Hanceville City Council discusses pool, Rayford Talley Building, College Drive

Cheyenne Sharp

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — The Hanceville City Council at its Feb. 8 work session and meeting discussed the future of the city's community pool, the use of the Rayford Talley Building by student athletes and the renaming of parts of College Drive.

To keep the city's community swimming pool, located at CW Day Park, operational requires funding of upwards of $60,000 a year, according to the council. Over the last few years, patch jobs have been done and parts replaced. There is also the possibility that the pool needs to be replastered.

Parks and Recreation Director David Wasilewski addressed the council about pool's biggest expenses.

"Payroll is a big one, obviously. Chemicals are huge, (and) of course, your utilities like water. One of the big things - I'm not sure the last time the pool was » PAGE 3

D&Y Farms: Fresh farm-raised saltwater shrimp year round

CHEYENNE SHARP/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Yancey and Davis York are the brains and brawn behind Cullman's first shrimp farm operation, raising saltwater Pacific White Shrimp for customers to enjoy year-round.

CULLMAN, Ala. — One small, family-owned farm is taking the seafood market in Cullman by storm and providing farm-raised saltwater shrimp year-round. Daniel and Yancey York have turned a portion of their livestock farm into a Pacific White Shrimp operation.

After beginning a health journey, Yancey York said, she began to look for healthier options to put into her body. Already owning the land and chickens, cattle farming was the next step, and the Yorks purchased cattle to raise antibiotic-, hormone- and artificial additive-free beef for their family. The » PAGE 2 obsession with knowing what exactly was fueling her body led the Yorks on a path that many small-time farmers can appreciate.

"Since we all love seafood, that was the next food group to tackle. We found out about Biofloc Shrimp Farming and the idea grew from there," said York. "The shrimp that you find at the grocery store is most likely imported from China, Indonesia or Thailand. Only 2% of imported shrimp is inspected by the FDA, and 60% of that is rejected. Our shrimp are raised using only four simple things: feed, a probiotic, simple syrup and baking soda."

The large red pole barn on the Yorks' property is where the shrimp are raised and grow up in one of eight large, aerated pools; as the adage goes, "good things come to those who wait," and wait the Yorks do. It takes roughly four months for the Pacific White Shrimp to reach maturity. Beginning as tiny, translucent specks, the shrimp, also known as King Prawn, can grow to as big as 9 inches; the Yorks have three adult shrimp kept in a saltwater aquarium.

"These are my science experiments; I want to see how big they will grow," York smiled, pointing out a particularly robust prawn. "We actually weighed him before we put him in the tank and he weighed 55 grams, which comes out to about .12 pounds. So it takes less than 10 to make 1 pound of shrimp. They are massive."

Troubleshooting food levels and water bacteria is a science that York has down with precision.

The water is treated with a product called Instant Ocean, a specialty formulated sea salt additive, turning tap or purified water into saltwater, mimicking a cleaner ocean environment. The feed is a unique blend of minerals, vitamins and calories a prawn needs to mature.

Shrimp are often seen as the "crawfish of the ocean," meaning they survive off animal waste and byproducts, as well as debris on the ocean floor. The Yorks have a solution for the shrimp possibly eating the debris that does happen to make its way to the bottoms of the pools – a harmless bacteria that consumes the waste in each habitat, ensuring that any ingestion by the prawns is safe. The Pacific White Shrimp being nurtured in the barn are treated like royalty with their rations.

"Everybody always wants to know 'What do you feed them?' It's an animal protein – 35% protein with some oils in there and a carbonate component that helps with when they molt and shell hardness," York explained.

The prawns may be much larger than many are used to, but the flavor is different as well. The Yorks agree that the meat of their shrimp is sweeter, more akin to crab meat than Gulf shrimp. Preparations are exactly the same as for Gulf shrimp; the King Prawn can be fried, sauteed, grilled, baked or boiled.

"As soon as we got the first batch, I was experimenting with recipes. The best way we have found is to cook them whole," said York. "They're sweet and hearty; they're just really good."

plastered, but it will need it probably sooner rather than later," he said.

Although the council discussed options of repairing, refurbishing or replacing the pool, no action or decision was made.

The council said it expects to continue discussions as it explores options.

