Lindsey, Taylor, Rutherford named principals at Hanceville, Fairview

Staff Reports
Contributor

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman County Schools Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette is recommending Michael Lindsey as the first principal of Hanceville Primary School and Troy Taylor as the new principal of Hanceville Elementary School. Barnette is also recommending Erica Rutherford as the new principal of Fairview Elementary School.

Lindsey will be responsible for grades PreK-2. He is a National Board Certified Educator with 26 years of experience and is currently the principal of West Point Elementary School. According to Cullman County Schools, he has a deep commitment to student success and a strong belief in the power of relationships.

Cullman's Brian Fortenberry honored in national BBQ competition

CULLMAN, Ala. — Brian Fortenberry of Fortenberry Farms in Cullman, received an unexpected but thrilling honor recently when he was invited by National BBQ News Magazine to participate in the prestigious 2025 Sauces of Honor competition — an international search for the most versatile barbecue sauces for chicken, pork, beef and seafood.

Competing against 125 sauce entries from across the United States, Canada and England, and among a staggering 741 teams across five divisions, Fortenberry was overjoyed to hear his name announced live online as the 5th Place Overall Winner in the seafood category. His award-winning creation — The Fortenberry Farms Original Orange Treat BBQ Sauce — is a citrus-infused blend with deep family roots.

"It started over 40 years ago with my mother, Edith Fortenberry, and her prized family sauce recipes," Fortenberry shared. "She loved experimenting with fruit to create sauces that enhanced barbecue in a way that traditional sauces couldn't." For decades, Edith Fortenberry kept her recipes under wraps, eventually sharing them with her son — thanks to the encouragement of staff at her nursing facility who had tasted and loved the sauces themselves.

One of those early recipes — now the celebrated Orange Treat sauce — has been quietly simmering in competitions for six years. "I always called it a sleeper sauce," said Fortenberry. "It may have been ahead of its time, but it pairs beautifully » PAGE 5

Good Hope's season ends at North Regional; Meek, Addison compete at East Regional

Nick Griffin, Sammy Confer
Contributors

FLORENCE, Ala. — The Good Hope Raiders secured an area championship last week and they were back on the field Tuesday morning at the 4A North Regional Tournament at Coffee O'Neal Park in Florence. The Raiders got the day started with an 11-1 win over Dora and in their second matchup of the day against Hamilton, Good Hope jumped out to an early lead, but the Aggies came from behind to defeat the Raiders 3-2. Good Hope returned to the field to continue playing Wednesday, starting with an elimination game against Cordova. The score was knotted at 2 going into the bottom of the seventh inning and the Blue Devils walked it off to defeat the Raiders 3-2, bringing their season to an end at 24-13-1.

Meanwhile at the 1A East Regional in Albertville, the Meek Tigers and Addison Bulldogs were continuing their postseason runs. Meek handled Jacksonville Christian 15-2 in its first game of the day, but Addison fell into the losers' bracket with a 9-2 loss to Spring Garden. The Bulldogs faced Appalachian in an elimination game next and their season came to an end with a 19-7 loss to the Eagles. The Tigers dropped their next game with Ider 13-1 and will back on the field Thursday at 9 a.m. to play Appalachian.

Good Hope 11 – Dora 1 (Tuesday)

Lizzy Steed led off the bottom of the first with a triple into center field and Kylee Smith drove her in with a sacrifice fly to give the Raiders took a 1-0 lead. After a scoreless second inning, Good Hope lit up the scoreboard in the bottom of the third.

Maggie O'Neil drew a leadoff walk and back to back singles from Steed and Smith loaded the bases. A few pitches later, Campbell Koch knocked a 2-run single into left field to make it a 3-0 game and Haley Lay followed with an RBI double to make it 4-0. Molly Benefield kept the momentum going with a 2-run double to left field, stretching the lead to 6-0 and two pitches later, an RBI single off the bat of Natalie Miller gave Good Hope a 7-0 lead. Later in the inning, Steed drove a 2-run double to left field to put the Raiders ahead 9-0 and Smith capped things off with another RBI single to make it 10-0 going into the fourth.

The Bulldogs pushed one run across in the top of the fourth to trim the lead to 10-1 but after a scoreless fifth inning, Good Hope wrapped things up in the bottom of the sixth. A leadoff triple from Smith put the winning run on third base and after a single from Koch put runners on the corners, Gracie Bates singled to score Smith and secure an 11-1 win for the Raiders.

