South Vinemont to appoint new council member

Cheyenne Sharp
cheyenne@cullmantribune.com

VINEMONT, Ala. — Vinemont Councilwoman Charlotte Cosper resigned, effective immediately, at the council's April meeting, leaving place 3 open. On Monday, June 3, the council will hold a special-called meeting at 6 p.m. to hear nominations to fill the vacancy.

So far, four residents – Ross Campbell, Michael Ashbaugh, Grady Malone and Jerry Smith – have expressed interest in the position. Nominations will be accepted until the council appoints the new council person June 3.

Campbell, a lifelong resident of the municipality, has seen the growth of the area over his lifetime. His bid for the council comes from a willingness to "be a part of it moving forward and do my part."

Malone, a retired U.S. Army sergeant, currently works in building inspection in Madison and moved to Vinemont from Blountsville later in life. He said he plans to bring his » PAGE 7

tance of Memorial Day.

"As a veteran, I am deeply humbled to stand before you, representing the countless individuals who answered the call of duty throughout our nation's history," he said.

"Each one of them, from the fields of Gettysburg to the mountains of Afghanistan, gave everything they had to protect the freedoms we hold dear."

Dutton continued, "Memorial Day is more than just a day off from work, or a chance to enjoy a barbecue with family and friends.

"It's a sacred day, a day to honor the selflessness, courage and sacrifice of those who never made it home.

"It's a day to remember the families left behind, who carry the weight of their loved one's absence every single day."

A wreath was presented at the center of Cullman Veterans Memorial Park, honoring those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

The act of presenting a wreath on Memorial Day is a time-honored tradition that symbolizes remembrance and respect for those fallen.

It serves as a powerful reminder of the bravery and selflessness of those who have given their lives for their country.

Dutton continued by reflecting on what Memorial Day means to those who have served.

"For those of us who have served, Memorial Day holds a special significance.

"It's a day for us to pay tribute to our fallen comrades, honor their memory and carry forth their legacy – to reflect on the true cost of freedom and recommit ourselves to upholding the values in which they fought and died for," Dutton stated.

Nestled in the corners of the pavilion were hand-woven red poppies, also known as Remembrance Poppies, symbolizing the bloodshed of war and those lost in them.

These poppies serve as a strong reminder of the everlasting gift given through the sacrifice of the brave men and women who gave their lives.

With "Taps" played as veterans stood in salute of their fallen kin, and many words shared befitting of the memories of those no longer here, the ceremony approached its end. Dutton concluded the ceremony with a final word.

"As we gather at memorials and cemeteries across the country today, let us not only mourn the loss of those who have gone before us, but also draw inspiration from their example.

"Let us be reminded of the power of unity, resilience and unwavering dedication to a cause greater than ourselves. Let us honor the memory of our fallen heroes not just with words, but by living lives worthy of their sacrifices and by ensuring that their memories will never be forgotten. Thank you, and God bless the United States."

Each year the VFW and DAV hold ceremonies throughout Cullman as a way to remember those who lost their lives and those veterans still here today.

ONTO OKC! Alabama Softball headed to its 15th Women's College World Series

Nathan Sheehan
UA Athletics

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – For the 15th time in program history, Alabama softball will be heading to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City after defeating Tennessee, 4-1, Sunday in a winner-take-all game three in the Knoxville Super Regional round.

Alabama will open play at the Women's College World Series Thursday, May 30 against No. 6 seed UCLA at 11 a.m. on ESPN.

The series win is Alabama's (38-18) 13th in the Super Regional era but just its second on the road, having previously defeated Texas A&M in two games in College Station in 2005, the first year of the current postseason format. Third-ranked Tennessee (44-12) is the highest seed the Crimson Tide has defeated in Super Regionals and it marks the fourth time Alabama has rallied from a game one loss to take the series, previously doing so against Stanford (2011), Oklahoma (2015) and Northwestern (2023).