Hanceville High School's Junior Varsity Softball Coach and Assistant Varsity Coach, Roxie Lee, addressed the council to request the use of the Rayford Talley Building as an indoor training facility for her student athletes. She said current facilities are shared between the school's various teams, allowing little training time in inclement weather.

"We are definitely a rebuilding program and one of those things that we want to do is give the girls every opportunity to better themselves in the sport. I've come tonight because the Rayford Talley Building is a building that the softball team could utilize on a weekly basis," Lee said.

"What we would like to do is have an indoor batting and pitching facility to be used by our own program."

The council approved the request unanimously, granting the team a year-long lease of the building as a school entity, requiring that the team or school itself pay any utilities or maintenance and upkeep costs incurred.

Administration at Wallace State Community College discussed the possibility of renaming portions of College Drive that encircle the entirety of the college's campus to give first responders clearer directions in the event of an emergency. The measure passed unanimously.

In other business, the council:

• Approved updates to the Dispatch Radio Agreement between Cullman County Sheriff's Office and Hanceville Police Department

• Approved the surplus and replacement of a 2022 Ford F-150

• Held the first reading of Ordinance No. 2024-1, the annexation and zoning of 22.63 acres off Hopewell Road

• Appointed Councilwoman Kim Brown mayor pro tem and authorized Brown as a designated signee for the council

• Appointed Kenneth Cornelius to member place 5, the seat vacated by now Mayor Jimmy Sawyer; Cornelius will be sworn in at the next regularly scheduled meeting on Feb. 22.

• Announced the placement of a United Way of Cullman County food drive collection box in Hanceville City Hall

• Heard biweekly public works job details

The next Hanceville City Council meeting will be held Feb. 22, with the work session beginning at 5 p.m. and the meeting immediately following at 5:30 at Hanceville City Hall.

New eagle statue added to Lake Guntersville State Park

ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION AND NATURAL RESOURCES

Ala. Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

GUNTERSVILLE, Ala. – Officials unveiled and cut a ceremonial ribbon on Friday, Feb. 2, to dedicate Lake Guntersville State Park's newest feature, a picturesque eagle statue located at the park's lodge.

The statue, created by artist Jenny Hendrix and inspired by a photo taken by noted Alabama nature photographer Beth Cowen Drake, showcases an American bald eagle with a fish clasped in its talons. The fish represents the many recreational fishing opportunities Lake Guntersville offers; the eagle spotlights the park as a premier destination for eagle sightings.

The statue is expected to become a favorite guest photography spot during the park's annual Eagle Awareness weekends and year-round.

"This majestic statue showcases the beauty and power of an American bald eagle, a revered symbol of our great nation," said Chris Blankenship, commissioner of the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (ADCNR). "The statue has been in place for a short amount of time already, and we have received many positive comments from visitors to the park. It truly is a fantastic addition."

Funded by a grant from the Alabama Tourism Department, the statue is the result of a true team effort – a meticulous two-year project including landscaping, lighting, signage and sidewalks that create opportunities for great vantage points and photos for framing.

"The Alabama Tourism Department is honored to partner with Alabama State Parks and make this project a reality," Alabama Tourism Director Lee Sentell said. "It's always wonderful when state agencies can work together, and I couldn't be happier with the final product."

Eagle Awareness Weekends at Lake Guntersville State Park began in 1985 to highlight ADCNR's bald eagle restoration program. A loss of habitat, pesticide use and poaching throughout the country had pushed eagle populations to the brink of extinction. From 1985-1991, 91 bald eagles were released throughout the state as a result of the project. Bald eagle sightings are more common throughout the state today thanks in part to these conservation efforts. Eagle Awareness Weekends continue at the park to showcase this conservation success story.

