The Aspen Institute names Wallace State semifinalist for $1M Aspen Prize

Special to The Cullman Tribune

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — The Aspen Institute on Wednesday, April 29, named Wallace State Community College one of 25 semifinalists for the 2027 Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence. Rooted in deep research and backed by $1 million in award money, the Aspen Prize is the nation's signature recognition of community colleges that deliver value for their students.

"We are excited to once again be selected as a semifinalist for the Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence," said Wallace State President Dr. Vicki Karolewics. "Our work remains focused on student success — helping students earn a living wage, secure meaningful employment and progress along clear pathways toward a bachelor's degree and long-term opportunity."

Wallace State was previously recognized by the Aspen Institute when it was named a Rising Star for the 2025 Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence.

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — Fairview High School Robotics competed for the second consecutive year in the Northern Gulf Coast Regional MATE ROV Competition. The Dauphin Island Sea Lab's Discovery Hall Programs hosted the 13th annual Northern Gulf Coast Regional MATE ROV Competition April 24-26. All three teams from Fairview placed in the competition.

Eighteen teams from four states competed with their custom-built remotely operated vehicles (ROVs). The competition is part of the Marine Advanced Technology Education (MATE) network, which includes 40 regional competitions held across the U.S. and worldwide.

Each year, MATE creates a scenario to inspire and challenge the students to apply science, technology, engineering and math to solve real-world problems. Focusing on education, the competition emphasizes strengthening students' critical thinking, teamwork, entrepreneurship and innovation skills.

For the 2026 competition, teams competed in mission tasks focusing on the ability of wind turbines to power offshore oil rigs, mapping the seabed and documenting discoveries, deploying instrumentation and monitoring the health of cold-water habitats and operating equipment under the ice.

"It's impressive each year to see how these teams develop their robots with the missions created by MATE for the competition," DISL ROV Competition Coordinator Rachel McDonald said. "This includes using materials that are safe for the environment."

There are three class levels – Scout, Navigator and Ranger – within the MATE competition framework for elementary, middle and high school students. In each class, the missions and ROVs become more complex. The teams' engineering presentations address the design of their robot, the challenges they faced and the lessons learned.

Fairview High School Robotics Coach Beth Lockhart said Fairview remains the only school from Cullman County represented at the event, competing alongside teams from Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama and Florida.

"This year, the team advanced to a more challenging and competitive division, achieving outstanding results, earning both second- and third-place honors in the Navigator Class," Lockhart said.

"They also placed second in the Scout Class. All three teams placed in their respective classes. Looking ahead, the team is setting its sights on advancing to the highest level of competi- » PAGE 4

Wallace State Nursing hosts Innovations in Simulations workshop

Special to The Cullman Tribune

HANCEVILLE, Ala. – More than 100 educators and healthcare professionals gathered at Wallace State Community College last week for the Department of Nursing Education's annual workshop, which this year focused on artificial intelligence in simulation-based learning.

The workshop, Innovations in Healthcare Simulations, provided attendees with opportunities to learn how artificial intelligence, or AI, can be integrated into the training of future health care professionals.

Two main sessions addressed incorporating technology and AI into simulation programs and debriefing with good judgment. The sessions were led by Dr. Will Brewer, director of simulation at the University of North Alabama, and Kelly Dailey, a simulation educator at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Breakout sessions covered a range of topics, including psychological safety in simulation and innovations in 3D printing.

During a panel discussion, Brewer said removing bias and improving time management are among the advantages of using AI in simulation.

"Everyone has bias, you have bias just because you're human," he said. "But we need to be as free of bias as we can in our sims and that's one thing that I've seen a lot."

Brewer also said artificial intelligence can help instructors better facilitate simulations. With earlier manikins, he said instructors had to serve as the voice of the manikin during simulations.

"Now, AI is being the voice of the manikin and that frees of a person to do something else," he said.

Dr. Michelle Brown, director of the Healthcare Simulation School of Health Professionals at UAB, said AI is especially useful in the design, delivery and evaluation of simulations, as well as debriefing.

"But we don't need to use AI so much without the human intervention," Brown said.