Benefield got the start and earned the win after pitching three scoreless innings, allowing just one hit and striking out six batters. Calleigh Granger pitched the final three innings, allowing one run on three hits and striking out two. At the plate, Smith and Steed each posted three hits and a pair of RBIs. Benefield and Koch each finished with two and two RBIs as well.

Hamilton 3 – Good Hope 2 (Tuesday)

Lizzy Steed and Kylee Smith led off the bottom of the first with back to back singles and later in the inning, Molly Benefield drove them both in to score with a single to center field, giving the Raiders a 2-0 lead going into the second. Both starting pitchers dominated most of the game after that. Good Hope and Hamilton combined for just three hits over the next four innings, but the Aggies were able to break through and score three runs in the top of the sixth to pull ahead 3-2.

The Raiders were unable to answer the late push from Hamilton and the Aggies held on to defeat Good Hope 3-2.

Steed led the Raiders with three hits in the loss. Benefield (two RBIs), Smith and Haley Lay each added a hit as well.

Cordova 3 – Good Hope 2 (Wednesday)

Both teams got off to a slow start in this one but after a pair of scoreless innings, the Raiders took the lead in the top of the third. Brooklyn Lambert led off the inning with a single and after a sacrifice bunt from Maggie O'Neil moved her to second base, Lizzy Steed followed with a single that allowed Lambert to score and make it 1-0. Later in the inning, another single from Campbell Koch drove in Steed and gave Good Hope a 2-0 lead going into the fourth.

Cordova loaded the bases in the bottom of the fourth and tied the game with a 2-run single. The Raiders' defense came up with a double play on the next pitch to get out of the inning with any further damage. Good Hope loaded the bases in the top of the sixth but was unable to capitalize on the scoring opportunity and the game remained tied at 2 going into the final frame. The Raiders made two quick outs in the bottom of the seventh, but a pair of Blue Devils were able to reach base and Cordova walked it off with a single to claim a 3-2 win and bring Good Hope's season to an end.

NICK GRIFFIN/THE CULLMAN TRIBUNE

The Good Hope Raiders split their first two games with Dora and Hamilton at the North Regional Tournament in Florence on Tuesday and fell to Cordova on Wednesday.

Molly Benefield pitched 6.2 innings, allowing six hits, no earned runs and striking out four. Steed and Kylee Smith each posted a pair of hits in the loss. Koch finished with a hit and an RBI and Lambert, Natalie Miller, Addyson Burgess and Haley Lay each added a hit as well.

Meek 15 – Jacksonville Christian 2 (East Regional)

The Thunder led off the top of the first with a solo home run to take an early lead but they didn't hold onto it for long. In the bottom half of the first, an RBI double from Anna Collins drove in Camryn Daughtery to tie the game at 1. After Sadi Farley drew a walk, Kadence Cox lined a 2-run single into center field to put the Tigers in front 3-1 and two pitches later, an RBI single from Amori Miles made it a 4-1 game going into the second.

An RBI triple off the bat of Molli Sandlin gave Meek a 5-1 lead in the bottom of the second and Collins added another RBI single to make it 6-1. Back to back singles from Farley and Cox loaded the bases and a 2-run single from Miles put the Tigers ahead 8-1 going into the third. RBI singles from Sandlin and Collins extended the lead to 10-1 in the bottom of the third and a sacrifice fly from Farley drove in Sandlin to make it 11-1. Miles capped the inning with an RBI double to make it a 12-1 game going into the fourth.

Meek strung together four hits to plate three more runs in the bottom of the fourth and wrapped up a 15-2 win in the top of the fifth inning.

Collins, Miles and Sandlin each recorded three hits and three RBIs in the win. Daughtery (one RBI), Farley (two RBIs) and Cox (two RBIs) each posted a pair of hits as well.

Ider 13 – Meek 1 (East Regional)

Ider jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning and hits were hard to come by for the Tigers in this one. The Hornets added another run in the second to make it 3-0 and after a pair of scoreless innings, Ider tacked on three more runs in the fifth to pull ahead 6-0. The Hornets plated two more runs in the sixth and five more in the seventh to make it a 13-0 game.

Singles from Camryn Daughtery and Sadi Farley gave the Tigers a pair of runners in the bottom of the seventh and Kadence Cox drew a walk to load the bases. Anna Collins scored on a fielder's choice to trim the lead to 13-1 but they couldn't chip away any more than that and the Tigers fell to the Hornets 13-1.