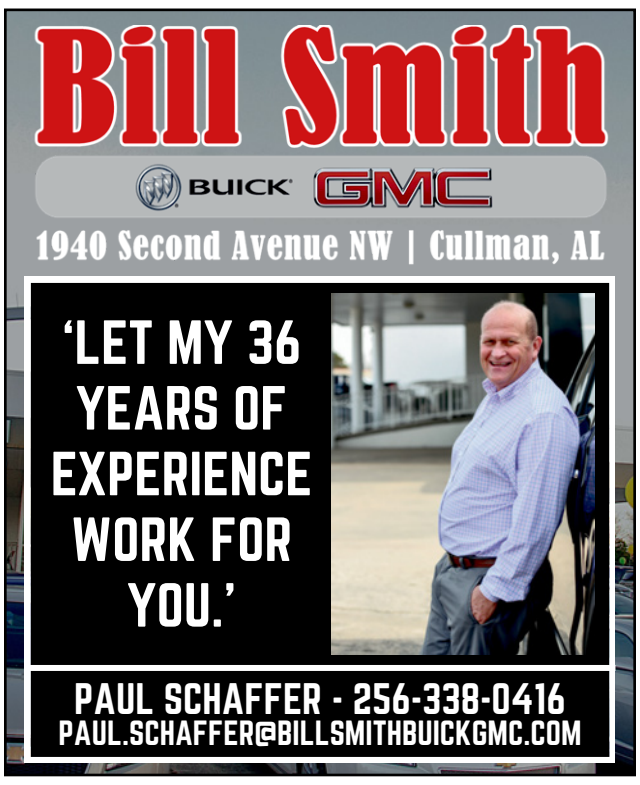

The ribbon-cutting for the new statute was incorporated into the agenda for the final Eagle Awareness Weekend at the park in 2024.

Eagle Awareness Weekends provide guests with an opportunity to participate in a variety of outdoor recreation opportunities available in the park, while enjoying educational programs and live eagle sightings. With 6,000 acres of natural woodlands, an 18-hole championship golf course, a beach complex, hiking and biking trails, a zipline course, and access to premier bass fisheries, Lake Guntersville State Park provides a diverse range of activities for all visitors.

Alabama State Parks Director Greg Lein said north Alabama is fast becoming an outdoor recreation destination for many, and he anticipates that the new statue will help them memorialize their visit to Lake Guntersville State Park with a photo.

"We have guests from across the county come to Lake Guntersville State Park every year, and this statue gives them something new to enjoy," he said. "Whether visitors come for a day or stay with us for the weekend, Lake Guntersville State Park offers a vacation destination that showcases Alabama's natural beauty and allows guests to experience it first-hand from the trails, on the water or just taking in the beautiful views from the lodge."

Positioned near the resort inn and restaurant, the statue offers breathtaking views not far from the park's mountaintop chalets, lakeside cabins and a large campground. Park staff encourage guests to include the statue in their photographs to create lasting memories during their on-site adventures. You can book your next adventure at Guntersville State Park or one of our other 20 beautiful state parks at www.alapark.com.

Trussville man pleads guilty to multimillion-dollar health care fraud conspiracy

Staff Reports
Contributor

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Another individual has pleaded guilty in a series of related cases involving multimillion-dollar health care fraud conspiracies, announced U.S. Attorney Prim F. Escalona, Federal Bureau of Investigation Special Agent in Charge Carlton L. Peeples, and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General, Special Agent in Charge Tamala E. Miles.

John Alan Robson, 40, of Trussville, pleaded guilty Thursday to health care fraud conspiracy.

According to the plea agreement, Robson was a sales representative who marketed to doctors' offices various health care products and services, including topical prescription creams from specialty pharmacies, durable medical equipment (DME), and electro-diagnostic testing. Robson was paid fees for the prescriptions, DME and tests he generated from doctors. From at least 2014 through 2018, Robson conspired with others to pay and receive kickbacks to induce medical providers to issue medically unnecessary prescriptions and order medically unnecessary goods and services, which were then billed to Medicare and other health insurers.

Two of the sales reps named in Robson's indictment as having engaged in the same conspiracy conduct have previously pleaded guilty to related crimes. Brian Bowman, 42, of Gadsden, and James Ewing Ray, 53, of Gadsden, each pleaded guilty to health care fraud conspiracy. As part of their respective plea agreements, Bowman agreed to forfeit more than $7.6 million, Ray agreed to forfeit more than $800,000, and Robson agreed to forfeit more than $1 million. All three will be ordered, at sentencing, to pay restitution to the victims of their crimes.

Dozens of defendants have been convicted in related cases.