With two out in the top of the first, a Kenleigh Cahalan single followed by a pair of hit-by-pitches loaded the bases for Riley Valentine, who sent the second pitch of her at-bat over the fence in left for a grand slam to give the Tide the early 4-0 lead.

Before the start of the bottom half of the inning, lightning in the area forced a nearly three-hour rain delay before play resumed. Upon resumption, Jocelyn Briski (10-5) and the Tide defense held the Lady Vol offense at bay, taking the 4-0 lead into the bottom of the seventh.

The SEC regular season champions didn't go down quietly, putting two in scoring position before a bunt single drove in a run to erase the shutout.

Later with two on and one out, Kayla Beaver entered in relief and a hit-by-pitch loaded the bases. A popup in foul territory went for out number two before a ground-out to Cahalan at short ended the game.

Briski threw 6.1 innings with just one run allowed on four hits to earn the win while Beaver secured the final two outs for her fifth save of the season. Cahalan was 3-for-3 batting at the cleanup spot, while Valentine's four RBIs tied her season high, all coming off her second grand slam of the season.

From Head Coach Patrick Murphy

"The word for me the last few weeks has been 'redemption'. We had our first losing season in SEC play in 28 years. I kept preaching to the team that the best was yet to come.

"We had to believe it and that belief started with me. One day at practice everybody said one thing they were going to do to help the team win down the stretch. Mine was to have a short-term memory. I tend to dwell so I committed to it that day. The team bought in too.

"Now we're heading to our 15th Women's College World Series. I said last year was my most gratifying year but I have to say it again this year.

"I could not be happier for our team, the University and our athletic department. A lot of Alabama Softball fans weren't sure about this year but the true fans stuck with us."

From Graduate Pitcher Kayla Beaver

"I can't even describe this feeling right now. I can't be prouder of everybody on this team. This moment was something I had dreamt of and I get to do it with my sisters. Going out there in the seventh, I knew the defense had my back and I just had to trust myself, Lance [McMahon], Murph and everyone. They had confidence in me so I had no reason not to have confidence in myself. I couldn't do what I do without them."

'The community will always have your back': Cold Springs' Josh Winfrey reflects on Eagle years

sammy@cullmantribune.com

BREMEN, Ala. — Cold Springs' senior Josh Winfrey played multiple sports in high school and had a great career. He talked about one of his favorite memories, plus some of his favorite awards. He had a blast playing with so many great players and learned some important things from a couple of them.

"My favorite memory playing sports is winning area last baseball season. We were the first team in thirty years at Cold Springs to win area. My favorite awards during my time playing sports were being All-County four times in three different sports," Winfrey said. "During my career, I played with many great players. Playing baseball with Brodee Bartlett helped me become a better player and teammate. Playing football with Matt Williams taught me to never give up and to keep on pushing. Whenever I needed help with something, they were always there to encourage me to be great."

Winfrey said he played for some great coaches over the years and he took away so much from them.

"One of the best coaches I've ever had is coach Voce. He's a great person to be around. He will never give up on us, no matter how bad a game or practice is. He knows how great we can be. He pushes us to be the best we can be. What I learned from him is to always put the team first before yourself, and to never lay on the field, no matter how bad you're hurting, because you will be letting your team down and the fans that paid money to come watch you play," he said.

"Another one of my favorite coaches is coach Chafin. He will always put the team first over anything. If someone needs a new bat or a new glove, he will buy it out of his own pocket. I learned a lot from him in the past five years. He taught me the right way to bat and helped me with my swing. I am forever grateful for the great coaches I have had during my sports career."

Winfrey will miss a lot about playing sports at Cold Springs. There was a special game that he was a part of that he will never forget and felt so blessed to get to play in front of a great and special crowd.

"I will always remember the great memories and the unbreakable bonds playing at Cold Springs. I will miss all of my coaches that have taught me so many different things throughout the years. I will also miss playing alongside all of my classmates, and especially Matt Williams," he said.

"One of my favorite games that I was a part of was the 2023 homecoming football game. The atmosphere of the community was like a dream. The fans were cheering and standing up the whole time. Playing in front of the crowd at Cold Springs will always be one of my greatest memories. The community will always have your back, no matter how good or bad you are playing.