Nursing instructors Shelly Dyal, Hannah Sasser and Alecia McGregor of Lurleen B. Wallace Community College attended the workshop. Two years ago, Dyal and Sasser attended a similar workshop at Wallace State and said the experience inspired them to pursue doctorates in nursing with a focus on simulation.

"This conference means a lot to us because it's advanced our careers, and every year it just gets better and better," Dyal said. "We love the speakers and our wheels just start turning the moment we sit down and start listening. We hope to one day elevate our own program and have a certified sims center as well."

Sasser said simulations help ensure consistent learning outcomes for students.

"It guarantees standardized objectives are met and in our rural community that we live in, they don't always get that in clinical practices," she said.

Wallace State's Department of Nursing Education is accepting applications for Fall 2026 admission through May 15. For more information, visit wallacestate.edu/nursing or send an email to nursingapplicant@wallacestate.edu or call 256-352-8199.

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — Cullman County Schools Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette is recommending Trett Hardman as the next principal of Fairview High School. A Fairview native and graduate, Hardman currently serves as principal of the Cullman County Child Development Center. Hardman will replace outgoing Principal Dr. Brad Stapler, who is leaving for a position with Guntersville City Schools.

"Trett has been an outstanding leader at the CDC, and we are excited about the positive impact he will bring to Fairview," said Barnette. "Fairview has benefited from strong leadership, with its principals moving on to larger roles in education. I am confident Trett is the long-term answer to continue the Fairview tradition of success. With prior administrative experience at the high school level and a deep connection to the Fairview community, he is well positioned to lead and serve in a place he proudly calls home."

Hardman is a 2010 graduate of Fairview High. He went on to letter in collegiate football at Samford University. Following graduation, he returned to Cullman County, where he worked as a special education teacher at Fairview High. He also coached multiple sports and served as athletic director.

After a year in the district's special education office, Hardman entered administration as an assistant principal at West Point High. He has served as principal of the Child Development Center for the past three years.

Hardman holds an Educational Specialist degree in Instructional Leadership from Auburn University at Montgomery, a master's degree in secondary education from the University of West Alabama and a bachelor's degree from Samford University.

"I am beyond grateful for the opportunity to serve the Fairview community as principal of Fairview High School," said Hardman. "Fairview is a community with a rich tradition, and I am thankful to give back to a community that has poured into me throughout my life. The last three years at the Child Development Center have been amazing, and I will forever cherish the relationships I've built with staff, students, families and stakeholders. Go Aggies!"

Barnette's recommendation to hire Hardman will be presented to the Cullman County Board of Education at its next meeting, scheduled for May 18, 2026. Pending board approval, he will officially begin at Fairview on July 1.

Cullman boys hold off Randolph in penalty kick shootout, win 3-2 to move on to third round of state playoffs

sammy@cullmantribune.com

CULLMAN, Ala. — After knocking off Ft. Payne at home to start out the Class 6A 2026 state soccer playoffs, the Cullman Bearcats looked to carry that momentum into their second-round game at home against Randolph. Neither team was able to hit a goal in not only regulation, but in overtime as well, and the game would be decided in a five-player penalty kick shootout. The Bearcats wound up winning the shootout over the Raiders, 3-2, to move on to the third round.

It was a very physical game from the start, as neither team was willing to give an inch in an attempt to win the game. Randolph looked to have scored their first goal of the game with less than 14 minutes to go in the first half, but a penalty negated that goal. Both goalkeepers came up with some great saves to keep the game scoreless at the break. The physicality didn't slow down one bit when the second half got underway, as both teams gave it their all on both sides of the field. Just like in the first half, the Raiders looked to have put in the first goal of the game, but another penalty took that goal away from them as well. Both goalkeepers continued to play great in front of the net. A penalty on Cullman gave Randolph a chance to win the game with 20 seconds left, but great defense by the Bearcats sent the game into overtime.

Neither team was able to crack the scoreboard in both five-minute overtime periods, so the game would be decided in a five-player penalty kick shootout. Senior goalkeeper Levi Hokanson stopped the first shot from going into the net. Another senior, Carlos Medina, put in the first goal of the game for Cullman. Randolph nailed their next two shots, but junior Reed Flores and sophomore Blayce Fisher knocked down their shots as well to give the Bearcats a 3-2 lead. Both teams missed their fourth shot of the shootout, and what Cullman needed to see happen is the Raiders missing their final shot of the shootout. They got their wish, as the shot sailed over the net, and the Bearcats ended up holding off Randolph, 3-2, to move on to the next round.