Pharmacy cases. Among the medically unnecessary items Bowman, Ray and Robson marketed were topical creams for specialty pharmacies including Global Compounding Pharmacy and Watson Rx Solutions. Bowman, Ray and Robson were paid commissions to induce these prescriptions to be issued. According to Robson's plea agreement, he and other marketers got blank pre-signed prescriptions from doctors and then completed the prescriptions to ensure the prescriptions would be paid for by insurance, regardless of whether the drugs were medically necessary for patients' needs. Robson and other marketers also marked specific drugs or drug formulations to make sure insurance would pay for them. And they assured patients and providers that the pharmacies would not insist on collecting copays, which might discourage patients from getting the prescriptions filled. Sales reps also got prescriptions for themselves—regardless of whether there was a medical need—and Bowman, Ray and Robson were paid commissions on those prescriptions.

More than two dozen defendants have been convicted in connection with the fraud at Global Compounding Pharmacy. Jason Akin, 46, of Florence, has pleaded guilty to health care fraud in connection with the fraud at Watson Rx Solutions.

QBR cases

Another service Bowman, Ray, and Robson marketed was electro-diagnostic testing, specifically, nerve conduction testing, provided by a Huntsville-based electro-diagnostic testing company called QBR, or Diagnostic Referral Community.

Bowman, Ray, and Robson received per-patient payments from QBR for inducing medical providers to order tests from QBR. Medical providers received payments from QBR too; the payments were disguised as hourly payments for the ordering physician's time and staff's time, but in reality they were per-patient kickbacks.

Dr. Eric Beck, 65, of Huntsville, pleaded guilty to health care fraud conspiracy for his role in the fraud at QBR. John Hornbuckle, 54, of Huntsville, pleaded guilty to health care fraud and kickback conspiracy offenses for his role, as QBR's CEO, in orchestrating the fraud.

Medical practice cases

Defendants associated with multiple medical practices have also been convicted in related cases.

In one case, a jury convicted Dr. Mark Murphy, 66, and his wife Jennifer Murphy, 66, both of Lewisburg, Tennessee, of drug distribution, fraud, and kickback crimes. The Murphys operated North Alabama Pain Services, which closed its Decatur and Madison offices in early 2017. According to court documents and evidence presented at trial, the Murphys took kickbacks from QBR of more than a million dollars. In return, Dr. Murphy ordered electro-diagnostic tests from QBR for his patients, regardless of whether there was a medical need for those tests. Dr. Murphy also pre-signed prescriptions for expensive specialty topical creams, sprays and patches, which patients then received whether they wanted the products or not.

In another case, David Lyle Shehi, 43, of Rainbow City, pleaded guilty to conspiracy to pay kickbacks and commit health care fraud. Shehi owned Etowah Pain, a pain clinic in Rainbow City, and pleaded guilty to receiving kickbacks in exchange for his practice's ordering items or services that would be billed to Medicare and other health insurance programs.

Mark Murphy and Jennifer Murphy were each sentenced to 20 years in prison. Hornbuckle was sentenced to 80 months. Bowman, Ray, Robson, Shehi and Akin are all awaiting sentencing. Other co-conspirators have already been sentenced.

The maximum penalty for conspiracy to commit health care fraud is 10 years in prison.

The FBI and HHS-OIG investigated the case, and Assistant U.S. Attorneys J.B. Ward and Don Long are prosecuting it.

Cullman captures 3rd straight area title with 54-42 win over Hartselle

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Cullman defeated Hartselle 54-42 Wednesday night to claim its third consecutive area championship.

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman was back home at Bearcat Arena Wednesday night hosting the Hartselle Tigers in this year's 6A, Area 14 championship game and the Bearcats collected their third straight area title with a 54-42 win. The 'Cats went into the locker room with a 28-22 lead at halftime and continued to pressure the Tigers on the defensive end in the second half, allowing them to pull away with the win. Bearcats Head Coach Stu Stuedeman is proud of the way his team has improved as the season has progressed but knows they'll have to stay focused for a quick turnaround Saturday when they host Lee-Huntsville in the Sub-Regional round.

"I'm very proud of our team simply because of where we were a month ago to where we are now. It's just a testament to our leadership in our locker room and how hard they work and the culture of our program, to keep coming every day, keep working and getting better and better. We go and lose a heartbreaker at Hartselle and some people probably wrote us off but at the end of the we kept coming and kept coming," Stuedeman said.

"Our kids deserve this. I'm so proud of them and happy for them. Now this is not the end for them. We've got to keep going, we've got to have a good day of prep and get ready to roll for Saturday."

