one, Jason Widner, is the one that helped me find my love and passion for the game. He has coached me every year for school and has always pushed me. He has believed in me, even when I didn't believe in myself. He has taught me to always have fun, even when the game is tough. My old travel coach, Mary Grimes, taught me everything I know and helped develop me into the player that I am today. She taught me that even when it's hard, you have to keep pushing. She told me something once that has stuck with me through the years and it's, 'It's when you're tired and feel as if you can't keep going, is when you have to push the hardest/focus in, because those reps will make you a better player."

She added, "Every time I'm tired, I think of that, and it drives me to go even harder, although it took my recent travel coaches to teach me that you have to be patient and trust in God's plan.

"Coach Paul and coach Shane have both taught me that you can play your very best and still have fun, that's it okay to make mistakes, and to make a mental note to work on after the game. I became a better player once I accepted that mistakes will be made and just making that little mental note to work on helped me so much."

She has seen her game improve so much over the years, but will still continue to put in the work in the offseason as she gets ready for this upcoming season.

MARTHA NEEDHAM/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Holly Pond's Molly Neal

"I have improved a lot over the years. Each coach has helped bring me to a higher level and understanding of the game.

"My trainer Jim Goble and I have worked together for the past three years and not too long ago, we were looking back at videos from where I first started. They were really bad is what he said, but it's all the hours that I have put in at the cages or in my backyard that has really helped me. I've always seen room for improvement. Even now as a senior, I still go to the cages every week to work with coach Jim. I play travel ball year-round, so I'm always trying to take my game even higher," she said.

"Everything can use some improvement. I think that there are some things that I do well than others, but I will continue to work on everything."

She soaked up as much as she could from last year's seniors and talked about the goals for 2024.

"They taught me that there are different types of leaders and that this game is not forever. Some players are blessed to be able to play in college, but even then, it all comes to an end, so enjoy it while it lasts.

"Soak in every moment, whether it's practice or a game, because you never know when it will be the last and to take it one step and one pitch at a time. Softball is a fast-paced game, so you have to stay level-headed and not get overwhelmed by the little things," she said.

"My individual goals are to make the All-County and All-Area teams, as well as step into the leader role that my coaches are expecting from me since the loss of our recent seniors.

"My team goals are to win county this year. West Point has won the past few years and it's time for someone new to win the title."

She added, "Another team goal is to play hard every game and pick each other up on the hard ones. This year, we lost a lot of players, and we will have a harder schedule, but I believe that we have a good, hard-working ball team that can go as far as we put our mind to."

Neal hopes that this season will be another special one for the Lady Broncos and she talked about her role models growing up.

"What will make us special to watch is our heart and grit. We have been in games when we were down by five or six runs, and we came back to win the game. Everybody wears their heart on their sleeves and truly shows their compassion for the game while they play.

"We have a lot of talent on our team, and the way we all come together as a family to encourage each other is incredible. I am very blessed to be a part of this team," she said. "Hailey McCleney was one of my biggest role models growing up. Watching her play at Alabama inspired me to one day play at the college level. The way she puts her all into every play and hypes her teammates up when they are feeling down encourages me to be that person for my teammates."

She talked about the best advice that someone ever gave her.

"Steve Johnson, an early influence in my life, told me that hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard. You have to continue to challenge yourself to be able to grow as not only a player, but a person too. Without the challenge, you will never reach your full potential. He taught me self-accountability and to trust the process."

Good Hope sweeps tri-match at Holly Pond

sammy@cullmantribune.com

HOLLY POND, Ala. — The Holly Pond Lady Broncos hosted Good Hope and Cold Springs for a tri-match Monday night and the Lady Raiders came away with a sweep of both teams. The Lady Broncos were also able to earn a sweep over the Lady Eagles.

Holly Pond 3 – Cold Springs 0 (First Match)

Emma Earl (ace and kill) and Darla Fredrick (kill) helped Holly Pond jump out to a quick 7-0 lead in the first set. They would later push their lead to 12-2, but a point and a kill by Ciara Calvert cut the Holly Pond lead to 13-5. Aces by Kamryn Tankersley, Ellie Burks, and Madi Brown pushed the Lady Bronco lead to 20-7. The Lady Eagles cut it to 23-13 on a kill by Malaya Taylor, but Burks got the game-winning point for Holly Pond as they took the first set 25-13.

The second set saw Cold Springs take an early 2-0 lead behind an ace by Mary Warden, but Holly Pond quickly took command after that as they scored six of the next seven points to take a 6-3 lead. Earl collected a pair of aces and a point to help the Lady Broncos increase their lead to 11-3. They made it 18-4 on a Kaylee Rohrscheib ace, and Holly Pond went on to take the second set 25-10.

Holly Pond jumped out to another quick lead in the third set. Behind a kill by Tankersley and a Friedrick ace, the Lady Broncos got out to a quick 8-1 lead. A Burks kill made it 12-3, but the Lady Eagles scored the next three points to trim the deficit to six at 12-6. An ace by Tankersley pushed the Holly Pond lead to 17-6, but later on, Cold Springs cut it to 18-10 on a Kaley Barger ace. The Lady Eagles later made it 22-14 on a point by Taylor and an Ellanora Slusser kill and later trimmed it to 24-17, but Tankersley delivered the game-winning point for the Lady Broncos as they finished off the sweep of the Lady Eagles 25-17.