Cullman head coach Will Drake was so incredibly proud of his team for picking up a big win at home against a really good Randolph squad.

"I want to credit one of our own coaches, coach Trent Dean, who earlier in the week, said that a setback is a time for a comeback. That's what I told the guys right before the extra time, that we're going to make this place a fortress. We know how to defend. We've been practicing that all year. That's the hard stuff. That's the stuff that makes you want to get the extra water at practice, want to make you go take a break. These guys put all that effort in all year. They brought it out onto the field tonight. This was the time to use it, and good grief, it was a fortress here in Cullman tonight, including the calvary back there, all the trucks. Our student section was phenomenal, and it helps to have that huge rush of adrenaline behind you," Drake said.

Coach Drake was so happy to see Hokanson had a big game in front of the net, and he credits all of the goalkeepers for putting in the hard work during the regular season and the playoffs.

"All of our keepers together have been working really, really hard to train each other, so that's a credit to all of them. Levi is the one that gets to step up and make the big saves, and when you go and make that save initially on a penalty shootout, that puts enormous pressure on the other team. I couldn't be prouder of his work ethic, couldn't be prouder of him making his senior year a great one so far, but we've got more work to do," Drake said.

Seeing his team make it past the first round for the first time in several years last week made Drake one happy coach, and he wants to continue the legacy that was built before he came in as coach. Getting this chance to coach some special players makes him super blessed to be doing this for a living.

"It's always been part of the legacy of Cullman High School, going back to our 2002 state champions with their coaches. They were expected to win playoff games, and with coach Harbin, they were expected to win, and with coach Drake in between them, they were expected to win, and now, we're bringing that back to Cullman High School. It feels unbelivable, and again, for me, it's doing justice for the legacy of the coaches before, putting those expectations on the program. We're fulfilling them," he said. "This team has been one of my most fun years that I've had, mainly because these kids are willing to show up, and they have a positive attitude about the difficult things. It's a special group to clench the teeth and to bite into the knife a little bit, and to be able to defend your house like this on a night that it could've gone the other way."

Cullman has played some great teams so far in the postseason, and the road will only get tougher for them from here on out.

"We're seeing great teams. Randolph was a fantastic team. As we progress, we're going to continue to see fantastic teams. We're going to continue to do the things that we've done that has gotten us here as far as preparation. We look at, What does the other team bring? How can we adapt?, and How can we take things to them to make them adapt?, and of course, put in the hard work at that time."

The Bearcats will take on Gadsden City in the third round of the Class 6A state soccer playoffs on Saturday night at 7:30 p.m.

Fairview's Zayden Cruce signs scholarship offer to attend Huntingdon College

Lucas Gray
lucas@cullmantribune.com

FAIRVIEW, Ala. — At Fairview High School this morning, Zayden Cruce signed his scholarship offer to play football at Huntingdon College in Montgomery.

After a breakout junior season in 2024, a leg injury threatened not only his senior season but his career. Cruce fought back, however, playing in the final four games of the Aggies' 12-1 2025 season.

"'Z' fought his way back to the Good Hope game, the Arab game and the Jacksonville game, but I can't help but get chill bumps when I watch the Scottsboro game. 'Z' gets the interception in the second quarter to take away a big drive, and he also goes on to make a big catch right at the end of the game to get us into field goal range just as time expired," his former head coach George Redding said. Redding then recalled "There was a day towards the end of the football season that I won't forget. I remember asking Zayden 'what are you going to do next?' and I remember him smiling as he always does and saying 'I don't know, I just don't think I'm done yet.'"

He'll go on to join a Hawks team that had the second-ranked offense in the USA South Conference in 2025. Despite holding offers from a handful of other schools, Cruce cited the proximity to home and a family member that attended the school as reasons for choosing Huntingdon.

"I'm taking this community, this family, with me. There wasn't a time where I came in and didn't feel welcome. Even at school, we're just a big family. I love it. The support was crazy, especially when I got injured, but I knew they were gonna be there for me," Cruce said on what he'll take from his time as an Aggie.

tion, the Ranger Class, in the coming year."