Jake Dorough drained a three and Sam Dorough laid one in to give Cullman an early, 5-3 lead over the Tigers and Colton Echols knocked down a jumper to keep the 'Cats in front 7-5 midway through the first quarter. Brodie Bannister scored the next five points for Cullman, stretching the lead to 12-8 and Kase Nixon drilled a three in the final minute of the period to give the Bearcats a 15-8 lead going into the second quarter.

A basket from Nixon and a three-pointer from Jake Dorough made it a 20-10 game early in the second. Cullman held a 24-15 lead later in the period and a steal by Bannister led to a dunk for Duskin that extended the lead to 26-15 with two minutes remaining in the first half. Nixon laid one in with 30 seconds on the clock to help give the 'Cats a 28-22 lead at the break.

Cullman led 31-24 early in the third quarter and Bannister hit a pair of free throws to keep the Bearcats in front 33-28 later in the period.

Baskets by Echols and Sam Dorough made it a 37-30 game with two minutes to play in the third and after Evan Wilson scored in the paint, Duskin hit a pair of free throws in the final 2 seconds of the quarter to build the lead up to 41-32 at the start of the final frame.

The 'Cats spent a lot of the fourth quarter at the free throw line. Jake Dorough and Wilson each hit a pair of foul shots to keep Cullman ahead 45-34 and after Duskin sank a pair from the line, Echols laid one in to make it a 49-37 game.

Jake Dorough and Bannister each hit a pair of free throws to stretch the lead to 53-42 with just under a minute to play and Echols split a pair of free throws in the final seconds to put the finishing touches on a 54-42 win for the Bearcats.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Bannister and Duskin each finished with 11 points in the win. Jake Dorough posted 10 and Nixon and Echols each added seven. Bannister and Dorough both earned all-tournament honors and Duskin was named tournament MVP.

Cullman will remain home to host a Sub-Regional matchup against Lee-Huntsville Saturday night.

No. 12 Auburn trounces No. 16 Alabama to earn share of SEC lead

Jeff Shearer
AU Athletics

AUBURN, Ala. – The SEC's only unbeaten team at home, No. 12 Auburn received 50 points from Jaylin Williams and Johni Broome to trounce No. 16 Alabama 99-81 Wednesday at Neville Arena, positioning the Tigers in first place in the conference standings.

Williams scored a career-high 26 points and Broome added 24. Tre Donaldson scored 14 and Chad Baker-Mazara added 13 to help Auburn improve to 12-0 at Neville Arena and 8-2 in SEC play. The Tigers joined Alabama, South Carolina and Tennessee in a crowded first-place tie with eight conference games remaining.

"We put ourselves in position where we're still in it," Auburn coach Bruce Pearl said. "We had an advantage on the inside with Jaylin Williams and Johni Broome. Defensively, I thought the kids did a phenomenal job with a very difficult scout. I thought our coaches did an outstanding job in the preparation. This game matters."

After camping overnight outside Neville Arena to assure their place in The Jungle, Auburn University students were in no hurry to depart after the game, serenading the visitors with a "Reverse Rammer Jammer" chorus and chanting "We love Bruce!" as Auburn's head coach conducted a post-game interview on ESPN2.

"The crowd was amazing," Pearl said. "The environment was tremendous. ESPN goes to a lot of great buildings and a lot of sellout crowds. This place is different."

Auburn shot a whopping 50 free throws, making a program-record 40. Williams, Broome and Baker-Mazara combined to shoot 26-of-32 from the line. Auburn committed only five turnovers while forcing 15.

"The fact that we turned the ball over only five times was really important," Pearl said. "We were pounding the ball inside and they were fouling us. Both teams played hard and physically."

Williams and Broome combined for 31 first-half points to give the Tigers a 14-point halftime lead, helping Auburn amass a 26-12 advantage in points in the paint.

"I knew they were going to try to play smaller," Williams said. "I knew I had to be patient and be more aggressive inside. Being patient inside, that's our game."

"Jaylin is great with his back to the basket," Pearl said.

"They were both able to score through contact. They're both unique because we were able to switch and guard Alabama's guards with our bigs. I think we have one of the better frontlines in our league. I think Jaylin Williams and Johni Broome could get some discussions about frontlines in the country right now."