Daughtery, Farley and Amori Miles (one RBI) each recorded a hit in the loss.

Spring Garden 9 – Addison 2 (East Regional)

Spring Garden hit a pair of RBI singles in the bottom of the first inning to take an early 2-0 lead. The Lady Panthers added two more runs in their next at-bats to stretch their lead to 4-0, and an RBI triple in the bottom of the third made it 5-0. Addison got on the scoreboard in the top of the fourth inning. Annabeth Powell hit a leadoff triple and stole home three pitches later to cut it to 5-1. Spring Garden put up three more runs in the bottom of the fourth to take an 8-1 lead.

Addison put a pair of runners on bases on a pair of errors to lead off the top of the fifth. Two outs later, Mackenzie Carter hit the first pitch she saw into right field for an RBI single to trim the deficit to 8-2. The Lady Panthers made it 9-2 in their half on a two-out RBI triple. Addison put a pair of runners on the corners with one out in the top of the seventh, but they couldn't get anything going after that, and Spring Garden defeated the Lady Bulldogs 9-2.

Carter finished with a pair of hits and an RBI for Addison, while Powell and Katie Barrett each chipped in with a hit of their own in the loss.

Appalachian 19 – Addison 7 (East Regional)

Both teams traded runs to start out the game. A pair of RBI singles by Appalachian gave them a 2-0 lead in their opening at-bats. Annabeth Powell hit a two-out triple for Addison, then Kaycie Wood drew a walk to put runners on the corners. An error on the next pitch allowed Powell to score to cut it to 2-1, then Savannah Miller's RBI single plated Wood to tie things up at two. The Lady Eagles put up two runs in the second and third innings to break the tie and take a 6-2 lead.

The Lady Bulldogs cut into the deficit in their next at-bats. Lainey Evans and Powell hit back-to-back one-out singles, and one out later, Miller drove them both in on a two-run single up the middle to trim the deficit to 6-4. Miller later scored on an error to make it a one-run game. Appalachian broke the game wide open in the top of the fourth. They batted around and ended up scoring eight runs to put them ahead 14-5. The Lady Eagles added two more runs in the fifth to take a 16-5 lead. Miller and Katie Barrett each scored on an error in the Lady Bulldog half of the fifth to cut it to 16-7, but Appalachian scored three more times in the top of the sixth inning to give them a 19-7 lead. Addison couldn't get a rally going in their half of the inning and their season came to an end at the hands of the Lady Eagles 19-7.

Miller led the way for the Lady Bulldogs with a pair of hits and three RBIs. Powell and Barrett each added a pair of hits, while Mackenzie Carter, Lainey Evans, Summer Evans and Preslei Atkins all chipped in with a hit of their own in the loss.

PREP BASEBALL PLAYOFFS

No. 3 Addison preparing for semifinal series at No.2 Hackleburg

Nick Griffin
nick@cullmantribune.com

ADDISON, Ala. — The Addison Bulldogs (27-9) took care of business last week, sweeping Lynn (12-1, 11-6) to advance to the state semifinals for the first time in 30 years. Now, they'll travel to Hackleburg to play the Panthers (29-7) on Thursday with a trip to the state championship game on the line. The Bulldogs have played Hackleburg twice this season, dropping their first matchup in February 4-1 and defeating the Panthers in their second meeting in April 6-5.

No. 3 Addison at No. 2 Hackleburg (Class 1A Semifinals)

- Game One: Thursday at 5 p.m.
- Game Two: Thursday at 7 p.m.
- Game Three: Friday at 5 p.m. (if necessary)

ADDISON HEAD COACH LEE WILLIAMS

On the challenges of facing Hackleburg again,

"They are well coached. They have several good pitchers that will challenge us to be solid at the plate and make us have to put the ball in play," Williams said. "We will have to play well defensively, and our pitchers must keep from walking guys. They seem to be hitting the ball well so all those aspects must be solidified for us to have a chance to win this series."

On where his team is playing well and how he wants them to approach this series,

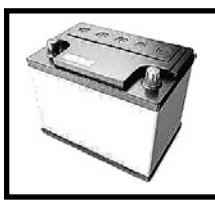

"Our team has hit the ball well over the first three rounds. These players have played loose and are having fun. I want them to continue that into this series and enjoy the game," Williams said. "We must continue to put runs on the board to help our pitchers. We need to make sure we continue to keep errors and walks from beating us. We do those things as it gives us every opportunity to win this series."