"No matter how big or how loud the crowd is, I will always be grateful for everyone that is there supporting."

He made some great high school memories during his time as an Eagle. Cold Springs will always have a special place in his heart. He will remember a couple of great things about being there but will deeply miss being an Eagle next year.

"My favorite high school memories are getting to go to school to see all of your classmates and to make new friends," he said.

"Cold Springs is a special place to me, because everyone is treated as a family. The community of Cold Springs might be little, but the way everyone supports each other makes it huge.

"I will always remember the great memories I have made going to Cold Springs and the many friends I made. I will miss all of my teachers I have made throughout my time at Cold Springs and especially my classmates."

He gave some advice to the students that will be starting high school in August, plus he talked about being a role model for a lot of younger players and students.

"Some advice to the students that will be starting high school in August is to never be scared of what anyone says about you. Participate in all that you can: sports, cheer, band, and other activities. Try putting yourself out there to make friends and unbeatable bonds.

"Never take time for granted, because as soon as you think you have all the time in the world, it will all be over in the blink of an eye. I want to say good luck to all of the upcoming high schoolers. Just remember the sky is the limit, so if you dream to become something or someone one day, never give up on your dream."

He added, "It is very important to be a role model to the younger athletes/students, because growing up, everyone need a role model to push them to be great and to achieve their dreams.

"My role model is my dad. He has taught me everything I know. He introduced sports to me when I was only two years ago, and I have loved competing ever since. He pushes me to be a great leader, on and off the field, because he knows what I'm capable of.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

Cold Springs senior Josh Winfrey

"He is the most hard-working man I have ever met, and I hope, one day, I can be half the man that he is."

He was in a couple of clubs in high school and learned so much from that experience. He learned a lot about yourself during his high school days and gave some advice to those people that want to be where he's at right now.

"Throughout high school, I have been a FCCLA member for three years and an FFA member for three years as well. That experience was great. In FCCLA, I learned how to cook, sew, and plan events. In FFA, I learned how to build things, plant crops, and weld," he said.

"I learned that my mind might tell me to give up and to not go anymore, but I never stop going. To the athletes and students that are wanting to make something out of themselves, never give up on yourself. Always push yourself to your max limit, and when you push yourself to that, keep going."

Birmingham-Southern College celebrates final commencement ceremony

Tucker Carden
Contributor

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Birmingham-Southern College held its final commencement ceremony on Friday, May 24, in Bill Battle Coliseum, celebrating 245 members of the Class of 2024 and awarding eight honorary degrees, one of which was a surprise to the honoree.

Each speaker – including Board of Trustees Chair Rev. Keith Thompson '83 and 16th President Daniel B. Coleman – referenced the tenacity resilience this class has demonstrated from its first days on campus at the peak of the pandemic to the last 18 months of uncertainty about the College's future.

"Do not tell me that today's young people do not have the grit of previous generations," said Coleman. "I give you the last class of Birmingham-Southern College – a class that embodies the ideals of the College, ideals held for 168 years. I give you the Class of 2024."

Honorary degrees

Honorary degrees, which are voted upon by the faculty, were conferred on eight people, including three elected officials who worked tirelessly to save BSC. (Comments from BSC Provost Dr. Laura K. Stultz are in quotations below.)

• Sen. James T. Waggoner, Jr. '60, who has distinguished himself as a member of the Alabama Legislature, serving in both the House of Representatives and, since 1990, the Alabama Senate. "Over the last two years, his longtime loyalty to the College has been especially evident in his heroic efforts to secure funding that would have ensured BSC's future. "

• Sen. Rodger Mell Smitherman, who is serving his fifth term as an Alabama state senator. "He represents the district in which BSC resides, leads the Jefferson County Legislative delegation and has been a tireless champion of the College, especially during the last two years."