Auburn made nine steals among 10 first-half Alabama turnovers, cashing in for a 15-2 lead in points off turnovers by committing only one in the half.

After Alabama erased Auburn's early 14-point lead, the Tigers built another one at the end of the half by making their final five shots, punctuated by Williams' windmill dunk.

K.D. Johnson ended the half by locking up the SEC's leading scorer, preventing Mark Sears from attempting a shot as the clock expired and the crowd erupted in approval.

Auburn blocked 11 shots and made 13 steals.

"That shows our rim protection," said Broome, who led Auburn with seven rebounds and five blocked shots. "When you have 11 blocked shots, you win the rebounding margin (42-35) and have less turnovers, it's hard to lose.

"That was a must-win. Our goal is to win the SEC. That was big that we were able to split with them. We've got to keep it going."

Sears compiled 25 points, nine rebounds and four assists for Alabama (16-7, 8-2).

Auburn (19-4, 8-2) travels to Gainesville, Florida, Saturday to play the Gators at 2:30 p.m. on SEC Network.

ZACH BLAND/AU ATHLETICS

Auburn's Jaylin Williams led the Tigers with a career-high 26 points in the Tigers' 99-81 win over Alabama Wednesday night.

Alabama Extension's Brodbeck appointed to national USDA council

Cole Sikes
Alabama Cooperative Extension System

AUBURN UNIVERSITY, Ala. — Beau Brodbeck, an Alabama Cooperative Extension System associate director for field operations, has been appointed to the National Urban and Community Forestry Advisory Council (NUCFAC) by Secretary of Agriculture Thomas Vilsack. Effective immediately, Brodbeck will serve as a voice for Extension not only in Alabama but throughout the entire country.

The NUCFAC is a United States Department of Agriculture council that is responsible for overseeing the progress and issues of urban and community forestry across the nation. It serves as subject expert counsel to the secretary of agriculture. Created by the 1990 Farm Bill out of necessity for the sustainability and future of the country's urban forests, this group of 15 members meets two to three times per year to discuss these national issues.

Background

Brodbeck's professional background in community forestry and experience as a specialist with Alabama Extension makes him an excellent addition to the council. For several years, his role with Alabama Extension included outreach activities in community forestry, forest mapping, tree risk assessment and chainsaw safety.

Brodbeck's applied research focuses on topics such as identifying barriers to arborist certification, understanding how Alabama communities address tree risk and — most recently — evaluating the intersections of homeowner's insurance and tree related liability.

"As Extension professionals, we connect stakeholders to research and researchers to stakeholders' needs and challenges," Brodbeck said. "In my role as an assistant director with a reach beyond traditional urban forestry programs, I hope to provide input from a variety of programmatic backgrounds, ranging from youth to human sciences."

He said he is excited to utilize his new position with Extension to learn more about community needs and how they fulfill them within council discussions.

"As a member of the NUCFAC, it is my hope to provide a voice for Extension professionals when framing funding and stakeholder needs in urban forestry," Brodbeck said.

Moving forward

The council hopes to continue making innovative, strategic and educated recommendations to the secretary of agriculture. Becky Barlow, Alabama Extension assistant director for agriculture, forestry and natural resource programming, said Brodbeck will help accomplish this goal with fresh perspectives.

"For many years, Beau has been an urban forestry leader in Alabama and on a national level," Barlow said. "Through his work as an Alabama Extension specialist in urban and community forestry, he has reached professionals and the public in Alabama and beyond. Not only has he developed a prominent Extension program, but he has also served as a leader on multiple community-forestry related boards. He also boasts a successful grants program that positively influences his Extension programming."

Community forestry is an integral part of today's natural resource management policies. Brodbeck and the advisory committee expect to develop the national 10-year urban forest action plan and identifying barriers and opportunities for expanding access, growth and better management of urban forests.

Valentine's Day - bottoms up!

Joe Hobby
Contributor

It was Valentine's Day 1973 and I had a big problem. What do I get my girlfriend? This was our first V-Day together, so there was certainly an expectation to give her a nice gift.

The second part of the problem involved finances. Since I was in college, I was living like so many other students do - in poverty. I spent each summer working long hours at a steel mill and saving every dime to use on my education. If I managed my money properly, it would get me to December. That's when my dad would do my taxes. A fast turnaround on my refund check meant I would have enough cash to last 'til the end of the school year. So February was always a little iffy for me.