On building on the success of last season and putting together a deep playoff run,

"Proud is an understatement. I couldn't be prouder of a group of guys that have bonded, stayed close and reached the goals that they wanted when the season began," Williams said. "This team was disappointed on how last season ended and they have showed that by the work they have put in to be where they are right now. As a coach you always want to see your players succeed and I'm enjoying watching the success of not only these seniors but this team as whole. They are some of the most amazing young men that love each other and play every game for each other."

Baileyton council recognizes student athlete, sets dates for events

Katie Spicer

BAILEYTON, Ala. — The Baileyton Town Council meeting was called to order by Mayor Windell Calloway and opened with an invocation by Councilman Dewayne Sumner on Monday, May 5, 2025.

The first resident to receive special recognition from the mayor and town council was Paxton Plourd. Plourd is a student at Parkside School and represented his school in the Elks National Hoop Shoot.

After competing against athletes across the nation in Chicago on April 26, he brought home the gold in the 8/9-year-old boys' division. Plourd made 25/25 free throws – a perfect score.

Mayor Calloway recognized Plourd with a plaque on behalf of the Town, stating, "This is a national champion. The only one we've ever had!"

In other business, the council discussed the Local Government Health Insurance Program.

Discussion covered what benefits and costs would be available to Town employees.

Sumner asked that the matter be tabled until further research could be conducted and Councilman Benny Guthrie requested the Town's lawyer be given all gathered information to advise the council on the best course of action for both the Town and individuals.

Upcoming town events:

- May will see two Bargain Days events: May 3 and May 17
- Latham Horse Show set for July 18-19, 2025
- Tree trimming and moving along town roadways is expected to occur throughout the month

The next town council meeting date will be Monday, June 2, at 7 p.m. at Baileyton Town Hall, located at 95 Fire Station Road.

Holly Pond Town Council meeting notes: May 5, 2025

HOLLY POND, Ala. — At its Monday, May 5, meeting, the Holly Pond Town Council approved the minutes and financial report from last month's meeting before moving on to committee updates, including plans for new landscaping near the event center, ongoing streetlight and sign repairs and preparations to request paving bids for several roads.

Safety concerns were discussed regarding a repeatedly damaged stop sign, with what the council said were continued delays in replacement from the County.

Weather-related scheduling changes were acknowledged at the ballpark, and the concession stand was praised for performing well. With grant funding, new benches and tables have been installed, and future improvements were discussed.

The Town will only pay 10% for the new benches and picnic tables along the walking track. The council is also considering applying for a no-match recreational grant of up to $25,000 for further park upgrades, such as resurfacing the parking lot and enhancing accessibility in designated ADA-compliant spaces behind the concession area.

Preparations for the Aug. 26, 2025, Municipal Election are underway. Four poll workers have been secured, and an official election notice will be released in June. A special Alabama House District 11 Primary Election will also occur at the fire department on May 13.

Fairview Town Council talks new Jack's Family Restaurant, fire department improvements

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — Mayor Keith Henry commenced the monthly session of the Fairview Town Council on May 5, 2025. The meeting opened with an invocation led by Julie Grimes.

A major order of business included Henry discussing the $144,500 Community Development Block Grant recently awarded to the Town of Fairview for the sewer project intended to support the new Jack's Family Restaurant. In announcing the grant last week, Gov. Kay Ivey's office said the Town of Fairview contributed $58,160 to the project.

Henry stated, "I hope nobody was misled; the Town is not paying $58,000. The money is not coming from the Town's funds but from other grants." He continued by acknowledging other grants that have been obtained and applied for to complete the sewer project.

When asked about ground breaking on the project, Henry disclosed that the engineers of the project are still working out final details. "Jack's wants to be in the building by January 2026, so groundbreaking will be expected soon," he said.

At last month's council meeting, the Town of Fairview made a donation in memory of late fire chief, Alan Miner. Clint Hayes with the Fairview Volunteer Fire Department attended the May council session to thank the Town and display the equipment its donation helped provide.

The fire department was able to purchase two rescue saws and three backpack blowers.

Each fire engine is now equipped with a saw, which is used to cut through steel, concrete or any other material that could prevent life-saving measures. Likewise, each brush truck is now equipped with a blower that can be used to quickly and efficiently remove debris that acts as fuel to fires.