• Birmingham Mayor Randall L. Woodfin, "whose vision for what Birmingham is - and what this city can be -- has brought vitality and progress to the Magic City. His appreciation for the value of having an excellent liberal arts college within the city led him to join the effort to save Birmingham-Southern, leading to an infusion of funding that allowed us to stay open through spring 2024."

Rev. Thompson, senior pastor at Canterbury United Methodist Church, and Joelle James Phillips '89 of Nashville, vice chair of the BSC board recently retired after 10 years as president of AT&T Tennessee, also received honorary doctorates in recognition of their professional accomplishments and their leadership and service to BSC.

Dr. Guy Ward Hubbs, Professor Emeritus of Library Science and the College's archivist from 1999-2015, received an honorary doctorate in recognition of his devotion to documenting the history of the College from its earliest beginnings through its impending closure. His work ensures that the story of Birmingham-Southern College will be available to future generations of historians.

Dr. Robert J. Lerer of Cincinnati, Ohio, is a graduate of BSC and an honors graduate of Johns Hopkins University Medical School who has been named a Distinguished Alumnus by both institutions. He served as commissioner of public health in Cincinnati for 42 years while practicing and teaching pediatrics at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. "During the pandemic, he provided guidance and support to BSC that allowed the College to safely provide in-person instruction when most colleges were fully remote. In retirement, he continues to travel the world delivering medical supplies and providing compassionate care in places where both are desperately needed. He receives this honorary doctorate in absentia, as he is in Cuba delivering a lecture to primary care providers."

An honorary doctorate was awarded to the late Anne Liles Berte, "BSC's longest-serving and deeply loved First Lady who passed away in December 2023. A graduate of the University of Cincinnati, where she met her future husband, President Emeritus Dr. Neal Berte, in the library. Her name is and will rightly remain as closely associated with Birmingham-Southern College as is Dr. Berte's, for they served the College side-by-side for nearly three decades. A warm and gracious presence, Mrs. Berte made an impact on the life of everyone she met, especially our students, many of whom found a surrogate mother at the President's Home, where she raised her own four children."

A surprise honorary degree

To his surprise, Coleman also received an honorary doctorate. A graduate of Yale University and the University of Chicago, he spent more than 30 years in executive roles in the global finance industry in New York and Chicago before returning to his hometown of Birmingham in 2017. In December 2018, he became BSC's 16th President.

"From that day through this one, his commitment to our College has never wavered," Thompson said. "Having inherited a daunting situation not of his own making, he persisted, day after day, believing to his core that Birmingham and Alabama and indeed the world needed BSC.

"His deep devotion to the students, faculty, and staff has been evident at every turn. And his example of leadership has delivered the most important lesson we will all take away from our time on the Hilltop: Find a fight worth fighting and then give it everything you have. When you do, no matter the outcome, you will have served with honor."

The Class of 2024

Some 245 degrees were conferred, including 75 Bachelor of Arts degrees, three Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees, and 145 Bachelor of Science degrees.

Additional recognition was given to the following students:

• Robert Hewlin Jackson Meritorious Scholarship Award: Marylise Adelaide Bridges, Chandler Frazier Campbell, AnnaRuth Dorris Davis and Zachary Hagan Roberts

• Robert Hewlin Jackson Achievement Award: Conner Lee Thornburg

• Donald C. Harrison Honors Program Senior Scholars: Marylise Adelaide Bridges and Zachary Hagan Roberts

• Distinction In Leadership Studies: Chandler Frazier Campbell, Chloe Faith Carignan Grant Thomas Ezekiel, Isabella Renee Furgason, Angela Matthews Jackson, Cade Sabastian Marino, Emily Hope Parvin and Lillian Taylor Williamson.

• Distinction In Poverty Studies: Lydia Glenn Eleanor Estes, Lindsey Noelle Hitchcock and Trey Alexander Lemmo

• Distinction In Black Studies: Matthew Lafayette Dale

Dr. Jessica Yeakle Allen, assistant professor of psychology, was named Outstanding Educator of the Year.