Still, I had been dating Carol about six months, and I had to come up with something good. A syrupy card just wasn't gonna do. And roses were out of the question - the florists had already jacked the price of them so high that I would need a student loan to cover the purchase.

On Feb. 13, I felt the pressure building as I walked through the Woolco store with all the other procrastinating men, each one of us was praying for divine inspiration to pop out from a shelf. I crossed through the pet supply section on my way to the toy department where I would buy her a teddy bear - as cliché as it was. Then I saw the solution to my dilemma right between the dog chews and the kitty litter. It was personal, it was novel and it would remind her of me whenever she looked at it. A goldfish! In a matter of minutes I bought a fish, the bowl, a package of multicolored rocks and a small container of food. A bit of quick prep and I had what was going to be a great Valentine's Day present.

The next day I gave the gift to Carol. She absolutely loved it!

"You don't know this, but my favorite character in my favorite movie is Cleo, the little fish in Pinocchio!" she gushed. "I'm going to name it Cleo."

Then she gave me a hug and a quick kiss and said, "I'm going to take it up to my dorm room." Then she gave me a wink, and continued, "Pick me up in about an hour, and I'll give you your gift."

I basked in the afterglow as I drove back to the apartment. "Yes, indeed," I thought. "This is going to be a very good Valentine's Day for the kid."

I spent the next hour grooming myself properly, even adding an extra splash of Jade East cologne. We would probably go to Taco Bell for supper - after all, it was 19-cent burrito night. Then I would get my present!

I did a quick clean out of my Camaro, which meant I gathered up all the old Taco Bell wrappers and tossed them in the garbage. Next it was off to pick up Carol. I was smirking all the way over to the dorm thinking to myself, "Pinocchio - what a stroke of luck this was."

Instead, when Carol got in my car, I got a Valentine's Day surprise that was nothing like I'd hoped for. She shut the door and burst into tears. "You're not gonna believe what just happened," she bawled. "I had taken Cleo and put him in the window. Then I called everybody in to see the sweet gift that you gave me. There were about 10 people in my room talking about how cute he was. And that's when Cleo flipped up and floated to the top of the bowl. At first I thought he was doing a trick. But he never moved again. Cleo's dead!"

"Oh, I'm so sorry!" I said in as a sympathetic tone as I could muster. All the while I'm thinking, "That stupid goldfish has ruined it for me!"

"What did you do with him?" I asked.

"Well, we had a little memorial service and then I flushed him down the toilet," she said.

More bad news. There went my chance for a 79-cent refund on a dead goldfish. That would've bought four 19-cent burritos.

The mood was somber at Taco Bell. Despite my efforts, I couldn't cheer her up. Finally, I gave up and took her back to the dorm.

"Happy Valentine's Day", she said. Then she kissed me on the cheek and pulled out my gift from her purse. It was a syrupy card.

Guys, take my advice. If it's Feb. 13 and you're in Walmart to try to find a last-minute Valentine's Day gift, keep walking past the pet department until you get to the toys.

You can't kill a teddy bear.

CATA (from Front)

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman Area Technology Academy (CATA) will open its doors to prospective students and their families for an open house on Thursday, Feb. 15, from 4-6 p.m., providing them an opportunity to ask questions, meet instructors and get a feel for the school's available programs.

The demand for skilled trade workers has steadily grown over the last few years, according to the Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE), which reported that there are over a million employment opportunities nationwide in various trades. It said that currently, the hardest to fill jobs include skilled positions in transportation and utilities, with more than 315,000 jobs available in manufacturing.

"All CATA programs have the dual purpose of preparing students for life after high school as well as providing prepared workers for our local industries. No matter what your career aspirations may be, CATA has a place for you. Not only do students learn job-specific skills, but they also gain employability and leadership skills that translate across all career paths," said Principal Susan Powell. "All programs offer opportunities for students to leave with one or more work-ready credentials. In addition, many of our programs offer articulated credit with Wallace State for courses taken at CATA."

Many of the programs offered at CATA allow students to earn dual enrollment credits, giving participants a leg up and possibly the benefit of reduced training time for post-graduate education. Wallace State representatives will be on-site at the open house, offering assistance choosing programs that align with dual enrollment and answering questions about the college, training and even employment opportunities that await students after graduation.