Hayes stated, "We appreciate you for being thoughtful enough to do that in memory of Alan. It was money well spent and a top-of-the-line product, so thank you."

In other business:

- Clint Hayes requested a parking lot extension of 30 feet for the fire department
- Discussion of patching holes in county roads
- Motion made to pay bills

The next Fairview Town Council meeting is scheduled for 6 p.m. on June 2, 2025, at Fairview Town Hall located at 7525 Alabama Highway 69.

with ham, chicken and even egg rolls."

Fortenberry and his son, Jacob, the father-son team behind Fortenberry Farms, continue to carry on Edith Fortenberry's legacy. Their homemade sauces and rubs are created with love, tradition and a commitment to quality. "We use as many locally sourced ingredients as possible," he explained. "It's important to us that our products are both high quality and reflective of our community."

Despite never having heard of National BBQ News Magazine before his invitation, Fortenberry was humbled to be recognized. "The editor mentioned several teams on the KSBS circuit winning perfect scores with our sauce. That's when I knew people were really taking notice of what we've built."

Fortenberry Farms products can be found locally at both of St. Bernard's beloved festivals — Bloomin' Festival and Bernard Blues and BBQ — as well as at specialty butcher shops in Tennessee and every other Sunday at Mid-City Market in Huntsville. Fortenberry Farms remains a shining example of Southern hospitality, tradition and flavor. What began as a mother's kitchen experiment has grown into a family legacy now celebrated on an international stage.

CULLMAN, Ala. — Cullman City Councilman Clint Hollingsworth announced at Monday's council meeting that he will not seek reelection to his seat, and that he will run for the District 12 seat in the Alabama House of Representatives being vacated by Rep. Corey Harbison, R-Good Hope. Hollingsworth will complete the current term. In attendance at the meeting, Paul Schaffer introduced himself to the council as a candidate for Hollingsworth's seat..

Following the announcement, Council President Jenny Folsom shared the City's quarterly financial report, noting that General Fund revenues have increased by 6.1% over this point last year, while expenses have dropped by 3.4%.

Sales taxes revenue is up by 9.7%, building permits have almost doubled and internet sales tax revenue is up 15.9%.

Revenues from beer/wine tax, court fines and tobacco tax all dropped. Cullman County's unemployment rate for the quarter was reported at 3.1%

The council also approved:

- A special event request from Katie Walker of the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce to hold the annual 2nd Friday events on June 13, July 11 and Aug. 6, 2025
- An ordinance to rezone the Coots property located on Marie Street Northwest from R-3 to R-4 Residential, allowing for the construction of duplexes
- An ordinance to annex the Blackwood property on County Road 499 as an R-1 Residential District

The Cullman City Council meets next on Monday, May 12, at 7 p.m. in the Cullman City Hall auditorium. The public is invited to attend.

mary family," said Lindsey.

"My time at West Point Elementary was a gift, and I'm so thankful for the relationships and growth we experienced together.

"I look forward to building new connections at Hanceville, where every child is valued, loved and allowed to shine."

Taylor is currently the assistant principal at Hanceville Elementary School and will be responsible for grades 3-5. He has 13 years of experience, with seven of those years in administration.

"I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to be the new principal of Hanceville Elementary," said Taylor.

"We look forward to continuing the traditions and culture we are working to improve at Hanceville Elementary."

Taylor will replace current Principal Stacie Olinger, who recently announced her retirement.

Rutherford has been selected to become the next principal of Fairview Elementary School. She is a lifelong resident of Cullman County and currently serves as assistant principal at Arab Elementary School.

She holds a Doctorate in Curriculum with a specialization in Literacy from the University of Alabama. She also holds a Master's in Educational Leadership and is a National Board Certified Educator.

"I'm so excited to join the team at Fairview Elementary School," said Rutherford. "Throughout my career, I've been dedicated to supporting students and helping teachers grow. I cannot wait to continue that work at Fairview. It's already clear to me that Fairview is a special place, and I'm truly looking forward to being part of this amazing school community."

Rutherford will replace current Principal Marty Hardman, who recently announced his retirement.

Pending board approval, Lindsey, Taylor and Rutherford will assume their new roles effective July 1, 2025.

Hudson (from Front)

Staff Reports
Contributor

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Etta Hudson was awarded the Tagged for Industry Involvement Scholarship at the Alabama Cattlemen's Foundation (ACF) Scholarship Banquet held Friday, May 2, in Montgomery.