Lockhart said to support this goal, the program is seeking corporate sponsors — not only for financial assistance, but also for mentorship opportunities.

"Professionals with experience in engineering and robotics are especially encouraged to partner with and guide these students as they continue to develop their skills," Lockhart said.

"The Fairview Robotics program emphasizes more than competition.

"The technical knowledge and employability skills students gain through hands-on STEM experiences prepare them for success well beyond high school, equipping them to thrive in an increasingly technology-driven workforce."

The mentors for the team are Elizabeth Lockhart, Ramona Calhoun, Jonathon Steadman and Suzanne Shell.

Aspen Prize (from Front)

nearly 1,000 institutions nationwide based on their outcomes data and collegewide practices aligned to achieving high and improving levels of student success. Aspen defines student success as achievement in learning and completion of a college credential, and by post-college success in the form of a good job or successful transfer and bachelor's degree attainment.

"We start every cycle of the Aspen Prize with a simple question: Which community colleges are best at not just helping students graduate, but ensuring that what they learn and the credentials they earn actually help them meet their goals and have a better life?" said Josh Wyner, executive director of the Aspen Institute College Excellence Program.

"In over 15 years of awarding the Aspen Prize, we have learned a lot about how top colleges ensure that more students obtain credentials that lead directly to good jobs or successful attainment of a bachelor's degree through transfer. We congratulate the semifinalists for their strong and improving student outcomes and for prioritizing improvements in student success both during and after college."

The Aspen Prize is awarded every two years and recognizes excellence across a wide range of institutions, from Florida's large, multicampus Valencia College in 2011 to rural Southwest Wisconsin Technical College in 2025. With each cycle, Aspen deepens its understanding of what value looks like. The top colleges — no matter their size or location — ensure students complete programs with strong regional labor market value and clear transfer pathways that lead to bachelor's degrees.

Tree Commission approves tree purchase, highlights Arbor Day success

Leanne H. West
City of Cullman

CULLMAN, Ala. — The Cullman Tree Commission met April 21 at Cullman City Hall. City Arborist Shane Bivins reported business as usual and responded to several inquiries about tree clearing and other work currently taking place at city parks.

The only new business on the agenda was a vote to approve an invoice to Cullman Parks, Recreation & Sports Tourism (CPRST) for two Chinese Pistache trees that were recently planted at the request of the Commission. The invoice, in the amount of $71.92, will be submitted to the city for payment from special Tree Commission and arborist funds.

Chairman Barry Slatton said he felt this year's Arbor Day Celebration and Tree City USA dedication ceremony in February was the best one yet. He noted that the event was well organized and that parents seemed to especially like having the winning student Arbor Day Poster Contest posters displayed at the Cullman Wellness & Aquatic Center, which was a first this year.

The commission also reported a successful Arbor Day tree sale in February. More than 50 seedlings were potted at the Tree Commission's potting station, which helps improve their chances of survival and their likelihood of making it into the ground.

Additional discussion was held, and there were no guests present to speak.

The Cullman Tree Commission serves in an advisory role to the city and works to promote the planting, care and preservation of trees throughout the community. The group also helps support Cullman's Tree City USA designation and leads efforts like Arbor Day events, tree sales and other community programs.

The Tree Commission normally meets on the third Tuesday of every even-numbered month at 10 a.m. at Cullman City Hall. All meetings are open to the public. The next meeting is scheduled for June 16.

New partnership to add advanced cardiovascular care at Cullman Regional

Staff Reports

CULLMAN, Ala. — Baptist Health's Cardiovascular Associates, Cullman Regional and Cullman Regional Medical Group have partnered to expand advanced cardiology care in Cullman.

Well known for providing high-quality cardiovascular services in north Alabama, Cardiovascular Associates (CVA) providers moved their Cullman practice to the new Heart & Vascular Clinic on Cullman Regional campus. With years of experience in specialized areas of cardiology including electrophysiology and vascular disease treatment, the CVA team will expand Cullman Regional's cardiac capabilities giving patients local access to advanced cardiology care.

"As Cullman continues to grow, it's important that the hospital expands the services we offer," said Cullman Regional Chief Medical Officer Dr. Bill Smith. "Partnering with Baptist Health's Cardiovascular Associates to open the Heart & Vascular Clinic aligns Cullman Regional with the premier cardiovascular program in our area."