A new program at CATA that is quickly gaining popularity is Educators in Training.

Interested future teachers and educators will learn teaching and classroom management practices in a controlled environment, gaining experience and first-hand knowledge as they get the opportunity to shadow teachers throughout Cullman County Schools.

Powell said she is a huge supporter of the new program, stating, "Students who are interested in teaching as a career can come to CATA and learn best practices for instructional strategies and how to develop a welcoming learning environment. As students progress in the program, they observe K-12 classrooms and learn from Cullman County's exceptional teachers. The goal of this program is to create an excellent foundation for students who want to pursue a career in education."

CATA programs include Auto Service Technology, Business, Carpentry, Collision Repair, Culinary Arts, Cosmetology, Engineering, Educators in Training, Health Sciences, Heating Ventilation and Air Conditioning (HVAC), Industrial Maintenance, Precision Machining, Utility Line Worker, Welding and Army Junior Reserves Training Corps.

The CATA Open House will be held on Thursday, Feb. 15, from 4-6 p.m. at the school. It is located at 17640 U.S. Highway 31 and can be reached by phone at 256-734-7740.

BILLY BOB'S STORIES AND STUFF

Fancy Nancy Joan

Bill King
Tribune
Contributor

She has been gone since 2011. That will be thirteen-years next week. She left us way too soon, and it seems like she's been gone forever. She was only 62 when she died. She always loved celebrating her birthdays. She celebrated her last one less than a week before she died. Her birthday was February 8th, and she left us on February 14th. Yes, she died on Valentine's Day. She was six-years-and-five-months older than me. She was my big sister. She was the only sister I had. She was my first playmate. I loved to tease her by calling her Fancy Nancy or Smancy Nancy, but most people just called her Joan. With her blond hair and blue eyes, she looked more like our father than any of us. Some even called her Little Oscar.

She was the third of four children born to Oscar and Nell King. According to our mother, she was supposed to be the last one. I am so thankful things don't always go as planned! She was the only girl, so needless to say, growing up she was somewhat of a tomboy. She was never the best in the world at climbing trees, but she wasn't that bad at backyard basketball, badminton, softball, and even football. She fed me mudpies in our playhouse. She liked dogs, but she loved cats.

By the time I was old enough to begin school, our older brothers were grown and gone. So, it was pretty much Sis and me, until she married and left home when I was about twelve.

It was Sis who taught me how to speak clearly. Hardly anyone could understand half of what I said until I was about seven.

Since we didn't have a speech pathologist at my school, my sister became mine. Somehow, she knew what to do and worked with me until we fixed the problem. I haven't shut up since then! My life has been filled with speaking, preaching, storytelling, and singing. You still may not understand what I'm trying to say, but thanks to Sis, it's not because of my pronunciation or enunciation.

Although my sister never learned to play any musical instrument, she was the one who gave me my first love of music. She constantly listened to the radio and we played "Who sang that song?" In the early days of rock-and-roll, she knew them all. She and I had a small collection of records... mostly 45s but a few albums as well. We almost wore our record-player needle down to a nub. She was always my encourager when I was learning to play guitar. She tried to name the tunes I played, even though they weren't quite as recognizable as those on the radio.

She taught me about sports, especially football. Once she was old enough to drive, she took us to football games. We always stopped by our Dairy King where she bought me burgers and shakes. She gave me my first football for Christmas one year. She wrapped it so that it looked like a log instead of a football. I almost drove myself crazy, as well as her, trying to guess what was in that package.

After she married, her husband worked night shifts, so I spent the night with her often. We would sit up half the night listening to music, playing rummy and board games, or putting together jigsaw puzzles.

Sickness may have taken her away, but nothing has taken away those wonderful memories of my time with her. I'm not sure they celebrate birthdays in heaven, but just in case, happy birthday big Sis!

Bill King can be reached at bkpreach@yahoo.com or 334-745-0588 (office).

POET'S CORNER

Jenny Kiss'd Me | By: Leigh Hunt, 1784-1859

"Jenny kiss'd me when we met,

Jumping from the chair she sat in;Time, you thief, who love to get

Sweets into your list, put that in!

Say I'm weary, say I'm sad,

Say that health and wealth have miss'd me,

Say I'm growing old, but add,

Jenny kiss'd me."