Hudson is the daughter of Adam and Sabrina Hudson of Logan.

A graduate of West Point High School, Hudson attends Murray State University and is pursuing a degree in Animal Science.She was one of 160 students awarded $152,750 in scholarships by the ACF, which serves to engage in educational and scientific activities to improve the beef cattle industry in Alabama and educate youth on the importance of beef cattle in Alabama. The ACF provides the opportunity to make tax deductible donations for the educational work of the foundation and is largely funded by the sale of the "Cowboy Tag" vanity license plate.

Throughout the year, the ACF supports numerous organizations and events which help to educate and train future generations of the livestock industry. The ACF has awarded scholarship money each year to Alabama youth with more than $1.5 million being awarded to date.

CULLMAN, Ala. — Meet Ms. Willa Dean, a gorgeous Siberian Husky who is approximately 3-4 years old. She is The Cullman Tribune Pet of the Week.

This sweet lady is best described as having low to medium energy with a hidden talent.

Willa Dean's vocals include the soothing and heartwarming, "Arooo," a personal favorite tune she sings often.

She has understanding of leash etiquette and, while unassuming, she is alert. Her favorite time is the time she spends with you.

Her caregiver said, "She reminds me of a ballerina, effortlessly floating across the yard. This sweet soul makes me happy. I just love her!"

She will stay close by during your journey, exploring the yard. This beautiful girl is the epitome of a companion/reading/therapy dog.

Her adoption fee is $130 and includes spay, vaccines, wormer, general exam at the vet and microchip.

Visit the shelter at 935 Convent Road NE. It's open Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

OP-ED

Upholding integrity in local governance

The need for accountability and broader perspectives

Noah Galilee
noah@cullmantribune.com

In recent times, Cullman County residents have witnessed a concerning trend among some elected officials: a shift in positions and policies that seem to align more with personal or political gain than with the commitments made to voters.

This phenomenon, often referred to as "flip-flopping," undermines public trust and raises questions about the true motivations behind such changes.

Elected officials take an oath to serve their constituents with integrity and transparency. When these promises are not upheld, it not only affects the immediate community, but also tarnishes the reputation of all public servants. The actions of a few can cast a long shadow over the many who strive to serve with honor.

Compounding this issue is the rise of local political blogs that, while providing a platform for community discussion, sometimes disseminate information that lacks verification and depth. These blogs often present a narrow view of complex issues, which can mislead readers and polarize opinions.

In contrast, reputable news outlets like The Cullman Tribune adhere to journalistic standards, offering well-researched and balanced reporting that helps the public make informed decisions.

It's essential for residents to seek information from multiple credible sources. Engaging with a variety of perspectives allows for a more comprehensive understanding of local issues and the actions of elected officials. By doing so, the community can hold leaders accountable and ensure that decisions are made in the best interest of all.

While political dynamics will always be subject to change, the core values of integrity, transparency and accountability should remain steadfast.

As residents, it's our responsibility to demand these qualities from our leaders and to seek out information that reflects the full spectrum of perspectives. Only then can we ensure that our local government truly serves the people.