Currently, only some of the advanced interventions and treatments offered by CVA providers are available at Cullman Regional. As the new clinic gets established, the hospital and CVA physicians will work to add new capabilities to provide a higher level of cardiovascular and peripheral vascular care in Cullman.

"We are thrilled to partner with Cullman Regional to expand access to specialized physicians and services that patients would otherwise have to travel hours to receive. Through ongoing conversations, it became clear that our vision and values are closely aligned — centered on delivering high-quality, patient-focused care close to home," said Kevin McIntyre, Baptist Health Cardiovascular Associates senior director of physician practices. "This collaboration represents an important step in ensuring that more individuals can receive the advanced care they need within their own community for years to come."

Heart & Vascular Clinic providers are Dr. Stephen Bakir, Dr. Bradley Cavender, Dr. Chad Colon, Dr. John Eagan, Kathy Sentell PA-C, RPHS and Michele Watkins CRNP.

The Heart & Vascular Clinic opened Monday, April 27. Patients can call 256-962-5380 to make an appointment. For more information, visit www.cullmanregional-medicalgroup.com.

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — Hanceville Elementary and Hanceville Middle School on Wednesday, April 29, hosted a special event commemorating America's Semiquincentennial – the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The theme was "What does America mean to me?"

The program, held in the high school gymnasium, featured special guest speakers including Rep. Heath Allbright, R-Holly Pond; Rep. Cindy Myrex, R-Cullman; Cullman County Sheriff's Office Lt. Chad Whaley, Cullman County Schools Superintendent Dr. Shane Barnette and Hanceville City Councilwoman Jana Shelton.

It also showcased performances by the middle school's fifth-grade music class and the Pride of Hanceville Band.

The celebration marked the recognition of both schools as official Semiquincentennial Schools.

Students, faculty, staff and community members gathered for the celebration, which also saw tribute paid to veterans in attendance. Special seating was given to veterans and active-duty service members, and during a performance by Hanceville Middle School fifth-graders, they were prompted to stand for applause.

Speakers encouraged students. At one point, Whaley quoted Spider-Man's Uncle Ben, saying, "With great power comes great responsibility."

He urged students to understand that they sculpt their future as well as the future of America.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE MONTH SPOTLIGHT

Finding a future in welding at Wallace State

Special to The Cullman Tribune

HANCEVILLE, Ala. — When Robert Henry Cook III began searching for the right place to launch his career, Wallace State Community College stood out for one clear reason: its reputation for excellence in welding.

"I chose Wallace State because it has great welding program," Cook said. It was also close to home, he said.

From 2021 to 2023, Cook immersed himself in the Welding Technology program, gaining the hands-on skills and technical knowledge that would quickly set him on a successful path. By the time he graduated, he had proven his instincts right.

"Wallace State prepared me for my career by teaching me everything I needed to know about welding," Cook said. "I was able to graduate and immediately get a job, making great money and traveling around seeing the USA."

Cook credits both the college and the people behind the program for his success.

"I made many friends while at Wallace State that I still have today," Cook said. "My instructor, Randy Hammond, is still a mentor to me and a great instructor. I can stop by anytime and he will make time for me, just like he does for any of his former students."

One of the most meaningful aspects of Cook's time at Wallace State was the relationships he built — connections that continue to shape his career today.

Those relationships extended beyond the classroom. Through its strong industry partnerships, Wallace State connected Cook with welding employers across the region, giving him valuable networking opportunities and a direct pipeline to the workforce.

That preparation paid off immediately. today, Cook works as a travel welder for Duke Industrial, taking on projects across the country.

"I'm making great money and traveling around the USA," he said.

As Community College Month shines a light on the impact of two-year colleges nationwide, Cook's story reflects the powerful role Wallace State plays in building careers, strengthening communities and opening doors to opportunity.

WALLACE STATE

Robert Henry Cook III

"I highly recommend Wallace State if you are thinking about a trade," Cook said.

For Cook, choosing Wallace State was more than a decision — it was the start of a career built on skill, mentorship and limitless potential.

This is one in a series of stories celebrating Wallace State Community College alumni during Community College Month in April.