Good Hope 2 – Cold Springs 0 (Second Match)

It was back-and-forth early on in the first set between Cold Springs and Good Hope. The Lady Eagles held a slim 4-3 lead, but a point by Ivey Maddox and a point by Cameron Koch gave the Lady Raiders a 6-4 lead. Later on, Cold Springs reeled off four straight points to take a 10-8 lead, but Good Hope went on a huge run to get the lead right back. Four aces by Charly Johnson, a pair of points by Maddox, and a kill by Carley Adams gave the Lady Raiders a 19-11 lead. Later on, though, a kill by Calvert cut it to 19-14, but Cold Springs wouldn't get any closer after that as Good Hope would go on to take the first set 25-19.

The second set saw Good Hope get off to a very fast start as Maddox collected four kills and Emma Bailey added an ace to give the Lady Raiders a 10-0 lead.

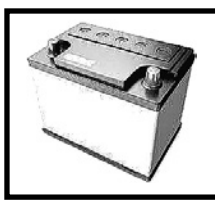

They later pushed it to 16-1, but the Lady Eagles looked to make a little run to get back in the game. They cut it to 16-5, and later on, to 18-9, but Good Hope didn't let them get any closer after that as a pair of points by Johnson and a pair of Koch aces helped them finish off the sweep of Cold Springs 25-12.

Good Hope 2 – Holly Pond 0 (Third Match)

The first set of the Holly Pond-Good Hope game was tight for most of the contest. The Lady Raiders jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead behind a pair of Maddox kills, and later pushed it to 8-4. Holly Pond later trimmed it to 11-9 on a Maycie Black kill, and later on, a Tankersley kill made it a 14-13 game. A point by Jolee McHan pushed the Lady Raider lead to 19-15, and they later made it 22-16. The Lady Broncos, though, made things a little interesting at the end as Tankersley delivered a kill to make it 22-17, then later on, a point by Ava Thomas cut it to 22-20. They cut it to one after that, but Good Hope was able to hold them off at the end as they scored the final three points, including the game-winning kill by Maddox, to take the first set 25-21.

The second set was a carbon copy of the first one as it went back-and-forth early on. Good Hope held a 5-2 lead after a Maddox kill, but the Lady Broncos scored the next six points of the set, including a kill by Blakely Baggett, an ace by Tankersley, and a point by Black, to take an 8-5 lead. A point by Baggett and a Black ace helped the Lady Broncos push their lead to 13-8 and later made it 15-9. Back-to-back aces by Johnson helped the Lady Raiders cut it to 15-12.

Holly Pond held a slim 18-15 lead, but a Molly Benefield kill, a Maddox ace, and a McHan kill, tied things up at 18. The Lady Broncos got the lead right back and later pushed it to 24-20 as they looked to force a third set, but Good Hope had other plans, though, as they scored the final six points of the game, including a pair of kills by Maddox, and one by Johnson, to sweep the Lady Broncos 26-24.

ing, members also discussed storm damages and starting the process of obtaining a new bookmobile.

The director's report touched on various updates and activities within the library. Notably, it discussed the storm damage that occurred Aug. 7, and mentioned ongoing efforts to address the aftermath.

Regarding facility repairs, the board discussed hiring a structural engineer to assess the damage and determine necessary repairs. A motion was made to approve the payment for the structural engineer's assessment, which was estimated to be around $1,200. The motion was approved, enabling the repair process to move forward.

The report also highlighted the library's engagement with workshops, classes and webinars, as well as the successful acquisition of a collection development grant covering all five branches.

The financial reports were then presented and discussed. The board found no unusual content in the reports.

Regarding the bookmobile, the report said the previous vehicle was involved in an accident.

Despite this setback, the board intends to pursue the acquisition of another bookmobile. It said the insurance payout from the previous vehicle will significantly aid in procuring a replacement. The board plans to collaborate with a vehicle customization company named Leonard Design.

Cullman scores double win at Alabama Governors Conference on Tourism

Hugh A. Stump III
Contributor

CULLMAN, Ala. — At the Alabama Governors Conference on Tourism in Pt. Clear, Alabama, earlier this week, Cullman scored a double win as Rock the South won the "Event of the Year" award and Sen. Garlan Gudger Jr. won the "Tourism Advocate-Government" award.

The annual conference, held this year at the Grand Hotel Resort and Spa, brings together statewide tourism professionals to attend educational sessions, network, raise money for tourism and hospitality scholarships, and honor noteworthy and distinctive events, people, and organizations. The conference rotates around the state and will be in Tuscaloosa in 2024.

Nathan Baugh accepted the award for Rock the South and spoke about the growth of the music festival from 12,000 attendees the first year in 2012 to over 106,000 in 2023. He shared about the large economic impact it has on Cullman County through tourism, including creating over $1,000,000 in sales tax revenue.

The festival has also contributed nearly one million dollars to local charities, nonprofits and other organizations since its inception.

Gudger spoke about how his passion for tourism sprouted from his second-generation business-Southern Accents Architectural Antiques. He noted he realized most of his customers were coming from outside of Cullman and from across the country and that his business was creating tourism for Cullman. The salvage business, started by his father Garlan Gudger Sr. in 1969, has grown to be one of the top five architectural salvage companies in the U.S. Gudger also spoke of his efforts to grow the economic impact of tourism through the creation of the Cullman County Tourism Bureau.