Commencement speakers were Associate Professor of Psychology Dr. Greta Valenti and Willliam Graham Spencer '16, Managing Director of EAB, a Washington, D.C.-based education consulting company. Spencer delivered a welcome to graduates on behalf of the BSC alumni community.

Alabama's Free Fishing Day takes place June 8

Ala. Dept. of Conservation and Natural Resources

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — On Saturday, June 8, 2024, Alabamians and out-of-state visitors alike will have the opportunity to fish for free in most public waters including both freshwater and saltwater. Free Fishing Day allows residents and non-residents to enjoy the outstanding fishing Alabama has to offer without purchasing a fishing license. The event is part of National Fishing and Boating Week, which runs June 1-9.

"Free Fishing Day is the perfect opportunity for anyone who has never experienced casting a line to give it a try," said Chris Blankenship, commissioner of the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (ADCNR).

"Fishing provides many mental and physical health benefits as well as access to a sustainable, healthy source of protein.

"It's also a great way for families to spend time together outdoors. We encourage anyone with an interest in fishing to take advantage of this outdoor recreation opportunity."

Free Fishing Day takes place during Alabama's red snapper season. Saltwater anglers will not need a saltwater fishing license or reef fish endorsement on June 8.

AMY SIMMONS

Fishing license and reef fish endorsement requirements will be in effect for the remainder of the year.

Alabama's State Public Fishing Lakes still require a fishing permit on Free Fishing Day, and fishing in a private pond requires the pond owner's permission. Some piers may also require fees and permits. Anglers looking for a new public fishing spot are encouraged to explore the fishing section of www.outdooralabama.com.

"You cannot accomplish the mission unless we are all holding hands and leading the way," Malone said.

"You either succeed as a team or you fail as individuals."

Ashbaugh, having lived in Vinemont for more than two decades, brings business and engineering experience to the council through his degrees and past careers.

Ashbaugh is now retired and hopes to put his free time to use and working with and helping the town.

Smith, a former Vinemont council member who ran for Place 5 in 2020 is once again up for consideration to hold a council seat.

The retired Army lieutenant has led a very active civic and philanthropic life, serving on various boards and committees, such as the Department of Human Resources Committee and Cullman County's Solid Waste Committee.

Smith said his statement made in 2020 still rings true: "My vast experience in business, civic and financial affairs qualifies me to work for the betterment and advancement of South Vinemont."

Nominations and applications will be accepted at Vinemont Town Hall until an appointment to the council is made.

What an experience at the Cotton Row 5K!

Lauren Estes
lauren@cullmantribune.com

For Memorial Day, several of my gym fitness friends and myself ventured to the Cotton Row 5K in Huntsville.

What an experience!

The 5K event featured 1,257 finishers in the race. Several friends and I also completed the race.

Fairview teachers Whitney Haynes and Leslie Arnold, as well as track athlete Jack Haynes, business owner Kennedy Daniel and multifaceted athlete Jack McGee all competed.

We enjoyed representing our awesome community in a neighboring city.

Haynes finished first in her 35-39 age group with a time of 24:30.

I (Lauren Estes) finished third in my age group of 30-34 with a time 23:36.

We cannot wait to join in on this race again next year!

The Cotton Row Run features a 10K, 5K and 1-mile running option.

For 44 years, the Cotton Row Run has been the premier Memorial Day running event in the South that honors fallen military members who sacrificed their lives for our freedom!

Runners pass through a living memorial flag line that commemorates fallen warriors whose family members live in North Alabama.

Proceeds from the race benefit Gold Star Families, Snowball Express, Gold Star Moms and other charities in the community. The Cotton Row Run is conducted by the Huntsville Track Club. (https://runsignup.com/Race/AL/Huntsville/CottonRowRun)

It is with earthly sorrow but Heavenly joy that we announce the everlasting life of Helen Faye White Williams. Helen went Home to the Lord on Friday, May 24, 2024, surrounded by love at Falkville Health and Rehab in Morgan County. Helen was born on December 1, 1926, to Clyde Kent and Cora Belle Easterwood White.