Obituary Announcements: May 6-7

Norma Elise Lampitt, 93
Funeral services for Norma Lampitt of Hanceville, Alabama will be 1 p.m. Saturday, May 10, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hanceville. Pastor John Jankens will be officiating services. The burial will follow at Trinity Lutheran Cemetery. The family will welcome friends for visitation on Saturday at the Trinity Lutheran Church from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. Norma was born on Feb. 3, 1932, in New York, New York to the late Austin Richard & Elisabeth Basse York. She died peacefully in her sleep on May 3, 2025, at the age of 93, leaving behind a legacy rooted in faith, compassion, and quiet joy. Norma lived her life grounded in her deep faith in Christ. She shared that faith not with loud proclamations, but with consistent acts of kindness, generosity, and heartfelt conversations that helped others find their own path to God. Her life was a gentle witness to the grace she believed in so deeply. Professionally, Norma found great purpose in her work as an executive administrative assistant. Over the years and across many roles, she was known for her calm demeanor, sharp attention to detail, and the warmth she brought to every office she graced. Her coworkers respected her not only for her competence but for the kindness that came naturally to her. Family was central to Norma's heart. She took great pride in her deep family roots, cherishing the traditions, stories, and connections that shaped her identity. Her legacy of love and loyalty lives on in all who were fortunate enough to call her family. Norma was also an avid reader, and her love for books was legendary. Her collection was vast—enough to fill a small library—and her favorite genre was mystery, with the Nancy Drew series holding a special place in her heart. She carved out time for reading whenever she could, often retreating to her car during lunch breaks to dive into a story, savoring those moments of peace and imagination. Even during her years living in the Bronx, Norma's love of reading never paused. She became so attuned to the rhythm of the subway rides that she didn't need to look up to know when her stop arrived—she could tell simply by how far along she was in her book. It was a small, perfect example of how books weren't just a pastime, but part of her way of life. She will be remembered for her faith-filled heart, her intellectual curiosity, and the quiet strength with which she moved through the world. She leaves behind a legacy of grace, wisdom, and love that will continue to guide and inspire those who knew her. Survivors include her children, Karen Lampitt-Rayburn, Richard Lampitt (Linh), Kristina Lampitt-Miller, Michael Howard; grandchildren, Justin Carl Mattson (Rebekah), Jason Fredrick Mattson (Natalie), Kaylee Michelle Lynch (Frank), Cassidy Mattson Randleas (Ely), Desire Renee Lampitt, Carl Khanh Lampitt, Sarah Linh Lampitt, Luke Austin Lampitt, David Alex Miller, Mary Elise Standifer; great grandchildren, Jonah Mattson, Ethan Randleas, Cooper Randleas, Frankie Lynch, Easton Lynch, Graham Lynch, John Rhys Lynch, Sophie Mattson, Evie Mattson, Calvin Mattson, Audrey Mattson; nieces, Tami Vandermark, Donna Winterberger, and Robin Daniels. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Lampitt was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Carl Ronald Lampitt; daughter, Susan Lampitt-Livingston; grandson, Herbert John "JR" Mattson II; and her sister, Martha Grace Dropp. Hanceville Funeral Home is honored to serve the Lampitt family.

Alan Lewis White, 78
A memorial service for Alan Lewis White, 78, of Cullman will be held Saturday, May 10, 2025, from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. at Cullman Funeral Home Chapel. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. before the service. Cullman Funeral Home is honored to serve the family. Mr. White was born on April 13, 1947, to parents, Archie Lewis and Mildred Caldwell White. Mr. White loved the Lord and enjoyed sharing his faith. He loved to sit on his front porch, but traveling was his main interest, especially in his RV. A proud U.S. Navy veteran, Mr. White served 2 tours in Vietnam and was awarded 2 bronze stars. Mr. White was preceded in death by his wife, Connie White; father, Archie White; sister, Marjie Burns; daughter, Cathy Hill. Survivors include his mother, Mildred White; sons, Greg White, David (Shanida) Gunter, John (Dana) Gunter; daughters, Diane White, Amy (Lane) Pair; sister, Charlene (Jimmy) Harris; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and nephews; special friend, Anna Ford; and a host of family and friends. Friends may sign the online guestbook at www.cullmanfuneralhome.com.

Larry Doyle Garner, 84
Larry Doyle Garner, 84, of Cullman passed into Glory on May 6, 2025. Funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 8, 2025, at Fairview Methodist Church with interment in the adjoining cemetery, Pastor Bruce Grimmett officiating. The body will lie in state at the church Thursday prior to the funeral from 10 a.m. - 11 a.m. Visitation will be Wednesday evening at Cullman Funeral Home from 5:30 p.m. - 8 p.m. Cullman Funeral Home is honored to serve the family. He was born March 9, 1941, to M.E. and Lula Pearson Garner. He is a graduate of Fairview High School. Larry served his country in Vietnam and received a Purple Heart. Larry was preceded in death by his wife of 59 years Shirley Monk Garner, his parents, sisters – Jewel (Floyd) Smith, Louise (Harold) Hunter, Irene (Adrian) Golden, Inez (Junior) Goodlett. He is survived by his brother Hubert Garner and sisters Marie Kelly and Irma (Duel) Stapler, his sons - Keith(Anita) Garner and Barry (Michelle) Garner, Grandchildren – Heath (Selitia) Garner, Rhianna (Derek) Youmans, Brett (Mckenzie) Garner, Dylan (Alyssa) Garner, and Levi(Molly) Garner, Great Grandchildren - Reece, Kirra, Ashlyn, Lakelyn, Oaklee, and Davis along with many nieces, nephews and friends.
